

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

Index

- A Passage to India* (Forster), 55
 Abbas II, Khedive, 105, 200
 Abdülmecid I, Sultan, 27
 acceleration and deceleration, 6–7, 142, 318
 acceleration aided by ‘desert mobilities’, 164–71
 acceleration and Western modernity, 2–3 acceleration associated with the Suez Canal, 1–2
 camels versus steam, 164–6
 deceleration of ‘desert mobilities’, 152–64
 and disease, 241–2
 restriction of dhow mobilities, 173 tensions between mobilities, 1–2, 6–7
 theme in portrayals of the Canal journey, 38, 51
 and troops, 103–4
 accidents in the Suez Canal, 110, 111, 250
 Aden, 50, 93, 247, 287, 316
 coaling station, 117, 122–3
 Gulf of, 195
 prostitution, 303
 repatriation of destitute travellers, 288–9
 Alexandria, 46
 1882 riots and bombardment, 83–4
 Egyptianisation, 307
 lazaretto, 256
 medical checks, 267
 overland route, 21–3
 Algeria
 Algerian pilgrims, 161, 204
 Army of Africa, 169
 and citizenship status, 234
 and fears of pan-Islam, 219
 French troops, 101
 regulation of pilgrim movements, 221–5, 230–6
 anti-imperial ideas, fear of spread, 213–14, 216–20
 anti-slavery movement, 28, 181
 Armenian refugees, 308, 310–12
 Aouat, Brahim, 217–18
 Arnoux, Hippolyte, 64, 65, 148, 154, 155, 166, 177
 Aubert-Roche, Louis, 46
 Australia, 56, 96
 Australian emigrants, 134
 Australian troops in the First World War, 308
 destitute and stowaways, 283, 291
 emigration to, 14
 Austrian Lloyd, 24, 278
 Azizie Company, 182
 Baedeker travel guides, 60, 91, 152, 160, 277
 baghla (sailing boat), 174
 Baijnath, Lala, 46, 52
 Baring, Evelyn, from 1892 Lord Cromer, 92, 98, 105, 115, 160–1, 185, 198, 201,
 207, 246, 265
 Barrows, John Henry, 105, 125, 150
 Bartlett, W. H., 59
 Bauer, Marie-Bernard, 41
 Bedouin, 19
 abandonment of nomadic way of life, 155–8
 acceleration aided by ‘desert mobilities’, 164–71
 Bedouin attacks on pilgrim caravans,
 161–4, 224
 Bedouin camp at Canal opening, 40 contrast with Canal mobility, 31
 dwindling opportunities, 155–8
 employment as local experts, 166–8 mobility despised by European travellers, 144–7
 resistance to European presence, 158–64
 restrictions caused by the Canal, 153–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

356 Index

- Bedouin (cont.)
 romanticisation of, 149–50
 scientific and classificatory approach, 147–8
- benevolent societies, 215, 282
- Berlin conference on Africa (1884), 87, 88, 99, 188–9
- Berlin Congress (1878), 80
- Berlioux, Étienne-Félix, 179–80, 181, 264
- Bert, Paul, 53
- Bismarck, Otto von, 57
- Bombay, 118, 131–2, 185
 Bombay Marine, 182
 cholera, 85, 247, 258, 268
- Bonaparte, Napoleon, see Napoleon Bonaparte
- Bonnetain, Paul, 55, 127
- Borde, Paul, 117–18
- Bosanquet, Stanley, 194, 195
- Bourde, Paul, 48, 50, 56, 58, 125
- Boxer Rebellion, 96, 217
- Brieux, Eugène, 178
- British Empire
 colonisation in East Africa, 99
 Greater Britain concept, 16
 influence over Egypt, 78–82
 occupation of Egypt (1882), 82–6
 organic view, 16, 57
 overland troop service, 22
 predominance of British shipping on the Canal, 56–8 presence in the Canal Zone, 74–82
- British Merchant Shipping Act (1894), 129
- British opposition to Canal project, 41
 Suez Canal as threshold between metropole and colonies, 55–6 troop transportation through the Canal, 56–7
- British Passenger Act (1855), 11
- British protected persons, 274
- British subjects, 274
- Brussels
 international conference against slavery and the slave trade (1889–90), 189–92
- bureaucracy, bureaucratisation, 6, 204, 224, 225, 259–61, 281, 306, 313
- Burrell, W., 45, 93
- Burton, Isabel, 125–6, 149–50, 157–8, 174, 211
- Burton, Richard, 27, 149, 259
- Caddick, Helen, 120
Calcutta Gazette, 209
- Camel Corps, 169–71
- camel transportation
 viewed as backward, 1–2
- camels versus steam, 164–6
- cameras
 use of personal cameras, 66
- Canal towns
 impact of the Canal construction, 30
 likened to other places, 46–7
 metaphors for, 46–7
- Cape of Good Hope, 1, 22–4, 142, 156
- Cape Town, 142
- capitulations, 91, 176, 300
- Capper, James, 21–2
- caravans
 arrangements for crossing the Canal at al-Quantara, 153–5 decline of, 155–8
 dwindling opportunities for desert dwellers, 155–8
 restrictions caused by the Canal, 153–5 route interrupted by Canal, 1–2
 transporting coal, 23
- Carnegie, Andrew, 109, 124–5, 176
- cartography, 12–13
- caste system in India, 19
- categorisation, 138, 149, 196, 260
- Çelebi, Evliya, 25
- censuses, 19, 160
- Charmetant, Félix, 47, 151
- Chatham, accident of, 110
- Chaudhuri, Pyjanmohana, 52
- Chevalier, Michel, 25
- China, 85
 Boxer Rebellion, 96, 217
 Chinese seamen, 128, 265
 Chinese stowaway, 292
- cholera, 214, 216–17, 227, 230–2, 242, 247–50, 257, 268, 270
 concerns about spread of, 84–85
 defining regions of disease origination, 257–9
 fear of outbreaks, 243
 measures of Canal Company, 266–7 viewed as originating in India, 217, 258 viewed as originating in Mecca and Medina, 258–9
- citizenship
 Algeria, 234
 and Empire, 274
 and responsibilities of the state, 273–4
 codification of, 19
- civilising mission, 141–2
 Canal as epitome of civilisation, 41–3 connection with mobility, 15–19
 despising desert mobility, 144–7

