TRANSNATIONAL LAW

In this era of globalisation, different legal systems and structures no longer operate within their own jurisdictions. Decisions, policies and political developments are having an increasingly wide-reaching impact. Nowhere is this more keenly felt than in the sphere of European Union law. This collection of essays contributes to the cooperative search for interpretative and normative grids needed in charting the contemporary legal landscape. Written by leading lawyers and legal philosophers, they examine the effects of law's denationalisation by placing European law in the context of transnational law, demonstrate how it forces us to rethink our basic legal concepts and propose an approach to transnational law beyond the dichotomy of national and international law.

MIGUEL MADURO is Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Regional Development in the Portuguese Government. He is also Professor of European Law and Director of the Global Governance programme at the European University Institute. From 2003–9 he was Advocate General at the Court of Justice of the European Union. He is the winner of several awards for scientific excellence including the Gulbenkian Science Prize and Obiettivo Europa.

KAARLO TUORI is Professor of Jurisprudence and Academy Professor at the University of Helsinki. He is also Vice-President of the Venice Commission of the Council of Europe and serves as a consulting expert on the Constitutional Law Committee at the Finnish Parliament.

SUVI SANKARI is Postdoctoral Researcher at the Centre of Excellence in the Foundations of European Law and Polity at the University of Helsinki.
