SHAKESPEARE AND TEXTUAL STUDIES

Shakespeare and Textual Studies gathers contributions from leading specialists in the fields of manuscript and textual studies, book history, editing and digital humanities to provide a comprehensive reassessment of how manuscript, print and digital practices have shaped the body of works that we now call 'Shakespeare'. This cutting-edge collection identifies the legacies of previous theories, and places special emphasis on the most recent developments in the editing of Shakespeare since the 'turn to materialism' in the late twentieth century. Providing a wide-ranging overview of current approaches and debates, the book explores Shakespeare's poems and plays in light of new evidence, engaging scholars, editors and book historians in conversations about the recovery of early composition and publication, and the ongoing appropriation and transmission of Shakespeare's works through new technologies.

MARGARET JANE KIDNIE is Professor of English at the University of Western Ontario. She is the author of Shakespeare and the Problem of Adaptation and her edition of Philip Stubbes: The Anatomie of Abuses won Honorable Mention from the MLA's Committee on Scholarly Editions. She has also edited Jonson for Oxford University Press and her edition of Thomas Heywood's A Woman Killed with Kindness is forthcoming. Textual Performances: The Modern Reproduction of Shakespeare's Drama, which she co-edited with Lukas Erne, was nominated Book of the Year in the Times Literary Supplement.

SONIA MASSAI is Professor of Shakespeare Studies at King's College London. She has published widely in the fields of Shakespeare textual studies and the editing of Shakespeare, including Shakespeare and the Rise of the Editor (Cambridge, 2007), an Arden Early Modern Drama edition of John Ford's 'Tis Pity She's a Whore (2011) and an edition of Paratexts in English Printed Drama to 1642 (Cambridge, 2014). She has also contributed to refereed journals, such as Shakespeare Survey and Studies in English Literature, and to collections of essays on the textual transmission of Shakespeare.

Acknowledgements

We are indebted for funding support for the book's illustrations from King's College London, from Graham and Gale Wright, who generously sponsor the Graham and Gale Wright Distinguished Scholar Award at Western University, and from the J. B. Smallman Research Fund, also at Western University. We are also grateful to Fleur Jones and Beata Mako, who patiently and efficiently saw the collection through production, and to Paul Smith, who read the collection at the copy-editing stage and made a number of very helpful suggestions. Lauren Abrams provided enormous research support, helping us to standardize citations and check references. Emily Sugerman was instrumental in preparing the index, and we appreciate her willingness to devote herself to this project on relatively short notice. Our greatest thanks, as ever, are owed to Sarah Stanton, who supported this project and provided invaluable suggestions on the collection's structure and shape in its early stages.