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

Index

357

- fight against the slave trade, 172–3, 178–81
 frontier of the civilising mission, 31, 142, 144, 178, 203 perceptions of ‘desert life’, 142–52 view of Félix Charmetant, 151 view of Frederick Treves, 151–2 view of James Martin Peebles, 151
 classification, 288, 315
 of Bedouin, 147–50, 162–3
 of travellers for sanitary control, 263–70
- coal concerns about supply, 117–18
 passengers and coaling, 48, 63
 price and quality, 117–18
 transport to Port Said, 116–17 transported by caravan across the isthmus, 23
- coal heavers
 passengers’ view of, 119–21 strikes by, 121–3
 working conditions, 118–19
- coal trimmers and stokers, 130–2 coaling companies, 117–19
 coaling stations, 116–17
 Aden, 122
 Perim, 122, 288
 Port Said, 116–17
- Cocteau, Jean, 308
Code de l’indigénat, 223
 Cogordan, Georges, 116
 Colonial Land and Emigration Commission, 11
 Columbus, 41, 51
Compagnie universelle du canal de Suez, see Suez Canal Company Congo Free State, 188, 189
 Conrad, Joseph, 44, 45, 60, 137, 210
Conseil sanitaire maritime et quarantenaire d’Egypte, 245–8
 consular courts, 91, 135–7
 consulates
 dealings concerning seamen, 133–7
 difficulties of control and supervision, 90–4
 information transfer role, 94–9 surveillance of troop movements, 95–9 contact zone, 146
 contagion, 216–20, 241, 244, 266, 270–1
 control and openness
 tensions between, 318–19
cordon sanitaire, 169, 249, 251–3, 257
corvée system, 28–9, 178
 cosmopolitanism, 45, 49, 62, 125, 300
 Couvidou, Henri, 47–8
 crime networks, 294–305
 fugitive offenders, 295–9
 prostitution, 299–301
 white slavery, 299–301
 Cromer, Lord, see Baring, Evelyn Curzon, George Nathaniel, 56, 109
Cyprien Fabre, 208, 212, 218
 Cyprus, 227
- Dames françaises* benevolent association, 102
 Darius I of Persia, 25
 deaths among troops arrangements concerning, 101–2 deceleration, see acceleration and deceleration ‘desert mobilities’ aiding acceleration, 164–71
 deceleration of, 152–64
 despised by European travellers, 144–7
 dwindling opportunities, 155–8 ethnographic view, 147–8
 perceptions of, 143–52
 romantic views of, 149–50 ‘desert time’ and ‘canal time’, 150–2 destitute travellers, 280
 cost of repatriation, 281–9 Deussen, Paul, 143
 dhows, 172
 impact of the opening of the Canal, 175–7 inspection at sea, 199–203 misuse of French flag, 187, 199, 201–2
 reliance on, 195–6
 use of the Canal and Red Sea, 174–7
 use to patrol shipping, 195–6
 Diakenandreas, Kanakis, 114
 Dicey, Edward, 86
 Digby, Jane, 149
 disease
 changing perceptions of disease, 270–1
 European concerns about epidemics, 84–5, 213–14 fear of cholera outbreaks, 243 providing relief for diseased troops, 100–2 disease control
 bureaucratic measures, 259–61
 Canal as an anti-contact zone, 249–53
 classification of travellers, 263–70
Conseil sanitaire maritime et quarantenaire d’Egypte, 245–8
cordon sanitaire, 251–3
 defining regions of disease origination, 257–9

