

Index

- Abyssinian Empire. See Ethiopia
 “Age of the European Concert,” 125–156
 Alexander II (Czar), 114
 Amari, Giuseppe Carnazza, 120–121
 American Society of International Law, 140
 Annan, Kofi, 6
 anti-colonialism, humanitarian interventions as international response to, 154–155
   by European Great Powers, 156
   by U.S., 155
 Arntz, Egide, 17, 70, 96–97, 111–114
   on humanitarian interventions in civilised nations, 125
 association. See “Gesellschaft” Austria
   on Greek War of Independence, 52–53, 56

 The Balkans. See First Balkan War; Second Balkan War
 The Balkan Crisis. See Great Balkan Crisis
 Bangladesh Liberation War, 228–229
 barbarism
   civilisation and
   definition of, 25
   international law as separation between, 38
   Greek War of Independence as clash against civilisation, 70–72
 Belgium, in Congo, 129–130, 214–218. See also Congo
   withdrawal of troops from, 215–217
 Bentwich, Norman, 180–181
 Berber, Friedrich, 189–190
 Berlin Conference of 1885, 129
 Berlin Congress of 1878/Berlin Treaty of 1878, 105–106, 114–116, 129
   Macedonian interventions under, 150

 “Oriental Question” and, 81–106
   protection of religious minorities under, 115–116
 Bernheim, Franz, 181–182
 Bernheim Petition, 181–182
 Biafra, war in, 103
   Ibos in, 223–224
   international response to, 224
 Bilfinger, Carl, 189
 Biondich, Mark, 110–111
 Bloxham, Donald, 156, 204
 Bluntschli, Johann Caspar, 83, 97–100, 114–115
 Bockhoff, Ernst, 193
 Boxer Rebellion, 144–148
   European Great Powers’ role in, 116–146
   foundations of, 145–146
   “Hun Speech” and, 147–148
 Brierly, James L., 209
 Brownlie, Ian, 211
 Brussels Conference of 1890, 129–130

 Cambodia, Vietnamese intervention in, 238–239
 Cassin, René, 202
 Charter of the United Nations (UN Charter), 206–207
   humanitarian intervention under, 207–221. See also Congo; Israel
   early interpretations of, 207–212
   for Egyptian military forces in Israel, 212–213
   in literary works, 207–212
   sovereign equality in, 208
   as state practice, 212–221
 Chesterman, Simon, 153, 218, 232
 China, 127–128
   Boxer Rebellion in, 144–148
   European Great Powers’ role in, 116–146

