

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02789-3 - International Business Strategy: Rethinking the Foundations of Global Corporate Success: Second Edition

Alain Verbeke

Index

More information

Index

- 3M 209, 552
- 3M Canada (case example) 47–8
- 3M core competencies case study 91
  - capitalizing on the global network 94
  - culture of innovation 91
  - developing the spirit of innovation 91–2
  - diversification 92–3
  - formative years 93
  - internationalization and global presence 93–6
  - troubled innovations 95
- ABB 232
- Accenture 478
- Acer Inc. 23, 348, 349, 410, 411, 461
  - case example 28
- administrative (governance-related) knowledge 6
- administrative heritage, MNE archetypes 16–24
- administrative (or institutional) distance 134, 135
- Advanced Micro Devices 117
- Aeon Co. 39
- Africa see Chinese business in Africa
- AIA (American International Assurance Company Limited) 436, 437
- AIG (American International Group) 181
- AIG case study 433–9
  - AIG bailout in 2008 437
  - building relationships in China 435–6
  - Chinese insurance industry (late 1970s and 1980s) 434–5
  - expansion strategies 433–4
  - filling the institutional voids in China 433
  - from relationships to business in China 436–7
  - impact of AIG in China 437
  - opening the market in China 435–7
  - origins 433–4
  - recent challenges and opportunities 438–9
- AIG General Insurance Company China Limited (AIG General) 436–7
- airlines global alliances (case example) 54–5
- Alcan Aluminum Ltd. 29
- Alcatel-Lucent (case example) 43
- Aldi 39, 152
- alliance-specific advantages (ASAs) 370
- Alstom 552
- Amelio, Bill 409
- American film producers, economic exposure (case example) 256–7
- Anand, Jaideep 362–4
- Anderson, Erin 360–2
- Anglo-Australian Rio Tinto 29
- Anheuser Busch – InBev case study 284–90
  - AB InBev global marketing strategy 289–90
  - background 284
  - Budweiser as American style lager 288–9
  - global marketing with social media 289
  - history of Anheuser-Busch 288
  - Interbrew develops global brands 285–6
  - Interbrew's local branding strategy 284–5
  - launch of Stella Artois as global flagship brand 286–7
  - switch to a new branding plan for Stella 287–8
- AOL 441
- Apple Inc. 122, 216, 220, 410, 411–12, 441
- Arakis Energy 500, 502
- Arnold, David 278–80, 329–33, 424–6
- Artois, Sebastien 284
- ASDA 153
- ASEAN countries 410
- Asian financial crisis (1997/1998) 48
- Asian markets, cultural aspects 138–9
- Assicurazioni Generali 438
- AST Research 33
- Astron Group Ltd 232
- Asus 411
- automobile industry, Japanese and US approaches compared 83–4
- Avon case study 255–64
  - background 255–62
  - financial options to manage exposure 262–3
  - future outlook 264
  - impacts of the 2008 recession 264
  - impacts of volatile exchange rates 255–62

- internal communications to manage potential risks 263
- managing exposure 262–4
- sources of operating exposure 262
- sourcing strategy 263
- transferring knowledge to manage exposure 263

- back office tyranny 556–9
- Baidu.com 446, 456
- Bain & Co. 137
- Ballinger, Jeff 509
- Barrick Gold Corporation 29
- Bartlett, Christopher 157, 158–62, 311–13
- Bartmess, Andrew 84–6
- BASF 29
- Baukol, Ronald 95
- Bayer AG 42, 552
- Bechtolsheim, Andy 440
- Bell Laboratories 117
- Benetton 335
- benevolent preference reversal 57–8
- benevolent resource recombination 561
- Benmosche, Robert H. 437
- BestPrice Modern Wholesale 153
- Bharti Airtel 457
- Bharti Enterprises 153
- biotechnology clusters 30–1
- biotechnology industry 121
- Birkinshaw, Julian 200–2, 278–80
- Black, J. S. 303–7
- Blackman, Ian 251–3
- BMW case study 236–42
  - acquisition of Rover Group 238–9
  - background 236–7
  - BMW's role in Rover's destruction 240–2
  - challenge of the UK market 238–9
  - end of Rover Group 240
  - history of BMW 237
  - impact of the First and Second World Wars 237
  - managerial deficiencies at Rover 241–2
  - motorcycle and automobile production 237–8
  - position in the global marketplace 238–9
  - post-war production 237–8
  - production decisions at Rover 241
  - Rover Group history 239
- Boeing Co. 138
- Bosch Telecom 232
- Boston Route 128 region (case study) 117, 118–23
  - attitude towards entrepreneurs and risk 120
  - corporate culture 119–20
  - current situation 121
  - educational infrastructure 118–19
  - factors in divergent performance between regions 119–21
  - foreign investment 122
  - government funding as the catalyst 119
  - influence of the dominant design 121
  - influence of the initial leading firm 119
  - replicating elsewhere 123
  - self-sufficient corporations versus relational networks 120–1
  - success factors 118–19
  - venture capital 119
- bounded rationality 8–9, 52–7
  - airlines global alliances 54–5
  - definition 52–3
  - divergence in management decision-making approaches 55–7
  - Fuji Xerox 56–7
  - Häagen-Dazs 53
  - implications for international business strategy 54–5
  - in mergers and acquisitions 388–9
  - incomplete information problem 53
  - information problems 52–3
  - information processing difficulties 53
  - international expansion and core competencies 84–6
  - multifaceted information 55–6
  - optimal entry mode problem 54
  - use of due process principles 163–4
  - Wal-Mart 53
  - Xerox 56–7
- bounded reliability 8–9, 57–9
  - benevolent preference reversal 57–8
  - definition 57
  - good faith local prioritization 57, 58
  - in mergers and acquisitions 388–9
  - opportunism 57, 58
  - scaling back on over-commitments 57, 58
  - sources of 57–8
  - use of due process principles 164
  - use of governance mechanisms 58–9
- Bowerman, Bill 508
- BP (British Petroleum Ltd) 20
  - Deepwater Horizon oil spill (2010) 546
- BPI (Beauté Prestige International) 125, 126–7
- Brabeck-Letmathe, Peter 175, 178, 179
- brand image, importance in Asian markets 139
- brand names 6
  - as location-bound FSAs 26
  - for Asian markets 139
- Brent Spar (Shell) controversy 538–41
- Brin, Sergey 440–1, 445
- Bristol-Myers-Squibb 528

Index

- Buckee, Jim 499, 502
 Buckley, George 95
 Bulcke, Paul 179
 bullwhip effect 335
 Burggraave, Chris 289
 Burroughs 183 business incentives, location advantages 30
Business Week 1
- California Management Review (CMR)* 1–2
California Management Review articles core competencies (Bartmess and Cerny, 1993) 84–6 corporate environmental sustainability (Kolk and Pinkse, 2005) 527–9 corporate social responsibility (CSR) (Vachani and Smith, 2004) 490–3 economic exposure (Rugman, 1980) 253–4 emerging economies (Letelier, Flores and Spinosa, 2003) 427 emerging economy MNEs (EMNEs) (Tsai and Eisingerich, 2010) 459–62 foreign distributors (Lee, 2002) 335–6 home country location advantages (Tece, 1992) 108–9 host country location advantages (Schmitt and Pan, 1994) 138–9 international innovation (Inkpen, 2005) 202–3 international marketing (Arnold, Birkinshaw and Toulan, 2001) 278–80 international sourcing and production (Galbraith, 1990) 226–7 management of subsidiary networks (Neghandi, Eshghi and Yuen, 1985) 164–6 managing expatriates (Bartlett and Ghoshal, 1988) 311–13 mergers and acquisitions (Inkpen, Sundaram and Rockwood, 2000) 392–3 strategic alliance partners (Kale and Anand, 2006) 362–4
- Canada, natural resources (case example) 28–9
 Canon 82, 552
 Capretta, Tony 233
 Carlton, Richard 91
 Carrefour (case example) 39
 case examples
 3M Canada 47–8
 Acer Inc 28
 airlines global alliances 54–5
 Alcatel-Lucent 43
 American film producers economic exposure 256–7
 biotechnology clusters 30–1
 BP (British Petroleum Ltd) 20
 Canada's natural resources 28–9
 Carrefour 39
 Cisco 7–8
 Citibank 25–6, 48, 49–50
 ConocoPhillips 52
 Data General Corp. (DGC) 46–7
 Disney 19
 EnCana 52
 ExxonMobil 32
 FDI in China 33
 Federal Express 6–7
 Ford 18
 French perfume industry 30
 Fuji Xerox 56–7
 Germany's skilled workforce 29
 Goodyear 45–6, 258
 Häagen-Dazs 53
 Honeywell 47
 Hong Kong hotels 26–7
 hotel industry 26–7
 HP (Hewlett-Packard) 46, 49
 India's location advantages 30
 Japanese home appliances industry 29
 Jollibee 42–3
 Kao 25
 KFC (Kentucky Fried Chicken) in China 33
 Lafarge Group 22, 257
 Logitech 20–1, 34
 McDonald's in China 33
 Montedison 51–2
 NEC 17
 Nippon Data General Corporation (NDG) 46–7
 North American Free Trade Association (NAFTA) 31
 Office Depot 27–8
 Parke-Davis 44–5
 Peninsula hotel group 26–7
 Philips 21–2, 45
 Procter & Gamble (P&G) 50
 Ralph Lauren Polo brand 26
 Ranbaxy 42
 Samsung Electronics 33
 Statoil 259–60
 TRW Automotive 50–1
 US biotechnology clusters 30–1
 Wal-Mart 53
 Warner Bros. Pictures 17
 Warner-Lambert 44–5
 Whirlpool Corporation 44
 Xerox 56–7
- case studies
 AIG (American International Group) 433–9

