

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

- Abecedarian program, 158 abortion legalization of, 39 moral claim to abort, origin of, 249 opposition to, 20
 rates, declines in, 21 right of access to, Roe v. Wade, 13
 Adams, John and Abigail, letters of, 109 adoption, second-parent, 229
 Adoption and Children Act 2002, 81 adultery, in New York State, 101 advertising problem, regarding marriage, 137
 AFDC (Assistance to Families with Dependent Children), 122
 Africa, European colonization of, 37
 African Americans
 failure to form respectable families, 95 high school dropouts, 10 lesbian couples with children, 298 link between marriage and childbearing, 22 marriage rate of, 312
 Moynihan's analysis of black family, 203 right to marry in immediate postbellum period, 97 age of majority changing, 13 of marriage increasing, 10 agenda, of marriage, 90 alimony, 173, 174–178, 179 decreasing importance of, 300
 American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission, 90
 American Law Institute (ALI)
 2002 report, 293
 on absence of formal marriage, 306
 Principles of the Law of Family Dissolution, 244 antenuptial agreements, permissible scope of, 243 anti-Catholic sentiment, increase in cohabitation rates and, 312 Assistance to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 122 asthma rates, among children living with single mothers, 149 attitudes, about what law should be autonomy, 267, 270, 272 baby boom, 12 bandwagon effect, 313
 Banks, Richard, 312
 Bayesian Information Criterion (BIC), 114
 Becker, Gary, 57
 Bernard, Jessie, 54 best interest of the child, role of, 263
Beyond (Straight and Gay) Marriage (Polikoff), 213
Beyond Conjugality (2001), 219
 "Beyond Same-Sex Marriage: A New Strategic Vision for All Our Families and Relationships," 217, 219
 Bibb, Henry, 89
 bigamy, crime in every state, 97 biological father, 229 biological time clock, 145 births outside marriage, percentage of US, 143 bisexual and transgender rights advocates, debates about marriage, 228
 Bishop, Bill, 19
 Blankenhorn, David, 205 blended families, 154 blue approach, 20
 blue collar manufacturing jobs, moved overseas, 15

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

328

Index

- “blue” states vs. “red” states distinction, 20, 24
 - abortion rates of, 21
 - elections, 43
 - middle class strategy, 11
- Bowers v. Hardwick*, 93, 236
- breadwinner/homemaker marriage, 17, 287
- breastfeeding, 158, 159
- British Columbia in Canada, anti-polygamy laws, 46
- Brown, Murphy, 204, 206
- Brown v. Board of Education*, 232
- Browning, Don, 205
- Burger, Warren, Chief Justice, 93
- Burgess, Ernest, 108, 289
- Bush, Laura, 227
- Bush administration, 2, 318
- California Proposition 8, 94
- California Supreme Court, on civil unions, 230
- Canada
 - Anglophone Canadians, living in Quebec, 313
 - Canadian Parliament, same standards applying to married and “common-law” partners, 2
 - car rental companies, providing breaks to married renters, 229
- Catholic Church, in Quebec, 313
- child of divorce, 215
- child support
 - considering with alimony, 173
 - determining, 178–186
 - enforcement by state of, 159, 163
 - from fathers with low and irregular earnings, 160
 - Federal law, requiring all states to establish numerical guidelines, 179
 - permitting child to share in better living standard of the father, 183
- Child Support Act 1991, 76
- child support amount, 181, 184
 - benefitting the custodial parent, 179, 185
 - guaranteeing minimum, 160
 - in “one night” or no-relationship cases, 184
 - for two bookend cases, 184
- child support assurance, 158, 159
- child wellbeing, 149
- “Childcare and Parental Employment in Fragile Families” project, 166
- child-custody disputes, courts resolving, 252
- children
 - adding costs to divorce, 58
 - advantages of marriage to, 307
 - cognitive development, 78
 - custody disputes, 243, 252
 - direct investments in, 156–158
 - divorce, 58, 215
 - healthy development of, 313
 - investment in, 155
 - majority of U.K. born into two-parent households, 75
 - not central to individualistic marriages, 112
 - with a parent in state or federal prison, 162
 - rights of, 35
 - sharing in the living standard of higher-income obligor, 180
 - in single-parent families, 24, 303
 - in two-parent families, 23
 - unstable relationships associated with a variety of risks, 305
 - well-being of, 149, 297
- Children Act 1989, extension or rights to unmarried fathers in, 76
- China, 37
 - and Chinese families, 35–36, 37
 - one-child policy, 36
- Christian monogamous marriage, strengthened by struggle over polygamy, 297
- church wedding, 295
- civil alternatives to marriage, in Israeli secular law, 278
- civil law, hostility towards cohabitation, 268
- civil marriage. See also legal marriage
 - abolishment and disestablishment of, 296, 297
 - as a public celebration, 295
- Civil Partnership Act (2004), 81, 82
- civil partnerships and unions, 82, 217–221, 230–232, 293
- civil recognition, 276
- civil solidarity pact (PACS), 230, 293
- Civil Union Review Commission, in New Jersey, 231
- civil unions, 217–221, 230–232
 - enactment of law, 294
 - preference over marriage, 99
 - “stigma of exclusion,” 296
- class divide
 - in attitudes toward marriage, 18
 - in family formation, 24
 - in marriage and family life, 2, 290, 311
- class lines, remaking of society along, 25
- Clinton, William, 206, 215
- cluster analysis
 - creating a typology of institutional, companion, and individualistic marriages, 112
 - described, 114–115
 - grouping marriages, 107
 - more straightforward than LCA, 114
 - producing three distinct groups of marriages, 119
- cohabitation, 78, 278, 306
 - acceptance growing for, 287, 290

