

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

INDEX

- access to information, 192, 450, 458, 469–70, 479–80, 494
- accountability
 - Canadian development cooperation, 481
 - concept, 445–8
 - donors, 448–9, 452–81
 - EU development cooperation, 460–71
 - accountability by recipients, 483
 - financial accountability
 - EU development cooperation, 465–7
 - German development cooperation, 474–6
 - World Bank, 454–6
 - functions, 451
 - Germany, 471–81
 - accountability by recipients, 483
 - legal accountability
 - European Union, 460–3
 - Germany, 471–4
 - World Bank, 452–4
 - political accountability
 - EU development administration, 468–9
 - German development administration, 478
 - World Bank, 456–8
 - recipients, 448–9, 481–7
 - accountability among peers, 485–7
 - accountability towards donors, 482–5
 - European Union, 471
 - Germany, 480–1
 - World Bank, 459–60
 - standards, 449–50
 - European Union, 460–9
 - Germany, 471–8
 - World Bank, 452–8
 - structural problems, 500–5
 - substantive accountability
 - EU development cooperation, 467–8
 - German development cooperation, 476–8
 - World Bank, 456
 - World Bank, 452–60
 - accountability by recipients, 482–3
- Accra Agenda for Action (AAA) 2008, 143–4, 492
- ACP (African, Caribbean and Pacific) countries, 77
 - cooperation with EEC, 77–9
 - distributions from EDF, 164, 175–6
 - human rights issues, 97
 - problems with Lomé 1975–1990, 96–8
 - standard setting, 213–14
- Africa, 44, 45, 49, 52, 63, 77, 84–6, 92, 97, 113–15, 134, 186, 213, 485
- African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM), 485–7
- aid effectiveness, 139–50
 - Accra Agenda for Action (AAA) 2008, 143–4, 492
 - Busan Declaration 2011, 144–5, 492
 - criticism of agenda 2005–2010, 145–7
 - measurability, 137–8
 - OECD Development Assistance Committee (DAC), 487–90

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

582

INDEX

- aid effectiveness (cont.)
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 141–3, 490–3
 - peer accountability among donors, 487–94
- Aidco, 171, 173
- alignment principle
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 142, 290–1
- Asia and Latin America (ALA)
 - cooperation with EEC, 98–9
- Asian tigers, 84–5
- auditing
 - European Court of Auditors, 465–6
 - Germany, 474–6
 - World Bank, 454
- autonomy, collective, 511
 - and accountability, 496–8
 - and budget support, 426–8
 - individual autonomy and human rights principle, 258–84, 296
 - international treaty law protection weak, 247–9
 - non-intervention principle, 250–6
 - and planning, 348–9
 - and project aid, 407–9
 - recipient/donor relationship, 134–6
 - and results-based financing, 443
 - and ownership principle, 238–58, 296
 - ownership, 241–4
 - protection of autonomy, 247–56
 - recipient-donor cooperation models, 348–9
 - sovereignty, 239–41
- Bandung Conference of African and Asian countries 1955, 26, 63
- Brandt, Willy, 72
- Bretton Woods, 38
- Brundtland Report 1987, 103, 104
- budget support
 - background, 413–15
 - compared to project aid, 412–13
 - Germany, 424
 - governmental conditionality as precondition for agreement, 417–21
 - human rights, 428–9
 - legal form, 423–4
 - legal regime, 416–24
 - performance conditionality as precondition for disbursement, 421–3
 - political conditionality, 426
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 414, 418, 427
- World Bank, 416–17, 420–1, 423–4
- Busan Declaration 2011, 144–5, 492
- Canada
 - accountability in development cooperation, 481
- Cheysson, Claude, 80
- China
 - aid to Africa, 152
- civil-society participation, 107–8, 349
- co-financing, 295
- coherence concept, 284–95, 395
 - development planning EU, Germany and World Bank, 349–53
- Cold War
 - emergence of development policy, 2–3, 35, 52
 - impact of end on development cooperation, 101
 - Soviet invasion of Afghanistan 1979, 86–7
- collective autonomy, see autonomy, collective
- colonialism, see also decolonization
 - postcolonial studies, 120–2
- compliance, 190, 358–61, 368–9, 377–80, 391–7, 403, 408–9, 420–1, 451, 509
 - accountability mechanism, 451
- compliance instruments, 358–61
- concentration principle, 290
- conditionality
 - budget support, 417–23
 - democratization, 112–14
 - EU, Germany and World Bank compared, 407–9
 - Germany, 94–5, 111
 - human rights, 111–12
 - problem, 136, 359–61

