

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

Index

- academic research
 - future areas, 183
 - ownership and strategy separation, 2–3
- Accor, 31
- accountability, 105–106, 148
- acquisition funding, 108
- activist shareholders
 - changing to traders, 35–36
 - corporate strategy interests, 110–111, 162–163
 - definition, 24
 - diversification, 109–110
 - persuading other shareholders to share interests, 39–40
 - private companies, 83
 - public listed companies, 31–34
 - reviewing strategy, 151
 - stalemate breakup, 141
- adopter managers
 - business strategy changes, 132
 - case study, 45–46
 - definition, 45
 - media attention, 45
 - risk profile changes, 56
 - strategy formulation, 50, 94, 111
 - structural changes, 89
- advisors, 143, 181–182
- agency theory, 3, 138, 168, 171
- Amtel, 75–76
- Anda-Bührle family, 34
- Apple Inc., 45, 147
- Atticus Capital, 1
- audit functions, 130
- balance of power changes
 - board of directors, 161–162
 - caused by executive succession, 57
 - corporate strategy changes, 118
 - organizational structure changes, 89–90
 - private companies, 37–39
 - public listed companies, 39–40
 - shareholders, 1, 3–4, 16–17, 36–40
 - stalemate, 137–139
 - strategy formulation, 153
 - structural change effects, 62–63
- banking
 - conflicting interests of shareholders, 40
 - family ownership changes, 25, 39
 - management changes causing ownership changes, 52
 - microfinance companies, 72
 - risk profile changes, 55–56, 88–89
 - subprime mortgage crisis, 65–68, 119, 121, 122–123, 149–150, 182
- bankruptcy after IPO, 74–76
- Bear Stearns, 66, 149–150
- Bearing Point, 74–75

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

Index • 207

- Beaudoin family, 79, 115–116
- Berkshire Hathaway, 77
- Berle, A. A., 3, 40, 176
- board of directors
 - see also* corporate governance
 - advisor usage, 181–182
 - audit functions, 130
 - commitment, 164–166
 - composition, 161–163
 - dealing with conflict, 6–7, 160, 164, 165–166
 - fiduciary duty, 159, 161, 163
 - independence, 159–162, 164–165, 179, 180
 - perception, 157–158
 - purpose, 158–159, 166–167
 - selection of members, 109
 - stakeholder interaction, 157
- Boliden, 15
- Bombardier Inc., 79, 113, 115–116
- Brazil, IPOs (initial public offerings), 68
- Brin, Sergey, 78
- Brown, Robert, 115–116
- Buffett, Warren, 77, 108
- business life cycle, 91–96, 174
- business strategy
 - causing management changes, 131–132
 - causing ownership changes, 120, 132
 - change types, 121–123, 125–126
 - definition, 101
 - feasibility, 125–127
 - implementation issues, 123–129
 - management cognition, 127–128
 - risk profile changes, 119–120, 132–133, 166
 - stakeholders, 101, 103
- Cadbury Report, 157
- Cadbury Schweppes, 119
- capital markets growth, 3
- capital supply
 - external sources, 66
 - IPO considerations, 69, 70
 - shareholders, 13–14
- career payoffs, 50
- Carlson Companies Inc., 54
- centralization, 88, 89, 91, 96
- CEO power, 57
- change events, 5
- change management, 140
- characteristic shareholders, 65, 69, 77, 82, 86
- China, IPOs (initial public offerings), 68
- CIT Group, 55–56
- Citibank, 46
- coalitions, 37, 52–53, 57, 171–172, 174
- competence, 58
- competitive positioning, 122
- confidence, 14, 58
- conservatism, 172–173
- consolidation, 94, 95, 110–111
- continuity, 166–167
- continuity management style, 44
- control, 106
- cooperation, 90
- cooperatives, 77
- corporate governance
 - see also* board of directors
 - changes caused by executive succession, 56
 - changes caused by management changes, 53–54
 - changes due to risk profile changes, 55–56
 - disagreements, 171
 - as driver of change, 6
 - future research areas, 183
 - globalization, 112–118
 - governance rigidity of success, 146–147
 - individual dominance, 137
 - leadership eras, 175
 - MBA course requirements, 180–181

