

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

- Abdul Kahar bin Ahmad* case, Federal Court of Malaysia, 325–326
- abortion, U.S. Supreme Court decision on, 224
- Academic Center of Law and Business v. Minister of Finance*, Israeli Supreme Court, 253
- access to information, Mexican Supreme Court, 150–151
- accommodation, in Dutch political system, 183–185
- accountability. See also political accountability, courts enforcing in Italy and judicial independence, 388–389
- judicial initiatives as way to enforce, in Italy, 170
- and judicial review, 253
- accusatorial trials, Italy, 172
- Ackerman, Bruce, 262
- active voice, constitutional politics in, 363–379
- courts and judges, 375–378
- fragmentation and gridlock, 371–375
- liberals, 378–379
- overview, 363–365
- passive voice and missing agents, 365–367
- regime politics, 368–371
- activist court, Supreme Court of India as, 272–273. See also Indian Supreme Court
- activist role conception, 3
- activist states, and expanded judicial roles, 407–409
- Adallah v. Minister of Defence*, Israeli Supreme Court, 252–253
- Adallah v. Minister of Interior*, Israeli Supreme Court, 253–254
- adapting constitutional courts, 343–344
- adjudicating election in Taiwan, 55–58
- A.D.M Jabalpur v. Shivakant Shukla*, Supreme Court of India, 269–270
- administration of Dutch court system, 192–193
- administrative and regulatory state, U.S., 204–211
- abandonment of substantive review of regulatory policy, 206
- endorsing administrative law-making, 206–207
- federal government's taxing and spending power, 207
- importance of Supreme Court, 207–209
- interstate commerce as all commerce, 205–206
- legitimizing administrative lawmaking through federal administrative law, 209–211
- overview, 204–205
- administrative law
- and courts as downstream democratic consolidators, 51
- external pressures on French, 295–296
- and Israeli Supreme Court decisions, 258
- in traditional French judicial model, 294
- Administrative Procedure Act, U.S., 210
- administrative review, 389–394
- administrative tribunals, France, 297–301
- adversarial legal advocacy, in U.S., 213
- affirmative action, U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving, 221–223
- African Americans. See racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- agency, role of in constitutional politics, 363–379
- courts and judges, 375–378
- fragmentation and gridlock, 371–375
- liberals, 378–379
- overview, 363–365
- passive voice and missing agents, 365–367
- regime politics, 368–371

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

414

Index

- agenda
 - establishment of for Mexican Supreme Court, 146–147
 - national political, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 238
- agitation for constitutionalism, 341–342
- Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933, U.S., 207
- Akaev, Askar, 72, 84–85
- “Allah”, ban on use by non-Muslims in Malaysia, 325
- allocation of powers, 11–13
 - executive-legislative conflict, 11–12
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 12–13
 - national-subnational government conflict, 13
 - overview, 11
 - South African Constitutional Court decision on, 105–106
- ambassador, Dutch Hoge Raad as, 195
- amendments. See also specific amendments by name
 - of 1953, Dutch, 182–183
 - 14th, U.S. Constitution, 212–213, 216
 - to French constitution, 308
 - to Indian Constitution, 265–268, 269
 - Islamization, constitution of Pakistan, 318–319
 - as unconstitutional, 387
- amparo* writ (juicio de amparo), Mexico
 - decision on HIV-positive army members, 155
 - Facultad de Atracción*, using to bring cases to Supreme Court, 152–153
 - during PRI rule, 142–143
 - reform of, 148
 - role of Justice Castro y Castro in reform of, 147
- Andhyarujina, T.R., 279
- Andrew W. Mellon Foundation John E. Sawyer Seminar, 2
- Anonymous v. The State of Israel*, Israeli Supreme Court, 253
- anti-authoritarian movements, role of courts in sparking, 9–10
- anti-establishment religious movements, restriction of, 314–315
- anti-government judicial behavior, conditions enabling, 68–73
- apartheid era, South Africa
 - influence on Constitutional Court, 95–97
 - judiciary in, 97
- apostasy, Syariah courts’ jurisdictional authority over, 324
- appointments, judicial
 - in India, 272–273, 280
 - and regime theory, 369–370
 - South African Constitutional Court, 97–99
- arenas of political conflict, 7–18
- complaints about government stasis and maladministration, 13–15
- cultural and religious cleavages, 15–17
- disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
- disputes between political incumbents and challengers, 8–10
- general discussion, 399
- intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
- army members, HIV-positive, Mexican Supreme Court decision on, 155
- Article 6–1 fair trial litigation, 296–297, 299–300, 302–304, 306–308, 309
- Article 14, Indian Constitution, 275
- Article 19, Indian Constitution, 271
- Article 31, Indian Constitution, 265–267
- Article 32, Indian Constitution, 274
- Article 368, Indian Constitution, 267
- Asia, democratization in, 45–64
 - adjudicating election in Taiwan, 55–58
 - downstream democratic consolidators, 50–51
 - downstream guarantors, 49–50
 - impeachment in South Korea, 52–55
 - judicial irrelevance, 52
 - legacies and roles, 63–64
 - overview, 45–47
 - picking and rejecting populist in Thailand, 58–60
 - triggering democracy in Pakistan, 60–63
 - upstream triggers of democracy, 47–49
- assertive decisions, willingness and ability of judges to make, 5–6
- assertiveness, strategic, of judges, 32–35
- Association for Democratic Reforms v. Union of India*, Indian Supreme Court, 278
- asylum seekers, Dutch Council of State’s treatment of, 189
- Attraction Power (Facultad de Atracción)*, Mexican Supreme Court, 152–153
- audiencias públicas (public hearings), Mexican Supreme Court, 155
- Austin, Granville, 282
- authoritarian regimes. See also politics of courts
 - in democratization; semi-authoritarian regimes, colored revolutions in
 - anti-authoritarian movements, role of courts in sparking, 9–10
 - in Chile, constitution created by, 116–118
 - constitutional judicial review in, 383
 - downstream democratic consolidators, 50–51
 - downstream guarantors, 49–50
 - and legality, 349
 - in Mexico, 138–139
 - upstream triggers of democracy, 47–49

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

415

- authority, South African Constitutional Court, 102–103, 108–109
- autocratic regimes, shifts to democracy from, 23–24. See also authoritarian regimes; politics of courts in democratization; semi-authoritarian regimes, colored revolutions in
- auto-limited judicial review, 396–397
- autonomous law, 408
- autonomy. See also judicial independence as goal of Mexican Supreme Court, 147–149 as value of Dutch Hoge Raad, 195
- avoidance tactics, in Dutch politics, 184
- Azuola, Mariano, 149–150
- Baker v Carr*, U.S. Supreme Court, 10, 225
- Bakiev, Kurmanbek, 86
- Bandhua Mukti Morcha v. Union of India* (BMM), Indian Supreme Court, 274
- Bank Hamizrachi United v. Migdal Communal Village*, Israeli Supreme Court, 34, 246–247, 354
- Bank Nationalization Act, India, 267
- Barak, Aharon, 12, 244, 248
- Barendrecht, Maurits, 188
- Barisan Nasional (National Front) coalition, Malaysia, 322
- barriers against non-democratic rule, constitutionally defined, 70
- basic laws, Israel
- change in national perspectives regarding, 254
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 12 and legal complex, 342
 - 1969 Bergman exception, 239–241
 - of 1992, constitutional revolution caused by, 244–249
 - of 1992, overview of, 241–244
 - overview, 238–239
 - possibility of enacting new, 255
- basic legal framework, Chile, 117
- basic structure doctrine, India, 265–270
- Golak Nath v. Union of India*, 267–268
 - Kesavananda Bharati v. State of Kerala*, 268–269
 - overview, 265–267
 - Supreme Court support of in pre-Emergency era, 281–282
- Bavli* case, Supreme Court of Israel, 329–330
- Baxi, Upendra, 271, 282, 283
- Ben Gurion, David, 237
- Bergman* case, Israel, 239–241
- Berlusconi, Silvio, 163, 171, 172–173
- Betfair* case, Dutch Council of State, 190–191
- Bhagwati, P.N., 138, 272–273, 280–281
- Bhe* case, South African Constitutional Court, 107
- Bhutto, Benazir, 61
- Bible readings in public schools, U.S. Supreme Court decision regarding, 202–203
- Bihar Land Reforms Act, 265
- Bill of Rights
- South African, 104–105
 - U.S. Constitution, 212–213
- Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, U.S., 206–207
- black money investors, in India, 275
- black persons. See racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- Blasphemy Law, Indonesian, 315
- BMM (Bandhua Mukti Morcha v. Union of India), Indian Supreme Court, 274
- BN (Barisan Nasional) coalition, Malaysia, 322
- boundaries of power, constitutional, in Chile, 116–118
- British law, Israel's severing of ties with, 250
- Brown v Board of Education*, U.S. Supreme Court, 14, 33, 217–219, 355
- bulk cases, Dutch court system, 192
- Bumiputra (Malay ethnic group), 322
- Bush v Gore*, U.S. Supreme Court, 10
- busing-for-balance, U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving, 220
- California v Robinson*, U.S. Supreme Court, 214
- canceling results of rigged elections. See contested elections, role of courts in deciding
- candidate selection, and fragmentation in Israel, 242–243
- capacities, of courts, and changing judicial roles, 19–22, 28–30
- capital punishment, South African Constitutional Court decision on, 99–100
- cassation systems. See Cour de cassation, France; Dutch Hoge Raad
- Castillejos-Aragón, Mónica, 372
- Castro y Castro, Juventino, 146–147
- causal factors for changing judicial roles, 18–30
- general discussion, 399–400
 - intra-court factors, 28–30
 - overview, 18–22
 - proximate political dynamics, 25–28
 - structural factors, 22–25
- Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), Indian, 277–278

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

416

Index

- Central Election Commission (CEC)
 - Georgia, 75
 - Ukraine, 79–82
- Central Government, Supreme Court of India's
 - challenge of, 276–280
 - corruption and accountability cases, 277–278
 - education, human rights, and affirmative action, 279–280
 - environmental policy, 278–279
 - judicial appointment cases, 276–277
 - overview, 276
- certification of constitution, South African Constitutional Court, 103–104
- Cesión Gratuita de Terrenos* case, Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 124–125
- CGR (Controller General of the Republic), Chile, 119
- challengers and political incumbents, disputes between, 8–10
- electoral conflicts in established democracies, 10
- facilitating democratic transitions, 8–9
- overview, 8
- sparking anti-authoritarian movements, 9–10
- change in judicial roles in governance, framework for, 18–30
 - intra-court factors, 28–30
 - overview, 18–22
 - proximate political dynamics, 25–28
 - structural factors, 22–25
- Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, 305
- Chaskalson, Arthur, 99–100
- Chaudhry, Iftikhar Mohammad, 60–61
- Chen Shui-bian, 11, 56–58
- Chile, Constitutional Tribunal of, 114–134
 - causes of law vs. decree rulings, 126–131
 - constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 - constitutional review of decree authority, 118–119
 - evolving law vs. decree doctrine, 120–126
 - executive-legislative battles, 11–12
 - history of, 116
 - judicial irrelevance, 52
 - and legal complex, 342
 - Marbury moment in, 357
 - nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119
 - negotiating new roles, 131–134
 - overview, 114–116
 - post-2005 law vs. decree cases, 132–134
- Christian Democrats, Italy, 165
- Citizens to Preserve Overton Park v Volpe*, U.S. Supreme Court, 210
- Civil Code, Dutch, rewriting of, 188
- civil courts, versus Syariah courts in Malaysia, 323–326
- Civil Rights Act, U.S., 220–222
- civil rights legislation, U.S. See also racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
 - breaking political roadblocks, 14
 - criminal due process, changes in, 211–214
- Civil Rights Movement, effect of Brown v Board of Education on, 219
- civil society, Mexico
 - avoidance of courts under PRI rule, 143
 - inclusion of in Supreme Court decisions, 154–156
 - Supreme Court's attempts to reach out to, 153–154
- civil society movement, South Korea, 53
- Civil Torts Act, Israel, 252–253
- Clal Insurance Company Ltd. v. Minister of treasury*, Israeli Supreme Court, 245–246
- Clayton, Cornell, 368
- “Clean Hands” movement, Italy, 168–170
- coherence of national judicial system, Dutch
 - Hoge Raad as guardian of, 195–196
- collaborative policy-making role for executive. See separation of powers conflicts, Chile
- colored revolutions, 67–87
 - conditions enabling judges to decide contested elections, 68–73
 - Georgia's Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - judicial strategies and roles, overview of, 73–74
 - Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86
 - overview, 67–68
 - Ukraine's Orange Revolution, 78–83
- commerce, U.S. Supreme Court rulings on, 204–206
- Commitment to Peace and Social Justice v. Minister of Finance*, Israeli Supreme Court, 254
- comparative study of courts, 2–3
- competitive motivations, in French judicial system, 297–301
- competitive party system, in Mexico, 140, 144–145, 147–148
- composition
 - of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, effect on decisions, 127–129
 - of Italian Higher Council of the Judiciary, 166
 - of South African Constitutional Court, 98–99
- Conseil d'Etat, France, 295, 297–301, 302–303, 356
- consensus democracy. See political system, Dutch
- consequential courts, 1–37
 - complaints about government stasis and maladministration, 13–15
 - cultural and religious cleavages, 15–17

