

Index

- 3Cs management approach, 43
- 3M, 6, 8
- Abernathy, William, 13
- adaptation and experimentation
 - strategies, 15–16
- adaptation strategy, 11
- Aflac, 190
- Ahlstrand, Bruce, 11
- airline industry
 - competitive strategies, 2–3
- Äkräs, Juha, 56
- Amazon.com, 8–9
- Ameriprise Financial, 102
- anchor points of HR planning, 109
- Apotheker, Leo, 171
- Apple Inc., 8, 16, 39, 42, 61, 206
 - balanced scorecard, 165–7
 - management practices, 45–6
 - product design and functionality, 6–7
 - redefining industries, 40–1
 - values-based view of strategy, 45–6
- Apple iPad, 8
- Apple iPhone, 40
- Apple iTunes Music Store, 40
- Apple MAC OS X™ operating system, 7
- Arkless, David, 38, 205
- assessing HR strategy outcomes,
 - 159–82, 189–90
 - balanced scorecard, 160–5
 - balanced scorecard (Apple Inc.), 165–7
- Good Company Index, 167–71
- Sysco Corporation, 171–6
- Universal Weather and Aviation Inc., 176–82
- AstraZeneca, 29
- automobile industry
 - competitive strategies, 2
- Avis, 16
- “baby boomers”, 192
- Bain & Company, 16
- balanced scorecard, 160–5
 - Apple Inc., 165–7
 - approach to HR strategy, 74
 - customer perspective, 161–3
 - financial perspective, 164–5
 - innovation and learning
 - perspective, 163–4
 - internal business perspective, 163
 - shareholders’ perspective, 164–5
 - Sysco Corporation, 174–5
- benchmarking, 15, 74–5
- Berkshire Hathaway, 61
- Best Buy, 9, 198
- best practices, 74–5
- blogs, 32, 207
- Blunden, Tony, 91
- BMW automobiles, 8
- boards of directors
 - human capital reporting, 135–40
 - oversight of HR issues, 135–40

212 Index

- Bock, Laszlo, 102, 201–2
- Boeing
outsourcing challenges, 37
- Bonaparte, Napoleon, 13
- Bose sound systems, 8
- Boston Consulting Group
mitigating talent and skills
scarcities, 83–4
- Boudreau, John W., 72
- Boudreau–Ramstad HRFE framework,
75–7
- boundary spanning role in HR strategy, 56–7
- BranchOut, 191
- brand management, 6–7
- Buffet, Warren, 61
- business concept innovation, 42–3
- business models
industries redefined, 38–41
revolutionary new concepts, 38–41
- business units
Disney theme parks, 68–9
types of HR strategies, 59–63
- capabilities
source of competitive advantage,
6–8
- career-progression systems
risk optimization, 97
- Carrig, Ken, 175
- Caterpillar Inc., 30
- Cedar Point, 112, 119
- Champy, James, 14
- change management, 15
- change resistance in companies, 12–13
- Chevron, 135, 170
- Chinese concept of ji, 91
- Cisco Systems, 18
- cloud technology
implications for human capital and talent, 33
- Coca Cola, 31
- communication of HR strategy,
134–5, 188–9
and transformative HR, 154–5
company financial statements, 135
connecting emotionally, 142–3
employee perceptions, 145–7
establishing credibility, 140
evidence-based change, 154–5
finding the “trust territory,” 143–5
four elements of persuasion,
140–3
frame for common ground, 141
reporting to boards of directors, 135–40
reporting to investors, 135
Royal Bank of Canada example,
148–50
Starbucks example, 147
to managers and leaders, 148
use of compelling evidence,
141–2
use of vivid language, 141–2
- communication of risk-management
decision making, 150–1
- communication of strategic goals
PepsiCo, 151–4
- competitive advantage
broad strategies, 8–9
corporate identity, 3
differentiation, 8–9
internal strengths and weaknesses,
6–8
resistance to change in companies, 12–13
resources and capabilities, 6–8
transient nature of, 12–13
- competitive environment
opportunities and threats, 3–6
- competitive optimization, 59
- competitive strategy, 2–3
- Conaty, Bill, 57
- concentration strategy, 11, 16
- conflicting business realities, 12–13