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

208 • Index

- corporate governance (cont.)
 - narrow view, 55
 - organizational structure changes, 88–91
 - rationality, 176–179
 - requirements when growth is slowing, 106–107
 - risk profile changes, 55–56
 - strategy changes, 105–109, 121, 132–133
- corporate strategy
 - balance of power reviews, 118
 - change, 103–118
 - decision-makers, 111–112
 - definition, 101
 - stakeholders, 101, 103, 110–111
- creditors' influence, 104
- 'cui bono', 154, 168–169
- custodian managers, 45, 46–47, 50–51, 89

- DaimlerChrysler, 45–46
- D'Aveni, R., 125–126
- decentralization, 88, 89–90, 91, 94
- decision-making
 - see also* strategy formulation
 - argument for privatization, 81–82
 - conflicting interests, 2, 160
 - corporate strategy changes, 111–112
 - feasibility of strategies, 125–127
 - individual dominance, 136–137, 148
 - individual responsibility
 - increases, 92–93
 - information supply, 90–91, 112–113, 124, 125, 127
 - power concentration, 145
 - rationality, 176–179
 - stages, 124–125
 - stalemate, 137–139, 145, 150–151
- Dentsu, 36
- Deutsche Börse, 1–2
- Dimon, Jamie, 147

- directors, see board of directors
- diversification
 - board member selection, 109
 - case study, 15–16
 - causing change in share ownership, 18, 104
 - corporate strategy change, 103–105
 - globalization, 112–118
 - poor strategy, 174
 - shareholders' interests, 110
 - structural problems, 105–106
 - trends, 17
- divestments, 16
- domain initiative, 125–126
- dual share structure, 77

- economic interests, 176–177
- economies of scope, 104
- Elop, Stephen, 131
- emerging markets, 105, 107
- Enron, 85
- entrepreneur shareholders
 - changing to activists, 37–38
 - changing to sleepers, 35–36
 - definition, 24
 - diversification, 109, 110
 - public listed companies, 34–35
 - reviewing strategy, 151
- executive succession
 - balance of power considerations, 57
 - candidate moving to different ownership situation, 49
 - candidate's time horizon, 50
 - candidate's values, 51
 - family firms, 54
 - impact on ownership, 51
 - insiders versus outsiders, 43
 - risk assessment, 56
 - selection process changes, 54–55
- external recruitment of new executive, 43
- external values

Index • 209

- effect on strategy, 68
- management, 44
- shareholders, 22, 68, 86
- Facebook Inc., 78
- failure, 135–139
 - coming after success, 150–151
- family firms
 - see also* private companies
 - alliances, 145, 175–176
 - buy-out options, 38
 - founder power concentration, 143, 149
 - founder transitioning to new generation, 38
 - influence after IPO, 78–79
 - investing in other family firms, 38
 - joint ventures, 145
 - long-term majority shareholder changes, 61–62
 - management changes causing ownership changes, 51, 52
 - options when in decline, 144, 145
 - outsiders, 144–145
 - ownership changes, 25
 - ownership stalemate, 138
 - shareholder differences, 26
 - succession conflicts, 54, 149
 - trusted advisors, 143
- feasibility of business strategy, 125–127
- federal government intervention, 56
- Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae), 48
- Fiat, 147
- financial markets, 67
- financial services sector, 85
- founder
 - attribution of success, 147–148
 - power concentration, 136, 143, 149
 - transitioning to new generation, 38
- France
 - board of directors' purpose, 158
- PSA (Peugeot/Citroen), 169, 170–171, 175–176
- Renault, 48, 113, 114–115, 142, 169–170, 171
- Soufflet SA, 172–173
- Frederiksen, John, 15, 17
- Frenzel, Michael, 16, 17, 18, 174
- Fresenius, 113, 115
- General Electric, 45, 46
- General Motors (GM), 171, 175–176
- generational changes
 - causing change in coalitions, 174
 - continuity of strategy, 42–43
 - founder transitioning to new generation, 38
 - partnerships, 25
 - strategy changes, 135
- Germany
 - board of directors' purpose, 158
 - privatization of state-owned firms, 14
- Ghosn, Carlos, 48, 114–115, 147
- Glencore, 72–73
- globalization, 112–118
- Goldman Sachs, 66, 89
- Google Inc., 77–78
- governance rigidity of success, 146–147
- government shareholders, 114–115, 139, 171
- growth
 - see also* diversification
 - effect on shareholders, 93
 - IPOs' effect, 69, 71
 - market influence, 29–30, 93
 - slowing, 106–107
 - structural problems, 105–107
- Hambrick, D. C., 125–126
- hedge funds, 67–68
- Hermes UK Focus Funds, 16, 141–142
- Hilti, 82, 109, 164–165
- Hutchings, Greg, 141, 142

