

Index

- African Empire, Italian, 6
 - racial laws as compared to those in Italy itself, 67–68
 - similarities and differences from domestic Italian Race Laws, 234–237
- African-Americans
 - comparison of resistance strategy to that of Italian Jews, 217
 - failure to obtain reparations for slavery and Jim Crow eras, 233
- Alessandria
 - report regarding Jewish economic activity in, 111
- Almansi, Dante
 - interventions on behalf of Jews affected by Race Laws, 210
- Amidah
 - activities of Jewish organizations qualifying as, 217
 - as synonym for nonviolent resistance, 199
 - legal activities qualify as type of, 209
 - whether activities of Italian Jewish community qualify as, 205
- Ancona
 - report regarding Jewish economic activity in, 112
- Anselmi Commission, 233
- apartheid (South Africa), 6, 10
 - common features and differences from Italian Race Laws, 234–237
 - comparison of anti-apartheid movement with resistance by Italian Jews, 217
 - comparison to Italian Race Laws, 70
- Ascoli, Aldo
 - letter to Demorazza complaining of effects of Race Laws, 211–213
 - meeting with Antonio LePera regarding Race Laws, 214
- authors and publishers, Jewish
 - campaign against in Ferrara, 174–176
- Badoglio Government, 19
- Bassani, Giorgio
 - as witness to anti-semitic behavior in Ferrara, 183
- Buffarini Guidi, Guido, 42
 - memorandum suggesting eventual separation of Jews from Italian society, 45
- business restrictions
 - as applied to quasi-public entities, 80
 - as common provision of racial statutes, 236, 237
 - competing influences on, 23
 - contribution of lawyers to, 62
 - enforced less stringently than “core” provisions, 76
 - general approach of draftsmen to, 48
 - legislation regarding Jewish professionals, 49–50
 - legislative treatment of stock ownership for purposes of, 58
 - reasons for sometimes inconsistent enforcement of, 113–114
 - secondary importance in Ferrara, 166
 - statutory provisions, 47
 - treatment in norme di attuazione, 52–55

- Calamandrei, Piero
 ambiguities in position of, 156
 evaluation of performance during Race Laws, 155
 role in Salvatore Fubini litigation, 208
 role of religion and morality in determining behavior, 236–238
- charitable foundations
 as recipients of transferred property, 95–97
 transfers to foundations bearing Jewish names, 100
- charities, Jewish
 as means of resisting the Race Laws, 203–205
- CLN (Comitato di Liberazione Nazionale), 218
- Committee of Italians of Jewish Religion, 221
- Confiscation of Jewish property, 19
- conflict of laws
 application to pension provisions, 92
 as reflected in judicial decisions on mixed marriages, 142
- Cons. Agr. Prov. Vercelli c. DeBenedetti*, 135
- Consiglio di Stato decision in usufruct case, 100
- Croce, Benedetto, 226
- “cultural compensation,” 233–234
- DELAEM (Delegazione Assistenza Emigrati), 205
- Demorazza (Race and Demography Office), 7, 76
 as expanding list of prohibited professions, 81–86
 as taking a stricter view of Race Laws than other agencies, 78 behavior of not necessarily determined by anti-semitism, 237 clash with Finance and Corporations ministries over stock corporations, 107–108 composition and character of, 21 concentration of power in, 164 conflict with tourism ministry over Jewish-owned hotels, 86
 correspondence with Vatican on mixed marriage issue, 42 creation of, 17
 difference with Finance and Justice ministries regarding usufruct transactions, 98
- files reflect conflicts regarding mixed marriage issue, 25
- files show reduced frequency of exemptions granted, 18
- need for more study of, 119
- treatment of foreign exchange transaction, 104
- Deportations
 Italian role in, 19
- doctors, Jewish partially successful litigation on behalf of, 207
- domestic servants (domestici)
 as interpreted in Invernizzi decision, 145 employed by Jews under Race Laws, 84–87
 prohibition on Jews employing Aryan domestics in Ferrara, 171, 176
- education, legal
 role in preventing future holocausts, 239
- educational institution
 as core provision of Race Laws, 24
- Educational institutions
 expulsion of Italian Jews from, 17
- EGELI (Ente Gestione e Liquidazione Immobiliare)
 archives reflect confiscation of Jewish property in Turin, 190 newspaper article criticizing handling of real estate confiscations and government response, 116 treatment of mortgages by, 53–55, 103
- employment restrictions administration of rules applied to Jewish professionals, 78–84
 application of in Ferrara, 177–179
 as “peripheral” provision of Race Laws, 24
 institution of, 17
- entertainment (spettacolo)
 campaign against Jewish participation in Ferrara, 176 expansion of prohibited activities in, 81
- Ethiopia
 Italian invasion of, 15
- evasive transactions, 101
 general approach of draftsmen to, 47–48
 legislative treatment of, 61
 letter by Judge Ricci to Ministry of Justice regarding, 123–125
 transfers of property as type of evasion, 93–101
- Evola, Julius, 15

