accountability, politics of, 13, 96–114
accountability and British political tradition, 97–100 accountability explosion, 108–112 effectiveness of political accountability in Britain, 103–105
elections, 103, 104
forms of accountability, 13 meaning/nature of accountability, 96–97 ministerial accountability, 110–112
other accountability mechanisms, 104–105, 113–114 Parliament, 105–108
politics and law, 100–103
two paradoxes, 112–114
diffused accountability, loss of direct political accountability from, 113–114 more accountability not always better government, 112–113 Adamson v. Paddico (267) Ltd, 143
African Charter on Democracy, Elections and Governance of the African Union, 261 Allan, Trevor
state’s authority founded on enforceable moral principles, 22
American Commonwealth, The (Bryce), 196
Animal Defenders, 161
Anns v Merton, 147
appointments, public, 108, 112
vetting of major appointments by select committees, 108
Aristotle, 71
Aronson, Mark, 7
Attorney General v. Jonathan Cape Ltd, 25, 32–34
Audit Commission, 222
Austin, John, 20
Australia
Constitution, 73
courts giving effect to constitution, 28
exemplary damages, 148
justiciability of constitution, 21 reshaping state powers, 7–8 separation of powers, 25
state and Crown, 9
AXA, 156
Bagehot, Walter, 11
sovereign power as come-at-able, 98, 103
Bank of England, 109
Barro, Robert, 61, 62, 66
Behre, 241–243, 247, 248
Belmarsh, 130, 146
Bentham, Jeremy, 20
Bill of Rights, 49
Bill of Rights/Claim of Right (1689), 49, 116
Bingham, Tom, 66, 102
Blair, Tony, 8
Prime Minister’s question time, 105
Blunkett, David, 39
Bogdanor, Vernon, 8
Bondy, Varda, 250
Bracton, 44
Bradlaugh v. Gossett, 45
British Oxygen, 219
Bryce, James, 8, 206–207, 208, 211–214
centrifugal and centripetal forces, 199–200, 208
Janus-faced nature of, 200–202
constitutional law, role of, 202–205
EU, and, 206
Irish Home Rule, and, 196–199
Burgess, Michael, 197
Bush, George, 7
Bush, George W, 7
Caerphilly, 243–245, 247, 248
Cameron, David, 113
Canada
Charter of Rights and Freedoms, 260
constitution, 73
constitutional references, 12, 25
courts giving effect to constitution, 28
exemplary damages, 148
Index

Cart, 158–159
Center for Financial Stability, 60, 61
centrifugal and centripetal forces, 199–200
Janus-faced nature of, 200–202
Cerar, Miro, 42
Charter of Fundamental Rights, EU, 232 Chaytor, 45
citizens as consumers of public goods, 3
Civil Service, 227
Civil Service Code, 109
parliamentary scrutiny, 112
Civil Service Commission, 109
Commission on a Bill of Rights, 210
Commissioner for Public Appointments, 108 Committee on Standards in Public Life, 110, 227
common law constitutional rights, 78–80
Competition and Markets Authority, 231 Conservative-Liberal Democrat coalition, 3
constitutional law, role of, 202–205
constitutionalism, 70
legal, 100
political, 100
constitutions
constitutional norms, 81
exceptionalism of unwritten constitutions, 86–90 global context, in. See designing and operating constitutions in global context hard and soft constitutionality, 80–82
multidimensional. See legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution contested nature and functions of public law, 5–15 government and the state, 5–9 identity and worth of public law, 14–15 legitimacy of institutions, 12–13 relationships between state institutions and officials, 11–12
state and public law in world order, 9–10 context in which public law develops and operates, 1–5 contracting out. See under privatisation and public law conventions, constitutional, 81–82 Countrywide Alliance, 160 courts. See judiciary
Craig, Paul, 14–15
Creyke, R, 251, 253
Crossman, Richard, 11
Crossman Diaries affair, 27, 32–34
Crown
nature of, 8–9
prerogatives, 9
Daintith, Terence, 238
Datafin, 185
Davies, A.C.L., 7
De Smith’s Judicial Review, 237 deference. See judiciary demographic changes in UK, 3 designing and operating constitutions in global context, 10, 256–273 designing constitutions, 258–265
