Index

activism
of American government, 51
by business, 108
careers in, 24
corporate policies changed by, 110 and restructuring of civic life in 1960s and 1970s, 51 activist groups, repression and co-optation of, 194 activists, recruitment of, 30–32, 162 administrative policy, influencing, 28 advocacy
Andrews and Edwards’s understanding of, 13 careers in, 24
change in character of, 62
commercialized, 40–41
domains of, 27
professionals and civic entrepreneurs in, 24 social forces shaping, 158 advocacy groups/organizations, 22. See also specific types of organizations, e.g.: public interest groups adaptation/borrowing of strategies from, 194 adapted tactics of, 48 budgets of, and hiring of consultants, 44 changes in field of, 138–141 charges of “astroturfing” against, 37 as clients of consultants, 92 and founding of new consulting firms, 71, 74 growth of, and decline in public participation, 196 increase in, 139
pre-existing ties to, 30 professionalization of, 139, 141
revenues from, 103, 104
systematic bias of, 44
tactics available to, 48 “thinkable” strategies for, 48 advocacy groups’ use of consultants, 103, 131–133 and building of organizational infrastructure, 135 and changes in field of advocacy organizations, 138–141 Crossroads Campaign Solutions, 134–136 features of groups most complementary with consultants, 142–150 partisanship of consultants, 94
Shirley & Banister Public Affairs, 136–138 agency decisions. See also government agencies strategies for influencing, 99
as target of consultants, 98
Alinsky, Saul, 63, 85
Alvarez, Toledo, 59, 102
Amenta, Edwin, 159
Andrews, Kenneth, 13
anonymous speech, 202 association, changing forms of, 47 associations without members, 132, 140, 144. See also non-membership advocacy organizations “astroturf,” 8, 32–38
definition of, 10
genuine grassroots activities vs, 84, 85 negative effect of, 32 perceptions/accusations of, 161 reducing risk of, 90 resistance against, 206 authenticity manufactured, 32 (See also “astroturf”) value of, 46
Avery Dennison, 120
“back stage” of public participation, 7
Baldassaro, Fred, 175 ballot measures
campaigns influencing, 28
strategies for influencing, 100 success of campaigns influencing, 166
as target of consultants, 98
Banister, Diana, 136
Barley, Stephen, 43, 195
Barrington Communities against CN Rail Congestion, 180 baseline data (SPAPCO survey), 15, 207–209
Baumgartner, Frank, 148, 159
Baxter, Leone Smith, 53, 54
Bean, Melissa, 182, 183
beneficiary constituents, 195
Bentsen, Lloyd, 33
Bernays, Edward, 52
Bernstein, Aaron, 115
Berry, Jeffrey, 63, 139
Biggert, Judy, 182, 184
Bimber, Bruce, 87
Blanchard, Wayne, 67
Bloomberg, Michael, 118
Boltanski, Luc, 65
boundary-spanning function, 79 Bourdieu, Pierre, 42, 54 boutique firms, 68, 100
boycotts, 112
Brady, Henry, 193
Brandes, Louis, 139
Brint, Steven, 42
Bueno de Mesquita, Ethan, 186
Burger, Anna, 171
business. See also corporations counter-campaigns by, 194 in-house public affairs functions in, 108 political activism by, 108 public-sphere influences of, 75 business lobbying
grassroots mobilization tactics in, 66–68
use of consulting firms in, 70 business trade groups. See also trade associations and founding of industry associations, 69
and founding of new consulting firms, 71, 73, 74
Cain, Herman, 177
California
as center of professional lobbying, 54 referendum process in, 29 campaign consulting administrative policy campaigns, 28 as background for public affairs consulting, 59 for ballot measures, 28 electoral (See electoral campaign consulting) to influence non-state organizations’ policies, 29 legislative, 27
partisanship of, 81
preconditions for development of, 56 public opinion campaigns, 29
revenues from, 104
Campaigns, Inc., 53, 54–55
Campaigns & Elections (C&E) magazine, 15
Canadian National (CN)
independent constituencies mobilized by, 158 and suburban activists, 158, 179–189 canvassing work, 20
capitol location, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 145 career backgrounds (of public affairs consultants), 56–61 Career College Association (CCA), 6 careers in activism/advocacy, 24
Carpenter, Daniel, 28
Center for Media and Democracy, 35
Change to Win Coalition, 171
Chiapello, Eve, 65
citizen advocacy, and growth of consulting field, 63 Citizens for a Free Kuwait, 37
Citizens for Fire Safety, 37
Citizens for Riverboat Gambling, 37
Index

