

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03861-5 - Legal and Economic Principles of World Trade Law

Edited by Henrik Horn and Petros C. Mavroidis

Index

More information

Index

Agreement on Safeguards (WTO), 54

Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures (SCM) (WTO), 49

anti-dumping, 58–59

best response function, 23

border instruments alternative policies vs., 49–50

domestic instruments vs., 52

Brander-Spence model, export subsidies, 185–186 campaign contributions, 60

Charter for an International Trade

Organization (ITO) (UN), 95; see also 3

Clayton, Will, 5

commitment theory, 7

Committee on Regional Trade Agreements (CRTA), 170

concessions, reciprocal exchanges, 35

consumption taxes, 16–17

countries, large vs. small, 42–44

Coumot delocation model, 189–190

Dispute Settlement (DS) system, ix economic interdependence, international externalities, 13–17

economic model, government preferences, 105–106

economic theory, 103–116

legal rules interpretation, 116–124

efficiency measures, 14

export policies, subsidies, 83–92, 192–198

Brander-Spence model, 185–186

case law, 192–199

domestic vs. export subsidies, illustrative list, 195–196

export tariffs, 199

financial contribution, benefit, 194–195

illustrative list, 89–91

remedies, 197–198

tax rebates, duty drawbacks, 196–197

export subsidies and tariffs, rationale for disciplines, 177–192 competing-exporters models, fairness, 188–189 competing-exporters models, further considerations, 186–189 competing-exporters models, import-competing industry, 186–187 competing-exporters models, negotiated market-access concessions, 187–188 competing-exporters models, welfare costs, 187

export subsidies, 179

export subsidies, competing-exporters model with imperfect competition, 184–186 export subsidies, competing-exporters model with perfect competition, 182–183 export subsidies, two-country model, 179–182

export tariffs, 191–192

firm-delocation effects, 189–191

modern economic theory and, 178–192

negotiating history, 177–178

export taxes, 55–57

externalities, real vs. pecuniary, 15

flexibility, escape from bindings, 54

foreign policy considerations, 99–101

free trade unilaterally optimal, 36–37

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03861-5 - Legal and Economic Principles of World Trade Law

Edited by Henrik Horn and Petros C. Mavroidis

Index

More information

364

Index

GATT

- framers' objectives, 7
 - general vs. particular trade agreement model, 11
 - genesis of, x–xi
 - governments' motives, 11
 - International Trade Organization (ITO)
 - and, 3
 - National Treatment principles, xi
 - negotiation, 3–5
 - non-violation complaints (NVCs), 4
 - objectives, mechanisms, 9–10
 - original members, 97
 - participating delegations and, 5–6
 - principle supplier rule and, 6
 - property rights of, 5–7
 - serious injury standard, 10–11
 - years before negotiation, 1–3
- GATT, treaty text, 92
- export subsidies, 83–92
 - export subsidies, illustrative list, 89–91
 - modification of schedules, Article XXVIII, 72–76
 - Most-Favored Nation (MFN), exceptions, 78–83
 - Note on GATT 1994, 89–91
 - quantitative restrictions, other measures, 77–78
 - schedule of concessions, Article II, 83–92
 - tariff commitments, 76
 - territorial application, frontier traffic,
 - customs unions, free-trade areas, 80–83
- general international externalities model, 23–35
- Generalized System of Preferences (GSP)
- EC, 173
 - India, 164
- gold standard, 1–2
- government commitment devices,
 - constituent interests, 59–62
- government objectives, 17–20
- efficient trade agreement, 27–29
 - formal representation, 20–21
 - minimal structure imposition and, 24–25
 - political economy approach, 18–19
 - unilateral policy decision, benchmark outcome, 25–27
- Greater East Asia Co-Prosperity sphere, 94