impact of globalisation, 259–261
reflections, 263–265
scope of constitutional design, 258–259
significance of the state, 261–263
development of constitutions, 256–257 operating constitutions, 265–272
from design to operation in practice, 265–266
impact of globalisation, 266–269
reflections, 271–272
significance of the state, 269–271
transnational influences on developing constitutions, 257–258
devolution, 2, 8
‘concordatry’, 227–228
convention of no UK interference in devolved affairs (Sewel Convention), 84–85, 155 ECHR, and, 117, 155, 210
establishment of devolved governments, 198 European effect on, 206–210
hard constitutional constraints, subject to, and, 83 legislation making Scottish government ‘permanent’ not a hard constraint, 83 litigation over extent of devolved legislatures’ powers, 11–12
Memorandums of Understanding, 157, 228
Northern Ireland, 195
Scotland, 155–156
further powers promised, 198–199 structure of, 155
troubled state of the union, 227–228
UK Parliament, implications for, 77–78
Wales, 156–157
Devon County Council, ex p RB, 180
Dicey, AV, 8, 62, 196
convention and law, distinction between, 82 English/Scottish union, 208 equality ideal, 135
historical teleology, 212
Irish Home Rule, and, 196–199
political constraints on legislative powers, 74 punishment only by ordinary courts, 64 rule of law, definition of, 135 sovereignty of Parliament, 199, 209
study of constitutional law, 20–21
discretion, 49, 57, 58, 64, 65 agency, 221
judicial. See under judiciary monarch's, 81
officials'. See under state distinctiveness of public law, 12, 14, 17–36 commonality of values, 35
fiscus, 25–26
holding ministers to account through the courts, 22–23
illustration of distinctions in practice, 32–34 judicial review, development of, 30–31 law and non-law in governmental matters, 20–25
legal positivism, 20–22
nature of public law, 18–19 nature of the problem, 17–20
public and private law, distinguishing, 14 public and private parties, 19–20 public bodies, different requirements applying to, justification for, 34
public law and non-public law, 17–18, 25–32
public law and public non-law, 23–25
special powers historically reserved to rules, 25–26
Donoughmore Committee on Ministers' Powers, 218
Dorset Yacht, 147
Dworkin, R, 168
Eba, 158
elections, 102
bedrock of political accountability, as, 103 decisive instruments of accountability, as, 103 decline in electoral participation, 104 episodic nature of, 104
party funding, 108
Electoral Commission, 108
referendums, 109
Elliott, Donald, 251
Elliott, Mark, 10, 12
English Constitution, The (Bagehot), 98
English nationalism, 208 Equality and Human Rights Commission, 123, 226 review of Human Rights Act 1998, 129
ESRC study on impact of judicial review, 241–248
European Central Bank, 232–233
European Coal and Steel Community, 207
European Commission, 229, 230, 232 Article 8 (right to family life), 37–42, 127, 184, 243 preamble, 117
rights under ECHR as hard legal constraints on states, 89 European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) constitutive view of public law, promoting, 45 margin of appreciation, 271
nationalism, approach to, 51
over-reaching by, 102
subsidarity principle, 271
European Parliament, 230, 233
European Union (EU)
‘Banking Union’, 232
devolution, effect on, 206–210
EU law and political attacks on judiciary, 37
EU law on domestic law, impact on, 4
European citizenship, 209
European Competition Network, 231–232 ‘ever closer union’, opposition to, 207–208 integration, 220
James Bryce, and, 206
juridical nature of, 44 Member States as subject to EU law, 9 national freedom of decision-making constrained, 10 Open Method of Coordination, 230–231 soft law, EU governance by, 228–233 sovereignty, concept of, 209–210 states' liability to private parties, 32 European Union (EU) (cont.)
