

Index

- Abramowitz, M., growth and structural change 108
- Africa
- benefits of regional power trading 85
 - Brazil's trade with 134
 - Chinese investment in 88, 134
 - efficiency savings and investment in infrastructure 87
 - see also* developing countries; sub-Saharan Africa
- agricultural activity
- and growth catch-up 117
 - improvements in productivity 143
- aid flows, to developing countries 88
- AIG, collapse of 10
- Aizenman, J., self-insurance in East Asia 15
- Akamatsu, K., wild geese pattern of economic development 112, 123, 132
- American Dream Downpayment Act (2003) 40
- American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (2009) 12
- American Society of Civil Engineers 70, 95
- Andres, L., infrastructure investments in developing countries 79
- Araujo, C., infrastructure investments in Brazil 72
- Asian crisis 163
- and regional pooling of reserves 186
- Asian Development Bank, estimates of infrastructure needs 95
- Asian Monetary Fund, proposals for 186
- asset price movements, and international financial flows 31
- asset-backed commercial paper (ABCP) markets 48
- balance of payments
- adjustment mechanism 200
 - causes of persistent external imbalances 200
 - and cross-border capital flows 165
 - risks of imbalances 165
- Balassa–Samuelson theorem, and Chinese currency valuation 19
- bancor xxix, 153–4, 166
- Bank for International Settlements (BIS) 182–3
- bank lending in the Eurozone
- and housing bubbles 49–50
 - increased leverage ratios 44, 47
 - risk profile of new derivatives 48–9
- banks
- and bailouts 42
 - collapses in US 10
 - government response to 10
 - and mortgage-backed securities 34–5
 - “too big to fail” 34
 - see also* global banking; shadow banking system
- barter system 149
- Bear Stearns 9, 10
- Ben-Bassat, A., self-insurance in Israel 15
- Bergsten, Fred, global imbalances 7
- Bernanke, Ben
- global imbalances 7
 - global savings glut 23
 - importance of dollar as reserve currency 29
- bimetallic trade system 149–50
- Brazil, trade with Africa 134
- Bretton Woods system xxvii, 153, 209
- collapse of 154, 156

- and fixed exchange rates 145
- Triffin dilemma 155
- US dollar as reserve currency 154–5
 - benefits of 155
- BRICS Bank 95–96
- Buch, C. M. 46
- Bush, George W., subprime lending 40
- business cycle volatility; see Great Moderation
- California gold rush 149
- capital flows 163
 - increases before financial crisis 164
 - and crisis 164
 - postcrisis cross-border flows 165
- cash-out refinancing 31
- changwu* attitude xv
- Chenery, Hollis, growth and structural change 108
- Chiang Mai initiative 170, 186
- China Mobile 60
- China
 - absorption of unskilled labor reserves 137
 - abundance of labor in, effect on exchange rate 19
 - benefits of global infrastructure initiative 84
 - blame for global imbalances 206
 - capital goods exports in 79–81
 - comparative advantage, use of xxvi
 - corporate savings in xix, 57, 60
 - current account surplus in
 - and corporate saving rate 56–7
 - financial structure of 59
 - and foreign reserves 17
 - income inequality, increase in 57, 59
 - monopoly in finance and telecommunications 60
 - policy reforms to address surplus 61–2
 - royalty rates on natural resources 60
 - savings–investment ratio 56
 - tax policy and state-owned enterprises 57–9
 - and East Asian financial crisis 97
 - entry into World Trade Organization 6
 - exchange rate policy and global imbalances 14, 15–16, 17, 20–1
 - export-led growth and financial crisis 14, 15–16
 - exports of power-generating equipment 81
 - financial globalization, and trade surplus 19
 - financial sector 169
 - internationalization of yuan 169
 - reforms in 169
 - flying geese pattern 112
 - GDP growth in 135–6
 - industrialization and urbanization 136
 - two-part strategy 136
 - global growth of 133
 - and growth in low-income countries 208
 - infrastructure investment in 77
 - leading dragon pattern 104, 139
 - opportunities for industrialization in 135
 - postcrisis share of developing countries' reserves 164
 - public bank lending in 90
 - relocation of labor-intensive industries 138
 - response to 1988 inflation xiii
 - saving rate in xix, 3
 - silver standard in 150
 - trade and investment in Africa 134
 - trade deficit with East Asian economies 63
 - undervalued exchange rate xvii, 2
 - wages in 138
 - China–Africa Development Fund 88
 - Chinn–Ito index 47
 - Chrysler, government rescue of 12
 - Citigroup, Inc. 34
 - Clinton administration, and subprime mortgage market 39–40
 - collateralized debt obligations (CDOs), and subprime loans 9
 - Collier, Paul 104
 - Colombia, fiscal costs of government guarantees 94
 - Commodity Futures Modernization Act (2000) 35
 - Community Reinvestment Act (1977) 39–40