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More informationIndex

329

- accepted in Scandinavia, 307
- almost universal in England and Wales, 74
- asset sharing, 79
- consequences of, 78
- countries providing minimal protection for, 78
- division of labor, 57, 60
- in England and Wales prior to the 1970s, 74, 77, 78
- expressing commitment toward or support for
 - partners, 307
- family law and, 171, 268–270, 292–294
- greater instability associated with, 67, 305
- in Israel, 278
- legal planning involved, 171
- less stable than marriage, 79, 305
- long-term, marriage-like relationships, 317
- proposed assumption of marriage-like financial
 - obligations, 317
- rates increasing, 128, 307, 316
- in Scandinavia, 307
- types of, 306
- in the United States, 170, 291, 298
- college graduates
 - changing marriage patterns reflecting blue strategy, 11
 - divorce rates, 10, 16
 - finding new employment more quickly, 15
 - as parents, 10
- Commission on European Family Law, 73
- common law marriages, 39, 77, 171, 306
 - decline, 316
- communal and exchange relationships,
 - theoretical work on, 121
- Communist party, adopting developmental
 - idealism in China, 36
- community and family well-being, interrelated, 26
- community organizations, decline in, 25
- companionate marriages, 109, 123
 - comparatively high level of marital happiness and low divorce rates, 118, 120, 122
 - compared with other marriage types, 109, 123
 - held together by bonds of affection and mutual support, 111
 - involving a communal model, 121
 - less patriarchal than institutional marriages, 109
- rate of, 115, 116, 120, 289
- complex households, mothers negotiating with
 - several different fathers, 155
- condoms, media campaigns encouraging men to use, 164
- Connecticut, allowing same-sex couples to marry, 98
- consent, as a human right, 33
- “The Conservative Case for Gay Marriage,” 95
- Conservatives, 19, 178
 - attitudes toward move away from marriage, 18, 23
- contraband camps, 96
- contraception, 13, 38, 39
- Contract with America, 204
- Convention of the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), 34
- Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), 34
- corporations, as persons, 250
- courts, treating spouses’ economic relationships, 243
- covenant marriage, 243, 276–277
- coverture doctrine, 233
- cross-cultural research, on love, sex, and family, 216
- cultural clashes
 - within country, 42–43
 - created by spread of developmental idealism, 42
 - within individuals and within families, 42–46
 - international, 43–44
 - in United States, 42
- cultural conceptions, of cultural models, 30–31, 34
- cultural norms, conformity to, 93
- culture
 - American increasingly individualistic, 110
 - changing definition of human perfection, 245
 - culture war, 11
 - differences between men and women, 299
 - differences in, 150
 - culture of poverty, evidence for, 143
 - custody issues, as matters of the child’s interest, 252
- decision to marry, shaping one’s identity, 257
- decision-making equality, companionate
 - characteristic, 121
- Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), 206, 207, 229
- Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, reauthorizing TANF, 122
- deinstitutionalization, of marriage, 109, 256
- demographic trends, in marriage, divorce, and cohabitation, 74–75
- depression, 132, 133
- de-registration, simpler than divorce, 81
- de-regulation, of marriage, 262
- developing countries, adopting family planning programs, 38
- development, models of, 32–33
- developmental idealism
 - around the world, 35–37
 - clashes within, 45–46
 - conflicting with local cultural models, 43

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

330

Index

- developmental idealism (cont.)
 - continuing influence and tension, 47
 - endorsement by ordinary people, 41
 - future effects of, 46–49
 - impact on family life in the developing world, 3
 - influence on family and marriage, 34
 - introduction of, 34
 - mechanisms spreading internationally, 31
 - past effects of, 35–42
 - possible limitations on, 47–48
 - providing new goals and methods, 33
 - specifying universal rights, 33
- Devlin, Patrick, 93
- differentiated social roles, for husband and wife, 303
- direct investments, in children, 156–158
- disciplinary effects, of marriage, 99–101
- discipline, harsh, 148
- discourses, competing, 244
- diseases history, measures of, 132
- disestablishment, of civil marriage, 217, 296, 297
- disparities revealed by fragile families, 149–154
- division, of property, 190
- divisions, over marriage, 14–22
- divorce
 - American Revolution, easing of divorce laws following, 40
 - changes in, 16
 - costs of, 58
 - covenant marriage, limited grounds for in, 276
 - in England and Wales, 80
 - Jewish Orthodox, 275
 - law, 252
 - limited grounds for, 276
 - morality of, 251
 - predictors of, 117
 - Southern states, opposed to, 12
 - spousal collusion in, 319
 - spousal fault, evidence of, 80
 - technical requirements of, 100
 - trend towards easier and more frequent, 40
 - unilateral right established everywhere, 299
 - waiting period, requirement of, 277
 - widespread perception of “quickie,” 80
- divorce gene, 129
- divorce law, no-fault
 - exemplifying trend away from moral discourse, 243
 - in revolutionary France, 40
- divorce rate
 - declining, 14, 74
 - dramatic increase in, 40
 - in England and Wales, 74
 - increases in, 40
 - in individualistic marriage, 118
- judicial, adopted by New England colonists, 12
- leveling off, 16
- by marriage type, 119
- rising steeply, 74
- of well off and not so well off heading in opposite directions, 16
- Divorce Reform Act 1969, 74
- dizygotic (DZ) or fraternal twins, 130
- Dobson, James, 204
- domestic partners, in California, 95
- domestic partnership, 230
- domestic partnership law, 99, 294
- Domestic Partnerships chapter, in Principles of Family Dissolution, 268
- drug offenders, 162
- dual-earner model, 17
- Early Childhood Longitudinal Study – Birth Cohort 2000 (ECLS-B), 165
- Early Head Start, 165
- Eaton, John, 96
- economic change, effects of, 15–16
- economic disadvantage, fragile families both a consequence and cause of, 154
- economic discourse, talking about almost anything, 244
- economic factors, importance as an explanatory variable, 311
- economic inequality, dramatic increase in, 14
- economic model
 - of marriage, 57, 311
 - of marriage and divorce, 59
- economic relations, of parties in economic terms, 243
- economic status, of unmarried parents, 146
- economy, globalization and automation of American, 290
- education
 - and division of family responsibilities, 17
 - early childhood, 157
 - predictor of earnings and family stability
 - predictor of marriage, 18, 170
- educational attainment, predictor of earnings and family stability, 163
- Edwards, John, 213, 214, 216
- effect size comparisons, 132, 133, 134
- egalitarian attitudes, toward women, 42
- egalitarian institution, designing marriage as, 265
- egalitarian marriage model, proponents of, 59
- Egypt, ideas about proper family life, 42
- emancipation, right to marry one of most important ramifications, 90
- empirical evidence, shaping family policy, 3
- empirical studies, data from a series of, 172

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

331

- employers
 - insisting on marriage in jurisdictions where same-sex couples are eligible to marry, 87, 230
 - providing family health care coverage, 229
- employment statistics, men and women (2000–2010), 61
- England, marriage at the crossroads in, 73–84
- Enlightenment
 - principles of freedom, equality, and consent, 34
- trend towards easier divorce, 40
- Ensign, John, 216
- entry into marriage delayed, 128
- environmental experiences, correlated with genetic make-up, 129
- equal division, for equal earners in shared property study, 189
- equal earners variant, regarding property division, 187
- Equal Love campaign, 82
- equal marriage rights, 230
- Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), 204
- equal-division presumption, 186
- equality, as a human right, 33
- Equality Act (2010), 81
- equitable distribution
 - introduced in New York to produce awards more favorable to women, 252
 - of marital property, 186, 251
- Eskridge, William, 254
- Ettelbrick, Paula, 227
- Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, 142
- Europe
 - low fertility, 38
 - marriage-rate declines, 170
 - relatively greater stability of non-marital families in, 320
- European Court of Human Rights, 73, 82
- European Court of Justice, 73
- exchange relationships, spouses in, 121
- expectations, attached to marital status weaker today, 310
- expressive individualism, ethic of, 109
- externalizing behavior, 149, 154
- Falwell, Jerry, 204
- familial closeness, degree of before marriage, 234
- families
 - attributes and definition of, 32, 204, 299
 - clashes of culture within, 45
 - composition, 19
 - proportion based on marriage declining substantially, 303
 - reuniting after emancipation, 96
 - social functions of, 208, 263
 - three-parent, 211
- family and familial obligation, attitudes toward, 304
- family change, 16–18, 288
- family diversity
 - ideology and morality of, 77, 426
 - as normal, 202
 - obtaining broader recognition of, 235
- family dynamics, 292
- family form
 - formation norms, shift in, 306
 - relationship with political loyalty, 19
- family instability, consequences of, 152–154
- Family Justice Review, 80
- family law
 - assigned to the states, 12
 - change in, 299
 - response to increase in cohabiting unions, 292–294
 - revealing moral attitudes, 242
- Family Medical Leave Act, men's access to, 65
- family planning
 - federal funding of, 13
 - international movement, 37–39
- family relationships, strengthening, 161
- family scholars, describing types of marriage, 108
- family stability, range of benefits to children, 2
- family stress, changes in, 16
- family structure, 292
- family system, types of, 218
- family types, many satisfying needs of their adult and child members, 218
- family-law casebooks, 1890s compared 1950s, 287
- fatherhood programs, 122, 161
- Fatherless America* (Blankenhorn), 205
- fathers. See also biological father; unmarried fathers
 - arrearages (debts) during periods of unemployment, 160
 - harsh treatment of, 159
 - involvement at time of birth, 145
 - involvement declining when either the mother or father has a new partner, 154
 - prior children reducing quality and stability of mother-father relationship, 154
 - role of, 208
- fault allegations, exacerbating hostilities, 80
- fault-based divorce systems, 261
- Federal Freedmen's Bureau, 92
- federal government, campaign to promote marriage, 126