- connectivity around the world
 - impacts of, 32–3
- ConocoPhillips, 170
- context of HR strategy, 50–80, 187
 - multi-level framework, 52–5
- continuous improvement, 39
- Corcoran, Bob, 57–8
- core competencies, 16
- Corning Incorporated, 145
- Coromandel International Limited
 - drive for innovation, 196–8
- corporate identity
 - influence on strategy, 17
 - resistance to change, 12–13
 - strategy enabler, 3
- COSO risk-management framework, 22–3
 - relationship to HR strategy, 133–4
- cost pressures on firms, 30
- Costco, 167
- Covey, Steven, 73
- creativity
 - impact of global connectivity, 32–3
- crisis
 - turning into opportunity, 91
- cross-cultural leadership
 - influence on HR strategies, 193
- crowdsourcing, 206–7
- culture
 - cross-cultural leadership skills, 193
- culture and capacity
 - Disneyland example, 119–21
- customer intimacy, 43
 - approach to HR strategy, 74
- customer service
 - source of competitive advantage, 8–9
- DaimlerChrysler, 39
- decision making
 - and organizational strategy, 3
- Decrem, Bart, 65
- Deming, W. Edwards, 14
- demographics
 - influence on future HP strategies, 191–2
- developing global markets, 30–2
- differentiation
 - source of competitive advantage, 8–9
- Disney
 - enterprise unit, 65–8
 - Good Company Index rating, 169
 - “imagineering” value-chain process unit, 69–70
 - information technology enterprise-resource unit, 70
 - move into online gaming, 64–5
 - strategic approach in organizational units, 59–63
 - theme parks, 50–1
 - theme parks business unit, 68–9
- Disneyland, 17
 - culture and capacity, 119–21
 - HC BRidge framework example, 111–26
 - identifying pivot points in processes, 113
 - interactions and actions, 116–18
 - operational risk mitigation, 125–6
 - organization and talent, 113–16
 - policies and practices, 121–3
 - quality versus quantity pivotalness, 118–19
 - resources and processes, 112–13
 - strategic talent investments, 123–4
 - talent alignment, 123
 - talent performance yield comparison, 113–16
- Dollar/Thrifty, 16
- Dow, 135
- downsizing
 - and employee turnover, 190–1

214 Index

- driving innovation
 - Coromandel International Limited, 196–8
 - Menasha Packaging, 194–6
- DuPont, 31, 39
- eBay, 33
- e-commerce, 29
- economic value added, 43
- economy
 - influence on future HR strategy, 190–1
- effectiveness
 - anchor point of HR planning, 109
- efficiency
 - anchor point of HR planning, 109
- employee turnover
 - dealing with uncertainty, 98–104
 - impact of downsizing, 190–1
 - recognizing opportunities, 98–104
 - risk optimization, 96–7, 98–104
- employees
 - perceptions of the HR strategy, 145–7
 - training and development, 21
- Enterprise, 16
- enterprise-resource units
 - Disney information technology, 70
 - strategic approach, 62–3
- enterprise-risk-management
 - framework, 63–4, 124
- enterprise unit, 60
 - Disney, 65–8
- environment
 - opportunities and threats, 3–6
- Ernst & Young, 21, 58
- ethical issues in business, 21
- evidence-based change
 - approach to HR strategy, 154–5
- execution-based strategies, 11, 13–14
 - limitations of, 14–15
- external environment, 28
 - global labor market, 30–2, 34–5
 - impacts of globalization, 28–32
 - impacts of virtual mobility, 38
 - legal and regulatory issues, 35–6
 - new business models, 38–41
 - political issues, 36–8
 - sources of business innovation, 42–3
 - technological revolution, 32–3
- Facebook, 191, 207
- FedEx, 8, 17, 169
- file sharing, 32
- financial markets
 - worldwide operations, 30
- Fiorina, Carly, 170
- “five-forces model” (Porter), 4–5, 6, 15
- five-star model (Sysco), 171–3
- flexible talent
 - response to uncertainty, 93–5
- Ford, 13
- Ford, Henry, 40
- Fortune 100 companies, 169
- Fortune* magazine, 7, 8
- free trade among nations, 30
- Friedman, Thomas, 32
- Friendly’s, 159–60
- Gap Inc., 57
- General Electric, 14, 57–8
- General Motors, 13, 29, 39
- generation Y
 - demands of employers, 191–2
 - view of work, 192
- George, Arun Leslie, 198
- global consciousness concept, 32–3
- global financial crisis, 21
- global influences
 - and future HR strategies, 190–4
- global labor market, 30–2, 34–5
- global standards and regulations, 30
- global talent and skills scarcities
 - responses to, 83–4

