

Index

- adolescents and genetic studies, 27
 Adult Attachment Interview (AAI), 115 Affect Valuation Theory, 178 affective vs. analytical cognition, 177 afterlife belief, 98–101
 agency detection device, 34
 agreeableness and religion, 126
 American Episcopalians, 125
 American Protestant Christianity, 149 anger and God image, 155–56
 anger and religion, 179
Answer to Job (Jung), 21
 anxiety and religion, 144
 archetypes and collective unconscious, 20–21
 atheism, 55, 83–84
 atonement doctrine, 163
 attachment and religious development, 114–17
 attribution theory in religious beliefs, 86–88, 93
 autonomic arousal during meditation, 97 autonomic nervous system, 50 autonomy from religion, 152
 Ayer, A.J., 59

 Bakan, David, 16
 baptism, 176
 Baptist preachers, 130
 Barfield, Owen, 88
 Barnard, Philip, 35, 47
 Barrett, Justin, 33, 34, 111
 Batson, Daniel, 128, 139

 Baumeister, Roy, 170 behavior tendencies, 177–78
 behavioral abnormalities, 8 belief vs. non-belief, 82–84
 Bem, Sandra, 123 beneficial effects of religion, 144–45
Between Belief and Unbelief (Pruyser), 92 bin Laden, Osama, 91 biological psychology, 172 biology and religion, 175–76 blood pressure and religion, 141
 ‘born-again’ Christians, 149
 Boyer, Pascal, 111 brain neuropsychological processes, 49–50, 177–78
 brain and religion
 empirical studies on, 41–44
 ‘God spot’ in the brain, 45–47, 51
 interacting cognitive subsystems, 47–49
 introduction, 39
 neural reductionism, 39–41
 speculative view of, 49–50
 summary, 50–51
 Browning, Don, 168
 Brueggemann, Walter, 162
 Bucci, Wilma, 47
 Buddhism, 95, 179, 180–81, 182
 by-product theory, 29

 cancer and religion, 141–42
 Care/Harm system, 139
 Celtic prayers, 55

- chapel metaphor for modular intelligences, 36
- cheating behavior studies, 138–39
- child spiritual experiences, 112–14
- childhood attachment patterns, 150
- Christian fundamentalism, 93
- Christianity
- ‘born-again’ Christians, 149
 - drop in church engagement, 118
 - dualism and, 40
 - as elective religion, 1
 - Jesus Christ, 56, 85, 164
 - Jungian interpretation of, 22
 - predominance of, 2
 - religious experience and, 60–61
 - spirituality and, 95
- the church and spirituality, 104–5
- church community and ministers, 156–58
- Clarke, J.J., 22
- The Cloud of Unknowing* text, 57
- Coe, George, 149
- cognitive architecture in religion, 34–37
- cognitive dissonance in conversions, 151
- cognitive psychology, 83, 161
- cognitive science of religion (CSR), 31–34, 111–12, 120
- cognitive stimulus processing, 177–78
- cognitive style in religious beliefs, 89–90
- collective unconscious, 20–21, 22–23
- colloquial prayer, 66
- compensation hypothesis, 116
- complexity in religious beliefs, 91–92, 93, 185–86
- confession in religious practices, 70–73
- conscientiousness and religion, 126
- conservative religions/religious people
- conversion to, 127
 - introduction, 28
 - liberal religious people vs., 130–32, 135
 - spirituality and, 126, 186
- constructivists, 55, 56
- conversion, 127, 149–51, 159
- coping behavior and religion, 145–47
- creationism, 34
- Crick, Francis, 174
- cults, leaving, 151–52
- cultural generalizability, 123
- cultural identity of religion, 1–2, 181–82
- d’Aquili, Eugene, 69
- Darwin’s Cathedral* (Wilson), 30
- Davidson, Richard J., 42, 43
- Davie, Grace, 64, 85
- Dawkins, Richard, 16, 169
- deconversion, 151–52, 159
- Deikman, Arthur, 57
- denomination influences, 114, 125–26
- depression and God image, 155
- depression and religion, 143
- Dimensions of Religious Commitment Scale, 134
- diversity of religious people, 137
- domestic abuse, 138
- Donald, Merlin, 30
- dopamine system, 176
- Drewermann, Eugen, 168
- dualistic approach to religion, 40, 174
- Easter in Ordinary* (Lash), 54
- Edinger, Edward, 22, 165, 166
- Edwards, Jonathan, 62
- Ego and Archetype* (Edinger), 166
- ego-self, 166
- elective religion, 1
- Eliot, T.S., 17
- embodiment approach to religion, 173–76
- Emmons, Robert, 182
- emotions and religion, 155, 177–80, 184
- Enlightenment period, 82
- Enright, Robert, 72
- epigenetics, 124, 175
- Epstein, Seymour, 47
- ergotrophic system and mystical experience, 50
- Erikson, Erik, 68–69
- eschatology, 166
- Eucharist, 176
- Evangelicalism and prayer, 153
- Evil: Inside Human Cruelty and Violence* (Baumeister), 170
- evil concept, 169–70
- exorcism, 125
- experiential dimension of religion, 2
- experimental psychology, 5
- extrinsic religious people, 128–29, 132
- extroversion-introversion, 123
- Eysenck, Hans, 123, 132
- Fairbairn, Ronald, 17
- faith development, 110*t*, 110–11, 152
- figurative thinking in religious beliefs, 88–89