Havana Charter, 95

Hawley-Smoot tariff, 2, 94

Hull, Cordell, 5, 99–100, 151

Import Duties bill (U.K.), 2

international externalities, 106–107

International Trade Organization (ITO), 3

Kaldor-Hicks criterion, 14

Keynes, John Maynard, 5

labor unions, 59–60

Leddy, John, 5

Meade, James, 5

modification of schedules, Article XXVIII (GATT), 72–76

Most-Favored Nation (MFN), 52–53

Article I and, 162–170

Article XXIV and, 170–173

covered measures, 162–163

custom unions, free trade agreements,

- preferences, 159–161

Enabling Clause and, 173–174

exceptions, 78–83

immediately and unconditionally, 163–167

like products, 167–169

negotiating history, 151–153

originating in WTO member, 169–170

rationale, case law, 153–154

rationale, economic theory, 153–161

rationale, exceptions, 150–151

special and differential treatment, 173–177

WTO law implementation, exceptions,

- 162–177

Nash equilibrium, 11, 22–23, 26–27

national market power model, 35–59

basic model, 40–42

countries, large vs. small, 42–44

free trade unilaterally optimal, 36–37

government behavior and, 47–48 structure of economy, 42

tariff revenue role, 45–47

terms of trade, market access restrictions,

- 47–48

trade-policy formation, politics, 44–45

unilateral incentive to exploit, 37–40

welfare-maximizing tax, 37–40

national market power model, GATT design

- compatibility, 48–59

anti-dumping and, 58–59

border instruments vs. alternative policies,

- 49–50

border instruments vs. domestic

- instruments, 52

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03861-5 - Legal and Economic Principles of World Trade Law

Edited by Henrik Horn and Petros C. Mavroidis

Index

More information

Index

365

- export taxes and, 55–57
- flexibility, escape from bindings, 54
- Most-favored Nation (MFN) and, 52–53
- National Treatment (NT) and, 52–53
- preferential trading agreements (PTAs), rules, 53–54
- reciprocity emphasis, 50–52
- subsidies and, 57–58
- trade liberalization and, 54–55
- National Treatment (NT), xi, 52–53, 205–207
 - Article III GATT 1947, 1994, 210–211
 - Article III, text, 207–209
- National Treatment (NT), implementation
 - case law, 240–289
 - affecting, offering for sale, 269
 - applied so as to afford protection (ASATAP), 256–264
 - Art. III, GATT case law, 286–289
 - Art. IV GATT: film, 289
 - Art. XX GATT: general exceptions, 289–290
 - Art. XXI GATT: security exception, 290
 - Article III GATT, 240–241
 - Article III GATT, measures under scope, 243–245
 - burden of proof allocation, 283–289
 - critique, 290–299
 - critique, mandate and coverage, 291–292
 - critique, NT legal nature, 292
 - critique, specific terms, understanding of, 295–299
 - critique, standard of review, aims and effects test, 292–295
 - DCS products, 252–255
 - exceptions, 289–290
 - fiscal measures, 246–267
 - laws, regulations, requirements, 268–269
 - legal discipline, 242–289
 - less favorable treatment (LFT), 272–278
 - like products, 264–267
 - like products, Art. III.4 GATT, 269–272
 - nonfiscal instruments, 268–283
 - prima facie* case, making, 285–286
 - review standard, no effects, no intent, 278–283
 - right to regulate, 245–246
 - taxation in excess, 267
 - Working Party (WP) Report on Border Tax Adjustments* (BTAs), 247–252
- National Treatment (NT), interpretation, 299–341
 - aims and effect test, 334–335
 - Art. III GATT relevance, 326–327
 - Art. III GATT violation, Art. XX GATT recourse, 329–330
 - complaints, relative facility, 327
 - intent vs. effect, 332–334
 - international efficiency, GATT, 329
 - leading cases, 337–341
 - like and DCS products relationship, 328–329
 - market likeness, protection evaluation, 330–332
 - policy vs. market likeness, 328
 - protection evaluation, burden of proof allocation, 321–322
 - protection evaluation, DCS products, 308–312
 - protection evaluation, Interpretation III, 306–312
 - protection evaluation, Interpretation X, 301–306, 313–314, 317–321
 - protection evaluation, like products, 307–308
 - protection evaluation, market vs. policy-like, 315–316
 - protection evaluation, preferable interpretation, 317–326
 - protection evaluation, trade liberalization consequences, 322–324
 - protection evaluation, two approaches, 301–312
 - protection evaluation, two approaches, outcome difference, 312–316
 - taxation, production process (PPMs), 335–337
- National Treatment (NT), rationale, 211–240
 - border protection and, 232
 - case law, 225–226
 - drafts, 215–224
 - economics, 226–240
 - efficacy, tariff levels, 234–236
 - externalities, unilateral decisionmaking, 230–232
 - GATT and ITO, 215
 - Geneva Conference, 222–223
 - government preferences and, 231–232
 - Havana Conference, 223–224
 - internalized externalities, negotiation, 231–232
 - judicial errors, 238–239
 - London Conference, 215–220
 - negotiating history, 211–225
 - negotiating record summary, 224–225
 - negotiation forum, context, 212–214

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03861-5 - Legal and Economic Principles of World Trade Law