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

332

Index

- Federal law, numerical child support
 - “guidelines,” 179
- Federal Marriage Initiative, 207
- federal officials acting as guardians of moral
 - practices of black people, 91, 96
- federal statutes, number mentioning marriage, 294
- female circumcision (genital cutting), 44, 46
- The Feminine Mystique* (Friedan), 203
- feminist commitment, to gender justice, 220
- feminists, quest for intimate equality never
 - speaking to or for all women, 219
- Ferguson, Jane, 98
- fertility, 38
- fertility rates
 - Latino, 22
 - older populations, 38
- fetus, moral status of, 249, 250
- fidelity, 215–217
- finances, of married adults, 126
- financial inequality, respondents caring about, 194
- financial stress, increased effect of, 17
- Fleming, Patsy, 204
- Focus on the Family, 204
- footbinding, eliminating, 36
- fragile families. See also non-marital childbearing
 - capabilities of, 146–147
 - child wellbeing in, 149
 - defined, 142
 - disparities revealed by, 149–154
 - dissolution of, 147, 310
 - health insurance, 157
 - investing in parents in, 158–161
 - multi-partnered fertility, prevalence, 146
 - parental relationships in, 145–146
 - reducing prevalence of, 155
 - supporting, 158–161, 321
- “Fragile Families and Child Health” project, 166
- Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study*, 144, 165
 - births into, 292
 - children born to unmarried parents, 157
 - data from, 4, 146
 - described, 144
 - individualistic ethic, 310
 - parent interviews, 165
 - uniqueness of, 165
 - website, 166
- “Fragile Families and Public Policy: Fathers’ Ties to Unmarried Mothers and Their Children” project, 166
- France
 - national domestic partnership laws, 230, 296
 - pacte civil de solidarité*, 81
- Francophones, higher cohabitation rate than Anglophone Canadians, 313
- Frankfurter, Felix, 12
- free choice, 245
- freed men and women
 - experienced moving from outlaws to inlaws, 89
 - marriages, immediate post Civil War
 - regulation of, 88
 - need to civilize, 91
- Freedmen’s Bureau agents, solemnizing marriage among Freedmen, 96
- freedom
 - of a contract, pluralistic model, 270
 - from contracts, 269
 - as a human right, 33
- French Revolution, produced equal inheritance, 40
- Friedan, Betty, 203
- functional families, various proposals to treat, 252
- future change, decisions and pathway in regard to developmental idealism, 47
- Gallagher, Maggie, 205
- gatekeeper for marriage, state functioning as, 232
- gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT)
 - communities, 227, 305
 - constituencies, 227
 - couples transforming marriage, 235
 - decriminalization of sexual relations, 41
 - hostility toward, 226
 - rights movement, 237
- gay marriage. See same-sex marriage
- “Gay Marriage: A Must or a Bust?,” 227
- gay men
 - families formed by, 210
 - managing sexual jealousy, 215
 - tension between desire and domesticity, 215
- gay politics, of the 1990s, 93
- gay rights movement, 202
- gender attitudes, measuring, 113
- gender effects, significant interaction for property division, 192
- gender equality
 - ameliorating historic harms of marriage, 306
 - law supporting, 303
 - long-term efforts for in Western societies, 41
- gender equity, emphasis shifted to, 38
- The Gender Family* (Berk), 63
- gender mistrust, levels of, 150
- gender roles, 109, 188
 - household work, 54–57
 - premarital specialization, 58
- gender segregation, elimination of, 37
- gendered differences, in comparative advantage, 58

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

333

- gene-environment correlation, 129
- genes, influencing personality characteristics and
 - physical characteristics, 129
- genetic selection, 129, 130
- geographical mobility, of young adults, 108
- Germany, constitutional protection conferred on
 - marriage, 73
- Gingrich, Newt, 204, 207
- Glick, Deborah, 218
- Goodridge v. Department of Public Health*, 256
- government
 - fulfilling many “family” functions, 139
 - policies designed to support children, 139
 - promoting formal marriage, 318–320
- Government Accountability Office (GAO), 228
- Great Britain, national domestic partnership laws, 296
- Great Compression (1941 to 1979), 12
- Great Divergence, 1980s and 1990s, 14
- Great Recession, effects of, 290
- Green, Tom, 214
- Grimké, Angelina, 89
- Habits of the Heart*, 248
- harm principle, application of, 93
- harmful cultural practices, 44
- Harris, James H., 92
- harsh parenting, increases in, 153
- Hart, H.L.A., 93
- Hartog, Hendrik, 287
- Hartwell, David, 100
- Hawaii, reciprocal beneficiaries status, 230
- Hawaiian Supreme Court, ruling in 1993, 207
- health care legislation, 157
- health clubs, singling out married couples, 229
- health insurance coverage, 157
- health limitations, of unmarried parents, 146
- Healthy Marriage Initiative, in the Bush
 - Administration, 319
- heterosexual marriage, 287, 288, 298
- heterosexual normality, model of, 257
- heterosexual women, preferences of, 220
- heterosexuals, having transformed marriage, 298
- hierarchical institution, marriage as, 314
- high-conflict marriage, negatively associated with
 - health and happiness, 308
- high-conflict relationships, discouraging marriage
 - and facilitating divorce, 318
- higher earners, awarding more property, 189
- home environment, of children, 148
- homemaker-breadwinner marriages, of the 1950s, 109
- homophobia, 88, 101
- homosexuals, marriage an unqualified social good
 - for, 255
- hostility, Roe provoked enormous, 251
- household labor
 - division of, 54–68
 - gendered division of, 56, 113
- household routines, maintaining stable, 148
- household work, 57, 303
- households
 - joint consumption items, 179
 - short of males or of females, 210
- human capital, 58, 146, 163
- Human Fertilization and Embryology Act 2008, 81
- Human Potential Movement, 109
- husbands
 - in individualistic marriages, 115
 - retaining role of “senior partner,” 109
- hybridization, 34, 45
- ideational factors, focus on, 30
- identical twins, 129
- ideological differences, reflecting and reinforcing
 - demographic differences, 21
- illegitimate children. See non-marital births
- imprisonment
 - effects of, 162
 - for non-payment of support, 160
- incarceration
 - and family resources, 160
 - reducing, 158, 162
- incarceration rate, of young black men, 320
- income disparity, alimony principle grounded on
 - partners’, 178
- income disparity principle, in child support, 181
- income inequality
 - current level, 10, 15
 - decline during the fifties, 12
- income-pooling model, 288
- incommensurability, of histories of oppression, 101
- India, over-turned prohibitions against sex-sex
 - relations, 41
- individual personal fulfillment, marriage based
 - on, 303
- individualistic marriages
 - distinguished from institutional marriages, 112
 - holding together, 111
 - rise of, 109, 116, 289, 311
 - spouses in most likely to think relationships in
 - trouble, 118
 - spouses likely to adopt an exchange
 - perspective, 121
 - wives in, 115
- individualistic unions, tending to be unstable, 110
- Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 320
- industrial and urban societies, called modern or
 - developed, 32

