

Index

ACCC see Australian Competition and Consumer Commission access asymmetric provider/user relationship 144 core network firm vertically integrated in competitive activity 146–148, 410–411 core network firm vertically separated from competitive activity 116–117 and externalities 142 horizontal supply arrangement 144–145 negotiate–arbitrate model 158 non-price access 142, 145 one-way access pricing principles 145–160 one-way arrangements 144–145 opportunity cost of 150, 152 in public utility industries 141–145 regulatory instruments 143–144 two-way arrangements 144–145, 160–170 vertical supply arrangement 144–145, 157–158 see also access pricing; allocative efficiency; core networks access holidays 171, 351–352 access pricing 142, 409–410
    access tiering 355–356
    for adjacent monopolies 160–161
    asymmetric competing networks 169–170 collusion and non-linear prices/tariffs 165–166, 184 cooperative price determination 161, 164–166 and cost estimation 156–157 cost-based 147–148, 154–157, 172 direct negotiation 158–159
    dynamic 174–175
    ECPR (efficient component pricing rule) see ECPR entry and efficiency 146–148 global price caps 157–158
    incremental/marginal costs 155–156 and infrastructure competition 7–8, 143, 172–173 infrastructure investment 8, 170–172 and investment 170–175: incentives 172 issues involved 142–143
    LRIC + pricing 156
    make or buy decision 172 marginal cost pricing 145–146 see also marginal cost pricing mobile telecommunications networks 339 non-cooperative price determination 164, 170, 184 non-reciprocal termination charges 169 objectives 143–144 one-to-many 162

optimal 142, 145–146, 168
Ramsey–Boiteux pricing 147–148, 157–158 see also Ramsey–Boiteux retail benchmarking 169
services substitutability 165 stand-alone costs (SAC) 155–156 tariff control 168 tax subsidy 147
telecommunications regulation 338–340
two-way 160–162, 340–341, 409–410: with competing firms 162–167; efficient 168–169; regulation implications 170 vertical integration/separation see vertical integration/separation zero charge 338–339
    see also pricing accounting separation 182
adjacent monopolies 160–161
Administrative Procedures Act 104, 203
Alberta Hub trading hub 279 allocative efficiency 19, 99 and access pricing 146–147
    and ECPR 152
    and price regulation 19–21, 86–89 anti-trust law see competition law allowed rate of return 106–107
APA see Administrative Procedures Act 1946
Apple Facetime 311
Arano, K.G. 295
ARCEP 355–356
Armstrong, M. 39, 53, 148, 152, 154–155, 167–168, 176, 194, 340–341, 385 asset rate base determination 105–107 asymmetric access provider/user relationship 144
asymmetric competing networks 169, 170 asymmetric information 86–91, 95–96, 100, 157–158, 199–200 asymmetric networks 169–170 asymmetric regulation 54–55, 92–94, 110
AT&T 6, 183, 324, 342–343 auctions see capacity auctions
Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) 207, 375

462 Index

- average cost pricing see pricing
 Averch, H. 110–112
 Averch–Johnson (A–J) effect 110–112, 351
- Bailey, E.E. 115
 Baron, D.P. 89, 94, 194
 Baron and Myerson analysis 87, 89, 94 baskets see price cap regulation, price cap Baumol, W.J. 114
 Baumol–Willig Rule see ECPR
 BBC iPlayer 324
 Becker, G.S. 31
 benchmarking efficiency 288
   price regulation 135–137, 238–239, 381–382
   retail 169
   SAC (stand-alone cost) 334–336
- Besanko, D. 94
 bill and keep (BAK) 166–167, 170, 338–339, 409–410
 Blair, B.F. 295 block tariffs, US water industry 403–405 book structure 8–10 bottleneck facilities 49, 340, 349
 Bourreau, M. 174
 BPM see business practice manuals
 Briglauer, W. 158
 British Gas/British Gas Corporation 277–278, 285, 293–294, 297
 British Telecommunications (BT) 132, 160–161, 204, 324, 334, 343 broadband see telecommunications networks
 BT see British Telecommunications
 BT Openreach 338
 BT Vision 324
 buffering 321
 building block approach, to price cap regulation 119–121 business practice manuals 214 business separation 182–183
 by-pass opportunities, and ECPR 152–153, 172
- Cable Directive (1995) 330–331
 California Public Utility Commission (CPUC) 263, 405
 Calling Party Network Pays (CPNP) 331–333, 345–346
 Cambini, C. 347–348 cap and trade schemes 264 capacity markets 234 capital asset pricing model (CAPM) 388–391 capital costs, and rate base 106–107 capital expenditure, and RAB 120–121 capital expenditure scheme 380–381 capital on wheels 43
 CAPM see Capital Asset Pricing Model carbon capture and storage (CCS) technology 260
 CCS see carbon capture and storage
 Central European Gas Hub 279 centralised transmission planning 247
 CIS see capital expenditure scheme
 CLEC see competitive local exchange carriers
 Coleman, R.D. 115
 Commerce Commission (New Zealand) 208 common costs allocation 107–108 competition for the market approach 37–40, 62, 373, 406, 408 see also franchising competition
   and core network activities 159 and deregulation policies 51–58 destructive 22 as discovery procedure 53 and economic welfare 53 effective competition stage 56–57 electricity supply see electricity gas regulation see gas regulation impediments to 54 infrastructure 7–8, 143, 172–173; and access pricing 7–8, 143, 172–173; and price regulation, ex ante 55–58 inset appointments 373, 377, 393
   inter-platform 347–348 intra-platform 347–348 introduction to utilities 52–55 market power assessment 57
   and monopoly 52 monopoly to competition stages 56–57 potential 41
   potential gains 53 and price regulation 137–138; ex ante 55–58
   quasi-facilities competition 328 and retail customers 251, 297–299, 411 telecommunications see telecommunications water and wastewater regulation see water and wastewater regulation yardstick see yardstick competition
- Competition Directorate (EU) 214 competition law 37, 48–51, 62, 213–214
   ex post 37, 48–51, 62 competitive bidding 39 competitive bottlenecks 340–341, 409–410
 competitive local exchange carriers (CLEC) 346–347
 complementary services 160–161 concession agreements/contracts 39, 391–393 consumer choice 76–77 consumer representation 59–60 contestability theory approach 37, 40–44, 62, 410 critical assumptions 41–42 and entry 43 see also entry sunk costs 41–42
   unrealistic assumptions 42 contestable markets theory see contestability theory contract problems 38–39, 197–198 core networks access to see access analytical models 409 common costs 79 and competitive activity 145–146 and competitiveness 159 and contestable market theory 43 and entry 43 firms providing services 96–97
   fixed cost pricing 71–72 and marginal cost pricing 71 and quality 97–98
   regulation of firms 9, 65–101, 410 separation 182
   use of term 2
   vertically integrated/separated see vertical integration/separation see also natural monopoly
- cost benchmarking 135–137, 238–239 cost efficiency 25–26 principles 98–99
 cost-based access charges 154–157, 172 cost-based pricing 147–148, 157–158
 cost-plus contracts 130
 cost-plus pricing see pricing