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

417

- disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
- disputes between political incumbents and challengers, 8–10
- expanded judicial roles in governance, 3–7
- framework of influences on changing judicial roles, 18–30
- general discussion, 409–410
- intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
- judicial strategies, tactics, and techniques, 30–35
- overview, 1–3
- conservatives, culture wars between liberal elites and, 225–226
- consistency, lack of in Israeli Supreme Court decisions, 258
- consolidation of constitutional courts, 343–344
- consolidators, courts as downstream democratic facilitating democratic transitions, 8
- overview, 50–51
- South Korean Constitutional Court, 52–55
- in Taiwan, 55–58
- in Thailand, 60
- Constituent Assembly, India, 263
- Constitution of 1948, Italy, 164–165
- Constitution of India
 - Article 14, 275
 - Article 19, 271
 - Article 32, 274
 - under Emergency rule, 269
 - First Amendment, 265–267
 - Golak Nath v. Union of India*, 267–268
 - Kesavananda Bharati v. State of Kerala*, 268–269
 - Seventeenth Amendment, 266–267
- Constitution of Malaysia, 322–323, 325–326
- constitution of Pakistan, Islamization
 - amendments to, 318–319
- constitutional amendments, French, 308
- Constitutional Assembly, South Africa, 103
- constitutional boundaries of power, Chile, 116–118
- Constitutional Council, France, 297–301
- Constitutional Court, Egyptian, 315–317, 344
- Constitutional Court, Georgian, 76–77
- Constitutional Court, Hungarian, 1–2
- Constitutional Court, Indonesian, 314–315, 316
- Constitutional Court, Italian, 165–166, 172, 176, 361–362
- Constitutional Court, Kuwaiti, 317–318
- Constitutional Court, Kyrgyzstani, 72
- Constitutional Court, South African, 93–112
 - composition of, 98–99
 - disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
 - facilitation of democratic transitions by, 9
 - history of, 94–95
 - judicial agency, 377
 - and legal complex, 342
 - Marbury moment in, 356–357
 - overview, 93–95
 - rights, politics and margins of judicial power, 106–109
 - sources of judicial power, 95–101
 - strategic decisions of judges, 33–34
 - strategic engagement and judicial pragmatism, 101–106
 - Zondi* case, 17
- Constitutional Court, South Korean, 9, 52–55, 341
- Constitutional Court, Thailand, 58–60, 354
- Constitutional Court, Ukrainian, 72, 82
- constitutional courts, and legal complex, 341–345
 - agitation for constitutionalism, 341–342
 - consolidation and adaptation, 343–344
 - defense of, 344–345
 - institution of, 342–343
- constitutional democracy, 351, 405–406
- constitutional infrastructure, and changing judicial roles, 25
- constitutional judicial review, 380–397. See also constitutional revolution, Israel
 - of administrative decisionmaking, U.S. Supreme Court, 209–211
 - administrative review, 389–394
 - costs and benefits of, 383–384
 - declaring constitution unconstitutional, 386–387
 - of decree authority, Chile, 118–119
 - external pressures on French, 295–296
 - general discussion, 394–397
 - in Italy, 164
 - judicial independence, 387–389
 - normative questions, 385
 - overview, 380–383
 - proactive and reactive, 385–386
 - by South African Constitutional Court, 99–100
 - supplying and demanding, 384–385
 - in traditional French judicial model, 294
- constitutional jurisprudence, religion-taming
 - function of, 311–333
 - effect of social and political movements on judicial roles, 27
- Egypt, 315–317
- general discussion, 313–315, 330–333
- and interpretive creativity, 32
- Israel, 327–330
- Kuwait, 317–318
- Malaysia, 321–327
- overview, 16, 311–313
- Pakistan, 318–321

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

418

Index

- constitutional moment, 262
- constitutional norms, interpretations of in French
 - judicial system, 300–301
- constitutional patriotism, South African
 - Constitutional Court, 100–101
- constitutional politics in active voice, 363–379
 - courts and judges, 375–378
 - fragmentation and gridlock, 371–375
 - liberals, 378–379
 - overview, 363–365
 - passive voice and missing agents, 365–367
 - regime politics, 368–371
- Constitutional Principles, South Africa,
 - 103–104
- constitutional revolution, Israel, 233–258
 - aftermath, 254–258
 - constitutional judicial review in 2000's, 252–254
 - general discussion, 244–249
 - lack of founding written constitution, 235–238
 - and legal complex, 342
 - overview, 233–235
 - piecemeal constitutional construction, 238–244
 - reasons for, 249–251
- Constitutional Tribunal, Chile, 114–134
 - causes of law vs. decree rulings, 126–131
 - constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 - constitutional review of decree authority,
 - 118–119
 - evolving law vs. decree doctrine, 120–126
 - executive-legislative battles, 11–12
 - history of, 116
 - judicial irrelevance, 52
 - and legal complex, 342
 - Marbury moment in, 357
 - nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119
 - negotiating new roles, 131–134
 - overview, 114–116
 - post-2005 law vs. decree cases, 132–134
- constitutionalism
 - courts as symbol of, 9
 - democracy, political fragmentation and,
 - 361–362
- constitutionally defined barriers against
 - non-democratic rule, 70
- contemporary political dynamics, and changing
 - judicial roles, 19–22, 25–28
- contested elections, role of courts in deciding,
 - 67–87
 - conditions enabling judges to decide, 68–73
 - Georgia's Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - judicial strategies and roles, overview of, 73–74
 - Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86
 - overview, 67–68
 - Ukraine's Orange Revolution, 78–83
- continuing mandamus, Indian Supreme Court,
 - 273–274
- Controller General of the Republic (CGR),
 - Chile, 119
- conversions
 - to Judaism, Supreme Court of Israel rulings on,
 - 328–329
 - Syariah courts' jurisdictional authority over,
 - 324
- cooperation of powers, Dutch Hoge Raad, 186–187
- cooptation
 - disarming religion through, 314
 - of powers, Dutch Hoge Raad, 195
- correctional systems, U.S. Supreme Court
 - decisions regarding, 214–215
- corruption, battling, 15. See also criminal justice,
 - Italy
- Corstens, Geert, 196
- Cossio, José Ramón, 149–154
 - decision on HIV-positive army members, 155
 - Fundamental Rights Program, 149–150
 - inclusion of civil society in decisions, 155–156
 - judicial remedies to increase fundamental
 - rights decisions, 2007, 152–153
 - judicial transparency and access to
 - information, 150–151
 - legal education campaign, 151–152
 - and new role of Mexican Supreme Court,
 - 153–154
- costs of constitutional judicial review, 383–384
- Council of Grand Justices, Taiwan
 - constitutionality of Truth Commission Act, 57
 - internal motivation of, 56
 - Interpretation No. 261, 56
- Council of State (Raad van State), Dutch
 - overview, 189–190
 - rivalry between highest courts, 190–191
- Councils for the Judiciary, Dutch, 192–193
- counsel, right to in U.S., 213
- coup d'état. See colored revolutions
- Cour de cassation (Court of Cassation), France,
 - 297–301, 302–303, 309, 356
- Court of Cassation, Italy, 165–166
- court-curbing measures taken by political leaders,
 - 26–27
- courts. See also consequential courts; judicial
 - roles; politics of courts in democratization;
 - specific courts by name*
 - as agents of political leaders, 3–4
 - comparative study of, 2–3
 - constitutional politics in active voice, 375–378
 - intra-court factors and changing roles, 19–22,
 - 28–30
 - management of Dutch, 192–193

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

419

- position of Dutch, 185–188
- reasons for empowerment of by political leaders, 4–5
- Courts: A Comparative and Political Analysis*, 3–4
- craftsmanship, as value of Dutch Hoge Raad, 194–195
- creativity. See also judicial strategies; religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
- of Italian courts, 176
- procedural and interpretive, 30–32
- criminal due process, role of U.S. Supreme Court in establishing, 211–216
- criminal justice, Italy, 163–179
 - battling corruption and maladministration, 15
 - complex relationship between courts and politics, 170–173
 - France and Spain as control cases, 173–175
 - overview, 163–164
 - political crisis of 1990s and further expansion of judicial power, 168–170
 - roles, strategies and conditions of judicialization in Italy, 175–178
 - transformation of Italian judicial system, 164–168
- criminal procedure, and courts as downstream democratic consolidators, 51
- cruel and inhuman punishments, U.S. Supreme Court decisions regarding, 214–215
- cultural and religious cleavages, role of courts in resolving, 15–17
- cultural liberalization, in Dutch society, 184
- culture, judicial, effect on Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 129
- “culture wars”, and U.S. Supreme Court decisions, 225–226
- Cunningham, Clark, 274
- customary law, South African Constitutional Court decisions on, 107
- deadlocks
 - legislative, 371–375
 - resolving in Ukraine’s Orange Revolution, 78–83
- death penalty, South African Constitutional Court decision on, 99–100
- decision-making procedures
 - ECHR pressure on ECJ, 306–308
 - European pressures on French, 296–297, 299–300, 302–304
- decree authority in Chile, 117–119. See also law vs. decree conflicts, Chile
- defense of constitutional courts, 344–345
- deference, reasoned, as strategy of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 131
- deferential role conception, 3
- deforestation, Indian Supreme Court decisions regarding, 279
- DeFunis v Odegaard*, U.S. Supreme Court, 222
- deliberate passivity, Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 130–131
- demand for judicial role expansion, in nautical metaphor, 20–21, 400
- demarcation of local government boundaries, South African Constitutional Court decision on, 105–106
- democracies, established, role of courts in electoral conflicts in, 10
- democracy
 - ethnic, in Malaysia, 322
 - shifts from autocratic regimes to, and changing judicial roles, 23–24
 - spread of, and expanded judicial roles, 405–406
- democracy, compatibility of constitutional judicial review with
 - declaring constitution unconstitutional, 386–387
 - general discussion, 394–395
 - judicial independence, 387–389
 - as normative question, 385
 - proactive and reactive review, 385–386
- democracy and legality, tensions between, 349–362
 - constitutionalism and political fragmentation, 361–362
 - Marbury moments, failures, 357–359
 - Marbury moments, successes, 354–357
 - overview, 349–354
 - stickiness of judicial decisions, 359–361
- democratic consolidators, courts as downstream facilitating democratic transitions, 8
 - overview, 50–51
 - South Korean Constitutional Court, 52–55
 - in Taiwan, 55–58
 - in Thailand, 60
- democratic transitions, role of courts in facilitating, 8–9
- democratization, Dutch, in 1968, 184
- democratization, politics of courts in, 45–64
 - adjudicating election in Taiwan, 55–58
 - downstream democratic consolidators, 50–51
 - downstream guarantors, 49–50
 - impeachment in South Korea, 52–55
 - judicial irrelevance, 52
 - legacies and roles, 63–64
 - overview, 45–47

