Index

Abülmecid (Sultan), 37–38
ablution facilities at Imam-Hatip schools, 83–85 Afghanistan, Turkish relations with, 181
age demographics of Imam-Hatip students, 42–43
Ahl-i Hadith Islamic organization, 185–186
Ahmad, Mumtaz, 161n24
AKABE Culture and Education Foundation, 160–161
Akman, Zahid, 179
Akseki, Ahmet Hamdi, 35–37
Alayıoğlu, Nihat, 168
alcohol consumption in Turkey, Islamic displays of piety and, 150
Algeria, 190
Ali, Mehemet, 11
alienation, in Imam-Hatip community, 12–14
Alumni Association of Divinity Faculties and High Islamic Institutes (TİYEMDER), 160–161, 161n22
Alumni Association of Imam-Hatip School Graduates (TİMAV), 160, 160n21
Anatolian Imam-Hatip schools academic performance at, 49–51, 50n136
establishment of, 49–51
Anatolian Youth Association (AGD), 123–127
Ankara University
Faculty of Divinity of, 37–38
Imam-Hatip student enrollment at, 44–52
An-Na‘im, Abdullahi, 4–7
Arab community, view of Imam-Hatip schools in, 181–183
Arabic language instruction, at Imam-Hatip schools, 70n21, 70–72
Arab Spring in Middle East, Turkey’s role in, 4–7, 181–183
Arat, Yeşim, 178
Arınc, Bulent, 123–127, 134n14, 142
Association in Support of International Students’ Activities (WONDER), 165–167
Association of Imam-Hatip School Graduates and Members (ÖNDER), 126–127
iftar dinners organized by, 172–176
involvement in Imam-Hatip schools of, 157–172 scholarships issued by, 164–165
Atakuman, Çiğdem, 179
 Atatürk, Mustafa Kemal, 14
representations and images of, at Turkish schools, 85–87
Turkish Republic established by, 30–31
Austria, Imam-Hatip students in, 165–167
autonomous religious lodges, abolishment in Turkey of, 30–38
Ayaç, Irfan, 117–118, 161–162
Aydoğdu, Kamil, 148n88
Ayhan, Halis, 42–43, 137n25
Index

Babacan, Ali, 134n14
Bacaci, Ismail, 163
Banguoğlu, Tahsin, 35
Bardakçılı, Ali, 114–118
Barelvi Islamic organization, 185–186
Basic Law on National Education, 44–52
Başörtüsü ve veil category, 93n77, 93–97, 94n79
Bayramoğlu, Ali, 16
Bayram sermons, 115–117
Bedir, Osman Nuri, 133
Bilim ve Teknik (Science and Technology) (journal), 179
Berleant, Arnold, 82
Beybalta, Murat, 148n88
Beyca, Hilmi, 114
blessing (salavat), practice at Imam-Hatip schools of, 76–78
Bokhari, Kamran, 189–191
Bulaç, Ali, 98, 138, 182
Caliphate abolition in Turkey of, 30–38
Imam-Hatip students' references to, 79–80, 13n12
Çalışkan, Abdullah, 151, 154
Can, Hasan, 144
Çelik, Hüseyin, 126–127, 139–140, 142–143, 145
Çelik, İbrahim Halil, 53
Çelik, Ömer, 134
Çiçek, Cemil, 134n14
civic engagement, of Imam-Hatip students and graduates in, 147–148
civil service positions, Imam-Hatip graduates in, 147–148 civil society organizations, 155–177
annual picnics organized by, 174–175
defined, 156–157
definition and terminology for, 153n156
funding support for Imam-Hatip schools from, 161–165 government monitoring of, 159
historical emergence of, 156n2
iftar dinners organized by, 172–176
political activism of, 167–171, 176–177 scholarship programs for Imam-Hatip students and, 164–165
students' and graduates' participation in, 157–172 coefficient factor (katsayı faktörü), 56n158
civil society organizations' campaign against, 168–169
Imam-Hatip schools and institution of, 55–61 increase in private tutors linked to, 59–61, 111–114
legislative reform of, 137–140
Çoşan, Emin, 60–61
Coleman, James, 104n2
community influence of Imam-Hatip schools, 104–129
compur pathology of religions, Imam-Hatip classes in, 81–82
compulsory religious curricula in Turkish schools, 26–30
Constitution of 1982, 48n129, 48–49
Çoşan, Nurettin, 118–121
Council of Education and Instruction (Talim Terbiye Kurulu), curriculum development by, 68
Council of Higher Education (YÖK) administrative structure of, 137n25 civil society organizations' criticism of, 168–169 coefficient factor established by, 55–61 reform of coefficient factor and, 137–140
creationism, emergence in Turkey of, 179
cultural education, Imam-Hatip schools and, 1–2, 39–40 curriculum definitions of, 66–68
economic and social consequences of, 187
at Imam-Hatip schools, “experience” vs., 66–68, 68n15 informal (hidden) curriculum at Imam-Hatip schools, 82–97
official curriculum at Imam-Hatip schools, 82–88 political influences on, 142, 148n87
students’ reaction to, 128
teaching community at Imam-Hatip schools role in, 97–102
Dağlı, İhsan, 61–63
Dağlar, Arif, 144
Darul-Fünun higher learning institution, 37–38
Davutoğlu, Ahmet, 163
Index