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

INDEX

583

- project-aid, 358–61, 368–9, 377–8, 391–7, 403, 408–9
- World Bank 1975–1990, 90–2
- consent, free prior and informed, 281–3
- consultation, meaningful, 280, 370
- contractors
 - sanctions, 483–4
- coordination
 - coherence and efficiency principle, 349–53
 - development planning, 351–2
 - development planning among donors, 345–6
 - EEC, 99–100
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 292
 - rules, 291–5
- corruption. See also Fraud investigation
 - neopatrimonialism, 86
- cost-effectiveness concept, 286–9
 - European Union, 287–8, 395
 - Germany, 286–7
 - World Bank, 288–9, 380–1
- Cotonou Agreement 2000, 175, 178, 206, 213
- DAC. See OECD Development Assistance Committee
- debt crisis 1980s
 - developing countries, 86
- decolonization
 - establishment of IDA, 41–3
 - influence on European development policy, 44–6, 47
- democracy, promotion of, 101–2, 112–18, 128, 169, 174, 178, 201, 254, 392–5, 404, 408–9, 509
- democratization, 112–14
- developing countries, see also Third World
 - debt crisis 1980s, 86
 - definition, 202–5
 - fragile statehood evident from the late 1970s, 85–6, 114
 - heterogeneity from the mid 1970s, 84–5
 - history of relationship with donors, 126–7
 - impact of Cold War confrontations 1979, 86–7
 - information deficit, 137
 - political demands 1965–1975, 63–5
 - power in the United Nations, 63–5
 - research into law reform, 6–7, 9
 - role of ODA, 15
 - World Bank transformation into a development bank, 43
- development
 - complex relationship with human rights, 259–63
 - criticism 1990–2000, 101–2
 - expansion 1990–2000, 101–19
 - participation rights, 280–3
 - political concept, 17–21, 134–6
 - poverty reduction and good government priorities, 118–19, 234–5
 - principles, see under development cooperation law
 - Sen's works on freedom, 105–6
 - sustainability, 102–4
 - terminology, 24–5, 180
- development administration, see also development planning
 - aid organizations and agencies, 129–30
 - Cheysson's reforms, 80
 - comparison of World Bank, EU and Germany, 200–2
 - European Union, 170–80, 201
 - formative years, 35
 - formative years 1945–1965, 37–62
 - French influence on EDF funds, 47–9
 - German reform under Eppler 1969–1974, 73–5
 - Germany, 164–70, 201–2
 - Germany's first institutional structures, 53–7
 - innovations 1965–1975, 62–83
 - reform at World Bank under McNamara, 69–71
 - relationships between donors, 195–9
 - World Bank, 181–7, 200–1