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

420

Index

- democratization, politics of courts in (cont.)
 - picking and rejecting populist in Thailand, 58–60
 - triggering democracy in Pakistan, 60–63
 - upstream triggers of democracy, 47–49
- Department of Transportation, U.S., 210
- deputy legislator, Dutch Hoge Raad as, 186–187
- de-registration of candidates, Kyrgyzstan, 84
- dictatorship in Chile, constitution created by, 116–118
- diffuse support, 403
- Disengagement Act, Israel, 252
- disinterestedness, as value of Dutch Hoge Raad, 194
- disputes, role of courts in resolving
 - about rights and equality, 17–18
 - intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
 - between political incumbents and challengers, 8–10
- diversity of French judiciary, internal, 297–301
- division of powers. See also separation of powers
 - conflicts, Chile
 - and constitutional judicial review, 395
 - Dutch Council of State, 189–190
 - as necessary condition for judicial review, 382
- divorce, Supreme Court of Israel rulings on, 330
- doctrinal divisions in French judiciary, 297–301
- domestic interpretations of European law, 301–304
- domestic political regime features, and changing judicial roles, 22
- dominant national coalitions, in regime theory, 368–369
- downstream democratic consolidators, courts as
 - facilitating democratic transitions, 8
 - overview, 50–51
 - South Korean Constitutional Court, 52–55
 - in Taiwan, 55–58
 - in Thailand, 60
- downstream guarantors, courts as
 - overview, 49–50
 - in Thailand, 58–60
- Dred Scott v Sandford*, U.S. Supreme Court, 216
- dress code, for women politicians in Kuwait, 317–318
- due process
 - in Israel, 253
 - role of U.S. Supreme Court in establishing, 211–216
- Dutch Hoge Raad, 181–196
 - breaking political roadblocks, 14
 - changing judicial roles, 195–196
 - characterization of Dutch political system, 183–185
 - constitutional amendments of 1953, 182–183
 - cooperation of powers, 186–187
 - Council of State, 189–190
 - cultural and religious cleavages, 16
 - democracy, constitutionalism and fragmentation, 361
 - developments since early 1990s, 188–193
 - facing resistance, 188
 - general discussion, 185–186
 - human rights, 187–188
 - institutional leadership, 194–195
 - judicial leadership and roles in governance, 193–194
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 13
 - and legal complex, 343
 - management of court system, 192–193
 - organizational leadership, 193–194
 - overview, 181–182
 - position of Dutch courts, 185–188
 - rewriting of Civil Code, 188
 - rivalry between highest courts, 190–191
- ECHR (European Convention of Human Rights), 182–183, 187, 393–394. See also European Court of Human Rights
- ECJ. See European Court of Justice
- economic affairs, in Dutch political system, 184
- economic liberalism, and expanded judicial roles, 406
- economic policy, Indian Supreme Court
 - decisions regarding, 275–276
- economy, Israeli
 - and lack of founding written constitution, 236–237
 - market-based, 242
- education, judicial, and regime theory, 370
- education campaign, legal, by Mexican Supreme Court, 151–152
- Egypt
 - legal complex, 344
 - procedural creativity in, 32
 - religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence, 315–317
- elected-judicial branch conflict over allocation of governing power, 12–13
- election laws, Israel, 239–241
- elections. See also electoral disputes; leaders, role of courts in choosing
 - adjudicating in Taiwan, 55–58
 - conflicts in established democracies, role of courts in, 10
 - courts as upstream triggers of democracy, 49

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

421

- Dutch, 183–184
- legislative re-districting, U.S. Supreme Court decisions on, 224–225
- Western Cape* case, South African Constitutional Court, 33–34
- electoral disputes, 67–87
 - conditions enabling judges to decide, 68–73
 - Georgia's Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - judicial strategies and roles, overview of, 73–74
 - Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86
 - overview, 67–68
 - Ukraine's Orange Revolution, 78–83
- electoral mandate of Congress party, questioning of by Indian Supreme Court, 269
- electoral reforms, India, 278
- elites, governing. See regime theory
- emancipation, as goal of Mexican Supreme Court, 147–149
- Emergency rule, India, 10, 269–270
- endorsement decisions by courts, 203
- enforcement by South African Constitutional Court, 108–109
- environmentalists, U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving, 209
- epistolary jurisdiction, Indian Supreme Court, 274
- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission guidelines, U.S., 220–221
- equality, role of courts in resolving disputes about, 17–18. See also racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- Eskridge, Bill, 389–390
- established democracies, role of courts in electoral conflicts in, 10. See also specific countries or courts
- ethnic democracy, in Malaysia, 322
- ethnic segregation in schools, Israel, 328
- Europe, constitutional and administrative review in, 392–394
- European Coal and Steel Community, 182
- European Convention of Human Rights (ECHR), 182–183, 187, 393–394
- European Court of Human Rights (ECHR)
 - centrality of in EU legal order, 305
 - versus ECJ, 304–308
 - “fair trial” jurisprudence, 296–297, 299–300, 302–304, 306–308, 309
 - law of as superior to domestic law, 298
 - Marbury moment in, 356
- European Court of Justice (ECJ)
 - versus ECHR, 304–308
 - gambling law, and Dutch courts, 190–191
- European fundamental rights revolution, 289–309
- European pressures on European judicial system, 304–308
- European pressures on French judicial system, 294–297
- French pressures on European judicial system, 301–304
- French pressures on French judicial system, 297–301
- general discussion, 308–309
- judicial agency, 377
- judicial-elected branch conflict, 13
- and legal complex, 343–344
- Marbury moment in, 356
- overview, 289–292
- traditional French judicial model, 292–294
- European legal order, and Dutch court system, 182–183, 193, 195–196
- European Union (EU), 305, 392–394
- euthanasia cases, Dutch Hoge Raad, 14, 186–187
- exceptional institutions, courts as, 371
- executions, South African Constitutional Court decision on, 99–100
- executive. See also executive-legislative conflict, Chile
 - conflict with legislature over allocation of governing power, 11–12
 - external pressures on French review of, 295–296
 - power of in Mexico in late 1990s, 146–147
 - review of in traditional French judicial model, 294
- Executive Council of the Western Cape* case, South African Constitutional Court, 105–106
- executive-legislative conflict, Chile, 114–134
 - causes of law vs. decree rulings, 126–131
 - constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 - constitutional review of decree authority, 118–119
 - evolving law vs. decree doctrine, 120–126
 - nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119
 - negotiating new roles for court, 131–134
 - overview, 114–116
 - post-2005 law vs. decree cases, 132–134
- expansive domestic interpretations of European law, 301–304
- external influences on Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 126–131
- external pressures
 - European, on French judicial system, 294–297
 - French, on European judicial system, 301–304
- facilitating democratic transitions, role of courts in, 8–9

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

422

Index

- Facultad de Atracción* (Attraction Power), Mexican Supreme Court, 152–153
- “fair trial” jurisprudence, ECHR, 296–297, 299–300, 302–304, 306–308, 309, 356
- family law, Dutch, 187
- Federal Court of Malaysia, 324–326
- federal government. See also Central Government, Supreme Court of India’s challenge of; national administrative and regulatory state, U.S.
- jurisdiction of in Malaysia, 322–323
- national-subnational government conflict in U.S., 13
- federal health care law, U.S., 208
- Federal Law of Transparency and Access to Public Governmental Information, Mexico, 150
- federalism
- as necessary condition for judicial review, 380–381
 - Supreme Court of Pakistan, 320–321
- female judges, in Egypt, 316–317
- Ferejohn, John, 372, 389–390
- finality, notion of in judicial systems, 349–350
- financial independence, Mexican Supreme Court, 149
- First Amendment, Indian Constitution, 265–267
- focal points for mobilization, court decisions as, 47–49
- formal law, constitutionality of in Chile, 125
- Fortuyn, Pim, 185
- Foundations of Laws Act, Israel, 250
- founding written constitution, lack of in Israel, 235–238
- attitudes toward judges and judicial process, 237–238
 - nature of national political agenda, 238
 - overview, 235
 - political fragmentation, 235
 - political timing, 236
 - socialist political economy, 236–237
- 14th Amendment, U.S. Constitution, 212–213, 216
- Fox, Vicente, 145, 149, 150
- fragility of judicial power, 402–409
- activist states and evolving legal culture, 407–409
 - globalization and economic liberalism, 406
 - overview, 402–404
 - spread of constitutional democracy, 405–406
- fragmentation, political
- and changing judicial roles, 23–24, 405
 - as condition enabling anti-government decisions, 69–70
 - and constitutional judicial review, 394–395
- constitutional politics in active voice, 371–375
- and decisions of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 127
- democracy, constitutionalism and, 361–362
- and European fundamental rights revolution, 289–290
- in Israel, 242–244
- in Italy, 167–168, 170–173, 176–177, 178
- and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 235
- as triggering changed role for Mexican Supreme Court, 144–145
- fraud, vote, exposing in Georgia’s Rose Revolution, 74–78
- fraud in accounting crime, Italy, 172–173
- freedom of vocation, Israeli basic law on cases involving, 244–246, 248
- overview, 241–244
- French judicial system, 289–309
- as control case for Italian judicialization of politics, 173–175
 - European pressures on European judicial system, 304–308
 - external pressures on, 294–297
 - general discussion, 308–309
 - internal pressures on, 297–301
 - judicial agency, 377
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 13
 - judicialization of governance, 285
 - legal complex, 343–344
 - Marbury moment in, 356
 - overview, 289–292
 - pressures by on European judicial system, 301–304
 - traditional French judicial model, 292–294
- Friedman, Lawrence, 407–408
- functional role of courts, 3–6
- fundamental rights decisions, Mexican Supreme Court, 138–157
- absence of during PRI rule, 141–143
 - Chief Justice Genaro Góngora, 147–149
 - court as arena for political contestation, 154–157
 - Justice José Ramón Cossío, 149–154
 - Justice Juventino Castro y Castro, 146–147
 - overview, 138–141
 - variables triggering new role of court, 143–145
- fundamental rights, position of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile on, 125–126
- Fundamental Rights Program, Mexican Supreme Court, 149–153
- judicial remedies to increase fundamental rights decisions, 152–153
 - judicial transparency and access to information, 150–151