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

210 • Index

- IBM, 150
- Immelt, Jeffrey, 46
- index holdings, 30
- India, 68, 72
- individual dominance
 - corporate governance, 137
 - decision-making, 136–137, 148
 - strategy formulation, 152
 - success, 147–149
- inertia, 146
- Infineon, 31
- information supply to decision-makers, 90–91, 112–113, 124, 125, 127
- insiders versus outsiders in executive changes, 43
- institutional investors, 20
- internal recruitment of new executive, 43
- internal values
 - management, 44, 50
 - shareholders, 22, 35
- internet bubble, 67
- IPOs (initial public offerings)
 - advice industry, 68–69
 - conflicting interests, 69
 - increase in risk profile, 66, 67
 - minimizing changes in strategy, 77–79
 - monitoring shareholder changes, 166
 - multiple shareholders, 77
 - reasons for going public, 70–71, 85
 - strategy change reasons, 76–77
 - strategy changes afterwards, 74–76
 - strategy changes beforehand, 72–73
 - strategy changes followed by other companies in same sector, 71
 - volume of offerings globally, 68
- Japan
 - Dentsu, 36
 - Nissan, 114–115, 139, 140, 142, 170
 - Nomura Holdings, 129–131
 - Toyota, 150–151
 - Japan Air Lines (JAL), 139
 - Jobs, Steve, 45, 147
 - JP MorganChase, 147
 - Keynes, John Maynard, 13–14
 - KPMG Consulting, 74–75
 - Krick, Dr. Gerd, 115
 - Lazard Ltd., 25, 26
 - leadership eras, 175
 - leadership requirements, 43–44
 - legal structure changes
 - see also* IPOs (initial public offerings)
 - privatization
 - shareholder influence, 63, 65
 - legal structures
 - private companies, 65
 - public listed companies, 65
 - Lehman Brothers, 66, 129, 149–150
 - liquidity, 70–71, 109–111
 - London Stock Exchange (LSE), 1
 - management
 - agency theory, 3
 - as agents of change, 140
 - attracting particular types of shareholders, 40–41
 - classification, 44–45
 - coalitions with shareholders, 37, 52–53, 57, 96, 171–172
 - cognition, 127–128
 - competence, 104
 - diversity of interest, 5, 127–128, 129, 176–177
 - effect of organizational structure changes, 62
 - fads, 120
 - feasibility of business strategies, 126–127
 - information supply to decision-makers, 124

