accountability
Confucians and, 189
political meritocracy and, 183, 184 active citizenship, 83, 84 aesthetic mentality, 54 affective reasoning, 157–44 agency. See also moral agency, of social self
social self and, 31
Ahan, Dai-hee, 240
Alford, C. Fred, 262–63
Ames, Roger, 11, 34, 110 authentic social harmony for, 59
ritual for, 111
Analects (Confucius)
12:1, 30–31, 89, 115
12:10, 58
12:21, 58
13:23, 60–61
junzi in, 89
moral virtue in, 137–38
Angle, Stephen, 7, 10–11, 36, 54, 90, 116, 121, 193, 263–64, 283
antisocial self, 32
moral self and, 32–33
archaic self, 32
Arendt, Hannah, 102 collective responsibility for, 224, 225 moral responsibility for, 224
political responsibility for, 224–25 atomistic individualism, 49, 148 authority, under Confucian democracy, 110–11
autonomy, for Kant, 33

Bai, Tongdong, 73, 126
democracy for, 84
on meritocratic elitism, 77–79
OPOV for, 185–86
Barber, Benjamin, 83, 120, 180, 181, 220, 221, 230, 232
Barry, Brian, 121–22
public reason for, 122
Reiner, Ronald, 53
Bell, Daniel, 16, 46, 72–73, 76–77, 126, 166, 181
Confucian democracy and, 199–200 political meritocracy for, 191 Bellah, Robert, 19, 233
Berlin, Isaiah, 106
Berman, Sheri, 14, 82
Beyond Liberal Democracy (Bell), 181 Bloom, Irene, 142, 165
bonding capital, 148
Boyd, Richard, 139–40
Brettschneider, Corey, 35 bridging capital, 148
Bunce, Valerie, 206
Burke, Edmund, 181
CAGE. See Citizen’s Alliance for the 2000
General Election (CAGE)
Carens, Joseph, 232
Casal, Paula, 96
Chan, Joseph, 73, 82, 94–95, 126 on Confucian welfarism, 154 document of sufficiency for, 95–96, 154 ethical perfectionism for, 117–18, 119 on social justice, 158 on sufficentarianism, 154, 155
Index

China
bicameral legislature in, 73 Confucian civil society in, 86 evolution of law in, 34 Tibet and, 111
Ching, Julia, 88
Cho, Hein, 213
Choi, Sang-chin, 213
chŏng, 216, 225
Confucianism and, 284
democratic implications of, 207–8 familialism and, 216–17
social psychology of, 213–22
uri-responsibility and, 207, 215–16, 226
Chosŏn dynasty, in Korea, 59, 192, 282–83 Citizen’s Alliance for the 2000 General Election (CAGE), 208–11 citizenship. See also super-citizenship active, 83, 84
under Confucian democracy, 82–86 democratic welfarism and, 168 as membership in political community, 83 civic liberalism, 57, 52–53
communitarianism and, 52–53
liberal pluralism and, 107–8
multiculturalism and, 278
public reason and, 130
value pluralism and, 107
civic totalism, 107–8
civic virtues, 87, 120
for Confucianism, 117–21
civil Confucianism
Confucian democracy and, 70–71
civic liberalism and, 52–53
civil politics and, 46
civil examinations, meritocratic elitism and, 81–82 Civil Passions: Moral Sentiment and Democratic Deliberation (Krause), 134 civil politics, communitarianism and, 56 civil society. See also Confucian civil society; Korean civil society
common good and, 52
Confucian democracy and, 17–18, 121–25
construction of, 17–18, 86–97 ethics in, 101 pluralism in, 101
state of nature and, 36 civility. See also Confucian civility

communitarianism and, 53–54, 55–60
components of, 253
context-adaptability of, 55 definitions of, 51
expressive liberty and, 248–55

