The Cambridge Introduction to Tom Stoppard

Tom Stoppard is widely considered to be one of the most important dramatists of contemporary theatre. In this Introduction, William Demastes provides an accessible overview of Stoppard's life and work, exploring all the complexity and variety that makes his drama so unique. Illustrated with images from a diverse range of Stoppard productions, the book provides clear evaluations of his major works, including Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead, Travesties, Arcadia, and The Coast of Utopia, to provide the most up-to-date assessment available. Detailed chapters situate each play in the context of its sources, which include Shakespeare and contemporary existential thought, international espionage, quantum physics, chaos theory, romanticism, landscape design, nineteenth-century European intellectual thought, and European totalitarianism. The book also includes a section on Stoppard's Academy Award-winning film Shakespeare in Love.

WILLIAM W. DEMASTES is San Diego II Alumni Professor of English at Louisiana State University where he teaches modern theatre and drama.

Acknowledgements

Support for this book came from several sources. The English Department at Louisiana State University awarded me a Board of Regents Grant, the College of Arts and Sciences granted me a sabbatical, and my Alumni Professorship provided travel and other funds to complete this project. An Andrew W. Mellon Foundation Research Fellowship from the Harry Ransom Center, Austin, TX, allowed me the valuable opportunity to work with the Tom Stoppard Collection, managed so well by that institution.

Vicki Cooper and Fleur Jones at Cambridge University Press were central in getting this project to publication. Jacky Matthews, Rose Cobbe, and Tom Stoppard himself were helpful in ways tangible and intangible. Donald Cooper and Paul Kolnik were invaluable in helping me find photos for this book. I also thank the publishers at Grove Press and Faber & Faber for permission to quote from Stoppard's works. I must also thank a classroom full of "test subjects," dedicated students who helped me figure out which of my bright ideas should be included in or excluded from this text. That noble band included Randon Gilmore, Travis Williams, Anne Grant, Chelsea Demel, Alexandra Clontz, Amanda Lee, Andromeda Love, Tiffany Lyle, Priyanka Mehta, Caroline Newman, Monica Russell, Rebecca Schlicher, and Matthew Stokes. Thanks, everyone.

And, as always, special thanks to Jean and Erin, beacons in my life.
