

INDEXES

Numbers in Roman type provide references for persons and places mentioned in the documents, including the Leake copies (Appendix I) and the summaries in the royal confirmation (Royal Conf.) in 1316 (Appendix II). Italics are used when personal or place-names are otherwise mentioned. Persons and places in the Introduction are noted with the relevant page number (e.g. 'Intro. 6').

All persons are listed by first name. Some entries may conceal separate identities; likewise some entries may refer to the same person or place. 'De' (as in 'Nigel de Stokes', for example) has always been replaced in the Indexes by 'of'. Place-names are given in their modern form wherever possible.

D = historic county of Derbyshire; L = Leicestershire; N = Nottinghamshire; SH = ancient parish of Sheffield; SY = South Yorkshire; fd. = found.
