

Contents

List of Tables, Graphs, and Maps	page ix
Glossary	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Prologue	xv
Introduction	I
Part I. Moorings of the Hanseatic Network
1 Prudent Pioneers: Hanseats in Transatlantic Trade, 1798–1860	21
2 The Hanseatic Household: Families, Firms, and Faith, 1815–1864	50
3 Cosmopolitan Conservatives: Hometown Traditions and Western Ideas in Bremish Politics, 1806–1860	82
Part II. Exchanges in a Transnational World
4 Free Labor and Dependent Labor: From Patronage to Wage Labor and Social Control, 1810–1861	111
5 International Improvement: Hanseats, Hamiltonians, and Jacksonians, 1845–1860	131
6 Nations, Races, and Empires: Hanseats Encounter the Other, 1837–1859	159
Part III. Decline of a Cosmopolitan Community
7 The End of Merchant Capital: Crisis and Adaptation in a World of Industrial Capitalism, 1857–1890	197
8 Decisions and Divisions: Hanseatic Responses to Nation-Making Wars, 1859–1867	221

viii	Contents
9	Patriarchs into Patriots: Hanseats in a World of Nation-States, 1867–1945	250
	Conclusion	263
	Sources	273
	Bibliography	277
	Index	291