

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More information

Index

- ACFTU. See All-China Federation of Trade Unions
- activism. See cellular activism
- All-China Federation of Trade Unions (ACFTU), 2, 56, 98–9, 194
- Labor Contract Law (LCL) and, 175, 180
- American Motor Corporation (AMC), 27, 29–30
- An Gang Constitution, 24–5
- departure from the “one-man rule” management, 25
- as socialist experiment of democratic management, 25
- Andreas, Joel, 25
- aspirations of younger formal workers, 116
- assembly line production. See also shop floor, production organization on
- body shop, 83–4
- composition of workforce in, 60–2
- factory autoworkers and, 7, 10
- formal workers and, 63–4
- labor force dualism and, 45
- minimum efficient scale standards, 27
- modular, 84
- optimum efficient scale standards, 27
- paint shop, 84
- in press shop, 83
- restrictions on foreign ownership, 8
- skill level of workers with, 62–5
- student workers and, 70–1
- Taylorist/Fordist influences on, 21, 24–5, 39, 82
- temporary workers and, 69–70, 153
- wages in, range of, 75–6
- working hours with, 91–2
- associational bargaining power, for autoworkers, 10
- automation, in Chinese automobile industry. See also automobile industry, in China, mechanization of; just-in-time mass production; shop floor, production organization on
- capital-intensive industry, 89–92
- changing demand for worker skills, due to, 64–6, 89–90
- human wave tactics, 91
- lean production and, 93, 131–2
- mechanization, distinction from, 88
- standardized operations, 89–90
- technique control, 89–90
- technology upgrading, 88–9
- workers’ marketplace bargaining power, affected by, 65–6, 89–90
- workers’ workplace bargaining power, affected by, 89–91
- automobile factories
- ethnography inside, 4–8
- factory regimes, 12–13
- labor force dualism in, 76
- automobile industry, in China.
- See also* development strategies, during the economic reform era; production, in Chinese automobile industry
- annual growth rates for, 73–4
- auto-assembly sector, 7–8, 28–33, 35, 42, 59–60, 74, 76, 80, 82, 90–1, 125
- automation in, 90–1
- auto-parts sector, 59–60, 76, 189
- blue-collar production in, 60–1
- central government intervention and policy for, 8
- consolidation in, 27, 36
- during Cultural Revolution, 25
- demographics of, 26
- development strategy, from 1986–2006, 26–8
- domestic private enterprises in, 8
- dominant ownership types in, 8
- early innovators in, 14
- expansion of, 40–2, 191
- exponential growth of, 3, 79

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More informationIndex

229

- exports, 38–9
- factory hierarchy within, 99–100, 104
- FAW, 24
- under Five-Year Plans, 26–7
- gender dynamics in, 61
- in global markets, 190
- government stimulus package, 27–8
- during Great Leap Forward period, 24
- imports, 38–9
- industrial dynamics of, 14–15
- industrial policy, 26–8
- innovation in, 190–1
- integration into global markets, 39
- interventionism in, 42
- job classifications in, 99–100
- JVs in, 3, 6
- labor force dualism in, 12–14, 48
- labor market in, 59–61
- large state-owned auto groups, 27–9, 31
- latecomers in global automobile
  - production, 14
- licensing requirements for, 29
- market competition within, 34–9
- mechanization of, 88–9
- national political dynamics for, 179
- PCM for, 183 See also product cycle
- as pillar industry, 26–7, 60, 128
- pre-reform development of, 24–6
- private car ownership and, 191
- product cycle for, 12
- profitability in, 34, 36–8
- protectionism for, 28, 32–4, 47–8
- by region, 8
- restructuring of, 34–9, 48
- sales and market shares in, 35–6
- sales prices in, competition for, 37
- Second Auto Works, 24
- segmentation of, 60
- selected auto assemblers in, 7–22
- shop floor processes in, 188–9
- skilled trades classifications for, 64
- socialist legacy on shop floor and in factory
  - in, 18–19, 24–6, 96
- Soviet Union as influence on, 24–5
- state and regime legitimacy as influence on,
  - 15–17
- state-led restructuring of, 12, 14–15
- status of position and, 99–100
- as strategically important, 60
- Taylorist/Fordist production strategies for,
  - 21, 24–5, 39
- under Toyota Production System, 26
- TPS in, 82
- wage conditions in, 163
- working conditions in, 91–4
- WTO accession as influence on, 35–48
- Automotive Industry Development Policy, 27
- Automotive Industry Policy Statement, 27
- Automotive Industry Revitalization Plan*, 191
- autonomy of state, 16
- autoworkers. See factory autoworkers
- BAIC, 31
- bargaining power, for workers.
  - See* associational bargaining power, for autoworkers; legitimacy leverage; marketplace bargaining power; workplace bargaining power
- Beijing Jeep, 33
- “Big Four”, 27, 31
- foreign partners for, 30
- Blecher, Marc, 14, 126
- blue-collar workers
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 60–1
  - discrimination against, 103–4
  - as formal workers, in labor markets, 63
  - in ILM, 108
  - job classifications for, 103
  - performance appraisals for, 105–11
  - social status of, 103–4
  - as team leaders, 105–10
- body shop, 83–4
- Bohai Sea region, wages in, 76
- bonuses, with performance appraisals,
  - 106
- boundary-drawing, 52, 57, 68–9, 71, 117–18,
  - 148, 177–80, 185
- Burawoy, Michael, 12–13, 126
- “game” metaphor, “making out” in the labor
  - process, 137–8
- Business Week*, 23
- BYD, 8, 30, 37
- CAAM. See China Association of Automobile Manufacturers
- cadre-managerial personnel system, 95–8
- career paths and incentives of, 97
- under Company Law, 95
- increasing profitability under, 97–8
- maintenance of legitimacy with workers and,
  - 97–8
- pragmatic philosophy of, 97
- SASAC and, 96
- shop-floor experiences, 96
- SOEs and, 95–6
- state management of, 29, 95–6

