

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

INDEX

- 1787 Federal Convention, 30
 1984 Bail Reform Act, 103, 104, 110–111
- ACCA (Armed Career Criminal Act),
 185–187
- Acker, William M., 205–206
- acquittal gap in bench trials, 165–167
- adversarial process in bail determinations, 107, 112–113
- affective communities, 73–74
- alcohol, determining effect on guilty pleas, 141
- Alfieri, Anthony V., 156
- Alford pleas, 164–165
- Alleyne v. United States*, 47–48
- allocation before plea juries, 136, 149–158
- Almendarez-Torres v. United States*, 46, 185
- Alschuler, Albert, 71, 79
- Amar, Akhil, 35, 44–45
- American Revolution, jury trial right in era surrounding, 23–24, 45
- ancillary sentencing
- back-end sentencing, 191–192
 - community transition teams, 174
 - expressive, restorative retribution,
 172–177
 - faith-based programming, 175
 - fines, 203–205
 - need for community involvement,
 221–222
 - parole, 193–199
 - persistent violent felony offender statutes,
 182–184
 - post-release supervision, 199–203
 - pre-sentence reports, 178–182
 - probation, 187–190
 - restitution, 205–209
 - use of prior convictions, 184–187
- anti-Federalists concerns with Constitution,
 30–32, 35, 45
- appointed counsel at bail hearings, 107–108, 113–114
- Apprendi v. New Jersey*
- criminal fines, 203–205
 - jury trial right, 41, 219
 - parole, 192, 198
 - post-release supervision, 192
 - pretrial detention, 103, 114
 - use of prior convictions, 184, 185
- Armed Career Criminal Act (ACCA),
 185–187
- Article XI, 30
- atonement, 65–66
- attitudinal blinders, 164
- back-end sentencing, 9–10, 191–192
- fines, 203–205
 - parole, 193–199
 - post-release supervision, 199–203
 - restitution, 205–209
- bail bondsmen, 93–95
- bail hearings, 112–114, 119–121
- bail juries, 119–123, 220
- Bail Reform Act (1984), 103, 104, 110–111
- bail system, 92–96, 107
- Baltimore City Detention Center, 98–99
- Barefoot v. Estelle*, 104–105, 107
- Barkow, Rachel E., 81
- Barron, David, 80
- Batson v. Kentucky*, 131–132

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

234

Index

- Beccaria, Cesare, 25–26
- belief systems, deciding punishment
based on, 81
- Bell v. Wolfish*, 111
- bench trials
acquittal gap, 165–167
complex criminal cases, 169–171
democratic deliberation and improved
decision-making, 168–169
eliminating, 9, 170–171
empowerment of trial court, 162–164
history of, 159
issues caused by, 160–162
manipulation to avoid jury trial right, 167–168
petty offenses, aggregating multiple offenses into, 167
state, 166–167
as surreptitious plea deals, 164–165
- Berger v. United States*, 115
- Bibas, Stephanos, 128, 140,
146, 150
- Bill of Rights
American, 5, 30, 45
English, 15–16
- Blackstone, William, 26–28, 209
- Blakely v. Washington*, 91
criminal fines, 203–205
determination of restitution, 205
jury trial right, 42–45, 112, 219
parole, 192, 195–196, 198
post-release supervision, 192
pretrial detention, 103, 112, 114
use of prior convictions, 184
- blameworthiness, determining, 56–58,
59–60
- blindness, 164
- bounty hunting, 95–96
- Bowers, Josh, 71, 75, 82, 133
- Brady v. United States*, 138, 140
- Bronx, New York, 81–82
- Brown v. Plata*, 99
- Burke, Alafair, 82
- Butler, Paul, 213
- California
conditions of jails in, 99
pre-sentence reports, 179–180
probation statutes, 188–190
- Carroll, Jenny, 22, 210, 211, 212
- Central Detention Facility, Washington
D.C., 100
- certiorari, 203–205
- Chapman, Duane ‘Dog’, 96
- charitable groups, jurors participation in, 158
- Charter of Liberties and Privileges, New York, 20
- chemical impairment, determining effect on
guilty pleas, 141
- Chhablani, Sanjay K., 85
- citizen outrage
buffering role of juries, 4
due to lack of participation in trials, 2–4
- coercion in guilty pleas, determining,
137–142
- cognitive blinders, 164
- Coke, Edward, 24
- Colonial America
criminal fines, determined by juries, 49
jury trial right in, 17–23, 44
redemptive and restorative justice in,
62–64
- Commonwealth v. Durling*, 188
- communicative sentencing, 193–194
- communicative theories of punishment, 55
- communities of interest, 79–80
- community. See also juries; jury trial right
buffering role of juries, 4
communities of interest, 79–80
costs of localizing criminal justice, 81–82
in criminal justice context, 74–76 damages caused by incarceration, 66–67
deep account of, 73
definitions of, 73, 74
disapproval of offenders, 64
dualist account of, 73–74
engaging in criminal justice, 83–87
essential role of juries in criminal justice, 44–45
exile from justice system, 3–4 fostering participation of, 4–5 history of jury trial right, 14–15 including in ancillary sentencing, 173–175
integrating in bail hearings, 119–121 involvement in post-release supervision, 203
jury diversity, 77–79
jury trial as right of during Revolutionary era, 28–36
legitimizing nature of increased involvement, 80–81