Civic activists, as targets of consultants, 163
Civic associations, and founding of new consulting firms, 73
Civic decline, 46
Civic life
  Influence of business on, 75
  Restructuring of, in 1960s and 1970s, 51
Civil society
  In context of “grassroots for hire,” 204–206
  Democratic public sphere rooted in, 205
  Limitations imposed by, 199
  Transformations in, 197
Clemens, Elisabeth, 27
Clients. See also specific types of clients Amount charged to, 101–103
  Contracts with, 89–90
  Disclosure of identity of, 186, 199–204
  Domains of advocacy for, 27
  Electoral campaigns as, 24, 28
  Gaining confidence of, 26
  Goals of, 27
  Organizational, 25–27, 91–93
  Revenues by type of, 103–105
Clifton Consulting, 134 Coalition-building, 137. See also independent constituencies in Canadian National campaign, 179–189
  Employees in, 165
  As success factor for actions, 160
  In targeting participants, 163
  In Working Families for Wal-Mart campaign, 169–178 Coalition for Education Success, 6
College-educated people, as targets of consultants, 163
Combs, Ira, Jr., 174
“Command posts” of power, 42
Commercialized democracy, 40–41
Communications technologies, 38–39.
  See also social networking Decline in types of, 95
  In grassroots lobbying methods, 128
  And growth of consulting field, 63
  And legitimacy of campaigns, 87–88
  Low-cost tactics using, 168
  Professional advocacy groups’ use of, 142
  And rise of public affairs consulting field, 51, 68, 70
  In Wal-Mart campaigns, 114–115, 117–118
  Communications technology firms, consultant hiring by, 128
  Community engagement, and the subsidized public, 47
  Community organizations maintaining relationships with, 83
  Resources and support for, 20
Connor, Dawn, 3–4, 6
Conscience constituents, 195
Constituency(-ies)
  Broad support among, 160 (See also coalition-building) Building, 31–32, 123
  Corporate, 123
  Employees as, 164
  Constituent activation factors in, 153
  Independent constituencies, 44, 156–157
  Interest groups, 143
  Constituents
    Beneficiary, 195
    Conscience, 195
  Consulting. See also public affairs consulting Campaign (electoral), 24, 25, 28
    Political, 55
  Contention, responding to, 46
  Contentious politics, implications for study of, 193–197
  Contracts with clients, 89–90
  Controversies. See also protests
    External, 126
    Internal, 127
  As reason for corporate campaigns, 105
  Corporate grassroots campaigns, 108–111
  Canadian National, 158, 179–189
  By Fortune 500 and 100 companies, 44, 123
  Grassroots mobilization in, 46
© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
corporate grassroots campaigns (cont.)
   Kimberly-Clark and Greenpeace, 111–114 non- or bipartisan consultants, 94 reasons for, 108–109, 119–122 statistical model of, 122–129 tactics used in, 66–68
   targeting participants for, 163–165
   Wal-Mart, 114–119, 120, 158, 169–178
Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), 110 at Kimberly-Clark, 113 and response to protests, 121
   at Wal-Mart, 114, 118
   corporations
      as clients of consultants, 91
      consultants’ revenues from, 103
      independent political expenditures of, 200 political sophistication of, 65 social movements’ targeting of, 194 as source of business for consultants, 108 (See also corporate grassroots campaigns) costs–effectiveness trade-off for strategies, 97
      for tactics, 168
   Craigs, Michael, 101
   Crate, John, 104, 132
   crisis management, 83
   Crosslink Strategy Group, 176
   Crossroads Campaign Solutions (CCS), 41, 134–136 cultural capital, 42
Dach, Leslie, 175
Daley, Richard M., 182
   data files
      maintaining, 95
   of Williamson Strategists, 86 data sources, 14–16
   Davies Public Affairs, 102
   Davis, Lanny, 6
   DCI Group, 6
   DDC Advocacy, 115
   democracy and “astroturf” campaigns, 84 challenges for, 206
      commercialized, 40–41
   Democracy Partners, 132 Democratic Party
      consulting firms affiliated with, 93
      and Working Families for Wal-Mart campaign, 175
   demographic groups, as targets of consultants, 161–165
   DiMaggio, Paul, 195
   direct mail, 68, 97, 142
   the disadvantaged
      participation by, 156 tactics of, 195
   disclosure of client identities, 186, 199–204 of sponsorships, 198 diversity strengths, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 127
   Durban, Richard, 182, 183 economic conditions, in rise of consulting firms, 73
   Edelman, 40, 173
   Edwards, Bob, 13
   effectiveness of consultant-driven campaigns, 13, 155
   Canadian National, 179–189
      factors in, 158–161
      participatory outcomes, 161–165 policy outcomes, 163–169 and support from apparently independent constituencies, 156–157
   Working Families for Wal-Mart, 169–178
   effort, campaign success and, 165 electoral campaign consulting, 24, 25, 28 as background for public affairs consulting, 59
   “full service,” 56
   partisanship of, 81
   prevalence of, 92
   revenues from, 103
   electoral outcomes
      strategies for influencing, 100
         as target of consultants, 98 electronic mass communications, 169 electronic media ads services, 95
   Elgin, Joliet, and Eastern Railway (EJ&E), 180–181. See also
         Canadian National (CN)
Index