li (ritual) and, 59
in liberal democracy, 48 limits of, 50–55
as precondition of democracy, 51–52 self-restraint and, 52
social self and, 53–54
social value of, 48–49 tolerance and, 253–54
as virtue, 50–55
as Western social ideal, 47 Cohen, Joshua, 134, 249–50 collective responsibility, 224, 225 uri-responsibility as, 212–13, 222–26 collective self-determination Confucian democracy as, 82–86
definition of, 83
common good
civil society and, 52
erosion of, 2
liberal pluralism and, 108
communitarianism aesthetic mentality and, 54 authentic social harmony and, 59 civic liberal democracy and, 52–53 civic politics and, 56
civility and, 53–54, 55–60
Confucian democracy and, 6, 11–15, 70, 71
Confucian incivility and, 53 diversity under, 111–12
ethical monism and, 112–13
ethics and, 12
Gemeinschaft and, 14, 53
individualism and, 113
insult law and, 262–63
li (ritual), 56–60
liberal pluralism and, 102–3, 104
limitations of, 71
main claims of, 11–12
modern liberalism and, 37, 48 particularism and, 12–14
pluralism and, 14
as political conservativism, 46 political theory and, 31 as political vision, 44–45 process as part of, 56–57 relational self and, 28 rule of law and, 34
social contract theory and, 34–35
social harmony and, 45
social self and, 29–34, 53–54
totalitarian communities and, 54–55 compassion, as moral virtue, 139–40
Index

Confucian aristocracy, 166
Confucian civil society civic virtues in, 87
construction of, 86–97
Gemeinschaft and, 147–48
historical development of, 86
justice in, 93–94
material welfare of citizens in, 92–97 moral welfare of citizens in, 87–92 mutual reciprocity in, 91
pluralism and, 88–89
Confucian civility, 47, 66–67, 256 features of, 235–39
filiality and, 238–39
li (ritual) and, 38
sincerity and, 235–37
Confucian communalism, 122–23
Confucian democracy, 5, 11, 109–25
See also communitarianism; democratic welfarism authority under, 110–11 Bell and, 199–200
citizenship under, 82–86 civil Confucianism and, 70–71
civil society and, 17–18, 121–25
as collective self-determination, 82–86
communitarianism and, 6, 11–15, 70, 71
constitutional unity in, 114–15
construction of, 9–10, 86–97
contestation of, 121–23 critical affection and, 150–51 diversity and, 113–17 End of History thesis and, 5 ethical monism and, 112–13
ethics and, 7
individualism and, 113
li under Confucian democracy, 115–16 liberal democracy compared to, 6–7, 8–9
liberal pluralism and, 109
meritocracy thesis and, 6, 15, 15–17, 73–74 methodology for, 4–5 moral optimism and, 85 moral requirements and, 136 as paradox, 5
particularism and, 5, 6–11
as philosophical construct, 7–8
pluralism and, 10
public reason and, 143
reconstruction of, 110–25 ritual aestheticism and, 111 social connection model and, 173
social harmony and, 111
super-citizenship and, 87 Confucian ethics, 12 role ethics compared to, 13, 38 Confucian incivility, 50, 63–70 characteristics of, 50
communitarianism and, 53
familial relations and, 64–67 political relations and, 67–70 Confucianism. See also civil Confucianism; communitarianism; public reason; social self accountability and, 189 cardinal human relations in, 49
chŏng and, 284
during Chosŏn dynasty, 59, 282–83
civic virtues for, 117–17 civility as tenet of, 47, 66–67 consanguinitism and, 64 in contemporary East Asia, 9 as context-dependent, 122 core values of, 90
critical affection and, 144–52
defereence and, 50, 90
democracy and, 75–82
distributive justice and, 159–60 doctrine of sufficiency, 95–96, 154 economic justice and, 94–95 economic meritocracy and, 135–57 ethical perfectionism and, 117–18, 119
familialism and, 144–52
family rights and, 169–70
feminism and, 125
filial virtue and, 161
filiality and, 90
humility and, 50
in Korea, 118–19, 232–33, 282–83
libertarianism and, 163
meritocratic elitism and, 74 moral virtues for, 117–21
public reason and, 144–52
public servant thesis and, 191–96 religious, 284 respect of elderly and, 90
respectfulness and, 50
same-sex couples and, 125 social criticism and, 44
social harmony and, 114–13, 90
social self and, 53, 40–41
trustworthiness, 90
value pluralism and, 124–25
virtue ethics and, 41, 121 virtue politics and, 75–76
Index