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

423

- legal education campaign, 151–152
- overview, 149–150
- fundamental rights revolution, European, 289–309
 - European pressures on European judicial system, 304–308
 - European pressures on French judicial system, 294–297
 - French pressures on European judicial system, 301–304
 - French pressures on French judicial system, 297–301
 - general discussion, 308–309
 - judicial agency, 377
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 13
 - and legal complex, 343–344
 - overview, 289–292
 - traditional French judicial model, 292–294
- fundamentalism. See religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
- Gambelli* ruling, European Court of Justice, 190
- gambling law, Dutch, 190–191
- Gandhi, Indira, 10, 264, 267–268, 269–270, 271
- Georgia
 - conditions enabling anti-government decisions, 68–73
 - judicial framework and independence in, 69
 - judicial strategies and roles, 73–74
 - Marbury moments in, 359
 - Rose Revolution, 74–78
- Gibson, James, 403
- Gideon v Wainwright*, U.S. Supreme Court, 213
- Ginsburg, Tom, 4, 9, 341, 354, 363
- globalization, and expanded judicial roles, 406
- Golak Nath v. Union of India*, Supreme Court of India, 267–268
- Góngora, Genaro, 147–149
 - amparo* law reform, 148
 - financial independence and power to present reform initiatives, 149
 - overview, 147–148
- Gore, Albert, 402
- governance, judicial activity in. See consequential courts
- governing elites. See regime theory
- governing power, conflicts over allocation of, 11–13
 - executive-legislative conflict, 11–12
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 12–13
 - national-subnational government conflict, 13
 - overview, 11
- South African Constitutional Court decision on, 105–106
- government
 - challenge to power of by Supreme Court of India, 276–280
 - enforcement of South African Constitutional Court decisions, 108–109
 - limitation of courts by, under PRI rule in Mexico, 142
 - need for compliance with Israeli basic laws of 1992, 241
 - responsiveness to courts, in South Africa, 112
 - South African Constitutional Court decision on demarcation of boundaries, 105–106
 - stasis and maladministration, complaints about, 13–15
- government leaders. See political leaders
- grandfather clause, Israeli basic laws, 241
- Great Rabbinical Court, in Israel, 330
- gridlock, legislative, 371–375
- Griggs v Duke Power*, U.S. Supreme Court, 220–221
- guarantors, courts as downstream
 - overview, 49–50
 - in Thailand, 58–60
- guardian of coherence of national judicial system, Dutch Hoge Raad as, 195–196
- Guarnieri, Carlo, 15
- Harding, Andrew, 345
- harmonization doctrine, Pakistan, 32, 319
- health care law, U.S., 208
- hegemonic preservation, 49–50, 374
- hierarchical controls, in Italian judiciary, 177
- High Court, Dutch. See Dutch Hoge Raad
- High Court in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 325
- High Court, Israeli, 34
- High Court, Taiwanese, 11, 57
- high courts. See courts; judicial roles; specific courts by name
- Higher Council of the Judiciary
 - France, 174
 - Italy, 166
- high-stakes deadlocks, resolving in Ukraine's Orange Revolution, 78–83
- hijab*, as dress code for women politicians in Kuwait, 317–318
- Hirschl, Ran, 16, 345, 374
- Hisba Bill (NWFP Islamization bill), Pakistan, 320–321
- historical legacies of South African Constitutional Court, 95–97
- HIV-positive army members, Mexican Supreme Court decision on, 155

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

424

Index

- Hoge Raad, Dutch, 181–196
 breaking political roadblocks, 14
 changing judicial roles, 195–196
 characterization of Dutch political system, 183–185
 constitutional amendments of 1953, 182–183
 cooperation of powers, 186–187
 Council of State, 189–190
 cultural and religious cleavages, 16
 democracy, constitutionalism and fragmentation, 361
 developments since early 1990s, 188–193
 facing resistance, 188
 general discussion, 185–186
 human rights, 187–188
 institutional leadership, 194–195 judicial leadership and judicial roles in governance, 193–194 judicial-elected branch conflict, 13
 and legal complex, 343
 management of court system, 192–193
 organizational leadership, 193–194
 overview, 181–182
 position of Dutch courts, 185–188
 rewriting of Civil Code, 188
 rivalry between highest courts, 190–191
hudood law, Malaysia, 323
 Hudood Ordinances, Pakistan, 320
 Huls, Nick, 14, 343
 human agency. See agency, role of in constitutional politics Human Dignity and Liberty basic law, Israel, 241–244, 248 human rights. See fundamental rights decisions, Mexican Supreme Court; fundamental rights revolution, European; rights Hungarian Constitutional Court, 1–2
Hussainara Khatoon v. State of Bihar, Supreme Court of India, 273–274
- ideologies, democratic, 350–351 immigration laws, Dutch Council of State's interpretation of, 189 immunity from judicial investigations in Italy, 171 impeachment in South Korea, 52–55, 354
In Re Interlinking Rivers Case, Indian Supreme Court, 280
In re Special Reference No. 1 of 1998 (Third Judges' Case), Indian Supreme Court, 277, 282 inaction, political, 373 incentives of courts, and changing judicial roles, 19–22, 28–30 incomplete autocracies. See semi-authoritarian regimes, colored revolutions in
- inconsistency of Israeli Supreme Court decisions, 258 incumbents and challengers, disputes between, 8–10
 electoral conflicts in established democracies, 10
 facilitating democratic transitions, 8–9
 overview, 8
 sparking anti-authoritarian movements, 9–10
 independence, as value of Dutch Hoge Raad, 194 independence, financial, of Mexican Supreme Court, 149 independence, judicial
 and constitutional judicial review, 387–389
 in France and Spain, 174
 as goal of Mexican Supreme Court, 147–149
 Indian Supreme Court, 276–277
 in Italy, 164–165 results of colored revolutions, 68
 U.S. Supreme Court, 199–200
 Indian Supreme Court, 262–286
 activist, but selectively assertive court, 275–276
 anti-authoritarian movements, 10
 battle over basic structure doctrine, 265–270
 battling corruption and maladministration, 15
 changing judicial roles, influences on, 30
 corruption and accountability cases, 277–278
 development and expansion of PIL, reasons for, 280–284
 disputes about rights and equality, 18
 Emergency rule period, 269–270
 environmental policy, 275, 278–279
 expansion of PIL in post-1990 era, 276
 fragmentation and legislative gridlock, 374–375 growth of PIL in 1980s, 273–274
Judges' Case, 272–273
 judicial appointments, 276–277
 judicial-elected branch conflict, 12
 legal complex, 340, 343
 Marbury moment in, 355–356, 357
 motives driving PIL, 280–281
 overview, 262–265
 PIL and expansion of judicial role, overview of, 270–272
 PIL and judicialization of governance, 284–286
 PIL and opportunity structure for judicial power, 281–284 policy-making in education, human rights, and affirmative action, 279–280
 procedural and interpretive creativity of, 31 strategic assertiveness of judges, 35
 indigenous law, South African Constitutional Court decisions on, 107
 Indonesian Constitutional Court, 314–315

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

425

- innovation, 30–32, 176. See also judicial strategies; religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
- institution of constitutional courts, 342–343
- institutional divisions in French judiciary, 297–301
- institutional emancipation, as goal of Mexican Supreme Court, 147–149
- institutional leadership, Dutch Hoge Raad, 194–195
- institutionalist motives, as driving PIL in Indian Supreme Court, 281–284
- institutionalized sites of contestation, as condition enabling anti-government decisions, 70
- insurance model of judicial power
- in Europe, 394
- as incentive to create Israeli constitution, 236
- overview, 165
- “Integral System for Tracking Judicial Files” database, Mexican Supreme Court, 152–153
- integration. See racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- interest, Supreme Court of Pakistan rulings on, 319–320
- interest groups, Mexican Supreme Court’s attempts to reach out to, 153–154
- interim relief by Indian Supreme Court, 273–274
- inter-institutional dynamics, in Europe, 290. See also European fundamental rights revolution
- interlinking of rivers project, India, 280
- internal diversity of French judiciary, 297–301
- internal motivations
- Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 126–131
- French, towards fundamental rights, 297–301
- international forces, and changing judicial roles, 22, 25
- international law, and Dutch court system, 182–183, 193, 195–196. See also European fundamental rights revolution
- international recognition of South African Constitutional Court, 100
- International Society for Fair Elections and Democracy (ISFED), Georgia, 74–75, 76
- interpretation, judicial constitutional, 386–387
- Interpretation No. 261, Council of Grand Justices, Taiwan, 56
- Interpretation No. 585, Council of Grand Justices, Taiwan, 57
- interpretive creativity, 30–32. See also religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
- interpretive decentralization, in French judicial system, 300–301
- interpretive judgments by Italian Constitutional Court, 166
- interstate commerce, U.S. Supreme Court rulings on, 204–206
- intra-court factors, and changing judicial roles, 28–30, 400
- intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
- executive-legislative conflict, 11–12
- judicial-elected branch conflict, 12–13
- national-subnational government conflict, 13
- overview, 11
- investigations
- “Clean Hands” movement in Italy, 168–170
- judicial, in France and Spain, 174–175
- regarding shooting of Taiwanese president Chen, 57
- Investment Managers’ Committee v. Minister of Treasury*, Israeli Supreme Court, 248
- irrelevance of courts in democratization, 52
- ISFED (International Society for Fair Elections and Democracy), Georgia, 74–75, 76
- Islamic law. See Shari’a
- Islamization amendments, Pakistani constitution, 318–319
- Israel, 233–258
- aftermath of constitutional revolution, 254–258
- constitutional judicial review in 2000’s, 252–254
- constitutional revolution, 244–249
- judicial-elected branch conflict in, 12
- lack of founding written constitution, 235–238
- and legal complex, 342
- overview, 233–235
- piecemeal constitutional construction, 238–244
- reasons for constitutional revolution, 249–251
- religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence, 327–330
- strategic decisions of judges, 34
- Italian judicialization of politics, 163–179
- battling corruption and maladministration, 15
- complex relationship between courts and politics, 170–173
- democracy, constitutionalism and fragmentation, 361–362
- France and Spain as control cases, 173–175
- overview, 163–164
- political crisis of 1990s and further expansion of judicial power, 168–170
- roles, strategies and conditions of, 175–178
- transformation of Italian judicial system, 164–168
- Iyer, V.R. Krishna, 273, 281

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

426

Index

- jail conditions, U.S. Supreme Court decisions
 - regarding, 214–215
- Janata Party coalition, India, 270
- Jewish state, Israel as, 327–330
- Jewishness, Supreme Court of Israel definition of, 328–329
- Joondeph, Bradley, 368
- JSC (Judicial Service Commission), South Africa, 98
- judges
 - agency of, 375–378
 - attitudes toward, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 237–238
 - influence on changing judicial roles, 28–30
 - procedural and interpretive creativity, 30–32
 - role conception of, 3
 - strategic assertiveness, 32–35
 - ways of expanding judicial roles, 30
 - willingness and ability to act assertively, 5–6
- Judges' Case (S.P. Gupta v. Union of India)*, Supreme Court of India, 35, 272–273, 355–356
- Judges Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act of 2001, South Africa, 98–99
- judicial agency, 368–371, 378–379
- judicial appointments
 - in India, 272–273, 280
 - and regime theory, 369–370
 - South African Constitutional Court, 97–99
- judicial constitutional review, 380–397. See also constitutional revolution, Israel
 - of administrative decisionmaking, U.S. Supreme Court, 209–211
 - administrative review, 389–394
 - costs and benefits of, 383–384
 - declaring constitution unconstitutional, 386–387
 - of decree authority, Chile, 118–119
 - external pressures on French, 295–296
 - general discussion, 394–397
 - in Italy, 164
 - judicial independence, 387–389
 - normative questions, 385
 - overview, 380–383
 - proactive and reactive, 385–386
 - by South African Constitutional Court, 99–100
 - supplying and demanding, 384–385
 - in traditional French judicial model, 294
- judicial constitution-making, Israel, 233–258
 - aftermath, 254–258
 - constitutional judicial review in 2000's, 252–254
 - constitutional revolution, overview, 244–249
 - constitutional revolution, reasons for, 249–251
 - lack of founding written constitution, 235–238
 - overview, 233–235
 - piecemeal constitutional construction, 238–244
- Judicial Council, Spain, 174
- Judicial Division of Council of State, Dutch
 - overview, 189–190
 - rivalry between highest courts, 190–191
- judicial independence
 - and constitutional judicial review, 387–389
 - in France and Spain, 174
 - as goal of Mexican Supreme Court, 147–149
 - Indian Supreme Court, 276–277
 - in Italy, 164–165
 - results of colored revolutions, 68
 - U.S. Supreme Court, 199–200
- judicial investigations, in France and Spain, 174–175
- judicial irrelevance of courts in democratization, 52
- judicial leadership. See also leadership of Mexican Supreme Court
 - and changing judicial roles, 19–22, 28–29, 30, 62
 - and demand for constitutional judicial review, 384
 - Dutch Hoge Raad, 193–194, 195–196
 - and Israeli constitutional revolution, 250
- judicial majorities, shifts in, and changing judicial roles, 28–29
- judicial power, 349–362. See also sources of judicial power, South African Constitutional Court
 - democracy, constitutionalism and political fragmentation, 361–362
 - fragility and stability of, 402–409
 - and legitimacy, 402–404
 - Marbury moments, failures, 357–359
 - Marbury moments, successes, 354–357
 - margins of, South African Constitutional Court, 106–109
 - overview, 349–354
 - stickiness of judicial decisions, 359–361
- judicial pragmatism, South African Constitutional Court, 101–106
 - certification judgments, 103–104
 - jurisdiction and authority, 102–103
 - overview, 101–102
 - rights and structure in court's jurisprudence, 104–106
- judicial preview, by Dutch Council of State, 189
- judicial process, attitudes toward and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 237–238
- judicial reform of 1994, Mexico, 139, 144