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

334

Index

- Infant Health and Development Program (IHDP), 165
- infidelity concept of, 216
ethical breach of trust, 217
- informal unions. See cohabitation; non-marital births
- information economy, remaking women's roles, 10
- infrastructure, creating an, 20
- inhibition, of moral discourse, 252
- instability high levels of for many children, 152 increasing asthma and obesity, 153 range of risks to children, 2 reducing children's life chances, 151 reducing health and increasing mental health problems for fathers and mothers, 153 reducing quantity and quality of fathers' investments in children, 153
- Institute for American Values, 205
- Institute for Marriage and Public Policy, 205
- institutional marriage
Burgess describing, 108 decline in, 116 holding together, 111
rate of, 116, 120, 289
traditional unions with characteristics of, 115
- internalizing behavior, associated with depression, 149
- international agreements, spreading developmental idealism, 34–35
- international culture clashes, 43–44
- international family planning program, initiated after WW II, 37
- international financial resources, 38
- investments, in children, 155
- Iowa, contemporaneous median guideline amounts, 185
- Ireland
divorce availability, 80 constitutional protection conferred on marriage, 73 legislation giving economically disadvantaged or dependent cohabitants a claim in the event of separation, 79
- irretrievable breakdown, establishing, 80
- Israel, failure of semi-pluralistic system, 277–279
- Jacobs, Edom, 100
- Japan, campaign of modernization, 37
- jealousy, serious problem for many unmarried couples, 154
- Jeffs, Warren, 214
- Joaquín (gay man), 211, 212, 214
- job programs, 320
- job stability, 15
- Johnson, Dan, 92
- judicial divorce, adoption of, 12
- Kennedy, Justice, 93
- Kenya, family planning, 37
- Keynes, John Maynard, doctrine of original sin and, 253
- Kohanim*, wishing to marry divorcees, 277
- labor, kinds of, 57
- labor saving devices, 10
- Lambda Legal, lawsuit challenging New Jersey's ongoing denial of marriage rights, 231
- latent class analysis (LCA), 114
- Latino families, structure changing rapidly, 22
- Law Commission of Canada, 219
- law of marriage, languages of, 241–258
- Law of Unintended Consequences, 203
- Lawrence v. Texas*, 93, 101, 256
- LDS Church, repudiating polygamy, 219
- legal aid, in private family law cases, 76
- legal applications, of pluralistic approaches, 268–277
- legal commitments, between cohabitants, 268–270
- legal marriage. See marriage
- legal paternity, marriage less important in establishing, 178
- legal principles, conferring rights on married couples, 274
- legal privileges, legitimacy for civil marriage, 261
- legal privileging of marriage, pluralism and, 270–274
- legal scholars, opposed to ALI recommendations, 293
- legal systems, continuing to privilege marriage, 271
- lesbian and gay couples, and marriage's evolution to a non-gendered institution, 236
- lesbian and gay parents, denied contact with children, 229
- lesbian and gay partnerships, rights and responsibilities of a second parent in, 294
- lesbian- and gay-parent families, large local community of, 212
- lesbian partners, childrearing common among, 294
- lesbians, many explicitly disavowing sexual exclusivity, 257
- liberal state, 260, 261
- liberal values, at core of pluralistic approach, 267
- liberal-neutralist philosophy, 260

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

335

- liberationist view, espoused by some homosexual writers, 256
- licensing law, 257
- literacy activities, 148, 153
- living-standard disparity, 194
- Locke, John, 41
- Loscocco, Paul, 217
- love and parenting, Mosuo approach to, 210
- love-makes-a-family ideology, 213
- low-income couples, decline in marriage among, 18
- low-income fathers, more likely to be ordered to pay amounts exceeding state guidelines, 160
- low-income women, placing a high value on children, 151
- Luther, Martin, viewed marriage as foundation of civil society, 297
- macro economy, decline in jobs for low-skilled men, 150
- maintenance, 174, 251
- Malawi, 37, 43
- male breadwinner role, 18
- male employment prospects, improving, 24
- male high school dropouts, income decreasing, 15
- male unemployment, followed by marital strain or dissolution, 150
- Manning Up* (Hymowitz), 25
- manufacturing jobs, decline, 290
- marital advantage
 - appearing to stem from commitment, sharing, and greater stability, 311
 - concentrated in low-conflict relationships, 308
 - correlation or causation, 307–309
 - persistence of across national and cultural boundaries, 309
 - selection effects, 309–311
- marital bargain, changing, 288
- marital birth rate, for women with some college education, 11
- marital commitments, 268
- marital happiness
 - based on 10 items, 117
 - marriage types and (1980 and 2000), 118
 - mean levels for, 118
- marital infidelity, as a virtue, 101
- marital instability, continuing high levels of, 122
- Marital Instability over the Life Course, study of, 112
- marital obligations, 316, 317
- marital privileges, granting to every couple, 271
- marital property, division of, 186, 251
- marital prospects, changes in, 16
- marital quality
 - central indicators of, 112
 - differences in, 117–119
 - improving, 123
 - measures of, 132
- marital relationships, more stable than nonmarital cohabitation, 309
- marital separation, causing a period of grieving marked by increased depression, 133
- marital stability
 - promoting greater, 24
 - values and beliefs forming foundation of, 111
- marital status
 - alimony amount and, 176
 - child support amount and, 182
 - imposition based on relationship duration or parenthood, 317
 - interaction with paternal income, 182
 - measures of, 132
 - property division and, 193
 - state granting benefits and imposing burdens based on, 315–318
- marital stress, in high-conflict relationships, 318
- marital timing and processes, 39–40
- market production, 57
- marriage
 - abolishing as a legal category, 79–81, 271, 296, 304, 314–315
 - added benefits of, 135
 - advantages of, 307
 - age, increasing, 170
 - age, minimum, 234
 - age at, 10, 14, 21, 38, 39, 40
 - agenda of, 90–95
 - alternative marriage systems, 261
 - Alternatives to Marriage Project (2011), 229
 - American adults, percentage married, 303
 - arranged marriage, declines in, 39
 - attitudes toward, 296, 304
 - becoming a symbol of disunion, 9
 - benefits, 307
 - confounding of selection and causation, 127
 - empirical findings, 126
 - formula, complicating, 128
 - long-term, 137, 256
 - MZ twins, 134
 - physical and mental health, 135–136
 - private sector entities, allocating benefits based on, 229
 - short-term, 138
 - tangible goods and material protections, 225, 228–230
- broadening elibility requirement for, 273
- broadening the definition of, 257
- child marriages, declines in, 39

