

Index

---

- accumulation of possessions, sanctions against 252–253
- action systems, neonates 152–155
 centrifugal and centripetal forces 157–159
- adaptation 48–49
 local adaptations 275
- addictive pleasures in the newborn 166–168
- affective life 25
- affectivity 107–108
- agency in infants 156–157, 180
- agreed ownership transfer 99–101
 and negotiation 103–105
- Ainsworth, Mary 263–264
- Aka hunter-gatherers, infant care 262
- alienable ownership
 children of 3–5 years 187–189
 infants of 9–18 months 181–185
 progressive differentiation of 200–202
 versus inalienable possessions 79, 80
- ancient roots of subjectivity 169–171
- animals
 acting instinctively 48–49
 communication 111–112
 evolution 49–52
 and origins of subjectivity 169–171
 roots of our need to control 169
 territoriality instinct 52–55
- animism 125–128
- anthropological meaning of culture
 236–237
- archaic principles of possession 82–85
- Aristotle 39, 239–240
- “atmospheric” dimension of culture
 238–239
- attachment 117
 animistic character of 125–126
 cultural differences 262–265
 and exclusive ownership 183–184
 origins of 165–166
 to transitional object 265–270
- attention, see joint attention
- attractors, affective, determinants of 107–108
- auditory sensitivity in the fetus 148
- Augé, Marc 127
- awareness 175
 co-awareness 175–176
 self-awareness, origins of 155–157
- bargaining behaviors 273–274
- belongings and belongingness 72–74
- Binet, Alfred, fetishism 128–130
- biological sharing at birth 211–212
- bird nests 53–54
- blood principle 89–91
- blushing 293
- bodily movements and feeling states 149
- “body’s dressage” 258–259
- Bourdieu, Pierre
 “body’s dressage” 258–259
 symbolic capital 118–121
 transmission of privilege via education 90
- Brahman theology (Vedanta) 62
- brain development 28–30, 146, 173
- Brazilian children
 reasoning about ownership 282–284
 studies on sharing 275–277
- “breathing” culture 238–242
- British code on property 58
- Bronfenbrenner, Urie 256–257
- bullying 192
- Caillois, Roger 207
- capital, symbolic 118–121
- capitalism 122
 and ritual economy 124–125
- cars, status symbols 40
- causality, perception of 23, 109
- centrifugal and centripetal forces at birth 157–159
- centripetal and centrifugal possession
 pathologies 131–135

316 Index

- chance winning 91–92
 grief following 93
- chemosensation in fetuses 147–148
- children across cultures 15–17, 255–256
 child development 256–258
 costly punishment 278–281
 dispositional habitus 258–260
 early attachment 262–265
 judgment of land ownership 285–288
 parenting practices 260–262
 reasoning about ownership 281–285
 sharing 270–278
 transitional object attachment 265–270
- China
 studies of sharing in children 270–271, 275–276, 284–285
 Zhejiang Province, ritual economy
 124–125
- Cicero, Marcus Tullius 60
- civil society, emergence of 67–68
- claims of ownership, see ownership claims
- climate, and cultural differences 238–241
- co-awareness mind state 175–176
- co-conscious mind state 176–177
- co-conscious sharing 220–222
- code of conduct, first issues 43–44
- codification of property rights 58–61, 289–290
- coins and cultural identity 140
- collectibles, hoarding/worshipping of 115–116
- collective greed 68–70
- collectivist versus individualist cultures
 attitudes toward possession 244–247
 and personality profiles 248
- common versus private ownership 70–72
- communal living, and attitudes toward possessions 245–246
- communication, literal versus symbolic 110–112
- compulsive and obsessive behaviors
 131–135
- conflicts over possession 4–5, 43–44
 in children 195–196
 in collectivist cultures 245
 and power hierarchy 83
 and wars over territory 53
- “conscientious” mind state
- moral development 226, 227–228
- consciousness 176
 co-consciousness 176–177
 without a cerebral cortex, Merker 24–25
- consumerism
 frenzy of 64
 motivation for 65–67
- control
 gaining and losing 185, 206–207
 infants’ need for 168–169
 tele-control, infants 163
- cooperation
 in children 227
 evolutionary perspective 228–229
- copyright issues 87–88
- costly punishment 223–225
 cultural differences 278–281
- costly signaling 136–139
- creation/invention principle 86–88
- criminality versus mischief 96
- cronyism 89–90
- culture 14–17, 235–236
 atmosphere of 238–242
 definitions of 236–238
 different views on possession 244–247
 hunter-gatherers 251–254
 love padlocks phenomenon 242–243
 and ornamentation 138
 and personality variations 247–249
 as sedimentation 238
see also children across cultures
- deception, development of 221
- decoration of possessions 135–139
- development 10–14, see also first possession;
 ownership in development; sharing
 in development
- Dewey, John 105
- dictator games, bargaining behavior
 273–278
- differentiation of self, ingredient in sense of ownership 41
- direct reciprocity 102–103
- discrimination 60–61
- dispositional habitus of children, cultural variations 258–260
- dispossession 1, 2
 of our control over things 168
 potlatch rituals 73–74, 246
 sharing as 204–205
see also ownership transfer
- distributive justice 222–223
 study on judgment of land ownership 286–288
- dual representational capacity 113–114, 199–200
- duplicity 222
- Durkheim, Emile 226
- egalitarianism
 and costly punishment 278