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

358 Index

- disease control (cont.)
 international sanitary conferences, 243–5, 248
 lazarettos, 227–9, 253–7
 militarisation of the Canal Zone, 251–3
 passage in quarantine, 249–53
 quarantine measures for pilgrims, 226–9
 quarantine stations, 227–9, 253–7 scientific measures, 261–3 spatial arrangements, 248–59
 voluntary quarantine of ships in transit, 249–53
- disinfection, 262
- Disraeli, Benjamin, 79
- documents and papers documents for dhows, 190–1 documents for ships, 80
 forgery of identity documents, 233–4, 279–80
 passport-free travel in the belle époque, 275–7
- Dodu, Gaston, 13
- Doss, N. L., 48–9
- dredgers, 29, 64, 108, 111, 114–15, 165
- Dumreicher, André von, 169–70
- Durban, 142
- east of Suez
 resistance to European penetration, 158–64
 slave trade, 178–81
 theme developed by Rudyard Kipling, 62
- ‘Eastern Question’, 24, 27
- Eckermann, Johann Peter, 75
- Eden, Anthony, 57
- Egypt
 as a tourist destination, 14
 as ‘hyphen’ between Europe and the Far East, 39
 British and French influence over, 78–82
 British occupation of (1882), 82–6
Egyptian Gazette, 47, 162, 222, 251
 Egyptian Geographical Society, 147
 Eichthal, Gustave d’, 25
 El Isnaoui, Mahamed, 131
 Elliot, Henry, 40
 Ellis Island, 315
 emigration, 13–14
 of pilgrims, 221
 Enfantin, Barthélemy Prosper, 25, 26
 Enfield, Viscount, George Byng, 258
 Entente Cordiale (1904), 88
 epidemics, see disease
 Ernst Ludwig, Grand Duke of Hesse, 67 ethnography view of desert peoples, 147–8
 ethnology, 46
 Eugénie, Empress of France, 27, 39, 40, 41
 evasion of mobility controls, 319
 by pilgrims, 231–6
Excelsior ballet, 144–6, 179
 expeditions, 12
 Frith, 64, 174–5, 178
 Napoleon Bonaparte in Egypt, 21
 Near East Relief, 310
 Palmer’s expedition, 159
 Robert Koch’s expedition to Egypt, 20
- exploration
 and cartography, 12–13
 David Livingstone and Henry Morton Stanley, 10 of new routes to Mecca, 205 of Red Sea, 21
 Royal Geographical Society, 15
 extraterritoriality, 73, 104, 297–8
- Fabre, Étienne, 85, 247
- Falanga, Anthony, 93
- famine, 150, 202
- Farahani, Mirza Mohammed Hosayn, 232
- Fehmy, Moustapha, 252–3
- fellahin*, 28, 156, 165
- felucca (sailing boat), 174
- Ferry, Jules, 87–8
- First World War, 72, 119, 308–9
- Fogg, Phileas, 10, 44, 276–7, 296
- Fontane, Marius, 112–13, 153
- forgery of identity documents, 233–4, 279–80
- Forster, E. M., 55, 59
- France
 cost of repatriation of destitute travellers by consulates, 287 involvement in Egypt’s internal affairs, 78–9 misuse of French flag by dhows, 187, 199, 201–2
- Franck, Harry A., 281–2
- Franz Joseph I, Emperor of Austria, 39
- Fremantle, Edmund Robert, 185–6
- French Sheldon, Mary, 48, 146–7, 150
- fresh water canal, 157, 166, 176
- Friedrich Wilhelm, Prince of Prussia, 39, 40, 41, 50
- Frith, Francis, 64, 174
- fugitive offenders, 295–9

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

Index

359

- Gama, Vasco da, 51, 142
 Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand, 16
 Gaunt, E. F. A., 201
 Gennep, Arnold van, 38–9, 50
 Germany, 8
 German East Africa, 202
 German involvement in South African War, 97
 Gibraltar, 316
 Gladstone, William Ewart, 105
 global and local, 319–20
 far-reaching effects of local conflicts, 121–3
 global localities
 Canal building sites, 112–13
 exhibitions, 62–3
 lazarettos, 227–9, 253–7
 Port Said, 44–9
 steamship, 124–7
 Thomas Cook offices, 60, 70, 315
 globalisation, 7–8
 from below, 273
 Gobineau, Joseph-Arthur de, 241
 Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 75
 Gordon, Charles, 94, 105, 185
 Grant, Ulysses S., 53, 125
 Granville, Lord, 94, 183
 Greater Britain concept, 16
 Greek workers, 29, 99, 111, 113–15, 138
 Grey, Edward, 200
 Guide Bleu, 60
 guidebooks, see also Baedeker, Murray etc.
 for colonial travellers, 102–3