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

336

*Index*marriage (cont.)

child welfare, not necessary to promote,

209–212

civilizing institution, 91

for lesbians and gay men, 93 class, education and race, highly correlated with in the United States, 290, 304, 305 class and success, a marker of, 18, 304 cohabitation, not equivalent to, 306 commitment, marriage as, 311 commitments and expectations, clear signals, 316

consequences of, 95, 234

contract, freedom to define rules of, 262 correlated with race and class in the U.S., 304 corresponding to a country's political and economic climate, 12 costs of, hidden, 128, 137–139 at a crossroads, 237 decline of, 40, 311–313

in England and Wales, 74

definition, as union for life of one man and one woman, 82 disciplinary effects of, 99–101

as discipline and punishment, 99 divisions over, 23

efforts to increase age at, 39 eligibility rules, changing regarding age and blood relations (consanguinity), 234

England, New Labour government

(1997–2020), statements on, 75 evolution, 41–42, 233–234

in gendered nature of, 234, 235, 237 of love as basis for, 109 from a public institution to a private arrangement, 261

as traditional, patriarchal institution, 296

two divergent directions, moving in, 122 expanding access to, 314–315

failure from hasty searches, 58 first, percentage intact, 16 foundational to a strong society, 236 future status of, 314–315 law cultivating exclusivity of, 261 meaning of, 107, 311

changing, 289

tied to ideas of loyalty, commitment, and personal responsibility, 252 moral theory of, 251

obligations of, 256 oppressive outmoded institution, 23, 296

opting out of, 77–79

personal growth, 246

pluralism and legal privileging of, 270–274

pluralistic vision of, 260–280 political and economic climate, correspondence, 12

prioritization, as a movement goal, 228 privileges challenged in modern legal discourse, 271

pro-marriage ideology, gains of, 203 promoting personal growth of the spouses, 246 promotion by state, 83, 318–320 promotion typically linked to political right, 126

as a public institution, 260 public support, continuing for, 304 ratios, of men to women correlated with rates, 311 reduced risks of, 135

Reformation, Protestant campaign to tighten control after, 39 criticism of marriage system, 39 regional, class and ideological differences, 11 relational and not procreational, 257 relevance of, 195, 306–307 remaining a prominent and leading priority, 225 remaining important, 225, 300

remaking in ways more likely to gain consensus, 25 requiring a male and a female as an artifact of an earlier time, 234 responsibilities of, 97 resulting from advantages, 308 retaining special status of, 306

same-sex, access to, 81–83 seeming to matter so much, 224 shift in the meaning of, 311 shift in the nature of, 237 signaling a couple's commitments and expectations, 316

skewing differences in children's development, 24

as social institution, 289 social institution, as a less dominant but still highly-valued, 289 preeminent institution of family life, 254

retaining special status of, 306

role as a social institution, 254

stability, 25

stereotypes abounding in public discussion, 83 symbolic role in transformation of status from slave to citizen, 91 symbolic value over past few decades, 295 third parties, treatment by, 171

types of, 4

value-laden institution, 90 marriage advocacy, complicated, 228 marriage allowance, 76 marriage and fatherhood programs, 158

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

337

- marriage and nuclear families, no longer efficient mechanisms, 139
- marriage bar, 17
- marriage clusters, differences between over time, 116–117
- marriage constraints, general movement toward loosening, 256
- Marriage Convention (MC), 35
- marriage education, 76, 123
- marriage grant program, initiated by President Bush in 2002, 161
- marriage incentives, as a bad idea, 319
- marriage law and policy
 - changing language of, 242–248
 - enforcement of, 91, 242
 - and politics, 75–77
 - revealing moral attitudes, 242
- marriage license, 97
- marriage market, 57, 138
- Marriage Matters, at the University of Virginia, 205
- “Marriage Movement,” ideological campaign, 205
- marriage paradox, 136–137
- marriage “penalties,” elimination of, 318
- marriage premium
 - in child support, 182
 - greater for the more educated, 178
 - in property allocation, 189
 - shrinking, 176
- The Marriage Problem* (Wilson), 150
- marriage rates, declining, 311
- marriage types
 - cluster analysis of three, 114
 - indirect indicators of, 111
 - percentage of respondents in, 116
 - study of, 111–122
- The Marriage-go-Round* (Cherlin), 21, 219
- marriage-promotion initiatives, 2, 318, 319
- marriage-rights movement, 95
- married adults, 126, 134
- married couples
 - benefits and penalties, 314
 - sharing economic resources, 307
 - social relationships of, 126
 - tax allowances for, 83
- married women, and share of housework, 64
- “Marrying in Haste,” counseling Black women against, 92
- Marvin v. Marvin*, 268
- Marx, Karl, on divorce, 246
- Massachusetts Supreme Court, 2003 decision in favor of same-sex marriage, 295
- maternal stress, increases in, 153
- McConico, Celia, 100
- Means, Sam, 100
- Medicaid expansion, highest benefit-cost ratio, 164
- men
 - depression appearing to be more sensitive to marital status, 133
 - enjoying sexual access to women without demands, 25
 - percent of 29–60-year-old unemployed, 15
 - power relative to women, 65
 - viewed as primary breadwinners, 150
- mental health, measures of, 132
- middle class model, for marriage, 9
- middle class parents, more resources to invest in children’s cognitive development, 24
- middle class strategy, designed to meet needs of information age, 20
- Middle East, 43
- millet* system, 277
- minimum living standard approach, 185
- miscegenation laws, 88
- mixed faith couples, 277
- models
 - cultural, 30–31
 - of development, 32–33
- moderators, analyzing, 136
- modernists, 19, 23
- modernization ideas, in many international settings, 34
- modernization models
 - elements under heavy academic criticism during recent decades, 33
 - positing a trajectory of development, 32
- monolithic perfectionists’ view, of establishment of one spousal institution suitable to all couples, 279
- monolithic-public approach, marriage privileges part of, 270
- moral and religious arguments, disappearance from debates about marriage, 76
- moral crisis, moving away from traditional family values as, 20
- moral discourse
 - concerning modern family law, 262
 - diminution, costs of, 248–254
 - eliminating to make courts more easily managed, 244
 - generally requiring discretion, 244
 - tainted, 248
- moral hazards, 89, 102
- moral issues
 - central to family life and family self-governance, 242, 251
 - commanding special attention from marriage law, 242
- moral language, 253