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

584

INDEX

- development aid, see also aid
 - effectiveness
 - complexity problem, 131–3
 - knowledge problem, 137–8
 - Development Assistance Committee,
 - see* OECD Development Assistance Committee
 - development banks, 161–2,
 - see also* World Bank
 - development cooperation
 - accountability concept, 445–8
 - challenges for lawyers, 27–30
 - continuous goal changes since the 1950s, 127–9
 - emergence 1945–1965, 37–62
 - EU goals, 177–80
 - German goals, 169–70
 - history, 2–5, 126–30
 - institutional structures matter, 9–12
 - law of ODA transfers, 13–14
 - participation, 107–8
 - participation EU, Germany and World Bank, 348–9
 - power, identity and autonomy
 - issues, 134–6
 - re-evaluation, 62–82
 - structural problems, 130–8
 - terminology, 24–6
 - development cooperation law
 - agenda for future research, 513–16
 - analysis, 506–13
 - coherence and efficiency principle, 284–95, 395
 - accountability, 498–500
 - alignment with recipients, 290–1
 - budget support, 424–6
 - coordination and complementarity, 291–5
 - cost-effectiveness, 286–9
 - development planning EU, Germany and World Bank, 349–53
 - European Union, 395
 - European Union, Germany and World Bank compared, 406–7
 - Germany, 404
 - Program-for-Results
 - financing, 443
 - result orientation and concentration, 289–90
 - World Bank, 380–1
 - collective autonomy and ownership
 - principle, 238–58, 296
 - accountability, 496–8
 - budget support, 426–8
 - equal autonomy and its limits, 244–7
 - European Union, 396–7
 - European Union, Germany and World Bank compared, 407–9
 - Germany, 404–5
 - ownership, 241–4
 - and planning, 348–9
 - Program-for-Results
 - financing, 443
 - and project aid, 407–9
 - protection of autonomy, 247–56
 - recipient-donor cooperation
 - models, 348–9
 - sovereignty, 239–41
 - World Bank, 381–2
- comparison of human rights among donors, 347–8
- development principle, 226–38, 296
 - addressees, 236
 - contents, 230–6
 - European Union, 395
 - European Union, Germany and World Bank compared, 406
 - Germany, 404
 - good governance, 234–5
 - human rights, 235–6
 - possible legal bases, 227–30
 - poverty reduction, 234
 - whether a duty to provide ODA, 231–4
 - World Bank, 380
- developmental state, role of state in
 - development process, 59, 85–6, 88–9, 92, 112–18
- donor-bias, 215–19, 347
- EU programming, 327–40
- German planning law, 341–4
- individual autonomy and human rights principle, 258–84, 296
- accountability, 495–6

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

INDEX

585

- budget support, 428–9
 - European Union, 395–6
 - European Union, Germany and World Bank compared, 409–11
 - Germany, 405
 - Program-for-Results financing, 444
 - World Bank, 382–3
- legal and structural principles are distinct, 222–4, 297
- planning coordination among donors, 345–6
- programming by donors, 316–46
- programming by donors compared, 346–53
- relationship with Paris Declaration 2005, 225–6
- World Bank's Country Assistance Strategy (CAS), 317–27
- development finance
 - public versus private funds, 18–21
- development finance instruments, see also budget support; Program-for-Results financing; project aid
 - background, 355–61
 - functions and problems, 355–61
- development law, see also development cooperation law; international development law
 - EU, 174–7
 - Germany, 167–9
 - informal law, 29
 - internal law, 29
 - two approaches, 5–9
 - United States, 169
 - World Bank, 187–92
- development management, 137
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 141–3
- development planning
 - background, 303–4
 - coherence and efficiency principle, 349–53
 - comparison of human rights among donors, 347–8
 - coordination, 351–2
 - coordination among donors, 345–6
 - donors, 316–46
 - donors compared, 346–53
 - European Union, 327–40
 - functions, 304–7
 - Germany, 341–4
 - participation rights in EU, Germany and World Bank, 348–9
 - Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 308–16
 - problems, 307–8
 - World Bank's Country Assistance Strategy (CAS), 317–27
- development policy
 - basic-needs approach, 67–8
 - creation in Europe, 43–9
 - criticism 1990–2000, 101–2
 - decolonization and establishment of IDA, 41–3
 - European communities 1975–1990, 96–100
 - European revision in the 1970s, 75–80
 - formative years, 35
 - Germany 1975–1990, 93–5
 - Germany under Eppler 1969–1974, 71–5
 - Germany's beginnings, 50–7
 - human rights, 108–12
 - MDGs, 108–11
- development principle, see under development cooperation law
- development research
 - World Bank, 70–1, 130
- development theory, 35
 - continuous changes since the 1950s, 127–9
 - dependence theory, 65–6
 - dissociation, 87–8
 - modernization theory, 58–61
 - neoclassicism, 88–90
- donors, see also European Economic Community (EEC); European Union (EU); Germany; World Bank
 - accountability, 452–81
 - by recipients, 482–5
 - alignment with recipients, 142, 290–1