 Hachette guidebook, 60
 hajj, see Mecca Pilgrimage
 Harding, E. J., 57
 hashish, 169, 295
Heart of Darkness (Conrad), 137
 Henry, Prince of the Netherlands, 39
 high imperialism, 15–20, 77
 Hijaz, 161, 163, 188
 Hobrecht, James, 70
 Houghton, Lord, 41
 Hugonnet, Léon-Vincent-Auguste,
 French
 Hull, Edmund, 55, 56, 59, 125
 Humboldt, Alexander von, 75
 Humphreys, Rachel, 49

 identification documents. See documents and papers introduction of new identification practices, 19 of individuals, 272–3
 of pilgrims, 233–4
 of slaves, 197–9
 photography as means of identification, 216, 234, 301, 313, 319
 immobility, forced, 7, 227, 282, 295
 imperial attitudes towards Islam, 214–16 imperial competition after 1882, 86–9 imperial expansion, 15–16
 imperial infrastructure, 33, 57–8, 94, 100–1, 106 disputes with Canal Company regarding troop transportation, 99–100 troop transportation arrangements, 100–2 imperial monitoring of pilgrim movements, 221–6
 imperial space
 Suez Canal as, 54–8
 in-between space
 Suez Canal as, 43–54
 indentured labourers, 16, 128
 India
 mobilities in pre-colonial times, 13
 pilgrims from India, 206, 215, 225
 sedentarisation, 18
 viewed as source of cholera, 258, 270
 Indian Act (1876), 129
 Indian Uprising (1857–58), 18, 27, 215, 221
 indigenous skills
 reliance on, 164–70, 193–4
 Indochina
 Annam and Tonkin, 53
 Cochinchina, 42, 84
 death among French returnees from, 55–6 information acquisition and transfer by consulates, 94–9
 International Information Office, slave trade, 191–2, 312
 International Office of Hygiene, 244 reliance on local sources, 193–4 speeding up of information transfer, 12
 white slavery, 301
 infrastructural relay station, see imperial infrastructure
 inter-imperial conflicts
 over control of Red Sea mobilities, 183–8 intermediaries
 coal heavers, 118–19
 pilgrims, 224–5
 reliance on interpreters, 193–4
 seamen, 131

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

360 Index

- international conferences on the status of the Suez Canal (1885 and 1888), 87–9
- International Electro-Technical Exhibition, 144
- international sanitary conferences, 217, 243–5, 248
- internationalism, 20, 104, 201, 243, 244, 247, 270
- interpreters
reliance on, 193–4
- Islam
association with slavery, 180–1
imperial attitudes towards, 214–16
- Isma'il, Khedive, 23, 28–29, 39, 79, 80, 182
- Ismailia, 30, 40, 243
- Japan, 42
jeux d'échelles, 8
- Jidda, 161–2, 194, 198, 206, 208, 216, 218, 220, 228, 233
- Jones, William Gore, 187, 195
- Kerr, S. Parnell, 62, 120
- Khedival Steam Navigation Company, 207–9, 225
- Kipling, Rudyard, 12, 37, 60–2, 124, 130, 146, 281
- Klippel, Ernst, 147, 149, 153, 156
- Koch, Robert, 216, 259
- Kodak camera, 63, 66
- L'Hôpital, G., 76
- labour movements
Canal workers, 113–16
coal heavers, 121–3
global labour history, 106
- The Lancet*, 57
- language and communication issues
interpreters, 193–4
seamen, 130–1
- lascars, 16, 126–9, 133, 137
language ('Lascari'), 130–1
racial discrimination on steamships, 127–30 switching crews in Port Said, 130–3
- Lawrence of Arabia*, film, 150
- Lawrence, Thomas J., 87
- lazarettos, 246, 253–7, 270, 308
- Le Figaro*, 55
- Le Gaulois*, 75
- Le Père, Jacques-Marie, 25
- Lépissier, Paul, 209, 215, 219
- Lesage, Charles, 79
- Lesseps, Ferdinand de, 26–27, 28, 41, 43, 72, 83, 108, 110, 113, 117, 151, 168, 245, 247, 259, 315
statue at Port Said, 43, 54, 67, 158
Panama Canal, 315–16
- Le Temps*, 48, 230
- Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 147
- lieu de mémoire, 54, 72
- Limbéris, Emmanuel, 114
- Livingstone, David, 10, 12
- local skills and expertise
reliance on, 166–8, 173, 193–6
- Lorimer, Emily, 267
- Löwith, Karl, 308
- Lynch, Thomas Kerr, 29
- Mackinder, Halford, 13
- Madagascar expedition, 74, 89, 99–102
- Mahdi, Sudan, 185, 217, 223
Mahdist movement, 94, 105, 185
- Malabari, Behramji, 49, 51
- Malcolm, George, 194–6
- Maltese
in the Suez Canal Region, 29, 99, 111, 134, 135, 176, 278, 285
- manumission of slaves, 197–8
- Manzotti, Luigi, 144, 179
- Mayhew, Henry, 18
- Mecca, 162, 180
and the slave trade, 188, 197–9
viewed as source of cholera, 258–9
- Mecca pilgrimage
bureaucratisation of the pilgrimage, 204–5, 221–6 defining preconditions for pilgrim mobility, 221–6 economic concerns about, 220–21
European concerns, 213–14
evasion of mobility regulations, 231–6 fear of disease spread, 216–20
and 'pan-Islam', 216–20
imperial monitoring of pilgrim movements, 205, 221–6
methods of control, 221
new routes using the Canal, 205–7 observations of pilgrims on steamships, 211–13 pilgrims without funds, 220–21 potential for permanent emigration of pilgrims, 220–21