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More information

230

Index

- Canadian Auto Workers (CAW), 47
- capitalism, in China
  - contradictory state and regime legitimacy as influence on, 15–17
  - crisis of profitability and, 11, 34, 37–8
  - profitability-legitimacy contradiction and, 13–14, 16
- CATRC, 7–22, 28, 30, 35–6, 40, 59–60, 73–4
- CATS. See China Automotive Talents Society
- CAW. See Canadian Auto Workers
- CCAG. See Chang'an Motors
- CCP. See Chinese Communist Party
- CEIN. See China Economic Information Network
- cellular activism, 9–10
- Central region, wages in, 76
- Chang'an Motors (CCAG)
  - as “Big Four”, 31
  - as centrally-controlled SOE, 31
- Chen, Feng, 98, 180, 194
- Chery, 30, 37
  - as “Small Four” SOE, 31
- China. See also automobile industry, in China
  - accession to WTO, 34–5
  - ACFTU in, 2, 56, 98–9
  - auto market in, expansion of, 3
  - autoworker unrest in, as new global epicenter, 11
  - CCP in, 15
  - conditions of stability in, 16
  - corporate culture as concept in, 127
  - dormitory labor regime in, 149
  - economic reforms in, 16
  - employment compensation statistics for, 71
  - FDI in, government leverage in, 30
  - General Motors in, 4
  - Great Leap Forward period, 24
  - labor agencies in, 57
  - labor compensation statistics for, 71
  - labor dispatch in, 56
  - labor dispute statistics in, 175
  - labor force dualism in, 12–14, 51
  - as primary profit generator for automobile multinationals, 4
  - protest tradition in, 18
  - revolutionary legacy in, 16–18
  - state socialist legacy in, 16–18
  - TPS in, 82
  - VTE in, 57–9
  - worker militias in, 17
- China Association of Automobile Manufacturers (CAAM), 63
- China Automotive Talents Society (CATS), 103
- China Economic Information Network (CEIN), 37–8
- China Labor Statistics*, 61
- China Labour Bulletin, 186–7
- Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 15
  - centrality of maintaining stability of, 15–16, 18–19, 22, 53–4, 56, 176, 184, 186, 194
  - contradictions and divisions within, 16
  - credible threats of disruption and, 18
  - Leninist Party-state led by, 15
  - “mass line” and participatory role of populace in, 17–18
  - monopoly of political power, 16
  - political legitimacy of, 15
  - revolutionary legacy under, 16–18
  - state socialist legacy under, 16–18
- Chinoy, Ely, 116
- Chossudovsky, Michel, 127
- Chrysler, 27, 29–30
- Citroen, 27, 29–30
- closed social relationship, 151
- CNHTC, 31
- collective acts of defiance, 138–9
- Collinson, David, 103
- Company Law, 34
  - cadre-managerial personnel system under, 95
  - SOE restructuring under, 34
- competition, within automobile industry, 34–9
  - central government industrial policy shifts within, 38
  - controlled, 32–40
  - management strategies influenced by, 115
- compliance, of workers, 136–46
  - exit category, 143–6
  - as negotiated, 115, 146
  - voice category, 111, 144–6
- compulsory overtime, 119–21
  - through comprehensive work time calculation system, 120
  - through daily planned production quota, 120
  - to evade overtime regulation of Labor Law, 120
- corporate culture
  - as concept, in China, 127
  - eliciting workers' hegemonic consent through, 127–30
  - lean management principles as part of, 129
  - as management labor control strategy, 127
- Cui, Zhiyuan, 25
- Cultural Revolution, temporary workers during, 172