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

Index • 211

- interests, 11, 18
- invitation to new owners, 34, 35
- IPO interests, 69
- making shareholder changes, 142–143
- nonshareholder, 3, 4, 142–143, 144
- organizational structure changes, 89–90, 91, 94–96
- performance rewards, 49–50, 89, 127–128, 166
- shareholder difference of interest, 81
- as shareholders, 40, 49–50, 67
- skills required, 47–48
- socio-structural difference, 127–128, 129
- stalemate, 138
- stock market language issues, 128–129
- strategy formulation affected by traders, 30–31
- substitutability, 91, 94–96, 97, 98
- team differences, 47, 89
- values, 44, 47, 50, 94–96
- management changes
 - business strategy effects, 131–132
 - cause of strategy change, 48–49
 - causing balance of power changes, 57
 - causing governance changes, 53–54
 - causing ownership changes, 51–52
 - causing risk profile changes, 55–56
 - continuity or rupture, 42, 43–44, 50–51
 - due to failure, 135
 - generational, 42–43
 - insiders versus outsiders in executive changes, 43
 - past experience of executive as a guide to future behaviour, 48–49, 51
 - sequence of executive types, 46–47
- Marchionne, Sergio, 147
- market influence, 70–71, 76, 78–79, 128–129
- Mars Inc., 108
- maximum returns theory, 21
- Means, G. C., 3, 40, 176
- media attention, 45
- Merrill Lynch, 66
- Messier, Jean-Marie, 45–46
- methods
 - changes to, 58
 - shareholders, 23
- M-Form, 91, 92, 94
- Michelin, 78
- microfinance companies, 72
- Moeller, Erwin, 18
- Monks, Robert, 157
- Mordashov, Alexej, 15, 17
- Morgan Stanley, 66
- Morocco, 15, 17, 34, 35
- myopia, 146, 148
- National Medical Care (NMC), 115
- natural convergence thesis, 177, 178
- Nestlé, 30, 94–95
- neutrality of board of directors, 159–160
- neutrality thesis, 177, 178
- New York Stock Exchange, 67
- Nissan, 114–115, 139, 140, 142, 170
- Nokia, 131–132, 150
- Nomura Holdings, 129–131
- Oerlikon OC, 34, 35
- Olivant Advisors, 34
- organizational structure changes
 - aims, 91
 - balance of power changes, 87–88, 89–90
 - corporate governance, 88–91
 - costs, 96
 - effect on replacing the executive, 62

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

212 • Index

- organizational structure changes (cont.)
 - effect on strategy, 87, 88–89, 94–96, 97
 - individual responsibility
 - increases, 92–96
 - information supply to decision-makers, 90
 - shared responsibility
 - increases, 94–96
- Ospel, Marcel, 52
- outsiders
 - compared to insiders in executive changes, 43
 - power concentration breakup, 144–145, 148–149
 - strategy change requirements, 151
- overconfidence, 146, 148
- ownership categories, 23–24
- ownership changes
 - cause of strategy change, 15, 18–19, 25, 36, 41
 - caused by strategy changes, 109–111, 132
 - due to failure, 135
 - importance of impact, 13
 - by management invitation, 34, 35
 - MBA course requirements, 180–181
 - new shareholder entry, 24–25
 - outsider entry, 28
 - private companies, 28–29
 - public listed companies, 27–28, 29–31, 33
 - stalemate, 138–139
- Page, Larry, 78
- partnerships
 - IPOs and increase in risk, 66, 67
 - IPOs and shareholder influence, 77
 - ownership stalemate, 138
- Peek, Jeffrey, 55
- pension funds, public, 22
- ‘people’s share’, 15
- Philips, 138
- Pictet, 25, 26, 39
- ‘plunging’, 89
- political conflict thesis, 177–178
- politics in strategy decisions
 - advisors, 181–182
 - compared to agency theory, 7
 - diversity of interest, 116–118, 173–174
 - effect on rationality, 176
 - future research areas, 183
 - MBA course requirements, 180–181
 - power concentration, 155
 - structural effects, 167, 168
 - theses, 177–179
- power concentration, 136–137, 145, 171–172, 174, 177–178
 - reducing, 139–144
- Preussag, see TUI AG
- pricing argument for privatization, 81
- principals (agency theory), 3
- private companies
 - see also* family firms
 - balance of power changes, 37–39, 57
 - changing to public limited companies, see IPOs
 - consolidation, 95–96
 - corporate strategy changes, 111
 - exit options, 39
 - family ownership changes, 25
 - legal structures, 65
 - new shareholder entry, 28–29
 - number greater than publicly listed, 65
 - power concentration, 4
 - power concentration breakup, 143–144
 - risk profiles, 67–68
 - selection of shareholders, 27, 29
 - shared ownership, 82–83
 - shareholders’ conflicts, 26–27
 - stalemate breakup, 143–144
 - strategy changes due to ownership changes, 28–29