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

Index

235

- local democracy, 70–72
- locality of trial jury right, 25, 28
- meanings of, 72–73
- moral blameworthiness, determining, 56–58, 59–60
- neighborhood juries, 82–83
- offsetting social unbalance created by offenders, 58
- online crimes, 76–77
- outrage and frustration due to lack of participation in trials, 2–3
- in parole process, 194, 198–199
- participation in pretrial proceedings, 115–117
- prejudice, local, 27, 28
- ranking punishments for offenders, 81
- recent lack of participation in criminal justice system, 5–6
- redemptive and restorative justice, effect in, 66
- rules for criminal liability and punishment based on views of, 83
- significance of term, 7–8
- vicinage, 30–31
- community policing model, 174
- community sanctions, 173
- community supervision, 201, 203
- community transition teams, 174
- compensation, restitution viewed as, 206–207
- complex criminal cases, bench trials for, 169–171
- Connecticut
 - elimination of private prosecutors, 216
 - probation violations in, 188
- Constitution. See also Sixth Amendment
 - anti-Federalists concerns with, 30–32, 35, 45
 - jury trial as right of community established in, 28
- Constitutions, State
 - jury trial right in, 29
 - Pennsylvania, 29
 - Vermont, 29
 - Virginia, 29
- contagious diseases in jails, 99, 100–101
- Continental Congress, 28
- convictions, possibility augmented by pretrial detention, 101
- Cooley, Thomas, 84–85
- costs of localizing criminal justice, 81–82
- Covey, Russell, 139
- criminal cases, bench trials for complex, 169–171
- criminal fines, 48–49, 203–205
- criminal justice system
 - challenges due to lack of participation of community, 5–6
 - jury trial right applied to aspects of, 219–222
 - legitimizing with community involvement, 80–81
 - trust in, 151
- criminal law, role in sustaining social norms, 59–60, 72
- criminal procedure and punishment, 8
- culpability, jury's role in measuring level of, 40–42
- Cunningham v. California*, 48
- cybercrime, 76–77
- dangerousness of offenders
 - community's right to decide, 115–117
 - detaining individuals based on future, 104–110
- deaths in jails, 101
- decision making
 - bench trials, 168–169
 - heterogeneous, 141–142
- deep account of community, 73–74
- defendants, value of plea-jury allocation for, 136, 154–156
- deliberative democracy, 156–158
- Democracy In America* (Tocqueville), 36–37
- democratic deliberation
 - bench trials, 168–169
 - plea juries, 156–158
- deontological desert, 58–59
- Descamps v. United States*, 185–187
- desert, concepts of
 - from democratic processes, 56
 - vengeful, deontological, and empirical, 58–60
- DeWolfe v. Richmond*, 107–108
- disclosure of evidence at pretrial detention stage, 113, 114
- discretionary and rehabilitative model of sentencing, 54–55
- discretionary parole release. See parole
- discrimination in jury selection, 131–132
- diseases in jails, 99, 100–101