- comparative advantage
 - and China xxvi
 - and development thinking 99
 - and industrial structure xxv
 - and new structural economics 99–100
 - see also* flying geese and leading dragon pattern
- construction equipment, market share of 81
- consumption boom, in noncore Eurozone countries 44
 - and decline in manufacturing 44
- consumption elasticity, and house prices 30–1
- contingent borrowing, expansion of 192
- contingent lending 185
- Continuous Linked Settlement Bank 183
- covered bonds, increase in 48
- credit, international dimension of 179–80
- cross-border flows, within Eurozone 47
- current account imbalances, since crisis 164–5
 - deficits in advanced economies 165
- Darwin, Charles, struggle for existence 106
- debt levels, and unemployment 167
- deindustrialization, in advanced economies 125–6
 - and relocation of manufacturing 122
- Democratic Republic of Congo, auto industry in 127
- Deng Xiaoping xvii
- Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and affordable housing 39
- deregulation
 - in core Eurozone countries 46, 50
 - effects on noncore countries 44, 54
 - and the Great Moderation 5
 - and housing bubble 33–7
 - see also* bank lending; subprime mortgage market
- derivatives trading, expansion of 35
- devaluation, problems for Eurozone xx
- developing countries
 - benefits of global infrastructure initiative 84
 - and comparative advantage xxv, 208
 - importance in policy objectives 126–7
 - domestic savings in 90
 - global investment in xxi–xxii
 - growth in xxii, 100
 - postcrisis 133
 - infrastructure demand and supply in 78
 - infrastructure opportunities in 75–6
 - postcrisis share of current account surpluses/deficits 164–5
 - productivity-enhancing investment in 207–8
 - protection measures in 127
 - costs of 127
 - in socialist countries 129
- development theories
 - and catch-up strategies 104
 - and comparative advantage xxv
 - and import substitution strategies 99
 - and structural change xxiv–xxv
 - see also* flying geese pattern
- Dinh, H., origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14
- dollar, share of international currency 161
- Dragoin, G., infrastructure investments in developing countries 79
- dual-track reform strategy, in China, and corporate savings rate 56–7, 60
- East Asia xxii–xxiii
 - current account surpluses in 6
 - development strategies in xviii, xxiv, 2
 - export-led growth and financial crisis 14, 15–16
 - relocation of production to China 62
 - rise in current account surpluses and reserves 17
- eastern Europe, economic boom in 44
- economic diversification, and structural transformation 124
- economic growth
 - in eighteenth and nineteenth centuries 101
 - and income divergence 101–2
 - and technological change 102–4
- Eichengreen, Barry 8–9
- “exorbitant privilege” 29

