

INDEX

- Abstracts of the Record of the Civil and Commercial Affairs Customs Survey (Minshang shi xiguan diaocha baogao lu)* 59–61
- Accounts of India and China (Akhbar al-Sin wal-Hind)* (al-Tajir) 27, 47–49
- Agamben, Giorgio 17, 33, 38, 154, 175, 188, 261, 307, 317, 324, 338
- age for marriage 228–34
- ahong* (Ar. ākhūnd; Imam), see clerics
- Anglo-Muhammadan law in India 56
- anthropology
- Chinese law 15–30
 - ethics 26–27
 - Islam 26–27, 134, 175
- Arabic, education in 202–5, 206–17
- Arendt, Hannah 324
- Aristotle 175
- Asad, Talal 26, 66, 79, 134
- assimilation of ethnic minorities 71–72
- associational life 123–28
- autonomy
- custom-based regulations 71–75
 - early legislative history 69
 - ethnic 30–33, 114–15, 173
 - legal structure in China 68–70
 - Linxia under Communism 114–15
 - see also* ethnic autonomy
- awqāf* (sing. waqf), see pious endowments
- Bafang
- calling of the faithful 86–87
 - Communist administration 113–24
 - Eighteen Courtyards 87–88
 - Islamic community 92–93
 - population of 92–93, 116
 - residential patterns 92
 - social field in, and the state 128–29
 - urbanization 273–75
 - see also* Linxia
- Bafang Hui
- Bafanghua local dialect of 36–37, 87, 182
 - as a subset of Linxia Hui 87
- Bank of Ningxia (BON)
- China-Arab States Economic and Trade Forum 297–99
 - international community, engagement with 296–302
 - investment accounts 293
 - murābaha* 293
 - Ningxia 288–93
- Barnett, A. Doak 268–69, 271
- belief, religious v. state 75–79
- bell, justice 27
- Benton, Lauren 57
- bigamy 254–55
- birth control 116
- Bourdieu, Pierre 12, 195, 276, 278, 286
- Bourgon, Jérôme 57, 59, 64
- bridal gifts (Ch. pinli; pingjin, Ar. mahr) 148, 227, 234–38
- Bright Heart order 119, 131, 139, 146, 163, 178
- Bureau of Ethnic Affairs (BEA) 186, 315
- Bureau of Religious Affairs (BRA)
- and hajj administration 169
 - in Linxia city 337
 - orthodox and heterodox religions
 - identified by 12
 - qingzhen* (halal) licensing 345
 - and real property of religious groups 283
 - surveillance of student movements 188
 - surveillance of the minjian institution of scriptural hall education 185, 313
- Bureau of the Qadis (Huihui Hade Si) 49–50
- bureaucratization of clerics 310–17
- burial rites 157–62, 163
- charisma of clerics 308–9
- charismatic authority 78, 309

- charitable giving economic condition of Linxia 269–70
 ethics of gifting 276–81
 financing of mosques 266–67
 gift, freedom of the 275–76
 Hui business 267, 268
 international links 299–302
 language 278–79
 and the market economy 280–81
nietie (voluntary giving) 276–81
 pious endowments 281–88, 303–4 ṣadaqa 278
 sheep hide market 260–63, 265
 voluntary giving 276–81
waqf (pious endowment) 281–88, 303–4
- China
 as example of cooperation of Muslims and state law 6 Islamic law, revival of 8–15
 law in 27
- China-Arab States Economic and Trade Forum 297–99
- China Islamic Association (Zhongguo Yisilanjiao Xiehui, or Yi-Xie) aims and role of 81–82, 141
 Education Administration Guidance Committee (EAGC) 82–85
 Islamic Scriptural Institutes 176, 197–202
 licensing of clerics 311–13
- China's Little Mecca, Linxia as 1, 86–87
- Chinese-Arabic schools for girls
 Chinese-Arabic Girls' School established by Ma Zhixin 192–94, 196, 258
 Gedimu 234
 Qixi Private Girls' School (Sili Qixi Nüxiao) 189–91
- Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC) 313
- civil society 123–28
- Clarke, Morgan 26–27
- clash of civilizations thesis 5
- clerics
 authority of 310
 bureaucratization of 310–17
 Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC) 313
 community/Party-State balance 330–33
 finance industry, involvement in 294
 informalization of adjudication 325–33
 licensing of 311–13
 people's mediation committees (PMCs) 318–19
 role of 308–9
 state changes to role of 117
 state regulation of 186–87
 women as 224
see also dispute resolution processes
- colonialism 24, 56–57, 324
- commercial transactions
 price pinching 260–63
 sheep hide market 260–63, 265
 trust as basis of 210–1, 262–63
- Communism
 conflict with religious beliefs 12, 75, 78, 167–70
see also hajj; ritual lawfare
- Communist administration of Linxia 111–23
- Communist surveys of customs 64–66 conflicts between teaching schools, see ritual lawfare; teaching schools
- Confucianism
 and Hui resistance to Sinicization 21 integration of Muslim elite into Confucian bureaucracy 10 (see also Gedimu; Liu Zhi) Islam explained through Neo-Confucian cognates 28, 144 methods of self-cultivation 21, 27–28, 144, 184 (see also gongxiu)
- Constitution of the PRC 12, 69, 79, 114–15, 183
- corporal punishment 73
- Cultural Revolution 75
- custom
 categories for differentiating 59–61 Communist surveys 64–66
 ethnicization of 64–67
 Gansu Province 60–61
 and Islamic law 20–23
- customary law (xiguanfa)
 assimilation of ethnic minorities 71–72
 and autonomy 71–75
 defined 66
 for ethnic minorities 31–32
 Hui 31–32
 and the nation 58–64
 Republican period 58–59
 surveys of customs Communist 64–66
 Qing 54–57
 Republican 58–59
- customization of Islamic law 54–58
- al-dara* 27
- data collection for research 34–38
- death rituals 157–62, 163
- demographics
 Bafang 92
 Hui communities in Ningxia 289–90 per-capita income 242, 267, 290 population size of officially recognized Muslim Minority Ethnic groups 9 of teaching schools in Linxia 187
- Derrida, Jacques 43