elite experts, gaining endorsement of, 53 elite campaigns sponsored by, 204–206 command posts of, 42, 43 constraints on ability to generate change, 158 cultural capital of, 42 mass participation as legitimation of, 11 participation independent of, 20 patronage by, 159, 195 political role of, 42–45 popular participation mobilization by, 9 populist posturing by, 21 role of, 195
email, effectiveness of, 169
Emmitt Strategies, 104, 132 employees, as constituency in corporate campaigns, 164 employer coercion, 36
Empowered Media Strategies, 134 engagement forms of, 23 and the subsidized public, 47 ethics code, 203
expert professionals, 42 external controversies, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 123 Facebook, 68, 118, 196–197 face-to-face meetings effectiveness of, 169 as incentive, 83
Farrell, David, 58
fax broadcasting, 95, 169
federated organizations, 143–144, 149
Field Engagement, Inc., 60, 135
First Amendment, 200, 201
Fishkin, Robert, 46
Fitzgerald, Kevin B., 67
focus groups, 97
for-profit colleges and universities, 3–7 founding cohort, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 145, 149 fraudulent participation, 33, 35, 85. See also “astroturf”; legitimacy of consultants’ work Frederick, Phil, 60, 80
Frederick Partners, 80, 81–86, 97
Friedenberg, Robert, 56 front groups. See masquerading “front stage” of public participation, 7 funding sources, misrepresenting, 37. See also resources gainful employment rule, 3–7 Galloway, Ron, 177
general consulting services, 95, 97
George Washington University Graduate School of Political Management, 203 Global Strategy Group, 6 goals client, 27, 165
and ranking of campaign success, 165
Goffman, Erving, 7
Goldberg, Jeffrey, 170
Gotham Government Relations, 119
Gotham Public Affairs, 35 government agencies. See also agency decisions as clients of consultants, 93 revenues from, 104 success in influencing decisions of, 167 working with, 104–105 Gramsci, Antonio, 9 “grassroots” image of, 20 reddefinition of, 140
as tactic of elite actors, 51 grassroots advocacy industry-backed, 6–7 professionalization and commercialization of, 6–12 public affairs consulting vs, 10, 197–199
Grassroots Amplifier, Inc., 167
Grassroots Enterprise, 40 “grassroots for hire,” 21 grassroots lobbying. See also public affairs consultants First Amendment concerns with, 201 IRS tax code definition of, 28 and lobbyist disclosure laws, 201 regulation of, 201–204
Index