- China (cont.)
  - foundations of, 145–146
  - “Hun Speech” and, 147–148
- Chios, massacre at, 50
- “Christian” nations
  - in Greek War of Independence, 46
  - Ottoman Empire and, 46–47
  - Law of Nations and, 46
- Christians
  - in Crete civil war, conflict with Muslims, 101
  - natural law and, 24–25
- civilisation
  - barbarism and
    - in definition, of civilisation, 25
    - international law as separation between, 38
  - Greek War of Independence as clash against barbarism, 70–72
- civilised nations
  - Arntz on, 125
  - humanitarian interventions in, 125
  - international law in, 10–11, 81–128
    - definition of, 25
    - during 19th century, 26–27
    - for humanitarian interventions, 124–130
    - non-intervention principle in, 121–122
  - in League of Nations, 165–166
  - “standard of ‘civilization’” argument in, 126–128
- classic international law, 22, 60–62
  - after World War II, conflict with contemporary approaches to, 185, 187
- colonialism. See also anti-colonialism
  - humanitarian intervention as, 31
- common values, in international law, 26
- community. See “Gemeinschaft”
- Congo, Republic of the
  - Belgian rule over, 129–130
    - withdrawal of troops, 215–217
  - humanitarian intervention in, as state practice, 214–218
    - African protests against, 217
    - international response to, 214–215
    - Stanleyville Operation, 218
    - by UN Security Council, 215–218
  - Soviet Union in, 216
- Congress of Troppau, 56–57
- Convention for the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (Genocide Convention), 28–29, 205
- Creasy, Edward S., 122–123
- “the Cretan Question,” 102
- Crete, 1866 civil war in, 101–105
  - “the Cretan Question,” 102
- European Great Powers’ intervention in, 102–105
  - under Paris Treaty of 1856, 102
- Ottoman Empire and, 101–102
  - outcome as victory for, 104–105
  - from religious conflict, between Christians and Muslims, 101
- “Crime Against Humanity,” conceptual development of, 155–156
- Crimean War, 83
- Cuba, U.S. interventions in, 130–131. See also Spanish-American War of 1898
  - under Drago-Porter Convention of 1907, 130
  - European Great Powers’ involvement in, 134
  - as humanitarian intervention, 135, 138–143
    - humanitarian elements of, 141
  - independence movements in, 131–132, 137–138
    - after Platt amendment, 137
  - international context for, 131–138
  - under international law, 138–141
  - reconcentración policy in, 8, 133
- Czechoslovakia, German occupation of, 176–179
  - under Munich Agreement, 178
- Dacey, A. V., 162–163
- Diner, Dan, 29
- Disraeli, Benjamin, 109
- Dominican Republic, U.S. intervention in, 219–221
  - ICISS and, 221
  - Soviet Union and, 220–221
- Drago Doctrine, 76–77
- Drago-Porter Convention of 1907, 130
- East Pakistan, humanitarian intervention in, India
  - in, military use of force by, 229–234
  - international reaction and response to, 230–231
    - mass violence as result of, 231
    - refugee crisis as result of, 231–232
  - Soviet Union in, 232–233
- Egypt
  - in Arab-Israeli war, 212–213
  - military incursion into Israel, 212–213
- Elements of International Law* (Wheaton), 65–67, 90
- Erler, Georg, 189, 201
- Ethiopia, Italian colonisation of, 176–177
- ethnic cleansing
  - during Great Balkans Crisis, 113
  - international law and, 2
- “Ethnic Germans,” 193–194, 196–197

- Europe. See also Kingdom of the Two Sicilies; specific countries
 as ideological space, 24–25
 laws of nature and nations in, 21–25
- European Great Powers. See also Kingdom of the Two Sicilies; specific countries
 during “Age of the European Concert,” 125–156
 Armenian genocide and, official response to, 156
 in Boxer Rebellion, 116–146
 Great Balkans Crisis and, 118
   humanitarian intervention by, 106
   protection of religious minorities during, 116–117
 in Greek War of Independence. See Greek War of Independence international law through
   for humanitarian interventions, 32–34
   in Latin America, 120
 intervention in Crete civil war, 102–105
   under Paris Treaty of 1856, 102
 in Lebanon intervention, in 1860, 87–88, 91
 in Macedonian interventions, 149
 McKinley and, 134
 in Poland, intervention in 1863 uprising, 100–101
 Europeanisation, humanitarian intervention as, 6
- Farer, Tom, 39, 226–227
 Feinberg, Nathan, 161, 181–182
 Fenwick, Charles, 209–210
 Fiore, Pasquale, 156–158
 First Balkan War, 151–152
 Fischer, Joschka, 236–237
- France
   in Algeria, 163
   Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen, 228
   in Greek War of Independence, 54–55
   international law in, non-intervention principle in, 121–122
   in Kingdom of the Two Sicilies, 79–81
   in Lebanon intervention, in 1860, 81–91, 95
- Franck, Thomas M., 233
 Frey-Wouters, Ellen, 229
 Friedmann, Wolfgang, 220–224
 Funck-Brentano, Théophile, 121
 Fur, Louis Le, 138–139
- Ganji, Manouchehr, 100, 149, 153–154, 222–223
 Geffcken, Friedrich Heinrich, 68
 “Gemeinschaft” (community), 26
 General Treaty for Renunciation of War as an Instrument of National Policy. See Pact of Paris
- genocide. See also ethnic cleansing in Armenia, 154–156
   as “Crime Against Humanity,” 155–156
   deportation of Armenians and, 155–156
   international response to, 154–156
   interventions in, justifications for, 155 under Convention for the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, 28–29, 205
   Great Balkans Crisis and, 113
   under international law, 2
   under international law, criminality of, 2, 204–205
   in Namibia, 163
   Shoah as, 184–187, 222
- Genocide Convention. See Convention for the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide
- Germany. See also Nazi Germany; Nazi international law theory genocide in Namibia, 163
   international law in, 38–39
   minority protections under, 166–167
   theoretical approaches to, 166–167
   occupation of Czechoslovakia, 176–179
   under Munich Agreement, 178
 “Gesellschaft” (association), 26
 Gladstone, William E., 24, 109
 Glennon, Michael, J., 237
 Gong, Gerrit, 10–11, 82
- Great Balkan Crisis, 105–117
   Berlin Congress of 1878 and, 105–106, 114–116
   “Oriental Question” and, 81–106
   protection of religious minorities under, 115–116
   ethnic cleansing during, 113
- European Great Powers and, 118
   humanitarian intervention by, 106
   protection of religious minorities by, 116–117
- genocide and, 113
 humanitarian intervention in, 106–117
   European Great Powers in, 106
   history of, 106–109
   under Paris Treaty of 1856, 106, 108
   political context for, 109–111
 London Protocol and, 108
 Montenegro campaign in, 107–109
 nationalist movement as factor in, 113–114
 Ottoman Empire and, 81–106
 protection of religious minorities during, 116
   under Berlin Congress of 1878, 115–116
   European Great Powers’ involvement in, 116–117
 Rougier on, 103, 116