- Anheuser Busch – InBev (international marketing) 284–90
- Avon (exchange rate exposure) 255–64
- BMW (internationalizing production) 236–42
- Boston Route 128 region 117, 118–23
- CEMEX (mergers and acquisitions) 397–403
- Chinese business in Africa 466–71
- Danone and Wahaha Group (strategic alliances) 365–82
- Dell (foreign distributors) 344–50
- Flextronics (defining roles of manufacturing plants) 228–36
- Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts (international business strategy) 65–70
- Google (emerging economies) 439–49
- Haier Group (international marketing) 291–8
- Honda (international business strategy) 61–4
- IKEA (core competencies) 96–100
- industrial hot spots 117–23
- Infosys Limited (emerging economy MNE) 472–8
- Lenovo (mergers and acquisitions) 404–12
- LVMH (managing expatriates) 318–23
- Nestlé (management of subsidiary networks) 175–9
- Nike (corporate social responsibility) 508–14
- Porsche (economic exposure) 265
- Shell (corporate environmental sustainability) 536–46
- Shiseido (home country location advantages) 124–8
- Siemens (globalizing R&D) 208–11
- Silicon Valley 117–23
- Sony (international innovation) 211–16
- Starbucks (host country location advantages) 142–9
- Talisman Energy (corporate social responsibility) 499–507
- Tata Group (management of subsidiary networks) 180–8
- Wal-Mart in Germany (cultural distance effects) 149–54
- Castiglioni, Camillo 237
- CEMEX 23, 427
- CEMEX case study 397–403
- background 397
- developing ‘the CEMEX way’ 398–9
- global cement industry 397–8
- integration of acquired companies 399–400
- learning to acquire abroad 399–400
- new areas of international expansion 401–2
- Rinker Group acquisition in 2007 402–3
- struggle with the recession since 2007 402–3
- systemizing the acquisition process 400–1
- centralized exporter MNEs 16–17
- approach to expanding abroad 136
- core competencies 82
- dealing with foreign distributors 334
- distance factor in foreign markets 140–2, 144
- economic exposure challenge 256–7
- in globalized markets 273–4
- marketing strategy in emerging economies 427
- moving away from MNE archetypes 311, 312, 313
- NEC 17
- Pattern I 40–1
- Porter’s view 110
- product standardization 280
- relationship with emerging economies 431–2
- strategic positioning 35–8
- subsidiary management 158, 162, 166
- Warner Bros. Pictures 17
- Cerny, Keith 84–6
- Chandrasekaran, Natarajan 185
- Chartis Inc. 436–7
- Chartis Insurance Company China Limited 436–7, 438
- Chattopadhyay, Rita 210
- Chemical Manufacturers Association 525
- Chevron Petroleum 32, 500, 546
- China
- cultural distance for Western firms 135
- foreign direct investment (FDI) 33
- importance of guan’xi (good relationships) 435
- China National Offshore Oil Corporation (CNOOC) 466–7
- China National Petroleum Corporation (CNPC) 466–7
- China Pacific Insurance Company 435
- China Petroleum and Chemical Corporation (Sinopec) 466–7
- Chinese business in Africa, case study 466–71
- African perspective on Chinese investments 470
- China’s energy security strategy 467–8
- China’s motives for internationalization 468–9
- China’s primary oil and gas firms 466–7
- history of Sino-African relations 468
- idiosyncratic features of Chinese energy firms 471
- Western perspective and concerns 470–1
- Chinese insurance industry see AIG
- Christian Dior 127
- Chrysler 82
- Cisco Systems 7–8, 229, 336
- Citibank 252
- case examples 25–6, 48, 49–50

Index

- Clean Air Act (US, 1970) 61
- Clinton, Bill 510
- CMR* see California Management Review
- Coca-Cola 425, 552
- Cognizant 478
- Colgate-Palmolive 307
- collectivist nature of Asian societies 139
- competency carriers 81–2
- complementary resources of external actors 8, 51–2
  - ConocoPhillips 52
  - EnCana 52
  - Montedison 51–2
- ConocoPhillips (case example) 52
- Contreras, Michael 48
- copyright 135
- core competencies
  - 3M case study 91
  - acquisition through external alliances 82
  - bounded rationality problem of international expansion 84–6
  - CMR* article (Bartmess and Cerny, 1993) 84–6
  - competency carriers 81–2
  - context of Prahalad and Hamel article 82
  - creation of end products 80
  - definition 79
  - developing strategic architecture 81–2
  - HBR* article (Prahalad and Hamel, 1990) 79–82
  - Honda example 80
  - identifying 80–1
  - IKEA case study 96–100
  - Japanese and US firms compared 82–4
  - learning objectives 79
  - management insights 87
  - management takeaways 88–91
  - need for co-location of activities 84–6
  - production of core products 80
  - risks associated with outsourcing 82
  - significance of 79–82
  - SMR* article (Egelhoff, 1993) 82–4
  - weaknesses in Prahalad and Hamel's analysis 89–90
- core products 80
- corporate environmental sustainability
  - automobile industry 525
  - chemical industry 525
  - CMR* article (Kolk and Pinkse, 2005) 527–9
  - context of Porter and van der Linde's article 523–4
  - Dow Chemical 521
  - Dutch flower industry 522
  - environmental performance of energy firms 546
  - General Electric (GE) example 523–4
  - HBR* article (Porter and van der Linde, 1995) 519–22
  - impact of government-imposed environmental regulations 519–22
  - learning objectives 519
  - limitations of Porter and van der Linde's analysis 530–5
  - management insights 529
  - management takeaways 530
  - patterns of environmental FSA development 532–4
  - pollution havens 532
  - pulp and paper industry 522
  - resource productivity model of environmental regulation 520
  - Shell case study 536–46
  - SMR* article (Hart and Milstein, 1999) 524–7
  - social activist perspective 524–7
  - strategies that firms can use 527–9
  - trigger for innovation 521
- corporate image, importance in Asian markets 139
- corporate name, for Asian markets 139
- corporate social responsibility (CSR)
  - CMR* article (Vachani and Smith, 2004) 490–3
  - context of Dunn and Yamashita's article 487–8
  - doing well by doing good 483–7
  - drug pricing in developing countries 490–3
  - HBR* article (Dunn and Yamashita, 2003) 483–7
  - HP (Hewlett-Packard) example 484–7
  - improving labour standards in developing countries 488–90
  - learning objectives 483
  - limitations on the analyses in the articles 494–8
  - management insights 494
  - management takeaways 495
  - Nike case study 508–14
  - SMR* article (Locke and Ramis, 2007) 488–90
  - Talisman Energy case study 499–507
  - Tata Group initiatives 185
- Corrigan, Wilf 120
- Corus Group 181
- Coty Inc. 264
- cross-border location advantages 31
- cultural distance 134, 135, 138–9
  - Starbucks case study 142–9
  - Wal-Mart in Germany 149–54
- customer interface resources 6
- Daewoo Commercial Vehicle Company 181
- Dairy Queen, in China 33
- Danone and Wahaha Group case study 365–82
  - beginning of cooperation 375–6
  - Danone's international expansion 365–74