- costs principle 395
  - Cowan, S. 39, 176, 385
  - CPNP see Calling Party Network Pays
  - CPUC see California Public Utility Commission
  - cream-skimming 19, 23
  - CRTC see telecommunications regulation
  - customer heterogeneity 59

  - data envelopment analysis (DEA) 238–239
  - DEA see data envelopment analysis
  - deadband 133
  - deadweight loss 19
  - decreasing block tariff 403
  - default price to beat 252
  - default tariffs 252
  - demand information asymmetries 91
  - demand-reflective prices 21
  - demand-side electricity management 261–262
  - deregulation policy approach 37, 51–58, 62
  - Dessain, W. 164
  - destructive competition 22
  - Deutsche Telekom 160–161, 324, 352
  - digital divide 356
  - Digital Subscriber Line (DSL) 318
  - discriminatory pricing 70
  - distributed stand-alone cost (SAC) 334–335
  - division of powers/responsibilities 211–217
    - regulatory agencies: and competition authorities 213–214;
    - degrees of independence 212–213; in federal government systems 215–217
    - and government ministries 212–213; and independent entities 214–215;
    - and industry bodies 214–215; and other government levels 215–217
  - Doğan, P. 174
  - DoJ federal competition agency 214
  - double-marginalisation 161
  - downstream activity 145–146
  - Drinking Water Inspectorate (DWI) 383–384
  - DSAC see distributed stand-alone cost
  - DSL see Digital Subscriber Line
  - Dual-fuel tariffs 230, 251, 297
  - duopoly policy 343
  - dynamic access pricing 174–175
  - dynamic regulation see regulation
  - dynamic tariffs 262–263

  - earnings sharing mechanisms 133–135
  - economic theories of regulation see regulation
  - ECPR see efficient component pricing rule
  - effective competition stage (monopoly to competition) 56–57
  - efficiency benchmarking 288
  - efficiency carry-over mechanisms 128
  - efficient component pricing rule (ECPR) 147–148, 157–158, 338–339
    - and access prices 152–153, 172, 394
    - and allocative efficiency 152
    - arguments for and against 153–154, 159
    - and by-pass 152–153, 172
    - and entrant's tax 153
    - market adjusted (M-ECPR) 152–153
    - and Ramsey-Boiteux approach 152 see also Ramsey-Boiteux
    - retail-minus approach (Sydney) 375–376
  - efficient price 70
  - EIA see Energy Information Administration
  - Eikeland, P.O. 296
  - electricity
    - characteristics 224
    - energy inputs 226
    - line losses 227
    - network nodes 227
    - power flows 244
    - power networks 227
    - smart grids 260, 262
    - smart meters 6, 230, 261–262 see also pricing
  - Electricity Directives (EU) 243–244
  - electricity pools 231–232
  - electricity regulation 9–10, 62, 144, 146, 183, 210, 235–241
    - competition 236–237, 249–252: effectiveness 252; and infrastructure 251
    - and retail customers 251; in retail supply 250–252; in wholesale markets 249–250
  - coordination 246–249
  - demand-side management 261–262
  - distribution networks 228–229
  - energy efficiency targets 261–262
  - environmental policy 258–265: cap and trade schemes 264;
    - and economic regulation 264–265; and emissions 224, 258–259;
  - emissions trading schemes 260; impact on operations 259–260;
  - initiatives 260–264; macro-policy 264; and wholesale prices 259–260
- EU Electricity Directives 243–244
- future challenges 414
- gas-fired electricity production 308
- generation factors 226–227
- generation, gas-fired 308
- independent regulatory agencies 210
- institutional reform policies 235–236
- integration within 246–249
- investment 253–255: deep connection policy 255;
  - in generation 253–254;
  - incentives for 254; international pricing approach 256–258;
  - locational marginal pricing 255; missing money problem 253–254;
  - nodal pricing 255; and policy instability 254;
  - shallow connection policy 255;
  - specific subsidies 260; tax credits 260; in transmission networks 254–255;
- zonal approaches 255
- locational marginal pricing (LMP) 256–258
- market power pockets 228, 250
- monopoly similarities 229
- network capacity 228
- performance-based measures 241
- price cap control 238–239
- pricing 256–258, 410
- in production chain 235–237
- quality/service incentive schemes 239
- rate of return regulation 241
- reform impacts 245
- regulated distribution networks 228–229
- renewable energy targets 260

