Contents

Acknowledgments

Introduction: From Sweet Home to Homeland

1. History and the Novel
   - The Way We Were(n’t)
   - American Icons
   - Anxieties and Influences

2. Regional Realism
   - Suburban Sprawls
   - Geographies and Genealogies
   - All-Americans

3. The Contemporary Political Novel
   - The American Berserk
   - American Activism, American Terrorism
   - Here, There, and Everywhere

4. The Novel and 9/11
   - Falling Men and Haunted Women
   - Speaking for/about/with/to Others
   - Mixed Media
Contents

5 Smooth Worlds
- Smooth Operators 122
- (New) New York, New York 125
- From Russia with Lyubov’yu 131
- Glocal Geographies 138

6 Borderlands and Border Identities 151
- Home(less) on the Range 154
- The Name Game 160
- The Late-Night Zeitgeist 171

7 Race Relations 179
- Houses Divided, Houses Burned 184
- The HooDoo That You Do So Well 191
- The Color Beige 199

Conclusion: Postscripts and Post-Postmodernism 208

Works Cited 223
Index 242