supremacy principle, 75, 100 sovereignty and, 82, 85
UK joining, 7, 10
White Paper on European Governance, 229
Ewing, KD, 119
Factortame, 75, 82
Feldman, David, 12, 14
financial crisis
Eurozone countries, 10
impact of, 1–2
fiscus, 25–26
Flinders, M, 112
Foot, Michael, 99
France, 50, 194
accession to European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages struck down, 52 collection, 256
Crown and state, 9
Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen (1789), 116
public law and non-public law, 28–29
public law and private law, 27–28 public law separate from ordinary courts, 47 public law, broad view of, 50
semi-presidentialism, 260 Freedland, M, 183
freedom of information. See under information and transparency Fuller, Lon, 58, 61
‘inner morality of law’, 57, 62 legal methods not appropriate for all public administration, 63
procedural aspects, 63
‘functionalist’ public law theory, 165–170
Gaebler, T, 189
GCHQ, 223
Germany, 194
Basic Law, 44
Constitutional Court, 260, 269
‘soft power’, 10
Global Elections Organization, 268 globalisation. See designing and operating constitutions in global context designing constitutions, and, 259–261 Goldsmith, Lord, 238
government
central/local government in UK, substantial changes in, 2 collective Cabinet responsibility, 33 contracting out. See under privatisation and public law courts, conflict with, 45–46 different legal requirements upon, public interest justifying, 34 financial accounting, 25–26 higher standards applying to, 143–148, 151–152
holding ministers to account through the courts, 22–23 judicial review, and. See judicial review court law and non-law in governmental matters, 20–25
misfeasance in public office, 148
morality of government and of law, 13 Parliament, and, 11
privatisation. See privatisation and public law restructuring the state, 6–8 role and functions of, 3
routine official decision-making and judicial review, 239–241 social justice imposed through government contracts, 19
state, and, 5–9
subject to legal norms, 13
Griffith, Professor John, 21
Hailsham, Lord, 11, 98, 99, 119
Harlow, C, 145
Hart, HLA, 43
Hayek, FA, 66, 167
Heath, Edward, 7, 8, 11
Hillingdon, 244
House of Commons Select Committees system strengthened, 2 Howarth, David, 12, 13, 14
human rights
courts’ absorption of human rights thinking, 53 ECHR rights, 76–77
legislation, 4
positive rights, concept of, 48
public sector equality duty, 32
role of judiciary. See under judiciary

Jackson, 80, 92
James VI of Scotland and I of England, 8
ejennings, Sir Ivor, 119
Joint Committee on Human Rights, 123, 130, 131 Jones, 159–160
judiciary (cont.)
judicial activism, 101
Judicial Appointments Commission, role of, 109 liberty, weaknesses in role of policing interference with, 120
over-reaching by, 102
parliamentary sovereignty, 84
parliamentary sovereignty and fundamental rights, 92–93 political attacks on, 37 political bias, accusations of, 120 political pressure, susceptibility to, 41–42 proportionality test. See proportionality public law adjudication and Human Rights Act, 124–128 resisting changes to law-making procedure, 37–42
role of, 70, 100
justiciability
meaning of, 22
non-justiciability, 42
Kavanagh, A, 125
Kilbrandon Commission, 198
King, Anthony, 113
King, Jeff, 47, 240
Laski, HJ, 168
law and politics, 100–103
Laws, Sir John, 13, 35, 36
state’s authority founded on enforceable moral principles, 22
lawyers, public, 59
centrifugal forces, increasing, 12
law as autonomous, 14
politicians, and, 37
public law and non-public law issues, advising on, 17–18
public law and public non-law, 24–25
role of, 12, 13
study of constitutional law, 20–21
legal certainty, 58
rule of law, and, 68
legal constitutionalism, 74
legal positivism, 20–22
challenges to positivist approach to constitutional law, 21–22 law as a normative system of a state, 20 legislation, role of, 65–66
legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution, 10, 90–94 contemporary ‘challenges’ to legislative supremacy, 74–80 common law constraints on legislative supremacy, 78–80
devolution, 77–78
implications of UK membership of EU, 75–76
status of ECHR rights in UK legal order, 76–77
hard and soft constitutionality, 80–82 legislative-supremacy model and possibility of domestic-legal constraints, 90–94 multidimensionality and exceptionalism of unwritten constitution, 86–90 liberty, 117
liberty of subject, courts defending, 23 loss of faith in efficacy of traditional approach, 121 Parliament protecting/expanding, 119 Parliamentary assault on, 130 presumption in favour of, 119, 120 traditional focus on, 118–119 vulnerable to erosion, 119
local government
decision-making, challenges to, 49 ESRC study on impact of judicial review, 241–248
local government services, quality of, 241–245 substantial changes in, 2