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

Index

361

- prohibition of pilgrim movement, 229–31
 quarantine measures for pilgrims, 226–9
 regulation of Algerian pilgrims, 223–5 safety of pilgrim caravans, 161–4
 and the slave trade, 188, 198, 202
 transport of pilgrims, 156–7 travel by steamship, 207–11
 media depictions of the Canal books, 59–63
 circulation of images and descriptions, 63–71
 fictional accounts, 59–63
 photographs, 63–70
 postcards, 67–70
 standardised descriptions, 58–9
 travel guides, 59–63
 travel writing, 59–63
 use of personal cameras, 66
 Medina, 162, 205–6
 viewed as source of cholera, 257–9
Messageries Maritimes, 24, 122, 125, 126, 128, 158, 208
 metaphors
 for Canal, 43, 70–1
 for Canal Towns, 46–7
 for Port Said, 70–1
 middlemen, see intermediaries
 reliance on interpreters, 193–4
 Miéville, Walter Frederick, 208, 250, 258
 migration (forced and free), 13–14
 militarisation of the Canal Zone
cordon sanitaire, 251–3
 First World War, 308–9
 Milne, Alexander, 40
 mobilities
 associated with seas and oceans, 13
 deportation, 115, 123, 295, 303–5, 318
 distinction between different categories, 3–6, 16–17, 317–18
 forced mobility, 6, 115–16, 123, 281–7, 295
 ‘immobility’ and detention, 7, 135, 226–31, 253–7, 282, 295, 304–5
 in early modern Europe, 13
 migration (forced and free), 13–14
 mobile workforce in the Canal Zone, 105–6
 mobility as marker of modernity, 16–20
 movement of people into the Canal Zone, 105–6
 pre-colonial India, 13
 repatriation, 115, 235–6, 273, 280–7, 289–94, 303–5
 stigmatisation of wandering people, 17–18
 tension between acceleration and control, 6–7
 Mokha, 21
 Morgenthau, Henry, 310
 Moses’ Wells, see quarantine stations
 Mozoomdar, P. C., 53
 Muhammad ‘Ali, Khedive, 21, 23, 148, 156, 160
 Mukharji, T. N., 49
 al-Muqrani, 223
 Murray guidebook, 56, 60
 Namazee, Ali Akbar, 278
 Napoleon III of France, 27, 75
 Napoleon Bonaparte, 21, 24, 25
 Nasser, Gamal Abdel, 57
 nationality changing, 278–9
 and consular courts, 91 keeping and losing, 277–9
 and responsibilities of the state, 273–4
 rules of the Ottoman Empire, 277–8 trying to maintain, 278
 Near East Relief, 310
 Negrelli, Alois, 26
 Netherlands
 colonial activity, 42
 colonial expansion, 99
 neutrality of the Canal
 debate over, 73–6, 79, 86–9, 95
 Nile, 14, 25, 30, 64, 200
Norddeutscher Lloyd, 208
 Nubar Pasha, 91, 176
 Odessa, 95, 100
 oil, 1, 307, 311–13
 openness and control
 tensions between, 318–9
 ‘Oriental Question’, see Eastern Question
 Ottoman Empire, 21, 79–80, 86, 91, 187, 201 disputes with the Canal Company, 99–100
 regulation of pilgrim movements, 161–2, 211, 222, 225–6
 rules on nationality, 245, 277–8
 troops transportation, 99–100
 weakening of, 24
 Ovington, John, 21
 P&O, 23–4, 77, 124–5, 129, 208, 268, 284
 Palmer, Edward Henry
 murder case, 158, 159–60
 Palmerston, Viscount, 27, 28