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More informationIndex

231

- Daihatsu, 29–30
 daily planned production quota (DPPQ), 120
danwei system, 33 despotic factory regimes, 12–13 development strategies, during the economic reform era, 26–8
   Automotive Industry Development Policy, 27
   Automotive Industry Policy Statement, 27 consolidation as, 27, 36 controlled competition, 34–9 decentralization and, 27–8 development of national champions, 27 during Five-Year Plans, 26–7 FDI as part of, 29–31 industrial restructuring, 34–6 joint ventures between large SOEs and foreign auto multinationals, 27 Plan on Adjusting and Revitalizing the Auto Industry, 27–8 protectionism and, 28, 33–4, 47–8
   SOE reform, 34–6
   state-led triple alliance as, 28–34 support for large SOEs, 27, 31, 38
   Taylorist/Fordist production strategies as part of, 21, 24–5, 39
   WTO accession, 34–5, 38–9
 Dongfeng Motor (DFM), 24, 31
   as centrally-controlled, 31 relocation of production bases, 189 dormitory labor regime, 149
 DPPQ. See daily planned production quota Drucker, Peter, 83 dual labor regime, 12–13, 40, 48, 187–8
 Duara, Prasenjit, 127
- education levels. See also vocational and technical education as boundary-drawing criterion, 57, 71 of formal workers, 63–4, 115–16 as recruitment criterion, 67 of temporary workers, 71 wage grades influenced by, at GER-1, 101–2 Edwards, Richard, 107, 126 effort bargaining, 137–8 employment. See factory autoworkers; temporary agency work; temporary workers Employment Promotion Law, 173 enterprise party committees (EPCs) conflict mediation with, 132–3 functions of, 131–3
   hegemonic consent with, 130–3 rationalization suggestion programs and, 131 enterprise union, 98–9, 159–60, 169, 184
   EPCs. See enterprise party committees
 Evans, Peter, 28
 exit category, of worker compliance, 143–6 external labor markets, 66–7
- factory autoworkers. See also automobile industry, in China; bargaining power; compliance, of workers; formal workers, in labor markets; labor markets; resistance, of formal workers; skilled workers; student workers; temporary workers aspirations of, 116 assembly line production as influence on, 7, 10 under CCP, 15
   Chinese automobile industry production influenced by, 25 formal organization of, 10 under An Gang Constitution, 24–5 grassroots mobilization of, 10
   during Great Leap Forward period, 24 hourly compensation costs for, 71–4 in JVs, wages for, 33
   under Labor Contract Law, 13–14
   labor force dualism and, 12–14, 45 legitimacy leverage of, 18–20 under Maoist socialism, 25 under market reform, 42, 51, 80–1 marketplace bargaining power of, 65, 89 monthly monetary pay of, 75 in post-restructuring era, 39–47, 125, 169–71 skilled trades classifications for, 64
   social composition of, 50 unrest among, historical development of, 10–11 wage increases for, 1, 9–10, 74 workplace bargaining power of, 10–12
 factory regimes, 12–13
   despotic, 12–13
   hegemonic, 33
 factory social order, 94–100 for blue-collar workers, 103–4 cadre-managerial system and, 95–8 through factory hierarchy, 99–100, 104
   HRM and, 113
   ILM and, 113
   job classifications and, 103, 113
   meritocracy systems and, 104–7 organizational structure as influence on, 113 performance appraisals and, 104–7 position-merit wage system and, 104–7, 113 social status in, 103–4
 FAW. See First Automobile Works
 FDI. See foreign direct investment

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More information

232

Index

FESCO. See Foreign Enterprises Service Corporation

First Automobile Works (FAW), 24 acquisition of SOE-2, 35 auto city, FAW, 122–4, 189
 “Big Four,” one of, 31
 as centrally-controlled, 31 socialist experience and legacies, 25
 SOE culture, 124
 staff reductions in, 35–6 systems of skills appraisal and certification, 64–5 Toyota Production System and, 26 workplace bargaining power in, 122–46

Fishman, Ted, 127

5S organization principles, originated in Japan, 132

Five-Year Plans, 26–7

flexibilization of labor, 42, 51 construction of flexible labor markets, 21 definition of, 43 intensification of, 54–5
 in labor markets, 80–1 with temporary agency work (TAW), 55–6

flexible accumulation, 45

Ford, Henry, 71

Ford Motors, 38
 FDI by, 30

Fordist production strategies. See Taylorist/Fordist production strategies foreign direct investment (FDI) “actually used,” 29–30

 by AMC, 27, 29–30 central government leverage in, 30 by Chrysler, 27, 29–30 by Citroen, 27, 29–30
 by Daihatsu, 29–30 for economic growth, 30–1 first wave of, 29–30 by Ford, 30
 by General Motors, 30
 by Honda, 30
 by Hyundai, 30 through JVs, 28
 by Kia, 30 as market-seeking, 30 second wave of, 30 by Toyota, 30 in triple alliance, 28–31 types of, 31
 by Volkswagen, 4, 27, 29–30

Foreign Enterprises Service Corporation (FESCO), 56 formal workers, in labor markets.