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

427

- judicial remedies, using to increase fundamental rights decisions, 152–153
- judicial roles, 1–37, 398–410. See also colored revolutions; specific courts or countries; specific judicial roles
- activist states and evolving legal culture, 407–409
- complaints about government stasis and maladministration, 13–15
- cultural and religious cleavages, 15–17
- in democratization, 63–64
- disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
- disputes between political incumbents and challengers, 8–10
- Dutch Hoge Raad, 193–194, 195–196
- elusiveness of simple explanatory models, 398–402
- expanded, in governance, 3–7
- framework of influences on, 18–30
- globalization and economic liberalism, 406
- intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
- judicial power, fragility and stability of, 402–404
- judicial strategies, tactics, and techniques, 30–35
- overview, 1–3
- Public Interest Litigation and expansion of, in India, 270–280
- spread of constitutional democracy, 405–406
- trends in, 409–410
- Judicial Service Commission (JSC), South Africa, 98
- judicial strategies. See also Marbury moments
- Georgia's Rose Revolution, 74–78
- Italian judicialization of politics, 175–178
- Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86
- overview, 73–74
- Ukraine's Orange Revolution, 78–83
- judicial transfers, control of by Indian central government, 272–273
- judicial transparency, Mexican Supreme Court, 150–151
- judicial-elected branch conflict over allocation of governing power, 12–13
- judicialization of politics, Italian, 163–179
- batling corruption and maladministration, 15
- complex relationship between courts and politics, 170–173
- France and Spain as control cases, 173–175
- general discussion, 175–178
- overview, 163–164
- political crisis of 1990s and further expansion of judicial power, 168–170
- transformation of Italian judicial system, 164–168
- juicio de amparo*. See amparo writ, Mexico
- “junkyard dog” phenomenon, 383
- jurisdiction
- epistolary, Indian Supreme Court, 274
- in politically salient areas, as condition enabling anti-government decisions, 70–72
- South African Constitutional Court, 102–103
- justices, appointment of. See judicial appointments
- Kagan, Robert, 344, 366–367, 368, 371–372, 375
- Kameshwar Singh v. State of Bihar*, Patna High Court of India, 265
- Kapiszewski, Diana, 366–367, 371–372
- Kesavananda Bharati v. State of Kerala*, Supreme Court of India, 268–269, 355, 357
- Kingdom of the Netherlands. See Dutch Hoge Raad
- Klug, Heinz, 9, 342, 356–357
- Knesset, Israel
- 1969 Bergman exception, 239–241
- constitutional revolution, 245
- reaction to constitutional revolution, 249
- reliance on judicial rulings, 240
- Supreme Court's interpretation of statutes of, 234–235
- Korea. See South Korea
- Kuala Lumpur High Court, Malaysia, 325
- Kuchma, Leonid, 71–72
- Kuwait, religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence in, 317–318
- Kyrgyzstan
- conditions enabling anti-government decisions, 68–73
- effect of social and political movements on judicial roles, 27–28
- judicial framework and independence in, 69
- judicial strategies and roles, 73–74
- Tulip Revolution, 83–86
- labor law, handling of by Dutch Hoge Raad, 186
- Ladbroke* case, Dutch Hoge Raad, 191
- land reform laws, Indian. See property rights, battle over in India
- land rights, South African Constitutional Court decisions on indigenous, 107
- Lasser, Mitchel de S.-O.-l'E., 343–344
- Latifa Mat Zin* case, Federal Court of Malaysia, 324

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

428

Index

- law vs. decree conflicts, Chile, 114–134
 - causes of TC rulings on, 126–131
 - constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 - constitutional review of decree authority, 118–119
 - evolving doctrine, 120–126
 - nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119
 - negotiating new roles for court, 131–134
 - overview, 114–116
 - post-2005, 132–134
- lawmaking role
 - Dutch Hoge Raad, 193–194
 - Indian Supreme Court, 279–280
- lawyers. See legal complex
- leaders, role of courts in choosing, 45–64
 - adjudicating election in Taiwan, 55–58
 - downstream democratic consolidators, 50–51
 - downstream guarantors, 49–50
 - impeachment in South Korea, 52–55
 - judicial irrelevance, 52
 - legacies and roles, 63–64
 - overview, 45–47
 - picking and rejecting populist in Thailand, 58–60
 - triggering democracy in Pakistan, 60–63
 - upstream triggers of democracy, 47–49
- leadership. See also judicial leadership
 - institutional, Dutch Hoge Raad, 194–195
 - and Israeli constitutional revolution, 250
- leadership of Mexican Supreme Court, 145–154
 - Chief Justice Genaro Góngora, 147–149
 - influence of, 140
 - Justice José Ramón Cossío, 149–154
 - Justice Juventino Castro y Castro, 146–147
 - overview, 145
 - results of, 157
- leadership succession crises, role of courts in resolving, 8
- Left coalition, Italy, 170–173
- legacy of past government, and consolidation
 - function of courts, 51
- legal advocacy, adversarial, in U.S., 213
- legal aid movement, India, 271–272
- legal complex, 337–346
 - agitation for constitutionalism, 341–342
 - consolidating and adapting constitutional courts, 343–344
 - defending courts, 344–345
 - and demand for constitutional judicial review, 384–385
 - general discussion, 338–341, 346
 - instituting constitutional court, 342–343
 - invitation to participate with Mexican Supreme Court, 151–152
 - Israeli, concept of Supreme Court, 254, 256
 - Mexican, during PRI era, 143
 - overview, 337–338
 - in Pakistan, mobilization of, 61
 - South Korea, 53
- legal culture, and expanded judicial roles, 407–409
- legal decrees, constitutionality of in Chile, 125
- legal education campaign, Mexican Supreme Court, 151–152
- legal mobilization, lack of in Mexican Supreme Court under PRI rule, 143
- legal powers of judiciary, and changing judicial roles, 22
- legal reserve, Chile
 - as absolute, 122–124
 - overview, 117
 - as relative, 124–126
- legalistic role conception, 3
- legality, administrative jurisprudence based on, 294
- legality and democracy, tensions between, 349–362
 - constitutionalism and political fragmentation, 361–362
 - Marbury moments, failures, 357–359
 - Marbury moments, successes, 354–357
 - overview, 349–354
 - stickiness of judicial decisions, 359–361
- legality framework, European Court of Justice, 304
- legislation role
 - Dutch Hoge Raad, 193–194
 - Indian Supreme Court, 279–280
- legislative agency, and political fragmentation, 371–375
- legislative re-districting, U.S. Supreme Court decision regarding, 224–225
- legislative-executive conflict, 11–12. See also executive-legislative conflict, Chile
- legislature, influence of constitutional judicial review on in Israel, 253
- legitimacy
 - and changing judicial roles, 29, 402–404
 - as factor in decisions by Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 130–131
 - Indian Supreme Court focus on restoring, 283
- Letrados Camineros I* case, Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 123–124
- leyes de base*, Chile, 117
- liberal constitutionalism, 365
- liberal elites, culture wars between religious conservatives and, 225–226
- liberal judges, 376–379

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

429

- liberalism
 - economic, and expanded judicial roles, 406
 - in politics of legal complex, 338–339
- liberalizing agenda, Supreme Court of Israel, 328–330
- Limaye, Madhu, 282
- limitation clause, Israeli basic laws of 1992, 241
- Lina Joy* case, Federal Court of Malaysia, 324
- litigants, role of in French versus European courts, 296–297
- local government boundaries, South African Constitutional Court decision on, 105–106
- Local Government Transition Act, South Africa, 105–106
- “locus standi”. See standing to sue
- “lodo Alfano” statute, Italy, 163
- lower courts
 - collaboration with Italian Constitutional Court, 176
 - relation to Dutch Hoge Raad, 192
- Madhav Rao Scindia v. India*, Supreme Court of India, 267
- Mahomed, Ismail, 97
- majorities, shifts in judicial, and changing judicial roles, 28–29
- majority public opinion, U.S. Supreme Court decisions conflicting with, 202–203
- Makwanyane* case, South African Constitutional Court, 99–100
- maladministration, complaints about government, 13–15
 - battling, 15
 - breaking political roadblocks, 14
 - overview, 13–14
- Malay ethnic group (Bumiputra), 322
- Malaysia
 - legal complex, 345
 - religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence, 321–327
 - strategic decisions of judges in, 33
- Mamasaidov, Mahamadjan, 84
- management of court system, Dutch, 192–193
- mandatory prayer and Bible readings in public schools, U.S., 202–203
- Mandela, Nelson, 105–106
- Manual of Style for Judicial Opinions*, Mexican Supreme Court, 151
- Mapp v. Ohio*, U.S. Supreme Court, 213
- Marbury moments
 - failures, 357–359
 - overview, 352–354
 - and stickiness of judicial decisions, 359–361
 - successes, 354–357
- Marbury v. Madison* case, U.S. Supreme Court, 360–361
- “March 19 Shooting Truth-finding Commission”, Taiwan, 57
- margins of judicial power, South African Constitutional Court, 106–109
- market-based economy, Israel, 242
- Mastella, Clemente, 163
- Mate, Manoj, 15, 355–356, 367, 368, 372, 375–376
- maximum legal reserve, Chile
 - as absolute, 122–124
 - overview, 117
 - as relative, 124–126
- Meatrael Ltd. v. The Prime Minister*, Israeli Supreme Court, 244–245
- media
 - attitude towards Israeli Supreme Court, 255–256
 - importance of to PIL in India, 270–271
 - prosecutor exploitation of in Italy, 178
 - role in judicial investigations in Italy, 169–170
- Mexican Supreme Court, 138–157
 - absence of fundamental rights interpretation during PRI rule, 141–143
 - as arena for political contestation, 154–157
 - Chief Justice Genaro Góngora, 147–149
 - Justice José Ramón Cossío, 149–154
 - Justice Juventino Castro y Castro, 146–147
 - overview, 138–141
 - variables triggering new role of, 143–145
- mild judicial review, Israeli Supreme Court, 239–241
- military dictatorship, Chile, constitution created by, 116–118
- Miller v. Schoene*, U.S. Supreme Court, 373
- Milliken v. Bradley*, U.S. Supreme Court, 220
- minorities, in U.S. See racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- miscarriages of justice by Dutch Hoge Raad, 189
- Mizhrachi Jews, 243
- MK Oron v. Chairman of the Knesset*, Israeli Supreme Court, 252
- mobilization
 - court decisions as focal points for, 47–49
 - legal, lack of in Mexican Supreme Court under PRI rule, 143
- moment, constitutional, 262
- motivations
 - of courts, and changing judicial roles, 19–22, 28–30
 - French, towards fundamental rights, 297–301
 - internal, Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 126–131
- Moustafa, Tamir, 4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