Edited by Henrik Horn and Petros C. Mavroidis

Index

More information

366

Index

- National Treatment (cont.)
 New York Conference, 220–221
 NT transformation, 215–224 policy objectives, 227–230 protectionist policies, 234–239 tariffs and taxes interaction, 236–238 trade agreements, alternative view of role, 239–240 trade agreements, incompleteness, 232–234 trade agreements, purpose and structure, 227–234
- negotiated constraints, rationale, 93–124 case law and, 101–103 economic theory and, 103–116 economic theory, legal rules interpretation, 116–124
 foreign policy considerations, 99–101
 negotiating history, 94–101
 negotiating process, 95–98
 negotiation rounds, gradualism, 121–122
 quantitative restrictions (QRs), 98–99
 reciprocal tariff liberalization, 116–118
 renegotiation, 119–121
 tariff bindings, 118–119
 tariff concessions, 96
 tariffs vs. quotas, 122–124
- negotiating history, 94–101
 negotiating process, 95–98
 negotiation rounds, gradualism, 121–122
 non-violation complaints (NVCs), GATT, 4
 Note on GATT 1994, 89–91
- preferential trading agreements (PTAs), rules, 53–54
- quantitative restrictions, other measures, 77–78
- quantitative restrictions (QRs), 98–99
- quantitative restrictions (QRs), case law, Article XI, 143–150 complainant, trade effects, 147–149
 covered measures, 143
 duties, taxes, 143–144 exceptions to general prohibitions, 149–150 export restrictions, 145 government measures only, 145–147 non-discriminatory administration, 150 trade restrictions, international vs. domestic, 144–145
- reciprocal tariff liberalization, 116–118
- Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act (RTAA), 94, 151
 reciprocity emphasis, 50–52
 renegotiation, 119–121
 retaliatory trade actions, 2
- schedule of concessions, Article II (GATT), 83–92
 social welfare, 18
 strategic interaction, outcomes prediction, 21–23
 subsidies, 57–58
- tariff bindings, 118–119
- tariff commitments law, 76, 124–143 carve out, GATT Art. II.2, 137 charges equivalent to internal taxes, 137–138 concession scheduling, WTO-consistency, 132 concessions outside multilateral rounds, 129 customs valuation, 142 export tariffs, taxes, 129–130 fees, charges for services rendered, 138–141 harmonized system (HS), 125 harmonized system (HS), legal relevance, 131–132 loopholes and, 141–142 member's expectations, relevance of, 132–133 multilateral negotiating rounds, 127–128 non-violation doctrine, 4, 142–143 ordinary customs duties (OCD), other duties and charges (ODC), 125–127 schedules, rectifications and modifications, 133–134 tariff bindings mechanics, 125 tariff commitment interpretation, 130–131 tariff protection, post-certification, 133 tariff protection, renegotiation, 134–136 types of duties, switching, 136–137
- tariff concessions, 96
 tariff rates, home government response, 25–27 tariff revenue, role of, 45–47
 tariffs vs. quotas, 122–124
 terms of trade, market access restrictions, 47–48
 terms-of-trade theory, 7 trade agreements commitment, terms-of-trade theory and, 7 commitment theory of, 115–116

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03861-5 - Legal and Economic Principles of World Trade Law

Edited by Henrik Horn and Petros C. Mavroidis

Index

More information

Index

367

- concessions, reciprocal exchanges, 35
- design, 29–35
- explicit, incomplete, 33–35
- firm-delocation motive, 111–112
- general international externalities model, 23–35
- government commitment devices, constituent interests, 59–62
- imperfect competition, other international externalities, 111–115
- local-price externality and, 112–114
- negotiated, 29–30
- purpose, 104–105
- self-enforcing, 30–33
- terms-of-trade rationale for, 107–108
- terms-of-trade rationale, practical relevance, 108–111
- trade agreements, building blocks, 12–23
 - economic interdependence, international externalities, 13–17
 - efficiency measures, 14
 - government objectives, 17–20
 - government objectives, formal representation, 20–21
 - government objectives, political economy approach, 18–19
 - social welfare and, 18
 - strategic interaction, outcomes prediction, 21–23
- trade liberalization, 54–55
- Trade Related Investment Measures (TRIMs), 145
- trade restrictions, 2
- trade-policy
 - formation, politics of, 44–45
 - protectionist, discriminatory, 2–3
- unilateral incentive to exploit, 37–40
- unilateral policy decisions, 15–17
 - benchmark outcome, 25–27
- U.S. Tariff Commission, 97
- Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties*, 19, 295
- welfare-maximizing tax, 37–40
- Working Party (WP) Report on Border Tax Adjustments* (BTAs), 247–252
- World Trade Organization (WTO) Agreement*
 - economic objectives, ix–x
 - scope, ix
- WTO Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures (SCMs), 178