INDEX

- devotional law 67
 dietary restrictions 21
 Ding Hong 222
 Ding Shiren 136
 dispute resolution processes authority of clerics 310
 bureaucratization of clerics 311–17
 charisma of clerics 309
 clerics, role of in the community 308–9 clerics' role in 306–8
 community/Party-State balance 330–33
 example mediator 320–21, 322–24
 formalization of mediation 308, 317–25
 forum shopping 336–37
 informalization of adjudication 308, 325–33
 KTV affair 330–32, 335–36
 mediation by clerics 310
 mediation procedure 321–22
 minjian/state spectrum 334–38
 people's mediation committees (PMCs) 318–19, 323–24
 police officer's presence at mediation 322 pyramid model 333
 state apparatuses 305–6
 state employment of clerics 319–20 disputes among teaching schools, see ritual lawfare; teaching schools
 divorce 241–47
 Duara, Prasenjit 349
 Durkheim, Émile 26, 167, 215, 305

 economic behavior, see moral economies Education Administration Guidance Committee (EAGC) 82–85 education
 Arabic language 202–5, 206–17 comparison of options 214–19
 desires of individual students 215–19
 ethical self, pursuit of 174–75
 ethnic schools 202–5, 216
 hijab wearing 194–95
 Islamic Scriptural Institutes 197–202, 215, 216
 private schools 189–97, 216
 scriptural hall education 101, 144, 174, 175–76, 177–85, 186, 187, 216
 secularization of 197–98, 203
 state institutions 197–205
 state regulation 185–89, 215
 students, state regulation of 187–88 educational organizations 123–28
 Egypt
 Ikhwan movement founded in 105–6
 Islamic educational institutions in 197–98
 Islamic law in 221
 Eighteen Courtyards 87–88, 99, 122, 128
 Ekvall, David P. 86–87, 98

 enemies, closeness of 5–6 energy, imports of 298
 ethical self, pursuit of 174–75
 ethics
 anthropology of 26–27
 Aristotelian ethics, Foucaultian ethics compared with 175
 in China 27–28
 of gifting 276–81
 ethnic autonomy
 Chinese model of 30–33
 early legislative history 68–69
 ethnic-minority customary law 31–32, 71–72 (see also customary law (xiguanfa))
 freedom of religion 79–80
 Law of the PRC on Regional Ethnic Autonomy (Zhonghua renmin gongheguo minzu quyue zizhifa) 79, 230
 second generation of ethnic policy debate 32
 see also sovereignty ethnic minorities (shaoshu minzu) assimilation 71–72
 internal/external movement of 206–7 mixture model 33
 policy toward 31–32
 socialist law and emancipation of women 226–27
 see also education; Hui ethnic schools (minzu xuexiao) 202–5 ethnicization of custom 64–67
 expropriation of religious property 119–23
 extraterritoriality 47–48

 family instructors, women as 192, 223 family law
 ceremonial ritual 227–28
 divorce 241–50
 dual track of state/Islam 238–40
 and female agency 220
 finance for marriages 234–38
 Hui marriage 227–28
 knowledge of, women's 255–57
 legal capacity for marriage 228–34
 limping marriage 238, 241, 255
 maintenance in marriage 237–38
 marriage-in-fact 249–50, 255
 matchmaking 227
 modesty, limits of 257–59
 nikāh 227–28, 238–40
 polygamy 250–57
 selection of partners 231–34
 socialist law 225–27
 state law and women's interests 247–50
 as a term for hunyingfa (“marriage law”) 220 family planning 116
 Fan Changjiang 86
 fatwas, EAGC-produced 84–85