430

Index

- The Movement for Quality Government in Israel v. The Knesset*, Israeli Supreme Court, 253
- Musharraf, Pervez, 60–62
- national administrative and regulatory state, U.S., 204–211
- abandonment of substantive review of regulatory policy, 206
 - endorsing administrative law-making, 206–207
 - federal government's taxing and spending power, 207
 - importance of Supreme Court, 207–209
 - interstate commerce as all commerce, 205–206
 - legitimizing administrative lawmaking through federal administrative law, 209–211
 - overview, 204–205
- National Front (Barisan Nasional, BN) coalition, Malaysia, 322
- National Highway Traffic Safety Agency (NHTSA), U.S., 210
- National Industrial Recovery Act, U.S., 204–205
- national judicial system, Dutch Hoge Raad as guardian of coherence of, 195–196
- National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), U.S., 204
- National Labor Relations Board v Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation*, U.S. Supreme Court, 204
- national political agenda, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 238
- National Religious Party (NRP), Israel, 243
- national-subnational government conflict over allocation of governing power, 13
- nautical metaphor, to explain change in judicial roles, 19–22, 400–402
- Nebbia v New York*, U.S. Supreme Court, 206
- neoconstitutionalism, 128
- Netherlands. See Dutch Hoge Raad
- “New Amparo Law Project”, Mexican Supreme Court, 148
- New Deal Supreme Court, U.S., 205–209
- new democracies. See also colored revolutions; Constitutional Tribunal, Chile; Mexican Supreme Court; politics of courts in democratization; South African Constitutional Court
- and changing judicial roles, 409
 - disputes between political incumbents and challengers in, 8–10
- NHTSA (National Highway Traffic Safety Agency), U.S., 210
- Ninth Schedule, Indian Constitution, 266
- Nixon, Richard, 402
- NLRA (National Labor Relations Act), U.S., 204
- non-democratic regimes. See authoritarian regimes; semi-authoritarian regimes, colored revolutions in
- Nonet, Philippe, 408
- non-Orthodox conversion to Judaism, Supreme Court of Israel rulings on, 328–329
- non-secular polities, constitutional courts in. See religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
- non-state-approved religious organizations, 314–315
- normal institutions, courts as, 371
- North-West Frontier Province (NWFP), Pakistan, 320–321
- NRP (National Religious Party), Israel, 243
- NWFP Islamization bill (Hisba Bill), Pakistan, 320–321
- oceanic metaphor, to explain change in judicial roles, 19–22, 400–402
- Office of Contract Compliance, U.S., 222
- Old Fort, South African Constitutional Court, 100–101
- “one man-one vote” decisions, U.S. Supreme Court, 224–225
- opposition
- criticism of Supreme Court by after Georgia's Rose Revolution, 77–78
 - delivery of benefits to by judges, in cases of contested elections, 73–74
- Orange Revolution, Ukraine
- conditions enabling anti-government decisions, 68–73
 - courts as upstream triggers of democracy, 49
 - judicial strategies and roles, 73–74
 - overview, 78–83
 - procedural creativity during, 31
 - strategic decisions of judges during, 33
- ordinary French courts, in French judicial system, 297–301
- organizational leadership, Dutch Hoge Raad, 193–194
- originalism, in Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 127–129
- origins of South African Constitutional Court, 97–99
- Orthodox stream of Judaism, 327
- Osmonov, Kurmanbek, 85, 86
- Otero Formula, 149
- pacification politics, Dutch, 183–184
- Pakistan
- changing judicial roles in, 64
 - legal complex in, 343

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

431

- procedural creativity in, 32
- religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence, 318–321
- triggering democracy in, 60–63
- Palko v Connecticut*, U.S. Supreme Court, 212
- Pan-Malaysian Islamic Party (Parti Islam Se-Malaysia, PAS), 321–322
- parliamentarians, immunity from judicial investigations in Italy, 171
- parliamentary elections
 - Georgian, and Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - Kyrgyzstan, 83–86
- parliamentary government, 350–351
- parliamentary sovereignty, decline of, 405
- Parti Islam Se-Malaysia (Pan-Malaysian Islamic Party), 321–322
- Partido Revolucionario Institucional* (PRI), Mexico, 141–143
- partisanship of prosecutors in Italy, 178
- party system. See also political fragmentation
 - in Italy, 167–168, 170–173
 - in Mexico, 140, 144–145, 147–148
- PAS (Pan-Malaysian Islamic Party), 321–322
- passive voice, in constitutional politics, 363, 365–367
- passivity of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 130–131
- past government, legacy of, and consolidation function of courts, 51
- patriotism, constitutional, South African Constitutional Court, 100–101
- PCO (Provisional Constitutional Order), Pakistan, 62
- Peretti, Terri, 368
- personal-status law, in Israel, 329
- Pickerill, Mitchell, 368
- piecemeal constitutional construction, Israel, 238–244
 - 1969 Bergman exception, 239–241
 - basic laws of 1992, 241–244
 - overview, 238–239
- PIL. See Public Interest Litigation, Supreme Court of India
- pillars, in Dutch society, 183, 184
- plebiscite of 1988, Chile, 128
- Plessy v. Ferguson*, U.S. Supreme Court, 216, 218
- Plonit (“Jane Doe”) v. The Great Rabbinical Court*, Supreme Court of Israel, 330
- police forces
 - Indian Supreme Court decisions regarding reform of, 279–280
 - influence of judiciary on in Italy, 167
 - U.S. Supreme Court decisions affecting, 215
- policy-making role, Indian Supreme Court, 279–280
- political accountability, courts enforcing in Italy, 163–179
 - battling corruption and maladministration, 15
 - complex relationship between courts and politics, 170–173
 - France and Spain as control cases, 173–175
 - overview, 163–164
 - political crisis of 1990s and further expansion of judicial power, 168–170
 - roles, strategies and conditions of judicialization in Italy, 175–178
 - transformation of Italian judicial system, 164–168
- political agency, of judges, 375–378
- political agenda, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 238
- political arenas and judicial roles, 7–18
 - complaints about government stasis and maladministration, 13–15
 - cultural and religious cleavages, 15–17
 - disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
 - disputes between political incumbents and challengers, 8–10
 - general discussion, 399
 - intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
- political characteristics of Marbury moments, 360–361
- political climate, and role of Indian Supreme Court, 264–265
- political crisis of 1990s, Italy, 168–170, 177–178
- political dynamics, proximate, and changing judicial roles, 19–22, 25–28, 400
- political economy, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 236–237
- political fragmentation
 - and changing judicial roles, 23–24, 405
 - as condition enabling anti-government decisions, 69–70
 - and constitutional judicial review, 394–395
 - constitutional politics in active voice, 371–375
 - and decisions of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 127
 - democracy, constitutionalism and, 361–362
 - and European fundamental rights revolution, 289–290
 - in Israel, 242–244
 - in Italy, 167–168, 170–173, 176–177, 178
 - and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 235
 - as triggering changed role for Mexican Supreme Court, 144–145

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

432

Index

- political incumbents and challengers, disputes
 - between, 8–10
- electoral conflicts in established democracies, 10
- facilitating democratic transitions, 8–9
- overview, 8
- sparking anti-authoritarian movements, 9–10
- political leaders
 - and changing judicial roles, 25–27
 - courts as agents of, 3–4
 - empowering courts as independent political actors, 4–5
 - role of courts in breaking political roadblocks, 14
- political movements, effect on judicial roles, 27–28
- political regime features, and changing judicial roles, 22
- political roadblocks, breaking, 14
- political status of judiciary, and changing judicial roles, 22
- political system, Dutch, 183–185
 - of 1950s, 183–184
 - after 2002, 185
 - events of 1968, 184
- political system, Israeli, 254–255
- political timing, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 236
- politically consequential courts, 1–37
 - complaints about government stasis and maladministration, 13–15
 - cultural and religious cleavages, 15–17
 - disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
 - disputes between political incumbents and challengers, 8–10
 - expanded judicial roles in governance, 3–7
 - framework of influences on changing judicial roles, 18–30
 - general discussion, 409–410
 - intra-governmental disputes about who governs, 11–13
 - judicial strategies, tactics, and techniques, 30–35
 - overview, 1–3
- politically salient areas, jurisdiction in, 70–72
- politics, constitutional. See constitutional politics in active voice
- politics, women in Kuwaiti, 317–318
- politics of courts in democratization, 45–64
 - adjudicating election in Taiwan, 55–58
 - downstream democratic consolidators, 50–51
 - downstream guarantors, 49–50
 - impeachment in South Korea, 52–55
 - judicial irrelevance, 52
 - legacies and roles, 63–64
 - overview, 45–47
 - picking and rejecting populist in Thailand, 58–60
 - triggering democracy in Pakistan, 60–63
 - upstream triggers of democracy, 47–49
- politics of legal complex, 337–346
 - agitation for constitutionalism, 341–342
 - consolidating and adapting constitutional courts, 343–344
 - defending courts, 344–345
 - general discussion, 338–341, 346
 - instituting constitutional court, 342–343
 - overview, 337–338
- Polygamy Case*, Indonesian Constitutional Court, 316
- populist politics, Dutch, 183–185
- populists in Thailand, picking and rejecting, 58–60
- Portalis, Jean-Etienne-Marie, 293
- positive rights, 17
- post-Apartheid South Africa. See South African Constitutional Court
- post-Communist colored revolutions, 67–87
 - conditions enabling judges to decide contested elections, 68–73
 - Georgia's Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - judicial strategies and roles, overview of, 73–74
 - Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86
 - overview, 67–68
 - Ukraine's Orange Revolution, 78–83
- post-liberal constitutionalism, South African Constitutional Court, 101
- postponement-of-remedy tactics, 33–34
- Pound Ordinance, South Africa, 107–108
- poverty, Indian Supreme Court decisions regarding, 279
- Powell, Lewis F., Jr., 222
- power. See also judicial power; sources of judicial power, South African Constitutional Court
 - constitutional boundaries of, Chile, 116–118
 - unexpected transfer of, legalizing in Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86
- power relations, South African Constitutional Court decisions affecting, 106–108
- power-distribution role, Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 114–134
 - causes of TC rulings, 126–131
 - constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 - constitutional review of decree authority, 118–119
 - evolving law vs. decree doctrine, 120–126
 - nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