- Danone's joint ventures and acquisitions in China 374–5
 dispute related to strategic alliance 365 history of Danone 365–74 history of Wahaha Group 375–6 long-term conflicts become public 376–7 unfolding and outcome of the dispute 380–2 what went wrong (commentators' view) 379–80 what went wrong (Danone's view) 378–9 what went wrong (Wahaha's view) 377–8
- Data General Corp. (DGC) (case example) 46–7
- Dauch, Richard E. 83
- Dell, Inc. 410, 411
- Dell, Michael 344–5, 349, 350, 408
- Dell case study 344–50
 characteristics of the mainland China PC market 346 Dell's retail move in China 349–50 direct model in China (1998–2004) 346 direct model with minor adaptations for China 346–7 direct sales model 344–5 distribution strategy in China 344 dual system model (1998–2004) 347–8 exporting to China (pre-1998) 345–6 growth of the Chinese PC retail market (after 2004) 348–9 history of Dell 344–5 international expansion (pre-1998) 345–6 rethinking retail in China 350
- Delta airline 55
- Deng Xiaoping 434
- Digital Equipment 220
- Digital Equipment Corporation (DEC) 118, 119
- Disney 19
- distance between countries, types of 134
- distribution see foreign distributors
- Donaldson, John E. 262
- dot-com bubble 137
- double diamond model 110–13, 200, 532
- Dow Chemical 521
- downstream knowledge 6
- Doz, Yves 308–11, 355–9
- Drew, Dick 91
- dual branding strategy 459
- due process (procedural justice) approach to subsidiary management 163–4
- Duke, Mike 153
- Dunn, Debra 483–7
- DuPont 525
- Durex Corporation 93
- Eastman Kodak 56
- eBay 456
- economic clusters, location advantages 30–1
- economic distance 134, 136
- economic exposure assessing economic exposure 246–8
 Avon case study 255–64
 capability to adjust inputs 248–50
 CMR article (Rugman, 1980) 253–4 context of Lessard and Lightstone's article 251
 definition 246
 exchange rate pass-through strategy 248–50
 HBR article (Lessard and Lightstone, 1986) 245, 246–51 impact on location advantages 248 impacts of exchange rate fluctuations 245, 246–51
- Laker Airways example 249–50
- learning objectives 245
- limitations of Lessard and Lightstone's analysis 254–61
- management approaches 250–1
- management insights 254–61
- management takeaways 255
- Motorola example 251–3
- Porsche case study 265
- real versus nominal exchange rates 247–8
- role in MNE strategy formation 253–4
- SMR article (Holland, Lockett, Richard and Blackman, 1994) 251–3 sources of economic exposure 246–8
- educational system, location advantage 29
- efficiency, motivation for FDI 33–4
- Egelhoff, William G. 82–4
- Eisingerich, Andreas B. 459–62
- Eitel, Maria 511
- Electrolux 220
- Eli Lilly 198–9
- emerging economies
 AIG case study 433–9
 challenges and opportunities for MNEs 417–26
 CMR article (Letelier, Flores and Spinosa, 2003) 427 context of Khanna et al.'s article 424 definition of emerging economy 418
 Google case study 439–49
 HBR article (Khanna and Palepu, 1997) 418
 HBR article (Khanna, Palepu and Sinha, 2005) 418–24 intellectual property rights (IPR) 422
 learning objectives 417
 limitations of Khanna et al.'s analysis 430–2 management insights 428–32

Index

- emerging economies (cont.)
  - management takeaways 429–33
  - marketing strategy for MNEs 424–6
  - presence of institutional voids 418–24
  - role in the world economy 417–24
  - SMR article (Arnold and Quelch, 1998) 424–6
- emerging economy MNEs (EMNEs) 23–4
  - Chinese business in Africa (case study) 466–71
  - CMR article (Tsai and Eisingerich, 2010) 459–62
  - context of Ghemawat and Hout's article 458
  - dual branding strategy 459
  - 'good enough' market segment 458–9
  - HBR article (Ghemawat and Hout, 2008) 455, 456–8
  - Huawei Technologies example 458–9
  - Infosys Limited case study 472–8
  - international expansion challenges 457–8
  - internationalisation strategies 459–62
  - learning objectives 455
  - limitations of Ghemawat and Hout's
    - analysis 464–5
  - management insights 462
  - management takeaways 463
  - predicting future global giants 455, 456–8
  - response to home country entry by foreign MNEs 457
  - rise of Chinese MNEs 458–9
  - smiling curve concept 461–2
  - SMR article (Gadiesh and Vestring, 2008) 458–9
- EMI 159
- EnCana (case example) 52
- entry mode decision making, bounded rationality
  - problem 54
- entry modes see foreign distributors; mergers and acquisitions; strategic alliance partners
- Eresman, Randy 52
- Ericsson 122, 457
- Eriksson, Håkan 122
- Erskine, Alex 48
- Eshghi, Golpira 164–6
- European Union (EU) 4, 112–13
- exchange rate pass-through strategy 248–50
- expatriate managers see managing expatriates
- ExxonMobil 546
  - case example 32
- Facebook 120, 448–9
- Fairchild Semiconductor 117, 119, 120
- Federal Express 6–7, 277
- Felice, Steve 350
- Ferdows, Kasra 219–24
- Ferreira, Jose, Jr 263
- financial resources 5
  - Financial Times* 1
  - firm-specific advantages see FSAs
  - firms, resource base available 5–6
  - FirstEnergy 527
  - flexible manufacturing systems 225–6
  - Flextronics 230, 552
  - Flextronics case study 228–36
    - acquiring a global presence 232–3
    - activities in Asia 235–6
    - aggressive acquisitions strategy 232
    - background 228–32
    - global network of manufacturing plants 232–3
    - industrial parks focus 233–4
    - production in China 233–4, 235–6
    - restructuring the global network of plants 234–5
  - Flores, Fernando 427
  - Foggio, Richard 263
  - Foo Piau Phang 347
  - Ford 18, 181, 220, 558
    - purchase of Land Rover 240, 241
  - foreign direct investment (FDI)
    - definition 32
    - efficiency seeking 33–4
    - ExxonMobil 32
    - in China 33
    - Logitech 34
    - market seeking 32–3
    - motivations for 31–4
    - natural resource seeking 32
    - Samsung Electronics 33
    - strategic resource seeking 33
  - foreign distributors
    - bullwhip effect 335
    - CMR article (Lee, 2002) 335–6
    - context of Arnold's article 333–4
    - Dell case study 344–50
    - HBR article (Arnold, 2000) 329–33
    - learning objectives 329
    - limitations of Arnold's analysis 340–3
    - management insights 337
    - management takeaways 338–44
    - role in international strategy 329–33
    - seven guidelines for MNEs 332–3
    - SMR article (Thomas and Wilkinson, 2006) 334–5
    - supply chain management 335–6
  - foreign investment
    - Route 128 122
    - Silicon Valley 122
  - Fortune* 1
  - Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts case study
    - background 65

- building on the four pillars in international expansion 67–8
- defining international core operating standards 69–70
- defining international service culture standards 69–70
- developing the four pillars of success 65–7
- digital media strategy as an essential pillar 70
- exceptional luxury hotels as first pillar 66
- Four Seasons George V, Paris 68, 69–70
- intuitive and caring culture as third pillar 67
- medium-sized Four Seasons hotel with a French flavour 68, 69–70
- specializing in hotel management as fourth pillar 67
- uncompromising service as second pillar 66–7
- France, perfume industry (case example) 30
- freestanding companies 22–3
- Friends of the Earth 545
- Fry, Nick 200–2
- FSA (firm-specific advantages) 5–8
  - development patterns see patterns of FSA development
  - recombination capacity as highest-order FSA 39–40
  - see also* unifying framework
- Fuji Xerox (case example) 56–7
- Fujino, Michimasa 64