- 5-dimensional model of religiosity, 134
- five-stage pyramid model of forgiveness, 72
- 'flow' experience, 68
- fMRI (functional magnetic resonance imaging) studies, 41
- forgiveness in religious practices, 70–73, 81
- foundationalist views of religion, 3
- Fowler, James, 110–11, 152
- Francis, Leslie, 122
- Frazer, James, 70
- Freud, Sigmund (Freudian psychology)
 - introduction, 6, 7
 - obsessional neurosis, 70
 - pessimism of, 169
 - psychoanalysis perspective, 13–16, 23
- Freud and Christianity* (Lee), 17
- fundamentalism, 46
- The Future of an Illusion* (Freud), 6, 15, 16
- gender differences and religion, 122–25, 135
- Gendlin, Eugene, 48
- general religious beliefs, 84–86
- Generation Y, 183
- genetic basis of religion, 130
- Gibson, James, 57
- glossolalia, 73–75, 81, 125, 175–76
- God
 - as attachment object, 115
 - attribution theory, 87
 - belief in, 84–86, 93
 - compensation hypothesis, 116
 - connection through prayer, 65
 - as father figure, 15
 - image in personal transformation, 155–56
 - interpretation of prayer and, 108
 - prayer and, 108, 115
 - as projection, 14
 - as religious metaphor, 88
 - religious understanding of, 108, 112
 - serpent-handling, 79–80
 - spiritual hunger for, 15
- The God Gene: How Faith Is Hardwired Into Our Genes* (Hamer), 25
- God-given soul, 180
- 'God spot' in the brain, 45–47, 51
- The Golden Bough* (Frazer), 70
- Goldman, Ronald, 108, 109
- Gould, Stephen Jay, 10
- Greeley, Andrew, 58
- Guntrip, Harry, 17–18
- Haidt, Jonathan, 130, 139
- Handbook of Religion and Health* (Koenig), 140–41
- Harris, Sam, 43
- Hay, David, 58–59, 62, 113
- health and adjustment in religion
 - coping behavior, 145–47
 - introduction, 136–37
 - mental health and religion, 142–45
 - morality and, 137–40
 - physical health and, 140–42
 - summary, 147–48
- healthy-minded religious types, 127
- Hebrew Bible, 40, 174
- helping behavior, 139–40
- Hibbling, John, 130
- Hill, Peter C., 101
- Hillman, James, 76
- holistic view of human nature, 40
- Holy Communion, 69
- homo religious concept, 181–83
- homophobic prejudice, 129, 132
- homosexuality and religion, 138
- honeymoon effect of conversions, 150, 151
- Hood, Ralph, 55, 79
- human intelligence, 36
- human nature and personality
 - embodied cognition, 175–76
 - embodiment approach, 173–75
 - emotions, 177–80, 184
 - homo religious concept, 181–83
 - introduction, 172–73
 - summary, 183–84
 - systemic biology, 175–76
- human obsessionality, 70
- human reasoning, 83
- hyperactive agency detection device, 33, 34
- hypnotizability, 60, 75
- idealization in religious beliefs, 92–93
- ideological adherence of religion, 2
- The Illusion of a Future* (Pfister), 17
- imagistic religious practices, 47
- integrative sense of self, 181
- interacting cognitive subsystems (ICS)
 - conclusions, 187
 - glossolalia and, 74
 - introduction, 35, 47–49
 - mindfulness and, 97
 - prayer and, 67
 - religious development and, 113