grassroots participation, 21 “astroturf” vs, 84, 85
authenticity of, 46
and the subsidized public, 22
grassroots
in corporate campaigns, 164
in Frederick Partners’ work, 82
in lobbying, 49
origin of, 53
in recruiting, 31, 36
Greenpeace, 111–114
Greenwood, Royston, 195
Grefe, Edward, 63
Greider, William, 64
Habermas, Jürgen, 11, 54, 205
Han, Habrie, 186
Harris, Hunter, 182
headquarters location, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 146 Hearts & Minds Strategists, 101
Hess, Roger Dylan, 59
Honest Leadership and Open Government Act (HLOGA) of 2007, 201–202, 203
Hoover, Bill, 60, 135, 141
Howard, Philip, 10, 205 incentivized participation, 10, 33, 34, 36. See also “astroturf” income groups, targeting, 163
independent constituencies, 198
in Canadian National campaign, 158, 179–189 connecting with, 44
and perceptions of campaigns, 161 support from, 156–157
Indiana University, 35 industry associations/groups, 66
founding patterns of, 69
use of consulting firms in, 70 industry sectors, likelihood of hiring consultants by, 128 information-driven politics, 65 information technologies
in grassroots lobbying methods, 128
and growth of consulting field, 63 information technology firms, 128 in-house operations of advocacy organizations, 140
for grassroots lobbying, 67 for public affairs in business, 105 strategies developed by, 14 initiative process, consulting role in, 29 in-person meetings. See face-to-face meetings institutional targeting, 27–30 institutionalization, of tactics, 193 interest groups. See also public interest groups activation of constituents by, 143 effectiveness of, 158
elite patronage of, 159 and growth of consulting firms, 62 maintaining relationships with, 83 internal controversies, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 127 interviews (SPAPCO survey), 15–16, 226–227 issue focus, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 145–146, 149
Keim, Gerald, 164
Kennedy, Janice, 86–87, 88–89
Kimberly-Clark, 110, 120 and Greenpeace, 111–114
regulatory threat to, 121–122 reputation and response to protest, 120
Kleercut campaign, 111–114
Kollman, Ken, 60
labor unions
budgets of, 105
as clients of consultants, 92
independent political expenditures of, 200 “name and shame” strategies used by, 170
revenues from, 104
working with, 105
LawMedia Group, 6
Lee, Ivy, 53
legal support, as consultant service, 96 legislation
corporate influence on, 66
strategies for influencing, 99
success in shaping, 167
as target of consultants, 98
legislative campaigns, 27
Index