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

362 Index

- Panama Canal, 315–16
 pan-Islam fears, 214, 216–20, 223, 231
 passage in quarantine, 249–53
 Passenger Vessels Act (1803), 211
 passports, see documents and papers
 Pasteur, Louis, 216
 Peebles, James Martin, 151
 Penfield, Frederic Courtland, 62
 Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, see P&O
 Peninsular Steam Navigation Company, see P&O
 Perceval, Charles, 91–2
 Perim, 29
 coaling station, 122–3
 Persian Gulf, 42
 Le Phare de Port-Saïd et du canal de Suez, 69, 119, 137
 photography
 and identification, 216, 234, 301, 313, 319
 photographic studios, 64–6
 photographs of the Canal, 63–70
 Pilgrim Ships' Act (1895), 222, 224, 231 pilgrims, see Mecca Pilgrimage pilots and disease control measures, 250–1 employed by the Suez Canal Company, 109–10 Pindaris
 persecution of, 18
 Piquet, Caroline, 107
 plague, 216–17, 227, 230–1, 257, see also disease Port Arthur, 95–6
 port cities
 cost of repatriation of destitute travellers, 287–9
 'learning from each other', 287–9
 Port Said
 ambivalent images of, 44–9
 as a global locality, 44–9
 as a terminus for problematic mobilities, 280–94
 coaling companies, 117–19
 competition between shipping lines, 123
 cost of repatriation of destitute travellers, 281–7
 crime and vice, 48–9
 eastern and western attributes, 44–9 economic problems, 137
 far-reaching effects of local conflicts, 121–3
 imperial rivalries and hierarchies, 123
 metaphors for, 70–1
 postcards of, 67–9
 prostitution and white slavery, 299–301
 Simon Arzt department store, 45, 52 statue of Ferdinand de Lesseps, 43
 stowaways, 289–94
 switching crews on steamships, 130–8
 Thomas Cook office, 60 transient population, 274–5
 visitors' impressions of, 44–9
 Port Said coaling station
 coal heavers, 118–19
 passengers' view of the coal heavers, 119–21 strikes by coal heavers, 121–3 transport of coal to, 116–17
 Port Said consulate
 difficulties of control and supervision, 90–4 troops movement surveillance and reporting, 95–9 Port Tawfiq, 72, 113
 postal services, 17, 69–70
 postcards, 32, 67–70
 problematic mobilities terminus at Port Said, 280–94
 Proeschel, M. F., 42
 prostitution, 48–9, 299–304
 Proust, Adrien, 245
 pyramids (Giza), 51
- al-Qantara
 caravan ferry, 172
 intersection of canal and caravan routes, 149, 153–5, 172 quarantine measures for pilgrims, 226–9
 'passage in quarantine', 249–52
 quarantine stations, 253–7
 al-Tur, 227–9, 268–9
 Moses' Wells, 254–6
- railway
 linking across the United States, 10 railway between Suez and Cairo, 22
 railway stations, 314
 Raynaud, Pélissier de, 45
 Razzack, Abdur, 227, 259
 Red Cross, 102
 Red Sea
 ability of steamships to navigate, 22 blockade, 185–6
 complaints about heat, 55–6
 conditions before construction of the Canal, 20–3