464 Index

- electricity regulation (cont.)
  - restructuring policies 242–246; and competition 249–252; effects of 244–246, 412; scope of 242–244
  - retail supply 230, 236, 250–252
  - risk management 246–249
  - sales 227
  - in supply chain 235–237
  - system benefits charge 262
  - system operation activities 237
  - tariffs 230, 251, 252, 410; California 262–263
  - transmission 227–228, 410
  - wholesale trading 230–235: bilateral transactions 232–233; competition 249–250; electricity pools 231–232; general arrangements 231–234; gross pool 232; markets 234–235; net pool 232–233; trading exchanges 234–235; vulnerability to abuses 250; wholesale spot markets 231–232
- emissions
  - electricity industry 224, 258–265
  - methane gas 309
  - trading schemes 260
- energy efficiency targets 261–262
- Energy Information Administration (EIA) 306
- English experiment 387
- entry barrier removal 53–54
- entry and efficiency, in access 146–148
- entry into public utility industries 43 see also contestability theory
- entry lag 42
- entry restriction removal 52–55
- entry–exit tariff method 291
- Environment Agency 383–384
- environmental externalities 26
- environmental policies 6
  - electricity industry 258–265
- Environmental Protection Authority (EPA) 400
- EPMU see equi-proportionate mark-ups
- equi-proportionate mark-ups (EPMU) 80, 157
- essential facilities 49
- established competition stage (monopoly to competition) 56–57
- European Commission Digital Agenda Strategy 352
- European emissions trading scheme (ETS) 264
- European Regulators Group (ERG) 347
- European Regulatory Framework for Electronic Communications 330, 331
- EU Electricity Directives 243–244
- EU Gas Directives 285–286, 294, 295–296, 304
- ex ante* approach
  - and competition 55–58
  - and control of market power 48
  - and deregulation 51–52
  - and regulatory failure 48
- ex ante* restrictions, and price control 55–58
- ex ante* revenue requirement 119–122
- ex post* approach
  - attractive properties of 50
  - and control of market power 48
  - and control of public utility conduct 49–51
- ex post* competition law 37, 49–51, 62
- expropriation of property rights 190
- expropriation of sunk investments 192–193
- externality surcharge 314
- facilities-based competition 172
- Faulhaber, G.R. 335
- FCC see Federal Communications Commission
- FCM see financial capital maintenance method
- FDC see fully distributed costs method
- Federal Communications Commission (FCC) 202–203, 211, 213–214, 337, 342–343, 354
- Federal competition agency 214
- Federal Energy Regulation Commission (FERC) 202–203, 211, 213–214, 243, 284, 286, 289, 293, 303–304
- Federal Power Commission 202–203
- feed-in tariffs 260
- FERC see Federal Energy Regulation Commission
- fibre-optic cable networks see telecommunications networks
- financial capital maintenance method 120–121
- financial transmission rights 234
- Finsinger, J. 95–96, 115–116, 409
- firms
  - behaviour, and economic regulation 3–5
  - service quality 97–98
  - see also* core networks
- first-best pricing see marginal cost pricing
- fixed cost, pricing 71–72
- fixed price contracts 130
- fixed-to-mobile (FTM)
  - interconnections 161–162, 167
  - termination rates 341
- FL–LRIC see forward-looking long-run incremental cost
- flexible retail tariffs 251
- flight from equity 389
- forward-looking long-run incremental cost (FL–LRIC) 332, 333, 337
- Foxtel 330–331
- fracking 308–309
- France Télécom 324
- franchise competition approach 37–40 see also competition for the market
- franchise contracts 39, 40, 197–198, 408
- FTM see fixed-to-mobile
- full cost pricing 401
- fully distributed costs (FDC) method 80
- Gans, J.S. 167, 351
- gas regulation 270–277
  - activities subject to regulation 281–287
  - characteristics 267–268
  - competing fuel-linked pricing versus gas-on-gas competition 307
  - competition 281–283, 295–296, 309–310
  - competition law 282
  - contracting issues 305–307
  - current challenges 310
  - demand characteristics 268
  - demand fluctuation 269
  - distribution 276, 309–310
  - efficiency benchmarking 288
  - environmental policy 307–309
  - EU Gas Directives 285–286, 295–296, 304
  - extraction 271–272
  - extraction/generation 268
  - extraction/generation of, non-conventional 308–309

- fracking 309
- future challenges 414
- futures market 305
- gas regulatory policy, restructuring policy
  - effects 294–300
- gas reserves 301
- gas shortages 300
- gas-fired electricity production 308
- gas-on-gas competition versus competing fuel-
  - linked pricing 307
- hedging mechanisms 279–280
- inter-fuel competition 269
- investment in infrastructure 283, 302–305, 310
- market hubs 295
- methane emissions 309
- negotiated settlements 289–290
- Network Code 285
- new gas trading arrangements 294
- pipeline capacity investment 303–304
- pipeline competition 283–286
- pipeline productivity 295
- pricing: capacity charges 290–292, 410; and
  - competing fuels 307;
  - issues 305–307; price caps 287–288; price regulation 269, 283–287, 309–310;
  - rate of return 288–290; two-tier 307;
  - volatility 305–306
- processing 271–272
- production activities 281–282
- production restrictions 268
- regulation 9–10, 62, 144, 146, 183, 210, 281–287
- regulatory policy 292–309
- restructuring policies 277–278, 309–310: effects
  - of 294–300, 412; scope 292–294
- retail competition 282–283, 297–299
- retail customer choice 282–283, 297–299
- retail market concentration 296
- retail supply 277, 282–283, 309–310
- safety issues 268–269
- security of supply 300–302
- service quality 288
- shale gas 267, 308–309
- spot markets 294, 295, 305, 307
- storage 269, 276–277, 286–287, 304–305, 309–310
- storage capacity investment 304–305
- supply stages 270
- tariff structures 290–292, 297–299: costs
  - allocation 291–292; entry–exit method 291
  - point-to-point method 290; postage stamp method 290
- trading hubs 295
- transmission/transportation 267, 268, 269,
  - 272–276, 283–286, 290–291, 293, 309–310
- transportability of 267, 268, 269
- wholesale gas: LNG (liquefied natural gas)
  - trading 281; long-term contracts 277–278, 280–281;
  - market concentration 296; short-term trading 278–280; spot markets 278–280;
  - take-or-pay condition 280; trading 277–281;
  - trading hubs 279;
- Gas Regulation (2009) 291
- global price caps 157–158
- Gómez-Ibáñez, J.A. 61
- Government Accountability Office (GAO) 220–221
- government payment transfers 99
- 'green' tariffs 230, 251, 297
- Hatfield, D.N. 319
- Hausman, J.A. 345
- Hayek, F. 53
- Henry Hub trading hub 279, 280, 295, 306
- HFC (hybrid fibre coaxial) networks see telecommunications networks
- Hicks, John 25
- hidden action, and price regulation 90
- hold-up 24–25, 192–193, 247, 305
- Hulu 324
- Iberian Electricity Market (MIBEL) 234–235
- ICT developments 6
- increasing block tariff 403
- incremental surplus subsidy scheme 93
- Incumbent Local Exchange Carrier (ILEC) 342–343, 346–347
- independent economic regulatory agencies
  - see* independent regulatory agencies
- independent power producers 231
- independent regulatory agencies
  - accountability 217–221
  - appeals courts/tribunals 219
  - appeals system 218–220
  - asymmetry of information in 199–200
  - Australia 207–208, 211, 215–217
  - Canada 211, 215–217
  - capture by interest groups 200–201
  - and central banks 191
  - commitment methods 194
  - commitment problems 190–192: voluntary solutions 195–196
  - commitment scenarios 194
  - contracts as commitment devices 197–198
  - credibility of 197, 221–222
  - design of 209–217
  - developing countries 208–209
  - different factors and influences 209
  - division of powers and responsibilities see division of powers/responsibilities
  - electricity 210
  - in EU 206–207, 209, 215–217
  - evolution of 201–209
  - executive oversight 220–221
  - expropriation of property rights 190
  - expropriation of sunk investments 192–193
  - flexibility in 199
  - franchise contracts 39, 40, 197–198
  - gas 210
  - general oversight/accountability 220–221
  - Germany 211
  - industry-specific or multi-sectoral 210–211
  - integrated 210–211
  - inter-temporal pricing 193–194
  - legal frameworks operated within 198–199
  - and monopoly power 222
  - multi-sectoral or industry-specific 210–211
  - Netherlands 211
  - New Zealand 207–208, 211
  - objectives of 197
  - opportunistic behaviour constraint 194–199
  - political oversight 220–221
  - price cap regulation 196
  - price regulation forms 196–197
  - 'ratchet effect' 193–194
  - rationale for 190–201