- Gadiesh, Orit 458–9
- Galbraith, Craig 226–7
- GAP 511
- Gates, Bill 443
- Gateway 410
- Geely 405
- Genentech 171
- General Electric (GE) 138, 386, 560
  - ecoimagination initiatives 523–4
- General Motors (GM)
  - learning about the Toyota Production System 202–3
  - NUMMI alliance 202–3
- geographic (or spatial) distance 134, 135–6
- Germany, educational system (case example) 29
  - see also* Wal-Mart in Germany
- Ghadar, Fariborz 385–90
- Ghemawat, Pankaj 134–7, 385–90, 455, 456–8
- Ghoshal, Sumantra 157, 158–62, 311–13
- Gifford, Kathie Lee 510
- Gillette 459
- Glenn, T. Michael 7
- global corporate success
  - avoiding the tragedy of the commons 559, 560
  - back office activities vs front office needs 556–9
  - benevolent resource recombination 561
  - dominance of regional over global strategies 552–4
  - escaping from back office tyranny 556–9
  - key building blocks 551
  - limitations of most models 551
  - 'new forms' of international expansion 554–5
  - radical innovation vs internal coherence 555–6
  - respect for social justice 561
  - rising importance of recombination capabilities 559–61
    - themes related to 551–2
- Global Manufacturing Futures Surveys project 220
- globalization, and the dot-com bubble 137
- Godfrey, Vivian P. 53
- Gome 350
- Gonzalez, Fernando 403
- 'good enough' market segment in China 458–9
- good faith local prioritization 57, 58
- Goodyear (case examples) 45–6, 258
- Google 122, 456
  - Google Android operating system 412, 441, 446, 447–8
  - Google case study 439–49
    - adaptation to censorship in India 448–9
    - challenges for Chinese Googlers 443–5
    - core principles 441–2
    - core principles challenge in China 442–3
    - cost of maintaining its principles in China 443
    - culture of Google 440–2
    - decision to comply with censorship in China 443–5
    - end of cooperation with China 445
    - Google India 447
    - government control of the Internet in China 442–3
    - growth potential in India 447–8
    - hacking of information about Chinese activists 445
    - history of Google 440–1
    - international expansion strategy 439–40
    - issues limiting Internet use in India 446–7
    - life as a Googler 441–2
    - life as a Googler in India 447
    - limits to democracy on the web 448–9
    - price of principle in China 446
    - renewed presence in China (2012) 446
    - reverse innovation 440
    - success of Google India 447–8
    - troubled relationship with the Chinese government 443–5
  - Google Play 446, 447–8

Index

- Gopalakrishnan, Kris 473
 Goulding, Ken 438 governance mechanisms, to control bounded reliability 58–9 governance-related knowledge 6
 Grameen Bank 427
 Greenberg, Maurice 434, 435–6, 438
 Greenpeace 538–9, 540
 Gregersen, H. B. 303–7
 GTE 82
 guan'xi (good relationships) 435
 Guo, Charles 409
- Häagen-Dazs (case example) 53
 Haas School of Business, University of California,
 Berkeley 1–2
 Haier 24
 Haier Group case study 291–8
 background 291
 diversification through joint ventures and M&A 292–3
 early years 291–2
 Haier's strategy 297–8
 improving product quality and reputation 291–2 internationalization 293–6 product portfolio and market share 296–7
 Zhang Ruimin 291–8
 Hamel, Gary 79–82, 355–9
 Harada, Setsuo 214
 Harris, John 178
 Harrisons & Crosfield 22–3
 Hart, Stuart 524–7
 Harvard 118
Harvard Business Review (HBR) 1–2
Harvard Business Review articles core competencies (Prahalad and Hamel, 1990) 79–82 corporate environmental sustainability (Porter and van der Linde, 1995) 519–22 corporate social responsibility (CSR) (Dunn and Yamashita, 2003) 483–7 economic exposure (Lessard and Lightstone, 1986) 245, 246–51 emerging economies (Khanna and Palepu, 1997) 418 emerging economies (Khanna, Palepu and Sinha, 2005) 418–24 emerging economy MNEs (EMNEs) (Ghemawat and Hout, 2008) 455, 456–8 foreign distributors (Arnold, 2000) 329–33 home country location advantages (Porter, 1990) 103–6
 host country location advantages (Ghemawat, 2001) 134–7 international innovation (Kuemmerle, 1997) 195, 196–9 international marketing (Levitt, 1983) 273–5 international sourcing and production (Ferdows, 1997) 219–24 management of subsidiary networks (Bartlett and Ghoshal, 1986) 157, 158–62 managing expatriates (Black and Gregersen, 1999) 303–7 mergers and acquisitions (Ghemawat and Ghadar, 2000) 385–90 strategic alliance partners (Hamel, Doz and Prahalad, 1989) 355–9
 Harvard Business School, Tata donation in 2010 186
HBR see Harvard Business Review
 HCL 478
 Helstab, Susan 70
 Hennessy see LVMH
 Hercules (polypropylene producer) 51–2
 Hewlett-Packard see HP
 Hirai, Kazuo 216
 Hiran, Ashvini 186
 Hitachi 215
 Hofstede, Geert 308
 Holcim 397, 398, 399
 Holland, Christopher 251–3
 home country location advantages
 Boston Route 128 region (case study) 117,
 118–23
CMR article (Teece, 1992) 108–9 context of Porter's diamond approach 106–7 dangers of relying on natural factor endowments 104
HBR article (Porter, 1990) 103–6 industrial hot spots (case study) 117–23
 learning objectives 103
 management insights 110
 management takeaways 111
 Porter's diamond 103–7
 Shiseido (case study) 124–8
SMR article (Kuemmerle, 2005) 107–8 weaknesses in Porter's diamond model 110–16 Home Depot 334, 424
 Honda 82
 core competencies 80
 stake in BLMC 239
 Honda, Soichiro 61, 64
 Honda case study developing the US supplier network 63 environment in the early 1970s 61

- first US feasibility study 61–2
- Honda's legacy 64
- initial approach to the US market 61–2
- international business strategy
  - formation 61–4
  - motorcycle manufacturing in the US 63
  - move into aircraft manufacturing 64
  - second US feasibility study 62
  - selecting and training US employees 63
  - start of car manufacturing in the US 63–4
- Honda of America 306
- Honeywell 119
  - case example 47
- Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank 22–3
- Hong Kong hotels (case example) 26–7
- Hoover 275
- host country location advantages 31–4
  - administrative (or institutional) distance 134, 135
  - categories of distance between countries 134
  - CMR article (Schmitt and Pan, 1994) 138–9
  - context of Ghemawat's analysis 137
  - cultural distance 134, 135, 138–9
  - distance analysis and foreign market potential 136–7
  - economic distance 134, 136
  - geographic (or spatial) distance 134, 135–6
  - HBR article (Ghemawat, 2001) 134–7
  - learning objectives 133
  - limitations of Ghemawat's analysis 142–5
  - management insights 140
  - management takeaways 142
  - outsourcing/offshoring for cost reduction 137–8
  - risks and costs associated with 'distance' 133, 134–7
  - selling to Asian markets 138–9
  - SMR article (Vestring, Rouse and Reinert, 2005) 137–8
  - Starbucks (case study) 142–9
  - Wal-Mart in Germany (case study) 149–54
- hotel industry (case example) 26–7
- Hounsfeld, Godfrey 159
- Hout, Thomas 455, 456–8
- HP (Hewlett-Packard) 117, 120, 209, 220, 228, 349, 350, 410–11
  - case examples 46, 49
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) 484–7
- HSBC Banking Group 171
- Huawei Technologies 122, 458–9
- hub and spoke concept, Federal Express 6–7
- human resources 5
- Hydro Aluminum 220
- Iacocca, Lee 62
- IBM 56, 183, 215, 220, 457, 552
  - launch of the personal computer (PC) 404
  - sale of PC business to Lenovo 404, 407–8
- Ibuka, Masaru 211
- IKEA case study 96–100
  - background 96–8
  - designing for children 98
  - development of the IKEA formula 96–8
  - diversification 98
  - flat packaging 97
  - learning and adapting in international markets 98–9
  - low-cost in-house design 97
  - low-cost materials and designs 98
  - low-cost service focus 97
  - low-cost supply strategy 97–8
  - managing international operations 99–100
  - mobilizing staff intuition and learning 98
  - showroom/warehouse idea 97
  - structural changes in the early 1990s 99–100
- Immelt, Jeff 523–4
- InBev see Anheuser Busch – InBev case study
- Inco Limited 29
- India, location advantages 30
- industrial hot spots (case study) 117–23
  - attitude towards entrepreneurs and risk 120
  - corporate culture 119–20
  - current situation 121
  - educational infrastructure 118–19
  - factors in divergent performance between regions 119–21
  - foreign investment 122
  - government funding as the catalyst 119
  - influence of the dominant design 121
  - influence of the initial leading firm 119
  - regional network 120–1
  - replicating elsewhere 123
  - self-sufficient corporations versus relational networks 120–1
  - success factors 118–19
  - venture capital 119
- Infosys Limited 209
- Infosys Limited case study 472–8
  - alliances 474
  - building tomorrow's enterprise 474
  - company background 472–3
  - future prospects 478
  - history of Infosys 472
  - human resources management 476–7
  - India's location advantages 477–8
  - major Indian IT competitors 478
  - sustainability 475–6