See also compliance, of workers; resistance, of formal workers aspirations of, 116
 bargaining power of, 118–22 blue-collar employees as, 63 collective characteristics of, 115–18 core talent in, 61–3
 demographics of, 63 education levels for, 63–4, 115–16 hiring standards for, 66–8 intergroup relationship with temporary workers, 163–9 job security of, 122–6
 labor force dualism and, 122–6, 164 morale of, 125–6 non-regular, 54 normal resistance of, 139 open-term contracts for, 177 recruitment strategies for, 66–8 by segments, 60 by size of enterprise, 60 skill levels of, 64–5
 social composition of, 61–8 social distance from temporary workers, 165 technology as influence on, 65–6 at USA-1, 101
 veteran workers as, 116–18
 wages of, 75–9
 white-collar employees as, 63 workplace grievances of, 118–22 younger workers as, 115–16

Geely, 30, 37

gender dynamics, in Chinese automobile industry, 61

General Motors
 China as market for, 4
 FDI by, 30

GER-1, 47
 benefits at, 77–8 employee population, 43 social insurances at, 77–8 wage grade by education level at, 101–2

GER-2, 47
 career paths of team leaders at, 112 labor contract terms at, 102

Germany, automobile industry practices in Sino-German JVs, 6, 43
 temporary workers in, 46

Gramsci, Antonio, 126

Great Wall, 37

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More informationIndex

233

- grievances, in workplace
  - of formal workers, 118–22
  - from increased intensity of work, 12, 82
  - from inferior status of blue-collar workers, 114, 121–2
  - from lean production system, 92–3
  - from long working hours, 91
  - from managerial arbitrary exercise of authority, 118, 121
  - from speedups, 119, 122–46
  - from strict codes of conduct, 121
  - of temporary workers, 150–2
  - from unpaid compulsory overtime, 119–21
  - from wages, 12, 78–9, 183
  - from working on assembly line, 118
  - from workplace injuries, 119
- hegemonic consent, labor control through, 126–36
  - by corporate culture, 127–30
  - through EPCs, 130–3
  - in JVs, 128–9
  - through labor unions, 130–3
  - as management strategy, 114–15
  - in SOEs, 128
  - through team leaders, 133–6
  - with work groups, 133–6
- hegemonic factory regimes, 12–13, 33
- transition to dual labor regimes, 187–8
- hegemony, as concept, 126
- hiring standards, for formal workers, 66–8
- Hodson, Randy, 137
- Honda Motors, 30
  - assembly worker wages at, 78
  - parts worker wages, 78
- Honda strike, 2–3
  - auto parts workers, 2
  - media coverage of, 3
  - public support, 2–3
  - wage increases as result of, 3
  - as worker-centered, 2–3
  - workplace bargaining power, as demonstrated in, 122–46
- household registration system. See hukou system
- HR. See human resources
- HRM practices. See human resource management practices
- hukou* (household registration) system, 52.
  - See also* boundary-drawing
  - boundary-drawing, as criterion of, 52–3, 57, 68–9, 71, 163
  - discrimination against rural residents, 52, 57
  - dual labor force, as result of, 53
  - formal-temporary worker relations, influenced by, 163–4
  - legitimization of, 53
  - market-oriented labor contract systems and, 53
  - peasant workers and, 53, 69
  - rural migrant workers and, 57
  - temporary workers and, 68–9, 163–4
- human capital management, 4
- human resource management (HRM) practices, 82, 94–100
  - cadre-managerial system, 95–8
  - development of, 94
  - factory social order and, 113
  - Japanese management practices as influence on, 94
  - Western influences on, 94
- human resources (HR)
  - in China, 57
  - management practices, 46
- human wave tactics, 83–91
- Hundred Flowers Campaign, 172
- Hyundai, 30
- ILM. See internal labor markets
- injuries, in workplace, 119
- innovation
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 190–1
  - in JVs, 32
- integrated just-in-time production system, 67
- internal labor markets (ILM), 107–13
  - blue-collar workers in, 108
  - bureaucratic control as facet of, 108
  - career development for formal workers and, 108, 113
  - factory social order and, 113
  - at large automobile factories, 108
  - temporary workers excluded from, 113
- internships, student workers and, 57–9
- iron rice bowl system, 52
  - market-oriented labor contract systems compared to, 53
  - replacement of, 51
  - under state socialism, 52–3
- Japan
  - compensation costs in, 73
  - 5S organization principles in, 132
  - foreign trade liberalization in, 29
  - hourly compensation costs in, 73
  - as influence on Chinese automobile industry, 26