- Great Balkan Crisis (cont.)
   Russian involvement in, 108–109, 113
   Russo-Turkish War and, 108–109, 111
   Serbian campaign in, 107–109
 Great Powers. See European Great Powers
 Greece, in Russian-Greek War, 55 Greek War of Independence, intervention of European Great Powers in, 45–79
   Austrian response to, 52–53, 56
   Battle of Navarino, 53–54, 58–59, 73–75
   as clash between civilisation and barbarism, 70–72
   European Great Powers in, 142–143
   through expatriates, 49
   French involvement in, 54–55
   Greek national movement and, 48–49, 58–59
   history of, 46–55
   as humanitarian intervention, 63–75
     for human rights, 67–68
     legal justification of, 63–65
     original specification of, 65–66
     Wheaton on, 65–66
   international law and, 59–63
     political context of, 57
 Law of Nations and
   among “Christian” nations, 46
   Ottoman Empire and, 46
 as legal response, 46
 Ottoman Empire and, 46, 57–58
   “Christian” nations and, 46–47
   Jewish life in, 48
   Law of Nations and, 46
 political context for, 56–59
   Congress of Troppau, 56–57
   under international law, 57
 Russian involvement in, 45, 50–52
   through “barbarization project,” 51–52
   St. Petersburg Protocol, 52, 58
 U.K. involvement in, 45, 51
   London Protocol and, 55, 58
 U.S. response to, 45
   violence during, 50
     in massacre at Chios, 50
 Grewe, Wilhelm G., 80, 100, 112
 Grotius, Hugo, 43–44, 206

 Hall, William Edward, 80, 123–124, 127
   on China, 127–128
 Hammar skjöld, Dag, 215
 Harcourt, Vernon, 60–61
 Harrison, George, 230
 Hearst, William Randolph, 41, 133
 Heffter, August Wilhelm, 62

