

Index

- accommodation, 110
- adaptation, 117
- alien species, 60, 62
- animal disenchantment, 146
- anthropocentrism, 45
- appreciation, 110
- argument from genomic integrity, 145
- argument from incremental change, 139
- argument from nature, 137
- argument from reductionism, 147
- argument from species fluidity, 141
- argument from species nominalism, 141
- argument from unnaturalness, 138
- artificial organisms, 14, 180, 182, 183
  - and natural value, 183–187
  - inherent worth of, 187–195
  - subjective value of, 195–196
- artificial species. See artificial organisms
- artificialness, 180, 181
- artificial intelligences, 181, 197
- artificial life. See artificial organisms
- artificial selection, 185
- assisted colonization, 11, 114
  - argument against, 85–86
  - definition, 75
  - responsible translocation, 88
- assisted recovery, 67
- atmospheric scrubbing, 125
- biodiversity
  - conceptions of, 9–10
  - rivet-popping analogy, 2
  - value of, 20–22
- Callicott, Baird, 24, 25–26
- Caney, Simon, 121
- carbon capture and storage, 125
- carbon sequestration, 125
- challenge of adaptation, 53
- climate justice, 120
- cloning, 102, 133
- compensation, 117
- consequential concerns. See extrinsic considerations
- conservation biology, 47, 55
  - normative postulates of, 47, 48, 56
- conspicuous, 9
- Convention on Biological Diversity, 27
- de novo* organisms and species. See artificial organisms
- differential assessment, 13, 149, 156, 200
- directly considerable, 159
- discount rate, 119
- Dutch Committee on Animal Biotechnology, 145
- ecological integrity
  - value of, 20–22
- ecological restoration, 11
  - definition of, 68
  - ecological integrity justification, 68–70
  - natural value justification, 70–72
  - standard reasoning in support of, 48
- Endangered Species Act, United States 1973 (ESA), 26, 58, 82
- etiological account
  - of an entity's good, 36
  - of teleology, 36

- extinction
 as “superkilling,” 28, 39 rates of, 1–2, 54–55
 extrinsic considerations, 14, 136
- flexibility, 111 future generations, 119–120
- genetic fallacy, 30 genetically modified crops, 133, 138, 148, 151, 152, 154, 155
 geoengineering, 124
 global climate change causes of, 49–50 distinctive features of, 52–53 foregone, 50
 future scenarios, 50–52 goal-directed system, 36 good of its own, 34 nonsentient organism, 35–37
- Higgs, Eric, 72 historical fidelity, 68
 historicity, 68
 hubris, 150
 human dignity, 160, 164 human enhancement robustness of, 168
 technologies, 3, 167 human nature, 171–173 and human flourishing, 171, 173–174 informational conception, 171, 173 normativity of, 14
 prescriptive conceptions, 169–170, 173 human rights, 121–122, 164 humility, 126
- indirectly considerable, 159 inherent worth, 20, 34
 and assisted colonization, 89
 and highly impacted systems, 115–116
 of ecosystems, 46
 responsiveness to, 44, 45. See also moral status interest-based value, 29. See also inherent worth
- interests. See good of its own interspecific chimeras, 131 interspecific hybrid, 131
 interspecific individuals. See transgenic organisms
 intrinsic objection, 13, 136 invasive species, 61, 65
- last person argument, 30–32
 Leopold, Aldo land ethic, 21
 Lomborg, Bjørn, 118
- McKibben, Bill, 76
 Mill, John Stuart, 137 mitigation and final value of species, 122–124 and instrumental value of species, 122 moral agency, 41
 relevance to inherent worth, 41–42
 moral status, 13, 45, 159 capacities-oriented approach, 14, 41, 163, 166
 and engineered part-humans, 163–164
 conspecific approach, 164–166 of artificial organisms, 193–194 species membership approach, 41, 160, 163
 morally considerable, 159
- native species prioritization, 60, 64, 109 ecological justification, 60–66
 natural value justification, 66–67
 naturalism, 8 neutrality of effect, 154 of intent, 154 of justification, 154
 nonintrinsic concerns. See extrinsic considerations
 nonnative species. See alien species Nordhaus, William, 118 novel organisms and species. See artificial organisms
 novel systems, 55–56, 112

234 Index

- ocean fertilization, 124
- openness, 110
- parks. See reserves
- patience, 111
- place-based preservation, 11, 59
  - standard reasoning in support of, 48, 59
- place-based protection. See reserves
- Pleistocene re-wilding, 91
  - as assisted colonization, 95
  - as ecological restoration, 93–95
- posthumans, 159, 163
- Preston, Christopher, 183
- prevention, 117
- protocells, 181
- pure time preference, 119
- rationality
  - relevance to inherent worth, 42
- reasonable comprehensive doctrine, 13, 159
- recognition, 111
- recombinant DNA techniques, 132
- reconciliation, 111
- remorsefulness, 111
- replication argument, 32–33
- reserves, 104
  - and inherent worth, 108
  - and natural historical value, 107
  - and natural value, 107
  - and species conservation, 105–107
- restraint, 111
- Rio Declaration on the Environment, 27
- Rolston III, Holmes, 7, 27, 28, 30, 38
- rule consequentialism, 148
- Sagoff, Mark, 25
- sentientism, 43–44
- Singer, Peter, 43, 44
- solar radiation management, 125, 126
- species
  - climate risk traits of, 54–55
  - conceptions of, 4
  - conventionalism, 4
  - form of life conception, 6–9
  - good of, 35, 38–39
  - inherent worth of, 34
  - instrumental value of, 22–23
  - nominalism, 140
  - pluralism, 4–6
  - richness, 10
  - rights of, 26, 40
  - species conservation. See species preservation
  - species conservation dilemma, 11
  - species preservation
    - and highly impacted systems, 114
    - deemphasis of, 103, 112
    - ex situ*, 49, 56, 114
    - in situ*, 49, 56, 60, 83, 84
    - See also* place-based preservation
  - speciesism, 41
  - Stern, Nicholas, 118
  - synthetic biology, 2, 134, 183
  - synthetic organisms, 182, 183. See also
    - artifactual organisms
  - synthetic species, 183. See also artifactual organisms
  - system account
    - of teleology, 37–38
- techno-fix, 151
- Throop, William, 69
- tolerance, 111
- transgenic organisms, 13, 131
- transhumans, 159, 163
- value
  - ecological value
    - and assisted colonization, 79–80
  - existence value, 23
  - final value, 17, 18
  - instrumental value, 16
    - and assisted colonization, 80–81
  - integral value, 24–27
    - and assisted colonization, 82–84
  - intrinsic value, 17–18, 24
  - natural historical value, 20, 29
    - and assisted colonization, 84–85
  - natural value, 33, 71, 73

- objective value, 18, 19, 27
- option value, 17
- preference value, 23–24
  - and assisted colonization, 82
- realism, 27, 28
- subjective value, 18–19
  - of Homo sapiens species boundaries, 158
  - and highly impacted systems, 113
  - of species boundaries, 153–154, 155–156
  - typology of, 10, 16
- value analysis, 77
- Virtue-oriented concerns, 150
- welfare economics
  - and global climate change, 117–121
- wisdom of repugnance, 143