- global telecommunications, 29
- globalization, 28–30
 - and HR strategies, 187
 - effects on labor market, 34–5
 - features of companies in the future, 34
 - influence on future HR strategy, 191
 - legal and regulatory issues, 35–6
 - political issues, 36–8
- Good Company Index, 167–71
 - good employer rating, 168
 - good seller rating, 168
 - good steward rating, 168–9
 - holistic assessment of strategy, 170–1
 - rating and company performance, 169–70
 - results, 169–70
 - underlying data, 168–9
- Google, 15, 42, 55, 56, 102, 206
 - applicant-tracking system (ATS), 206
 - people analytics group, 199–200
 - project oxygen, 200–2
- Graves, Melissa, 56
- Gray, Terry, 133
- Greece
 - impacts of financial crisis, 29
- Greenleaf, Robert, 192

- Hamel, Gary, 16, 39, 40, 43
- Hammer, Michael, 14
- Hankes, Matt, 133
- Hayes, Robert, 13
- HC BRidge framework, 143
 - combined with risk-management framework, 126–7
 - culture and capacity, 119–21
 - deciphering HR strategy, 127–31
 - Disneyland example, 111–26
 - headcount-gap analysis, 130–1
 - identifying pivot points, 113
 - interactions and actions, 116–18
 - managing strategic risk through human capital, 124–5
 - operational risk mitigation, 125–6
 - organization and talent, 113–16
 - PepsiCo example, 126–7
 - pivot points in performance, 113–16
 - policies and practices, 121–3
 - product line and process, 128–30
 - quality versus quantity pivotalness, 118–19
 - resource efficiency, 128
 - resources and processes, 112–13
 - searching for pivot points, 124–5
 - strategic connections, 110–11
 - sustainable strategic success, 112
 - talent alignment, 123
 - talent investments and strategic success, 124–5
 - talent performance-yield comparison, 113–16
- headcount-gap analysis, 108
 - in the HR strategy, 130–1
- Hewlett-Packard, 170–1
- Hilton, Conrad, 41
- history of strategic thought, 11–12
- HR activity analysis, 108
- HR analytics, 198
 - Google, 200–2
- HR Council of Canada, 86
- HR role framework, 73
- HR scorecard, 74
- human capital
 - implications of cloud technology, 32–3
- human capital planning
 - anchor points, 109
 - and strategic risk mitigation, 124–5
 - need for, 107–8
 - strategic connections, 109
 - strategic talent investments, 123–4

216 Index

- human capital reporting
 - to boards of directors, 135–40
 - to investors, 135
- human capital risks
 - as enterprise risks, 181
 - ignoring social media, 194
 - lack of emphasis on values, 194
 - lack of innovation, 194
 - loss of key talent, 193–4
 - not investing in the future, 194
- human capital strategy
 - formulation process, 108–9
 - identifying pivot points, 109
 - investment in human resource programs, 109
- human capital strategy communication
 - and transformative HR, 154–5
 - connecting emotionally, 142–3
 - employee perceptions, 145–7
 - establishing credibility, 140
 - evidence-based change, 154–5
 - finding the “trust territory,” 143–5
 - four elements of persuasion, 140–3
 - frame for common ground, 141
 - Royal Bank of Canada example, 148–50
 - Starbucks example, 147
 - to managers and leaders, 148
 - use of compelling evidence, 141–2
 - use of vivid language, 141–2
- human resource (HR) metrics, 20
- human resource programs
 - investment in, 109
- human resource risk manager
 - function, 84–5
- human resource risks, 21, 58
 - impact on overall strategy, 104–5
 - nature of, 104–5
- human resource role
 - diverse definitions, 57–8
- human resource strategy, 3
 - analysis using HC BRidge framework, 127–31
 - assessing outcomes, 189–90
 - boundary spanning, 56–7
 - communication, 188–9
 - context, 50–80
 - diverse definitions of the HR role, 57–8
 - elements of, 186
 - engagement with, 188–9
 - formulation of, 188
 - global influences on future strategy, 190–4
 - headcount-gap analysis, 130–1
 - impact of blogs, 207
 - impact of crowdsourcing, 206–7
 - impact of globalization, 187
 - impact of social media, 207
 - impact of the virtual workplace, 205–6
 - incorporating other disciplines, 55–6
 - influence of technologies, 187
 - need for a new framework, 75
 - organizational context, 187
 - pivotal elements, 186
 - pivot points, 188
 - product line and process, 128–30
 - relationship to business strategy, 18–20
 - resource efficiency, 128
 - and risk, 21–3
 - risk management perspective, 71, 187–8
 - as risk mitigation, 85–9
 - risk of a bad hire, 92
 - strategy analysis, 186
- human resource strategy outcomes
 - Apple Inc. balanced scorecard, 165–7
 - balanced scorecard assessment, 160–5