Confucius, 60–62. See also Analects (Confucius) familial relationships for, 64–65
   li (ritual) for, 66–77
   meritocratic elitism endorsed by, 77 political relations for, 68–69
   consanguinitism, 64 Constant, Benjamin, 129, 248 constitutional democracy, 114 constitutional law, 34
   constitutionalism. See Confucian constitutionalism Crisp, Roger, 95
   critical affection
      Confucian democracy and, 150–51
      Confucianism and, 144–52
      passion and, 151–52
      political value of, 151
      public reason and, 150–52
   Cua, Antonio, 110
   cultural pluralism, 274–76 culture, 115

Dahl, Robert, 107
Dallmayr, Fred, 199–200 defamation, 260–61
deferece, 50, 90
li (ritual) and, 58
   public reason and, 148
deliberative democracy, 133
   public reason and, 134–35
   deliberative inclusion, 230–51 democracy. See also Confucian democracy; liberal democracy for Bai, 84
   ch’ŏng and, 207–8
civility as precondition of, 51–52
   components of, 2–3
   Confucianism and, 75–82
   constitutional, 114
   core characteristics of, 252
   definition of, 83, 123
   deliberative, 133, 134–35 deliberative inclusion and, 250–51 erosion of common good, 2 individual self-interest under, 2
   in Korea, 208, 273, 280–84
   meaning of, 1
   meritocratic elitism and, 75–82
   multiculturalism in Korea and, 280–84 plasticity of, 2–4
   pluralism and, 4

   political equality as facet of, 3–4 as political remedy, 1–2 self-interest and, 2
   social harmony from, 2
   as source of Western evil, 2 tyranny of majority in, 2 democratic rights, 114 democratic welfarism, 154, 166–73 dependency and, 173
egalitarianism and, 157 as expression of citizenship, 168 familialism as distributive principle and, 158–66, 170 family care as alternative to, 166
family rights and, 169–70
in family-state, 170–71
responsibility under, 171 social responsibility requirement for, 175–76 structural injustice and, 172 vulnerability model for, 168–69, 173 dependency, democratic welfarism and, 173 Dewey, John, 3, 35, 48, 107
li (ritual) for, 57–58
   on social organisms, 35 Diamond, Larry, 101
difference principle, 154
distributive justice, 159–60 diversity
      under communitarianism, 111–12
      Confucian democracy and, 113–17
      under liberal pluralism, 112 doctrine of sufficiency, 95–96, 154 economic egalitarianism, 160–61 economic justice, 94–95 economic meritocracy, 155–56. See also democratic welfarism merit as fixed in, 157 political implications of, 156–57
egalitarianism, 157
   Eisenstadt, Shmuel, 44
   empathy, 221
   End of History thesis, 5, 109–10 Enlightenment liberalism, in East Asia, 131 ethical monism, 112–13 ethical pluralism, 246 ethics
      in civil society, 101
      community and, 12
      Confucian, 12, 13, 38–39
      Confucian democracy and, 7
Index

feminism and, 39
  in Korean civil society, 206–7 role, 12, 13, 38–39, 41 of social self, 29–30 virtue, 12, 41, 121
“The Ethics of Democracy” (Dewey), 35 expressive liberty, 105–6
civility and, 248–55
components of, 254
for Galston, 105–6, 248, 249
insult law and, 266
for Kateb, 249
negative, 106
positive, 106
extension, 141–43

familialism autonomy and, 162–63
chŏng and, 216–17
Confucian, 144–45
as distributive principle, 158–66
for Mencius, 144–45, 147, 173–77 moral responsibility influenced by, 33–34 resentment and, 140–50
state conflict with, 161–62
uri-responsibility and, 216–17
virtue ethics and, 119
family care model, 166, 173 family rights, democratic welfarism and, 169–70 family-states democratic welfarism in, 170–71
insult law in, 262
Korea as, 233, 243
Fan, Ruiping, 159–60, 167
Confucian familialism and, 170 on familial autonomy, 162–63 family care model for, 166, 173 filial virtue for, 164–65 libertarianism of, 163 fear, liberalization of, 252 Fearon, James, 195
feminism
Confucianism and, 125
ethics and, 39
Korean multiculturalism and, 272 filial piety. See familialism; xiao (filial piety) filial virtue, 90, 161. See also familialism Confucian civility and, 258–59
for Fan, 164–65
Filmer, Robert, 170
Fingarette, Herbert, 58, 110