Index

- Inkpen, Andrew C. 202–3, 392–3
- innovation
- driven by local market demands 29
  - radical innovation vs internal coherence 555–6
  - see also* international innovation
- institutional distance 134, 135
- institutional voids in emerging economies 418–24
- Instrumentation Engineering Inc. 235
- Intel 117, 404, 552
- intellectual property rights 135, 422
- Interbrew see Anheuser Busch – InBev case study
- international business publications 1–2
- need for a unifying framework 2
- international business strategy
- definition 4
  - Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts case study 65–70
  - Honda case study 61–4
  - implications for MNE performance 253
  - major business publications 1–2
  - seven key questions for managers 60
  - strategic linkages 34–8
  - takeaway messages for managers 60
- international coordinator MNEs 19–21
- approach to expanding abroad 136
  - BP (British Petroleum Ltd) 20
  - distance factor in foreign markets 144
  - economic exposure challenge 258–60
  - international diffusion of FSAs 314–16
  - joint ventures 363–4
  - Logitech 20–1
  - Pattern I 40–1
  - Porter's view 110
  - recombination of internationally dispersed resources 200
  - relationship with emerging economies 431–2
  - strategic positioning 35–8
  - supply chain management 336
- international distribution see foreign distributors
- international expansion, 'new forms' of 554–5
- international finance see economic exposure
- international innovation
- CMR article (Inkpen, 2005) 202–3
  - context of Kuemmerle's article 199–200
  - decentralizing R&D 195, 196–9
  - development of foreign R&D units 196–8
  - Eli Lilly example 198–9
  - external subsidiary initiatives 201
  - General Motors (GM) example 202–3
  - HBR article (Kuemmerle, 1997) 195, 196–9
  - home-base-augmenting R&D sites 196, 197, 198, 201, 204
  - home-base-exploiting R&D sites 196, 197, 198–9, 204–5
  - influence of the corporate immune system 201–2
  - internal subsidiary initiatives 200–1
  - learning objectives 195
  - limitations of Kuemmerle's analysis 205–7
  - management insights 204–7
  - management takeaways 205–8
  - Matsushita example 199
  - Siemens case study 208–11
  - SMR article (Birkinshaw and Fry, 1998) 200–2
  - Sony case study 211–16
  - types of host country R&D facilities 196
  - Xerox example 198
- international marketing
- Anheuser Busch – InBev case study 284–90
  - argument for global standardization 273–5
  - CMR article (Arnold, Birkinshaw and Toulan, 2001) 278–80
  - context of Levitt's article 276
  - Federal Express example 277
  - Haier Group case study 291–8
  - HBR article (Levitt, 1983) 273–5
  - homogenization of consumer preferences 273–5
  - Hoover example 275
  - impacts of the Internet 277–8
  - learning objectives 273
  - limitations of Levitt's model 281–3
  - management insights 280
  - management takeaways 281–4
  - SMR article (Quelch and Klein, 1996) 276–8
  - Sun Microsystems example 276–7
- international projector MNEs 17–19
- approach to expanding abroad 136
  - core competencies 82
  - decentralizing R&D 195, 196–9
  - Disney 19
  - distance factor in foreign markets 140–2, 144
  - economic exposure challenge 257–8
  - evolution of 200
  - Ford 18
  - foreign factories 228–9
  - in globalized markets 273–4
  - international diffusion of FSAs 314–16
  - Internet intermediaries 278
  - joint ventures 363–4
  - marketing strategy in emerging economies 427
  - model of knowledge flows 204
  - moving away from MNE archetypes 311
  - Pattern I 40–1
  - Porter's view 110
  - product standardization 280
  - regional integration effects on subsidiaries 173

- relationship with emerging economies 431–2
- strategic positioning 35–8
- subsidiary management 158, 162, 166
- transformation into multi-centred MNE 308
- trend towards regionalization 225
- international sourcing and production
  - BMW case study 236–42
  - CMR article (Galbraith, 1990) 226–7
  - context for Ferdows' article 224–5
  - contributor factory 223, 229
  - Flextronics case study 228–36
  - HBR article (Ferdows, 1997) 219–24
  - lead factory 223, 229
  - learning objectives 219
  - limitations of Ferdows' analysis 229–31
  - making the most of foreign factories 219–24
  - management insights 227–31
  - management takeaways 228
  - NCR example 224
  - offshore factory 222, 228–9
  - outpost factory 222, 228–9
  - possible roles for foreign manufacturing facilities 221–3
  - server factory 222, 228–9
  - SMR article (MacCormack, Newman and Rosenfield, 1994) 225–6
  - Sony example 224
  - source factory 222–3, 229
- internationally transferable FSAs
  - (non-location-bound FSAs) 5–8, 13, 15–24
  - paradox of transferability 15–16
  - strategic linkages 34–8
  - tacit knowledge 16
- Internet, impacts on international marketing 277–8
- Internet intermediaries 278
- Islamic banking 427
- Jaguar 181
- Jain, Raj 154
- Jap, Sandy 360–2
- Japan, home appliances industry (case example) 29
- Japanese firms, strategic approach 82–4
- Japanese MNE subsidiary management 164–6, 172
- Jean Paul Gaultier 125, 126–7
- Jiang Zemin 435
- Jollibee (case example) 42–3
- Jones, Hannah 514
- JP Morgan 409
- Jung, Andrea 264
- just-in-time system 64, 225–6
- Kaeser, Joe 210
- Kale, Prashant 362–4
- Kamprad, Ingvar 96
- Kanak, Donald 438
- Kao (case example) 25
- Kawashima, Kiyoshi 61–2
- Keck, Beth 151
- Kelly, Phil 346
- Kessler, August 536
- KFC (Kentucky Fried Chicken) 136
  - in China (case example) 33
- Khanna, Tarun 418–24
- Kim, W. Chan 162–4
- Klein, Lisa 276–8
- Knight, Phil 508, 509, 510
- Kobayashi, Tony 57
- Kolk, Ans 527–9
- Kuemmerle, Walter 107–8, 195, 196–9
- Kuenheim, Eberhard von 238
- L'Oréal Groupe 127
- Lafarge Group 22, 397, 398
  - case example 257
- Laker Airways 249–50
- Land Rover 181
- Latin American debt crisis (1980s) 48
- Le Calvez, Didier 69–70
- lean manufacturing principles, Toyota Production System 202–3
- Lee, Hau L. 335–6
- Lee, Kai-Fu 443–5
- Lenovo 348, 349, 350
- Lenovo case study 404–12
  - acquisition of IBM's PC business 404, 407–8
  - Chinese approach to innovation 405
  - competitive landscape 410–12
  - current strategy 409–10
  - founder Liu Chuanzhi 406–7
  - future prospects for Lenovo 412
  - Legend (Lianxiang) technology company 406–7
  - Legend becomes Lenovo 407
  - making of China's first global brand 406–9
  - PC industry consolidation 410
  - post-acquisition initial branding strategy 408–9
  - selling Chinese brands internationally 404–5
  - strategy to attack new markets 410
  - strategy to protect the base 409–10
- Lessard, D. R. 245, 246–51
- Letelier, Maria Flores 427
- Levi Strauss 143
- Levitt, Theodore 273–5
- LG Group 307
- Li Peng 435–6
- Lidl 39
- Liebherr 292

Index

- Lightstone, J. B. 245, 246–51
 Ling, Dennis 263
 Litton Industries 117
 Liu Chuanzhi 406–7
 local best practices, hotel industry 26–7 local prioritization, source of bounded reliability 57, 58
 location advantages 5–8, 28–34, 38
 biotechnology clusters 30–1
 Canada's natural resources 28–9
 cross-border location advantages 31 economic clusters 30–1
 French perfume industry 30
 German educational system 29 highly skilled workforce 29
 host country location advantages 31–4 influence of NAFTA 31
 Japanese home appliances industry 29 local business incentives 30 local demands foster innovation 29 local market for specific products 29 motivations for FDI 31–4 natural resources 28–9 regional trading and investment agreements 31 restriction on operating elsewhere 30
 strategic linkages 34–8
 superior educational system 29
 US biotechnology clusters 30–1
 location-bound (non-transferable) FSAs 5–8, 13–14, 24–8
 Acer Inc. 28
 Citibank (now Citigroup) (case example) 25–6 domestic routines 27–8
 Hong Kong hotels 26–7
 hotel industry practices 26–7 Kao (case example) 25
 local best practices 26–7 local marketing knowledge 26
 Office Depot 27–8
 Peninsula hotel group 26–7
 Ralph Lauren Polo brand 26
 reputational resources 26 stand-alone resources linked to location advantages 24–6
 strategic linkages 34–8
 Locke, Richard 488–90
 Lockett, Geoff 251–3
 Logitech 20–1, 172
 case example 34
 Louis Vuitton see LVMH
 LSI Logic Corporation 120
 Lucent 229
 Lutens, Serge 126
 LUX (Japanese high-tech company) 33
 LVMH (Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton) 30, 552
 LVMH case study 318–23
 background 318
 compensation for expatriates 321–2 employee development beyond international mobility 322 future challenges 322–3 history of Hennessy 318–19 history of Louis Vuitton 318 organizational structure 319 organizing human resources management 319–22
 preparing for expatriation 321 reasons to send people overseas 320 repatriation process 321 whom to send abroad 320–1
 MacCormack, Alan 225–6
 MacLeod, J. M. 537
 Maeda, Tamon 211
 Mahalingam, Seturaman 185
 Mahindar Group 478
 management of subsidiary networks allocating specific roles to subsidiaries 157, 158–62
 Black Hole subsidiary type 160–1 centralization strategy 158–9 classification of subsidiary types 160–2
 CMR article (Neghandi, Eshghi and Yuen, 1985) 164–6
 context of Bartlett and Ghoshal's analysis 162 Contributor subsidiary type 161 due process (procedural justice) approach 163–4
 EMI example 159
 HBR article (Bartlett and Ghoshal, 1986) 157, 158–62
 homogenization strategy 158, 159 identifying valuable subsidiary initiatives 167–9
 Implementer subsidiary type 161
 Japanese approach 164–6, 172
 learning objectives 157
 limitations of Bartlett and Ghoshal's model 167–74
 management insights 166
 management takeaways 167
 model to assign differentiated roles 160–2 need for a differentiated roles approach 159–60
 Nestlé case study 175–9
 Procter & Gamble example 160
 SMR article (Kim and Mauborgne, 1993) 162–4
 Strategic leader subsidiary type 161
 Tata Group case study 180–8