466 Index

- independent regulatory agencies (cont.)
  - regulatory oversight 217–221
  - relationship with firms 195–196, 199, 200–201
  - relationship with governments 200
  - reviews of decisions 218–220
  - risks associated with independent agencies 200–201
  - scope of power 209–217
  - specialisation in 199–200
  - sunk asset expropriation 192–193
  - time-inconsistency problems 190–192, 209
  - transitional countries 208–209
  - in UK 204–205, 209
  - in USA 202–203, 209, 211, 215–217
  - see also* regulation
- Independent System Operator (ISO) 214–215, 237
- information
  - full 70–78
  - hidden 87–89
  - imperfect/asymmetric 86–91, 95–96
- infrastructure competition 7–8, 143, 173–174
- infrastructure facilities 7
- infrastructure investment 8, 171–172
- infrastructure-based competition 173–174
- inset appointments 373, 377, 393
- integration see electricity industry
- inter-platform competition 347–348
- inter-temporal pricing 193–194
- interest group theories of regulation 14, 28–32
- International Energy Agency (IEA) 299–300
- Internet
  - congestion 321–325
  - net neutrality 352–356
- Internet service providers
  - and paid prioritisation 354–356
  - and traffic management 353, 354
- Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) 202–203
- interventions, and economic regulation 3–5
- intra-platform competition 347–348
- investment
  - and access pricing 170–175
  - electricity industry 253–255
  - incentives 38, 254
  - ladder of investment approach 174–175, 347
  - merchant investments 254–255
  - and policy instability 254
  - telecommunications networks 350–351
- IP (Internet Protocol) see telecommunications networks
- ISO see Independent System Operator
- ISP see Internet service providers

- Jamasb, T. 295
- Jiang, Y. 347–348
- Johnson, L.L. 110–112
- joint costs allocation 107–108
- Joskow, P.L. 106–107, 244
- jurisdiction, use of term 2

- Kahn, Alfred 33
- King, S.P. 167, 351–352
- Klevorick, A.K. 114

- ladder of investment approach
  - to network investment 174–175
  - and unbundling policies 347
- Laffont, J.J. 90, 94, 130, 148, 152, 158, 168, 202, 340–341, 409
- Langeled pipeline 297
- legal separation 183
- Levy, B. 196
- Lewis, T.R. 91
- liberalisation, use of term 2
- light-handed approach 61–62
- linear pricing see pricing
- Littlechild, Stephen 114–115, 289
- locational marginal pricing (LMP) 256–258
- Loeb, M. 87–89, 93
- long-run incremental costs 121–122, 155–156, 159, 333, 338–339
  - LRIC + pricing 156
  - see also* TSLRIC
- long-run marginal cost pricing 92, 155–156
- LRIC see long-run incremental costs
- LRMC see long-run marginal cost pricing

- M-ECPR (market adjusted ECPR) see efficient component pricing rule
- Magat, W.A. 87–89, 93
- make-or-buy decision 172, 337
- mandatory separation 183
- margin rule see efficient component pricing rule
- marginal cost pricing 70–72, 99
  - and firm sustainability 71–72
  - in multi-product firms 78–79
  - and optimal access pricing 145–146
- market hubs 295
- market power assessment 57
- market-based rates 284
- mechanism design 409
- menu regulation 101
- merchant investments 254–255
- Midwest ISO 234–235
- Miller, M.H. 389
- missing money problem 253–254
- Mitchell, B.M. 319
- mobile virtual network operators (MVNO) see telecommunications networks
- mobile-to-mobile (MTM) termination rates 341
- Modified Final Judgement (MFJ, AT&T Corp. et al.) (1984) 350
- Modigliani, F. 389
- Modigliani–Miller Theorem 389
- monitoring approach 60–61
- monopoly
  - adjacent monopolies 160–161
  - and competition 52
  - and independent regulatory agencies 222
  - monopoly to competition stages 56–57
  - natural see natural monopoly
  - pricing and ECPR 151
  - and pricing regulation 137–138
- multi-period regulation 100
- multi-product firms
  - non-linear pricing 85–86
  - pricing principles for 78–86
  - Ramsey–Boiteux pricing 81–83 see also pricing
- Myerson, R.B. 89, 94

- National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC) 220–221, 379
- National Audit Office 220–221
- national balancing point (NBP) 279, 280, 306
- National Broadband Network 44