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

236

Index

- District Attorney, goals of, 146
- distrust
 - of criminal justice system, 151
 - of government, 80
- diversity, jury, 77–79, 142, 157
- Dolinko, David, 62
- drug dealers, punishment for, 81–82
- drugs, determining effect on guilty plea decisions, 141
- dualist account of community, 73–74
- Dubber, Markus Dirk, 137, 139, 140, 143
- educating jurors about service, 152
- egalitarian theory of ethical worth, 60–61, 68
- eighteenth-century criminal trials, 16–17
- electronic monitoring of offenders, 220
- Eligon, John, 94, 95
- emotion, deciding punishment based on, 82
- empirical desert, 59–60
- English Bill of Rights, 15–16
- English Murder Act of 1752, 17
- English roots of jury trial right, 15–17
- An Essay on Crimes and Punishments* (Beccaria), 25–26
- evidence
 - disclosure at pretrial detention stage, 112–113, 114
 - fact-finding by jury, 48
 - judges versus juries in evaluation of, 170
- expressive, restorative retribution, 7, 9, 10
 - ancillary sentencing, 172–177
 - Beccaria's understanding of punishment, 25–26
 - concepts of desert, 58–60
 - determination of punishment by juries, 68–69
 - expressive theory of retribution, 60–61
 - general discussion, 53–54
 - plea juries, 126–128
 - punishment philosophy in historical perspective, 54–55
 - redemptive justice, 65–68
 - restorative justice, 61–64
 - retributive theory, 55–58
- expressive philosophy, 64, 67
- expressive theory of retribution, 60–61
- fact-finding by jury, 48
- Fagan, Jeffrey, 118
- “fair-cross section” requirement, 85, 157
- faith-based programming, 175
- Federal Convention (1787), 30
- Federal Sentencing Guidelines, 202
- Ferguson, Andrew G., 86
- finest, 48–49, 203–205
- Fischer, George, 129
- Florida, probation violations in, 188
- Forde-Mazrui, Kim, 79
- Forsey v. Cunningham*, 20, 21
- Fourth Amendment, 195
- Frampton, T. Ward, 167
- Freeland, Stephen N., 95, 96
- Friedman, Lawrence M., 63
- front-end sentencing
 - persistent violent felony offender statutes, 182–184
 - pre-sentence reports, 178–182
 - probation, 187–190
 - use of prior convictions, 184–187
- Frug, Jerry, 73, 74, 76
- future dangerousness
 - community's right to decide, 115–117
 - detaining individuals based on, 104–110
- Gagnon v. Scarpelli*, 188
- Gannett Co. v. DePasquale*, 161
- Garvey, Stephen, 65–66
- Gerry, Elbridge, 31
- Goldstein, Abraham S., 115, 137
- grand juries
 - in Colonial America, 18
 - plea jury similarities to, 135
- Green, Bruce, 82
- Greenberg, Douglas, 17, 62, 63
- Gregg v. United States*, 179
- guilty pleas. See also plea juries
 - avoiding pretrial detention with, 93
 - Blackstone's views on, 27–28
 - criminal justice process hidden from community by, 145–146
 - determining voluntariness of, 137–142
 - discrepancy between crime charged and crime committed, 143–145, 150–151
 - effect of racism on punishment, 146–147
 - increase in since 20th century, 37
 - jury trial right in, 9
 - lack of public participation, 5
 - need for community involvement, 221
 - 19th century view of, 37
 - by pretrial detainees, 100–101