First Treatise of Government (Locke), 170
Fox, Russell, 57, 110–11
Frankfurt, Harry, 95
Frazer, Michael, 133
freedom of expression, 247–48, 251
for Hobbes, 33, 106
for Kant, 222–23
for Mill, 237
of religion, 105–6 freedom of association, 240–42, 287
Friedman, Milton, 185
Fukuyama, Francis, End of History thesis for, 5, 109–10
  See also liberal pluralism expressive liberty for, 105–6, 248, 249 Reformation liberalism for, 131 on value pluralism, 107–8 Gauss, Gerald, 91, 129, 150–51
Geertz, Clifford, 114–15
Gellner, Ernest, 215
Gemeinschaft
  communitarianism and, 14, 53
  Confucian civil society and, 147–48 general will for Rousseau, 219–20
uri-responsibility and, 219–22
good. See common good good types, political meritocracy
  and, 197–98
The Government of Poland (Rousseau), 219–20
Grant, Ruth, 183
Great Learning, 162
Green, T. H., 48
Gutmann, Amy, 107, 162, 231–32, 237
Habermas, Jürgen, 107
Hahn, Chaihark, 114–15, 122–23
Hahn, Pyong-choon, 214–15
Hall, Cheryl, 132–33
Hall, David, 11, 34
  authentic social harmony for, 59
  ritual for, 111
Hanfeizi, 75, 171–72
harmony. See be (harmony) Havel, Vaclav, 206–7
be (harmony), 60
li (ritual) and, 61
as social process, 61
Hobbes, Thomas
freedom for, 33, 106
pluralism for, 249
public reason and, 129
state of nature for, 36
Holmes, Stephen, 28
Howard, Marc, 206
humanism, 207
Hume, David, 132–37
humility, 50
li (ritual) and, 58
Huntington, Samuel, 5
Hutton, Eric, 140, 145–46
Hwang, Kyung Moon, 262 hypocrisy, 253
ideal Confucian. See junzi (ideal Confucian) ideal interest, 102
identity politics, liberal pluralism and, 102 Ihara, Craig, 112
immigrant multiculturalism, 276–79
impartiality, 137
incivility. See Confucian incivility individualism atomistic, 49, 148
communitarianism and, 113
Confucian democracy and, 113
global dissemination of, 37 LHR and, 231
liberal, 49
liberal pluralism and, 105–6 liberal rights-based, 39–40
for Mill, 236
moral, 17–18
social self and, 30–31
insult law, 201
ambiguity of, 261
communitarianism and, 262–63
criminal code definitions under, 265–66 criminalization of private insult under, 261–62 defamation and, 260–61
expressive liberty and, 266
in family-state, 262
in Korea, 247, 259–67
inward civility, 39
Ivanhoe, Philip J., 40, 142–43, 256–57
Jefferson, Thomas, 187
Jiang, Qing, 2, 6–7, 9, 18–19, 33, 92, 121, 194, 202
Johnson, James, 91, 168
Jun wei chen gang principle, 63–64, 67–68 junzi (ideal Confucian), 60, 89, 126
characteristics of, 62
xiangyuan compared to, 62–63 justice in Confucian civil society, 93–94 economic, 94–95
Kang, Ui-seok, 239–42
Kang, Xiaoguang, 6–7, 15, 33
Kant, Emmanuel autonomy for, 33
freedom for, 222–23
moral responsibility for, 224
political responsibility for, 224–25
Karatani, Kojin, 223–24
Karl, Terry, 205
Kateb, George, 48–49, 212, 235–36, 238, 275 critique of multiculturalism, 274–76
expressive liberty for, 249
Keohane, Nannerl, 180, 183
Knight, Jack, 91, 168
Koh, Byung-il, 118–19
Korea. See also Confucian civility; liberalism of human right (LHR); multiculturalism, in Korea CAGE and, 208–11
Chosŏn dynasty in, 59, 192, 282–83
Confucianism in, 118–19, 232–33, 282–83
Constitution for, 235–36 democracy in, 208, 273, 280–84 as family-state, 233, 243 domination of association in, 240–42, 287
insult law in, 247, 259–67
liberal democracy in, 227–28, 229–30, 273 liberal pluralism in, 239–42 liberalization of, 230–39
Nationality Law in, 211
no insult thesis and, 200–1 OPOV policy in, 179–80, 185–86, 227 pre-democratic authoritarian regimes in, 83–84 relational selfhood in, 266 Korean civil society, 206. See also ch’ŏng; uriresponsibility
CAGE and, 208–11
consolidation of, 206
development of, 281
dual citizen military dodgers, 211–13 ethical character of, 206–7 humanism and, 207
Nationality Law and, 211
Index