- “golden fetters” 152
- the Triffin dilemma 154
- Eisenhower, Dwight D., Federal Aid Highway Act (1956) 74
- emerging markets
 - capital flows from advanced economies 172
 - portfolio inflows 172
 - currency devaluation in 172
- Emerging Markets Private Equity Association 88–9
- employment generation
 - and infrastructure projects 69–70
 - global initiative 78, 79, 84
 - in manufacturing 70
- enterprise clustering, and structural change 123
- environmental damage, and
 - infrastructure development 85
- euro
 - and currency flows within the Eurozone 44
 - false sense of prosperity 51
 - increase in financial integration 46
 - as international currency 161
 - undervaluation of 44
 - use as reserve currency 168, 177
- Europe 2020 project bond initiative 72, 84
- European Commission, and European infrastructure needs 95
- European financial integration 45–6
 - and interest rates 46, 54
- European Financial Stability Fund 186
- European Monetary Union, surrender of monetary policy 160
- Eurozone, crisis in 168–9
 - postcrisis current account surpluses 165
 - and volatility of foreign exchange markets 171–2
- exchange rates, and Bretton Woods system 153
- export composition, and structural transformation 124
- export-oriented development, and dual-track approach xxiv
- export-oriented policies, and financial crisis 63
- exports
 - and global infrastructure initiative 84
 - relationship with infrastructure of importers 78–9
- Fannie Mae 35, 39
 - and George W. Bush administration 40
 - government takeover of 11
 - and share of loans 41
- Federal Housing Safety and Soundness Act (1992) 39
- Federal Reserve Board
 - investor surveys and “Greenspan put” 38
 - and market regulation 37, 38
 - and quantitative easing 178
- Fernald, J., on US roads 73
- Ferreira, P., infrastructure investments in Brazil 72
- Ferri, G. 60
- financial crises
 - enforcement of policy discipline 175–6
 - and innovation 175
- financial crisis 2008–9 1–2
 - and 1930s Great Depression 8
 - causes of 145, 205
 - deficiencies in international monetary system 209
 - and demand stimulation 207–8
 - structural reform and the “new normal” 207
 - damage to real economy 11
 - depth of 12
 - and employment decline 12
 - global imbalances and East Asian strategies xvii
 - spread of 12, 164
 - collapse of international
 - commodity prices 13
 - money markets 13
 - remittances 13
 - trade 13
 - see also* banks
- financial deregulation
 - and banking supervision 64
 - in Europe xix, 3, 206
 - and housing bubble xviii, 2
- financial innovation, and integration 163
- Financial Services Action Plan (1999) 45
- Financial Stability Board 183

- fiscal consolidation
 - and high debt levels 69
 - in noncore Eurozone countries 43
- Flexible Credit Line 185, 192
- flying geese and leading dragon patterns
 - xxv, xxvi, 100, 104, 112, 132
 - in Asia 112–14
 - and China's economic development 136
 - and emergence of middle-income countries 104–5
 - failures in developing countries xxv
 - and footwear 114–17
 - and international division of labor and production 114–17
- foreign currency reserves, as self-insurance 187–8
- reserve adequacy guidelines 188
- foreign exchange
 - and growth 123
 - transactions between central banks 182–3
- Freddie Mac, see Fannie Mae
- “free banking” era 150
- free trade, and growth 6
- Friedman, Milton, k percent rule xxviii, 147, 176
- and p-gold 201, 202
- fundamental equilibrium exchange rate 19
- G20 Multilateral Development Bank Working Group on Infrastructure 86
- G20 Mutual Assessment Process 197
- Garrett-Peltier, H., infrastructure investments 70
- General Motors, government rescue of 12
- Germany, growth in 51, 53, 55
- Gerschenkron, Alexander, framework for structural transformation 111–12, 123, 132
- Glasgow, Arnold 130
- Glass–Steagall Act 34
- global banking, and reserve currency countries 178
- global development, challenges to xxiii
- global economy, complexity of governance for 199
- global financial crisis, causes of 63
- global growth 6
 - and emerging market economies 133
- global imbalances
 - and adoption of euro xxix
 - rise in 2, 6, 167, 205
 - and US domestic policy 7
 - response to recession 7
- global infrastructure initiative
 - boost to growth 94
 - “new new normal” 96–8
 - funds for 96
 - implementation of 95–96
 - needs of developed and developing countries 95
 - see also* infrastructure in developing countries
- global investment, need for xxi
- in developing countries xxi–xxii
- global liquidity, provision of 200
- and p-gold 202
 - exchange rate parity 203–4
 - and public goods 203
 - regulation, supervision, and lender of last resort functions 204
 - total currency in circulation 203
- global policy coordination, current mechanisms for 197
- global savings
 - impact on US housing bubble 23
 - pressure on interest rates 22
 - and US current account deficit 23
- gold, sales of IMF's store 185
- gold exchange standard 151
- gold standard 150
 - abandonment of 177, 209
 - contribution to world trade 151
 - and Great Depression 151
 - expansionary monetary policy 152
 - international spread of crisis 152
 - international use of 150
 - limitation of xxviii
 - US switch to 150
- Goldstein, M., China's global current account surplus 15
- Gottlieb, D., self-insurance in Israel 15
- government spending, as boost to demand 69
- Graham, Lindsey 18
- Gramm–Bliley–Leach Act (1999) 34
- great convergence, the 156–9