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More information

234

Index

- Japan (cont.)
  - as influence on corporate culture, 103, 129–30
  - as influence on HRM practice, 94
  - job classifications in, 99–100
  - lean production systems in, 83, 93
  - lean-and-dual model, 40
  - performance appraisals in, 105
  - production statistics in, 26
  - satei* system in, 104
  - Toyota Production System in, 26, 140
- Jeely, 8
- Jintao, Hu, 56, 194
- JIT mass production. See just-in-time mass production
- job classifications
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 99–100
  - in comparison to US automakers, 99–100
  - as different from skilled trade classifications, 64, 100
  - distinctions between blue-collar and white-collar workers, 103
  - factory social order and, 103, 113
  - performance appraisals and, 100
  - at plant level, 100
  - at USA-1, 100–4
- job insecurity
  - for formal workers, 123–5
  - labor contracts and, 53–4
  - for temporary workers, 151
- job security
  - for formal workers, 122–6
  - in SOEs, 123–5
- joint ventures (JVs)
  - in auto assembly sector, 8, 29–30, 32
  - auto market share, 30
  - Beijing Jeep, 33
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 3
  - under danwei system, 33
  - FDI through, 29
  - government approval of, 29
  - hegemonic consent in, 128–9
  - historical development of, 23
  - innovation in, 32
  - interventionism in, 42
  - layoffs in, 33
  - profitability of, 32–3
  - restructuring of auto industry and, 42, 48
  - Sino-American, 43, 76, 84, 92, 99, 140
  - Sino-German, 6, 43, 69, 79, 89, 117, 123–5, 128–9, 147
  - Sino-Japanese, 43, 67, 88–9, 91, 123, 140
  - SOEs and, 29, 31
  - SVW, 32–3, 38
  - in triple alliance, 28–30
  - wages for workers in, 33
  - wages in, range of, 75–6
  - worker benefits, 33
- JPN-1, 37–45, 75–7, 88–9, 91, 103, 110, 123, 129–30, 132
- June Strike, 154–7
- just-in-time (JIT) mass production, 83–5
  - assembly shop, 85
  - body shop, 83–4
  - kanban* method, 84–5
  - paint shop, 84
  - press shop, 83
  - temporary workers and, 153
- JVs. See joint ventures
- kanban* method, 84–5
- Kia, 30
- Koo, Hagen, 103
- labor agencies, 57
  - JPN-1, 123
- Labor Contract Law (LCL), 13–14, 53–5
  - ACFTU and, 175, 180
  - agency employment regulation under, 162
  - amendments to, 179
  - employer's responses to, 176
  - labor dispatch under, 57, 174–5
  - making of, 174–7
  - National Labor Relations Act and, 181
  - objectives of, 173–4
  - open-term contracts under, 177
  - pro-capital/pro-labor negotiations under, 177
  - resistance of temporary workers and, 159–60
  - state boundary-drawing strategy, 177–80, 185
  - temporary agency workers under, 161–3, 169
  - unintended consequences of, 174–7
- labor contracts, 53–4
  - at GER-2, 102
  - job insecurity with, 53–4
  - non-fixed See open-term contracts
  - open-term, 177
  - short-term, 54
  - at SOE-2, 124–5
  - at USA-1, 101, 130
- labor dispatch, 55–7
  - in China, 56
  - expansion of, 56
  - FESCO, 56
  - flexibilization of labor, 57

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More informationIndex

235

- governmental role in, 56–7
- under LCL, 57, 174–5
- national context, 57
- as non-regular employment, 56
- report by ACFTU, 56
- social background as influence of, 57
- temporary workers and, 161–2
- triangular employment relationship, 55
- Labor Dispute Mediation and Arbitration Law, 162, 173
- labor force dualism. See also boundary-drawing
  - in assembly plants, 45
  - in automobile factories, 76
  - in China, 12–14, 51
  - within Chinese automobile industry, 12–14, 48
  - development of, 42–7
  - evolution of, 21
  - factory autoworkers and, 12–14, 45
  - flexible accumulation and, 45
  - formal workers and, 122–6, 164
  - historical development of, 23–4
  - in Japan, 40
  - labor union responses to, 169–71
  - limitations of, 169–71
  - management responses to, 169–71
  - management strategy, 47
  - in new factories, 45
  - in PRC, 12–14
  - profitability-legitimacy contradiction and, 13
  - by select companies, 37–44
  - in South Korea, 185
  - state policy as influence on, 52
  - temporary workers and, 43–5, 164
  - transition from hegemonic factory regimes, 187–8
  - worker divisions in, 55
- Labor Law, 53. See also labor contracts
  - compulsory overtime under, 120
  - empowerment effects of, 162–3
  - temporary workers under, 150–1
- labor leasing, 55. See also labor dispatch
- labor markets. See also formal workers, in labor
  - markets; internal labor markets; labor reform, goals of; temporary workers
  - blue-collar production in, 60–1
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 59–61
  - construction of, 50
  - dualization of, 50, 52, 80–1, 186
  - external, 66–7
  - flexibilization of, 80–1
  - segmentation of, 60
  - split, 163, 172
- labor reform, goals of, 53
  - despotic, 12–13
- labor regimes, 39–42. See also flexibilization of
  - labor; Socialist labor system
  - dual labor regime, 12–13, 40, 48, 187–8
  - hegemonic, 28–34, 40, 47–8
  - lean-and-dual model, 40
  - lean-and-mean model, 40
  - market-oriented labor contract system, 51
  - replacement of iron rice bowl system, 51
  - Taylorist/Fordist production techniques and, 39–42
- labor strikes, 2–3
  - by autoworker, historically, 11
  - as credible threats of disruption and, 18
  - Honda strike, 2–3, 75, 122–46
  - June Strike, 154–7
  - media coverage of, 3
  - October Strike, 157–9
  - sit-down strikes as, 143
  - wildcat strikes, 1, 159
- labor unions. See also All-China Federation of
  - Trade Unions; enterprise union; trade unions
  - conflict mediation with, 132–3
  - functions of, 131–3
  - hegemonic consent through, 130–3
  - during Honda strike, 2–3
  - responses to labor force dualism, 169–71
  - strike waves by, in U.S., 181
  - temporary workers' resistance and, 169–71
  - in U.S. auto industry, 11
- layoffs
  - in JVs, 33
  - in SOEs, 33
- LCL. See Labor Contract Law
- lean production systems, 93. See also Toyota
  - Production System
  - as corporate culture, 129
  - Taylorism and, 82
  - team leaders and, 135–6
- lean-and-dual model, 40
- lean-and-mean model, 40
- Lee, Byoung-Hoon, 185
- Lee, Ching Kwan, 9, 16–17
- legitimacy leverage
  - as bargaining power, 18–20, 193
  - distinction from rightful resistance, 19
  - of factory autoworkers, 18–20
  - as ideological power, 56
  - labor-capital conflicts and, 19
  - over the CCPs political legitimacy, 18, 187
  - as perceived structural power, 18