- Fei Xiaotong 229, 268–69
female clerics (nū ahong)
 in the Central China 224
 in the Northwest 224–25
fiḍya (expiatory act for the recently deceased) 63, 133, 149
fieldwork for research 35–38
finance for marriages 234–38
finance industry, Islamic China-Arab States Economic and Trade Forum 297–99
 international community, engagement with 296–302
 investment accounts 293
 murābaha 293
 Ningxia 288–93
 savings accounts 293
 in a socialist banking system 293–95
fiqh and Hui 19
Five Pillars
 as gongxiu (meritorious self-cultivation, Ar.
 awrād) 178
 hajj (see hajj)
 for Hui cadres 29, 183 ‘ibādāt understood as the core of by the Gedimu 144
 and Muslim duty to study the aḥkāṃ [rules] of 183
 and the Neo-Confucian “five meritorious
 deeds” (wugong) 144
 and orthopraxy amongst Chinese Muslims 132
 zakat (obligatory alms) 29
 see also zakat (obligatory alms)
foreign direct investment 268
formalization of mediation 308, 317–25
Foucault, Michel 25, 175
Fourth Plenary Session 350–51
freedom of religion 12, 79–80
funerary practices 157–62, 163

Gansu Province 60–61, 72, 90, 242, 243, 268, 289, 290, 302–3, 325
Gao Qicai 66, 67, 72
Gedimu 101, 142–44, 159
 interpretations of the law 159
gender agency of Hui women with respect to Islamic law 220–21
 equality under state law 223, 226, 251–55, 257–58
 female education 189–91 (see also Chinese-Arabic schools for girls)
 patriarchy and women 222
 PRC reforms 223–24
 see also family law; female clerics (nū ahong);
 marriage; marriage laws; women gifting, see charitable giving Gillette, Maris 205
Gladney, Dru 21, 107, 154
global umma
 and global concerns 288
 and the Party-State’s administrative and legal structures, 7, 8, 20, 72 glorification
 Agamben’s concept of 38, 307, 338 of alternative legal orders not officially sanctioned by the state 317
 hollow forms of 353
Godelier, Maurice 155
gongxiu (meritorious self-cultivation, Ar. awrād),
 Five Pillars as 144, 160, 178
Goossaert, Vincent 78–79
governmentality 25
Great Western Development Policy 267–68, 271, 272

hadith tradition and shari’a 18
hajj
 and China’s religious revival 12 and the entry of reformist strains of Islam into the Northwest 168
 Party-State limits on 29, 133, 168–70
 Saudi government quota system 168–69
 transnational networks of Muslims 14–15, 76–77
 welcoming back ceremony for hajjis from Mecca, 152–53
halal (qingzhen)
 food production 77, 297
 interethnic boundary maintenance 348
 and the Islamic revival 12 and Linxia commerce 272
 local regulation 345
 restaurants in Bafang 92
 and transnational trade and networking 77, 297
Halevi, Leor 158
Hallaq, Wael B. 45
Hanafi school 28
 branches of jurisprudence (see ‘ibādāt (acts of devotion); mu’āmalāt (laws of social relations))
 bridal gifts 235
 founder Imam Abu Hanifa 6, 236
 legal capacity for marriage 228
 obligations under ibādāt 67
Hanbali school 107, 108, 136, 152, 183
Hansen, Valerie 97
Hao Shiyuan 32
harmony discourse 306

INDEX

- Hart, Henry 333
 Haykel, Bernard 151
 Hefner, Robert 197
 Hezhou. see Linxia
 Index
 hijab wearing 194–95
Historical Record of China's Islamic Teaching School and Sufi Order System, A (Zhongguo Yisilanjiao jiaopai yu menhuan zhidu shilü) of Ma Tong 139–41
 history of Islamic law in China
 Bureau of the Qadis 49
 family matters, narrowing of to 49
 foundations 43–46
 Hui, emergence of 49
 imperial period 46–53
 Ming Dynasty 50
 qadis 49–50, 51, 52
 Qing Dynasty 50, 51–53
 Salars 51
 social relations, laws of 63
 Song Dynasty 47
 Tang Dynasty 46–48
 Turkic Muslim communities 50–51
 Yuan Dynasty 49
 homegrown terrorism 5–6
 homes as places of learning 192, 223
 Hu Jintao 84, 297
 Huang, Philip C.C. 317
 Hui
 as Arabic translators in Yiwu 207–14
 Communist surveys of 64–66
 desires of individual students 215–19 emergence of 49
 fiqh for 19
 individual believers, law interpretation
 by 165–66
 as lumped together with Uyghurs 15 moral economy 268
 nikāḥ 227–28
 population in China 9, 10–11
 Qing Dynasty 51–53
 residential patterns in Linxia 92, 98 shadow economies 302–4
 shari'a for 18–19
 teaching schools, importance of 135
 toleration and Islamic law 347–49
 use of term 10
 see also dispute resolution processes; Linxia;
 moral economies
 Hui social field charities (see charitable giving; gifting; pious endowments)
 defined 24
 and Moore's "semi-autonomous social field" 23–24, 88
 Qing period self-governing mosque communities 100
 and the relationship between Party-State law and local Islamic law 24
 see also Eighteen Courtyards; minjian; moral economies; virtual communities of Chinese Muslims
 'ibādāt (acts of devotion)
 as the basis for interpretations of the law 146, 160
 and the Neo-Confucian "five meritorious
 deeds" (wugong) 144
 pork taboo 21
 and ritual lawfare 133, 134 (see also ritual lawfare)
 see also hajj
ijmā' (consensus) 18, 143, 155, 156
 Ikhwan movement and Salafism 107
 Yihewani and Wahhabi distinguished from 105–6
 Imams, see clerics
 imperial period in China 46–53
 imperialism 24
 incense burning, conflict over 130–31
 India, Anglo-Muhammadan law in 56
 informalization of adjudication 308, 325–33
 information sources on history 93 international Islamic connections outside China 14–15, 76–77, 207–14, 219, 296–302
 investment accounts 293
 Islam
 belief, religious v. state 75–79
 international connections outside China 14–15, 76–77, 207–14, 296–302
 state shaping of 80 Islamic ethics ethics of giving 276–81 (see also charitable giving; gifting; pious endowments) Islamic law
 absence of institutional recognition 343 applicability to different groups 29
 Bureau of the Qadis 49–50
 under colonialism 56–57
 customization 54–58
 debate over in China 342
 definition 18–19, 44, 49, 62
 dual track with state law 4, 238–40 EAGC-produced 84–85
 foundations of in China 43–46
 Gedimu approach to 142–44, 159
 Hui term for 16
 imperial period in China 46–53
 individual believers, interpretation
 by 163–67
 as 'law' 16
 and local custom 20–23
 as matter of religious belief 20