- cross-cultural study on sharing in children 277–278
  - in hunter-gatherers 253
  - ego-motion versus allo-motion, newborns 157
  - emotions
    - affective investment into things 107–108
    - “gut” feelings 47, 50
    - James–Lange theory 50–51
  - enactment of possession 48–49
  - entitlement
    - elusiveness of 37–38
    - and familiarity principle 88–89
    - theory of ownership, Nozick 86–87
  - envy and jealousy 38–42
    - origins of 167
  - equitable sharing 16, 223
    - cross-cultural studies 275–277
  - ethical ownership, from 5 years 189–193
  - ethical sharing, from 3 years 222–225
  - etymology
    - animism 126
    - culture 236
    - fetishism 130
    - possession 21–22
  - Euro currency, country-specific decoration 140
  - evolutionary perspectives 49–52, 290–291
    - costly signaling 137
    - human childhood, protracted 292
    - language 110–111
    - meaning of culture 237
    - pleasures and need to control 169
    - possession as instinctive 235
    - sharing and cooperation 228–229
  - exchange of possessions 99–101
  - existential conundrum, infants 162, 182, 295–296
  - experience of possession 6–7, 21, see also “feeling” experience
  - explicit versus implicit feeling experience 26–28
  - extravagances of possession, pathologies 131–134
  - eye contact 214
  - face exploration, infants 213–214
  - facial expressions observed in fetuses 150
  - facts about possession 3–4
  - fairness in sharing 204, see also equitable sharing
  - false beliefs/theory of mind 188
  - familiarity principle 88–89
  - favoritism 89–91
    - in-group partialities, Palestinian children 285–288
  - feeding behavior at birth 178–179
  - “feeling” experience
    - criteria for minimal 24–26
    - earliest 144–146
    - envy and jealousy 38–42
    - in the fetus 147–149
    - implicit versus explicit 26–28
    - loss of, being “possessed” 32–34
    - “me” and “mine” concepts 34–38
    - morality issues 42–45
    - neonates 152–155
    - origins of 28–31
    - personal possession of 143–144
    - possession as 22–24
    - self-evidence 31–32
  - fetishism 128–131
  - fetuses
    - mental states 149–152
    - senses, development of 147–149
  - fight/flight behaviors 49, 52
  - first possession 10–12, 143
    - acting and feeling by neonates 152–155
    - ancient roots of subjectivity 169–171
    - built-in addictive pleasures 166–168
    - dawn of human feelings 144–146
  - embodied centrifugal and centripetal forces at birth 157–159
  - first object of love and jealousy 163–166
  - mental states in the womb 149–152
  - minimal self-awareness in newborns 155–157
  - oral and manual capture in early development 159–161
  - personal possession of feeling experience 143–144
  - pleasure and need to control 168–169
  - possession and control of others’ attention 161–163
  - pre-natal dawn of feeling experience 147–149
  - principle 82–85
- fish, brain parallels with humans 170
  - Fiske, Alan Page, sociality 247–248
  - forces at birth, centrifugal and centripetal 157–159
  - forest-dwellers, “owned” by the forest 244
  - Freud, Sigmund 36, 62–63, 132, 161, 163
    - infant’s alienable exercises 185
    - pulsion theory 163–164
  - funeral rituals 123–124