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

338

Index

- moral life, American in process of revising itself, 241
- Moral Majority, conservative family values of, 204
- moral sentiments, influencing lawmakers unawares, 242
- moral thinking, as intolerant thinking, 245
- morality denying, 245
of pluralism, 266
- Mormon polygamists, granting women the right to vote in the Utah territory, 219
- Mosuo kinship rules, 209
- Mosuo people, 209
- mothers. See also unmarried mothers having children with new partners, 154 objecting to fathers spending time with children in other households, 154 parenting, 148
parenting quality differing by marital status, 148 reducing access to friends and relatives willing to provide support, 154
- Moynihan, Daniel Patrick, 142, 203, 204, 206
- The Moynihan Report*, 95, 203
- multi-marriage system, 274
- Murphy Brown story, 145
- MZ twins, 129, 130
- National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD), 165
- National Marriage Project, 205
- National Organization for Marriage, 205
- National Survey of Families and Households (NSFH), 55, 60, 62
- National Survey of Family Growth, 291
- National Survey of Midlife Development in the United States (MIDUS), 132–134
- Nationalists, adopting developmental idealism in China, 36
- The Negro Family: The Case for National Action* (Moynihan), 95, 142, 203
- Nepal, endorsement of development widespread, 37
- Netherlands, substantial suspicion of marriage, 296
- neutral philosophical approach, 272, 279
- neutralist approach, 265, 271
- New Families – No Families* (Goldscheider and Waite), 64
- New Jersey, 231
- New Right, 204
- New York statute, “Get Law,” 276
- New Zealand, de facto partners, 3
- night visiting, system of, 209
- Nock, Steven, 205
- nonbinding commitment, marriage becoming, 246
- non-cohabiting fathers, showing high levels of involvement, 146
- non-discriminatory access, ameliorating historic harms of marriage, 306
- non-interference, in family and marriages, 244
- non-marital birth rates, increased for the country through the end of the 1960s, 14
- non-marital births cause for concern, 144–149 changes in demography of, 143 as a consequence of disadvantage, 155 contributing to social disorganization, 143 debate over consequences of, 142 exacerbating pre-existing disadvantage, 155 extending beyond lower-class African American population, 143 giving rise to fragile families, 142 increase in, 9, 14, 18, 303 as product of casual relationships, 145
- non-marital childbearing. See non-marital births
- nonmarital cohabitation. See cohabitation
- non-marital families, traditional family law’s harsh treatment of, 314
- non-marital sexuality, punishing women for, 25
- non-resident fathers, 148, 153
- non-resident parents, relationships with, 166
- Nordegren, Elin, 215
- NSFH. See National Survey of Families and Households (NSFH)
- Obama, Barack, 207, 218
- Obama, Michelle, 218
- Obama administration, 122
- Oklahoma Marriage Initiative, 123
- Olson, Ted, 94, 95
- Ottoman Empire, 36
- Palin, Bristol, 216
- Palin, Sarah, 201, 216
- parental courtship, four-way, 211
- parental income, significant effect in child support vignettes, 180
- parental investments, quality of, 148
- parental leave, paid, 158
- parental relationships, in fragile families, 145–146
- parent-child relationships, 165, 229
- parenting, of mothers, 148
- parents. See also unmarried parents demographic characteristics and human capital, 147 in fragile families, 158–161 parents’ approval, required prior to marriage, 108

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

339

- parents' material conditions, differences in, 150
- parolees, 162
- partnership instability. See also instability
 - effects on children, 153
 - high levels of, 151
 - reducing quality of mothers' parenting, 153
- partnerships, 152, 288
- paternity, 219
- Patterson, Orlando, 150
- perfectionist liberal values, 266
- perfectionist philosophy, 260, 272
- perfectionist school of thought, 269
- perfectionist-monolithic approach, opposition to, 266, 267
- perfectionist-monolithic philosophical stream, 265
- permanence, 9, 244
- Perry v. Schwarzenegger*, case challenging Proposition 8, 94
- Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunities Reform Act (PRWORA) 1996, 122, 206
- "Persons of Color," Georgia's 1866 law relating to, 98
- physical and mental health, marriage benefitting, 135–136
- physical health
 - of married adults, 126
 - measures of, 132
 - overall rating of, 134
 - self-rating of overall, 132
- Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey*, 251
- pluralism
 - as an intrinsic value, 266
 - recognizing state's authority and responsibility to prefer marriage, 272
 - stemming from moral relativism, 266
- pluralistic approach
 - alternative to both private and public approach, 260, 267, 269
 - based on an active perception of the state, 269
 - demanding substantive freedom of choice, 275
 - diversity, seeking to encourage, 272
 - ensuring both partners enjoy freedom of choice, 267
 - foundation for, 260
 - legal applications of, 268–277
 - needing to identify moral values and public interests, 267
 - preferring egalitarian institutions, 267
 - supporting extensive use of contractual doctrines, 276
 - tension embedded between perfectionism and autonomy, 272
- policies, to improve marriage, 123
- policy makers, questions for, 304–306
- polymaking, informing with empirical research, 306
- political parties, American differing in ideological terms currently, 19
- politics of recognition, investing heavily in, 88
- polygamy
 - criminalizing doing more harm than good, 213–215
 - hostility to, 213
 - not inherently harmful, 219
 - opposition to, 45
 - patriarchal history of, 219
 - religious freedom not extending to these marriages, 44
 - in South Africa and the United States, 213
 - strong opposition as a barbaric practice, 44
 - United States Congress, harsh laws to eliminate, 44
- polygyny, advocating tolerance of, 220
- poly-parenting families, 210, 211
- poor man's marriage model, 145, 146
- poor parenting, undermining children's opportunities, 155
- Pop Luck Club, 211, 214
- Popenoe, David, 205
- poverty, reducing disadvantages associated with, 320
- pregnancy rates, reducing among unmarried couples, 164
- premarital counseling, 276
- premarital pregnancy, leading to a shotgun wedding, 290
- pre-school education, high-quality, intensive, 320
- presidential candidates, politically obliged to oppose gay marriage, 207
- Principles of European Family Law*, 81
- Principles of the Law of Family Dissolution*, 244
- private-neutral approach, 260, 263, 265
- privatization narrative of marriage, 262, 289
- professional women, running up against biological time clock, 145
- Promises I Can Keep* (Edin and Kefalas), 151
- property
 - allocation when partners separate, 186–193
 - division, unequal earners' variant, 187
 - division of, 174
 - rules governing division of, 305
 - transmitting to men's heirs, 219
- Proposition 8, campaign to defeat, 212
- psychological adjustment, of married adults, 126