Korean liberalism, 244
Korsgaard, Christine, 223
Krause, Sharon, 134 moral sentiment for, 135–36
on public reason, 134–36
Kymlicka, Will, 119, 276–79

civil society and, 101
common good and, 108
Communitarianism critique of, 102–3, 104
Confucian democracy and, 109
development of, 104–5
diversity under, 112
expressive liberty and, 105–6
freedom of religion and, 105–6
ideal interest and, 102
identity politics and, 102
individualism as core tenet of, 105–6
in Korea, 239–42
material interest and, 102
multiple sovereignties and, 108–9
in political science, 102
for Rawls, 103, 104
relationships between associations and,
109, 276

Liberal Purrpose (Galston), 108 liberal republicanism, 37
liberal social self, 33–34
liberalism of human right (LHR)
development of, 228
individualism and, 231
under Korean Constitution, 235–36
moral universalism and, 229, 231–35
personhood under, 235–39
selfhood under, 235–39
libertarianism, 163
liberty. See expressive liberty; freedom
Linz, Juan, 101
Liu, Qingping, 64
Locke, John, 170
inward civility for, 39
state of nature for, 36
loyalty. See zhong (loyalty)

Macedo, Stephen, 107, 130
MacIntyre, Alasdair, 53
Madison, James, 16–17, 187
Maine, Henry, 55
Manin, Bernard, 96
Mansbridge, Jane, 181–82, 183, 184, 188, 190–91, 195, 197, 198, 201
Marshall, T. H., 176
material interest, 102
material wealth, Mencius on, 95
Mencius, 65–66, 87–88
democratic welfarism for, 174–75
extension for, 141–43
familialism for, 144–45, 147, 173–77
on goodness of human nature, 138–39
on material wealth, 95
meritocratic elitism for, 78–80

Law
in China, evolution of, 34
constitutional, 34
legitimacy, 2, 51, 79, 123, 128, 137, 143, 153, 189, 191, 194, 199, 220, 227
LHR. See liberalism of human right (LHR)
li (ritual)
civility and, 59
communitarianism and, 56–60
Confucian civility and, 38
under Confucian democracy, 115–16
for Confucius, 56–57
defereence and, 58
harmony and, 61
humility and, 58
moral welfare of citizens and, 89
respectfulness and, 58
shame and, 58
social hierarchy and, 49, 93
for Tan, 56–57, 111
Li, Chenyang, 60, 155, 185, 186, 197 liberal aporia, 279 liberal civility. See civility liberal constitutionalism, 8 liberal democracy, 6. See also liberalism of human right (LHR) civility in, 48
communitarianism and, 37, 48
Confucian democracy compared to,
6–7, 8–9
as constitutional democracy, 114
development of, 244
in East Asia, cultural conflicts with, 10 internal tension of, 231–33
in Korea, 227–28, 229–30, 273
meritocratic elitism as alternative to, 17
multiculturalism and, 274–76
political meritocracy compared to, 180–81 liberal individualism, 39–40 atomistic compared to, 49 liberal pluralism
characteristics of, 101
civic liberalism and, 107–8
in civil society, 101
common good and, 108