318 Index

- gambling 92, 132–133
 games
   children's sharing 207–210
   economic 273–275
   rules in, Piaget's work 226–227
 gaze in newborns, shared and mutual 213
 gaze grooming 214–215
 gene-culture co-evolution theory 241
 generalized greed 67–70
 generosity
   extreme patterns of 133
   myth of poor people's 250–251
   in transfer of ownership 97–99
 Germanic code on property 58
 Gibbon, Edward 60, 67
 gift exchange systems 44, 73–74
   alienable versus inalienable possessions 79–80
   and generous ownership transfer 97–99
 Graeber, David 123
 Great Transformation question 289–296
Great Transformation, The (Polanyi) 102
 greed, generalized 67–70
 grief and sudden wealth acquisition 93
 Groos, Karl 209–210
 group habits and collective memory 238
 group norms and beliefs
   cultural characteristics 237–238
   normative ownership, from 5 years 189–193
 group survival, moral principles 4
 guilt, Western cultural trait 248–249
 Gunvingu aborigines, Dzamalag rituals 122–123
 habits and collective memory 238
 habitus
   origins of concept 237–238
   transmission of 120
 handicap theory, Zahavi 137
 Hardin, Garrett, “The tragedy of the commons” 69
 Hazda people, Tanzania immediate-return
 economy 252–253
 Hegel, F. G. W. 55, 225–226
 Hellenistic culture, Aristotle 239–240
 hermit crabs, ownership claims 84
 high-tech gadgets, dependence on 127–128
 hoarding compulsion 133–134
 Hobbes, Thomas 77–78
 home (living space), need for 65–67
Homo negotiatus 103–105
 honor and shame, Japanese culture 248–249
 Huizinga, Johan, human play 208–209
 human coding of property rights 58–61
 human eye function 214
 human prolonged immaturity 161–162, 292
 human versus animal psychology 1
 hunter-gatherers 251–254
 ideas about possession 3–4
 ideas/concepts, ownership of 71
 identification
   ingredient in sense of ownership
     equation 41
   objectification of ownership 199
   see also projection identity
   cultural, coins/money 139–140
   moral, children 190–192, 201
   self-identity, quest for 37
 imitation by infants
   and intentionality 219–220
   role reversal 218–219
 immediate-return economy 252–253
 immobilization (freezing responses) 51–52
 implicit self-evidence 31–32
 implicit versus explicit feeling experience 26–28
 impostor complex 93–94
 imprinting 165–166
 inalienable ownership 79–81
   of agency and effects, from two months 179–181
   at birth, clinging and binding 178–179
   conceptual, 2–3 years 185–187
 incorporation 34–36
   ingestion of food 160
   jealousy and envy 40
 indirect reciprocity 102, 103, 230–231
 industrial revolutions 63–64, 102
 inequality
   and invention of property 57
   and Roman views on property, Gibbon 60
   Rousseau's second discourse 56
 inequity aversion
   in children 222, 224, 285
   in primates 100
   see also egalitarianism
 infants
   attentional control/possession 161–163
   differentiation of alienable ownership 200–202
   maternal love and jealousy 163–166
   objectification of ownership 199–200
   pleasure and need to control 168–169
   from preconceptual to ownership 197–199
   presumed absence of feeling in 28, 145

- information, instantaneous broadcasting of 71
- information technology, copyright conflicts 87–88
- ingrained territoriality instinct 52–55
- ingroup favoritism, Palestinian children 285–288
- inheritance of possessions 90–91
  - instinct, possession as 235
- instinctive actions, animals 48–49
- institutional systems 294–295
  - and moral development 191–192
- intentional communication 111–112, 115
- intentional sharing, from 12 months 218–220
- intersubjective sharing, from 2 months 212–215
- intuitive ownership priorities 81–82
- intuitive parenting 211–212
- invention of property 55–58
- inventiveness 86–88
- Israel, kibbutz children, studies of sharing 272–273

- James–Lange theory of emotions 50–51
- James, William 34–35
- Japan, honor–shame culture 248–249
- jealousy 38–42
  - first object of 163–166
- joint attention 162–163, 198–199
  - and referential sharing 215–218
- judgment of land ownership by children, cultural differences 285–288
- justice, see distributive justice
- justice systems, cultural variations 246–247

- Keller, Heidi 263
- kibbutz children, studies of sharing 272–273
- Kohlberg, Lawrence, moral development 226
- Kula circle, South Pacific 80
- !Kung Bushmen, Botswana 253–254

- labor principle 85–86
- land ownership
  - judgment by US versus Palestinian children 285–288
  - Motalava people 245
- Lange, Carl, James–Lange theory of emotions 50–51
- language
  - alienable versus inalienable possessions 80–81
  - symbolic 110–111, 112–113
- Lapita civilization, pottery of 138–139