433

- negotiating new roles, 131–134
- overview, 114–116
- pragmatism, judicial, South African
 - Constitutional Court, 101–106
 - certification judgments, 103–104
 - jurisdiction and authority, 102–103
 - overview, 101–102
 - rights and structure in court's jurisprudence, 104–106
- pragmatism in Dutch political system, 183–185
- prayer in public schools, U.S. Supreme Court
 - decision regarding, 202–203
- precedence of European law over conflicting national law
 - general pressures caused by, 294–296
 - targeted pressures caused by, 294–296
- President
 - Dutch Hoge Raad, 196
 - role in appointment of justices, South African Constitutional Court, 98
- presidential decree authority, Chile, 117–118. See also law vs. decree conflicts, Chile
- presidential elections. See elections; leaders, role of courts in choosing; specific presidents by name
- PRI (Partido Revolucionario Institucional), Mexico, 141–143
- primogeniture, South African Constitutional Court decisions on, 107
- prison conditions, U.S. Supreme Court decisions regarding, 214–215
- prisoners, undertrial, Indian Supreme Court
 - decision regarding, 273–274
- prisons in Israel, private, 253
- privatization in Israel, 253
- proactive constitutional judicial review, 385–386
- procedural creativity, 30–32. See also judicial strategies
- procedural litigation, 296–297
- Prodi, Romano, 163
- progressive leadership, Mexican Supreme Court, 145–154
 - Chief Justice Genaro Góngora, 147–149
 - influence of, 140
 - Justice José Ramón Cossío, 149–154
 - Justice Juventino Castro y Castro, 146–147
 - overview, 145
 - results of, 157
- Property Relations between Spouses Law, Israel, 330
- property rights, battle over in India, 265–270
 - Golak Nath v. Union of India*, 267–268
 - Kesavananda Bharati v. State of Kerala*, 268–269
 - overview, 265–267
- proponents theorists, 371–375
- proportionality doctrine, Israeli Supreme Court, 258
- prosecution, structure of in Italy, 166–167, 176
- prosecutors, in Italy, 172, 178
- prospective overruling doctrine, Supreme Court of India, 267
- prosperity, effect on Dutch society, 184
- protective custody, Indian Supreme Court
 - decision regarding, 273–274
- protest movement, Dutch, in 1968, 184
- Provisional Constitutional Order (PCO), Pakistan, 62
- proximate political dynamics, and changing judicial roles, 19–22, 25–28, 400
- “Przeworski moment”, 47
- public hearings (audiencias públicas), Mexican Supreme Court, 155
- Public Interest Litigation (PIL), Supreme Court of India, 262–286
 - activist, but selectively assertive court, 275–276
 - battle over basic structure doctrine, 265–270
 - corruption and accountability cases, 277–278
 - development and expansion of, reasons for, 280–284
 - Emergency rule period, 269–270
 - environmental policy, 275, 278–279
 - expansion of in post-1990 era, 276
 - and expansion of judicial role, overview of, 270–272
 - growth of in 1980s, 273–274
 - Judges' Case*, 272–273
 - judicial appointments, 276–277
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 12
 - and judicialization of governance, 284–286
 - motives driving, 280–281
 - and opportunity structure for judicial power, 281–284
 - overview, 262–265
 - policy-making in education, human rights, and affirmative action, 279–280
- public officials, investigation of in Italy, 168–170
- public opinion, effect on judicial roles, 27–28
- public prosecution, structure of in Italy, 166–167, 176
- public schools, mandatory prayer and Bible readings in U.S., 202–203
- P.U.C.L. v. Union of India*, Indian Supreme Court, 279
- punishments, U.S. Supreme Court decisions regarding, 214–215

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

434

Index

- Raad van State (Council of State), Dutch
 overview, 189–190
 rivalry between highest courts, 190–191
 rabbinical court system, Israel, 329–330 racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court, 216–223 affirmative action, 221–223
Brown v Board of Education, 217–219 busing-for-balance, 220
Griggs v Duke Power, 220–221
 overview, 216–217
 racial segregation, in U.S., 14 radical religion, containment of. See religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence rational-basis review for economic policy issues,
 in India, 275
R.C. Cooper v. Union of India, Supreme Court of India, 267
 reactive constitutional judicial review, 385–386
 “reapportionment decisions”, U.S. Supreme Court, 224–225
 reasoned deference, as strategy of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 131 re-districting, legislative, U.S. Supreme Court decision regarding, 224–225 reform initiatives, Mexican Supreme Court’s power to present, 149 reform of 1994 in Mexico, judicial, 139, 144
Regents of the University of California v. Bakke,
 U.S. Supreme Court, 222
 regime change. See colored revolutions;
 democratization, politics of courts in regime features, and changing judicial roles, 22 regime theory
 constitutional politics in active voice, 368–371
 Indian Supreme Court, 276, 280
 overview, 199–200
 U.S. Supreme Court, 226–227
Regional Municipality Gazza Beach v. Knesset, Israeli Supreme Court, 252 regulatory state. See national administrative and regulatory state, U.S.
 Reichman, Amnon, 367
 religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence, 311–333 effect of social and political movements on judicial roles, 27
 Egypt, 315–317
 general discussion, 313–315, 330–333
 and interpretive creativity, 32
 Israel, 327–330
 Kuwait, 317–318
 Malaysia, 321–327
 overview, 16, 311–313
 Pakistan, 318–321
 religious and cultural cleavages, role of courts in resolving, 15–17 religious conservatives, culture wars between liberal elites and, 225–226 religious courts in Israel, 329–330
 Religious Courts Law, Indonesian, 314–315 religious references, indecision regarding whether to include in Israeli constitution, 235 remedies, enforcement of by South African Constitutional Court, 108–109
A Republic of Statutes: The New American Constitution, 389–390 republicanism, French, 292–294 resistance facing Dutch Hoge Raad, 188 to judicial role expansion, in nautical metaphor, 21, 400
 responsive law, 408–409
Restricción a Catalíticos Rol 325 case,
 Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 125–126, 357 review, constitutional judicial. See constitutional judicial review review of decree authority, Chile, 118–119 revolutions. See colored revolutions; constitutional revolution, Israel; European fundamental rights revolution rewriting of Civil Code, Dutch, 188 riba (usury), Supreme Court of Pakistan rulings on, 319–320
Richtersveld case, South African Constitutional Court, 107
 rigged elections. See contested elections, role of courts in deciding Right coalition, Italy, 170–173 right to counsel, in U.S., 213
 Right to Information (RTI) cases, Indian
 Supreme Court, 278
 rights. See also fundamental rights decisions, Mexican Supreme Court; fundamental rights revolution, European and administrative review, 391–392 basic laws dealing with, Israel, 241–244 cases involving, South African Constitutional Court, 106–109
 and constitutional judicial review, 396
 in Dutch Hoge Raad, 187–188 Fundamental Rights Program, Mexican
 Supreme Court, 149–153
 historical legacy of South African
 Constitutional Court, 96–97

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

435

- in jurisprudence of South African Constitutional Court, 104–106
- position of Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 125–126
- positive, 17
- protection of by Israeli Supreme Court, 234–235, 252–254, 256–258
- role of courts in resolving disputes about, 17–18
- triumph of in South African Constitutional Court, 99–100
- rights consciousness campaign, Mexican Supreme Court, 153–154
- R.K. Garg v. Union of India*, Indian Supreme Court, 275
- roadblocks, breaking political, 14
- Roberts, Owen, 205
- Roe v. Wade*, U.S. Supreme Court, 224
- Roh Moo-hyun, impeachment of, 53–55, 354
- role conception, of judges, 3
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 205, 217, 402–403
- Rose Revolution, Georgia
 - conditions enabling anti-government decisions, 68–73
 - judicial strategies and roles, 73–74
 - Marbury moments in, 359
 - overview, 74–78
- RTI (Right to Information) cases, Indian Supreme Court, 278
- rule of law. See judicial independence
- runoff election, Ukraine, 83
- Saakashvili, Mikheil, 75–76, 78
- sacred law. See religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
- Sankari Prasad v. Union of India*, Indian Supreme Court, 266
- SCC (Supreme Constitutional Court), Egypt, 315–317, 344
- Schechter Poultry Corp v. United States*, U.S. Supreme Court, 204–205, 206, 355
- schools, mandatory prayer and Bible readings in U.S., 202–203
- SCI (Supreme Court of Israel), 328–330
- “Scottsboro Boys” case, U.S. Supreme Court, 212
- SCP (Supreme Court of Pakistan), 60–63, 318–321
- Scribner, Druscilla L., 372
- Second Judges’ Case (Supreme Court Advocates-on-Record Ass’n v. Union of India)*, Indian Supreme Court, 276–277, 282
- secularism, promotion of by constitutional courts, 311–333
 - effect of social and political movements on judicial roles, 27
 - Egypt, 315–317
 - general discussion, 313–315, 330–333
 - and interpretive creativity, 32
 - Israel, 327–330
 - Kuwait, 317–318
 - Malaysia, 321–327
 - overview, 16, 311–313
 - Pakistan, 318–321
- segregation, racial, in U.S., 14. See also racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- selection process, judicial, 369–370
- self government, in democracies, 350–351
- self-restraint, by courts, 24
- Selznick, Philip, 408
- semi-authoritarian regimes, colored revolutions
 - in, 67–87
 - conditions enabling judges to decide contested elections, 68–73
 - Georgia’s Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - judicial strategies and roles, overview of, 73–74
 - Kyrgyzstan’s Tulip Revolution, 83–86
 - overview, 67–68
 - Ukraine’s Orange Revolution, 78–83
- separation of powers
 - and constitutional judicial review, 395
 - Dutch Council of State, 189–190
 - as necessary condition for judicial review, 382
- separation of powers conflicts, Chile, 114–134
 - causes of law vs. decree rulings, 126–131
 - constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 - constitutional review of decree authority, 118–119
 - evolving law vs. decree doctrine, 120–126
 - nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119
 - negotiating new roles for court, 131–134
 - overview, 114–116
 - post-2005 law vs. decree cases, 132–134
- sequence of rulings, strategic, 34
- Seventeenth Amendment, Indian Constitution, 266–267
- sexual harassment, Indian Supreme Court
 - decisions regarding, 279
- Shapiro, Martin, 3–4
- Shari’a (Islamic law)
 - in Egypt, 315–317
 - in Kuwait, 317–318
 - in Malaysia, 321–327
 - in Pakistan, 318–321
 - as source of legislation, 312
- Shari’at Appellate Bench, Supreme Court of Pakistan, 319–320
- Sharif, Nawaz, 61
- Shas party, Israel, 243
- Shevardnadze, Eduard, 71, 75–76

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

436

Index

- shifting values and preferences, influence on
 - changing judicial roles, 28–29
- Shinawatra, Thaksin, 58–60
- shooting of Taiwanese president, reaction of
 - courts to, 56–58
- short-term political dynamics, in nautical
 - metaphor, 400
- SIDA case, France, 174
- Sikri, S.M., 268
- Silverstein, Gordon, 366–367, 371–372
- Singh, Manmohan, 284
- Snijders, Wouter, 188
- social movements, effect on judicial roles, 27–28
- social-egalitarian policy values, as driving PIL in
 - Indian Supreme Court, 280–281
- socialist political economy, Israel, 236–237
- societal participation in Mexican Supreme Court
 - decisions, 154–156
- socio-political judicial roles, 3–6
- soft judicial review by Israeli Supreme Court,
 - 239–241
- sources of judicial power, South African
 - Constitutional Court, 95–101
 - early decisions and triumph of rights, 99–100
 - historical legacies, 95–97
 - international recognition, 100
 - Old Fort and constitutional patriotism, 100–101
 - origins of court and appointment of justices,
 - 97–99
 - overview, 95
 - power of court, 101
- South African Constitutional Court, 93–112
 - composition of, 98–99
 - disputes about rights and equality, 17–18
 - facilitation of democratic transitions by, 9
 - history of, 94–95
 - judicial agency, 377
 - and legal complex, 342
 - Marbury moment in, 356–357
 - overview, 93–95
 - rights, politics and margins of judicial power,
 - 106–109
 - sources of judicial power, 95–101
 - strategic decisions of judges, 33–34
 - strategic engagement and judicial pragmatism,
 - 101–106
 - Zondi* case, 17
- South Korea
 - changing judicial roles in, 63–64
 - Constitutional Court in, 9
 - legal complex, 341
 - Marbury moment in, 354
 - politics of courts in democratization, 52–55
 - strategic decisions of judges in, 32–33
 - sovereigntist traditions, 350–351
 - S.P. Gupta v. Union of India (Judges' Case)*,
 - Supreme Court of India, 35, 272–273,
 - 355–356
 - Spain, as control case for Italian judicialization of
 - politics, 173–175
 - Special Bearer Bonds (Immunities and
 - Exemptions) Ordinance Act, India, 275
 - spending power, U.S. federal government, 207
 - stability of judicial power, 402–409
 - activist states and evolving legal culture,
 - 407–409
 - globalization and economic liberalism, 406
 - overview, 402–404
 - spread of constitutional democracy, 405–406
 - standing to sue (“locus standi”)
 - U.S. Supreme Court decisions expanding,
 - 209–210
 - widening of by Indian Supreme Court,
 - 272–274, 285
 - stasis, complaints about government, 13–15
 - battling corruption and maladministration, 15
 - breaking political roadblocks, 14
 - overview, 13–14
 - state correctional systems, U.S. Supreme Court
 - decisions regarding, 214–215
 - state law, in Malaysia, 322–323
 - statutory review, 389–394
 - Steward Machine v Davis*, U.S. Supreme Court,
 - 207
 - stickiness of judicial decisions, 359–361
 - Stone, Harlan Fiske, 373
 - Stone Sweet, Alec, 285
 - strategic assertiveness, of judges, 32–35
 - strategic court, Supreme Court of India as,
 - 272–273
 - strategic engagement, South African
 - Constitutional Court, 101–106
 - certification judgments, 103–104
 - jurisdiction and authority, 102–103
 - overview, 101–102
 - rights and structure in court’s jurisprudence,
 - 104–106
 - strategies, judicial. See also Marbury moments
 - Georgia’s Rose Revolution, 74–78
 - Italian judicialization of politics, 175–178
 - Kyrgyzstan’s Tulip Revolution, 83–86
 - overview, 73–74
 - Ukraine’s Orange Revolution, 78–83
 - strike, handling of by Dutch Hoge Raad, 186
 - strong version of regime theory, 368–369
 - structural divisions in French judiciary, 297–301
 - structural factors, and changing judicial roles,
 - 19–25, 399, 400–401