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More information

236

Index

- legitimacy leverage (cont.)
     as resistance, 139 on the shop floor, 18–19
 Levi, Margaret, 18
 Li, Liangiang, 19
 licensing, in automobile industry, 29
 Lichtenstein, Nelson, 87, 193
- management strategies. See also cadre-managerial personnel system; corporate culture; human resource management practices competition as influence on, 115 through EPCs and unions, 130–1 hegemonic consent as, 114–15
     HR and, 46 of human capital, 4 labor force dualism as, 169–71 negotiated compliance of workers, 115 one-man rule, 25 pragmatic philosophy, 97 socialist legacies, 19, 25–6, 94, 96–8, 130, 133
     in SOEs, 96
     for temporary workers' resistance, 169–71 by work groups and team leaders, 133–6 manufacture equipment sectors, 65–73
     annual growth rates for, 80 market-oriented labor contract systems, 51
     hukou systems and, 53 introduction of, 53 iron rice bowl system compared to, 53
     under Labor Law, 53
     SOE restructuring and, 53–4 transition from Socialist labor regimes, 51 worker protections in, 53 marketplace bargaining power, 65–6, 89–90 mass line, 13–14, 17, 24 mergers and reorganization, 35 meritocratic system, 104
 minimum efficient scale standards, 27
 Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security (MOHRSS), 178–9 modular assembly line production, 84
 MOHRSS. See Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security monopolies, with triple alliance, 47
 Moody, Kim, 193
- National Labor Relations Act (Wagner Act), 181
 Naughton, Barry, 97 negotiated compliance, 115, 146
 Nissan, China as market for, 4 normal resistance, of formal workers, 139 Northeast region, wages in, 76
- O'Brien, Kevin, 19
 October Strike, 157–9
 one-man rule management, 24–5
     An Gang Constitution after, 25 open-term contracts, 177
 optimum efficient scale standards, 27 overtime. See compulsory overtime
- paint shop, 84
 parent auto group, 5–6
 PCM. See product cycle model
 Pearl River Delta, wages in, 76
 Pearson, Margaret, 32–40 peasant workers, 68
     hukou system and, 53, 69
     as old temp, 71, 148 selection criteria for, 181
     wages for, 69
 People's Republic of China (PRC) dual labor system in, 12–14 legislative history of, 180 populist self-confidence under, 17 performance appraisals for blue-collar workers, 105–11 bonuses with, 106 components of, 105
     critiques about, 111 factory social order and, 104–7
     in Japan, 105
     job classifications and, 100 position-grade wage systems in, 106–7 for team leaders, 105–11 permanent employment. See iron rice bowl system
 Perry, Elizabeth, 17, 147, 192 personnel systems, 94–100. See also cadremanagerial personnel system Peugeot, 27, 29–30
 pilferage, as resistance, 46
Plan on Adjusting and Revitalizing the Auto Industry, 27–8 position-grade wage systems, 106–7 position-merit wage system, 104–7, 113
 PRC. See People's Republic of China
 press shop, 83
 product cycle model (PCM), 183 production, in Chinese automobile industry.
     See also automation, in Chinese automobile industry; just-in-time mass production; shop floor, production organization on; Toyota Production System
 ACFTU and, 2, 56, 98–9
     annual growth rates for, 73–4, 80