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

340

Index

- public approach
 - criticized, 279
 - emphasizing public interest in the regulation of spousal relations, 264
 - identifying public interest with traditional regulation, 264
 - pointing to advantages of marriage-based over other family patterns, 271
 - seeking to channel people towards marriage, 261
- public channeling v. private neutrality, as the existing debate, 261–263
- public commitments, producing stability, 310
- public goods, children as, 58
- public registration, of commitment, 271, 272
- public weddings, types of, 295
- public-channeling approach, 260, 265
- punishment
 - associating with morality, 247
 - avoiding for those seeking alternatives to marriage, 273
- quasicausal studies, 130
- Quayle, Dan, 204, 206
- Quebec, cohabitation rate, 312
- race, 22, 58
- racial divide, in marriage behavior in the United States, 312
- radical challenge, against privileging marriage, 271
- Red Families v. Blue Families*, 19, 20
- red values, associated with traditional religious teachings, 11
- refugee camps. See contraband camps
- regional data, for marriage and family patterns, 19
- regional differences
 - in birth rates reflecting state policy, 21
 - interacting with race and class to vary the role of marriage, 21
 - in patterns of marriage, divorce and cohabitation, 18
- registered-partnership regimes, extent modeled on marriage, 81
- regression analysis, estimating mean levels of marital happiness and divorce proneness, 117
- relational dysfunction and instability, often symptoms of emotional and economic stresses, 320
- relational instability, associated with risks during childhood, 308
- relationship quality, marriage influence on, 78
- relationship stability, children's exposure, 152
- relationship-related benefits, delinking marriage from, 230
- relationships, low-conflict, enduring, 318
- religion
 - church wedding, 295
 - marriage not homogeneous with respect to, 58
 - playing only minor roles in individualistic marriages, 112
 - providing an important institutional foundation, 111
- Religion, Family and Culture Project, at the University of Chicago, 205
- religious affiliation, 277
- religious and cultural groups, leaving marriage to, 296
- religious communities, 274, 278
- religious companionate group, 119
- religious control, decline in, 108
- religious divorce ceremony, 275
- religious family law systems, characterized by unequal gender practices, 275
- religious groups, conservative, 123
- religious laws, gender-based and hierarchical in Israel, 278
- religious marriage, 274–276, 278
- religious services, frequency of attendance, 113
- religious view of marriage, accepting, 65
- remarriage, not seeming to confer same advantage as a first marriage, 308
- Report on the Negro Family* (Moynihan), 142
- reproduction, outside of marriage, 23
- reproductive freedom, theme across recent decades, 38
- reproductive health, emphasis shifted to, 38
- reproductive technologies, complicating assignment of paternity, 179
- Republicans, self-identified, 178
- Research Triangle, attracted better educated migrants to North Carolina, 18
- right of exit
 - described, 270
 - marriage tracks limiting, 274
 - not always protected in religious marriage, 275
 - preserving, 268
- right of privacy, 249
- right to marry, collapsing into an obligation, 95–99
- rights
 - conferring on a married person after the death of a spouse, 274
 - gap between married and cohabiting couples, 78
 - language of, 245
 - obtaining not always resulting in justice, 228
- rights inter se, 171
- Rituals of Blood* (Patterson), 150

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

341

Roe v. Wade

- remaining at the moral center, 249
- therapeutic viewpoint, 249

- rules, of marriage, 99

- Russia, nonmarital birth, 304

- Saez, Emmanuel, 15

- safety net programs, 156

- same-sex couples, 40, 255

- acceptance of, 67, 288

- adopting a child together, 81

- automatic marriage of, 98

- effects of denying marriage to, 232, 296

- entering into a institution perceived as

- heterosexual and patriarchal, 83

- entering into a registered partnership, 81

- extending marriage to, 1, 81–83

- finding they must marry to retain rights,

- 99

- forming families and raising children, 303

- in Israel, 277

- registering as civil partners in England and

- Wales, 81

- seeking range of rights and benefits available

- only to married couples, 294

- wanting marriage because of what it currently

- offers, 237

- same-sex marriage, 95

- access to symbolic status of being legally

- married, 295

- changing marriage as a socializing institution,

- 255

- concepts of “primary caregiver” and “alimony,”

- 299

- contemporary arguments about, 89, 225

- contemporary discomfort with distinctions and

- judgements, 257

- described, 254, 294–299

- division of tasks, typical, 298

- hostility toward, 95

- influence on public, 264

- legalization, 207, 212–213

- likely to be more egalitarian, 298

- movement, 213

- in New York, 87

- promoting social equality, 207, 212

- symbolic status of, 295

- tangible benefits of, 237, 294

- transforming institution of marriage, 23,

- 233–237, 255, 298

- Sanford, Mark, 207, 216

- Savage, Dan, 101

- Savannah Tribune, formerly The Colored

- Tribune, 92

- Scalia, Justice, 11

Scandinavia

- demographers continue to find marital

- advantage, 309

- few economic incentives to marry, 307

- relatively greater stability of non-marital

- families in, 320

- Scandinavian model, 144

- Schlaflly, Phyllis, 204

- Schwarzenegger, Arnold, 213, 214, 216

- Scotland, 79

- secular alternatives

- to marriage and divorce, 278

- to religious marriage, 278

- secular institutional group, 119

- secular marriage movement, 205

- selection effects, and marital advantage, 308

- self-development, replacing companionship and

- team effort, 110

- Semi-Weekly Louisianan, 92

- separate but (un)equal, civil unions as, 230

- “separate spheres” marriage, in the nineteenth

- century, 287

- serial families, instability of relationships in, 310

- sex, consent requirement for, 39

- sex outside of marriage, 23, 150

- sex ratios, importance of, 311

- sex roles and rules, in marriage, 233

- “the sexual family,” 210

- sexual freedom, support for, 45

- sexual integrity, ethic, 216, 217

- sexual intercourse, minimum age for, 48

- sexual morality, one aspect of family morality, 242

- sexual practices, remaking of, 13

- sexual relationship, refusal to engage in, 82

- sexual revolution

- of the 1960s, 312

- beginning of, 12

- shared environmental selection, 129

- shot gun marriages, 14, 58

- sin, living in, 76

- “Since When is Marriage a Path to Liberation?,”

- 227

- single parenthood, 147, 309

- single-parent households, disadvantages for

- children, 24, 308

- slave marriages, laws legitimizing, 96

- slavery, inability to marry, 89

- social expectations, of responsibilities within

- marriage, 235

- social institutions

- defined, 253

- essential in any society, 264

- existing without moral language, 254

- law constructing alternative to legal marriage,

- 273

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

342

Index

- social institutions (cont.)
 - marriage as, 257
 - moral language and, 254–258
- social meaning, attributing to marriage, 264
- social norms, 310, 312
 - changing at glacial speed, 67
 - social institutions and culture, dynamism of, 265
- social prejudice, reduction in, 305
- social stigma, attached to nonmarital relationships and birth, 314
- social-class gap
 - in how American parents and children live their lives, 292
 - in U.S. family life, 290
- socializing function, of marriage, 254
- society
 - American built around civil status of marriage, 297
 - remaking along class lines, 25
- soul mate marriages, 110, 119
- South Africa, and polygamy, 215
- South Carolina, statutory duty of election, 98
- special procedure, for undefended divorces, 80
- special status for marriage, harmful to other families, 314
- specialization avoided by childless couples, 68
- specialization of household tasks model, 57, 59, 288
- Spitzer, Elliot, 215, 216
- spousal income, combinations of in studies, 175
- spousal law, 261, 262
- spousal relationships, 107, 260
- spousal support, as post-separation alimony, 174
- spouse(s)
 - assumed to be an integrated economic unit, 305
 - contracts relieving courts of some burden of decision, 243
 - fulfillment of complementary marital roles, 109
 - granting unique rights to, 273
 - in institutional marriage, 108, 118
 - leaving for a trophy wife, 23
 - legitimacy of granting special privileges to, 280
 - making most of the important decisions, 113
 - receiving benefits not available to cohabitants, 315
 - supportive partners replaced with “soul mate,” 110
 - unilaterally deciding to end a marriage, 262
 - usage of the term, 260
- St. John’s Lodge of Odd Fellows, 92
- stability
 - associated with marriage, 111, 151, 309
 - benefits to children, 2, 297
 - of the family in an institutional system of marriage, 108
 - of marriage and cohabitation, social factors, associated with
- stable marriage, 111, 151
- standard North American family (SNAF), 288
- state(s)
 - active role in pluralistic approach, 269
 - best supporting pluralism, 305
 - as imperfect parent, 139
- state assumption, of traditional family functions, 137
- state law, marital status affecting legal recognition as a parent, 229
- state of nature, 33
- status, indicating social and political equality, 294
- status equality, 230–233
- status model, Israeli courts recently adopted, 279
- “stigma of exclusion,” 296
- stigmatization
 - of non-marital families, 314
 - sense of, 232
- Stoddard, Thomas, 227, 236
- Sullivan, Andrew, 254
- support awards, to cohabitating couples compared to those with no relationship, 195
- Survey of Marriage and Family Life (2000), 112
- surveys, measuring marital characteristics, 113
- Sweden
 - cohabiting parents more likely to separate, 309
 - majority of children born to cohabitating couples, 291
 - marriage not as strong an institution, 296
 - marriage undergoing a revival, 75
 - neutrality stance toward different types of family relationships, 73
 - pioneer in assimilating cohabitation to marriage, 78
- Swedish model, 146
- tangle of pathology, 142, 203
- “Tax Problems for Illinois Civil Unions,” 229
- teamwork, emphasis in companionate marriage, 121
- teen pregnancies and births, 319
 - proportion of, 146
 - rates, 16, 18, 21
- teen pregnancy programs, expanding, 164
- Teenage Parent Demonstration, 165
- Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), 122
- tenancy in common, versus joint tenancy, 193
- Texas sodomy statute, demeaning lives of homosexual persons, 93
- therapeutic discourse, 244, 245