Index

241

- and currency composition of reserves 159
- Great Depression, the, and gold standard 151, 152
- Great Moderation, the 5–6
 - and financial crisis xv
- Greece
 - domestic consumption boom in 44, 50
 - and housing bubble 49–50
 - increase in aggregate demand 51
 - manufacturing share of GDP 53
 - rising wages in 51
- Greenspan, Alan 26
 - and the “Greenspan put” 27, 37–8
- Greenwald, B. 186
- Growth Identification and Facilitation Framework xxvi, 97, 100, 142–3
- growth, and structural change 106–7
 - sectoral composition of 107–8
 - and labor productivity 119–22
- growth rates, global 5–6
 - and recession 12
 - sustainability of 5–6
- Guidotti–Greenspan rule 188
- HBOS, collapse of 10
- hedge funds, and subprime crisis 9
- Heinrich, R. P. 46
- Heintz, J., infrastructure investments 70
- high-income economies
 - capital flows to emerging economies in crisis period 172
 - prospects of rise in 179
 - declining growth in 166–7
 - neglect of cross-border issues 167
 - share of postcrisis current account deficits 165
 - sustainability of sovereign debt 175
- home equity loans 31
- housing bubble, in US 27–8, 29, 63, 68
 - and bank collapses 10
 - and economic policies in East Asia and China 14
 - and consumption boom 30–1
 - unsustainability of 14, 24
 - trigger for financial crisis 9–10
 - wealth effects of 30
- housing equity, extraction of 31
- human capital, and growth 123
- human development program xxiii
- Hungary
 - core bank claims on 47
 - economic boom in 44
- Iceland
 - core bank claims on 47
 - economic boom in 44
 - housing market boom in 41–2
 - failure of 42
- IKB Deutsche Industriebank, collapse of 10
- Im, F., origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14
- IMF bonds 185
- import substitution policies xxiii, xxv
- income distribution, divergence in xxii
- indexing of debt 192–3
- India
 - and flying geese pattern 114
 - investment in Africa 135
 - investment in power generation 81
 - private investment in 91
 - silver standard in 150
- Indonesia, ship construction in 127
- industrial policy, and comparative advantage 125
 - in developing countries 126–7
- Industrial Revolution, and Britain’s growth 101
- industrial structure, upgrading in developing countries 130
- industrialization
 - as engine of growth 108–9
 - and flying geese pattern 112
 - and share of manufacturing industries in GDP 117
 - role in structural transformation 125
- infrastructure, in developing countries 207–8
- environmental sustainability of 85
- finance for 86
 - aid flows 88
 - domestic savings 90
 - international bond issuances 90–91
 - nontraditional donors 88
 - public–private partnerships 91–4
 - sovereign wealth funds 88–89
 - tax financing 87
- financing gap 78
 - need for new mechanisms 84

- infrastructure, in developing countries (cont.)
 - identification of bottleneck-releasing projects 85
 - costs of 85–6
 - investment in 74, 79–81
 - opportunities for 75–6
 - and trade balance of advanced economies 81–4
- infrastructure, investment in xxi–xxii
 - advantages of 69–73
 - bottleneck-releasing projects 71
 - limited opportunities for 74
 - economic impact of 71
 - driver of development 76
 - effect on output 76
 - impact on growth 77
 - effect on health and education 76
 - financing mechanisms for 72
 - and fiscal multipliers 72–3
 - and growth 73
 - investment funds for 66
 - major gaps in advanced economies 70–1
 - Ricardian trap 74
 - and structural reforms 67
- Infrastructure Finance Center of Excellence 86
- innovation, risks of in developing countries 130
- interest rates, and global imbalances 22–3
- International Clearing Union, and bancor 153–4
- international currency 190
 - advantages of 195, 200–1
 - currency board arrangement 190
 - distinction from reserve currency 149
 - governance structure for 201–2
 - options for 195
 - composite currency 196
 - exchange rate with national currencies 196–7
 - fiscal policy coordination 197
 - issuing entity 195
 - and national reserve currencies 195
 - tie to a commodity 196
 - use of SDR 196
- international financial integration,
 - acceleration of 163–4
 - risks for global economy 189
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 153
 - and debt crisis 94
 - mechanism for global policy coordination 197
 - reform proposals
 - funding 191–2
 - governance 193, 194–5
 - instruments 192–3, 194
 - surveillance 193, 194
 - and risks to global economy 1
 - role in reformed international monetary system 183–4
 - as lender of last resort 184
 - means of increasing resources for 185–6
 - and SDR 69, 156
 - and substitutional accounts 156
- international monetary system 149
 - deficiencies in 145
 - competition among reserve currencies 146
 - need for reform 146, 148
 - and supranational reserve currency 147
 - differences from national systems 182
 - fragility of 199
 - global liquidity provision 189
 - allocation of SDRs 190
 - partial loss of national autonomy 190
 - voluntary cooperation 189–90
 - global reserve currency (p-gold) xxviii–xxix
 - and the great convergence 156–9
 - and the great moderation 160
 - lender of last resort function 184
 - establishment of central-bank-style 186–7
 - go-it-alone proposals for emerging economies 187
- move toward multipolar growth system 166–7
 - future cause of crises 175, 180
 - requirements of 170–1
- multireserve currency system xxvii
- need for reform 200
- payments system 182–3
 - effect of reform 183–4
 - integration of 183
- postcrisis 166