- management takeaways
  - core competencies 88–91
  - corporate environmental sustainability 530
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) 495
  - economic exposure 255
  - emerging economies 429–33
  - emerging economy MNEs (EMNEs) 463
  - foreign distributors 338–44
  - home country location advantages 111
  - host country location advantages 142
  - international innovation 205–8
  - international marketing 281–4
  - international sourcing and production 228
  - managing expatriates 315
  - mergers and acquisitions 397
  - Porter's diamond model 111
  - seven key questions in international business strategy 60
  - strategic alliance partners 365
  - subsidiary network management 167
- managing expatriates
  - CMR article (Bartlett and Ghoshal, 1988) 311–13
  - Colgate-Palmolive example 307
  - context of Black and Gregerson's article 307–8
  - cost of sending managers abroad 304
  - HBR article (Black and Gregersen, 1999) 303–7
  - Honda of America example 306
  - learning objectives 303
  - LG Group example 307
  - limitations of Black and Gregersen's analysis 316–17
  - LVMH case study 318–23
  - management insights 314
  - management takeaways 315
  - Matsushita example 312
  - Nokia example 306
  - personal characteristics required for expatriate posts 306
  - Philips example 312–13
  - proposed best practices 303, 305–6
  - reasons for unfavourable outcomes 305
  - return on investment 304–5
  - SMR articles (Prahalad and Doz) 308–11
  - successful approaches to candidate selection 306–7
- market seeking, motivation for FDI 32–3
- marketing, local marketing knowledge 26 see also international marketing
- Marks, Michael 232, 233, 234
- Martin, Dennis 48
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) 1–2, 30–1, 118–19 see also Sloan Management Review (SMR)
- Matsushita 82, 215
  - managing expatriates 312
  - R&D site development 199
- Mauborgne, Renée 162–4
- Maucher, Helmut 175
- McArdle, James 537
- McConnell, David 255
- McCoy, Sherilyn S. 264
- McDonald's 147
  - in China 33
  - in the Philippines 42
- McGregor, Gordon 18
- McKenzie, Joe 232
- McKinsey 405
- McKnight, William 91, 92, 93
- McKnight principle of management 92
- McNerney, Jim 95
- Medina, Hector 400
- Medion 410
- Merck 491, 492
- mergers and acquisitions
  - alternative strategies to 389–90
  - bounded rationality and bounded reliability problems 388–9
  - CEMEX case study 397–403
  - CMR article (Inkpen, Sundaram and Rockwood, 2000) 392–3
  - context of Ghemawat and Ghadar's article 390
  - HBR article (Ghemawat and Ghadar, 2000) 385–90
  - learning objectives 385
  - Lenovo case study 404–12
  - limitations of Ghemawat and Ghadar's analysis 395–6
  - management bias towards 388–9
  - management insights 393
  - management takeaways 397
  - reasons for unsuccessful outcomes 388–9
  - SMR article (Sebenius, 1998) 390–1
  - weakness of economic rationale for 385–8
- Mexican peso crisis (1994/1995) 48
- Michelin 45–6
- Microsoft 228, 404, 443, 444
- Milstein, Mark 524–7
- minicomputer industry, Boston Route 128 region 117, 118–23
- Mistry, Cyrus 180
- Mitsubishi 529
- Miyake, Issey 125

Index

- MNE archetypes 16–24
  - emerging economy MNEs (EMNEs) 23–4
  - freestanding companies 22–3
  - strategic positioning 35–8
  - see also* centralized exporter MNEs; international coordinator MNEs; international projector MNEs; multi-centred MNEs
- MNE performance, implications of international business strategy 59–60
- MNE senior managers
  - need for a practitioner-oriented framework 2
  - sources of practical knowledge 1–2
- Modi 558
- Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton see LVMH
- Monsanto 530
- Montedison (case example) 51–2
- Monteiro, Em 93
- Moreau-Gobard, Romain 210
- Morimune, Ichiro 215
- Morita, Akio 211, 212, 213
- Motorola 228, 251–3, 441
- Mudambi, Ram 461
- multi-centred MNEs 21–2
  - catering for host country preferences 280
  - economic exposure challenge 257
  - in globalized markets 273–4
  - international diffusion of FSAs 314–16
  - Lafarge Group 22
  - moving away from MNE archetypes 311, 312–13
  - Pattern IV 44–5
  - Philips 21–2
  - Porter's view 110
  - relationship with emerging economies 431–2
  - strategic positioning 35–8
  - subsidiary management 158, 162, 166
  - transformation of international projector into 308
- multifaceted information 55–6
- multiple diamond model 110–13, 462–3, 532
- Murdoch, Rupert 135
- Murthy, N. R. 472, 473
- Nandy, Sabaleel 186
- Nasser, Jack 558
- National Semiconductor 117
- natural factor endowments, dangers of
  - relying on 104
- natural resource seeking, motivation for FDI 32
- natural resources, location advantage 28–9
- NCR 224
- NEC 17, 82, 410
- Neghandi, Anant 164–6
- Nestlé case study 175–9
  - background 175
  - consolidating the business 175–9
  - decentralized front end (markets and businesses) 176
  - future plans and challenges 179
  - GLOBE resource planning system 176, 177
  - grouping markets into clusters 177
  - inherited organizational features 175
  - moving away from the independent subsidiary model 177–8
  - 'Nestlé on the Move' change process 178–9
  - rationalization of the back end of the value chain 176
  - regionally or globally run backline 176
- Netease Youdao 446
- Newman, Lawrence 225–6
- Nexen Petroleum 32
- Nike, labour conditions in supplier factories 489
- Nike case study 508–14
  - accusations of using sweatshop labour 509–10
  - adjusting the business model 511–12
  - background to sweatshop controversy 508
  - business model 508
  - changing to managing responsibility 510–11
  - continuing CSR pressure from the public 513
  - creating mandatory global industry standards 512
  - criticism in the US media 509–10
  - CSR as a never-ending challenge 513–14
  - efforts to improve CSR practices 513–14
  - history of Nike 508
  - initial response criticisms about labour practices 508–9
  - labour rights in Indonesia 508–9
  - new labour environment in Indonesia 512–13
  - problems caused by the business model 511–12
  - pursuit of collective responsibility 512
  - recognition of problem of working conditions 510–11
- Nippon Data General Corporation (NDG) (case example) 46–7
- Nippon Mini Computer Corporation (NMC) 46–7
- Nippon Steel 528
- Nokia 306, 457, 552
- non-location-bound FSAs see internationally transferable FSAs
- non-transferable FSAs see location-bound FSAs
- Noranda 29
- Nortel 228, 229
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) 4, 111–13