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

Index

363

- extent of the slave trade, 182–3
- impact of Canal on Red Sea shipping, 176–8
- inter-imperial conflicts, 183–8
- traditional forms of shipping, 172–3
- traditional sailing boats (dhows), 174–5
- Redwood, Ethel Boverton, 58, 60, 63
- regulation and control
 - evasion of mobility regulations by pilgrims, 231–6
 - fight against the slave trade, 183–92
 - of pilgrim mobility, 221–37
 - sedentarisation policies, 18–20
- regulation of the Canal, 6–7
 - after 1882, 86–9
 - creation and application of new forms of regulation, 103–4
 - debate about policing authority, 111–13
 - early years of experimentation and standardisation, 75–82
 - imperial competition and international agreements, 86–9
 - international conferences on the status of the Canal, 86–9
 - pilots employed by the Canal Company, 109–10
 - reliance on local skills, 174–7
 - unruliness of workers, 111–13
- relief agencies, 102
- Renan, Ernest, 72, 73
- repatriation
 - of criminals, 289–94
 - of destitute travellers, 287–9
 - of pilgrims, 235–6
 - of strikers, 115
- rite de passage*
 - Kipling's view of the Canal journey, 62
 - origin of the concept, 38–9, 49–50
 - passage through the Canal as, 37–8
 - personal responses to passage through the Canal, 49–54
 - pilgrims, 206, 212
- Rizzo, Paolo, 278–9
- Rodier, George, 46, 50
- Roma
 - discrimination against, 17
- Romans
 - occupation of Egypt, 25
- romantic views of 'desert life', 149–50
- Rothschild, Lionel de, 79
- Royal Geographical Society, London, 12, 15, 41
- 'rulemaking' and 'rulebreaking', 138, 319
 - experimentation in the Suez Canal, 104
- 'rules of globalisation'
 - emergence of, 7
 - enactment by consulates, 90–94
 - enactment of, 132
 - experimentation in the Canal region, 73, 74, 319
- Russia
 - colonisation of Siberia, 99
 - troop transportation, 100
- Russo-Japanese War (1904–5), 94, 100
- Russo-Turkish War (1877–78), 79–80, 118
- Sa'id, Khedive, 26, 28, 148
- Saint-Simon, Henri de, 25, 26, 39
- Saint-Simonians, 59, 145
- Sakakini, Jules, 186
- Salvator, Ludwig, 153–5
- sanbük (sailing boat), 174
- Sanitary Conference in Rome*, 88
- sanūsiyya*, 218, 219
- al-Saqqā, Sheikh Ibrahim, 41
- scarlet fever, 258
- seamen, 123–38
 - and health issues, 264–6
 - lascars, 126–7
 - and papers, 281–2
 - racial stereotyping, 128
 - racial stigmatisation, 127–30
 - social space of the steamship, 124–7
 - stokers and coal trimmers, 130–2
 - switching crews in Port Said and Suez, 130–8
 - treatment of lascars, 127–30
 - unruly behaviour, 123–4
- sedentarisation policies, 18–20
- Seeley, John Robert, 16
- Sesostris III, Pharaoh, 25
- shipping lines, see also Cyprien Fabre, Messageries Maritimes, P&O
 - competition between, 123
- Siberia
 - colonisation by Russia, 99
- Siegfried, André, 241
- Simmel, Georg, 145
- Simon Arzt department store, Port Said, 45, 52
- Sinai, 147, 156, 158–61
- Sinh Jee, Bhagvat, 50–51
- Sinti
 - discrimination against, 17
- slave trade
 - association with Mecca, 197–9, 202
 - Brussels conference (1889/90), 189–92
 - east of Suez, 178–81
 - extent in the Red Sea, 182–3
 - fight against, 172–3

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03060-2 - Channelling Mobilities: Migration and Globalisation in the Suez Canal Region and Beyond, 1869–1914

Valeska Huber

Index

More information

364 Index

- slave trade (cont.)
 identification of slaves in Suez, 197–9 imperial and international interventions, 183–92 justification for colonialism, 178–81 regulation of mobilities in fight against, 183–92
- smallpox, 258
- snapshots
 use of personal cameras, 66
- Snouck Hurgronje, Christiaan, 180–1
- social history of globalisation, 289
- Société de bienfaisance*, Port Said, 263, 293
- Société française de secours aux blessés militaires*, 102
- South African War, 96–8
- Stanhope, Lady Hester, 149
- Stanley, Henry Morton, 10, 12, 154–5
- steamships
 ability to navigate the Red Sea, 22 crew language and communication issues, 130–1 development of, 11
 ‘Empire in microcosm’, 124–7
 evasion of payment of Canal fees, 132–3
 introduction into Red Sea, 21 passengers’ observations of pilgrims, 211–13 slave trade on steamships, 182–3
 social space of the steamship, 124–7
 steam versus sail, 11
 stokers and coal trimmers, 130–2
 switching crews at Port Said and Suez, 130–8 use by pilgrims, 207–11
- Stephan, Heinrich, 14, 42
- stigmatisation of mobilities, 17–18
- stokers and coal trimmers, 130–2
- stowaways, 280, 289–94
- Strachey, Ralph, 70, 268
- strategic importance of the Canal, 72–3
- strikes
 by Canal workers, 113–16
 by coal heavers, 121–3
- Suez
 decline after opening of the Canal, 157 identification of slaves, 197–9
 impact of the Canal construction, 30
 switching crews on steamships, 130–8
- Suez Canal
 acceleration and deceleration of mobilities, 318
 after 1914, 307–13
 and development of global connections, 9–10
 as a crossroads of global routes, 1
 as a filter to control mobilities, 242
 as a global infrastructural relay station, 138
 as a laboratory for rulemaking, 104
 as a tool of acceleration and deceleration, 103–4
 as an anti-contact zone, 249–53
 as an in-between space, 43–54
 as epitome of civilisation and progress, 41–3
 as imperial space, 54–8
 as ‘semi-permeable membrane’, 242
 as threshold between Britain and its colonies, 55–6
 British attitudes towards, 27–30 Canal as space of channelling, 320–1 construction process, 24–30
 depictions in travel narratives, 44
 developments which allowed its construction, 20–24
 global intersections beyond, 313–17
 global unification role, 39–43 level of traffic going through, 43
 metaphors for, 43, 57, 70–1
 neutrality of, 73–5, 86–9
 opening of, 39–41
 passenger numbers, 43
 preconditions for its construction, 20–24 range of perceptions of, 41
 strategic importance of the Canal, 72–3
 symbol of shortening distances, 2–3
 tensions between openness and control, 318–19
- Suez Canal Company
 ambiguous legal status, 78–9, 107–8 and workers’ rights movements, 113–16 conflict with imperial powers, 99–100 development and organisation, 107 disputes over troop transportation, 99–100 fees from small local vessels, 176 international customers, 107–10
 local politics, 107–10
 newspaper, 42
 pilots employed by, 109–10
 relations with ships using its service, 108–10
 self-presentation, 42–3 shares, 78–9
 strikes by Canal workers, 113–16
 treatment of high-status passengers, 275–7
 unruliness of workers, 111–13
- Suez Canal passage
 as rite de passage, 49–54
 personal responses to, 49–54