communitarianism critique of, 102–3, 104
Confucian democracy and, 109
development of, 104–5
diversity under, 112
expressive liberty and, 105–6
freedom of religion and, 105–6
ideal interest and, 102
identity politics and, 102
individualism as core tenet of, 105–6
in Korea, 239–42
material interest and, 102
multiple sovereignties and, 108–9
in political science, 102
for Rawls, 103, 104
relationships between associations and,
109, 276

Liberal Purrpose (Galston), 108
liberal republicanism, 37
liberal social self, 33–34
liberalism of human right (LHR)
development of, 228
individualism and, 231
under Korean Constitution, 235–36
moral universalism and, 229, 231–35
personhood under, 235–39
selfhood under, 235–39
libertarianism, 163
liberty. See expressive liberty; freedom
Linz, Juan, 101
Liu, Qingping, 64
Locke, John, 170
inward civility for, 39
state of nature for, 36
loyalty. See zhong (loyalty)

Macedo, Stephen, 107, 130
MacIntyre, Alasdair, 53
Madison, James, 16–17, 187
Maine, Henry, 55
Manin, Bernard, 96
Mansbridge, Jane, 181–82, 183, 184, 188, 190–91, 195, 197, 198, 201
Marshall, T. H., 176
material interest, 102
material wealth, Mencius on, 95
Mencius, 65–66, 87–88
democratic welfarism for, 174–75
extension for, 141–43
familialism for, 144–45, 147, 173–77
on goodness of human nature, 138–39
on material wealth, 95
meritocratic elitism for, 78–80

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-04903-1 — Confucian Democracy in East Asia
Sungmoon Kim

Index

More Information

www.cambridge.org
Mencius (cont.)
moral sentiment and, 141 moral virtue for, 137–44
no insult thesis and, 198–99
political relations for, 69–70
on ruler-subject relations, 94 social responsibility for, 175–76 on work of rulers, 78
xiangyuan for, 62
meritocratic elitism. See also political meritocracy as alternative to liberal democracy, 17 Bai on, 77–79
civil examinations and, 81–82
Confucian democracy and, 6, 15–17, 73–74
Confucian ideals and, 74
Confucius' endorsement of, 77 contemporary East Asian democracies and, 74–75
democracy and, 75–82
justification of, 16
for Mencius, 78–80
political aspects of, 80 political meritocracy and, 201
virtue politics and, 76, 81
Metzger, Thomas, 86
Mill, John Stuart, 236, 237
Miller, Dale, 190
Mills, Chris, 95–96
minimalism. See ritual minimalism Mo, Di, 146–47
Mohism, 145–47
moral agency, of social self, 38–45 moral equality, moral sentiment and, 144 moral individualism, 37–38 moral obligations, social self in conflict with, 41–42 moral optimism, 85
moral responsibility, 224 family influence on, 33–34 moral self, 32–33
moral sentiment
Mencius and, 141
moral equality and, 144
public reason and, 135–36
socialization of, 132 moral universalism, 229, 231–35 moral virtues in Analects, 137–38
civic virtue and, 120 compassion as, 139–40
Confucianism and, 117–21
for Mencius, 137–44
pity as, 139
requirements of, 120
multiculturalism, in Korea, 270, 278
civic liberalism and, 278
components of, 273
as cultural pluralism, 274–76
democracy and, 280–84
factors in creation of, 270–71
feminism and, 272
framework development for, 284–89 immigrant, 276–79
for Kateb, 274–76
for Kymlicka, 276–79
liberal aporia and, 279 liberal democracy and, 274–76 logic of, 274–76
polyethnic rights, 277–78
in popular media, 270 rights-centered approach to, 272–73 Munro, Donald, 165–66
Nationality Law, 211 negative liberty, 106
Neville, Robert, 88–89
Nivison, David, 145
no insult thesis
Mencius and, 198–99
for political meritocracy, 198–202
selection model and, 201
South Korean law and, 200–1
Nussbaum, Martha, 151
Oakeshott, Michael, 6, 116, 127
Okin, Susan, 160, 237
one person, one vote (OPOV) policy, 179–80, 185–86, 227 one who wants to please others. See xiangyuan OPOV policy. See one person, one vote policy particularism, 4–11
communitarianism and, 12–14
Confucian democracy and, 5, 6–11 passion, critical affection and, 151–52 Patriarcha (Filmer), 170 perfectionism, 16, 92, 95–96, 115–16, 118, 127, 138 ethical, 117–18, 119
personhood, 235–39
Pettit, Philip, 190–91
pity, 145–47
as moral virtue, 139