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More informationIndex

237

- blue-collar, 60–1
- in body shop, 83–4
- during Cultural Revolution, 25
- evaluative norms in, 25
- expansion of bases for, 143
- factory hierarchy and, 99–100, 104
- 5S organization principles, 132
- under An Gang Constitution, 24–5
- human wave tactics in, 83–91
- international standards, 32–3, 35
- job classifications and, 99–100
- lean production systems as influence on, 93
- mechanization of, 65, 88–91
- organization of, 83–94
- output increases, 40–2
- in paint shop, 84
- in press shop, 83
- as result of industrial restructuring, 40–2
- scale and concentration of, 122
- for SOE-2, 32
- for SOEs, 31–2
- standardization of, 88–91
- statistics of, 26
- status of position and, 99–100
- transformation of, 42–7
- worker masses as influence on, 25
- worker's input, 24–5
- protectionism
  - as central government policy, 32, 34
  - as local government policy, 28, 47–8
  - for SOEs, 31–2
- Qiang, Xiao, 161
- rationalization suggestion programs, 131
- recruitment strategies
  - for formal workers, 66–8
  - for student workers, 57, 70–1
  - for temporary workers, 66–9
- resistance, of formal workers, 136–46
  - as collective acts of defiance, 138–9
  - effort bargaining in, 137–8
  - everyday form of, 115, 136, 153, 163
  - legitimacy leverage and, 139
  - normal, 139
  - pilferage as, 46
  - sabotage as, 46
  - sit-down strikes as, 141–3
  - worker participation programs and, 138
- resistance, of temporary workers, 153–63
  - enterprise union and, 159–60
  - June Strike, 154–7
  - under Labor Contract Law, 159–60
  - labor union response to, 169–71
  - management response to, 169–71
  - October Strike, 157–9
  - organization strategies for, 160–1
  - Russian Bolshevik Party, 17
- sabotage, as resistance, 46
- SASAC. See Shanghai State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission
- satei* system. See meritocratic system
- Schumpeter, Joseph, 32
- Scott, James, 18
- Second Auto Works, 24
- semi-skilled workers, 66
- Shanghai State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission (SASAC), 96
- Shanghai Volkswagen (SVW), 32–3, 38
  - workplace bargaining power in, 122–46
- shop floor, production organization on, 85–7
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 188–9
  - off-line sections on, 87
  - training for, 96
  - work groups, 85–7
- short-term labor contracts, 54
- Shue, Vivienne, 16
- Silver, Beverly, 10–11
- Sino-German JVs, 6–22, 43, 66–9, 79, 89, 117, 123–5, 128–9, 147, 161, 167
  - temporary workers in, 43
- sit-down strikes, as resistance, 141–3
- skilled workers
  - in labor markets, 64–5
  - marketplace bargaining power of, 66
  - skilled trade classifications of, 66
  - skills appraisal and certification, 64–5
  - technological change, impact on, 64–6
  - unskilled compared to, 64–5
- Skocpol, Theda, 16
- “Small Four”, 31
- Smith, Vicki, 169
- social exclusion, 151
- social status
  - of blue-collar workers, 103–4
  - exclusion and, 151
- Socialist labor system
  - hukou* system under, 52
  - iron rice bowl, 52
  - as state-administered, 52–3
  - temporary workers under, 52–3
  - transition to market-based labor contract system, 53

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More information

238

Index

- Socialist labor system (cont.)
  - work units, 52
- SOE-1, 60–2, 70, 75–7, 89, 153
- SOE-2
  - acquisition by FAW, 35
  - production statistics by, 32
  - socialist tradition, 131–3
  - truck production by, 8
- SOEs. See state-owned enterprises
- soft-budget constraints, 32
- South Korea
  - foreign trade liberalization in, 29
  - labor force dualism in, 185
  - moral exclusion in, 166
- Southwest region, wages in, 76
- Soviet Union
  - Chinese automobile industry influenced by, 24–5
  - one-man rule management in, 24–5
- split labor markets, 163, 172
- State Assets Supervision and Administration
  - Commission of the State Council, 31
- state boundary-drawing strategy, 177–80, 185.
  - See also* boundary-drawing
- state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 3
  - “Big Four,” 30, 31
  - cadre-managerial personnel system, 95–8
  - under Company Law, 34
  - development strategies for, 27
  - distribution of workers in, 60
  - gender dynamics in, 61
  - generational changes of workers in, 42
  - guaranteed employment in, 33
  - job security in, 123–5
  - JVs and, 29
  - managers in, 96
  - market-oriented labor contract systems
    - and, 53–4
  - production statistics for, 31–2
  - protectionism and, 28, 31–2
  - reforms of, 34
  - restructuring strategies for, 34, 48
  - “Small Four,” 31
  - state interventionism in, 42
  - in triple alliance, 31–4
  - VTEs through, 58
  - wages in, 33
- Stone, Katherine, 43
- structural bargaining power, for autoworkers, 10
- student workers, 57–9
  - in assembly line production, 70–1
  - through internships and, 57–9
  - labor turnover, 153
  - strikes by, 147–55, 157
  - wages for, 80
- SVW. See Shanghai Volkswagen
- TAWs. See temporary agency work
- Taylorist/Fordist production strategies, 21,
  - 24–5, 39, 82
- An Gang Constitution and, 25
- lean production and, 82
- wage policies and, 71
- team leaders
  - benefits of, 134
  - blue-collar workers as, 105–10
  - at GER-2, 112
  - hegemonic consent through, 133–6
  - labor control through, 87, 133–6
  - lean production systems and, 135–6
  - performance appraisals for, 105–11
  - pivot role of, 86, 133–6
- technical training, 127
- temporary agency work (TAW), 55–7.
  - See also* labor dispatch
  - core features of, 55
  - flexibility of, 55–6
  - global expansion of, 55–6
- temporary workers, 50. See also resistance, of
  - temporary workers
    - assembly line production and, 69–70, 153
    - collective characteristics of, 148–9
    - during Cultural Revolution, 172
    - demographics of, 71
    - evolutionary use of, 68–9
    - in German automobile industry, 46
    - hukou* system and, 68–9, 163–4
    - Hundred Flowers Campaign and, 172
    - intergroup relationship with formal workers, 163–9
    - JIT production systems, 153
    - job insecurity for, 151
    - under Labor Contract Law, 161–3, 169
    - labor dispatch and, 161–2
    - labor dispute resolution systems for, 162
    - labor force dualism and, 43–5, 164
    - under Labor Law, 150–1
    - labor market of, 68
    - lack of regulation for, 152
    - lack of training for, 151
    - management divide and control strategies for, 167–8
    - moral exclusions for, 166–7
    - peasant workers as, 68–9, 181
    - perceptions of injustice by, 152
    - public perceptions of, 148