intrinsic religious people, 128–29, 132 inward prayer, 66
 Islam, 93, 122, 179

James, William, 3, 5, 39, 52–54, 56–57, 63, 127–28
 Jesus Christ, 56, 85, 164
 St John of the Cross, 115
 Jones, Gregory, 72
 Jones, James W., 92
 Judaism, 122, 174
 Jung, Carl
 archetypes and collective unconscious, 20–21
 interpretation of doctrine, 164–67, 171
 psychoanalysis perspective, 19–23

Kantian epistemology, 22
 Kapogiannis, Dimitrios, 43–44
 Kirkpatrick, Lee, 29, 182–83
 knowledge vs. knowing, 54
 Koenig, Harold, 140–41

Ladd, Kevin, 66
 lament in scripture, 162
 Lash, Nicholas, 53, 54
 lateralization theory, 45
 learning theory, 161
 Lee, R.S., 17
 liberal religious people, 130–32, 135
Life and Faith (Meissner), 167
 Lowenthal, Kate, 150
 Luhrmann, Tania, 60–61

maturational development, 8 medical materialism, 39 meditation brain and, 43, 50
 personal transformation and, 153–54
 spirituality and, 96–98, 105
 spontaneous experiences vs., 61–62
 Meissner, William, 92, 167
 mental health and religion, 142–45
 Merton, Thomas, 169
 mindfulness and spirituality, 97–98
 minimal counter-intuitiveness, 33
 Moral Foundations Theory, 139 morality and religion, 137–40
 Morea, Peter, 169
Moses and Monotheism (Freud), 13 motivation tendencies, 177–78

motor expression, 177–78
The Mystical Mind (d'Aquili), 49
 Mysticism Scale, 55
 mystics/mystical states, 48, 57

National Opinion Research Centre, 58
The Naturalness of Religious Ideas (Boyer), 111 nature vs. nurture, 124, 175

 neural reductionism, 39–41
 neuropsychological processes, 49–50, 177–78
 neuroticism, 123
 New Age religion, 60, 76, 94–95
 New Atheists, 16
 New Religious Movements, 149
 New Testament scripture, 162
 Newberg, Andrew, 41, 42
 non-belief vs. belief, 82–84 non-co-operation and religion, 30 non-religious people characteristics of, 127
 religious people vs., 121, 126
 spirituality of, 94
 Nones, 84
 Nye, Rebecca, 113

obsession and ritualistic religion, 145
 obsessional neurosis, 70
 Oedipus complex, 14
 Old Testament scripture, 161–62
 one-to-one pastoral care, 157
 Otto, Rudolf, 20
 outward prayer, 66

pain and religion, 142
 Paley, William, 82
 Panacea Society in Bedford, England, 87
 paranoid processes, 167
 Park, Crystal, 98
 pastoral care in religious contexts, 154–56, 159
 pastoral ministry, 188
 Penny, Gemma, 122
 perennialists, 55
 Persinger, Michael, 44
 personal abnormalities, 8
 personal economics and religion, 143 personal implications of belief, 155 personal transformation
 church community and ministers, 156–58