- reserve currency countries' access to finance 200
- stability of and prevention of crises 205, 209
 - and multiple reserve currencies 209
 - and p-gold 209–10
- transition to multiple reserve currency 161–3
 - and balance of payments imbalances 165
- US reserve currency status xxvi–xxvii
- internationalization of currencies, with policy coordination mechanism 198
- iPhone, China's share of value added 63
- Ireland
 - growth in 50
 - housing bubble in 41–2, 49–50
 - failure of 42
 - manufacturing share of GDP 53
 - rising wages in 51
- Italy, rising wages in 51
- Japan
 - and flying geese pattern 112
 - and footwear 114
 - lessons of lost decades 71
 - postcrisis current account surpluses 165
- Jeanne, O., real exchange rate 15
- Johnson, President Lyndon, Great Society agenda 154
- Keynes, John Maynard 192
 - and bancor xxix, 166
 - and International Clearing Union 153–4
- Krugman, Paul
 - concept of national competitiveness 106
 - reasons for housing market crisis 9
 - undervaluation of yuan 18
- Kuznets, Simon, features of economic growth 107–8, 123, 132
- Laibson, D., origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14, 23
- Lardy, N. R., China's global current account surplus 15
- Latin America, electricity demand in 95
- leading dragon pattern, see flying geese pattern
- leading sectors, and growth 123
- Lee, J., self-insurance in East Asia 15
- Lehman Brothers, collapse of xv, 1, 8, 10, 11, 13
 - and intrabank lending 10
- lender of last resort, global 184
 - prospective initiatives for 184–5
 - central-bank-style 186–7
 - new global currency 187
- Lewis, W. A., growth and savings 123
- Lin, Justin Y., origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14
- Liu, L.-G. 60
- liquidity trap 68
- low-income countries, and agricultural employment 117
- macroeconomic policy trilemma 188–9, 197, 203–4
- Maddison, A. 102, 128
 - advantage of backwardness in China 136
- manufacturing employment, and China's industrial upgrading 139–41
 - effect on low-income economies 139–41
- manufacturing exports, and job generation 79
- manufacturing productivity 125–6
- Marcus Aurelius 106–7
- McKinnon, R. I. 19–20
- McKinsey, estimates of infrastructure needs in Asia 95
- Merrill Lynch, bankruptcy of 10
- middle-income countries, growth in xxiii, 104–5
- Mollerstrom, J., origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14, 23
- mortgage-backed securities 34–5
 - and congressional funding of regulator 39
 - investor confidence in 41
 - and shadow banking system 35–6
- Multilateral Development Bank Working Group on Infrastructure 78