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

Index

237

- problems resulting from, 128–132
- stages of, 133–134
- Guthrie, Chris, 163
- Hale, Matthew, 25
- Hampton, Jean, 60–61
- Harris, Louis, 169
- Harris v. United States*, 47
- Hart, H.L.A., 56
- hate crime sanctions, in California, 189
- Herman, G. Nicholas, 134
- heterogeneous decision making, 141–142
- hidden sentencing, 10
- historical perspective on jury trial right
 - in Colonial America, 17–23
 - English roots of, 15–17
 - erosion and decline, 36–38
 - general discussion, 13–14
 - legal and political theory, 24–28
 - in new union of states, 28–36
 - during Revolutionary era, 23–24
 - role of community, 14–15
- History of the Common Law* (Hale), 25
- Holmes, Abraham, 31–32
- Huighens, Kyron, 162–163
- human worth, 60–61, 68
- illegal dismissal of jurors, 131–132
- incarceration. See also ancillary sentencing; pretrial detention
 - damages caused in community by, 66–67
 - discretionary parole release, 193–199
 - increase in prison population, 176–177, 203
 - post-release supervision, 173–174, 191–192, 199–203
 - violent inmates, 118
- individual rights, trial right placed in list of, 34–35
- informational blinders, 163
- Internet crimes, 76–77
- jails
 - harm to pretrial detainees in, 100–102
 - holding pretrial detainees, conditions of, 98–100
 - violent inmates, 118
- Jones v. United States*, 40–41, 180
- judges
 - acquittal gap in bench trials, 165–167
 - blocks for processing information, 163–164
 - complex criminal cases, 169–171
 - decision making abilities, 168–169
 - empowerment by bench trials, 162–164
 - offender reaction to sentencing by, 58
 - review of plea bargains, 128, 138–139, 140
- Judiciary Act of 1691, 20
- juries. See also plea juries
 - bail, 119–123, 220
 - diversity, 77–79
 - educating jurors about service, 85–86
 - versus judges in evaluation of evidence, 170
 - local, 79–80
 - neighborhood, 82–83
 - offender reaction to sentencing by, 58
 - offsetting social unbalance created by offenders, 58
 - peremptory challenges, 131–132
 - promoting democracy, 157–158
 - weighing PSR facts, 182
- jurisprudence of punishment
 - change in, 54
 - in historical perspective, 54–55
- Jury and Democracy Project, 157
- jury fees, 168
- jury nullification, 10, 81–82
 - active shaping of law, 210–211
 - in Colonial America, 22
 - community involvement, 211–214
 - history of, 211
 - victim's rights movement, 210, 214–218
- jury trial right
 - applied to aspects of criminal justice systems, 219–222
 - Blakely v. Washington*, 42–45
 - in Colonial America, 17–23
 - English roots of, 15–17
 - erosion and decline, 36–38
 - general discussion, 13–14
 - legal and political theory, 24–28
 - manipulation in bench trials to avoid, 167–168
 - moral blameworthiness, determining, 56–58
 - in new union of states, 28–36
 - plea juries, 130–131
 - pretrial detention proceedings, 112–114
 - progressive elimination of, 3–4
 - during Revolutionary era, 23–24
 - role of community, 14–15

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

238

Index

- Kalven, Harry, 168
- Kant, Immanuel, 56
- Katyal, Neal K., 77, 78
- Kearney, Laila, 99
- Kelly v. Robinson*, 207
- King, Nancy, 129, 130
- Kipnis, Kenneth, 120, 147
- Kitai-Sangero, Rinat, 113
- Klein, Susan R., 152
- Kobil, Daniel T., 57
- Kurzban, Robert, 81
- Kutateladze, Besiki, 146–147

- Langbein, John, 16, 128, 129, 160
- Lanni, Adriaan, 119
- law, role in sustaining social norms, 59–60
- legal representation at bail hearings, 107–108, 113–114
- legal theory behind jury trial right, 24–28
- legitimizing criminal justice system with community involvement, 80–81
- Levine v. United States*, 161
- Lewis v. United States*, 167
- Liu, Jessie K., 217
- local democracy, 70–72
- localism, 73
 - costs of, 81–82
 - engaging community, 83–87
 - legitimizing nature of, 80–81
 - neighborhood juries, 82–83
- locality of trial jury right, 25, 26–28, 30–31
- Logan, Wayne A., 73
- Los Angeles County Men's Central Jail, 99