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-05337-3 - China and Islam: The Prophet, the Party, and Law

Matthew S. Erie

Index

More information

INDEX

- Ming Dynasty 50
 qadis 49–50, 51
 Qing Dynasty 50, 51–53
 restricted lawmaking capacity in autonomous areas 72 revival in China 8–15
 Salafiyya approach to 151–54, 159
 Salars 51
 social relations (mu'āmalāt) 63
 Song Dynasty 47
 and state law, relationship between 45
 state reinterpretation of 73
 Tang Dynasty 46–48
 teaching schools' interpretation/orientation toward 142–56, 159
 textual authorities, differences in 154–55
 and toleration 347–49
 Turkish Muslim communities 50–51
 Xidaotang conception of 147–8, 159
 Yihewani approach to 148–51, 159
 Yuan Dynasty 48–49
see also jiaofa (religious law)
- Islamic resource center (IRC) 125–26, 127, 227, 234
- Islamic revival in China finance (see banking services; finance for marriages; moral economies; New Silk Road; pious endowments) halal industries 12 (see also halal (qingzhen)) and liberalization of religious policy 30–31, 76
 and the Tablighi Jama'at 110, 166
 and “the working out of policies” (luoshi zhengce) 121–22
- Islamic Scriptural Institutes 197–202
- Islamophobia 341–42
- Israeli, Raphael 174
- Jahriyya 52, 101–2, 103–5, 136, 146
- Jaschok, Maria 238–39
- jiaofa* (religious law)
 and guofa (state law) 3 and informal adjudication by Muslim clerics 3
 not recognized under PRC law 16 and teaching schools 136–37
- justice bell 27
- Khufiyya 93, 102, 103
- khuwāja* (religious leaders)
 ‘Abd Allah (Ch. Huazhe Erbudonglaxi) 102
 Afaq (Ch. Haidaye Tonglahai) 101, 102
 Party-State view of brutality of 73
- KTV affair 330–32, 335–36
- KTVs (karaoke bars)
 in Linxia 330
 and prostitution 331
- Kuqa Qingzhen Grand Mosque,
 Xinjiang 72–74
- Kuran, Timur 303
- Lacan, Jacques 174
- Laidlaw, James 26, 27, 29, 164, 170, 175, 218
- land holdings of mosques and shrines 60–61
- language
 Arabic, education in 202–5, 206–14
 in Bafang 87
 charitable giving, terms for 278–79
 law in China 27
- legal capacity for marriage 228–34
- Legal Process: Basic Problems in the Making and Application of Law, The* (Hart) 333
- legal reforms
 Qing Dynasty 54–58
 Republican period 58–59
- legal system
 and autonomy 68–70
 in China 68–69
- Liang Zhiping 57, 351
- liberalization of religious policy 76
- licensing of clerics 311–13
- lightning incident 162–63
- limping marriage 238, 241, 255
- Lintan County (formerly Taozhou)
 as the base of the Xidaotang, 103, 147
 local marriage customs 61
 Tang-period trade with Tibet 95
 tea-horse trade 95
- Linxia City
 as China's Little Mecca 1 city, prefecture, and county distinguished 89
 ethnic population of 90–91
 fiscal revenues 272
 former name 1
 historical sources 93
 Islamization of 97–100
 isolation of Linxia Muslims from the New Silk Road 113
- KTV affair 330–32, 335–36
- Muslim Public Cemetery 158, 161, 162
- Party-State administration of 39, 112, 113, 123
- Party-State encouragement of Hui youth migration to the southeastern coast 205, 207
- Silk Road commerce in 1, 88, 97, 113, 265
- urbanization 272–75
- Wenzhou compared with 268
- Yiwu comparison with 211
see also Bafang; Hui
- Linxia Hui Autonomous Prefecture
 Autonomous Regulations passed by 30, 114–15, 230