dernek (associations), 156n14, 156n15
defined, 156–157
Democrat Party (DP), establishment of Imam-Hatip schools and, 39
Deobandi religious organization, 183–186
dershane, 172, 172n63
Devrı-Alem (Around the World)
international student club, 165–167
directorate of Religion Education, establishment of, 40–41
directorate of Religious Affairs (DİB)
administrative structure of, 114n23
AKP budget allocations to, 146–147
establishment of, 30–38
imams hired by, 114–118
Qur’an courses organized and monitored
by, 26–30
discrimination against Imam-Hatip community, 9–12
Doğan, Yalçın, 51–52
education
compulsory education policies in Turkey, 54n154, 168
elimination of religion in, in pre-1951 Turkey, 30–38
graded system for Turkish schools, 27n9
Imam-Hatip definitions of, 66–68
Islamization efforts in general high schools and, 142–143
political, economic and social trends
and, 26
secular reforms for, 33n41, 52–61
Egypt
educational system in, 26, 34, 105n3, 161n24, 186–187, 187n45
Islamic schools in, 101n93
employment opportunities for Imam-Hatip graduates, 142–148
Ensar Vakfı (civil society), 157–172,
162n27, 163n30
annual picnics organized by, 174–175
Er, Nevzat, 107
Erbaşan, Necmettin, 41–42, 51–52, 118– 121, 123–124, 134–135, 140–141
dissolution of government of, 53, 61–63
Erdoğan, Reccep Tayyip
AKP and, 61–63
coefficient factor reforms and, 137–140
on curriculum reforms for Turkish high schools, 142–143
displays of piety by, 136, 149n96
family influences on, 110–111
Imam-Hatip ties of, 9, 99–102, 107,
118–121, 130, 134–138, 141–142,
145–146
Imam-Hatip schools and policies of, 1
international community and, 181–183
Islamic influence in administration of, 147–148, 151n107
political power of, 4–7
Raiders youth association and, 122–127
secular state supported by, 148–154
Ergil, Doğu, 168
Ergün, Nihat, 154
Erken, Nazım, 134n14
Ersöz, Mehmet Akif, 87–90
ethnographic research, Turkish Islamic communities, 17–23
evolution, suppression of research on, 179
Eyüp Mosque, 180n9
families, influence of Imam-Hatip schools on, 107–111
Fatiba prayer, 109, 109n13
Fatsa, Eyüp, 8
Ferjani, Sayed, 182
fıkıh classes, 187–188
at Imam-Hatip schools, 78n47–79, 79,
79n48
Fischer, Heinz, 163–167
foreign language training
at Imam-Hatip schools, 70–72
institution of, 49–51
in Turkish high schools, 70n20
Fornia, Benjamin, 32n36 Foundation for Human Rights and Freedoms and Humanitarian Relief
(IHH), 157–172
Foundation of Volunteer Organizations in Turkey (TGTV), 160, 163, 163n11
Freedom and Solidarity Party, 133 functionalization of educational policy, 34
funding of Imam-Hatip schools
civil society organizations’ role in, 161–165
comparisons with general school
funding, 143–145
Gallipoli campaign, impact in Turkish history of, 115–117
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gallipoli Cannot Be Passed” (play), 115–117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gehrer, Elisabeth, 165–167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>gender coefficient factor dynamics and, §8n62, 59–61, 60n171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>segregation in Imam-Hatip schools by, 90–93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>generation ideology, of Imam-Hatipi social network, 8–17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ghannouchi, Rached, 5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gökalp, Ziya, 32–33, 134–135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Göle, Nilüfer, 7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>government civil society organizations controlled by, 157–172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Imam-Hatip graduates in, 2–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Imam-Hatip graduates involvement in, 104–129, 131n3, 131–148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>piety displayed by officials in, 148–154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grand Unity Party, 132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>grassroots activities, Imam-Hatip school community participation in, 12–14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gül, Abdullah, 110–111, 126–127, 132, 139–140</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gülen, Fethullah, 28–30, 119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gülen religious community, 7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>activities of, 104n47–120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Imam-Hatip graduates in, 119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>schools run by, 28–30, 29n18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gürtuna, Muftı, 134n17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Guruz, Kemal, 147–148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>opposition to Imam-Hatip schools, 2–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>habitus exhibition of, in Imam-Hatip graduates, 104–105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in Imam-Hatip schools, 102–103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hadith, Imam-Hatip religious instruction concerning, 76–78, 78n46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hakan, Ahmet, 12–14, 127–129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Halis, Ibrahim, 142–143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hanefi principles, in Imam-Hatip curriculum, 68n16, 78n47–79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Herrera, Linda, 105n3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hidden curriculum definitions of, 66–68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>at Imam-Hatip schools, 82–97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>physical features at Imam-Hatip schools and, 82–90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>higher education, religious studies in, 37–38, 49n131–41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Higher Islamic Institutes closing of, 