- multiple reserve currency system
 - 145–6, 166
 - advantages of 181
 - market competition, discipline of 176
 - policy coordination requirement 171
 - and global liquidity 176–8
 - requirements of 170–1
 - risks of 166, 167, 175, 180
 - and behavior of international investors 175
 - and capital flows 171
 - substitutability and stability 146–7, 148, 171
- Mundell, R. A. 190
- Nam Theun 2 hydropower project, costs of 85
- naming and shaming, under IMF article IV 193
- National Bank for Economic and Social Development (BNDES), and Brazilian infrastructure projects 90
- National Bureau of Economic Research, length of 2001 recession 26
- National Export Initiative (US) 79
- national expressway network (China) 77
- National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS), flying geese pattern 112
- National Infrastructure Reinvestment Bank 72, 84
- negative real interest rates 178
- New Arrangements to Borrow, see contingent lending
- new structural economics 131
 - and comparative advantage 132
 - continuing levels of development 131
 - endowment structure 131
 - government facilitation 132
- “NINJA” loans 9
- Northern Rock, collapse of 10
- O’Neil, Jim, and decoupling 6
- O’Rourke, Kevin 8
- Obstfeld, Maurice
 - federal policy and imbalances 27
 - and global saving 23
 - origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14
- oil prices, and financial crisis 13
- paper gold (p-gold) 147, 201–2
 - benefits to growth of new system 204
 - see also* global liquidity
- Pollin, R., infrastructure investments 70
- portfolio inflows, increase toward
 - emerging economies 172
 - and behavior of international investors 175
- Portugal, growth in 51
- power generation, investment in 81
- Precautionary Credit Line 192
- Precautionary and Liquidity Line 197
- private investment
 - fall in 67–8
 - and infrastructure investment 72
- productivity enhancement, and infrastructure investment 66
- Prohibit Predatory Lending Act (2005) 40
- protectionism 69
 - and trade imbalances 165
- public debt, and fiscal policies xxi
- public–private partnerships, and infrastructure investment in developing countries 91
 - costs of 93
 - and public debt levels 94
 - risks of 91
 - diversification by guarantee 92–3
 - fiscal 93–4
 - regulatory frameworks 93
- public sector dis-saving, and US current account deficits 32
- purchasing power parity (PPP), and currency valuation 18–19
- Qatar Investment Authority 88
- quotas 185
 - automatic increases to 191
- Rajan, R. 27
 - expansion of mortgage market to low-income households 41
- rationality, and Chinese growth xiii, xiv
- real estate boom, in noncore Eurozone countries 44
- reference rates system 197

Index

245

- reserve accumulation
 - in Germany and Japan 17
 - and self-insurance in East Asia and China 14, 15–16, 17
 - taxing of excess 192
 - and US capital account surplus 28–9
- reserve currency
 - and global crisis 2, xviii–xix, xxvi–xxvii
 - privileges of 154–5
 - and trade surpluses in exporting countries 28–9
 - and US current account deficits 15
 - use of national currencies for 146
 - see also* international monetary system
- Responsible Lending Act (2005) 40
- Riegle–Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act (1994) 34
- Rogoff, Kenneth
 - federal policy and imbalances 27
 - and global saving 23
 - origins of financial crisis in policies of few countries 14
- Roller, L. H., telecommunications in OECD countries, 72
- Rostow, Walt, theory of stages of development 111
- Sachs, Jeffrey, federal policy and imbalances 27
- saving, and growth sustainability 123
- savings and loan (S&L) associations, and interest rates 33–4
- Schultz, Theodore W. xiv
- Schumer, Charles 18
- Schwartz, J., infrastructure investments in developing countries 79
- Securities Investor Protection Corporation, national opinion survey 38
- September 11 terrorist attacks, and US stock market 26
- shadow banking system
 - dangers of 35–6
 - and deregulation 178
 - development of new financial derivatives 41
 - and moral hazard problems 37
 - and rating agencies 36–7
 - and risk management in Eurozone 48, 50
- Shiller, Robert, and irrational exuberance 29
- Single Euro Payments Area project 183
- Single European Act (1987) 45
- Smith, Adam xxv
- South Korea, and flying geese pattern 114
- sovereign debt crisis, in Eurozone 3, 12
 - and balance of payments crisis 54
 - causes of 43–5
 - competitiveness and productivity 51, 55
 - wage rises 51
 - and global financial crisis 54
 - housing bubbles 49–50
- sovereign debt, levels of 67
- sovereign wealth funds, and investment in developing countries 88–89, 96
- Spain
 - government spending on welfare 67
 - growth in 50
 - housing bubble in 49–50
 - manufacturing share of GDP 53
 - rising wages in 51
 - and securitization 50
- Special Drawing Right (SDR) 156
 - bond issuance 192
 - expansion of allocation 192, 194
 - use as global currency 187
 - see also* International Monetary Fund
- spillover reports 193
- Standard & Poor's, and US sovereign debt 161, 168
- Steinbrueck, Peer 6
- Stiglitz, Joseph 186
- Stock, J. A. 5
- structural economics, focus of 99–100
- structural reform
 - and comparative advantage 97
 - constraints on 68–9
 - and currency devaluation xx
 - and demand stimulation xxi, 65
 - and economic development xxiv–xxv
 - feasibility of 65
 - and devaluation 65
 - and global infrastructure initiative 78, 94