Index

263

- Exempt status (discriminazione), 17
 exemption (discrimination)
 as applied to Jewish professionals, 79
 as applied to journalists and library employees, 79–80 exemption (discriminazione), 23
 application of rules for allocating exemptions in Ferrara, 174 as applying to peripheral but not core provisions of Race Laws, 24 effect on possession of radios in Ferrara, 168 general structure of legislative provisions, 63–65
 limited benefit to Jewish professionals, 50 request from Vatican, 42
 limited effectiveness of, 65
- Falco c. Banco di Napoli, 133
 Falco, Mario
 interventions on behalf of academics and street peddlers, 210 participation in Race Laws litigation, 208, 210
 Fascism
 rise to power and turn to anti-semitism, 15, 17 differences from Nazism, 117
 Ferrara
 administration and enforcement of Race Laws in, 162–187
 historical background on city and Jewish community, 163
 overall themes in application of Race Laws in, 164
 summary of lessons learned from study of Race Law archives in, 181 Finzi-Continis, The Garden of limitations of description of Race Laws in, 163 Florence, Jewish community of, 215 foreign Jews (ebrei stranieri), 17
 contradictory provisions applicable to, 93
 pharmacies owned by, 83
 relative absence in Ferrara, 166
 treatment for purposes of pension rules, 92 Forti, Ugo
 interventions on behalf of Jews affected by Race Laws, 208–210
 participation in Race Laws litigation, 208, 210
 France, 75
 comparison of Vichy and Salo' regimes, 9
 comparison of Vichy regime with Italian Race Laws, 237 difficulty of obtaining reparations in, 233
 Race Laws as differing from anti-semitic laws in, 73
 Weisberg's theories about, 11
 Fubini, Guido
 on continuity between Race Laws and earlier practices, 44
 on differing orientations of Race Laws judges, 126
 precedents to Race Laws noted by, 153 Fubini, Salvatore
 litigation following revocation of discriminato status, 208 Fuller, Lon L., 8
- Galante Garrone, Alessandro, 157
 Garden of the Finzi-Continis, The, 2
 German occupation, 185–187
 Germany, 76
 comparison of governmental structure to Fascist Italy, 21
 conclusions regarding German-Italian differences and reasons for them, 225–227 continuity in anti-semitic policies before and after German occupation, 185–187 difference in philosophy between German and Italian laws, 23 difference in philosophical approach as reflected in pension provisions, 50
 differences from Italian legal regime, 6
 German-Italian relationship, 3, 15 higher level of violence in, 18
 institutional differences from Italy during Race Laws era, 159 Muller's theories about, 11
 occupation of northern Italy, 75 reasons for German-Italian differences in severity of racial program, 117
 role in Italian Holocaust, 19
 giorno della memoria, 234
Goldstaub c. Societa' anonima infortuni, 136
 Good Italian Myth (italiani brava gente), 2
 as reflection of difference between history and memory, 75 conclusion regarding unconvincing nature of, 225–227
 little support for in administrative record, 116 Goranic c. Vatta, 140

- Hart, H.L.A., 8, 9
 Holocaust, Italian
 general description, 19–20
 hotels and boarding houses, 86 hotels, Jewish-owned enforcement of rules against in Ferrara, 169–171
 Il Tevere (newspaper), 16
 articles criticizing pace of real estate confiscations and government response, 116
 independent contractors, 88
 informers (delatori)
 role in enforcement of stock corporation provisions, 111
 significance for enforcement of business and property rules, 106
 Innocent spouses as theme in Race Laws
 correspondence, 41
 “Italian model” of anti-semitism as basis for racial discrimination, 40
 emphasis on religious and cultural factors
 in, 45
 Race Laws as an example of, 72–74
 institutional factors
 role in preventing future holocausts, 238–239
 Interlandi, Telesio, 16
Invernizzi, 144
 Italian Communist Party (PCI), 218
 Italian Jews
 history of, 13–14
 special features that affected response to Race Laws, 199–200
 Italian Social Republic (RSI)
 role in Italian Holocaust, 19
 Japanese-Americans
 as recipients of reparation payments, 232 Jemolo, Arturo Carlo
 ambiguities in position of, 156
 comment on Falco case, 134
 evaluation of performance during Race Laws by, 155
 relationship with Mario Falco, 208 role of religion and morality in determining behavior, 238
 Jewish professionals
 strategies for resisting the Race Laws, 206
 Jim Crow Laws (United States), 6, 10 common features and differences from Italian Race Laws, 234–237
 compared to Italian Race Laws, 69–70 Jona, 143
 judiciary (magistratura)
 evaluation of performance in Race Laws era, 159
 general character of Fascist-era judiciary, 21
 overall character in Fascist era, 151 role in interpreting Race Laws, 123 significance of structure in accounting for behavior during Race Laws, 240
 kiddush ha-chaim (sanctification of life)
 as synonym for nonviolent resistance, 199
 La Difesa della Razza (journal), 16
 Landra, Guido, 15
 Lateran Treaties, 25, 44
 and judicial decisions on mixed marriages, 138
 as source of tension between Church and Italian Government, 70 conflict of law implications, 92
 law and lawyers
 significance for understanding behavior of perpetrators and victims in Race Laws and Holocaust eras, 227–231 lawyers, Jewish strategies for responding to Race Laws, 209
 legal philosophy
 limitations in explaining behavior during Race Laws, 238
 role in explaining Race Laws decisions, 153
 legal positivism
 role in explaining Race Laws decisions, 153
 LePera, Antonio
 meeting with Aldo Ascoli regarding Race
 Laws, 214
Levi c. Societa' focalari automatici impianti termici e Ditta Colombo, 129
 Levi, Primo
 description of Turin Jewish life, 188
 local studies
 application to different regions of Germany and Italy during Nazi and Fascist periods, 191–193 significance for determining interplay of local and national factors, 181
 value of in studying Nazi and Fascist regimes, 161–162