Index

pluralism. See also liberal pluralism; value pluralism
communitarianism and, 14
in Confucian civil society, 88–89
Confucian democracy and, 10
cultural, 274–76
democracy and, 4
ethical, 246
for Hobbes, 249
public reason and, 129–30
for Rawls, 50–51, 103, 104, 269 political equality. See also political meritocracy democracy and, 3–4
moral equality compared to, 14 Political Liberalism (Rawls), 106–7 political meritocracy accountability in, 183, 184 for Bell, 191
good types and, 197–98
liberal democracy compared to, 180–81
no insult thesis for, 198–202 OPOV policy, 179–80, 185–86 public servant theses for, 191–98 sanction model for, 188 screen model for, 190–91 selection thesis for, 183–91, 196, 201 political society, 157–58
polyethnic rights, 277–78
positive liberty, 106
Przeworski, Adam, 123
public reason, 122
civic liberalism and, 130
components of, 128
Confucian democracy and, 143
Confucianism and, 144–52
critical affection and, 150–52
deference and, 148
deliberative democracy and, 134–35
historical development of, 128–32 Hobbes and, 129
for Hume, 132–37
impartiality and, 137
Krause on, 134–36
for Macedo, 130
moral sentiment and, 135–36
pluralism and, 129–30
for Rawls, 122, 129
respect for elderly and, 148
social harmony and, 148
as theoretical construct, 129 in A Theory of Justice, 133 trustworthiness and, 148 public servant thesis
Confucianism and, 191–96
democratic civic integrity and, 196–98
for political meritocracy, 191–98
qin-qin, 63–64
rationalism, 139
top-down reasoning and, 140–41 Rawls, John, 8, 9, 104, 106–7, 129–30
difference principle, 114 economic egalitarianism and, 160–61 ethical pluralism for, 246 original position concept for, 29
pluralism for, 50–51, 103, 104, 269
political society for, 157–58
on public reason, 122, 129
social minimum for, 154 reason. See affective reasoning; public reason Reformation liberalism, 131 in East Asia, 131
religious Confucianism, 284 ren, 69, 160–61, 165 economic systems and, 163 representation, political, 22, 81, 181–83, 186–92, 193, 195–97, 201 resentment. See yuan (resentment) respect of elderly, 90
public reason and, 148
respectfulness, 50
li (ritual) and, 38
responsibility, 171
collective, 224, 225
liability model of, 171
moral, 224
political, 224–25
rights of citizens, 2–3 democratic, 114
family, 169–70
individual, 105
polyethnic, 277–78 rights-based liberalism, 104
individualism and, 39–40
ritual. See also li (ritual)
under Confucian democracy, 111
social harmony and, 49
social self and, 42
ritual minimalism, 90
role ethics, 12, 41
Confucian ethics compared to, 13, 38–39
Rosemont, Henry, 38
Index

Rosenblum, Nancy, 238, 251
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 139, 219–20 general will for, 219–20 rule of law, Confucian communitarianism and, 34 ruler-subject relations, 67–68 Mencius on, 94
virtue politics and, 75–76