- National Electricity Market (NEM) 234–235, 250
 National Energy Board (NEB) 211, 216–217, 289–290
 National Regulatory Authorities (NRAs) 206, 216–217, 330, 332
 National Rivers Authority (NRA) 383–384
 National Transmission System (NTS) 279 natural gas see gas natural monopoly conditions for 16–18
   and cost efficiency 25–26 economic notion of 14–18 efficiency arguments 19
   entry regulation and productive efficiency 21–23 industry structure 14–18 and market demand 16 and production costs 16–18 regulation to control power of 23–26, 29 standard profit maximising 19 sustainability 22–23
   telecommunications industry 15, 326, 327
   use of term 2
   water and wastewater regulation 360, 377, 405
see also core network activities; monopoly negative network externalities 166–167 negotiate–arbitrate approach 60, 158 negotiated settlement approach 37, 58–60, 113–114, 289–290, 408, 410 advantages 59 concerns 59–60, 174 and regulators 60
 net neutrality 352–356
 Network Code 285
 network externalities 27, 166–167
 network externality charges 339 network investment, approaches to 174–175 Newbery, D.M. 109, 196
 next-generation network (NGN) see telecommunications networks Nillesen, P.H. 240 non-linear pricing see pricing non-price access see access NordPool 234–235, 245, 251
 NordREG 234–235
 NYMEX 280

 Ofcom 334
 Office of Fair Trading 204
 Office of Telecommunications (Oftel) 204
 Ofgem energy regulator 238
 Ofwat 390 online tariffs 251 operating costs estimate 105 operational capital maintenance (OCM) method 120–121 opex (operating expenses) 104 opportunity cost of access 152 optimal linear pricing see pricing Order on Net Neutrality (2010) 370 ownership separation 183

 paid prioritisation 354–356 peak-load pricing see pricing
 Peltzman, S. 30–31
 Pennsylvania–New Jersey–Maryland (PJM) market 234–235, 244, 250 perfect contestability 42
 Pindyck, R.S. 346–347

 pipeline competition 283–286
 pipeline productivity 295
 Pittman, R. 335
 point-to-point tariff method 290
 Pollitt, M.G. 240, 252, 295, 297 positive network externalities 166–167 Posner, R. 30
 postage stamp tariff method 290 pre-competitive market stage (monopoly to competition) 56–57 pre-entry stage (monopoly to competition) 56–57
 price cap regulation 114–129, 129–132, 139, 196, 266, 410
   adaptations to 139
   advantages 125–128
   average revenue approach 123–124 building block approach 119–121 capital expenditure 120–121 developments in 128–129
   disadvantages 125–128 effect on firms' earnings 132 effect on network modernisation 132 effect on operating costs 132 effect on prices 132 effect on productivity 132 effect on service quality 132 efficiency carry-over mechanisms 128
   in electricity industry 238–239
ex ante revenue requirement 119–122: building block approach 119–121; LRIC (long-run incremental costs) 121–122 financial capital maintenance (FCM) method 120–121 fixed revenue cap 123 gas see gas price regulation historic growth rate 118 hybrid caps 124–125, 139
   input/output based 129
   operational capital maintenance (OCM) method 120–121 origins of 114–115
   price cap duration 116–117 price setting flexibility 117–118 product scope 117–118 rate of return and price cap differences 130–131, 131–132 Regulatory Asset Base (RAB) 120–121 and regulatory lag 116–117
   RPI – X: methodology 6, 117–118, 123, 125, 139; value of X 115, 135, 144
   RPI – X price caps 6, 115–116 services in baskets 117–118 tariff basket approach 125
   in telecommunications industry 332–334, 344 weighted average price cap 125
   see also electricity; gas; price regulation; regulation; telecommunications; water and wastewater price change-linked tariffs 297 price controls form and scope of 237–241 targeting 138
 price cost tests/contestable markets theory 334–336 price differentiation 72
 price discrimination 34 price guarantee tariffs 251