- conversion, 149–51, 159
- deconversion, 151–52, 159
- introduction, 149
- meaning-making and, 154
- pastoral care in religious contexts, 154–56, 159
- role of religious practices in, 152–54
- summary, 159
- personality measures in religion, 135
- petition and prayer, 66–67
- Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life, 118
- Pew Religious Landscape Survey (2008), 85
- Pfister, Oskar, 17
- phobic anxiety, 131
- physical health and religion, 140–42
- Piaget, Jean, 108
- Playing and Reality* (Winnicott), 18
- plurality of the sense of self, 180–81
- Polanyi, Michael, 89
- polarization theory, 117
- positive psychology, 102–4, 106
- post-Freudians, 17–19
- prayer
 - colloquial prayer, 66
 - Evangelicalism and, 153
 - God and, 108, 115
 - manuals for, 153
 - outward prayer, 66
 - religious practices, 65–68, 81
 - spirituality and, 99
- The Prehistory of Mind* (Mithen), 34
- premarital sexual activity, 138
- Preston, Jesse Lee, 139
- private religious practices, 64–65
- prosocial religious people, 129
- Proudfoot, Wayne, 45, 56
- Pruyser, Paul, 19, 163
- psychodynamic perspective of spiritual healing, 77
- psyche, defined, 174
- psycho-biological processes of spiritual healing, 78
- psycho-sexual development, 16
- psycho-social development, 107
- psychoanalysis
 - evaluation, 23
 - Freud's perspective on, 13–16, 23
 - introduction, 13
 - Jung's perspective, 19–23
 - post-Freudians, 17–19
 - summary, 24
- psychodynamic psychology, 161
- psychological healing, 77
- psychology
 - defined, 4–9
 - human nature and, 183
 - perspective on religious practices, 80
 - positive psychology, 102–4, 106
 - prayer and, 67
 - relation to religion, 9–11
 - of religion, 2, 5, 172–73, 188
 - scripture and doctrine, 160–62
 - of spirituality, 105
 - various subdisciplines, 12
- psychosomatic healing, 77
- psychoticism/psychotic disorders, 123, 144
- public religious practices, 64–65
- quest type of religious people, 128–29
- questionnaire to assess religion, 133–34
- Rambo, Lewis, 150
- readiness for religion concept, 109
- reframing in forgiveness, 72
- religion. See also brain and religion; Christianity; conservative religions/religious people; health and adjustment in religion; scripture and doctrine
 - cognitive architecture, 34–37
 - cognitive science of religion, 31–34, 111–12, 120
 - complexity of, 185–86
 - conversion, 127, 149–51, 159
 - cultural identity of, 1–2, 181–82
 - defined, 1–4
 - denomination influences, 114, 125–26
 - dualistic approach to, 40, 174
 - embodiment approach to, 173–76
 - emotions and religion, 155, 177–80, 184
 - evolutionary adaptation, 28–31
 - evolutionary adaptation and, 28–31
 - faith development, 110f, 110–11, 152
 - fundamentalism, 46
 - gender differences and, 122–25, 135
 - general religious beliefs, 84–86
 - genetics and evolution, 25–28
 - introduction, 25
 - meaning-making and, 105
 - New Age religion, 60, 76, 94–95
 - overview, 25–28
 - as phenomenon and perspective, 187–88
 - psychology of, 2, 5, 172–73, 188

- religion (cont.)
 - relation to psychology, 9–11
 - spirituality and, 3, 182
 - summary, 37–38
 - two-factor/two-system theories, 186–87
 - various components, 12
 - as wish fulfillment, 15
- religious beliefs and thinking
 - atheism, 55, 83–84
 - attributions, 86–88, 93
 - belief vs. non-belief, 82–84
 - cognitive style, 89–90
 - complexity in, 91–92, 93, 185–86
 - figurative thinking, 88–89
 - general vs. specific, 84–86
 - idealization, 92–93
 - introduction, 82
 - simplicity vs. complexity, 91–92, 93
 - summary, 93
- religious development
 - attachment and, 114–17
 - cognitive science of religion, 111–12
 - introduction, 107
 - in later life, 118–19
 - religiousness influence of children, 114
 - spiritual experiences in children, 112–14
 - stages of, 108*t*, 108–9
 - stages of faith development, 110*t*, 110–11
 - summary, 120
 - transition to adulthood, 117–18
- religious experience
 - Christianity and, 60–61
 - controversy over, 63
 - introduction, 52
 - James, William, perspective on, 52–54, 56–57, 63
 - meditation vs. spontaneous experiences, 61–62
 - New Age religion, 60
 - occurrence of, 105
 - predisposition to, 59–61
 - summary, 63
 - survey research, 58–59
 - two-factor theory, 54–58
- religious global meaning, 98–99
- religious metaphors, 88
- religious orientation, 128–29
- religious practices
 - confession and forgiveness, 70–73
 - glossolalia, 73–75, 81
 - introduction, 64
 - prayer, 65–68, 81
 - public vs. private, 64–65
 - ritual and worship, 68–70, 81
 - role of, 152–54
 - serpent-handling, 78–80, 81
 - spiritual healing, 75–78, 81
 - summary, 81
 - theological/psychological perspectives, 80
- religious universalism, 53
- religious varieties
 - conclusion, 134–35
 - conservative vs. liberal, 130–32, 135
 - dimensions of religiousness, 132–34
 - gender and, 122–25, 135
 - introduction, 121–22
 - personality and values, 126–27
 - religious orientation, 128–29
 - social class and denomination, 125–26
 - summary, 135
 - types of religiousness, 127–28
- religiousness, 114, 127–28, 132–34, 135
- risk aversion theory, 123–24
- ritual
 - dimensions in religion, 2, 145
 - in excess, 68
 - worship and, 68–70, 81
- Rizzuto, Ana-Maria, 14
- Rogers, Carl, 168
- Rollins, Wayne, 160
- Roman Catholic Church, 70
- sacred emotions, 177
- Sanctity/Degradation moral system, 139
- Savage, Sara, 46, 161, 183
- Scherer, Klaus, 177–78
- schizophrenia and religion, 144
- schizotypal personality, 60, 100
- Schleiermacher, Friedrich, 82
- Schwartz, Shalom, 126
- scripture and doctrine
 - human nature and, 168–71
 - introduction, 160
 - Jungian interpretation, 164–67, 171
 - other approaches, 167–68
 - psychology and doctrine, 163–64
 - psychology and scripture, 160–62
 - summary, 171
- secular healing, 76
- Self archetype, 21
- self-examination as religious practices, 71
- self-identification as religious, 95