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

Index • 213

- private equity, 82–83
- privatization
 - buyer types, 82–83
 - perception of reasons, 80
 - of state owner firms in Germany, 14
 - strategic reasons for, 80–82, 84–85
 - strategy changes, 83–84
- PSA (Peugeot/Citroen), 169, 170–172, 175–176
- public listed companies
 - as activist targets, 31, 32
 - attracting traders, 123–124
 - balance of power changes, 39–40, 139–143
 - consolidation, 95
 - legal structures, 65
 - management as shareholders, 40
 - management changes causing
 - ownership changes, 52
 - ownership changes, 27–28, 29–31, 33
 - power concentration, 136–137
 - prevention of activist involvement, 32–33
 - privatization, 80–86
 - reporting requirements, 84, 85
 - risk profiles, 67–68
 - shareholder difference of interest, 138–139
 - strategy changes due to ownership changes, 33
- public pension funds, 22
- Qatar, 35
- Raines, Franklin, 48
- RBS, 149–150
- Reed, John, 46
- regulation causing systemic risk
 - increase, 85
- regulation requirements, 182
- Renault, 48, 113, 114–115, 142, 169–170, 171–172
- Renova group, 34, 35
- reorganization, see organizational structure changes
- reporting requirements for public listed companies, 84, 85
- reporting structure changes, 88, 90, 91–92
- reputation tied to one individual, 147–148
- research recommendations, 183
- resistance to change, 135–136
 - see also* stalemates
- resource-based business strategy, 122
- Rich, Marc, 70
- risk profile changes
 - banking, 55–56, 88–89
 - business strategy effects, 119–120, 122–123, 132–133, 166
 - corporate governance changes, 55–56
 - effect of IPOs, 66, 67
 - effects of success, 146, 150–151, 152
 - organizational structure changes, 91, 92–93
 - trading environment changes, 66–67
- RIU Hotels, 15, 16
- rupture management style, 44
- Russia, 75–76
- Salomon Brothers, 66
- Salzgitter AG, 16
- Samsung, 136–137, 140
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 182
- Sartorius report, 169
- Schmidt, Eric, 78
- Schrempp, Jürgen, 45–46
- Schweitzer, Louis, 114
- Seagram, 25, 28
- Sears Roebuck, 157–158
- share classes, 77
- shared ownership, 82–83
- shareholders
 - activist, see activist shareholders

214 • Index

- shareholders (cont.)
 - agency theory, 3
 - balance of power changes, 1, 3–4, 16–17, 36–40
 - as board members, 163
 - business investors, 20
 - capital supply, 13–14
 - change of majority
 - shareholder, 61–62
 - changing types, 35–36
 - characteristic, 65, 69, 77, 82, 86
 - coalitions with management, 37, 52–53, 57, 96, 171–172
 - consolidation strategy
 - concerns, 95–96
 - corporate strategy changes, 107–108, 109–111, 132
 - diversity of interest, 1, 4, 18, 19–20, 21, 40, 93, 176–177
 - dominant, 136–137
 - entrepreneur, 24, 109, 110, 151
 - expectations after IPO, 67
 - external values, 22
 - globalization, 113–117
 - growth strategy concerns, 93
 - holdings performance
 - measurement, 22
 - influence due to legal structure changes, 63, 65
 - influencing new CEO, 52–53
 - interests, 11
 - internal values, 22, 35
 - involvement with decision-making, 162–163
 - IPO agreements, 69, 77–78, 79
 - IPO interests, 69
 - making management changes, 42, 140–141
 - management difference of interests, 81
 - management fads, 120
 - methods of influence, 23
 - opposition to diversification, 104, 107–108
 - organizational structure change
 - effects, 87–88, 90–91, 97
 - purpose, 13–14
 - silent, 23
 - sleeper, 24
 - stability provision, 14
 - stalemate, 138–139, 142
 - substitutability, 133
 - substitutable, 65, 69–70, 86, 98
 - trader, 23–24, 109–110
 - types, 19
 - values, 22–23, 26, 35, 109–110
 - vocal, 23
- Shell, 31
- silent shareholders, 23
- Singapore, 35
- SKS Microfinance Ltd., 72
- sleeper shareholders
 - changing to activists, 35–36
 - definition, 24
 - exit options, 38
 - public listed companies, 34–35
- Soufflet SA, 172–173
- stability of shareholders, 14
- stakeholders
 - business investors, 20
 - business strategy, 101, 103
 - corporate strategy, 101, 103, 110–111
 - interaction with board of directors, 157
 - strategy formulation, 1, 165–166, 179–180, 183
- stalemates, 137–139, 145
 - breaking, 139–144
- state shareholders, 114–115, 139, 171
- stock market speak, 128–129
- strategy formulation
 - see also* business strategy; corporate strategy