INDEX

- Linxia Hui Autonomous Prefecture (cont.)
 Linxia Prefecture People's Government
 230, 235
 Vocational Technical School 213
 Lipman, Jonathan 11, 138
 Liu Zhi 144, 179–81
 local custom and Islamic law 20–23
- Ma Bufang
 and Chiang Kai-shek 106
 “old style ten great imams” (laoshi shi da yimamu) 108 qadis replaced by appointees 51
 uncle Ma Lin 107
- Ma Buqing 106–7
- Ma Debao 107–8, 109–10, 153–54
- Ma family warlords
 and Communism 111, 114, 317 Hezhou Three Mas 87 (see also Ma Haiyan; Ma Zhan'ao)
 Hui Sufi masters in Linxia and Ningxia 103
 Linxia as birthplace of 88
 surname Ma 103
- Ma Haiyan
 Linxia lineage established by 103, 105
see also Ma Bufang; Ma Buqing; Ma Qi
- Ma Laichi
 Khufiyya Glory Mosque founded
 by 101
 opposition to 101–2
- Ma Mingxin 101–2
- Ma Qi 105, 106
- Ma Qixi 102–3
 Qixi Private Girls' School (Sili Qixi Nūxiao) 189–91
wuma (Ar. umma) concept of 147
 Xidaotang founded by 147
- Ma Rong 32
- Ma Tingxiang 87, 124
see also Eighteen Courtyards
- Ma Tong 139–41
- Ma Wanfu 105–6, 149–50
 ten-point plan of reform 149–50
 Yihewani founded by 105
- Ma Wenlong 198
- Ma Zhan'ao 103–5
- Ma Zhengqing 107, 109–10, 153–54
- Ma Zhixin, Chinese-Arabic Girls' School established by 192
- MacInnis, Donald E. 79
- Mahmood, Saba 220–21
mahr, see bridal gifts
- maintenance in marriage 237–38
- Mao Zedong 13, 69, 75, 318–19
- market economy 280–81
- marriage
 age of young couples 229–30, 231 differences in contemporary urban and rural practices 229–30, 232
 divorce 241–50
 endogamy 232
 interethnic 232–33
 legality (see marriage law)
nikāḥ (bridal gift, Ar. mahr) 227–28, 238–40
 polygamy 250–57
 “taboo against marrying women out” (funū waijia jinji) 21, 232 temporary marriage (mut'ā) 63
 Xidaotang “silver flower” tradition 148, 149
- marriage law
 and female education 234
 and freedom to marry (hunyin ziyou) 233
 legal minimum age 230–31
 limping marriage 238, 241, 255
 public awareness campaigns 231
 sixtieth anniversary of state law 231 using the scripture to replace the witness to a wedding 61
- matchmaking 227
- Mauss, Marcel 266, 278, 279
- mediation
 by clerics 310
 defined 306
 formalization of 308, 317–25
 people's mediation committees (PMCs) 318–25
 procedure for 321–22
 methodology for research 34–38
- Ming Dynasty 10, 50, 95, 97, 98, 136, 155, 224, 265
- minjian*
 defined 12–13
 as middle ground 343–44
 Party-State approaches to 344–47
 “popular mediation” (minjian tiaojie) 318, 326–27
 “popular or unofficial diplomacy” (minjian waijiao) 296
 and the state 13–14
 and “unofficial or unregistered organization” (minjian zuzhi) 127
see also minjianfa (popular law)
- minjian law* (popular law) 14, 32, 57
- minzu*, use of term 59–60
- modesty, limits of 257–59
- Moore, Sally Falk 23–25, 88, 171
- moral economies
 concept of 263
nietie (voluntary giving) 276–81
 price pinching 260–63
 private enterprise in Linxia 271–72
 shadow economies 302–4
 sheep hide market 260–63

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-05337-3 - China and Islam: The Prophet, the Party, and Law