Sage-King Paradigm, 88
Salkever, Stephen, 32
sameness. See tong (sameness) same-sex couples, Confucianism and, 125 Sandel, Michael, 53, 114, 212
Scanlon, Thomas, 250–51
Schwartz, Benjamin, 44 selection thesis, for political meritocracy, 183–91, 196
no insult thesis and, 201
selfhood, 235–39
in Korea, 266
as relational, 28
self-interest. See also identity politics, liberal pluralism and; individualism under democracy, 2 self-restraint, 52
Sen, Amartya, 157
Seol, Dong-Hoon, 270
shame, 50
li (ritual) and, 58
Shapiro, Ian, 107, 123
Shijing (The Book of Poetry), 149–50
Shils, Edward, 38, 51, 213
Shin, Young-Chul, 240
Shklar, Judith, 251
Shun (sage-king), 78, 170 sincerity, civility and, 255–57
Skerrett, Soberts, 130
Smith, Rogers, 123–24
social connection model, 172, 173

The Social Contract (Rousseau), 219 social contract theory, 35 composition of, 37
Confucian communitarianism and, 34–35
social self and, 30
transformation of man and, 37 social criticism, Confucianism and, 44 social harmony authentic, 59
Communitarianism and, 45
Confucian democracy and, 111
Confucianism and, 14–15, 90
deference, 50
from democracy, 2
humility, 50
public reason and, 148
respectfulness, 50
ritual as part of, 49
shame and, 50
social self and, 31
social justice, 158
social minimum, 154
social self, 28
agency and, 31
antisocial self, 32
archaic self and, 32
civil Confucianism and, 46
civility and, 53–54
communitarianism and, 29–34, 53–54
Confucianism and, 33, 40–41
confusions of, 32–33
definition of, 45
epistemology and, 50
ethics of, 29–30
individualism and, 30–31
liberal, 33–34
moral agency of, 38–45
moral obligations and, in conflict with, 41–42 moral self compared to, 32–33 ritual propriety practices for, 42 self-reflexivity in, 42
social contract theory and, 30
social harmony and, 31
in social organism, 35
Socratic citizenship, 43
South Korea. See Korea
Steinberg, David, 213
Stepan, Alfred, 101
Stout, Jeffrey, 130
structural injustice, 172 sufficiency, 154, 155
super-citizenship, 87
Taiwan, pre-democratic authoritarian regimes in, 83–84
Tan, Sor-Hoon, 30–31, 43, 57, 90–91
li (ritual) for, 56–57, 111
Tang (sage-king), 78
Taylor, Charles, 53, 54, 215
A Theory of Justice (Rawls), 8, 104, 120–21 public reason in, 133
Index

Tibet, 111
Tocqueville, Alexis de, 14, 244 tong (sameness), 60–61
totalitarian communities, communitarianism
and, 54–55
transcendentalism, 44
trustworthiness, 90
public reason and, 148
Tu, Weiming, 45, 63, 256 tyranny of majority, 2

uri-responsibility
chong and, 207, 215–16, 226
as collective moral responsibility, 212–13, 222–26
depersonalization from, 214 ego and, 214–15
empathy and, 221
familialism and, 216–17
general will and, 219–22 interdependent self and, 214–15
social psychology of, 213–22

value pluralism, 104–10
civic liberalism and, 107
Confucianism and, 124–25
core tenets of, 103
Virolı, Maurizio, 151, 152 virtue ethics, 12
Confucianism and, 41, 121
familialism and, 139

virtue politics, 75–76
meritocratic elitism and, 76, 81
virtues. See specific virtues Wall, Steven, 129
Walzer, Michael, 156, 230, 234
Weber, Max, 102, 263
Weimar Republic, 14, 82
Wholin, Sheldon, 102
Williams, Bernard, 166–67
Wong, David, 140–41, 142

xiangyuan (one who wants to please others), 62 junzi compared to, 62–63
for Mencius, 62
xiao (filial piety), 65
Xiaojing (The Book of Filial Reverence), 65
Xunzi, 66, 67, 156, 256–57
Yang, Chang-soo, 240
Yao (sage-king), 78, 87–88, 147
Yi Yin (sage-minister), 78 Young, Iris Marion, 117, 171 social connection model for, 172 Youzi, 64, 68, 145, 248 yuan (resentment), 67
familialism and, 149–50
zhong (loyalty), 65