468 Index

- price monitoring requirement increase 58, 174
- price regulation 9
  - and allocative efficiency 19–21
  - benchmarking 135–137, 238–239
  - and core network activities 65–101
  - demand information asymmetries 91
  - earnings sharing mechanisms 133–135
  - economic principles 69
  - and economic welfare 69
  - efficiency/distribution trade-off 89
  - and emerging competition 137–138
  - and ex ante restrictions 55–58
  - and ex post approach 50
  - and facilities-based competition 345
  - first-best prices 20–21, 73, 76, 115
  - and hidden action 90
  - and hidden information 87–89
  - hybrids and adaptations to 133–137
  - and imperfect/asymmetric information 86–91
  - incentives 95–96, 117
  - independent regulatory agencies 44, 62
  - market power assessment 57
  - monitoring 58, 138, 174
  - and monopoly power 23–26
  - rate case process 104–108
  - rate of return regulation see rate of return regulation
  - revenue sharing mechanisms 135
  - sunshine regulation 382
  - transitional price controls 57, 138
  - yardstick competition 135–137
  - see also* electricity; gas; price cap regulation; regulation; tariffs; telecommunications; water and wastewater
- prices access see access
- pricing 70–72
  - access pricing see access pricing
  - alternative approaches 72
  - average cost pricing 72–74, 338–339
  - cost-based allocation method 80
  - cost-plus contracts 130
  - cost-plus pricing 108, 110
  - differential 74
  - Efficient Component Pricing (ECPR) 338–339
  - efficient price 70
  - equi-proportionate mark-ups (EPMU) 80
  - fixed and common costs 79–80
  - fixed-price contracts 130
  - full cost pricing 401
  - Fully Distributed Costs (FDC) method 80
  - linear pricing 70, 74, 79
  - long-run marginal cost (LRMC) 92
  - marginal cost pricing see marginal cost pricing
  - in multi-period context 91–97
  - non-linear pricing 21, 70, 72, 75–76, 79: in multi-product setting 85–86; Pareto improvement 77–78; tariffs 403, 410
  - one-way access 145–160
  - optimal linear pricing 74
  - optimal non-linear pricing 76–78
  - peak-load pricing 21, 83–85, 262
  - prices determination 107–108
  - Ramsey–Boiteux see Ramsey–Boiteux pricing
  - second-best approach 72–74
  - short-run marginal cost (SRMC) 92
  - standard welfare function 72–74
  - structures 401–402
  - transfer subsidies 71–72
  - TSLRIC pricing 336–338
  - two-part tariffs 72, 75–76, 85–86, 165–166
- pricing principles
  - for multi-product firms 78–86
  - under full information 70–78
- principal–agent model 45
- principles relating to cost efficiency 98–99
- principles relating to quality 97–98
- private contract approach 60–61
- privatisation, effects of 46–47
- productive efficiency 19
  - and entry regulation 21–23
  - and price regulation 86–89
- profit neutrality 165–167
- profit sharing/earnings sharing regulation 133–135
- public interest objectives 45–46
- Public Switched Telephone Network (PSTN) see telecommunications networks/regulation
- Public Utility Commissions (PUC) 215–216
- public utility industries
  - control of conduct 49–51
  - effects of research 7
  - efficiency arguments 19
  - expenditure on 4
  - incentives 45–46
  - investment in 18
  - ownership structures performance 46–47
  - performance 7
  - and privatisation 46–47
  - privatisation effects 46–47
  - regulation of see regulation
  - restructuring policies see restructuring policy
  - structures 65–69: change 5–7; vertically integrated with competition 67–68; vertically integrated monopoly 66; vertically separated monopoly 66
  - use of term 2
- Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act 1978 (PURPA) 231
- quality, regulation of 97–98
- Queensland gas trading hub 279
- radio wave networks see telecommunications networks
- Ramsey–Boiteux prices 21, 72, 74, 78, 80, 81–83, 95, 99, 100, 108, 147–148, 152, 155, 159, 338–339, 409
- ‘ratchet effect’ 94, 117, 128, 193–194
- rate base 104, 105–107
- rate case process 104–108
- rate of return and price caps
  - differences in practice 131–132
  - differences in theory 130–131
  - in use 266
- rate of return regulation 9, 104–114, 129–132, 139, 410
  - A–J (Averch–Johnson) effect 110–112, 351
  - adaptations to 139
  - advantages and disadvantages 108–113
  - as asymmetric 110
  - developments in 113–114
  - in electricity industry 241
  - incentive properties 130
  - limitations of 110
  - negotiated settlements 59–60, 113–114, 174
  - regulatory lag 110
  - in telecommunications industry 332
  - see also* electricity; gas; telecommunications; water and wastewater

- rates determination 107–108
- rationales for regulation 8, 13–14, 407–408
  - alternatives to 407–408
  - by independent agencies 190–201
  - efficiency 14–23
  - electricity industry restructuring 242
  - externalities as 26–27
  - normative 14–27
  - telecommunications industry 348
- real option theory 172
- real-time tariffs 230
- Receiving Party Network Pays (RPNP) 345–346
- refusal to supply 49
- Regional Bell Operating Companies (RBOC) 183, 342–343
- regulated firms, commitment by 199
- regulation 3–5
  - alternative approaches to 8, 138
  - alternatives to 37–62
  - asymmetric 54–55, 92–94
  - and consumers 8, 29
  - core networks see core networks
  - cost benchmarking 135–137, 238–239
  - and cost efficiency 25–26, 98–99
  - deregulation policy approach 37, 51–58, 62, 408
  - dynamic with imperfect/asymmetric information:
    - and no transfers 95–96;
    - and transfers 92–94
  - economic regulation, use of term 3–5
  - economic theories of 14, 28–32
  - electricity industry see electricity industry
  - entry regulation and productive efficiency 21–23
  - and fairness to society 34–35
  - future challenges 413–414
  - gas industry see gas industry
  - and hold-up 24–25
  - incremental surplus subsidy scheme 93
  - instead of market forces 33
  - interest group theories 14, 28–32
  - and interests of regulatory agencies 33–34
  - and long-term contract 32–33
  - menu regulation 101
  - practice of 9–10, 410–411
  - price see price regulation
  - principles of 9
  - rate of return see rate of return regulation
  - rationales for see rationales
  - reasons for 8
  - and stakeholder group size 30
  - and state ownership 44, 47, 408
  - state-based 29
  - telecommunications industry see telecommunications industry
  - telecommunications industry
    - telecommunications industry
  - theoretical principles and regulatory practice 408–410
  - to control monopoly power 23–26
  - water/wastewater industry see water/wastewater industry
  - see also* division of powers; electricity; gas; price cap regulation; price regulation; regulatory agencies; telecommunications; water and wastewater
- regulation by contract 373
- regulatory accountability 217–221
- regulatory agencies see independent regulatory agencies
- regulatory asset base (RAB) 120–121
- Regulatory Asset Base value 398
- regulatory capital value (RCV) 398
- regulatory commissions 5
- regulatory commitment 94, 190–192, 199
- regulatory decision reviews 218–220
- regulatory frameworks 198, 206–207
- regulatory holidays 171, 350–351
- regulatory intervention, threat of 48
- regulatory lag 96, 111–113, 116–117, 409
- regulatory oversight 217–221
- regulatory policy issues, electricity industry 242–265
- regulatory practice, and theoretical principles 408–410
- regulatory remits 7
- restructuring experiments, assessment of 8
- restructuring policy 2, 7–8, 10
  - effects of 411–413
  - see also* electricity regulation, gas regulation, telecommunications regulation, and water and wastewater regulation, restructuring policies and effects
  - use of term 2
- retail benchmarking 169
- retail competition see competition
- revenue requirement determination 105–107
- revenue sharing mechanisms 135
- Rey, P. 340–341
- Riordan, M.H. 91
- RPI + K 380
- RPI – X 6, 118–119, 123, 125, 128, 137, 139
- Russia–Ukraine gas dispute (2009) 267
- Sappington, D.E.M. 53, 91, 134, 135, 194, 344
- scale economies 38
- service quality 97–98
- service-based competition 173–174
- services in baskets 117–118
- services substitutability 165
- Services Sydney 375–376
- sewage see water and wastewater regulation; wastewater
- sewer mining 374–375
- shale gas 267, 308–309
- Sherman Act 213
- Shleifer, A. 239
- short-run marginal cost pricing (SRMC) 92
- Sky 324
- Skype 311, 321, 322, 324
- sliding-scale regulation 133–135
- small-customer problem 61
- smart grids 260, 262
- smart meters 6, 230, 261–262, 402
- smart networks 6
- social impact policies 6
- South Australia gas trading hub 279
- Spiller, P.T. 196, 198
- spot markets 231–232, 278–280, 294, 295, 305, 307
- Srinagesh, P. 319
- stand-alone cost (SAC) 334–336
- state ownership approach 37, 44–47, 62, 408
  - and independent price regulation 44, 47
- STB transport regulator 211
- stepping stone approach, to network investment 174–175
- stepping stone hypothesis, in telecommunications regulation 346–348
- Stigler, G.J. 30
- subadditivity 17
- sunk asset expropriation 192–193
- sunk costs 41–42