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

586

INDEX

- donors (cont.)
 - bias of development cooperation law towards, 215–19, 347
 - bilateral relationship
 - problems, 131–2
 - collective autonomy and ownership
 - principle, 238–58, 296
 - recipient-donor cooperation
 - models, 348–9
 - comparison of development
 - planning, 346–53
 - coordination of binding effect of
 - Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers, 346
 - development planning, 316–46
 - development planning
 - coordination, 345–6
 - emerging economies, 152–4
 - fragmentation problem, 132–3
 - history of relationship with
 - developing countries, 126–7
 - international, 160–4
 - national, 158–60
 - peer accountability, 487–94
 - relationships between, 195–9
 - rules for selecting recipients, 205–7
 - World Bank accountability, 459
- ECJ, see European Court of Justice
- efficiency concept, 284–95, 395
 - alignment with recipients, 290–1
 - coordination and
 - complementarity, 291–5
 - cost-effectiveness, 286–9
 - development planning EU,
 - Germany and World Bank, 349–53
 - result orientation and concentration, 289–90
- emerging economies
 - as donors, 152–4
 - increasing role and clout, 150–5
- environmental protection, 92, 102–4
- Eppler, Erhard, 71–5
- equality principle, 244–7
- European Anti-Fraud Office
 - (OLAF), 466–7
 - whistle-blowing, 455–6
- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 161
- European Court of Auditors, 465–6
- European Court of Justice (ECJ)
 - proceedings, 461–3
- European Development Fund (EDF), 46–9, 78, 175–6
 - administrative structure, 47–9
 - funds received alongside ODA, 46
 - political and economic
 - neutrality, 46–7
 - project focus, 49
 - special external fund, 46
- European Consensus, 177–8, 230, 234–6, 289–91, 334
- European Economic Community (EEC), 3
 - see also* Lomé Convention 1975
 - cooperation with ACP
 - countries, 77–9
 - cooperation with Asia and Latin America, 98–9
 - coordination, 99–100
 - creation of development policy, 43–9
 - decolonization issues and impact on
 - development policy, 44–6, 47
 - development policy 1970s, 75–80
 - development policy 1975–1990, 96–100
 - relationship with ACP countries
 - 1975–1990, 96–8
- European External Action Service, 171–4, 330–3, 338, 385, 460
- European Ombudsman, 464–5
- European Union (EU)
 - accountability
 - by recipients, 483
 - development cooperation, 460–71
 - comparison of development
 - programming with Germany and World Bank, 346–53
 - cost-effectiveness principle, 287–8, 395
 - development administration, 170–80, 201
 - accountability holders, 470–1
 - compared with World Bank and Germany, 200–2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

INDEX

587

- development cooperation law
 - principles, 394–7
 - compared with Germany and World Bank, 405–11
- development goals, 177–80
- development law, 174–7
- development planning coordination
 - among donors, 345–6
- development programming, 327–40
- financial accountability of
 - development cooperation, 465–7
- foreign policy, 178–9
- human rights obligations, 272–3, 275, 347–8
- human rights obligations to provide ODA, 278–9
- human rights violations, 393–4, 395–6
- legal accountability, 460–3
- ODA funds, 164
- participation by affected parties for project aid, 388–9
- political accountability
 - of development administration, 468–9
- political goals linked to aid, 97–8, 178–9
- project aid, 383–97
- rules for selecting recipients, 206
- sanctions, 392–4
 - contractors, 484
- substantive accountability
 - of development cooperation, 467–8
- transparency, 469–70
- Ferrandi, Jacques, 48–9, 79–80
- finance instruments, see development finance instruments
- financial regulations
 - World Bank, 288–9
- foreign policy
 - EU, 178–9
 - German motive for development policy, 51–2
- France
 - influence on European development administration, 47–9
 - influence on European development policy, 43–6
- fraud investigation
 - European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF), 466–7
 - Germany, 476
 - World Bank, 455
- G-8 Summit Gleneagles 2005, 4
- Georgetown Agreement (of ACP countries), 96, 213
- Germany
 - accountability, 471–81
 - by recipients, 483
 - auditing, 474–6
 - beginnings of development policy, 50–7
 - budget support, 424
 - comparison of development programming with EU and World Bank, 346–53
 - conditionality, 94–5, 111
 - cost-effectiveness principle, 286–7
 - development administration, 164–70, 201–2
 - accountability holders, 480–1
 - compared with World Bank and EU, 200–2
 - development cooperation law
 - principles, 404–5
 - compared with EU and World Bank, 405–11
 - development goals, 169–70
 - development law, 167–9
 - development planning coordination
 - among donors, 345–6
 - development policy 1975–1990, 93–5
 - development policy under Eppler 1969–1974, 71–5
 - development programming, 341–4
 - donor, 159–60
 - early institutional structure of development aid, 53–7
 - financial accountability
 - of development cooperation, 474–6
 - fraud investigation, 476