- human resource functional excellence (HRFE) framework, 71–9
 - Boudreau–Ramstad HRFE framework, 75–7
 - need for a new framework, 75
 - and risk management, 77–9
 - search for a HR framework, 72–5
- Hurd, Mark, 170–1
- IBM, 29, 39, 55
 - board oversight of HR issues, 138
 - reporting to investors, 135
- impact
 - anchor point of HR planning, 109
- innovation
 - driving innovation, 194–8
 - opportunities from global connectivity, 32–3
 - risk from lack of, 194
 - source of competitive advantage, 8–9
 - sources of business innovation, 42–3
- innovation initiatives
 - Coromandel International Limited, 196–8
 - Menasha Packaging, 194–6
- integration and synergy principle, 155
- Intel, 8
- interactions and actions
 - Disneyland example, 116–18
- internal strengths and weaknesses, 6–8
- international travel
 - influences on consumers, 30
- internet, 32
 - impacts of global connectivity, 32–3
- investors
 - human capital reporting to, 135
- ISO 31000 guidance on risk management, 21
- Jaguar, 41
- Japanese companies
 - quality movement, 14
- Japanese earthquake of 2011
 - worldwide effects, 29
- ji*, Chinese concept of, 91
- Jobs, Steve, 42, 45–6
 - redefining industries, 40–1
- Johnson & Johnson
 - focus on values, 203–5
- Kiechel, Walter, 11
- Kleiner, Art, 11, 15
- Korn/Ferry, 22
- Kroger, 135
- L. L. Bean, 167
- labor
 - rising costs of, 32
- labor market
 - effects of technology, 34–5
 - impacts of globalization, 30–2, 34–5
- Lacy, Andrew, 65
- Lampel, Joseph, 11
- Land Rover, 41
- leadership
 - changing nature of, 192–3
 - cross-cultural leadership skills, 193
 - servant leadership concept, 192–3
- leadership changes
 - influence on future HR strategies, 192–3
- leadership succession systems
 - risk optimization, 97
- lean management, 14
- learning maps, 152–4
- legal issues
 - and globalization, 35–6
- Lexus, 8
- LG, 40

218 Index

- Ling, Bei, 151
- LinkedIn, 86, 191
- Linux, 33
- logic-driven analytics, 155
- Mainardi, C., 11, 15
- Manpower Group, 185
- Manpower Inc., 38, 205
- Mass-customizing rewards and employment deal, 95–6
- Matsushita, Konosuke, 47
- Mattel Toy Testers program, 57
- McDonald's, 17
- Medtronic, 8, 17
- Menasha Packaging
 - drive for innovation, 194–6
- Microsoft, 15
- Microsoft Windows™ operating system, 7
- Mintzberg, Henry, 11, 15
- mission statement, 17–18
- Mitsubishi, 39
- mobile phones market, 39–40
- Mohrman, Sue, 56
- Motorola, 14, 40
- multi-level context of HR strategy, 58
- multi-level framework
 - context of HR strategy, 52–5
- multinational corporations, 29
- multiple strategy models for HR, 74
- Murugappa Group, 196
- Nano automobile (Tata Motors), 16, 41–2
- Nestlé, 29
- Nokia, 39–40, 56
- open-source programming, 42
- open-source projects, 33
- operational effectiveness, 10–11
- operational excellence
 - as the key to winning, 13–14
- operational execution
 - and strategic success, 9–11
- operational risk mitigation
 - Disneyland example, 125–6
- opportunity
 - from crisis, 91
 - definition, 90–1
 - in employee turnover, 98–104
 - identifying, 3–6
 - relationship to risk, 91–2
 - risk and uncertainty, 86
- opportunity management, 23
- optimization principle, 155
- organization and talent
 - Disneyland example, 113–16
- organizational context
 - of HR strategy, 187
 - risk management perspective, 63–4
- organizational units
 - types of HR strategies, 59–63
- outsourcing, 15
 - political issues, 36–8
 - risks associated with, 36–8
- Paccar Inc., 4–5
- Pace, David, 147
- Pan Am, 41
- pay and performance alignment, 21
- PepsiCo
 - HC BRidge framework example, 126–7
 - strategic communication, 151–4
- performance levels in different jobs
 - implications of, 93
- performance yield
 - Disneyland example, 113–16
- personal computers
 - operating systems, 7
- Personnel Decisions International, 72
- pivot points
 - in HR strategy, 188
 - in human capital strategy, 109
 - in performance yield, 113–16
 - in processes, 113

