

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-05963-4 - Nietzsche's Naturalism: Philosophy and the Life Sciences in
the Nineteenth Century

Christian J. Emden

Table of Contents

More informationContents

Acknowledgments	page vii
Nietzsche's writings	ix
Introduction	I
PART I VARIETIES OF PHILOSOPHICAL NATURALISM
1 Introduction	13
2 The neo-Kantian stance	20
3 Nietzsche's "anti-Darwinism"?	34
4 Psychology, experiment, and scientific practice	49
5 Three kinds of naturalism	60
PART II EVOLUTION AND THE LIMITS OF TELEOLOGY
6 Introduction	77
7 Problems with purpose	83
8 The politics of progress	95
9 Naturalizing Kant	101
10 Genealogy and path dependence	125
PART III GENEALOGY, NATURE, AND NORMATIVITY
11 Introduction	145
12 "Darwinism's" metaphysical mistake	147

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-05963-4 - Nietzsche's Naturalism: Philosophy and the Life Sciences in
the Nineteenth Century

Christian J. Emden

Table of Contents

More information

vi	Contents
13	Living things and the will to power	167
14	Toward a natural history of normativity	184
15	“Naturalism in morality”	204
	Bibliography	215
	Index	241