legitimacy of consultants’ work, 85 communications technologies and, 87–88
Williamson Strategists on, 87–88
Let’s Put Students First, 6 letter-writing campaign, 186
Lichterman, Paul, 43
Linsky, Marty, 63
litigation, as consultant service, 96 lobbying by business, 66–68 California as center of, 54
by consultants, 95, 97
expanding definition of, 203 and reputation, 127
revenues from, 100
in the 1970s, 63
traditional, 89, 95, 97
Lobbying Disclosure Act (LDA) of 1995, 200, 202 Lobbying Transparency and Accountability Act, 203 lobbyist disclosure laws, 200–202 lobbyists public affairs consultants vs, 24, 89 registering of firms as, 203
Lord, Michael, 32
Lounsbury, Michael, 42, 195
“managed citizens,” 10
The Marino Organization, 116 masquerading, 33, 36, 84. See also “astroturf” mass marketing, and membership size of groups, 144
McCarthy, John, 148, 156
McNary, Graham, 86, 87–88 media firms, likelihood of hiring consultants by, 128 media manipulation, 32. See also “astroturf” media technologies in grassroots lobbying methods, 128
and growth of consulting field, 63 mediated communications, effectiveness of, 169 mediators, consultants as, 79 membership size, and use of consultants, 144, 148 messaging, and success of actions, 160 Meyer, David, 9
models of consulting for non-trade associations, 238–239 for trade associations, 240–241 models of corporate grassroots dependent variable in, 228 independent variables and estimation in, 229–237 modular repertoires, 48, 193
Morone, James, 55
My Education, My Choice, 6 “name and shame” strategies, 170 national advocacy organizations hiring of consultants by, 131, 142–150 membership and budgets of, 146
National Council of La Raza (NCLR), 134
National Resources Defense Council, 112 Nelson, Terry, 177
neo-institutionalism, 45, 129 “new institutionalism,” 110
New York Neighborhood Alliance, 119 non-membership advocacy organizations, 144, 148. See also associations without members nonprofit organizations, growth of, 40 non-state organizations. See also corporate grassroots campaigns; organizational theory influencing policies of, 29 repression/co-optation of activist groups by, 194 response to contention by, 46 self-regulation and social responsibility of, 45 as targets of popular contention, 45 non-trade associations, models of consulting for, 238–239
Not-In-My-Backyard (NIMBY) opposition, 181
Obama, Barack, 183
Olson, Mancur, 34
opinion leaders, support from, 164. See also grasstops opinion polling, 54
organization and policy influence, 159 two logics of, 164
organizational clients, 25–27, 91–93 organizational infrastructure building, 85, 135 organizational theory, 195 “new institutionalism” in, 109 and social movements, 45–46 organization–environment relationships, 79–80 organizations, non-state. See non-state organizations PaidCritics.com, 176, 178 participation. See also specific types of participation commercialization of, 40–41 decoupling of social capital and civic skills from, 52, 140, 205 by the disadvantaged, 156 independent of elites, 20 and social capital, 22
participatory activities, 39 participatory inequality, 156–157 and commercialized advocacy, 8 consultants’ role in increasing, 163 exacerbation of, 12–13
participatory outcomes, of consultant-driven campaigns, 161–163 participatory repertoires, of public affairs consultants, 27 partisanship
Phil Frederick’s view of, 81 of public affairs consulting firms, 93–95 and requests for participation, 163
in targeting participants, 162
Partnership for Working Families (PWF), 135 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, 28, 101 patronage, 159, 193, 198 Pell grants, 3–7
petition management, 97 petitions, effectiveness of, 169 phone banks, 67, 82
Pieczka, Magda, 26
“plug-in” volunteering, 43 pluralism, 43, 44, 45
policy environment, success of collective actions and, 159 policy goals, and ranking of campaign success, 165 policy outcomes, of consultant-driven campaigns, 165–169 Political Action Committees (PACs), 202 political consulting, 55 political consulting firms, 53 political factors in likelihood of hiring consultants, 127 in rise of consulting firms, 71, 74 political inequality, 47 political mediation model, 159 political participation, and founding of new consulting firms, 71, 74 political parties, 92
as clients of consultants, 92
consulting firms affiliated with, 93 decline of, and rise of consulting firms, 73
revenues from, 104
political recruiters, 36 politics
business mobilization in, 66–68
in context of “grassroots for hire,” 204–206 forms of engagement in, 23 implications for study of, 193–197 information-driven, 65
professionalization of, 23
role of elites in, 42–45 polling, 54, 97
popular activism, and growth of consulting firms, 62 popular influence, “buying” vs connecting for, 44 popular participation elites’ mobilization of, 9 incentives for, 10
Powell, Walter W., 195
pre-existing activists as primary targets of consultants, 162 representing independent constituencies, 157 pre-existing opinion leaders, mobilization of, 95
Index

primary campaign defined, 162
demographic groups targeted in, 161–165 primary targets, 162 privacy, mandated disclosure and, 202 private sector clients, 91 professional service firms, 79 as command post for elite, 43 public affairs consulting firms as, 23–25 sociological research on, 196 professionalization of advocacy, 40
of advocacy organizations, 139, 141, 142–143
and likelihood of hiring consultants, 146
of politics, 23
protests
and changes in corporate practices, 65 CSR and response to, 121 and growth of consulting, 62
as reason for corporate campaigns, 105 reputation and corporate responses to, 126 against Wal-Mart, 172
in Wal-Mart’s NYC campaign, 118
Pryor, Divine, 118
public affairs consultants, 6–9 aggregate influence of, 11 atomistic targeting by, 196–197 campaign consultants vs, 24 career backgrounds of, 56–61 downplaying/concealing role of, 80 as an elite, 195
ethics code for, 203
lobbyists vs, 24, 89
mediating role of, 46, 79 participatory repertoires of, 27
partisanship of, 81
and political role of elites, 42–45 sociological research on, 196
in stand-alone consulting shops, 26 and subsidized public, 10–12 tactical repertoire of, 48–49 public affairs consulting definition of, 23 diffusion of contentious tactics through, 193 grassroots advocacy work vs, 10 history of, 61–70