Index

265

- Maglione, Luigi Cardinal, 41
 Manifesto of the Racial Scientists, 17, 22
Martinotti c. Segre, 146
 Matteoli' Report (France), 233 Ministry of Finance
 clash with Demorazza over stock corporations, 107–113 conflict with other agencies over pension rules, 91 difference with Demorazza regarding usufruct transactions, 98 response to proposed 1940 amendments, 114
 Treatment of stock ownership by, 57
 mixed marriages, 2
 as core provision of Race Laws, 24
 Church's attitude toward, 22
 correspondence between Vatican and Demorazza regarding, 42
 enforcement of rules against in Ferrara, 173–174, 181
 in Italian colonies as compared to mainland, 68
 in United States (Jim Crow Laws) and Italy, 69 judicial decisions regarding, 142
 prohibition of, 17
 prohibition of as common feature of racial statutes, 235 mortgages
 use as potential evasion technique, 101–103
Moscato c. Cassa Depositi e Prestiti, 134
 Muller, Ingo, 11
 contrast of Italian to German philosophy described by, 142
 relevance of theories to Italy, 21
 Mussolini, Benito
 authority over racial designations, 18
 imposes racial laws, 1
 letters from Italian Jews, 219–222
 letters from ordinary Italians regarding the Race Laws, 193–195 office called to resolve pension interpretation issue, 91 opinion sought on proposed exchange transaction, 104 natural law, 8
 role in explaining Race Laws decisions, 153
 Norme di Attuazione (Rules of Application), 52–58 treatment of evasive transfers, 95
 Nuremberg Laws, 75
 Italian model as emphasizing religion rather than race as in, 45
 Race Laws as independent project rather than Italian version of, 74 Nuremberg Laws (Germany), 9 differences from Italian laws in definition of Jew, 35, 40 effect on Race Laws, 67
 parallels to Italian laws in definition of Jew, 28 pension benefits
 administrative interpretation by Demorazza and other agencies, 88–92 judicial decisions concerning, 132–137
 legislative provisions pertaining to, 50–52
 Peretti-Griva, Judge Domenico Riccardo
 ambiguities in position of, 156
 evaluation of performance during Race Laws, 154
 presiding judge in Rosso c. Artom, 126
 role of religion and morality in determining behavior, 238 significance of decision in Rosso c. Artom, 152, 154 pharmacies, Jewish-owned treatment by Demorazza, 81–83
 Piedmont (Piemonte)
 special character of judiciary in, 151, 152 Polli c. Gugenheim, 130
 positivism, legal, 9
 Prato, Rabbi David, 221
 Preziosi, Giovanni, 16
 role under Salo' Government, 19 professionals, Jewish administrative treatment of cases involving, 78–84
 propaganda, anti-semitic
 examples in Ferrara and other cities, 183 property restrictions, 2
 allocation of real estate for purposes of, 55
 application of in Ferrara, 178
 as “peripheral” provision of Race Laws, 24
 as common provision of racial statutes, 236, 238
 contribution of lawyers to, 62
 enforced less stringently than “core” provisions, 76