 hegemony. See legalized hegemony
 Hitler, Adolf, 173, 178, 193. See also Nazi Germany on “Ethnic Germans,” 196–197
 Hold-Ferneck, Alexander, 173
 Hugelmann, Karl Gottfried, 197
 human rights
   Greek War of Independence and, 67–68
   human rights law as distinct from, 16 humanitarian interventions for, 14–16
     legal status of, 16–17
   under international law, 2
   moral claims in, 13–17
   under New York Declaration of the International Rights of Man, 171–172, 183
   “standard of ‘civilization’” argument for, 126–128
 human rights law, human rights as distinct from, 16
 humane international law, 28 humanitarian intervention. See also specific interventions
   as anti-colonialism response, 222
   barbarianism and, as protection against, 161–163
   colonialism as, 31
   as constitutionalisation, 6
   definition of, 3–4, 12–21
     exclusions of interventions in, 13–14
     under international law, 14–16
   language in, 14–16
   as Europeanisation, 6
   history of, 8–12
     by European powers, 9–12
   human rights as element of, 14–16 humanity of, 27–31, 92, 163–164
   international law framework for. See international law
   Lauterpacht, H., on, 206–207
   League of Nations and, 169–175
     under Pact of Paris, 169
   in Lebanon, in 1860, 93–96
     under classical international law, 94
   Mandelstam on, 171–172
   for national interests, 36
     internal welfare of state, 36
   Nazi international law theory and. See Nazi international law theory
   “New Haven School,” 225, 227–228
   during 1960s, 222–228
   during 19th century, 143–154. See also Rougier, Antoine; specific interventions
   Oppenheim on, 72–73
     on legal status of, 158

- origins of, 6
- under Pact of Paris, 168–169, 235
- Responsibility to Protect and, 4, 40
  - constructive consent in, 10–40
- right of, 172–175
- Rougier on, during late 19th century, 143–154.
  - See also specific interventions*
  - on future framework for interventions, 144
  - theoretical approach of, 143–144
- Stowell on, 169–171
- theoretical approach to, 20–21, 96–100
- “trigger situations” for, 2
  - Spanish-American War of 1898 and, 9
- during 21st century, 39–41, 234–240
  - Responsibility to Protect concept, 10–40
- types of, 13
- under UN Charter. See Charter of the United Nations
- violence as part of, through military force, 6–7
- humanity, 17–31
  - of humanitarian intervention, 27–31, 92
  - for humankind, 19–20
  - in international law, 20–27
  - as sentiment, 19–20
- Wheaton on, 17
- “Hun Speech” (Kaiser Wilhelm II), 147–148
- Ibos (ethnic group), 223–224
- ICISS Report. See International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty Report
- independence movements. See also nationalism movements
  - in Cuba, 131–132, 137–138
    - after Platt amendment, 137
  - after World War I, 166
- India
  - in Bangladesh Liberation War, 228–229
  - in East Pakistan, use of military force in, 229–234
    - after British partition of India, 229–230
    - international reaction and response to, 230–231
    - mass violence as result of, 231
    - refugee crisis as result of, 231–232
  - Soviet Union in, 232–233
- Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, 219–220
- International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty (ICISS) Report, 45, 218, 221, 232
- International Court of Justice
  - Genocide Convention and, 28–29
  - Operation Allied Force and, 2
- international law. See also League of Nations; Nazi international law theory
  - American Society of International Law, 140
  - barbarism and, civilisation separated from, 38
  - in “barbarous” nations, 128–129
  - under Charter of the United Nations, 206–207
  - in civilised nations, 10–11, 81–128
    - definition of, 25
    - during 19th century, 26–27
  - classic, 22, 60–62
    - in Lebanon, in 1860, 94
    - after World War II, conflict with
      - contemporary approaches to, 185, 187
  - common values in, 26
  - “Crime Against Humanity” concept in, 155–156
  - in Cuba, U.S. intervention in, 138–141
  - definition of, 78–79
  - ethnic cleansing and, 2
  - Eurocentrism of, 197
  - through European Great Powers
    - for humanitarian interventions, 32–34
    - in Latin America, 120
  - European narratives of, 77–78
  - Fiore on, 156–158
    - on principle of non-intervention, 157
  - Geffcken on, 68
  - genocide under, criminality of, 2, 204–205
  - from German-Austria perspective, 38–39
  - in Germany, 38–39
    - minority protections under, 166–167
    - theoretical approaches to, 166–167
  - “golden age” of, 60
  - Greek War of Independence and, 59–63
    - political context of, 57
  - human rights under, 2
  - humane, 28
  - humanitarian impulse in, 117–119
    - to abolish slave trade, 117–118
  - for humanitarian interventions, 1–2, 9–10, 31–39
    - in civilised nations, 124–130
    - conceptualisation of, 10–11
    - construction of, 5–6, 10–11
    - definition of intervention in, 14–16, 35
    - by European Great Powers, 32–34
    - as forcible intervention, 34
    - historical development of, 32–33
    - international order and, 33
    - legal principles for, 46
    - legalized hegemony and, 37
    - legitimacy of, 3, 29–31
    - during 19th century, 31, 156–160
    - non-intervention principle and, 32, 34, 67
    - sovereignty issues, 32, 37
    - during 20th century, 31–32, 156–164
    - war as distinct from, 35