Index

211

- serpent-handling, 78–80, 81, 125
 sex roles, 123
 shame-orientated culture, 179 sick-soul religious types, 127
 simplicity in religious beliefs and thinking, 91–92, 93
 social class and denomination, 125–26
 social constructionism, 173
 social factors in health, 141 solitude and religion, 176 soothing/contentment system, 176
 speaking in tongues. See glossolalia specific religious beliefs, 84–86
 spiritual healing, 75–78, 81, 154, 175
 spiritual hunger for God, 15
 spirituality
 Buddhism and, 95
 child spiritual experiences, 112–14
 Christianity and, 95
 the churches and, 104–5
 collective unconscious, 20–21, 22–23
 collective unconscious and, 22–23 conservative religions and, 126, 186 experiences in children, 112–14
 genetics and, 28
 introduction, 94–96
 meditation and, 96–98, 105
 New Age religion, 60, 76, 94–95
 in older people, 119
 positive psychology, 102–4, 106
 religion and, 3, 182
 summary, 105–6
 in therapy, 101–2, 105–6
 transcendent and afterlife, 98–101
 splitting, in doctrine, 164
 spontaneous experiences vs. meditation, 61–62
 subjective feeling states, 177–78
 Suedfeld, Peter, 91
 supplication and prayer, 66
 survival theory of religion, 39
 Swinburne, Richard, 78
 systemic biology, 175–76
 Tamminen, Kalevi, 113
 Teasdale, John, 97
 Temporal Lobe Epilepsy, 44
 Terry Lectures on psychology (Jung), 20 thanksgiving and prayer, 66
 Theissen, Gerd, 160 theological perspective on religious practices, 80
 theory of sex roles, 123
 therapeutic forgiveness, 72
 therapy and God image, 155
 ‘this-worldly’ beliefs in spirituality, 100 three-dimensional model of personality, 123
Totem and Taboo (Freud), 13
 trance-state, 74
 transcendent and afterlife, 98–101
 Transcendental Meditation, 96–97
 transition to adulthood, 117–18
 transliminality, 31, 63, 100
Treatise on Religious Affections (Edwards), 62
 trophotropic system and meditation, 50
 Turner, Léon, 181
 twin studies and genetics, 26
 two-factor/two-system theories, 54–58, 186–87
 typology of religious people, 135
 Ulanov, Ann and Barry, 67
 Unitarian preachers, 130
 Upper Paleolithic period, 29, 34
 upward prayer, 66
Varieties of Religious Experience (James), 3, 5, 39, 52–54, 56, 63
 warmed heart concept, 177
 well-being and religion, 143
 Wesley, Charles, 177
 Western Buddhism, 1
 White, Victor, 165
 Whitehouse, Harvey, 47
 Wilson, David Sloan, 30
 Winnicott, Donald, 17–19
 Worthington, Everett, 72