Matthew S. Erie

Index

More information

INDEX

- taxes 272
waqf (pious endowments) 281–88, 303–4
- mosques
 administration, state changes to 117–18
 expropriation of 119–23
 financing of 266–67
 financing of mosques 266–67
 local rules and regulations system in 99–100
nietie (voluntary giving) 276–81
 scriptural hall education 177–85
 state regulation 185–89
 three clerics system 99–100
 women as clerics 224
- murābaha* 293–95
murshid 101–2, 103, 118–19
 Muslims in China, population of 8–10
- Nader, Laura 306, 318
 Nedostup, Rebecca 63–64, 78
 New Silk Road 77, 113, 206–14
nietie (voluntary giving) 103, 225, 268, 275–81, 283, 284–85, 286
nikāh (bridal gift, Ar. mahr) 227–28, 239–40
- Ningxia
 as center of trade 296–302
 halal food production 77, 297
 Hui population 289–90
 international community, engagement with 288–302
 see also Bank of Ningxia
- Northwest China
 map xviii
 see also Gansu Province; Qinghai Province
- obligatory alms (zakat), see zakat (obligatory alms)
- Ono, Kazuko 241
- Palmer, David A. 78–79, 137, 138
 Parish, William L. 225–26, 229
- Party-State
 appropriation of religious symbols 78–79
 belief, religious v. state 75–79
 bureaucratization of clerics 310–17
 clerics, reliance on 78
 clerics and shaykhs, changes to role of 117 conflicting demands with teaching schools 167–70 and customary law 58–64, 67
 definition 78–9
 dispute resolution processes 305–8
 education 175–76
 educational institutions 198–205 emancipation of women and girls 225–27
 expropriation of religious property 119–23
 Islamic finance 288–95
 liberalization of religious policy 76
 licensing of clerics 311–13
 mosque administration, changes to 117–18 mosques, regulation of 185–89
 reinterpretation of Islamic law 73–4
 sacralization of 78–79
 sanctification of religion by 14
 as source of rights 30–31
 state/minjian spectrum 334–38
 students of Islam, regulation of 187–88 Sufi order succession, control over 118–19 tax reforms 272
 teaching schools, regulation of 185–89
 urbanization 120
 welfare and services 116
- patriarchy
 in the Northwest 222–25
 Party-State 223
 socialist law and emancipation of women 225–27
 teaching schools 223
- people's mediation committees (PMCs) 41, 318–25, 343
- People's Republic of China constitution (see Constitution of the PRC) government (see Party-State)
 New Silk Road 77, 113, 206–14
 philanthropic organizations 123–28
- pious endowments (awqāf, sing. waqf) 281–88, 303–4
 and the absence of a record for debt customs 60 and socialist property rights 75, 115, 268, 281–88 and the state economy 265
 storefront awqāf (puzi waqefu) 284–85 and Sufi tomb complexes (gongbei) 60, 103 see also voluntary giving
- political religiosity 78–79
- polygamy 250–57
- popular law see minjian law
- population
 Linxia 90–91
 Muslims in China 9–10
- pork taboo 21
- price pinching 260–63
- private enterprise in Linxia 271–72
- private schools (minban xuexiao) 189–97
- property rights and pious endowments (awqāf, sing. waqf) 281–88 (see also voluntary giving)
- PRC property law 282
- Tang dynasty legal restrictions on foreign Muslims 46–47
- unofficial Hui rights 303–4
- women's lack of 251

INDEX

- prostitution
 in Bafang 92
 in Linxia 92 (see also KTV affair)
 in Yiwu 213–14
- prostration to Sufi master 130
- purdah 110
- pyramid model of legal order 333
- qadihana*, Xinjiang 72–74
- Qadiriyya Grand Tomb Complex 93, 102, 121, 120–31, 177, 280, 315–16
- Qadiriyya mosques in Bafang 93
- qadis
 Bureau of the Qadis 49–50
 cleric as proxy to 309
 mausoleum, Jiezi Mosque 51–52
 Salars 51
- Qi Jingyi 102
- Qing governance
 anti-Qing rebellions 88, 112, 145
 corporal punishment 74
 and customary law (xiguanfa) 54–58
 customs survey as a source for 54–58 Great Qing Law Code 50, 52–53, 54, 57 indirect rule 50
 legal institutions 50
 and modern sovereignty 44
 and the retardation of Hui legal institutions 51 “using the Hui to control the Hui” (yi Hui zhi Hui) 105, 316 Xinjiang incorporated into 9
- Qinghai Province
The Compilation of Qinghai Hui Survey Materials 65
 Hui not empowered to enforce customary law in 72
 Qinghai-Tibet railroad 270
 sheep hide trade 260
 Xunhua Salar Autonomous County 35
- Qixi Private Girls’ School (Sili Qixi Nūxiao) 189–91
- qiya’s* 143, 155–56
- Qur’an
 banning of interest 264
 on bridal gifts (mahr) and the right to receive maintenance (nafaqa) 234–38 and fiḍya (expiatory act for the recently deceased) 39, 63, 149 and fiqh (“understanding”) 8, 19, 23, 160 passages paired with PRC regulations on the wall of Nasim’s office 2 and the sunna as the basis of shari‘a 18, 143
 on usury 260
 verse favoured by the Yi-Xie 83–84 written contracts encouraged in 263 see also funerary practices
- Qur’anic interpretation ritual difference 156
 ten-point plan of reform 149–50
see also Education Administration Guidance Committee (EAGC)
- Ramadan 29
- Record of the Civil and Commercial Affairs Customs Survey (Minshang shi xiguan diaocha lu)* 59–60
- red-headed documents 80, 167–68
- reforms
 Qing Dynasty 54–58
 Republican period 58–59
- religious law, see Islamic law
- reports on ethnic minorities (minzu) in Gansu 65–66
- Republican era
 customary law (xiguanfa) 58–59
 customs surveys 58–59 policy toward religion 63–64
 qadis service 51
- residential patterns of Hui 92, 98
- rights, state as source of 30–31
- ritual lawfare
 burial rites 157–62, 163
 center of Islam, connection with 155
 and debate by members of Hui communities 131, 133, 137
 defined 133
 Gedimu approach to law 142–44, 159
 individual believers, impact of 163–67
 law, interpretation/orientation toward 142–56, 159
 lightning incident 162–63
 new teaching schools due to 162–63
 Party-State engagement with 132–33, 141, 155–56
 regulation as increasing importance 133
 Salafiyya approach to law 151–54, 159
 scriptural debate for dispute resolution 131
 sectarianism 137–38
 Sufi orientation toward law 147–48, 159
 textual authorities, differences in 154–55
 violence, reasons for 156–57
 Xidaotang conception of law 144–47, 159
 Yihewani approach to law 148–51, 159
see also teaching schools
- Roberts, Simon 320
- Room, the 126–27
- Rosen, Lawrence 211, 278
- Russian Empire
 adat-oriented colonial law in Turkestan 87
 tsarist state backing of mullas 49
- sacralization of the state 78–79
sadaqa 278–79, 281, 300