pathways from previous careers into, 56–61 prehistory of, 52–56
as a profession, 242–244
and social capital, 47–48
traditional grassroots advocacy vs, 197–199 public affairs consulting firms, 91 and “astroturf,” 32–38
and clients’ goals, 27
and commercialized democracy, 40–41 communications technologies used by, 38–39 formation of, 70–75
found ing consultants of, 57
found ing patterns of, 69, 70–75 institutional targeting by, 27–30 organizational clients of, 25–27, 91–93 organizational pressures of, 80 organization–environment relationships of, 79–80
partisanship of, 93–95
as professional service firms, 23–25 registration of, 203
revenues and staffing of, 100–103 revenues by client type, 103–105 role and activities of, 21 services of, 21, 95–97
sociopolitical legitimacy pressures for, 80 for SPAPCO survey, 210–214 strategies and ultimate targets of, 97–100 supply-side recruitment of activists by, 30–32 Public Affairs Council, 25 public interest groups. See also interest groups founding patterns of, 69
inherent mobilization capacities of, 131
use of consulting firms in, 70
Public Interest Movement, 62, 145 public opinion, corporate influence on, 66
public opinion campaigns, 29
public participation commercialized efforts to mobilize, 80 decreases in, and growth of advocacy organizations, 196
front and back stages of, 7 genuine vs "astroturf," 84, 85 paid, professional mobilization of, 47 public prominence, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 128
public relations, 52, 97, 144 public relations firms public affairs consultants vs, 25 revenues of, 100
public relations services, 95
Public Relations Society of America, 203 public support, amplifying vs manufacturing, 84
Putnam, Robert, 22, 196 rational prospecting model, 164, 192–193 recruitment of activists, 30–32, 162 subtle power used in, 36 referendum process, consulting role in, 29 Reform Immigration for America, 135
The Regional Answer to Canadian National (TRAC), 183
registration, as lobbyists, 203 regulation of grassroots lobbying, 201–204
lobbyist disclosure laws, 200–202 self-regulation and voluntary compliance, 203
Wal-Mart's and Kimberly-Clark's responses to, 121–122
Republican Party, consulting firms affiliated with, 93 reputation, 109
and building of advocacy groups' capacity, 136
and corporate responses to protest, 120, 126
of Kimberly-Clark, 111
and likelihood of hiring consultants, 123
and likelihood of lobbying, 127 reputational work
in corporate campaigns, 109
by Frederick Partners, 83
as target of consultants, 99 resource mobilization theory, 156, 159, 195 resources, 195
of advocacy organizations, 142–143
and likelihood of hiring consultants, 146
and policy influence, 159
and ranking of campaign success, 165 retainers, 101, 102, 106, 135 revenues
by client type, 103–105
and likelihood of hiring consultants, 128
of public affairs consulting firms, 100–103
Richard Norman Company, 41, 132
Roger Hess Advocacy, 59, 104
Roskam, Peter, 182
Rustin, Bayard, 62
Safire, William, 20
salaries of consultants, 101 Samuels, Pat, 55, 61, 128 satellite broadcasting, 95
Save Access/Student Choice Coalition, 6
Schattschneider, E. E., 44 school districts, lobbying activities of, 93
Schudson, Michael, 46
Schussman, Alan, 30
Scott, Leo, 173
secondary targets, 162
self-regulation, 203
Selznick, Philip, 42
Service Employees International Union
(SEIU), 171
services
to advocacy groups, 138 of consulting firms, 21, 95–97 vendors of, 25
Shaiko, Ronald, 30
Shirley, Craig, 136–137
Shirley & Banister Public Affairs
(SBPA), 41, 136–138
Showalter, Amy, 204
Sinclair, Upton, 55
Skocpol, Theda, 196
Sobieraj, Sarah, 142
social capital
decoupling of participation and, 22, 205
new form of, 47
Index