- structural reform (cont.)
 - and “new normal” trap 65
 - and stabilization packages xix–xx, xx–xxi
- structural transformation 107
 - Kuznets’s stylized facts 107–8
- subprime mortgage market in US
 - expansion and government-sponsored agencies 39–40
 - and financial crisis 42
 - and decoupling 6
 - financial sector lobbying 40
 - foreign investment in 41
 - and housing bubble 33
 - and real estate prices 41
 - and special interest lobbying 40–1
 - see also* “NINJA” loans
- sub-Saharan Africa
 - agricultural share of labor force 120–21
 - and China’s industrial upgrading 139–41
 - and deindustrialization in high-income countries 122
 - economic diversification in 121–2
 - electricity consumption in 75
 - GDP growth in 121
 - road density in 75
 - structural transformation in 120, 141
 - tax finance in 87
- subsidization, of China’s large firms 59
- substitution accounts 192
- Swiss National Bank, and strength of franc 172
- tail risk 37
- Tax Reform Act (1986) 34
- Taylor rule 176
 - and p-gold 201
- technological upgrading and innovation, and structural transformation 124
- trade balance, and savings and investments 19
- trade imbalance, between China and US 62
- trade surpluses, global increases in xviii
- Troubled Assets Relief Program 10
- unemployment
 - and structural reform 207
 - and welfare spending 67
- United Kingdom, use of gold standard 150, 151
- United States
 - and Bretton Woods system 154
 - privilege of dollar as reserve currency 154–5
 - capacity to meet debt obligations 177
 - and causes of global crisis xviii, 2, 7
 - conflict between domestic objectives and dollar reserve role 156, 168, 176
 - current account deficits 165
 - and dollar long-term interest rates 22
 - link with global savings 23
 - and reserve currency 63
 - and yuan appreciation 20
 - excess liquidity, and financial crisis 206
 - government response to bank collapses 10
 - and Great Depression 151
 - imports from China 21
 - issuance of paper currency 150
 - recession in 11
 - spread of 12
 - reserve currency status of xxvi–xxvii
 - trade deficit 7
 - and decline with East Asia 21
 - and trade with China’s competitors 20
 - and yuan appreciation 20
 - share of global economy 168
 - trade surpluses in xviii
 - unemployment in 67
 - see also* housing bubble; subprime mortgage market; US policy
- US Coinage Act (1873) 150
- US policy, and financial crisis 64
 - capital flows to developing countries 28–9
 - increased imports of consumer goods 28
 - inflation and tightened monetary policy 26
 - and global imbalances 33
 - effect of deregulation 33–7
 - the “Greenspan put” 37–9

Index

247

- low interest rate policy and deregulation 24
- impact on housing market 27–8
- war spending (public debt) 26, 32
- US Securities and Exchange Commission, and net capital rule 34
- Vietnam War, and US macroeconomic policy 154
- wages
 - in China 59
 - rises in noncore Eurozone countries 51
- war finance, and global imbalances 2, 7
- Washington consensus xiv, xxiii, 99
 - failures of xxvi, 129
- Watson, M. W. 5
- Waverman, L., telecommunications in OECD countries, 72
- welfare spending, and Eurozone crisis 43
- Wells, R., reasons for housing market crisis 9
- Williamson, John, fundamental equilibrium exchange rate 19
- World Bank 153
 - estimates of infrastructure needs of developing countries 95
 - infrastructure financing 88
 - Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency 92
 - “Private participation in infrastructure” database 91
- World Economic Forum 71
- Xafa, Miranda, warning of problems in global economy 7
- yuan, as reserve currency 169–70
- Zoellick, Robert 133