

CONTENTS

- List of Contributors* page ix
Preface xi
List of Abbreviations xiii
- 1 'The hypostasis of a prophecy': legal realism and legal history 1
 CHARLES DONAHUE, JR.
 - 2 Chancery, the justices and the making of new writs in thirteenth-century England 17
 PAUL BRAND
 - 3 Copulative complexities: the exception of adultery in medieval dower actions 34
 GWEN SEABOURNE
 - 4 Arbitration and the legal profession in late medieval England 56
 ANTHONY MUSSON
 - 5 Privileges and their application in the main English central courts in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries 77
 SUSANNE JENKS
 - 6 Trusts litigation in Chancery after the Statute of Uses: the first fifty years 103
 NEIL JONES
 - 7 The assessment of contractual damages at common law in the late sixteenth century 126
 DAVID IBBETSON

- 8 The case of Joan Peterson: witchcraft, family conflict, legal invention and constitutional theory 148
 CLIVE HOLMES
- 9 Criminal informations of the Attorneys-General in the King's Bench from Egerton to North 167
 HENRY MARES
- 10 Lawyers, merchants, and the law of contract in the long eighteenth century 186
 WARREN SWAIN
- 11 Creditors and the feme covert 217
 JAMES OLDHAM
- 12 Legal process as reported in correspondence 246
 JOHN BAKER
- 13 Legal development in Victorian criminal trials 263
 PHIL HANDLER
- 14 'Cutting the Gordian knot?' Arbitration and company
 insolvency in the 1870s 283
 MICHAEL LOBBAN
- 15 'Forty Years On': the British Legal History Conference, 1972–2011 314
 PATRICK POLDEN
- Index* 336