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

588

INDEX

- Germany (cont.)
- human rights obligations, 263–7, 275, 347–8, 405
 - human rights obligations to provide ODA, 279
 - legal accountability, 471–4
 - Memorandum of Understanding, 424
 - Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development, 53, 56–7, 72–3, 165–7, 207, 341–4
 - participation by affected parties for project aid, 405
 - political accountability
 - of development administration, 478
 - political goals linked to aid, 94–5, 111, 113, 170
 - project aid, 397–405
 - rules for selecting recipients, 207
 - sanctioning contractors, 484
 - substantive accountability of
 - development cooperation, 476–8
 - transparency, 479–80
- Gesellschaft fuer Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ), 56, 75, 95, 166, 397
- Global Governance, 9, 12, 19, 125, 200, 215, 505
- Global South, 26
- political demands 1965–1975, 63–5
- governance, 128–30, 134, 139, 147–50, 194
- development priorities of good governance and poverty reduction, 118–19, 234–5
 - indicators as instrument, 147–50
- governance concept, 115–19
- good* governance, 116–18, 234–5
- harmonization principle
- Paris Declaration 2005, 142–3
- Human Development Index (HDI), 107, 148, 203
- human rights, 84, 104–14
- ACP countries, 97
 - budget support, 428–9
 - complex relationship with development, 259–63
 - conditionality, 111–12
 - development policy, 108–12
 - duty to fulfill, 276–83
 - duty to protect, 276
 - duty to respect, 274–5
 - EU, Germany and World Bank
 - obligations compared, 409–11
 - EU violations, 393–4, 395–6
 - EU's obligations, 272–3, 275, 278–9, 347–8
 - German obligations, 263–7, 275, 279, 347–8, 405
 - impact assessment, 277–8
 - individual autonomy and human rights principle, 258–84, 296
 - institutional provisions, 279–80
 - International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights (ICESCR) 1966, 227, 235–6
 - participation rights, 280–3
 - Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 228
 - whether duty to provide
 - ODA, 278–9
 - World Bank's obligations, 267–72, 275, 278, 347–8, 382–3
- IBRD, see International Bank for Reconstruction and Development
- IDA, see International Development Association
- indicators
- gross national product (GNP), 203
 - Human Development Index (HDI), 107, 148, 203
 - instruments of governance, 147–50
 - World Bank, 204
- indigenous peoples
- participation, 370–1, 382
- inequality
- focus shift from poverty to, 154
- informal law, 29
- information
- function of accountability, 451
- information deficit, 137, 356
- interests
- relevance, 357
 - tension amongst affected parties, 357–8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

INDEX

589

- International Aid Transparency Initiative (IATI), 144, 493–4
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), 3, 37
 - autonomy of management, 39
 - characteristics, 38–41
 - charter, 39–40
 - development administration, 181–7
 - financing modes different from IDA, 184
 - foundation, 38–41
 - Founding Agreement, 187–8
 - independence, 38–9
 - main business, 39
 - reputation, 40–1
 - structure, 38–9
 - symbiotic relationship with IDA, 181–2
- International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights (ICESCR) 1966, 227, 235–6
- International Development Association (IDA), 37
 - development administration, 181–7
 - development goals distinct from IBRD, 182–4
 - establishment, 41–3
 - financing modes different from IBRD, 184
 - Founding Agreement, 187–8
 - funding, 42
 - mission to combat poverty, 42
 - organization, 43
 - symbiotic relationship with IBRD, 181–2
- international development law, 5–6
 - principles, 221, 295–9
- international law, 5–6, 297
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 - creation, 38
- international treaty law
 - possible bases for development cooperation law, 227–30
 - weak protection for autonomy, 247–9
- intervention. See also non-intervention principle
 - definition, 251–3
- Islamic Development Fund, 163
- Kreditanstalt fuer Wiederaufbau (KfW), 56, 165–6, 398, 402, 473, 475–7, 479–80, 499
- Krueger, Anne, 92
- Latin America, see Asia and Latin America (ALA)
- law and development, 5–7
- least developed countries (LDCs), 204
- Lomé Convention 1975, 76–9
 - difficulties, 96–8
- McCloy, John, 39
- McNamara, Robert, 68–71
- mandates, 128, 130
 - EU, 177–80
 - Germany, 169–70
 - World Bank, 192–5
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) 2000, 4, 108–11
 - MDG8, 140
 - World Bank, 322–3
- Monterrey Consensus 2002, 117, 140–1
- multi-level system,
 - heterarchical, 195–9
- mutual accountability principle
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 143
- new donors, 152–4
- New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), 485–7
- NGOs
 - participation, 369–70, 405
- non-intervention principle, 250–6
 - compared with World Bank's political non-interference, 255–6
 - definition of internal affairs, 254–5
 - definition of intervention, 251–3
- ODA, see Official Development Assistance
- OECD Development Assistance Committee (DAC), 141, 153–4, 158–9
 - peer reviews, 487–90
 - standard setting, 209–12