- pivotal elements
 - in HR strategy, 186
 - of a strategy, 9–11
- pivotal interactions and actions
 - Disneyland example, 116–18
- pivotal roles
 - quality versus quantity pivotalness, 118–19
- pivotal talent
 - loss of, 185, 190–1
- Pixar, 40
- PNC Bank
 - risk-management decision making, 150–1
- policies and practices
 - Disneyland example, 121–3
- political issues
 - and globalization, 36–8
- Porter, Michael, 14–15, 61
 - “five-forces model”, 4–5, 6, 15
- position-based strategies, 11, 13, 14–15
- positioning within an industry, 5
- Post-it® notes, 6
- Prahalad, C. K., 16
- Procter & Gamble, 33
- product line and process
 - in the HR strategy, 128–30
- product-line model
 - approach to HR strategy, 72
- profit-center approach to HR strategy, 72
- “project oxygen” (Google), 200–2
- PSA Peugeot-Citroën, 29
- quality movement, 14
- Radian 6, 207
- Ramstad, Peter M., 72
- recession
 - adaptive strategies in response to, 5–6
- Red Cross, 11
- reengineering, 14, 15, 39, 43
- regulatory compliance, 21
- regulatory issues
 - and globalization, 35–6
- Reithofer, Norbert, 7
- resource efficiency
 - in the HR strategy, 128
- resource-based view of organizational success, 75
- resources
 - source of competitive advantage, 6–8
- resources and processes
 - Disneyland example, 112–13
- responsibility for major strategic decisions, 11
- rewards and employment deal
 - mass customization, 95–6
- Riegsecker, Mike, 195
- RIM, 40
- risk
 - and HR strategy, 21–3
 - and value creation, 20
 - balanced approach to, 185
 - crisis and opportunity, 185
 - definition, 90
 - HR risks, 21
 - loss of key talent, 185
 - range of responses to, 97–8
 - relationship to opportunity, 91–2
 - talent-related issues, 20
- risk leverage, 92, 155
- risk management, 21–3
 - activities, 22, 63
 - COSO cube framework, 22–3
 - and HR functional excellence, 77–9
 - objectives, 22, 63
 - organizational entity or level of analysis, 22
 - perspective on HR strategy, 71, 187–8
 - relationship to HR strategy, 133–4

220 Index

- risk-management decision making
 - PNC Bank, 150–1
- risk-management elements
 - and organizational context, 63–4
- risk-management framework, 22–3
 - combined with HC BRidge framework, 126–7
 - relationship to HR strategy, 133–4
- risk mitigation
 - approach to HR strategy, 92
 - through human capital, 124–5
 - human capital strategy as, 85–9
- risk of a bad hire
 - mitigation approach in HR strategy, 92
- risk optimization
 - building in flexibility for an uncertain future, 93–5
 - career-progression systems, 97
 - employee turnover, 98–104
 - implications of performance levels in different jobs, 93
 - leadership succession systems, 97
 - mass-customizing rewards and employment deal, 95–6
 - minimizing employee turnover, 96–7
 - perspective on HR strategy, 105
 - range of responses to risk, 97–8
 - traditional management models, 92–8
- Ritz-Carlton hotels, 8
- Rohr, James E., 150
- Royal Bank of Canada
 - human capital strategy communication, 148–50
- Royal Bank of Scotland, 142
- Samsung, 40
- SC Johnson, 190
- schools of thought
 - adaptation and experimentation strategies, 15–16
 - concentration school, 16
 - execution as the key to winning, 13–14
 - limitations of execution-based strategy, 14–15
 - position as the key to winning, 13, 14–15
 - strategy today, 16–17
 - views of Michael Porter, 14–15
- segmentation principle, 155
- servant leadership concept, 192–3
- Setty, Prasad, 56
- six sigma, 14, 39
- Skype, 33
- SMART goals, 18, 177
- smartphones, 40
- Smith, Fred, 8
- social media
 - influence on future HR strategies, 191
 - monitoring, 207
 - risk from ignoring, 194
- social networking services, 32
- Southwest Airlines, 2, 190
- Starbucks, 56
 - employee perceptions of HR strategy, 147
 - focus on values, 202–3
 - HR strategy communication, 147
 - “Make your mark program”, 168
- Stoffel, Bob, 46
- strategic business plan
 - relationship of HR strategy to, 18–20
- strategic communication
 - PepsiCo, 151–4
- strategic connections
 - HC BRidge framework, 110–11
 - in HR planning, 109
- strategic direction
 - ensuring coherence, 17–18
- strategic objectives, 17–18
- strategic planning process, 18
- strategic talent investments