48–49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>establishment of, 40–41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>history classes, at Imam-Hatip schools, 79–80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hizbullah terrorist organization, 66n5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Huseyinoğlu, Şükru, 159–160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>İBDAC terrorist organization, 66n5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>identity of Imam-Hatipi (Imam-Hatip students and graduates), 8–17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Islamist politics and issues of, 7, 50n138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>iftar dinners, 153n120, 172–176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>İleri, Tevfik, 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>İlim Yayma Vakfı (civil society), 157–172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Imam-Hatipi community civil society organizations and, 155–177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>identity of, 8–17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>international interest in and future predictions concerning, 178–191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>political affiliations of, 131–148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social network of, 8–17, 10n42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>suspicion of outsiders in, 155–177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Imam-Hatipi Nesil (The Generation of Imam-Hatip School Graduates) (journal), 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Imam-Hatip schools from 1951 to present, 38–63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>alumni support for, 170–171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anatolian schools, establishment of, 49–51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Basic Law on National Education and, 44–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>basic religious knowledge (temel dini bilgiler) classes at Imam-Hatip and, 74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>civil society organizations’ involvement in, 157–172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>coefficient factor impact on, 55–61, 137–140</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>community influence of, 104–129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comparative history of religions classes at, 81–82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>compulsory religion classes at, 69–70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>curriculum and “experience” in education at, 66–68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>curriculum changes for, politics and, 132–143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>definition of, 1–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>enrollment growth in, 40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ethnographic research methodology concerning, 17–23</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
families’ role in, 107–111
fıkıh classes at, 79
foreign language instruction at, 70n21, 70–72
future predictions concerning, 178–191
gender segregation in, 90–93
habitus at, 102–103
hadith classes at, 76–78, 78n46
history of within secular Turkish state, 26–55
imams’ influence in, 114–118
impact of “coefficient factor” on, 55–61, 58n162 informal (hidden) curriculum at, 82–97
international view of, 181–183
Islamic religious influence in, 31, 87–90
 kelam classes at, 81–82
islamization in Turkey and role of, 6
madrasa system compared with, 183–188
midday prayers (namaz) at, 74–76
municipal funding for, 143–145
nascence and growth period (1951–1973), 39–44
official curriculum at, 68–82
okul and lise classifications for, 39n76–40, 46n110 origins of, 30–38
peer relationships at, 122–127
physical features at, 82–90
political affiliations of graduates from, 104–129, 131n3, 131–148 political debate concerning, 1 political influence of, 4–7 political socialization and, 104–129, 107n8 prestige and influence of, 2–3
private religious tutors in, 111–114
 hitabet ve mesleki uygulama classes at, 81–82
Qur’an instruction at, 72–74
religious authority figures in, 111–121 religion orders and communities, graduates as leaders of, 118–121 religious-secular polarization concerning, 26–30 resistance to visits at, 20–21
resurgence and renewal after 2002, 61–63 scholarships for students at, 164–165
 siyer classes at, 76–78
social aesthetics at, 82–97
state ownership of, 163
student demographics at, 42–43
students and graduates identification with, 8–17 teachers’ demographics at, 43–44
teaching community in, 97–102
tefsir classes at, 79–80
termology concerning, 14–17
textbooks and educational materials at, 99–102 transformation progress in (1973–1997), 39n76–40, 44–52
veiling practices at, 93–97
weakening and decline (1997–2002) of, 52–61
website for, 8
Imam-Hatip Nesli (Imam-Hatip School Generation) (journal), 10
imams, in Imam-Hatip schools, 114–118
immigrant populations, civil society organizations’ support for, 169–170
 İnanç Dünyası (The World of Faith) (television program), 179
İnce, Özdemir, 147–148
Independent Industrialists and Businessmen’s Association (MÜSİAD), 157–172
Indonesia, pesantren Islamic boarding schools in, 12n44, 170–171 international education for Imam-Hatip students, 165n39, 165–167
interviewing methodology, research on Imam-Hatip schools and, 21–23
İskenderpaşa Dergahi, Imam-Hatip graduates as leaders of, 118–121
Islamic brotherhoods, political influence of, 7
“Islamic” hotels, 93
Islamic religious practices authority in pre-1951 Turkey and, 30–38
influence on Imam-Hatip schools of, 87–90
Islamic schools, international distribution of, 12n44
Islamic theology
Imam-Hatip classes in, 81–82
Turkish interpretation of, 189–191
İslamist (İslamcı) terminology, 15, 179–180
Islamization (islamlaşma) in Turkey civil society organizations promotion of, 157–172