Loewenstein, K, 265
Lord Chancellor, 4
Loughlin, Martin, 14
‘functionalist’ public law theory, 165–170
public law as one of three ‘orders’ of political conflict, 21–22 Loveland, ID, 240
Lomba, 142–143, 144, 148
Macmillan, Harold, 7, 8
Magna Carta (1215), 116
Major, John, 110
Malone, 120
Marbury v. Madison (1803), 21
margin of appreciation, 127, 271
market regulation, 2
May, Theresa, 37–42, 53
McCruden, Christopher, 8, 12
McHarg, Aileen, 7, 13
McMillan, J, 251, 253
Memorandums of Understanding, 223
devolution, and. See under devolution migration, 3
Ministerial Code, 226
misfeasance in public office, 148
morality, 68
Morality of Law, The (Fuller), 62

Nash, 180
National Audit Office, 107
National Federation, 223
national security, 126
New London College, 225
New Public Management, 2, 220, 222
New Zealand
constitution, 73, 256
exemplary damages, 148
Next Steps agencies, 220
Nicklinson, 126, 127
Northern Ireland
Belfast/Good Friday Agreement, 209–210, 212
devolution. See under devolution political changes, 197
‘Troubles’, 198
Nozick, Robert, 5, 167

O’Reilly v. Mackman, 137
Office for Budget Responsibility, 109 officers/officials of state. See Civil Service; see under state Oliver, Dawn, 35, 175
ombudsmen, 99, 103, 105, 145, 227
introduction of, 98–99
proliferation of ombudsmen-type redress schemes, 109
Osborne, D, 189

Page, Alan, 238
Paine, Thomas, 116
Paris Principles (1993), 268
Parliament
accountability, 105–108
ministerial, 110–112, 221
new powers of Commons, 108–109 partisan character of scrutiny, 105–106 scrutiny role, 2
autonomy, 4
Bill of Rights, and, 49
changes to, 4
Commons’ ordinances, 39
devolution, and. See devolution external scrutiny, 4
fixed-term parliaments, 109
government, and, 11
House of Lords Appointments Commission, role of, 109 Joint Committee on Parliamentary Privilege, 45
legislative supremacy. See legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution MPs conduct and remuneration, control of, 109 Parliament Acts 1911–49, 119 parliamentary privilege, struggle between Commons and courts over nature of, 45 Queen in Parliament, 4
call of MPs, 112
responsibility to the people, 98
select committees. See select committees sovereignty. See sovereignty, parliamentary supremacy of, 37, 81, 84, 87, 100
Parliamentary Commission on Banking Standards, 107
Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards, 109 Partnerships in Care, 185
party competition, 48–49, 103
failure of a party to win a majority, consequences of, 104 support for political parties eroded, 104 party whip, 49
Petition of Right (1628), 116
petitions of right, 9
Phillips, Lord, 93
Plaid Cymru, 197
police, 109
duty of care, 147
political constitutionalism, 74
political parties. See party competition politicians
Constitution-compliant legislation, role in, 123 decline in trust in, 3
HRA, and, 131
improper behaviour, 3, 4, 107
lawyers, and, 37
politics and law, 100–103
politics of public law, 12, 13, 37–54 descriptive politics of public law, 52–53 integrating law and politics, 42–43
law and public law, Izuazu example, 37–42
normative politics of public law, 53–54 political dimensions, 46–52 identity, 51–52
ideological struggle, 49–51
party competition, 48–49
politics, autonomous or constituted by law, 43–46 Poplar Housing, 186
positivism. See legal positivism prerogative powers, 9
government, and, 11
judicial review, and, 223
Parliament encroaching on, 112 Prime Minister
accountability, 109, 111
question time, 105
Cabinet, and, 11
growth of powers of, 11
judge of ministerial behaviour, as, 226
privatisation and public law, 7, 149–151, 172–192, 221 arguments for privatisation, 175 commissioning state, 188–192
impact of contracting out on government, 189–191 impact of privatisation on government, 188–189
constitutional framework, 178 contracting out, 176–177, 178–179 defined, 173–174
impact on government, 189–191
review of contractor’s decisions, 184–187 review of public body’s decisions, 183–184 public law control over privatisation and contracting out, 177–182 possible challenges, 179–181 public procurement, compared to, 174 public/private divide, privatisation/contracting out, and, 175–177 procedural exclusivity. See under public law values in the common law Prolife Alliance, 126
proportionality, 124–127, 160–161, 259 comparative importance of right in scale of rights protected, 160
defERENCE, scope for, 161
HRA, under, 13, 127
Parliament’s judgment, weight to be accorded to, 161
Prosser, Tony, 249
Public Accounts Committee, 107, 112, public law
autonomist conception of, 43–44 changes in, 4–5
constitutive conception of, 43–45 contested nature and functions of. See contested nature and functions of public law context in which develops and operates, 1–5 dimensions of, 5