- international law. (cont.)
  - humanity in, 20–27
  - Kingdom of the Two Sicilies under, European intervention in, 81–82
  - laws of nature and nations, 23–24
  - Lebanon intervention under, in 1860, 89–93
  - as legal theory, 21–26
    - positivism in, 23
  - Lorimer on, 84
  - moral character of, 77–78
  - natural, 22
  - natural law and, 23–24
  - “New Haven School,” 225, 227–228
  - during 19th century
    - in civilised nations, 26–27
    - in humanitarian interventions, 31
    - international lawyers as source of, 38–39
    - as law of peace, 35
    - as law of war, 35
  - non-intervention principle in, 119–124
    - in civilised nations, 121–122
    - Fiore on, 157
    - in France, 121–122
    - in Italy, 120–121
    - in Latin America, 119–120
  - in Nuremberg trial, individual responsibility for crimes against, 202–203
  - Oppenheim on, 157–159
  - Ottoman Empire under, 11–24
  - Paris Treaty of 1856 under, 82–83
    - geographic scope of international law, 83–84
  - persecution of Jewish people in Nazi Germany under, 186
  - principles of, 126–127
  - Rougier on, 68–70, 80
  - Spanish-American War under, legal aspects of, 138–139
  - spheres of justice and, 22–26
  - during 20th century, in humanitarian interventions, 31–32
  - universalism of, 197
  - wars under, 35
  - Wheaton on, 14–23, 61, 65–66
    - after World War II, conflict between classic and contemporary approaches to, 185, 187
- international order, humanitarian interventions and, 33
- Israel
  - in Arab-Israeli War, 213
  - Egyptian forces in, humanitarian intervention for, 212–213
- Italy. See also Kingdom of the Two Sicilies
  - colonisation of Ethiopia, 176–177
  - international law in, non-intervention principle in, 120–121
  - violation of League of Nations Covenant, 177
- Jackson, Robert, 5
- Japan
  - expansion into China, 175–176, 179
  - violation of League of Nations Covenant, 176
- Jewish diplomacy, through League of Nations, 167
- Jews
  - in Nazi Germany, persecution of, international response to, 179–187
  - Bernheim Petition, 181–182
  - by Great Britain, 181
  - humanitarian intervention for, right to, 180–181
  - under international law, 186
  - by League of Nations, 179–180
  - by U.S., 183–184
  - pogroms and, 49
- justice, spheres of, 22–26
- Kamptz, C. Ch. A. H., 59–60
- Keller, Hans K. E. L., 197–198
- Kelsen, Hans, 39, 173
- Kingdom of the Two Sicilies, European intervention in, 79–82
  - British involvement in, 79–82
  - French involvement in, 79–81
  - under international law, 81–82
  - legality of, 79
  - objective war aims of, 81
- Klüber, Johann Ludwig, 60
- Koellreutter, Otto, 194
- Kohl, Helmut, 236
- “Konnationale” intervention, 194–201
- Koskenniemi, Martti, 97, 138–139
- Kosovo, NATO in, 142, 236–238, 240
  - Operation Allied Force and, 2, 238, 240
- Latin America, interventions in
  - Drago Doctrine in, 76–77
  - under Drago-Porter Convention of 1907, 130
  - international law in
    - through European Great Powers, 120
    - non-intervention principle in, 119–120
  - in Portuguese colonies, 131
  - in Spanish colonies, 131
- Laun, Rudolf, 166–167
- Lauterpacht, Hersch, 43–44, 73, 176, 202
  - on doctrine of humanitarian intervention, 206–207, 235
  - on Jewish persecution in Nazi Germany, 179–180