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Islamization (islamlaşma) in Turkey (cont.)
curriculum changes in Turkish high schools and, 142–143
ethnographic research methodology concerning, 17–23
financial pressures on, 61n176
future predictions concerning, 178–191
growth and momentum of, 3
Imam-Hatip student involvement in, 127–129
Imam-Hatip support of politicians in, 145 impact on Imam-Hatip schools of, 51–52
madrasas as tool of, 183–188
political ascendency of, 41–42
political displays of piety and, 148–154
public and political support for, 154n123 suspicion of secular community in, 17–23
terminology concerning, 16–17
Turkish politics and society and, 4–7 in Turkish society and culture, 6 of Turkish youth associations, 123–127
youth organizations in, 122–127
Isma'il, Hekimoğlu, 102–103
İsmaila community, private tutors from, 111–114
Israel
politics and school affiliations in, 142–143
Turkish relations with, 4–7
Kabê, replicas in Imam-Hatip schools of, 87n63, 87–90
Kadıköy Anatolian Imam-Hatip School, 10
Kaplan, Yusuf, 115–117
Kara, Yusuf, 163–165
Karaca, Yusuf, 162
Karakas, Cemal, 41–42
Karaman, Hayrettin, 2–3, 28n12, 42–43, 64–66, 110
civil society organizations and, 162n27, 163, 169–170
on funding for Imam-Hatip schools, 162
on Imam-Hatip social network, 9–10
Karar, Yusuf, 165–167
Kartal Anatolian Imam Hatip School, 10
Kavr-İ Hazen (Good Loan) international student club, 165–167
Kayadibi, Fahri, 61n175
Kemalism
establishment of, 30–31
future in Turkey of, 179
Islamist challenges to, 36–38
principles of, 30n26
Khan, Shamus, 74–76
Khomeini, Ayatollah, influence in Imam-Hatip schools of, 98
Kluckydolgu, Kemal
Imam-Hatip schools and, 1
secular support for, 2–3
Köper, Stephen, 6
Kuakurek, Necip Fazil, 87–90, 89n68
Küla, Israfil, 163–164
Kyiklik, Feyzullah, 49–51, 50n138, 127–129
Kyiklik, Mustafa, 49–51
Korkut, Hüseyin, 183
Kotku, Mehmet Zahid, 118–121
Kuru, Ahmet, 6
Kutan, Recai, 61n175
kütüphane competitions, at Imam-Hatip schools, 87–90, 89n67
law, Sunni schools of, 78n47–79, 79
Libya, 182
madrasa system
definitions of, 183n30
Imam-Hatip schools compared with, 183–188
in Pakistan and Bangladesh, 161n24
teachers in, 188–190
Mahmud II (Sultan), 30–31
Mardin, Şerif, 7
marriage, coefficient factor linked to increase in, 59–61
Massialas, Byron G., 66–68
Masyumi Party (Indonesia), 170–171
Mavi Marmara, Israeli raid on, 5
Mawdudi, 98
medreses
closure in pre-1951 Turkey of, 30–38
educational practices at, 28n12
imams’ administration of, 117–118 operation in Turkey of, 27–28
midday prayers (namaz)
ablution facilities for, 83–85
at Imam-Hatip schools, 74–76
Middle East, educational system in, 26, 188, 188n50 military political role of, 41–42
religious and educational policy and influence of, 30–38, 48–49, 53n222
secularist ideology and, 15
Milli Gazete (National Newspaper) (newspaper), 159–160
Milliyet (Nationality) (newspaper), 51–52, 54
Ministry of Education (MEB)
access to Imam-Hatip schools restricted by, 20–21 administration of Imam-Hatip schools by, 1–2, 40, 185
annual meetings of, 11
civil society organizations monitored by, 159 control of Turkish educational institutions by, 33 curriculum development under, 68–82 displays of piety in, 148–154
establishment of Imam-Hatip schools and, 37–38
expansion of Imam-Hatip schools by, 46–47
Imam-Hatip graduates recruited by, 146–147, 148n88
Islamic influence in, 179–180