distinctiveness of public law. See distinctiveness of public law identity and worth of, 5–15 identity in, 51–52
law and public law, Izuazu example, 37–42
litigation. See public law litigation impact of nature of, 18–19
non-public law, and, 25–32 politics of. See politics of public law privatisation, and. See privatisation and public law public laws, and. See public law and public laws public non-law, and, 23–25 rights and democracy in. See rights and democracy in UK public law rule of law. See rule of law in public law stability in, 66–69
state and public law in world order, 9–10
values in the common law. See public law values in the common law public law and public laws, 14–15, 153–170 different constitutional rules, 154–157 different subject matter rules, 153–154 differential application of public law document, 157–165
constitutional framework, 178–179
functional considerations and doctrinal categories, 163–165
functionalism and reductionism, 158 importance of right/interest, 160–162 institutional expertise, 158–160 systemic functional differentiation, 163 distinctive public law theory, 165–170 public law litigation, impact of, 15, 236–254 judgments do not tell whole story, 245–248
judicial review and quality of local government services, 241–245 judicial review, routine official decision-making and, 239–241
what do claimants achieve, 248–253
individual redress and public interest claims, 248–249
procedural weaknesses, 250 risk of Pyrrhic victories, 251–253
public law values in the common law, 7, 134–152. See also public law litigation, impact of claims for a morally distinctive public law, 143–148
collateral challenge, 137, 140, 142
diffusion of procedural exclusivity, 142–143
expansion of judicial review, 101, 138–140
government, higher standards applying to, 143–148, 151–152
importance of interests outside HRA, 161–162
judiciary resisting changes to law-making procedure, 37–42
‘normative turn’, development of,
139–140, 146–147
privatisation/contracting out. See privatisation and public law proportionality. See proportionality public law and public non-law, courts role in, 23–25
public/private divide, 175–176
remedies, historical development of, 29–30, 136–138
soft law, 223
strategic case for moral distinctiveness, 149–151
values underlying procedural exclusivity, 136–142
public opinion, politicians following, 3 public procurement, 181–182
privatisation, compared to, 174
public sector equality duty, 32, 180–181
Public Sector Transparency Board, 108
Rawlings, Richard, 14, 145
Rawls, J, 168, 169
Raz, J, 168
referendums, 109
Scotland. See under Scotland
Renton, Sir David, 99
resources, public, 46–48
Richardson, G, 240
rights and democracy in UK public law, 7, 116–133. See also Human Rights Act 1998 declarations of individual rights and freedoms, 116–117
impact of Human Rights Act 1998, 128–132
international/regional declarations of rights, proliferation of, 116–117 liberty. See liberty public law adjudication and Human Rights Act, 124–128
UK’s traditional approach to rights protection/bill of rights debate, 118–123
risk regulation, 224–225
Roth, 161
Rousseau, Jean Jacques, 116 rule of law in public law, 6, 56–72, 100, 259 change, and, 67–69
constructing a conception, 71–72 contested concept, rule of law as, 58 declaratory relief, 9
democracy, and, 66
essentially private law idea, rule of law as, 58–59
fresh start, 62–65
ideological manipulation of rule of law ideal, as, 62
judicial procedures, importance of, 62–63
legal certainty, 58, 68
rule of law in public law (cont.)
legislation, role of, 65–66
measuring rule of law in ways hostile to regulation, 60–62 morality, and, 68
nature of rule of law, 57
no more than rule by law, 69–71 parliamentary privilege as exception to rule of law, 45 predictability, value of, 66–67
private law, and, 57
public administration, and, 57–58 pursuing constitutional grievances through ordinary law, 28 rule of law, nature of, 60 stability in public law, 66–69 tribunals, 64
unified ideal, 58

Salmond, Alex, 203
Saunders, Cheryl, 10
Schindler, 232
Schmitt, Carl, 43
Schuck, Peter, 251
Scotland
continued membership of EU post-independence, 208–209
devolution. See under devolution nationalist movement, 197 referendum on independence, 198–199, 214
Supreme Court, and, 201
Secretary of State for the Home Department ex parte Izuazu, 37–42
Secretary of State for the Home Department v. J, 130 Security Services, 109, 112
select committees, 99, 103, 221 election of chairs and members, 108–109 nature and impact of, 106–107 reforms creating more accountability, 107–108 scrutiny of ministers, 111 weaknesses in, 107
separation of powers, 5, 22, 25
no formal separation of powers in UK, 106 strong version of, 47
Servite, 185
Slaughter, Anne-Marie, 268
social welfare, states’ obligation to provide, 2