- Madison, James, 32–33
- Madoff, Bernard, 2, 116
- mandatory minimum sentences, 46–48
- Mandatory Restitution Act, 207–208
- Mandatory Victims Restitution Act (MVRA), 205–206
- Marder, Nancy, 213
- Marshall, Thurgood, 104–105
- Massachusetts
 - jury trial right in Bay colony, 19
 - probation violations in, 188
- Massachusetts Convention, 31–32
- McManus, Edgar J., 19, 62, 63
- Meares, Tracey L., 71, 73, 118, 137, 138
- mentally handicapped prisoners, 98

- Miller, Marc, 147
- mind-altering substances, determining effect on guilty plea decisions, 141
- minimum sentences, mandatory, 46–48
- Mnookin, Jennifer L., 163
- Moore, Michael, 56
- moral blameworthiness, determining, 56–58, 59–60
- moral culpability, 17
- Morris, Herbert, 61
- Morris, Norval, 106
- Morrissey v. Brewer*, 188, 194–195, 197–198
- municipal lockups, 98–100
- Murphy, Jeffrie, 57
- MVRA (Mandatory Victims Restitution Act), 205–206

- neighborhood initiatives, 72
- neighborhood juries, 82–83
- Nelson, William E., 18, 20, 22, 23, 62, 63, 67
- New England colonies
 - jury trial right in, 19–20
 - redemptive and restorative justice in, 62–64
- new union of states, jury trial right in, 28–36
- New York
 - jury trial right in colonial, 20–22
 - persistent violent felony offender statutes, 183
 - post-release supervision, 191
 - punishment for drug dealers in Bronx, 81–82
 - Ratification Convention, 31
 - Rikers Island, 98–99
 - “three strikes” laws, 182–184
 - victim's rights, 214
 - Williams v. New York*, 54–55
- 1984 Bail Reform Act, 103, 104, 110–111
- non-residential communities, 75–76
- non-unanimous jury decisions, 135
- non-violent drug offender statute, California, 189–190
- North Carolina v. Alford*, 164
- North Dakota, probation violations in, 188

- objective indicia of confinement, 98–99
- offender prognosis, 178–179
- offenders. See also pretrial detention
 - atonement, 65–66
 - bail hearings, 112–114
 - community disapproval of, 64
 - determining future dangerousness of, 104–110

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

Index

239

- electronic monitoring of, 220
- feelings of responsibility increased when punished by jury, 58
- offsetting social unbalance created by, 58
- rearrests before trials, 108–110
- redemptive and restorative justice in
 - Colonial America, 62–64
 - reintegration, 64–68
 - superiority over law, 58, 61
 - value of plea-jury allocation for, 154–156
- O'Hear, Michael M., 129
- Oldenquist, Andrew, 62
- online crimes, 76–77
- outsiders, plea juries as, 149–150
- parole, 173–174, 176–177, 192, 193–199
- parole boards, 194, 195–196, 199
- parole field services officers, 196–199
- Paroline v. United States*, 207
- passion, deciding punishment based on, 82
- Patton v. United States*, 160
- Pennsylvania
 - Constitution, 29
 - punishment in colony, 63–64
- people's right, jury trial right as, 14–15
- per patriam*, 26–28
- peremptory challenges, 131–132
- persistent violent felony offender statutes, 173, 182–184
- petit juries, 157–158
 - in Colonial America, 18
 - plea jury similarities to, 135
- petty offenses, aggregating multiple into one trial, 167
- plea juries, 131–132
 - aspects of proposed pleas rejected by, 136
 - benefits of, 137–145
 - decisions overturned by court, 135, 136
 - defendant's allocution addressed to, 136
 - deliberative democracy, 156–158
 - determining voluntariness of guilty pleas, 137–142
 - effect on community, 147–149
 - expression of social norms, 153–154
 - expressive, restorative retribution, 126–128
 - general discussion, 124–126
 - need for, 221
 - peremptory challenges, 131–132
 - power of allocation, 149–158
 - problems resulting from guilty pleas, 128–132
 - process, 134–137
 - resolving discrepancy between crime charged and crime committed, 143–145, 150–151
 - role as outsider, 149–150
 - serving during guilty pleas and sentencing hearings, 136
 - spanning gap between jury trials and guilty pleas, 152–153
 - stages of guilty pleas, 133–134
 - theoretical and practical interests served by, 145–149
 - training jurors, 152
 - value of allocation for defendants, 154–156
- Pole, J. R., 18, 19, 21, 23, 26, 36
- political theory behind jury trial right, 24–28
- Pope, Jacqueline, 96
- post-conviction sentences. See ancillary sentencing
- post-release supervision, 173–174, 191–192, 199–203
- Powers*, 131–132
- pre-conviction sentences. See ancillary sentencing
- prejudice, local, 27, 28
- pre-sentence proceedings, jury trial right in, 9
- pre-sentence reports (PSRs), 173, 178–182
- pretrial detention, 8
 - applying Apprendi-Blakely principles to, 114
 - bail hearings, 112–114
 - bail juries, 119–123
 - bail system, 92–96
 - community deciding danger to itself, 114
 - community involvement in, 220
 - community jury trial right, 112–114
 - conditions in detention centers, 98–100
 - consequences of, 118–119
 - determining future dangerousness of offenders, 104–110
 - as form of punishment, 8, 92–100
 - general discussion, 91–92
 - harm to detainees, 100–102
 - increasing rates of, 97–98
 - mistaken reliance on, 104–106
 - potential problems with reform, 121–123
 - reform and revision, 117–121
 - United States v. Salerno*, 110–112
 - violation of spirit of Sixth Amendment, 102–104