- standard behaviours associated with, 37–8
- Suez Canal Region
 situation prior to construction of the Canal, 20–24
- Tabor, Eliza, 79
- Tangier, 73, 316
- Tawfiq, Khedive, 80
- Tel el-Kebir, battle of, 83, 86
- telegraph, 70, 315
 deep-sea cables, 10, 12
 telegraph and disease control, 250, 261, 266 telegraph and slave trade controls, 198
 telegraph and ‘white slave trade’ controls, 301
 telegraphic information on troop passage, 94–9
 telegraph interrupted 1882, 85
 telegraph interrupted in Jidda, 161
 transatlantic cable, 10
- telephone, 119, 261
- Thackeray, William Makepeace, 44
- Thomas Cook, 14, 41, 125, 209, 215
 influence in Egypt, 105
 packaged trips, 60
- Thomas Cook offices, 60, 70, 315
- time
 different perceptions of, 150–2 standardisation of world time, 11
- The Times*, 44
- tourism
 attraction of Egypt, 14 emergence of package tours, 14
 travel narratives, 44
- ‘traditional’ shipping on the Red Sea, 172–3
- travel guides, 59–63, see also Guide Bleu, Murray, Baedeker
- travel writing, 44, 59–63
- Treves, Frederick, 62–3, 120, 150–2
- troop movements
 related to control of colonies, 99 surveillance and information gathering by consulates, 95–9
- troop transportation
 arrangements for British troops, 56–8, 77–8 aspects of imperial infrastructure, 100–2
 death and disease, 100–2 desertion, 100–2
 disputes between imperial powers and 1888 agreement, 89
- and Canal Company, 99–100
- French Madagascar expedition, 100–3
- Ottoman troops, 79
- overland route, 24
 and quarantine, 85
 regulation of, 73–4
- troops in the Canal Zone, 72–4
- al-Tur, lazaretto, 227–9, 236, 256, 268
- Twain, Mark, 126–7
- United States, 42
 anti-slavery movement, 28
 destination for stowaways and colonial migrants, 284–5, 290–1
 immigration, 5, 12–13, 315
 Near East Relief, 310
 railway, 10
- ‘Urabi, Ahmad, 82–3
- ‘vagabonds’, 293–4
- Vasel, August, 277
- Verne, Jules, 10, 44, 276–7, 296
- Vesey Fitzgerald, W. F., 76
- Villiers-Stuart, Henry, 83, 110
- Vladivostok, 95, 100
- Voisin, François Philippe, 29, 41, 46
- voluntary quarantine of ships in transit, 249–53
- Waghorn, Thomas, 22, 23
- Wanderings and Wooings East of Suez*
 (Redwood), 58, 60, 63
- West, G. W., 157, 176
- ‘white slavery’, 299–301
- Willis, W. N., 300–1
- workers in the Canal Zone, 106
 Canal Company workers’ strikes, 113–16
 coal heavers strikes, 121–3
 mobile workforce in the Canal Zone, 105–6
- world tours, 43–4
- World War I, see First World War
- Yanbu’, 207, 210, 218, 220
- yellow fever, 217, 316
- Young, John Russell, 53, 125
- Younghusband, Francis Edward, 53
- Zangaki brothers, 64, 111, 112
- Zanzibar, 185, 191