per capita spending for Imam-Hatip students vs. general high school students, 143 restrictions on university faculty by, 35–37
textbooks and educational materials, control over, 99–102
misvak fibers, 77n42, 77–78
Morawek, Christian, 165–167
mosques in Imam-Hatip schools, 82–90
Musharraf, Pervez, 184
Muslim Brotherhood, influence in Imam-Hatip schools of, 98

Nahda Party (Tunisia), 182
Nahdlatul Ulama (Indonesian civil organization), 170–171
Naksibendis 7
Erdogan’s ties to, 114–115
Imam-Hatip graduates as leaders of, 118–121
private tutors from, 111–114
Nasser, Gamal Abdel, 186–187
National Education Council, 143n62
nationalism, pre-1951 Turkish educational policy and, 30–38
National Order Party (MNP), 41–42
National Outlook (Milli Gorus) ideology, youth associations and, 111n18, 123–127
National Salvation Party (MSP), ascendency of, 44–52
National Security Council (Milli Guvenlik Kurulu), 15 coefficient factor introduced by, 55–61 educational reforms of, 52–61
National Sovereignty and Children’s Day, 142
National Turkish Students’ Union (MTTB), 123–127
National Youth Foundation (MGV), Imam-Hatip presence in, 99–102, 122–127
Navaro-Yashin, Yael, 7
Nesil (Generation) (journal), 10
non-religious classes (kültür dersleri), 2–3
Nurcu movement, 119
Obama, Barack, 181
official curriculum
definitions of, 66–68
at Imam-Hatip schools, 68–82
Index

Ottoman Empire, religious and educational policy in, 30–38, 32n36
Özal, Korkut, 118–121
Özcan, Yusuf Ziya, 56n158, 139–140
Özelik, Bayram, 121
Ozer, Ata, 148n88
Ozkök, Hilmi, 56–57
Pakistan, Turkish relations with, 181
parents of Imam-Hatip students, influence of, 107–111, 108n11
peer relationships in Imam-Hatip schools, 122–127 Peköz, Mustafa, 146–147
pesantren (Indonesian Islamic schools), 12n44, 170–171, 185n39
Imam-Hatip schools compared with, 183–188
piety, Imam-Hatip-linked politicians display of, 148–154 political socialization, Imam-Hatip schools’ role in, 104–129, 107n8 politics
civil society organizations’ involvement in, 167–171, 176–177
Imam-Hatip graduates involvement in, 104–129, 131n3, 131–148
Imam-Hatip schools as issue in, 26–30
incorporation of religion in, 44–52
Islamist influence in, 51–52
piety of Imam-Hatip graduates in, 148–154
religious education basic religious knowledge (temel dini bilgiler) classes at Imam-Hatip and, 74
compulsory religion classes at Imam-Hatip schools, 69–70 global patterns of, 64–66, 65n3
at Imam-Hatip schools, 2–3
in official curriculum at Imam-Hatip schools, 68–82
politics of, 21n67–22
in pre-1951 Turkey, 30–38
private tutors in, 111–114
state education policies for integration of, 30–38, 37n65, 48–49, 87–89 Turkish institutions, 26–30
unofficial extra-curricular programs, spread of, 26–30, 27n8 religious functionaries foreign language training for, 49–51
predominance of Imam-Hatip graduates among, 57–58
as private tutors, 111–114
public and vocational training (hitabet ve mesleki uygulama) for, 81–82
religious orders and communities (tarikats/ cemaats) Imam-Hatip students as leaders of, 57–58
private tutors from, 111–114
Qu’ran courses run by, 27–28
religious-secular polarization in Turkey
Imam-Hatip-linked politicians display of piety and, 148–154
Imam-Hatip schools and, 2–3, 26
international interest in, 178–191
international view of, 181–183
Ottoman educational system and, 32n36
religious sensibilities