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

Index

343

- therapeutic function, of marriage, 110
- three-cluster solution, providing an optimal fit to
 - data, 114
- time horizons, 136, 138
- tisese (night visiting), 209, 210
- TLC3 project, 166
- traditional family, as relatively new phenomenon, 12
- traditional marriage, advocates longing for a
 - return to, 304
- traditionalists
 - blue model as affront to, 20
 - described, 19
 - emphasis on unidimensional metric, 24
 - seeing marriage as a divinely ordained institution, 23
 - viewing children's interests as reason for
 - viewing marriage law as a public matter, 264
- trial marriages, 151
- true effects, suppressed by selection, 130
- The Truly Disadvantaged* (Wilson), 143, 150
- Trumbull, Lyman, 89
- Tuchman, Gary, 220
- Tucson, Arizona jury pool, as an excellent cross
 - section of county's citizens, 173
- Turkey, developmental idealism in, 36
- twin method, 129–130, 133
- twin studies, 127, 130, 308
- twins
 - comparing, 127
 - controlling for selection effects, 131
 - using to parse the marriage benefit, 128–129
- two-parent families
 - acceptance of alternative forms of, 287, 288
 - growing diversity of, 287–300
- Two-Step Clustering procedure, used for analysis, 114
- typological (or person centered) approach, 107
- U.K. Law Commission, 79
- U.K. residents, travelling abroad to marry, 83
- underclass, pathology of, 203
- unfaithfulness, of one partner, 82
- Unhitched: Love, Marriage and Family Values from West Hollywood to Western China* (Stacey), 202
- UNICEF, targeting female circumcision, 44
- Uniform Premarital Agreement Act, 243
- United Kingdom
 - divorce laws varying, 79
 - nonmarital births, effects of
- United States
 - cultural clashes in, 42
 - nonmarital births, effects of, 304
- United States Congress, harsh laws to eliminate
 - polygamy, 44
- United States Sentencing Commission, 162
- universal health insurance system, for children, 156
- universal pre-school, for three- and four-year-olds, 157
- universal programs, superior to targeted programs, 155
- universal rights, developmental idealism
 - specifying, 33
- unmarried couples
 - instability among, 152
 - much more likely than married couples to end
 - their relationships, 155
 - raising children, 288, 290
- unmarried fathers
 - information lacking about, 144
 - large number incarcerated at some point, 308
 - pattern of, 152
- unmarried mothers
 - large oversample of, 144
 - much younger than married mothers, 146
 - percent cohabiting at birth, 291
 - proportion of births, 290
 - public attitudes toward, 304
- unmarried parents
 - with a college degree, 146
 - in committed relationships at the time of their
 - child's birth, 145
 - families formed by, 142
 - nature of parental relationships and capabilities
 - in families formed by, 144
 - optimistic about future of their relationship, 146
 - percentage living together five years after
 - child's birth, 170
 - placing a high value on marriage, 151
 - relationship status at child's birth, 145
 - relationships, dissolution of, 151
 - unmarried mothers, health problems, 153
- unmarried participants, significantly more
 - depressed, 132
- unmarried white mothers, percentage of in early
 - 1980s, 203
- U.S. Constitution, reserving authority over
 - marriage and divorce to the states, 12
- U.S. Federal District Court, ruling on California's
 - ban against same-sex marriage, 41
- U.S. Supreme Court
 - on abortion, 249
 - on contraception right of single women, 13
 - on interracial marriage (Loving v. Virginia 1967), 233
 - on marriage, 225
 - and same-sex marriage, 47

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01827-3 - Marriage at the Crossroads: Law, Policy, and the Brave New World of Twenty-First-Century Families

Edited by Marsha Garrison and Elizabeth S. Scott

Index

More information

344

Index

- veils, 37, 46
- Vermont, first state to offer civil unions to
 - same-sex couples, 230
- voting patterns, related to geographical
 - distribution of behaviors, 43
- vows, revising, 219–221

- Waddell, Alfred M., 91
- wage inequality, 18
- wage-earner husband, 9
- Wales, marriage at the crossroads in, 73–84
- Walmart family, competing with marriage, 139
- Wardle, Lynn, 244
- Washington state, 186
- wealthy, in blue states likely to vote Republican, 19
- wedding
 - mass ceremonies, in the postwar South, 97
 - white dresses, in China, 36
- welfare benefits, reducing by one dollar for each
 - dollar of child support paid, 160
- Welfare Reform Act (1996), 122, 206
- welfare-reform legislation, 1996 Federal, 2
- Western Europe, nonmarital births, 304
- Western values and practices, exportation and
 - imposition of, 48–49
- Whitehead, Barbara Dafoe, 206
- Williams, Elizabeth, 100
- Williams, Joan, 55
- Williams v. Georgia*, 100
- Wilson, William Julius, 143, 150
- within-individual culture clashes, resolving, 45
- women
 - comparative advantage in household
 - production, 58
 - depression more sensitive to marital quality, 133
 - doing less housework as they obtain more
 - power, 65
 - dress as focus of a developmental idealism
 - clash, 46
 - employment exacerbating relationship between
 - financial distress and divorce, 17
 - graduate school attendance, 14
 - incomes increasing, 16
 - with more education more likely to marry, 289
 - positions improved vis-à-vis men, 15
 - presence of children augmenting age-based loss
 - of marriage-market value, 59
 - rights and status of, 42
 - and sex before marriage, 13
 - status of an indicator of development levels in a
 - society, 42
 - veils and, 37
- women's work
 - cohort of older women doing, 63
 - hours above the average destabilizing marriage, 56
 - reduction for women of about two hours per
 - week, 60
 - valuing through higher market wages, 67
- Woods, Tiger, 215
- working age population, reductions in, 38
- working class, skeptical of making marriage work, 20
- world
 - culture, 31
 - models, 32–34
 - portrayed as dynamic, 32
- world culture, 31
- World Values Survey (2000), 296

- young adults, increasingly deferring marriage, 295
- “young children” condition, in alimony studies, 175

- Z good production, 57
- Zarrillo, Jeff, 94
- Zuma, Jacob, 214