- Disneyland example, 123–4
- strategy
 - conventional versus values-based view, 43–4
 - definition, 1–3
 - for competitive advantage, 8–9
 - formulation, 3–6
 - fundamental elements, 1–3
 - influence of company identity, 17
 - present-day approaches, 16–17
 - values-based approach, 44
 - values-based examples, 45–7
- strategy analysis
 - pivotal elements, 9–11
- strategy enabler
 - corporate identity, 3
- succession-planning risks, 21
- Sun Tzu, 13
- sustainable strategic success
 - Disneyland analysis, 112
- Swatscheno, Sharon, 195
- SWOT analysis, 13
- synergies within organizations, 60–1, 109
- synergy and integration principle, 155
- Synovus Financial, 190
- Sysco Corporation, 9–10, 17
 - five-star model, 171–3
 - assessing HR strategy outcomes, 171–6
 - balanced scorecard, 174–5
- talent
 - impact of loss of, 185
 - need to retain pivotal talent, 190–1
 - quality versus quantity pivotalness, 118–19
 - risk of losing key talent, 193–4
- talent alignment
 - Disneyland example, 123
- talent analytics, 198
 - Google, 200–2
- talent and skills scarcities
 - responses to, 83–4
- talent-management risks, 21
- talent performance-yield comparison, 113–16
- talent planning, 107–8
- talent-related risks, 20, 21
 - effects of globalization, 34–5
- Tapulous, 64–5
- Tata Nano automobile, 16, 41–2
- Tata, Rajan, 41, 42
- technological revolution, 32–3
- technology
 - effects on labor markets, 34–5
 - falling costs of, 32
 - influence on future HR strategies, 191
 - influence on HR strategies, 187
- theory Z, 43
- Thirlwell, John, 91
- threats
 - identifying, 3–6
- time orientation of strategy, 12
- total quality management, 43
- Toyota Motor Corporation, 14, 29
- transformative HR
 - role of strategy communication, 154–5
- Trilogy, 103
- Trippe, Juan, 41
- Twitter, 191, 207
- US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 21
- Ulrich, Dave, 73
- UNAIDS, 11, 17
- uncertainty
 - building in flexibility, 93–5
 - dealing with employee turnover, 98–104
 - definition, 89–90
 - risk and opportunity, 86
 - uncertainty management, 23
- understanding of HR strategy, 134–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02781-7 - Short Introduction to Strategic Human Resource Management

Wayne F. Cascio and John W. Boudreau

Index

More information222 Index

- Unilever, 29
- unique HR resources, 75
- Universal Weather and Aviation Inc.,
 - assessing HR strategy outcomes, 176–82
- UPS, 30
 - values-based view of strategy, 46–7
- value chain, 5, 15, 61
- value-chain functional units
 - strategy for, 50–1
- value-chain process unit
 - Disney “Imagineering”, 69–70
- value-chain processes, 60
- value-chain units
 - strategic approach, 61–2
- value creation
 - and risk, 20
- value propositions, 60
- values
 - lack of emphasis on, 194
- values-based decision making
 - Johnson & Johnson, 203–5
 - Starbucks, 202–3
- values-based strategy, 44, 202–5
 - examples, 45–7
- virtual mobility, 38
- virtual workplace, 205–6
- vision of an organization, 17
- von Clausewitz, Carl, 13
- Walgreens, 18
- Wal-Mart, 9
- Walt Disney Company. See Disney
- Wawa Inc., 198
- Welch, Jack, 28
- Whirlpool Corporation, 5
- Wikipedia, 42, 206
- women
 - work opportunities with virtual mobility, 38
- work
 - changes and future HR strategies, 192
 - changing nature of, 192
- World Economic Forum, 83
- Worley, Chris, 56
- Xerox
 - loss of competitive advantage, 7–8
- Yach, Derek, 126–7
- Zappos, 9, 167
- Zook, Chris, 16