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

437

- structural method of interpretation,
 - Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 127–129
- structure, in jurisprudence of South African
 - Constitutional Court, 104–106
- Subashini* case, Federal Court of Malaysia, 324–325
- subnational-national government conflict, 13
- substantive review of regulatory policy,
 - abandonment of in U.S., 206
- successful constitutional judicial review,
 - necessary conditions for. See constitutional judicial review
- succession crises, role of courts in resolving, 8
- Sundaravej, Samak, 60
- supra-national forces, and changing judicial roles, 22, 25
- Supreme Constitutional Court (SCC), Egypt, 315–317, 344
- Supreme Court Advocates-on-Record Ass'n v. Union of India (Second Judges' Case)*, Indian Supreme Court, 276–277, 282
- Supreme Court, Georgian, 75–76, 77–78
- Supreme Court, Indian, 262–286
 - activist, but selectively assertive court, 275–276
 - anti-authoritarian movements, 10
 - battle over basic structure doctrine, 265–270
 - battling corruption and maladministration, 15
 - changing judicial roles, influences on, 30
 - corruption and accountability cases, 277–278
 - development and expansion of PIL, reasons for, 280–284
 - disputes about rights and equality, 18
 - Emergency rule period, 269–270
 - environmental policy, 275, 278–279
 - expansion of PIL in post-1990 era, 276
 - fragmentation and legislative gridlock, 374–375
 - growth of PIL in 1980s, 273–274
 - Judges' Case*, 272–273
 - judicial appointments, 276–277
 - judicial-elected branch conflict, 12
 - legal complex, 340, 343
 - Marbury moment in, 355–356, 357
 - motives driving PIL, 280–281
 - overview, 262–265
 - PIL and expansion of judicial role, overview of, 270–272
 - PIL and judicialization of governance, 284–286
 - PIL and opportunity structure for judicial power, 281–284
 - policy-making in education, human rights, and affirmative action, 279–280
 - procedural and interpretive creativity of, 31
 - strategic assertiveness of judges, 35
- Supreme Court, Israeli, 233–258
 - aftermath of constitutional revolution, 254–258
 - constitutional judicial review in 2000's, 252–254
 - constitutional revolution, overview of, 244–249
 - lack of founding written constitution, 235–238
 - overview, 233–235
 - piecemeal constitutional construction, 238–244
 - reasons for constitutional revolution, 249–251
- Supreme Court, Kyrgyzstani, 72, 85, 86
- Supreme Court, Mexican, 138–157
 - absence of fundamental rights interpretation during PRI rule, 141–143
 - as arena for political contestation, 154–157
 - Chief Justice Genaro Góngora, 147–149
 - Justice José Ramón Cossío, 149–154
 - Justice Juventino Castro y Castro, 146–147
 - overview, 138–141
 - variables triggering new role of, 143–145
- Supreme Court of Israel (SCI), 328–330
- Supreme Court of Pakistan (SCP), 60–63, 318–321
- Supreme Court, Ukrainian, 31, 33, 71–72, 79–83
- Supreme Court, U.S., 199–227
 - breaking political roadblocks, 14
 - criminal due process, changes in, 211–216
 - cultural and religious cleavages, 16–17
 - electoral conflicts, resolution of, 10
 - influence of decisions by, 202–204
 - judicial agency, 376–377
 - and legal complex, 344
 - legitimacy, 402–403
 - legitimizing national administrative and regulatory state, 204–211
 - Marbury moments in, 355, 357–358
 - Marbury v. Madison* case, 360–361
 - national-subnational government conflict, 13
 - overview, 199–202
 - procedural and interpretive creativity of, 31
 - racial equality, decisions involving, 216–223
 - strategic decisions of judges, 33
 - unintended consequences of decisions, 223–226
- Syariah courts, Malaysia, 323–326
- Taiwan
 - adjudicating election in, 11, 55–58
 - procedural creativity in, 32
- Tajikistan, restriction of religion in, 314
- targeted external pressures, on French judicial system, 296–297
- taxing power, U.S. federal government, 207
- TC. See Tribunal Constitucional, Chile

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

438

Index

- Thailand
 changing judicial roles in, 63, 64
 Marbury moment in, 354
 politics of courts in democratization, 58–60 theocracy, constitutional. See religion-taming function of constitutional jurisprudence
Third Judges' Case (In re Special Reference No. 1 of 1998), Indian Supreme Court, 277, 282
 Thirty-Ninth Amendment, Indian Constitution, 269 timing, political, and lack of founding written constitution in Israel, 236
T.N. Godavarman v. Union of India, Indian Supreme Court, 279 Tocqueville, Alexis de, 1 tolerance, zone of, 396
Total Justice, 407–408 trade unions, handling of by Dutch Hoge Raad, 186 training, judicial, and regime theory, 370 transfer of power, legalizing in Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86 transfers, judicial, control of by Indian central government, 272–273 transformative constitutionalism, South African Constitutional Court, 101 transition to democracy. See politics of courts in democratization transitional justice, 8–9. See also Constitutional Tribunal, Chile transparency, Mexican Supreme Court, 143, 150–151 trials, accusatorial, in Italy, 172
Tribunal Calificador de Elecciones case, Constitutional Tribunal of Chile, 128 Tribunal Constitucional (TC), Chile, 114–134
 causes of law vs. decree rulings, 126–131
 constitutional boundaries of power, 116–118
 constitutional review of decree authority, 118–119
 evolving law vs. decree doctrine, 120–126
 executive-legislative battles, 11–12
 history of, 116
 judicial irrelevance, 52
 and legal complex, 342
 Marbury moment in, 357
 nature of executive-legislative conflict, 116–119
 negotiating new roles, 131–134
 overview, 114–116
 post-2005 law vs. decree cases, 132–134 triggers of democracy, courts as
 overview, 47–49
 in Pakistan, 60–63
 sparking anti-authoritarian movements, 9–10
 Trochev, Alexei, 27–28, 359, 374
Trop v Dulles, U.S. Supreme Court, 214
 Truman, Harry S., 217–218
 Truth Commission Act, Taiwan, 57
 Tulip Revolution, Kyrgyzstan
 conditions enabling anti-government decisions, 68–73
 judicial strategies and roles, 73–74
 overview, 83–86
 Twenty Point Programme, India, 271
 Twenty-Fifth Amendment, Indian Constitution, 268
 Twenty-Fourth Amendment, Indian Constitution, 268
 Twenty-Ninth Amendment, Indian Constitution, 268
 two-tier hierarchy of Shari'a norms, Egyptian SCC, 315–317
Tzemach v. Minister of Defence, Israeli Supreme Court, 248 Ukraine
 conditions enabling anti-government decisions, 68–73 courts as upstream triggers of democracy, 49
 judicial framework and independence in, 69
 judicial strategies and roles, 73–74
 Orange Revolution, 78–83
 procedural creativity, 31
 strategic decisions of judges, 33
 unconstitutionality of constitution, 386–387 undertrial prisoners, Indian Supreme Court decision regarding, 273–274
 unexpected transfer of power, legalizing in Kyrgyzstan's Tulip Revolution, 83–86 unintended consequences of U.S. Supreme Court decisions, 223–226 abortion, 224
 “culture wars”, 225–226 legislative re-districting, 224–225
 overview, 201–202, 223–224
 unions, handling of by Dutch Hoge Raad, 186
 United Kingdom, Israel's severing of legal ties with, 250
 United Malay National Organization (UNMO), 322 United Nations (U.N.)
 commitment to as incentive to create Israeli constitution, 236
 UN Treaty on civil and political rights, 187
United States v. Butler, U.S. Supreme Court, 207 upstream triggers of democracy, courts as
 overview, 47–49

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02653-7 - Consequential Courts: Judicial Roles in Global Perspective

Edited by Diana Kapiszewski, Gordon Silverstein and Robert A. Kagan

Index

More information

Index

439

- in Pakistan, 60–63
- sparkling anti-authoritarian movements, 9–10
- U.S. constitutional law, 389–390
- U.S. Department of Transportation, 210
- U.S. Supreme Court, 199–227
 - breaking political roadblocks, 14
 - criminal due process, changes in, 211–216
 - cultural and religious cleavages, 16–17
 - electoral conflicts, resolution of, 10
 - influence of decisions by, 202–204
 - judicial agency, 376–377
 - and legal complex, 344
 - legitimacy, 402–403
 - legitimizing national administrative and regulatory state, 204–211
 - Marbury moments in, 355, 357–358
 - Marbury v. Madison* case, 360–361
 - national-subnational government conflict, 13
 - overview, 199–202
 - procedural and interpretive creativity of, 31
 - racial equality, decisions involving, 216–223
 - strategic decisions of judges, 33
 - unintended consequences of decisions, 223–226
- usury (riba), Supreme Court of Pakistan rulings on, 319–320
- Valenzuela, Eugenio, 128–129
- values of Dutch Hoge Raad, 194–195
- Verma, J.S., 276–277
- Vietnam, restriction of religion in, 314
- Vineet Narain v. Union of India*, Indian Supreme Court, 277–278
- Vishaka v. State of Rajasthan*, Indian Supreme Court, 279
- vote fraud, exposing in Georgia's Rose Revolution, 74–78
- voting. See contested elections, role of courts in deciding; elections
- Warren, Earl, 211–216
- Weber v. Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Co.*, U.S. Supreme Court, 221–222
- welfare state, Dutch, 184
- West Bank, Israel, 252–253
- West Coast Hotel v. Parrish*, U.S. Supreme Court, 206
- Western Cape* case, South African Constitutional Court, 33–34, 105–106, 356–357
- white flight, 220
- white supremacy. See racial equality decisions, U.S. Supreme Court
- Whiting, Amanda, 345
- Wickard v. Filburn*, U.S. Supreme Court, 205–206
- Winterwerp* case, ECHR, 187
- Witt, John Fabian, 205
- women
 - as judges in Egypt, 316–317
 - Kuwaiti Constitutional Court decisions regarding, 317–318
- writ of inapplicability for unconstitutionality, Chile, 118–119
- writ of protection, Chile, 119
- Yanukovych, Viktor, 78–79, 82
- Yarema, Anatoly, 79
- Yushchenko, Viktor, 78–82, 83
- Zaki Tun Azmi, 326–327
- Zedillo, Ernesto, 144
- Zondi* case, South African Constitutional Court, 17, 107–108
- zone of tolerance, 396