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

590

INDEX

- Official Development Assistance
 - (ODA), see also budget support; Program-for-Results financing; project aid
 - background to finance instruments, 355–61
 - definition, 14–17
 - law of transfers, 13–14
 - whether a duty to provide, 231–4
 - whether a human rights duty to provide, 278–9
- OLAF, see European Anti-Fraud Office
- Ombudsman, see European Ombudsman
- OPEC, 64, 84
- Operational Policies (World Bank law), 188–91
- ownership principle, 241–4
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 142
 - Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 308–16
- Paris Declaration 2005, 141–3
 - alignment principle, 142
 - coordination, 292
 - peer reviews, 490–3
 - relationship with principles of development cooperation law, 225–6
- participation
 - affected parties in EU project aid, 388–9
 - affected parties in German project aid, 405
 - affected parties in World Bank project aid, 369–72, 382–3
 - civil-society, 107–8, 349
 - rights, 280–3
 - rights EU, Germany and World Bank, 348–9
- Pearson Report, 66
- peer accountability
 - donors, 487–94
 - International Aid Transparency Initiative (IATI), 493–4
 - New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), 485–7
 - OECD Development Assistance Committee (DAC), 487–90
 - Paris Declaration 2005, 490–3
- political goals linked to aid, 113–14, 136
 - budget support, 426
 - EU, 97–8, 178–9
 - Germany, 94–5, 111, 113, 170
- political neutrality
 - EDF, 46–7
 - World Bank, 39–40, 178, 192–5
 - World Bank compared with non-intervention principle, 255–6
- post-colonial studies, 120–2, 135
- post-development, 101–2, 135
 - criticism, 124–5
- poverty reduction
 - definition of poverty, 118–19
 - development priorities of good governance and poverty reduction, 118–19, 234–5
 - IDA mission, 42
 - World Bank's goal under McNamara 1968–1981, 68–71
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 308–16
 - budget support, 414, 418, 427
 - coordination amongst donors on binding effect, 346
 - World Bank, 309–16, 322, 327
- Program-for-Results financing, 429–45
- project aid
 - compared to budget support, 412–13
 - European Union, 383–97
 - Germany, 397–405
 - legal regime, 361–405
 - World Bank, 361–83
- project agreements,
 - EU, 391–4
 - Germany, 401–4
 - World Bank, 377–80
- project principle, 61
 - EDF funds, 49
 - Germany, 55
 - World Bank, 39
- proposal principle, 61
 - Germany, 55
- PRSPs, see Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02029-0 - The Law of Development Cooperation: A Comparative Analysis of the World Bank, the EU and Germany