- Law of Nations
   Greek War of Independence and “Christian” nations in, 46
     Ottoman Empire and, 46
   Oppenheim on, 158
 Lawrence, Thomas J., 159–160
 laws of nature and nations, 23–24
   European, 21–25
 League of Nations
   civilised states in, 165–166
   Covenant of, 167–169
     Italian violation of, 177
     Japanese violation of, 176
     under Pact of Paris, 168–169
   foundation of, 165–166
   humanitarian interventions and, 169–175
     under Pact of Paris, 169
   international law theory and, 169–175
   Italian violations of the Covenant, 177
   Jewish diplomacy through, 167
   Mandate Powers in, 167–168
   minority protections through, 166–167
   Nazi Germany withdrawal from, 179–180
   on persecution of Jews in Nazi Germany, 179–180
   purpose of, 165–166
   Soviet Union in, 174
 Lebanon in 1860, European intervention in, 85–96
   British involvement in, 89
   French involvement in, 81–91, 95
   Great Powers’ involvement in, 87–88, 91
   history of, 85–88
     religious conflict as foundation of, 85–87, 92–93
   as humanitarian intervention, 93–96
     under classic international law, 94
   under international law, historical context for, 89–93
   London Protocol and, 88
   under Paris Treaty of 1856, 90–91, 95
   political context for, 88–89
   “Lebensraum” (living space), 188–189
   legalized hegemony, 37
 Lemkin, Raphael, 202, 204–205
 Lillich, Richard B., 103, 160, 218, 220–224, 227
 Liszt, Franz von, 160, 163
 Lorimer, James, 84, 128

 MacDougal, Myres S., 103, 141 Macedonia, interventions in, 148–154. See also Great Balkan Crisis
   under Berlin Congress of 1878, 150
   ethnic conflicts as factor in, 149

   European Great Powers’ involvement in, 149
   Mürzsteg Agreement and, 150–151
   Ottoman Empire and, 150
Madam Secretary (TV show), 1
 Mamiani, Terenzio, 120
 Mandate Powers, in League of Nations, 167–168
 Mandelstam, André, 152, 161, 163
   on humanitarian interventions, 171–172
 Martens, Georg Friedrich von, 11–12, 62–63, 113, 125
 Mazzini, Giuseppe, 120
 McKinley, William, 8–9
   European Great Powers and, 134
   Spain and, 134–136
   Spanish-American War and, 131–134
     public opinion on, 137–138
 Mill, John Stuart, 67, 89–90
 minority protections
   under Berlin Congress of 1878, 115–116
   by European Great Powers, 116–117
   in Germany, under international law, 166–167
   during Great Balkans Crisis
     under Berlin Congress of 1878, 115–116
     by European Great Powers, 116–117
     of religious minorities, 116
   under international law, in Germany, 166–167
   through League of Nations, 166–167
 Monroe Doctrine, 76, 197
 moral international law, 77–78
 Moser, Johann Jacob, 33
 Mosler, Hermann, 194–196, 200
 Munich Agreement (1938), 178
 Mürzsteg Agreement, 150–151

 Namibia, genocide in, 163
 National Socialist ideology
   central legal concept of, 193
   “Ethnic Germans” in, 193–194, 196–197
   humanitarian intervention doctrine and,
     190–194
 nationalism movements
   Great Balkan Crisis and, 113–114
   in Greece, 48–49, 58–59
   after World War I, 166
 NATO. See North Atlantic Treaty Organization natural law
   Christian foundations of, 24–25
   international law and, 23–24
 Nazi Germany
   “Ethnic Germans” in, 193–194, 196–197
   ideology in, 190–194
   Jewish persecution in, international response to, 179–187