- literal beings 112–113
- literal versus non-symbolic experience of things 110–114
- local adaptations, cultural practices 275
- Locke, John 85–86
- lottery winners 92–93
- love, infants' first object of 163–166
- love padlocks phenomenon 242–243
- luck principle 91–94

- machines 22–23, 145
  - high-tech objects, power over us 127–128
  - sensing versus feeling awareness 23, 24–25
- magical thinking 126
- Malinowski, Bronislaw 44
- Manouche (Roma) people, inheritance 90–91
- manual capture, infants 160–161
- Maori culture, gift giving 79–80
- Marx, Karl, commodity fetishism 102, 129
- material scarcity and possessiveness 250–251
- Mauss, Marcel 44, 237–238
  - gift exchange systems 73–74
  - meaning of gifts in Maori culture 79–80
  - potlatch 246
- “me” concept 34–35
- medals, symbolic meaning of 131
- mental/mind states in development
  - layers of 173–174
  - sharing and 211
    - biological sharing 211–212
    - co-conscious sharing 220–222
    - ethical sharing 222–225
    - intentional sharing 218–220
    - intersubjective sharing 212–215
    - referential sharing 215–218
  - unfolding of 174–177
  - in the womb 149–152
- merit and luck 92–93
- Merker, B., consciousness 24–25
- Michotte, Albert, perceived causality 109
- “mine” concept 34–38
- “mine-ness” of experience, loss of 32–33
- mirror, self-recognition in 200
- mischief versus criminal conversion 96
- mobilization (fight/flight behavior) 49, 52
- money
  - and cultural identity 139–140
  - lottery winners 92–93
  - primitive 61
- Montesquieu 240–241
- moral development 226, 227–228
  - moral identity (from 5 years) 190–192

320 Index

- moral space, Taylor 187, 225
 moral (strong) reciprocity 103
 morality and possessions 4–5, 42–45
 mother–infant bonding, Sartre’s essay on 164–165
 motivational core of gaining and losing control 206–207
 mouth, oral capture in infants 159–160
 movements in newborns 153–155
 mutual sharing, emergence of 212–215
- “necessary illusions” 65, 110
 negotiation 103–105
 neonates/newborns
   acting and feeling by 152–155
   built-in addictive pleasures 166–168
   clinging and binding 178–179
   embodied centrifugal and centripetal forces 157–159
   feeling experience 147–149
   first object of love and jealousy 163–166
   minimal self-awareness in 155–157
   oral and manual capture 159–161
   pleasure and need to control 168–169
 nepotism 89
 nesting and territoriality 53–54
 neural growth, fetus 29
 Ngandu hunter-gatherers, infant care 262
 Nietzsche, Friedrich 63
 nomadic peoples 251–254
 non-conscious mind state 174–175
 normative ownership, from 5 years 189–193
 norms, collective, codification of 289–290
 Nozick, Robert, entitlement theory of ownership 86–87
- objectification of ownership 49
   infants 181, 199–200
 objects
   attachment to transitional 125–126, 265–270
   manipulation of by infants 160–161
   participation in our lives 114–118
   worship of 127
 obligation to reciprocate, see gift exchange systems
 onion metaphor 2–3, 205–206
   and meaning of ownership 202–203
   wakeful mind states 173–174
 ontological distinctions 6
 oral capture, infants 159–160
 organ donation, laws of 246–247
 ornamentation 135–139
 overpopulation problem 69–70
- ownership claims 7–8, 46
   assertion of ownership 46–48
   belongings and belongingness 72–74
   evolutionary story 49–52
   generalized greed 67–70
   human coding of property rights 58–61
   ingrained territoriality instinct 52–55
   instinctive enactment of possession 48–49
   invention of property 55–58
   pleasure of owning 61–64
   private versus common ownership 70–72
   property acquisition, need for 65–67
 ownership in development 12, 172
   birth 178–179
   from 2 months 179–181
   9–18 months 181–185
   2–3 years 185–187
   3–5 years 187–189
   from 5 years 189–193
   onion metaphor and values of ownership 202–203
   reasoning about ownership 193–197
   six mental states as they unfold 174–177
   three matrices of ownership 197
     from preconceptual to conceptual 197–199
     toward progressive differentiation of alienable 200–202
     toward progressive objectification of 199–200
   wakeful mind states 173–174
 ownership transfer 8–9, 75–76
 inalienable and socially binding possessions 79–81 kinds of 6, 94
   agreed 99–101
   generous 97–99
   violent 94–96
 and negotiation 103–105
 personal values 76–79
 principles 6, 81–82
   blood 89–91
   creation/invention 86–88
   familiarity 88–89
   labor 85–86
   luck 91–94
   strongest and first possession 82–85
 reciprocity, levels and forms of 101–103
- pain experience 23, 26–27
 prenatal development 147
 surgery without anesthesia 28
 in trout 170
 Palestinian children, judgment of land ownership 285–288