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

240

Index

- pretrial detention centers, conditions of, 98–100
- prior convictions
 - ancillary sentencing, 184–187
 - exception for sentencing procedures, 46
 - in pre-sentence reports, 181
- prisons, increase in population of, 176–177, 203. See also incarceration
- private prosecutors, elimination of, 216
- probation, 176–177, 187–190
- prosecutors, 113
 - disclosure of evidence at pretrial detention stage, 113, 114
 - effect of personal agendas on bail proceedings, 115
 - elimination of private, 216
 - goals of, 146
 - potential for abuse in plea bargaining process, 137–138, 146
- PSRs (pre-sentence reports), 173, 178–182
- psychiatrists, predictions of violence by, 104–106, 117
- public sanction in New England colonies, 19–20
- publicized trials, buffering role of juries in, 4
- punishment, 8. See also expressive, restorative retribution (ERR); pretrial detention
 - criminal fines, 48–49
 - discretionary and rehabilitative model of sentencing, 54–55
 - post-release supervision, 202–203
 - pretrial detention as form of, 8, 92–100
 - prior conviction exception, 46
 - ranking for offenders, 81
 - redemptive and restorative justice in Colonial America, 62–64
 - state-required mandatory minimums, 46–48
 - Supreme Court's jurisprudence of, change in, 54
- Quaker colony, punishment in, 63–64. See also Pennsylvania
- Rachlinski, Jeffrey J., 163
- racism, 81, 146–147
- Rangel-Reyes v. United States*, 184–185
- ranking punishments for offenders, 81
- Rapaport, Elizabeth, 64, 67
- Ratification Convention, New York, 31
- rearrests of offenders before trials, 108–110
- reasonable doubt, 40, 41, 42–43
- redemptive justice, 65–68
- rehabilitative model of sentencing, 54–55
- reintegration, 64–68
- Reitz, Kevin, 175
- religion
 - faith-based programming, 175
 - influence in New England colonies, 19–20
- residential communities, 75–76
- Resnik, Judith, 120–121
- restitution, 173–174, 205–209
- restorative justice, 61–64, 128, 155–156
- retributive justice, 128
- Retributive theory, 55–58
 - applied to parole, 193–194
 - conceptions of desert, 58–60
 - expressive theory of retribution, 60–61
- revocation
 - due to restitution debt, 206–207
 - of parole, 197–198
 - of post-release supervision, 202–203
- Revolutionary War era, jury trial right in, 23–24, 45
- Rikers Island, New York, 98–99
- Robinson, Paul, 58, 59, 71, 72, 74, 75, 81, 82, 83, 148, 151, 170
- Samson v. California*, 195
- Scalia, Antonin, 42, 206
- Schall v. Martin*, 111
- Schrager, Richard C., 73
- Schulhofer, Stephen, 71, 79, 146
- secret trials, elimination of, 28
- self-serving bias, 164
- sentence enhancement, 41, 42–45
- sentences. See also ancillary sentencing
 - mandatory minimum, 46–48
 - persistent violent felony offender statutes, 182–184
- Sentencing Reform Act, 193
- 1787 Federal Convention, 30
- shadow criminal law, 73
- Shah, Saleem A., 117
- Shepard v. United States*, 45
- sinners, view of offenders as, 62–63
- Sixth Amendment
 - Armed Career Criminal Act, 185–187
 - in Colonial America, 17–23
 - criminal restitution, 205–206, 208–209
 - English roots of, 15–17
 - erosion and decline, 36–38