- case example 31
- Northwest airline 55
- Novartis AG 31
- NUMMI alliance 202–3
- Office Depot (case example) 27–8
- offshoring for cost reduction 137–8
- Ogoni people, fight for rights 541–4
- Okie, Francis 91
- Olivetti 220
- Oneworld airline alliance 371
- Oneworld global alliance 55
- operating exposure see economic exposure
- opportunism, source of bounded reliability 57, 58
- organizational culture 6
- organizational structure and function 6
- original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) 230, 232
- Orkut social networking site 448–9
- Orr, Gordon 405
- Ostrom, Elinor 560
- outsourcing
  - and core competencies 82
  - for cost reduction 137–8
- over-commitments, scaling back on 57, 58
- Page, Larry 440–1, 445
- Palepu, Krishna 418–24
- Pan, Yigang 138–9
- Parke-Davis (case example) 44–5
- Parker, Mark 514
- partnerships see strategic alliance partners
- Pascale, Richard 64
- patterns of FSA development 40–51
  - Pattern I 40–1
  - Pattern II 41–3
  - Pattern III 43–4
  - Pattern IV 44–5
  - Pattern V 45–6
  - Pattern VI 46–7
  - Pattern VII 47–8
  - Pattern VIII 49
  - Pattern IX 49–50
  - Pattern X 50–1
- patterns of FSA development (examples)
  - Pattern I 166, 204, 228–9, 254, 280, 338, 532–4
  - Pattern II 42–3, 110, 532–4
  - Pattern II-B 462–3
  - Pattern III 43, 44, 140–2, 166, 204–5, 229, 254, 312, 340, 423, 428, 463–4, 532–4
  - Pattern IV 44–5, 166, 254, 280, 338, 532–4
  - Pattern V 45–6, 229, 339–40, 532–4
  - Pattern VI 46–7, 166–7, 204, 229, 532–4
- Pattern VII 47–8, 428, 494, 532–4
- Pattern VIII 49, 205, 339–40, 532–4
- Pattern IX 49–50, 205, 340, 428, 532–4
- Pattern X 50–1, 340, 428, 532–4
- Patterson, Maynard 93
- PC industry, competitive landscape 410–12
- Peninsula hotel group (case example) 26–7
- People's Insurance Company of China (PICC) 434, 435, 436, 438
- PetroChina 546
- pharmaceutical industry, drug pricing in developing countries 490–3
- Philips 21–2, 82, 220, 552
  - case example 45
  - managing expatriates 312–13
- Phoenix Group 240
- physical resources 5
- Piëch, Ferdinand 268
- Piëch, Louise 265
- Pierre Fabre S.A. 124
- Ping An Insurance Company 435
- Pinkse, Jonathan 527–9
- Pischetsrieder, Bernd 238–9, 240
- Pizza Hut 136
  - in China 33
- pollution havens 532
- Porsche, Ferdinand 265, 268
- Porsche, Ferry 265
- Porsche case study 265
  - background 265
  - economic exposure management strategy 267–8
  - exchange rate pass-through capability 266–7
  - relationship with Volkswagen 268–70
  - sourcing structure and operating exposure 265–6
  - structural changes in Porsche 268
- Porter, Michael 103–6, 196, 519–22
- Porter's diamond model 103–6
  - context of development 106–7
  - double diamond model 110–13, 200, 532
  - factors in long-term competitiveness 104–6
  - management insights 110
  - management takeaways 111
  - multiple diamond model 110–13, 462–3, 532
  - weaknesses in the model 110–16
- PotashCorp 29
- practitioner-oriented framework 2
- Prahalad, C. K. 79–82, 308–11, 355–9
- procedural justice (due process) approach to subsidiary management 163–4
- Procter & Gamble (P&G) 138, 456–7, 459
  - case example 50
  - management of subsidiaries 160

Index

- production see international sourcing and production
 Puig Group 127
- quality, Asian perceptions of 139
 Quandt, Herbert 237
 Quelch, John 276–8, 424–6
- R&D see innovation; international innovation
 Ralph Lauren Polo brand (case example) 26
 Ramadorai, Subramaniam 183
 Ramis, Monica 488–90
 Ranbaxy (case example) 42
 Raytheon 119
 RCA 119
- recombination capabilities
   as highest-order FSA 39–40
   domestic routines 27–8
   rising importance of 559–61
- recombination of resources 8, 14
   internationally dispersed resources 200 to create value 38–51
- regional strategies, dominance over global strategies 552–4
- regional trading and investment agreements 31
 Reich, Robert 510
 Reinert, Uwe 137–8
- reprioritization, source of bounded reliability 57, 58
- reputational resources 6, 26
- resource base available to firms 5–6
- resource recombination to create value 38–51
   as highest-order FSA 39–40
   Carrefour 39
   definition 38
   importance to businesses 39 paradox of strong routines 40 patterns in international business 40–51 requirements for 39
- reverse innovation 440
- Rhodes, William 48
- Richard, Jean-Michel 251–3
- Ricoh 56
- Rinker Group, acquisition by CEMEX 402–3
- Rio Tinto Zinc 22–3
- Roche 171
- Rockwood, Kristin 392–3
- Rong Yiren 435
- Roos, Chantal 126, 127
- Rosenfield, Donald 225–6
- Rosneft 32
- Roth, Erik 405
- Rouse, Ted 137–8
- Route 128 see Boston Route 128
- routines 6
- Cisco 7–8
- domestic routines as location-bound FSAs 27–8
- Federal Express 6–7
   recombination capacity of strong routines 40
- Rover Group 236–7
   BMW acquisition 238–9
   BMW's role in its destruction 240–2 end of 240
   pre-BMW years 239
- Royal Dutch 536
- RUCIS countries 410
- Rugman, Alan 253–4
- Saklatwala, Nowroji 180
- Salbitano, Miguel 263
- Samsung Electronics 122, 216, 349
   case example 33
- Samuel, Marcus, Jr 536
- Sanmina-SCI 230
- Saro-Wiwa, Ken 541–4
- Satyam 478
- Saxena, Mukul 209–10
- Schmidt, Eric 445
- Schmitt, Bernd 138–9
- Schultz, Howard 146, 148
- Schumpeter, Joseph 524
- Sebenius, James K. 390–1
- semiconductor industry, Silicon Valley 117–23
- Sethi, Suresh 558
- SGS-Thomson 171
- Shell case study 536–46
   Brent Spar controversy 538–41 death of Ken Saro-Wiwa 541–4 decentralized management system 536–7 diverse environmental practices around the world 537–8 environmental damage in Nigeria 541–4 history of corporate social responsibility problems 536 history of Shell 536–7 human rights abuses in Nigeria 541–4 impact of the BP Deepwater Horizon oil spill 546 lack of commitment to renewable energy 545 negative media coverage in the 1990s 538–44 responses to criticisms of environmental practices 544–6 restructuring in 2004 546
- Shih, Stan 461
- Shiseido (case study) 124–8
   background in the fragrance market 124 becoming an insider in France 125–6 building local relationships 125–6

- initial failures 124–5
- local decisions and autonomy 127
- local hiring 126
- local operations (plants and salons) 125
- local success 126–7
- subsequent developments 127–8
- Shockley, William 117
- Shockley Transistors 117
- Siemens 29, 457
- Siemens case study 208–11
  - background 208
  - building the R&D unit in India 209–10
  - continuing R&D expansion 210–11
  - Global Technology Fields (GTFs) initiative 209
  - role and scope of corporate technology in R&D 208
  - Siemens Corporate Research, Princeton 209
- Silicon Valley (case study) 117–23
  - attitude towards entrepreneurs and risk 120
  - corporate culture 119–20
  - current situation 121
  - educational infrastructure 118–19
  - factors in divergent performance between regions 119–21
  - foreign investment 122
  - government funding as the catalyst 119
  - influence of the dominant design 121
  - influence of the initial leading firm 119
  - regional network 120–1
  - replicating elsewhere 123
  - self-sufficient corporations versus relational networks 120–1
  - success factors 118–19
  - venture capital 119
- Singapore Airlines 139
- Sinha, Jayant 418–24
- Sinopec 466–7
- Six Sigma management standards 95
- Skyteam 55
- Sloan Management Review (SMR)* 1–2
- Sloan Management Review* articles
  - core competencies (Egelhoff, 1993) 82–4
  - corporate environmental sustainability (Hart and Milstein, 1999) 524–7
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) (Locke and Ramis, 2007) 488–90
  - economic exposure (Holland, Lockett, Richard and Blackman, 1994) 251–3
  - emerging economies (Arnold and Quelch, 1998) 424–6
  - emerging economy MNEs (EMNEs) (Gadiesh and Vestring, 2008) 458–9
  - foreign distributors (Thomas and Wilkinson, 2006) 334–5
  - home country location advantages (Kuemmerle, 2005) 107–8
  - host country location advantages (Vestring, Rouse and Reinert, 2005) 137–8
  - international innovation (Birkinshaw and Fry, 1998) 200–2
  - international marketing, (Quelch and Klein, 1996) 276–8
  - international sourcing and production (MacCormack, Newman and Rosenfield, 1994) 225–6
  - management of subsidiary networks (Kim and Mauborgne, 1993) 162–4
  - managing expatriates (Prahalad and Doz) 308–11
  - mergers and acquisitions (Sebenius, 1998) 390–1
  - strategic alliance partners (Anderson and Jap, 2005) 360–2
- smiling curve concept 461–2, 554
- Smith, Frederick W. 6–7
- Smith, Jack 203
- Smith, N. Craig 490–3
- SMR* see Sloan Management Review
- social justice 561
- Sogu 446
- Solectron 230
- Sony 82, 220, 552
  - foreign factories 224
- Sony case study 211–16
  - background 211
  - current strategy 215–16
  - establishing global R&D centres 212–13
  - going international 212–13
  - history of technologically innovative products 211–12
  - managing R&D units 213–14
  - R&D in Japan 213
  - Sony's recent decline 214–15
  - Sony's standards 214
- Sony Ericsson 231
- sourcing see international sourcing and production
- Sperry 183
- Spinosa, Charles 427
- stakeholder groups 4
- Standard Oil 536
- Stanford University 118, 123
- Star Alliance 55, 371
- Star TV 135