soft and hard constraints on legislative supremacy, 80–82
soft law, 14, 215–234
bureaucratic rules, 216–218, 219–220 contract-style techniques, 225
EU governance, 228–233
Executive, 226–227
extended state, 216–220 ‘Ofdogs’, 221
quasi-legislation, 218–219
risk regulation, 224–225
shake up time, 220–223 ‘speeding on’, 224–228
tertiary rules, 222–223 ‘Thatcher revolution’, 220–222
voluntarism, 219
‘soft power’, 10
South Africa
constitution, 73, 266
constitutional commissions, 260 constitutional courts, 28, 269 public resources, 48
sovereignty, parliamentary, 73, 80–81, 84, 94–95, 98, 100 common law rights and values, protection of, 90–91 constraining effect of international law on, 85 devolution not creating inhibition on, 77 domestic legal constraints, 90–94 EU membership, effect of, 100 judiciary, and, 92–93
multidimensionality and exceptionalism of unwritten constitution, 86–90
principles of interpretation, application of, 90–91 Queen in Parliament, 4
soft constraints on, 82, 84
unable to be abandoned, 83 state architecture. See state architecture authority founded on enforceable moral principles, 22 federal, 12
global economy, and, 10 goals of state action, 6
government, and, 5–9
international corporations and institutions, and, 10
legislative supremacy. See legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution officers of state treated as private individuals, 9 officials, discretion of, 57, 58, 63, 64–65, 217 officials, public law and, 18–19 public interest obligations of, 19 public law and state obligations, 18–19 restructuring by government, 6–8
role and functions of, 3
rule of law governing conduct of officials, 57–58 rules as instruments or policy, use by officials of, 216–218 rules, problems with mechanical application of, 63 shift from 'government' to 'governance' in modern state, 110
social justice imposed through government contracts, 19
Treaties constraining freedom of choice, 10 state architecture, 8, 193–214
Bryce and the EU, 206
Bryce, Dicey and Irish Home Rule, 196–199
centrifugal and centripetal forces, 199–200
constitutional law, role of, 202–205
devolution. See devolution federal states, 12
global context. See designing and operating constitutions in global context Janus-faced nature of forces, 200–202 rise and fall of imperial federalism, 195–196 subsidiarity, devolution and federalism, 211 unitary state, UK as, 193–194
state institutions
administrative institutions, 13 judicial institutions, 13 legitimacy of, 12–13
officials, relationships with, 11–12 political institutions, 12 responsibilities, public law and, 27 social institutions, existing as, 52 Statistics Authority, 109
Stockdale v. Hansard, 39, 45
Sutcliffe, Lord, 102
Sunkin, Maurice, 15
Supreme Court, s, 109, 203
Taggart, Michael, 145, 150 terrorism, 5
foreign terror suspects, 129
HRA, terrorism cases and, 130
Northern Ireland, 121
responding to, 4
Thatcher, Margaret, 2, 7, 8, 11, 121, 149, 154, 225
Thoburn v. Sunderland City Council, 83 transparency. See information and transparency Ullah, 127
UNISON, 182
United Kingdom (UK). See also English nationalism; Northern Ireland; Scotland; Wales accountability of government. See accountability, politics of colonial charters and constitutions limiting legislatures, 21
constitution, 73, 81, 256
colonial charters and constitutions, 21
common law constitutional rights, 78–80 constitutional conventions, 81–82
constitutional norms, 81
EU membership affecting, 207
exceptionalism, 74
multidimensional nature of, 85–86
uncodified, 215
constitutive conception of public law, and, 44–45 ECtHR, and, 117, 121
withdrawal from, 132
ECtHR, and, 117
legislative supremacy. See legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution Parliament. See Parliament political constitutionalism, 74
Prime Minister. See Prime Minister strong government, attachment to, 97–98
UK bill of rights, proposal for, 132, 210
United Nations, 257, 261, 262
International Constitutional Court, proposal for, 272
United States, 194
Bill of Rights (1791), 116
constitution, 50, 73, 86, 90, 256
courts giving effect to constitution, 28
Crown and state, 9
Declaration of Independence (1776), 116
Index

United States (cont.)
expenditure/activity of federal institutions restricted, 7 individual rights, 116
Marbury v. Madison, 21
public law, narrow view of, 50
‘soft power’, 10
Supreme Court, 269

Waldron, Jeremy, 6
Wales
devolution. See under devolution nationalist movement, 197 Walker, N, 213
war, civilians displaced by, 3

Weaver, 186
Wednesbury, 124, 147, 175
welfare state restructuring by Margaret Thatcher, 7
social welfare, states’ obligation to provide, 2
whistleblowers, 108
WM, 161–162
Wolfensohn, James, 60
World Bank, 10, 60
World Trade Organization, 268
Wright, Tony, 13

YL, 183, 186, 187
Young, Hugo, 98