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04354-1 - Defending the Jury: Crime, Community, And The Constitution

Laura I Appleman

Index

More information

Index

241

- general discussion, 13–14
- historical perspective, 6–7
- legal and political theory, 24–28
- in new union of states, 28–36
- parole decisions violation of, 195–196, 198
- phrasing of, 33–36
- post-release supervision, 200–201
- pre-sentence reports, 180–181
- pretrial detention violation of spirit behind, 102–104
- reaffirmation of, 4–5
- during Revolutionary era, 23–24
- role of community, 14–15
- use of prior convictions, 184–187
- Smith, Melancton, 32
- Smith, Stephen, 84
- social values, maintained by juries, 22, 44–45, 148–149, 153–154
- Southern Union v. United States*, 48–49, 102, 203–205
- Spellman, Barbara A., 170
- state bench trials, 166–167
- State v. Spratling*, 188
- state-required mandatory minimums, 46–48
- statutory maximum, 43
- Story, Joseph, 159
- Strauss-Kahn, Dominique, 2–3
- Stuntz, Bill, 71, 117–118, 128–129, 142
- Sunstein, Cass, 141–142
- superbug, MRSA, 100–101
- superiority of offenders over law, 58, 61
- supervised release, 173–174, 191–192, 199–203
- Supreme Court
 - determination of violations of
 - probation, 188
 - guilty pleas, 142
 - jurisprudence of punishment, change in, 54
 - jury trials exclusive method of determining guilt, 159–160, 161
 - prior conviction exception, 46
 - reaffirmation of Sixth Amendment, 4–5, 7
 - reasons behind renewed focus on jury trial right, 39–40
 - state-required mandatory minimums, 46–48
 - victim impact statements, 216
- Talvi, Silja J.A., 100–101
- Taylor v. Taintor*, 95
- technological evidence, jury understanding of, 170
- Tennessee Supreme Court, 37
- Tent City Jail, Phoenix, Arizona, 99–100
- Tetlow, Tania, 213
- Thomas, Clarence, 46, 184–187
- “three strikes” laws, 182–184
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 36–37
- transition teams for supervised releasees, 174–175
- transparency in criminal justice process, role of plea jury in, 149–150
- Travis, Jeremy, 174
- trust in criminal justice system, 151
- Tymas, Whitney, 146–147
- United States v. Salerno*, 103, 110–112
- Valley Fever, 99
- vengeful desert, 58–59
- Vera Institute, 146–147
- Vermont Constitution, 29
- vicinage, 30–31
- victim impact statements, 215–216
- victimhood, 217
- victim’s rights movement, 5, 10, 214–218
- violence in jails, 101
- violent crimes, 118
 - dangerousness of offenders, 104–110
 - rearrests of offenders before trials, 109–110
- Virginia Constitution, 29
- voluntariness of guilty pleas, determining, 137–142
- von Hirsch, Andrew, 107
- voting, effect of jury service on, 158
- Washburn, Kevin, 18, 78, 79, 80, 81, 83
- Williams v. New York*, 54–55
- Wiseman, Samuel, 93
- Wistrich, Andrew J., 163
- Wright, Ronald F., 127, 140, 147
- Youngberg v. Romeo*, 98
- Zenger trial, 20–21
- Zimmerman, George, 2