- parenting practices
 and children's sharing 271
 cultural differences 260–262
 intuitive parenting 211–212
 resolution of children's ownership
 conflicts 195–196
- parochialism, cultural differences
 285–288
- pathologies of possession 131–135
- perception in newborns 155–159
- personal value of possessions 76–79
- personality, cultural differences 247–249
- Peruvian children, study on sharing 275–276
- pets 117–118
- Piaget, Jean 226–227
- play 208–210
 Caillois' taxonomy of 207
 and gaining/losing control 206–207
see also games
- pleasure
 built-in, addictive 166–168
 and control needs, infants 168–169
 of owning 61–64
- Polanyi, Karl, Great Transformation
 63–64, 102
- Porges, Stephen 51–52
- positional (Veblen) goods 136–138
- “possessed” individuals 32–34
- possession
 etymology of word 21–22
 ideas and facts about 3–4
 pathologies of 6
 transfer rituals 121–125
- potlatch rituals 73–74, 246
- poverty 250–251
- power of objects 125, 128
- power hierarchies/structures 83
- preferences, process of 107–109
- prejudice in children 192
- prenatal feeling experience 147–149
- prenatal mental states 149–152
- prestige 121, 122
- pretense, sharing of 221
- prey and predator 48
- private versus common ownership 70–72
- privileges 73
 transmission of 89–90
- pro-social behavior (affiliative responses) 52
- projection 36, 109
 ingredient in sense of ownership
 equation 41
 and objectification of ownership 199
- property acquisition, need for 65–67
- property, origins of 55–58
- property rights, codification of 58–61
- “proud possessions” 78
- Proudhon, Pierre Joseph 55
- proximity maintenance versus independent
 roaming existential conundrum,
 infants 162, 182, 295–296
- psychosis 32–34
- public (common) ownership 70–72
- public resources, conflicts over 67
- pulsion theory, Freud 163–164
- punishment of children, cultural variations 278–281
- reasoning about ownership 193–197
 cultural differences 281–285
- reciprocity
 break in normal kinds of 134
 and gift giving 98–99
 infant feeding 178–179
 levels and forms of 101–103
 in negotiation and exchange 99–101
see also sharing in development
- recursive inferences 293
- recursive thoughts 294–295
- referential sharing, from 7–9 months
 215–218
- reflexes 152–154
- relics, worshiping of 115–116
- relinquishing control over possessions 204–205
- renouncement of possessions 61–62
- representational meaning of objects 116–117
- reputable concept of alienable ownership
 187–189
- reputable (indirect) reciprocity 102, 103, 230–231
- reputation 77–78, 120–121
 development in children 189
- retentive possession pathology 133–134
- rights to property 58–61
 copyright issues 87–88
 entitlement theory 86–87
- rituals of possession transfer 121–125
- rivalry over possessions 43–44
- role reversal imitation 218–219
- Roma people, inheritance conflicts 90–91
- Roman code on property 58–60
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 55–57, 61, 66, 295
- rules
 codification of 289–290
 deontic 43–44
 of equity and justice 246–247
 in games, Piaget's work 226–227
 learning of, from 5 years 191