Index

- Starbucks (case study) 142–9 administrative (or institutional) distance issues 146–7
 background 142–6
 challenge of the Italian market 148 cultural distance issues 146 economic distance issues 147 geographic distance issues 147
 in China 146–7
 in Russia 146–7 moving forward 148–9 perception of American cultural imperialism 146
 refocusing of the brand and strategy 148–9 strategy to reduce distance in foreign markets 147–8
 Tata joint venture in India 148–9 trademark protection lawsuits 146–7
 Starr, Cornelius Vander 433–4
 Statoil, economic exposure (case example) 259–60
 Steyr-Daimler-Puch AG 238
 Stich, Johann 46
 STMicroelectronics 171
 Stora Enso 529
 strategic alliance partners
   alliance-specific advantages (ASAs) 370 bounded reliability issues 360–2
   CMR article (Kale and Anand, 2006) 362–4 competitive collaboration 355–9 context of the article by Hamel et al. 359–60 control of knowledge and skills transfer 358–9
   Danone and Wahaha Group case study 365–82 dark side of alliances 360–2 dynamics of international strategic alliances 355–9
   HBR article (Hamel, Doz and Prahalad, 1989)
     355–9 inherent instability in joint ventures 363–4
   learning objectives 355 limitations of Hamel et al.'s analysis 371–3
   management insights 364
   management takeaways 365
   potential for exploitation and abuse 360–2 problems with establishing alliances 362–4 risk of a dependency spiral 357–8, 360–2 safeguards against dysfunctional relationships
     360–2
   SMR article (Anderson and Jap, 2005) 360–2 theoretical benefits of strategic alliances 355 winning the learning race 356–7, 363–4 strategic architecture 81–2 strategic resource seeking, motivation for FDI 33
 Stringer, Howard 216
 subsidiary networks see management of subsidiary networks
 Suekawa, Hisayuki 128
 Sun Microsystems 276–7, 440, 552
 Sundaram, Anant K. 392–3
 Suzlon 456
 Suzuki 423
 Suzuki, Masami 62
 SWITCH companies 478
 tacit knowledge 16
   administrative heritage 16–24
 Taco Bell 136
 Talisman Energy case study 499–507
   acquisition of Arakis Energy 500, 502 conflict over water resources in the Nile region 500–1 damaging controversy in Sudan 499 defence of position in Sudan 504 exploration and acquisitions strategy 501–2 final withdrawal from Sudan 505–6 history of conflict in Sudan 499–500 human rights issues in Sudan 499–500 lessons learned from the Sudan experience 506–7 oil production in Sudan 500 public protests over involvement in Sudan 502–4
   reputational damage caused by involvement in Sudan 502–4
   role of Egypt in the conflict in Sudan 500–1
   South Sudan situation 506
   Talisman's involvement in Sudan 500, 501–2
 Tan Caktiong, Tony 42
 Taobao 456
 Tata, Dorab 180
 Tata, J. R. D. 180, 181
 Tata, Jamsedji 180, 187–8
 Tata, Ratan N. 180, 181, 182–3, 185, 187
 Tata Consultancy Services 478
 Tata Global Beverages 148–9
 Tata Group, Nano car 24, 181
 Tata Group case study 180–8
   background 180
   corporate social responsibility 185 donation to Harvard Business School 185 historical opium trading 187–8 history of the Tata Group 180–1 international expansion 180–1 managing the business 181–2 nanotechnology and biotechnology R&D 185 stated core values 187–8 sustainability research 185

- Tata Consultancy Services 182–5
- Tata Swach water purification project 186
- Tatelman, Michael 350
- tax regimes, location advantages 30
- technical knowledge resource 6
- Teece, David 108–9
- Temasek Life Sciences Laboratory 185
- Tencent Soso 446
- The Economist* 1
- Thomas, Andrew R. 334–5
- Thulin, Inge 95–6
- Tiffany & Co. 70
- Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) 29
- Toshiba 122, 215
- Total 546
- Total SA 32
- total quality management (TQM) 225–6
- Toulan, Omar 278–80
- Toyota 15
- Toyota Production System 202–3
- tragedy of the commons, avoiding 559, 560
- Tricon Restaurants International 136
- TRW Automotive (case example) 50–1
- Tsai, Hwei-Ting 459–62
- Tse, Edmund 438
- TSX Venture Exchange 29
- unifying framework
  - bounded rationality 8–9, 52–7
  - bounded reliability 8–9, 57–9
  - complementary resources of external actors 8, 51–2
  - firm-specific advantages (FSAs) 5–8
  - internationally transferable (non-location-bound) FSAs 5–8, 15–24
  - learning objectives 13
  - location advantages 5–8, 28–34, 38
  - location-bound (non-transferable) FSAs 5–8, 24–8
  - need for 2
  - overview 4–9
  - recombination of resources 8, 38–51
  - seven concepts 13–14
  - strategic linkages 34–8
  - value creation through recombination 38–51
- Unilever 181, 528
- Unisys 183
- United Airlines 557
- University of California, Berkeley 118
- Universo Online 441
- upstream knowledge 6
- US biotechnology clusters 30–1
- US firms, strategic approach 82–4
- US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act 444
- Vachani, Sushil 490–3
- value creation through recombination of resources 14, 38–51
- van der Linde, Claas 519–22
- van der Veer, Jeroen 545
- Varian 117
- Vasella, Daniel 31
- venture capital 119, 121
- Vestring, Till 137–8, 458–9
- Volkswagen 29
  - foreign currency exposure 269–70
  - relationship with Porsche 268–70
- Volvo 405
- Voser, Peter 545
- Wadia Group 381–2
- Wahaha Group 365–82 see Danone and Wahaha Group case study
- Walker, Robert 120
- Wal-Mart 334, 344, 349, 510
  - case example 53
- Wal-Mart in Germany (case study) 149–54
  - background 149
  - co-determination system 151
  - consumer spending pattern in Germany 150
  - culture of Wal-Mart 149–50
  - features of the German retail market 150–1
  - geographic locations of warehouses and headquarters 151
  - hard discounting in German retailing 150
  - history of Wal-Mart 149–50
  - impact on customer service 152–3
  - impact on the EDLP 151–2
  - lesson learned for the future growth 153–4
  - regulatory environment 150–1
  - unionization 151
  - Wal-Mart's difficulties in the German market 151–3
- Wall Street Journal* 1
- Wang Laboratories 118, 119
- Wangxiang 457
- Warner Bros. Pictures 17
- Warner-Lambert (case example) 44–5
- water purification, Tata Swach project 186
- Welch, Jack 386
- Weyrich, Claus 210
- Whirlpool Corporation (case example) 44
- Whitman, Meg 411
- Wiedeking, Wendelin 265, 268
- Wilkinson, Timothy J. 334–5

Index

- Winterkorn, Martin 268
Wipro 209, 478
Wong, Nicole 448
Wong Wai Ming 406
- Xerox 82, 232
    case example 56–7
    R&D site development 198
Xstrata 29
- Yahoo Inc. 441, 443, 444
Yamashita, Keith 483–7
Yang Yuanqing 406, 412
- Yashiro, Masamoto 25
Young, Andrew 510
YouTube 448–9
Yuen, Edith 164–6
YUM! Brands, Inc. 136
Yunus, Muhammad 427
Yves Rocher 127
- Zambrano, Lorenzo 398, 399, 400
Zambrano, Mike 401, 402
Zhang Ruimin 291–8
Zhu Rongji 435
Zuckerberg, Mark 120