- Nazi Germany (cont.)
   Bernheim Petition, 181–182
   by Great Britain, 181
   humanitarian intervention in, right to, 180–181
   under international law, 186
   by League of Nations, 179–180
   by U.S., 183–184
   Poland attacked by, 184–186
   Shoah in, 184–187, 222
   withdrawal from League of Nations, 179–180
   World War II in, 184–187
- Nazi international law theory, 187–201
   central legal concept of, 193
   “Ethnic Germans” in, 193–194, 196–197
   humanitarian intervention doctrine and, 179, 189–201
   “Konnationale” intervention, 194–201
   “Völkische” intervention, 194–201
   “Lebensraum,” 188–189
   “New Haven School,” 225, 227–228
   “Never Again Auschwitz”/“Never Again War,” 235–236
- New York Declaration of the International Rights of Man, 171–172, 183
- Nigeria. See also Biafra
   Civil War in, 223–224
- non-intervention principle, 32, 34, 67
   under Drago-Porter Convention of 1907, 130
   in international law, 119–124
     in civilised nations, 121–122
     Fiore on, 157
     in France, 121–122
     in Italy, 120–121
     in Latin America, 119–120
- North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), in Kosovo, 142, 236–238, 240
- Nuremberg trial, 202–207
   international law in, individual responsibility for crimes against, 202–203 Shawcross and, 202–204
- Operation Allied Force, 2, 238, 240
- Operation Horseshoe, 41
- Oppenheim, Lassa, 157–159, 207
   on humanitarian interventions, 72–73
     legal status of, 158
   on Law of Nations, 158
- Orford, Anne, 71, 215
- “Oriental Question,” Great Balkan Crisis and, 81–106
- Ottoman Empire
   Crete civil war and, 101–102
   outcome of, 104–105
   Great Balkan Crisis and, 81–106
- Greek War of Independence and, 46, 57–58
   “Christian” nations in, 46–47
   Jewish life in Ottoman Empire, 48
   Law of Nations and, 46
   under international law, 11–24
   Macedonia and, interventions in, 150
   Paris Treaty of 1856 and, 10–12, 82–83, 98–99
   recognition as “European state,” 84
   Russian war with, 83
- Pact of Paris (General Treaty for Renunciation of War as an Instrument of National Policy), 168–169, 235
- Paris Treaty of 1856, 62, 82–85
   after Crimean War, 83
   Great Balkans Crisis and, humanitarian intervention under, 106, 108 international law under, 82–83
     geographic scope of, 83–84
   intervention in Crete civil war under, 102
   Lebanon intervention under, in 1860, 90–91, 95
   Ottoman Empire and, 10–12, 82–83, 98–99
- Pillet, Antoine, 70
- Poland
   1863 uprising in, international response to by European Great Powers, 100–101
   as humanitarian intervention, 100–101
   Nazi Germany attack on, 184–186
- reconcentración policy, in Cuba, 8, 133
- Reddie, James, 78
- Reisman, W. Michael, 103, 141, 223, 225–227
- religious conflict, in Lebanon, in 1860, 85–87, 92–93
- Responsibility to Protect, 4
   as 21st century concept, 10–40
- Rieff, David, 235
- Roberts, Anthea, 40
- Rodley, Nigel S., 233
- Rodogno, Davide, 91
- Rolin-Jaequemyns, Gustave, 96–97, 112–114
- Rotteck, Karl von, 63–65
- Rougier, Antoine, 68–70, 79–80, 91
   on Boxer Rebellion, in China, 144–148
     European Great Powers’ role in, 116–146
     foundations of, 145–146
   on Great Balkans Crisis, 103, 116 on humanitarian interventions, in late 19th century, 143–154. See also specific interventions future framework on, 144
   theoretical approach to, 143–144