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
Index

concept of, 64–66

growing influence of, 178–191

Republican People’s Party (CHP)

conservative estrangement from, 36–38

Imam-Hatip politicians in, 133

Imam-Hatip schools and, 1, 7, 39–44, 127–129

Ringer, Monica, 66–68

Ross, Edward, 13

Sadıkoğlu, Necmi, 160–161

Şafak, Elif, 16, 102–103

Şafi school of law, 78n47–79, 79n48

Şahin, Dursun Ali, 144

Şahin, İdris Naim, 134, 172

Şahin, Mehmet Ali, 126–127

Id-i Nursi, Bedüzzaman, 119

Şahin, Mehmet Ali, 126–127

Sagapo, 102–103

Şahin, İdris Naim, 134, 172

Şahin, Mehmet Ali, 126–127

Sadıkoğlu, Necmi, 160–161

Şafak, Elif, 16, 102–103

Şafi school of law, 78n47–79, 79n48

Şahin, Dursun Ali, 144

Şahin, İdris Naim, 134, 172

Şahin, Mehmet Ali, 126–127

Said-i Nursi, Bedüzzaman, 119

Şahin, Mehmet Ali, 126–127

Sagapo, 102–103

Şahin, İdris Naim, 134, 172

Şahin, Mehmet Ali, 126–127

Sayarı, Sabri, 16–17

scientific research, Islamic influence in, 179

secularism in Turkey

coefficient factor reforms and, 137–140

definition and ideology in Turkey of, 5–7

expansion of Imam-Hatip schools, tensions concerning, 52–61

future influence of, 178–191

history of Imam-Hatip schools and, 26–55

Imam-Hatip antagonism towards, 12–14, 17–23

Imam-Hatip-linked politicians display of piety and, 148–154

military support for, 15

in official curriculum at Imam-Hatip schools, 68–82

passive concept of, 61–63

polarization with religious communities, 2–3

in political party ideology, 133

popular suspicion of, 41–42

self-identification in, 14

suspicion of AKP party and, 4–7, 101n104–105

suspicion of Islamic movement and, 17–23

terminology concerning, 14–17

sekolah pondok (Malaysian religious schools), 183–188

Senzai, Farid, 189–191

Sertel, Nur, 121

sexuality, gender segregation at Imam-Hatip schools and norms of, 90–93

seyhülislam, abolishment in Turkey of, 30–38

Sezer, Ahmet Necedet, 137–140, 143n62

Sham, Shahzad Iqbal, 183

single-sex schools, history in Turkey of, 90–93

siyer classes, in Imam-Hatip schools, 70n19, 76–78

Skelton, Alan, 66–68

snowball sampling technique, research on Imam-Hatip schools and, 21–23 social networking at iftar dinners and civil society picnics, 172–176

of Imam-Hatip (Imam-Hatip students and graduates), 8–17

social norms

gender segregation at Imam-Hatip schools and, 90–93

hidden curriculum at Imam-Hatip schools and, 82–97

in Imam-Hatip community, 12–14

Islamic displays of piety and, 148–154

veiling practices and conformity of, 93–97, 94n79

socio-economic characteristics of Imam-Hatip students, 42–43

sohbet conversation groups, 174–175

Solmaz, İbrahim, 168–169

Starrett, Gregory, 26, 34, 105n3

state education policies, religious instruction and, 30–38, 37n65, 48–49, 87–89, 105n3