INDEX

- Salafiyya 107–10, 151–54, 159
 bridal gifts 234–38
 and the doctrine of tawhīd (oneness of God) 153 founders of the Chinese version of (see Ma Debao; Ma Zhengqing) Habibullah (Muhammad Habib Allah, Ch. Huzhandi) 107–8 and the Hanbali school 107–8, 136, 152
 and the Ikhwan movement 107
 interpretations of the law 159
 mosques in Bafang 108–10
 neoconservative ideology of 107
 New Wang Mosque 153 political system of ethnic autonomy as problematic for 154
- Salars 51
 customary law identified in The Compilation of Gansu Hui Survey Materials and The Compilation of Qinghai Hui Survey Material 65
 population in China 9
 population in Linxia City 91
 and the term samin 60
 in Xunhua Salar Autonomous County in Qinghai 35
- Sangren, Steven 316
- Schmitt, Carl 38, 79
- schools, see education; teaching schools
- Scott, James 263
- scriptural hall education 101, 144, 174, 175–76, 177–85, 186, 187, 201, 216
- second generation of ethnic policy 32
- sectarianism between teaching schools 137–38
- secularization
 agent of 45
 Party-State approach to Islamic law 45 and Party-State monitoring of Muslim organizations 345 (see also charismatic authority) in the Republican period 51 of sacred space 121 (see also ritual lawfare, Party-State engagement with) Weber on 205, 350–51
- self-government, see ethnic autonomy
- semi-autonomous social field 24, 88
- sermons, EAGC produced 83–84
- shadow economies 302–4
- Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) 82, 206
- Sharh al-Wiqaya* (Ch. Weidaojing or Weigaye) of 126, 179
- shari'a
 distinguished from fiqh in Hui Islamic law 419 ethical dimensions of 26, 27, 28
- Hui transliterations of 17
 irrational fears in many Western societies concerning 341–42 sayings (see hadith tradition)
 secondary sources (see ijmā' (consensus); qiyās (analogies))
- sheep hide market 260–63, 265
- Shui, Jingjun 238–39
- Silk Road
 International Symposium on Cultural Exchange between China and the West under Zheng He 296–97
 Linxia City as commercial center 95–97 maritime 10, 46, 289
 New Silk Road 77, 113, 206–14
- Skinner, G. William 270–71
- social field
 Hui 24–26, 29–30, 88
 semi-autonomous 24
- social relations, (mu'āmalāt), laws of 63, 67
- Song Dynasty 47
- sovereignty
 and the authority of the Chinese emperor 44 restricted lawmaking capacity in autonomous and sub-AR autonomous areas 70, 72 see also ethnic autonomy; Party-State
- state law, see Party-State
- Steinmüller, Hans 240
- students of Islam, state regulation of 187–88
- substantive law and the dual track of state law and Islamic law 23
 and guidance by EAGC publications 83
- Sufi orientation toward law 159
- Sufi tomb complexes (gongbei) explained 6, 177
 of Khwaja Afaq (Ch. Haidaye Tonglahai) 101
 pious endowments (awqāf, sing. waqf) 60, 103
- Sufis
 Bright Heart order 119, 131, 139, 146, 163
 interpretations of the law 159
 Khufiyya 102
 Naqshbandi order 9
 path-based (tarīqa) interpretations of the law 144–46 path established by Xining master in Linxia in 2009 166 political activities of leaders 314
 shrines (see Sufi tomb complexes (gongbei))
- Sugawara, Jun 50
- Sunni schools of jurisprudence
 Hanbali fiqh of 183
 Salafiyya rejection of 107
 see also Hanafi school; Hanbali school