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

Index • 215

- attracting particular types of
 - shareholders, 40–41
- attribution of success, 149–152
- balance of power changes, 153
- centralization, 96
- change events focus, 5
- changes needed due to failure, 135
- changing ownership interests, 36–37
- conflicting interests, 2, 5–6, 76–77, 79–80
- ‘cui bono’, 154, 168–169
- decentralization, 94–96
- disagreements, 171
- dominant coalitions, 175
- due to ownership changes, 15, 18–19, 25, 28–29, 33, 41
- economic interests, 176–177
- effect of ownership, 30–31
- individual dominance, 152
- IPOs, afterwards, 74–76, 85
- IPOs, beforehand, 71, 72–73
- IPOs, conflicting interests, 76–77, 79–80
- lack of neutrality, 2
- management interests, 61, 176–177
- management team differences, 47
- MBA course requirements, 180–181
- nonrational, 7
- nonshareholder management, 4
- organizational structure changes, 88–89, 97
- politics, see politics in strategy
 - decisions
- privatization, 80–82, 83–85
- public listed companies, 36
- rationality, 176–179
- shareholders’ interests, 61, 176–177
- stakeholders, 1, 165–166, 179–180, 183
- uncertainty, 172
- S-Travel, 15, 17
- structural changes, 62–63
 - see also* IPOs
 - organizational structure changes
 - privatization
 - structure types, 91
- subprime mortgage crisis, 65–68, 119, 121, 122–123, 149–150, 182
- substitutable shareholders, 65, 69–70, 86, 98
- success, 146–152
- superior interest thesis, 178–179
- TCI (The Children’s Investment Fund Management), 1
- technocrat managers, 44–45, 46, 50–51, 89
- threat of sale, 29–30
- Time Warner, 31
- Timmer, Jan, 138
- Tomkins plc, 141–142
- Toyota, 150–151
- Toys ‘R’ Us, 150
- trader shareholders
 - changing to activists, 35–36
 - definition, 23–24
 - diversification, 109–110
 - motivations, 29–30
 - specialization, 33–34
 - strategies for attracting, 123–124
 - types, 29
- transformer managers
 - case study, 45–46
 - definition, 45
 - media attention, 45
 - strategy formulation, 50, 111
- TUI AG, 14–19, 34, 35, 138–139, 174
- UBS, 40, 52, 149–150
- U-Form, 91
- underperformance, 32
- United Kingdom, board of directors’ purpose, 158

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-04420-3 - Strong Managers, Strong Owners: Corporate Governance and Strategy

Harry Korine and Pierre-Yves Gomez

Index

More information

216 • Index

- USA
 - banking federal government
 - intervention, 56
 - board of directors' purpose, 158–159
 - CEOs combined with Chair role, 56
 - Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 182
 - subprime mortgage crisis, 65–68,
 - 119, 121, 122–123, 149–150, 182
- valuations, 90–91
- values
 - changes to, 58
 - effect on strategy, 68
 - management, 44, 47, 50
 - ownership changes, 79, 82, 86
 - shareholders, 22–23, 26, 35, 109–110
- Vekselberg, Viktor, 34, 35
- Victory Holding, 34
- Vivendi Universal, 45–46
- vocal shareholders, 23
- voice notion, 23
- 'Volksatie', 15
- Weinberg, John, 89
- Welch, Jack, 45
- Westdeutsche Landesbank,
 - 15, 16
- Wrigley, 108
- Wriston, Walter, 46
- Wyser-Pratte, Guy, 16–17
- Zynga, 78