- property restrictions (cont.)
 evasive transactions under the, 58–61
 general approach of draftsmen to, 45–46
 institution of, 17
 reasons for sometimes inconsistent enforcement of, 116
 relative laxness of enforcement of, 18 statutory provisions pertaining to real property, 47
 transfers of property as way of avoiding, 95
 treatment in norme di attuazione, 53
 treatment of mortgages for purposes of, 55 treatment of real property exchanges, 104
 treatment of real property mortgages, 101–113
 Provisions for the Defense of the Italian Race, 18
- Radbruch, Gustav, 8
- radios
 restrictions on Jewish possession in Ferrara, 166–168
- railway and tram workers treatment under pension provisions, 89–91
- Ravenna, Renzo
 as Fascist podesta' of Ferrara, 165
- religion
 role in preventing future holocausts, 239
- Rende, Prof. Domenico
 article on mixed marriage decisions, 139, 151
- Repubblica Sociale Italiana (RSI) (Salò Government)
 continuity of policies with previous regime, 184
- resistance and collaboration, general ambiguities as expressed in behavior of key legal figures, 156 difference between reality and mythology as reflected at a local level, 196 difficulty of drawing line between, 21 factors accounting for in Germany and Italy, 191–193
 in Turin and Piedmont, 187–191
 previous studies in Germany and Italy, 162 role of Jews in national resistance organizations, 219
 summary of factors accounting for differences in behavior, 237–240 unsatisfactory nature of distinction, 149
- resistance and collaboration, Jewish discussion by scholars outside of Italy, 197–199 effect of legal categories on, 229
 in general, 197–224
 special features of the Italian situation, 199–201 varying responses as reflected in Segreteria letters, 219–222
- restitution and reparations
 difficulty of obtaining in Italy and other countries, 231–234
- Roman Catholic Church
 anti-semitism in pre-modern period, 14 attitude toward mixed marriages, 22, 25 attitude toward mixed marriages as influencing judicial decisions, 142 conservative circles in, 16
 evaluation of effect on Race Laws, 71
 response to Holocaust, 3
- Roman Law (diritto romano), 12
 as argument for restricting Race Laws, 152
- Rome, Jewish community of archives describe careful but persistent resistance efforts, 216
 charitable and welfare efforts undertaken by, 204
- Rosso c. Artom, 126–128
 significance of decision in, 152
- schools, Jewish
 as means of resisting the Race Laws, 201–203
- Segreteria Particolare del Duce letter from Italian Jews, 219–222
 letters from ordinary Italians show range of responses to Race Laws, 193–195
- Società 'Vigano' c. Gasviner, 135
- Soviet Union
 comparison of governmental structure to Fascist Italy, 21
 differences from Italian legal regime, 6
- Spanish Civil War, 15
- stock corporations (società anonime)
 proposals for new legislation regarding, 113
 use in evading Race Laws and government response, 108
- street vendors (commercio ambulante)
 added to list of prohibited activities, 81 interventions by UCII on behalf of, 207 treatment of in Ferrara, 179
 UCII intervention on behalf of, 214

Index

267

- supply contracts, 88
- Tacchi Venturi, Father Pietro, 41, 42
- telephone directory
 - elimination of Jewish names in Ferrara, 180
- “total mobilization” of Jewish labor
 - (proposal), 19
- Trieste
 - evasive transactions and informers in, 106
 - study of Race Laws in, 191
- Turin (Torino)
 - application of Race Laws in and differences
 - from Ferrara, 187–190
 - disproportionate number of skeptical cases
 - decided in, 147
 - emancipation of Jews in, 14
 - evasive transactions and informers in, 106
 - special characteristics of Jewish community
 - in, 188
 - Turin Court of Appeals and interpretation
 - of Race Laws, 128
- Tuscany
 - study of Race Laws in, 191
- UCII (Unione delle Comunita' Ebraiche Italiane)
 - Interventions on behalf of Jews affected by
 - Race Laws, 207, 215
- usufruct (usufrutto) transactions
 - treatment by Demorazza and other agencies,
 - 100
- Valabrega & Cerrutti (judicial decision),
 - 139
- Vatican
 - correspondence with Demorazza on mixed
 - marriage issue, 42
 - evaluation of effect on Race Laws,
 - 70–71
 - influence on final draft of Race Laws,
 - 43
- victim testimonies
 - importance in evaluating issue of Jewish
 - behavior, 224
- violence, anti-semitic
 - outbreaks in Ferrara and other cities,
 - 182–183
- Weisberg, Richard, 11
 - relevance of theories to Italy, 21,
 - 141
 - “who is a Jew”, 23
 - consideration in legislative history of Race
 - Laws, 40
 - application of rules for determining in
 - Ferrara, 174
- work brigades (precettazione al lavoro), 19
 - as demonstrating continuity between pre-
 - and post-1943 policies, 186
 - significance for determining Mussolini's
 - anti-semitic intentions, 118
- World War II
 - Italian entrance (June 1940), 18