INDEX

- surveys of customs Communist 64–66
 Qing court 54–57
 Republican period 58–59
System 139–41, see A Historical Record of China's Islamic Teaching School and Sufi Order System (Zhongguo Yisilanjiao jiaopai yu menhuan zhidu shilue) of Ma Tong
- Tablighi Jama'at 110
tahāra (purity) 21, 133, 144
 al-Tajir, Sulayman 27, 47–48
 Tang Dynasty
 foreigners and the Tang Code 48
 legal restrictions on foreign Muslims 46–47 Persian and Arab ancestors of the Hui 10 trade with Tibet via Linxia and Lintan 95
see also Silk Road
- taxes in Linxia 272
 tea-horse trade in Linxia 95–97
 teaching schools 22
 approaches to law 142–47, 148–54, 159
 burial rites 157–62
 center of Islam, connection with 155
 classification of 138–42
 conflicting demands with the Party 167–70
 'correct' law in Bafang 88
Historical Record of China's Islamic Teaching School and Sufi Order System, A (Ma Tong) 139–41 importance of for Bafang Hui 135
 individual believers, impact of 163–67
 law, interpretation/orientation toward 142–56, 159
 localization of doctrine 136–37
 scriptural debate for dispute resolution 131
 scriptural hall education 177–85
 sectarianism 137–38
 state regulation 185–89
 trends impacting monopoly of 166–67
see also ritual lawfare
- textual authorities, differences in 154–55
 Thompson, E.P. 263, 292, 341
 three clerics system 99–100
Tianfang Dianli (Liu Zhi) 28, 144
 Tibetans
 as consumers of qingzhen (halal) food 92
 as fanmin ("foreign peoples") in Gansu Province government reports 60 monastic centers of Labrang and Tsod 97 Muslim converts 103, 251
 toleration and Islamic law 347–49
 tomb complexes, see Sufi tomb complexes (gongbei)
- trade relations outside China 76–77
 trust as basis of transactions 262–63
 Turkey 198
 Turkic Muslim communities 50–51
- umma*
 concept of Ma Qixi 147
 diverse concepts united by the Yi-Xie 141
 and global concerns (see global umma)
- United Front Work Department (UFWD) 111, 121, 139, 311, 331
- United States
 Bush administration outlawing of the East Turkestan Islamic Movement 82 domestication of neofundamentalist strains of Islam 5–6 oil consumption compared with China's 298
 shari'a in 22
 urbanization 272–75
- 'urf (lit. "what is known," or custom) 20–1, 63
- Uyghurs
 anti-state violence associated with 2, 82, 127–28 divorce rate in Xinjiang 242–43
 Hui distinguished from 8–9 interethnic riots in 2009 2, 15, 32, 34, 35, 76, 128, 176, 194, 270 kings 9
 population in China 9
qadihana ("house of qadi") 50 (see also Bureau of the Qadis (Huihui Hade Si)) Sunni ("other than Sufis") identity 9
- value pluralism, Laidlaw's concept of 170, 240
 veils 110, 194–95
- virtual communities of Chinese Muslims
 new media mobilized to spread school interpretations 155 online dating 234
 Party-State censorship of charismatic religious leaders 317 propaganda campaigns on marriage law 231
- voluntary giving and Hui moral economy 265, 268, 275–81
 and PRC property rights 287–88 and Sufi order land holdings 103
- Wahhabism 105–6
waqf (pious endowment) 281–88, 303–4
- Weber, Max
 on the charisma of authority 309
 law defined by coercive violence 16, 345 theory of rationalization of law 83, 310–11, 350
- wedding law, see marriage law
- Whyte, Martin King 225–26, 229
- women
 as clerics 224
 divorce 241–47
 dual track with state/Islamic law 238–40
 education of 189–91
 as family instructors 192, 223
 finance for marriages 234–38

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-05337-3 - China and Islam: The Prophet, the Party, and Law

Matthew S. Erie

Index

More information

INDEX

- knowledge of law and rights 255–57
 patriarchy in the Northwest 224–25
 polygamy 250–57
 socialist law and emancipation of 225–27
 as translators in Yiwu 213–14
umma 103, 147
- Xi Jinping (general secretary and president of the CCP) 206, 352
- Xidaotang
 interpretations of the law 147–48, 159, 191
 Lintan County as base of 102–3 (see also Lintan County (formerly Taozhou)) Linxia's first Xidaotang mosque 166 and Liu Zhi's Neo-Confucian ethics 179 and Ma Qixi's concept of umma (Ar. umma) 103, 147–48 and Ma Tong's System 140
 Qixi Private Girls' School (Sili Qixi Nüxiao) 189–91
xiguanfa, see customary law
- Xinjiang
 high rate of divorce in 242–43
 interethnic riots (2009) 2, 15, 32, 34, 35, 76, 128, 176, 194, 270
- Yeh, Emily 301
- Yi-Xie, see China Islamic Association (Zhongguo Yisilanjiao Xiehui, or Yi-Xie)
- Yihewani
 (al-Ikhwan al-Muslimun; Muslim Brotherhood) 103–7, 148–51, 159
 bridal gifts 237
 critique of intercession and “saint worship” 111
 on fiḍya (expiatory act for the recently deceased) 149
 interpretations of the law 16, 159
 lightning incident 162–63
 mosques in Bafang 92–3, 107
 scriptural return 148–51
 Yihewani private schools, see teaching schools
- Yisilanfa, see Islamic Law
- Yiwu 207–14
 as destination for Hui translators 196, 205 international commerce 14, 77, 207–8 Linxia compared with 211, 269
 prostitution in 213–14
 Yuan Dynasty 46, 49, 50, 60, 98
Yuehua (newspaper) 125–26
- zakat (obligatory alms) 23, 29, 103, 149, 264, 276, 280
- Zhang Haiyang 70
- Zhongguo Yisilanjiao Xiehui, see China Islamic Association
- Zhu Suli 32, 306
- zizhi*, see autonomy, ethnic