student-teacher ratios, Imam-Hatip/general high school discrepancies in, 143

Sula, Yusuf Ziyaettin, 126–127

Süleymanı religious order, private tutors from, 111–114

sünnet principles, gender segregation and, 76n40, 90–93

Sunni legal theory, 78n47–89, 79, 79n48

Tanrıöver, Hamdullah Suphi, 35–37

Tanzimat era, 30–31

tarafsız (side-lessness), Turkish concept of, 17–23

tarikats (religious orders), 28n11

abolishment in Turkey of, 30–38

Tarkan, 102–103
Index

Taş, Alper, 133, 133n12

teachers at Imam-Hatip schools country of, 97–102

comparisons with madrasa teachers, 188–190
demographic characteristics of, 43–44
professional training for, 46–47
student-teacher ratios, 143
tefsir classes, at Imam-Hatip schools, 79–80
tekkes (religious lodges), abolishment in Turkey of, 30–38
television broadcasting, Islamic influence in, 179
textbooks and educational materials, government control of, 99–102, 148n87
Teziç, Erdoğan, 139–140, 143n62

Today’s Zaman (newspaper), 183

Topbaş, Kadır, 126–127, 134, 134n17, 144, 146
civil society organizations and, 163 displays of piety by, 148–154
iftar dinners attended by, 172
True Path Party (DYP), 132
Tulun, Yusuf, 126–127
Tunisia, 182

Turkish relations with, 5
Turam, Berna, 7
türban veil category, 93n77, 93–97, 94n79
Türev, Tufan, 147–148
Turkish Daily News (newspaper), 157
Turkish-Islamic synthesis (Türk-Islam sendetesi), emergence, 48–49
Turkish Radio and Television Authority (TRT), 179

Turkish society, bifurcation of communities in, 16
Turkish War of Independence, 115–117

Ulama, Nahdlatul, 188

Unification of Education Law (Tevhid-i Tedrisat Kanunu), 33, 37–38
United States, Turkish alliance with, Erdoğan’s transformation of, 4–7 universities

coefficient factor and entrance exams for, 30n137, 55–61, 38n162, 137–140
Divinity Faculties at, 48–49, 49n132

Imam-Hatip graduates admission to, 44–52

MEB restrictions on faculty hiring at, 35–37
women in Divinity Faculties of, 61n175

vakıfs (foundations), 156n3, 156n5

Van Bruinessen, Martin, 186–187, 188

veiling

at Imam-Hatip schools, 93n77, 93–97
women’s views on, 136–137
velayat-e faqih, Khomenei’s principle of, 98, 98n83 Virtue Party (FP)
emergence of, 61–63

Erdoğan’s association with, 134–135

Imam-Hatip community affiliation with, 131–132

vocational education, Imam-Hatip classes offering, 81–82 vocational education (mesleki eğitim) coefficient factor impact on, 55–61 Imam-Hatip schools’ classification as, 2–3, 39–40, 46
religious education classified as, 68–82

Wadid, Abdurrahman, 170–171
Welfare Party (RP), 21n67–22, 53n222
decline of Imam-Hatip schools and, 52–61 demise of, 3

Imam-Hatip community affiliation with, 131–132

Islamist influence in, 7

Western governments, Turkish suspicion of, 17–23

White, Jenny, 7, 14, 15, 61–63

women

coefficient factor and increased Imam-Hatip enrollment of, 59–61, 60n169, 60n170, 61n175
Imam-hatipili influence and future in Turkey for, 178–191

Islamic movement and role of, 7 political participation by, 136–137

as religious functionaries, training for, 81–82

sobbet conversation groups for, 174–175

World Values Survey, 180

Yağcıkaya, Abdurrahman, 150n104–151

Yarar, Erol, 168

Yavuz, Hakan, 7, 189–191
Index

Yazıcı, Hayati, 134n14
Yazıcı, Selahattin, 160–161
Yeni Şafak (New Dawn) (newspaper), 138, 174–175
Yeni Soluk (New Breath) (journal), 145
Yıldırım, Binali, 151
Young Turk era, 30–31

youth organizations, Imam-Hatip presence in, 122–127
Yüksel, Emrullah, 43–44
zaviyes (religious lodges), abolition in Turkey of, 30–38
Zia-ul-Haq, Muhammad, 186–187