Philipp Dann

Index

More information

INDEX

591

- Reagan, Ronald, 87, 92
 recipients, 202–9,
 see also developing countries.
 accountability, 448–9, 481–7
 among peers, 485–7
 European Union, 471
 Germany, 480–1
 towards donors, 482–5
 World Bank, 459–60
 alignment by donors, 142,
 290–1
 autonomy, 134–6
 collective autonomy and ownership
 principle, 238–58, 296
 recipient-donor cooperation
 models, 348–9
 comparison of selection rules, 207 differentiation, 207–9
 donors' selection rules, 205–7
 EU accountability, 471
 EU's selection rules, 206
 German accountability, 480–1
 Germany's selection rules, 207
 Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers
 (PRSPs), 308–16
 World Bank accountability, 459–60
 World Bank's selection rules,
 205–6
 recipient-donor, asymmetry, 27, 134–6,
 134–6, 238, 357
 result-orientation principle, 289–90
 Paris Declaration 2005, 143
 right to development
 participation rights, 280–3
 United Nations Declaration on the
 Right to Development, 228–30
 Rostow, Walt, 59
 Safeguard Policies (World Bank law), 372–7
 sanctions
 contractors, 483–4
 European Union, 392–4
 contractors, 484
 German contractors, 484
 World Bank, 482–3
 contractors, 483–4
 Scheel, Walter, 57
 Sen, Amartya, 105–6, 114
 Shihata, Ibrahim, 8, 115, 194–5, 268–9, 370, 416
 sovereignty principle, 239–41
 equality, 244–7
 stakeholders
 participation, 369–72, 388–9
 standard setting
 ACP (African, Caribbean and Pacific) countries, 213–14
 OECD Development Assistance
 Committee (DAC), 209–12
 United Nations Conference on
 Trade and Development
 (UNCTAD), 212–13
 United Nations General Assembly,
 214–15
 sustainable development, 102–4
 Third World
 establishment of IDA, 41–3
 terminology, 26
 transparency
 EU development operations, 469–70
 German development operations,
 479–80
 International Aid Transparency
 Initiative (IATI), 144,
 493–4
 World Bank, 458–9
 trust funds, 294–5
 ul Haq, Mahbub, 106–7
 UNDP, see United Nations
 Development Programme
 United Nations, 3
 donor organizations, 162–3
 New International Economic Order
 (NIEO), 64–5
 power to developing countries,
 63–5
 United Nations Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States,
 64–5, 227
 United Nations Conference on
 Trade and Development
 (UNCTAD), 63–4
 standard setting, 212–13
 United Nations Declaration on the
 Right to Development, 228–30

- United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), 163
- Human Development Index (HDI), 107, 148, 203
- Sustainable Human Development, 106–7
- United Nations General Assembly standard setting, 214–15
- United States
 - development law, 169
 - donor, 159
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 228
- untied aid principle
 - Germany, 55–6
- Virally, Michel, 5–6
- whistle-blowing
 - European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF), 455–6
 - World Bank, 455–6
- World Bank, 3, 37, 163, 180–95, see also International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD); International Development Association (IDA)
 - accountability, 452–60
 - by recipients, 482–3
 - accountability holders, 459–60
 - auditing, 454
 - budget support, 416–17, 420–1, 423–4
 - comparison of development programming with EU and Germany, 346–53
 - cost-effectiveness, 288–9, 380–1
 - Country Assistance Strategy (CAS), 317–27
 - criticism, 102
 - development administration, 181–7, 200–1
 - compared with EU and Germany, 200–2
 - development cooperation law
 - principles, 380–3
 - compared with EU and Germany, 405–11
 - development planning coordination
 - among donors, 345–6
 - financial accountability, 454–6
 - financial regulations, 288–9
 - foundation of IBRD, 38–41
 - fraud investigation, 455
 - governance concept, 115–16, 118
 - human rights obligations, 267–72, 275, 347–8, 382–3
- Independent Evaluation Group (IEG), 456
- Inspection Panel, 186–7, 453–4
- legal accountability, 452–4
- legal framework, 187–92
- letter of development policy (LDP), 423–4
- loan agreement for project aid, 377–9
- McNamara and the war on poverty 1968–1981, 68–71
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) 2000, 322–3
- obligations to provide ODA, 278
- participation by affected parties for project aid, 369–72, 382–3
- political accountability, 456–8
- political neutrality, 39–40, 178, 192–5
- Program-for-Results financing, 429–45
- project aid, 361–83
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers, 309–16, 322, 327
- rules for selecting recipients, 205–6
- sanctions, 482–3
 - contractors, 483–4
- structural-adjustment loans (SALs) and conditionalities, 90–2
- substantive accountability, 456
- transformation into a development bank, 43
- transparency, 458–9
- Washington Consensus ideology, 90–2
- whistle-blowing, 455–6
- World Development Indicators, 204
- Yaoundé Convention, 47, 76