470 Index

- sunshine regulation 382, 393, 406
- sustainable prices 22–23
- switching technology see telecommunications networks
- Sydney Water 135
- system benefits charge 262
- system operation activities 237
- system operator function 247
- takings protection 106–107
- tariffs 107–108, 230, 251, 252, 262–263, 290–292, 297–299, 362, 379
  - access pricing 168
  - block tariffs 403–405
  - California 262–263
  - decreasing block 403
  - default 252
  - dual-fuel 230, 251, 297
  - dynamic 262–263
  - electricity regulation 194, 251, 252, 410
  - feed-in 260
  - flexible retail 251
  - ‘green’ tariffs 230, 251, 297
  - increasing block 403
  - online 251
  - point-to-point 290
  - postage stamp 290
  - real-time 230
  - tariff basket 125
  - two-part 72, 75–76, 85–86, 165
  - uniform 403
- Taylor, W.E. 345
- technological changes 53–54
- telecommunications, use of term 2
- Telecommunications Act 215–216, 337, 342–343, 346–347
- telecommunications regulation 6, 9–10, 132, 144, 154, 160–161, 172–173, 183, 211, 216–217
  - access pricing 338–339
  - access tiering 355–356
  - approaches to 325–341
  - architectures 315–317
  - broadband gap 356
  - buffering 321
  - cable networks 329–331; cross-ownership 330–331
  - Calling Party Network Pays (CPNP) 331, 332, 333, 345–346
  - commodity trading 324–325
  - common carrier requirements 330
  - common market in Europe 343
  - competition: infrastructure competition 411; inter-platform competition 347–348; intra-platform competition 347–348
  - competitive bottlenecks 340–341
  - competitive local exchange carriers (CLEC) 346–347
  - demand change and technology advances 314–315
  - demand-side characteristics 313–314
  - developing/transitional countries 343–344
  - digital divide 356
  - distributed stand-alone cost (DSAC) 334–335
  - duopoly policy 343
  - e-commerce 311
  - externality surcharge 314
  - fixed-to-mobile (FTM) interconnections 162, 167
  - fixed-to-mobile (FTM) termination rates 341
  - Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers (ILEC) 342–343, 346–347
  - industry expansion 312
  - industry as natural monopoly 15, 326, 327
  - Internet congestion 321–325
  - Internet Protocol (IP) 317: backbone networks 339–340; fibre-based networks 313, 322, 349–350
  - Internet service providers (ISP) and paid prioritisation 354–356
  - Internet service providers (ISP) and traffic management 353, 354
  - investment in infrastructure 350–351
  - ladder of investment approach 347
  - mandatory unbundling policies 346–348
  - mobile networks 331, 345–346, 348
  - mobile telephone trading 325, 348
  - mobile virtual network operators (MVNO) 324
  - mobile-to-mobile (MTM) termination rates 341
  - as natural monopoly 15, 326, 327
  - net neutrality 352–356
  - network externalities 314
  - network externality charges 339
  - next-generation network (NGN) 357–358:
    - access 349–350; architecture 317;
    - infrastructure investment 350–351; regulation need 357–358; unbundling 349–350;
  - non-price regulation 338
  - paid prioritisation 354–356
  - price caps 332–334, 344
  - price controls 332–341
  - price cost tests/contestable markets theory 334–336
  - product characteristics 313–315
  - Public Switched Telephone Network (PSTN) 312, 313, 322, 326–329, 332, 348, 357:
    - architecture 315–316; competition 327–328; geographic market segmentation 329;
    - regulation see telecommunications regulation; restructuring policies 327;
    - specific services 328–329; star topology 315
  - quasi-facilities competition 328
  - rate of return regulation 332
  - rationale for continuation of 348
  - Receiving Party Network Pays (RPNP) 345–346
  - regulation see telecommunications regulation
  - regulation/competition law interaction 331–332
  - regulatory holidays 350–351
  - regulatory policy 341–357
  - restructuring policies: effects of 344–346, 412–413; scope 342–344
  - service providers 324
  - services 322–323: broadband services 323, 356; data services 322–323; dial-up services 322–323; fixed/wireline 322; managed packet 322; multimedia/broadcasting 323; voice services 322; wireless/mobile networks 322
  - services/elements pricing 332
  - stepping stone hypothesis 346–348
  - supply characteristics 314
  - switching technology 319–322, 357: circuit switching 320; internet telephony 321–322; packet switching 320–321
  - technological revolution 311, 312, 357
  - technology/services convergence 314, 319
  - trading arrangements 324–325
  - transmission mediums 317–319: copper-based 318, 357; fibre-optics 318–319, 357;