- on interventions in Macedonia, 148–154.
     See also Great Balkans Crisis
     under Berlin Congress of 1878, 150
     ethnic conflicts as factor in, 149
     European Great Powers' involvement in, 149
     Mürzsteg Agreement and, 150–151
     Ottoman Empire and, 150
- Russia. See also Soviet Union in Great Balkans Crisis, 108–109, 113
     in Greek War of Independence, 45, 50–52
     through “barbarization project,” 51–52
     St. Petersburg Protocol, 52, 58
     Ottoman Empire and, war with, 83
- Russo-Turkish War (1877), 108–109, 111
- Sauer, Wilhelm, 187–190
- Scelle, Georges, 172–175, 179
- Schmitt, Carl, 27, 177, 191, 193, 196–197
- Scott, James Brown, 183
- Second Balkan War, 151–152
- Serbia campaign, in Great Balkan Crisis, 107–109
- Shankar, Ravi, 230
- Shawcross, Hartley, 202–204
- Shoah, 15–16, 28–29, 184–187
     in public discourse, 222
- social human conscience, 62
- Sorel, Albert, 121
- sovereignty, humanitarian interventions and, 32, 37
- Soviet Union
     Dominican Republic and, 220–221
     in East Pakistan, 232–233
     in League of Nations, 174
     in Republic of the Congo, 216
- Spain. See also Cuba
     McKinley and, 134–136
     “reconcentración” policies in, 8
- Spanish-American War of 1898, 8
     Cuba and, 8–9, 130–131. See also Cuba declaration of, 136
     Hearst and, sensationalism of, 133
     under international law, 138–139
     McKinley foreign policy and, 131–134
     public opinion on, 137–138
     in Philippines, 136
     reconcentración policy and, 133
     under Treaty of Paris of 1898, 136–137
- spheres of justice, 22–26
- St. Petersburg Protocol (1826), in Greek War of Independence, 52, 58
- Stapleton, Augustus, 71
- Ster-Somlo, Fritz, 39
- Stone, Julius, 211–212
- Stowell, Ellery C., 91–92, 94, 100, 139, 154, 169–171, 195
- Strauch, Hermann, 125
- Strisower, Leo, 39, 173
- Strupp, Karl, 39
- Syrian Civil War
     humanitarian crisis as result of, 1–2
     international intervention in, 1–2
- Tandon, Manesh Prasad, 75–79
- Tanzania, intervention in Uganda, 238–239
- Tesón, Fernando, 234, 237–238
- Tranin, Aron, 174, 202
- “trigger situations,” for humanitarian interventions, 2
- Uganda, Tanzania intervention in, 238–239
- U.K. See United Kingdom
- UN. See United Nations
- UN Charter. See Charter of the United Nations
- United Kingdom (U.K.)
     in Greek War of Independence, 45, 51
     London Protocol and, 55, 58
     Jewish persecution in Nazi Germany, official response to, 181
     in Kingdom of the Two Sicilies, 79–82
     in Lebanon intervention, in 1860, 89
     partition of India, 229–230
- United Nations (UN)
     Charter of the United Nations. See Charter of the United Nations Convention for the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, 28–29, 205
     on humanitarian intervention as state practice, 175–176 Security Council, 39
     in Republic of the Congo, humanitarian intervention by, 215–218
- United States (U.S.). See also Cuba; Spanish-American War of 1898
     American Society of International Law, 140
     Armenian genocide and, official response to, 155
     in Cuba, interventions in. See Cuba in Dominican Republic, interventions in, 219–221
     ICISS and, 221
     Soviet Union and, 220–221
     on Greek War of Independence, 45
     international law theory in, 25
     on Jewish persecution in Nazi Germany, official response to, 183–184
     Monroe Doctrine in, 76, 197

278

Index

Vagts, Detlef, 191
Varghese, Payappilly Itty, 75
Vattel, Emer de, 34, 44–45
Verdross, Alfred, 192–193, 208–209
Vietnam, intervention in Cambodia, 238–239
“Völkische” intervention, 194–201

Walz, Gustav A., 194, 198
Walzer, Michael, 142 war, as intervention humanitarian intervention as distinct from, 35
    purpose of, 35
    right to wage, 35
Weyler, Valeriano, 132
Wheaton, Henry, 17, 65–67, 90
    on Greek War of Independence, 65–66

    on international law, 14–23, 61, 65–66
Wheeler, Nicolas, 6, 13
Wilhelm II (Kaiser), 147–148
World War I
    independence movements after, 166 nationalism movements after, 166 World War II
    international law after, conflict between classic and contemporary approaches to,
        185, 187
    Nazi Germany during, 184–187
    Shoah during, 184–187, 222

Young Turk Revolution, 151–152
Yugoslavia. See Kosovo