and participation, 22
and public affairs consulting, 47–48 social movements corporations targeted by, 194
implications for study of, 193–197 institutional change conceptualized by, 111 and organizational theory, 45–46
resources and support for, 21
social forces shaping, 158
“thinkable” strategies for, 48
social networking, 68 campaigns taking root in, 196
in Wal-Mart’s NYC campaign, 118 sociopolitical legitimacy pressures, 80 software applications, developing, 95
Soule, Sarah, 30
Spencer, Stuart, 56
Spencer-Roberts, 56
Sprawl-Busters, 172
St. Claire, Laura, 177–178 staff size, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 146 staffing
of advocacy organizations, 142
of consulting firms, 91
of public affairs consulting firms, 100–103
stakeholder mobilization
in corporate campaigns, 163
by Kimberly-Clark, 111–114
by Wal-Mart, 114–119
stakeholder strength, and likelihood of hiring consultants, 127 state politics, engagement in, 149 statistical models. See also models of consulting; models of corporate grassroots of advocacy groups’ likelihood of hiring consultants, 146–150 of corporate grassroots activity, 122–129 of firm formation, 70–75
Stern, Andrew, 171
Stinchcombe, Arthur, 145
Strategic Lawsuits against Public Participation (SLAPPs), 194 “Strategic Public Affairs and Political Consulting Organizations in the US” (SPAPCO survey), 15 baseline data for, 15, 207–209 identifying firms for, 210–214 interviews for, 15–16, 226–227 procedures for, 214–216 questions on, 216–212 website data for, 16, 222–225 strategies
in activating constituencies, 157 adaptation/borrowing of, 194 costs–effectiveness trade-off for, 97 in-house development of, 14
in Kleercut campaign, 112 “name and shame,” 170
of public affairs consulting firms, 97–100 selecting, 39
for supply-side activist recruitment, 30–32 for targeted activation, 31 “thinkable,” 48
in Wal-Mart’s NYC campaign, 117, 156
student activism, and gainful employment rule, 3–7 student loans, 3–7
Students for Academic Choice (SAC), 4–6 subsidized public, 10–12
and decoupling of social capital and participation, 22 “managed citizens” vs, 10 and mass participation as form of elite legitimation, 11 mobilization of, 22 targeted activation of, 47 success of campaigns. See effectiveness of consultant-driven campaigns “sunshine laws,” 63, 139 supply-side recruitment of activists, 30–32, 162 sustainability, Kimberly-Clark’s commitment to, 113 tactical repertoire available to actors, 48 in business lobbying, 66–68 modular, 48, 193
of public affairs consultants, 48–49 tactics of corporations facing claims, 110 costs–effectiveness trade-off of, 168 tactics (cont.)
of disadvantaged groups, 195
effectiveness of, 167–169
institutionalization of, 193 of professional advocacy groups, 142 Taking Responsible Action for Community Safety (TRACS) Act, 184 targeted activation strategies, 31, 47. See also subsidized public

targeting, 198
atomistic, 196–197
of civically active individuals, 83 of corporations by social movements, 194
of demographic groups, 161–165 institutional, 27–30 options for responding to, 194 of organizational stakeholders, 49 in recruiting activists, 30 and strategy, 97–100
Tarrow, Sidney, 9
Taylor, Owen, 102, 104
Taylor Advocacy, 102
technologically oriented services, 95. See also specific technologies, e.g.: communications technologies tertiary associations, 22

Thresher, Jim, 177
Toledo Alvarez Associates, 59, 102 trade associations
as clients of consultants, 91–92
and founding of new consulting firms, 74
founding patterns of, 69 models of consulting for, 240–241 recruitment by, 36
revenues from, 103
trust
in advocacy causes, 202 between consultant and client, 89 and disclosure of sponsorship, 198, 203 and engagement of elites, 204
Twitter, 35, 68, 118, 196

United Food and Commercial Workers (UFCW) International Union,
170–171
US Steel, 180, 183

Valley Signature Gatherers, 29 vendors of services, public affairs consultants vs, 25
Viguerie, Richard, 67, 68
Vogel, David, 64
voters influencing, 28
success in influencing, 167
as targets of consultants, 163

Wag the Dog (film), 32
Wake Up Wal-Mart campaign,
170–171
Wal-Mart, 110, 120
Community Action Network, 114–115, 117–118, 120
and local community groups, 114–119
New York City market entry
campaign, 120
protests against, 172
regulatory threat to, 121–122 reputation and response to protest by,
121
RV campaign, 177–178
Wake Up Wal-Mart campaign,
170–171
Wal-Mart Watch campaign, 171
Working Families for Wal-Mart, 37,
115, 158, 169–178
Wal-Mart-Free NYC, 119
Wal-Marting Across America RV tour, 177–178
Wal-Mart Watch campaign, 171
Weber, Max, 23
website data (SPAPCO survey), 16, 222–225
Weisner, Tom, 184
Whitaker, Clem, 53, 54
Williams, Mona, 175
Williamson Strategists, 86–91, 97, 106
Working Families for Wal-Mart, 37, 115, 158, 169–178

Young, Andrew, 174, 177
YouTube, 118
Zald, Mayer, 42, 156, 195