322 Index

- Saks, Elyn, personal account of schizophrenia 33–34
- Samoan children, costly punishment 279
 compared to middle-class US children 279–281
- Sartre, Jean-Paul 164–165, 259–260
- schizophrenia 32–34
- sedimentation, culture as 238
- selective preference 107–109
- self-aggrandizing needs 66–67
- self-awareness in newborns 155–157
- self-conscious psychology 1–2, 293–296
- self-efficacy 168
- self-esteem 77–78
- self-evidence property of feeling experience 31–32
 loss of in schizophrenia 32–34
- self-identity, quest for 37
- self-love 66–67
- self-promotion 49–50
- self-reproach, link to guilt 39
- self-sacrifice, see costly punishment
- sense of ownership, “ingredients” of 41–42
- sensing versus feeling, machines 23, 24–25
- sensory perception, prenatal development 30, 147–149
- sexual fixations, fetishism 129–130
- shamanism 128
- shame 248–249
- sharing in development 12–14, 204–205
 cross-cultural variations 270–278
 dynamic core of gaining and losing control 206–207
 games, sharing of 207–210
 mental states 211–225
 onion metaphor 205–206
 reciprocity and solidarity 225–231
- shelter/living space, desire for 65–67
- Shore, Brad 245–246
- signifier versus signified 114
- sleep–wake patterns, fetuses 151
- smell sensation, fetuses 147–148
- social affiliation 73
- social competition 38–39
- social conformity, children 191, 192–193
- social harmony
 gift giving maintaining 97–99
 and morality 4–5
 and shared possessions 42
- social recognition 73
 and gift-giving 98–99, 139–140
 human quest for 293–294
 symbolic personal possessions 119–120
- sociality, basic forms of 247–248
- socially binding possession 79–81
- solidarity in development 225–227
- somesthetic senses, pre-natal development 30, 147
- sounds
 fetal response to 148
 infants’ exploration of 180–181
 multiple meanings of 114
- Spirit of the Laws* (Montesquieu) 240–241
- Sri Lanka, aboriginal forest dwellers 244
- status symbolism 136
- stereotypical south–north differences 239
- Stern, David, The Diary of a Baby 167–168
- stone money 61, 139–140
- strange situation test 263–265
- stranger anxiety, infants 183
- strong reciprocity 103
- “strongest” principle of ownership 82–85
- subjectivity 143–144
 ancient roots of 169–171
 in fetuses 145–146
see also “feeling” experience
- subsistence economies 251–252
- superstitions and chance gambling 92
- superstitious behaviors 126–127
- symbolic capital 118–121
- symbolic psychology 2
- symbolic spinoffs of possession 9–10, 44–45, 106–107
 affective investment into things 107–110
 animism 125–128
 centripetal and centrifugal pathologies 131–135
 coins and cultural identity 139–140
 decoration, ornamentation, and costly signaling 135–139
 fetishism 128–131
 literal versus non-symbolic experience of things 110–114
 objects’ peculiar role in our lives 114–118
 rituals of possession transfer 121–125
 symbolic capital 118–121
- symmetrical reciprocity (direct reciprocity) 102–103
- synaptogenesis 29
- tactile perception
 infants’ grasping behavior 160–161, 181
 oral capture in newborns 159–160
 prenatal development 147
 touch discrimination in neonates 32
- Tadasuke, Ooka, eighteenth-century judge 37–38

- taste discrimination 147–148
 Taylor, Charles, moral space 187, 225
 technological dependencies 127–128
 teleost fish, emotional conditioning 170
 territoriality instinct 52–55
 theft 72–73, 94–96, 245–246
 things/objects, affective investment into 107–110
 toilet training, Freud’s anal stage 132, 161
 Tomasello, M. 219
   play activities 217
 Toraja people, funeral rituals 123
 Touch, see tactile perception trading 99–100
   in primates 100
   by young children 230
 tragedy of the commons 69–70
 transfer of ownership, see ownership transfer
 transitional object attachment 265–268
   cultural differences 268–270
 Trevarthen, Colwyn, primary intersubjectivity 178
 trout, pain experience 170

 ultimatum games, bargaining behavior 273–275
 ultrasonic imaging 150
 unconscious mind state 175
 unequal outcomes, chimpanzees’ sensitivity to 100–101
 US children
   costly punishment studies 279–281
   judgment of land ownership 285–288

 reasoning about ownership 281–285
   studies on sharing 275–278
 usurpation 94–96

 value (meaning) of possessions
   in development 202–203
   personal 76–79
 Vanuatu (Banks Islands)
   children’s attachment to inanimate objects 269–270
   land ownership 244–245
 Veblen goods 136–138
 vernacular sense of “culture” 236
 Vienne, Bernard 245
 violent ownership transfer 94–96
 visual perception 148–149
   in newborns 156

 wake–sleep patterns, fetuses 151
 wakeful mind states, layers of 173–174
 wealth acquisition 92–94
 wealth discrepancies 250
 Weber, Max 122
 Weiner, Annette 80
 Winnicott, Donald, transitional object 266–267
 Woodburn, James, Hazda people 252–253
 worship of inanimate objects 116, 127

 Yang, Mayfair Mei-hui 124–125
 Yap stone money 139–140

 Zahavi, Amotz 137
 zebrafish, nervous system 170