- HFC (hybrid fibre coaxial) 319; radio wave/wireless network 319;
technology convergence 314, 319
- TSLRIC (Total Service Long Run Incremental Cost)
pricing 332, 333, 336–338, 347–348
- unbundling policies 328, 330, 346–348, 349–350
- universal service policies 356
- Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) 321–322, 338, 348, 353
- ‘waterbed effect’ 341
- wholesale mobile termination rates 345–346
- xDSL (Digital Subscriber Lines) 323
- Telstra 324, 330–331
- termination monopoly problem 331
- time-inconsistency problems 190–192, 209, 221
- time-of-use pricing 262
- Tirole, J. 90, 94, 130, 148, 152, 158, 168, 340–341, 409
- Title Transfer Facility 279
- Total Element Long Run Incremental Cost (TELRIC) 215– 216, 332, 333, 336–338, 342–343, 347–348
- total entry 42
- total factor productivity (TFP) 238–239
- Total Service Long Run Incremental Cost (TSLRIC)
pricing 332, 333, 336–338, 347–348
- total surplus 19, 69
- trading hubs 279, 295, 279, 280, 295, 306
- transfer subsidies 71–72
- transitional price controls 57
- Triebs, T. 295
- two-part tariffs see pricing; tariffs
- U-Verse 324
- unbundling 346–347, 395, 406
- uniform pricing 70
- uniform tariff 403
- universal service policies 356
- US Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) 334
- Verizon 324
- vertical integration
  - and competition 178–179
  - and contracts 177–178
  - core network firms 159–160, 410–411
  - and investment 177
  - and markets 177–178
  - monopoly structures 66
  - monopoly structures with competition 67–68
  - potential benefits 176–178
  - and production coordination 176–177
  - public utility firms 175–180
- vertical separation
  - accounting separation 182
  - boundaries determination 180–181
  - business separation 182–183
  - and competition 178–179
  - core network firms 159–160, 180–181
  - forms of 181–183
  - and incentives to new firms 179
  - and innovation 179
  - legal separation 183
  - mandatory separation 183
  - monopoly structures 66
  - ownership separation 183
  - potential benefits 178–180
  - public utility firms 175–180
  - and regulatory structure 179
  - and risk-taking 179
  - voluntary separation 183
- Vickers, J. 39, 176, 385
- Victoria gas trading hub 279
- Vogelsang, I. 95–96, 115–116, 158, 198, 409
- Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) see telecommunications networks
- voluntary separation 183
- Vonage 321, 322
- Water Framework Directive 384–385
- water and wastewater regulation 9–10, 62, 154, 158–159
  - access pricing (ECPR) 375–376
  - activities subject to regulation 372–378
  - annual leakage target 382
  - capital cost/structures (England and Wales) 388–391
  - capital expenditure scheme (CIS) 380–381
  - and climate change 395–396
  - comparative competition 381–382
  - competition: common carriage 377, 393–394, 395; future prospects 394–396;
horizontal 373; indirect 373, 406; inset appointments 373, 377, 393;
for the market 373, 373, 391, 406; policies impact 391–394; in retail activities 375, 394, 395; in supply chain 373;
third-party access 377, 393–394, 395; upstream activities 394–395; yardstick 406, 373, 393, 406
  - concession agreements/contracts 391–393
  - costs principle removal 395
  - decreasing block tariff 403
  - economies of scale 369–370, 395
  - economies of scope 370–371
  - and electricity production 362
  - English experiment 387
  - English model 373
  - externalities 359, 362–363, 402, 405
  - fixed charges 402
  - franchising 406
  - French model 373
  - full cost pricing 401
  - future challenges 414
  - horizontal competition 373
  - implications for 405–406
  - increasing block tariff 403
  - industry models 373
  - investment 385–386, 387; in infrastructure 399–400, 407–408
  - metering 402
  - networks integration 399–400
  - operating costs 387
  - ownership changes 387–388
  - pipelines 366–367, 374
  - price affordability 400–403
  - price benchmarking 381–382
  - price caps 379–381
  - price demand management 400–403
  - price efficiency 400–403
  - price regulation 378–383
  - price structures 401–402
  - prices 385, 387, 400–403
  - privatisation 383–384
  - productivity 387
  - public operator model 373
  - public/state ownership 387–388, 405

472 Index

- water and wastewater regulation (cont.)
  - quality regulation 382–383
  - rate of return 379
  - regulatory accounts 379
  - regulatory asset base value 398
  - regulatory capital value (RCV) 398
  - regulatory policy issues 383–405
  - restructuring policies: effects of 385–387, 406, 413; scope of 383–385
  - retailing: wastewater 363–364; water 363–364, 367, 374, 375, 384
  - RPI + K 380
  - RPI – X 379
  - services ownership 363, 373
  - sewer mining 374–375
  - smart meters 402
  - sunshine regulation 382, 393, 406
  - supply chain 363–364, 368–371, 373, 377–378, 405, 406
  - systems 369
  - systems integration 369, 370
  - tariffs 362, 379, 401–402, 410: block tariffs in USA 403–405; and concession contracts 392–393; structure 401–402
  - unbundling activities 395, 406
  - uniform tariff 403
  - vertical integration 370, 371, 405
  - vertical separation 371
  - wastewater
    - classification 361
    - collection 363–364, 367–368
    - disposal 363–364, 368
    - distribution 363–364
    - effluent 368
    - sludge 363–364, 368
    - in Sydney 375–376
    - treatment 363–364, 368, 374–375
  - water
    - abstraction 363–364, 374, 384, 394–395, 397–398
    - competition 386
    - contamination 360–361
    - demand/consumption 361–362
    - distribution 363–364, 366–367
    - potability 360–361
    - product characteristics 360–363
    - reclaimed/recycled 360–361
    - storage 363–364
    - substitutability 361
    - transport/transfer 363–364, 366–367, 374
    - treatment 363–364, 366, 374–375
  - water banks 372
  - water conservation 402
  - water grids 400
  - water as natural monopoly 360, 377, 405
  - water supply sources 362–363
  - water systems 369
  - water trading: policy effects 398–399; water rights 397–398; wholesale bulk 371–372, 374, 375, 384, 397–399
  - water value 397–399
  - ‘waterbed effect’ 341
  - Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC) 388–391
  - Weisman, D.L. 135, 344
  - wireless networks see telecommunications networks
  - Wright, J. 166–167
- X-inefficiency 25
- X-value, in benchmarking 239–240
- xDSL (Digital Subscriber Lines) see telecommunications networks
- yardstick competition 406, 373, 406
  - in electricity industry 410
  - and information asymmetry 96–97
  - in Netherlands 239–240
  - and regulated price setting 135–137
- Zeebrugge trading hub 279
- zero charge access pricing 338–339