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03085-5 - Inside China's Automobile Factories: The Politics of Labor and Worker Resistance

Lu Zhang

Index

More informationIndex

239

- in Sino-German JVs, 43
  - social composition of, 68
  - social distance from formal workers, 165
  - under Socialist labor system, 52–3
  - in SOEs, 52–3, 56
  - statistics for, 43, 45
  - student workers as, 58
  - visual control methods for, 167–8
  - wages of, 75–7
  - workplace bargaining power of, 152–3
  - workplace grievances of, 150–2
- Thun, Eric, 28, 96
- Toyota
  - FDI by, 30
  - Production System, 26
- Toyota Production System (TPS), 82.
  - See also* lean production systems
- trade unions. See also All-China Federation
  - of Trade Unions; enterprise union; labor unions
  - dualist functions of, 98
  - workers' confidence in, 88
- training
  - through apprenticeship, 57–8, 64, 66
  - through internship, 58–9
  - for line operators, 64, 87
  - on-the-job, 87
  - on shop floor, 96
  - technical, 127
  - for temporary workers, 151
  - through vocational and technical education, 57–9, 66, 108–10
  - in work groups, 87–8
- transport equipment manufacture sectors, 65–73
  - hourly compensation costs, by select nation, 73
- triangular employment, 55. See also labor dispatch; TAW
- triple alliance
  - automobile multinationals as part of, 29–31
  - development of, as concept, 28
  - FDI and, 28–31
  - JVs in, 28–30
  - monopolies as result of, 47
  - as post-economic reform development strategy, 28–34
  - SOEs in, 31–4
  - as state-led, 28
- United Auto Workers (UAW), 47, 99–100, 193
- United States (U.S.), automobile industry
  - practices in, 46
  - classification of workers in, 46–7
  - labor militancy and, 11
  - National Labor Relations Act in, 181
  - split labor markets in, 163
  - strike waves in, 181
  - two-tier system in, 186, 193
- USA-1
  - double pay, 106
  - job classifications at, 100–4
  - labor contract terms at, 101
  - regular working schedules at, 92
  - skill levels, 63–4
- Vietnam, market-oriented economic
  - reform in, 15
- vocational and technical education (VTE), 57–9
  - decline of, 58
  - through SOEs, 58
- voice category, of worker compliance, 111, 144–6
- Volkswagen, 4, 27, 29–30
  - SVW, 32–3, 38
- VTE. See vocational and technical education
- VW Santana, 33
- wage increases
  - annual growth rates for, 73–4
  - for factory autoworkers, 1, 9–10, 74
  - after Honda strike, 3
- wage policy, Fordist production strategies
  - and, 71
- wages
  - for assembly line workers, 7
  - in Bohai Sea region, 76
  - in Central region, 76
  - in Chinese automobile industry, 163
  - enterprise ownership type and, 75–6
  - of factory autoworkers, 75
  - of formal workers, 75–9
  - at GER-1, by education level, 101–2
  - at Honda Motors, 78
  - in JVs, 33
  - in Northeast region, 76
  - in Pearl River Delta, 76
  - for peasant workers, 69
  - regional influences on, 75–6
  - in SOEs, 33
  - in Southwest region, 76
  - for student workers, 80
  - of temporary workers, 75–7
  - workers' opinions on, 80
  - in Yangtze River Delta, 76
- Wagner Act. See National Labor Relations Act

- Walder, Andrew, 52
- Walker, Cathy, 47
- Weber, Max, 151
- white-collar employees, 63
  - job classifications for, 103
- work groups, 24, 85–7
  - hegemonic consent with, 133–6
  - rotation of workers in, 87–8
  - on shop floor, 85–7
  - skill training in, 87–8
- work units, 52
- worker participation programs, 138
- workplace bargaining power.
  - See also* bargaining power, for workers
  - of auto parts workers, 189
  - in factories of enormous size, 122–46
  - of factory autoworkers, 10–12
  - of formal workers, 118–22
  - grievances and, 118–22
  - without labor unions, 187
  - legitimacy leverage as, 18–20, 193
  - semi-skilled workers and, 66
  - of skilled workers, 66
  - structural, 10
  - of temporary workers, 152–3
- workplace grievances. See grievances, in workplace
- workplace practices, 39–42
  - generational replacement of workers, 21
  - labor force dualism, 43–5
  - lean-and-dual model, 40
  - lean-and-mean model, 40
  - transformation of, 42–7
- World Trade Organization (WTO)
  - China in, 34–5
  - Chinese automobile industry influenced by, 35–48
- Wright, Eric Olin, 10
- WTO. See World Trade Organization
- Xiaoping, Deng, 97
- Yangtze River Delta, wages in, 76