

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06272-6 - Greek Narratives of the Roman Empire Under the Severans: Cassius Dio, Philostratus and Herodian

Adam M. Kemezis

Table of Contents

More informationContents

Acknowledgements	page viii
Note on texts and translations	x
1. Introduction	I
2. From Antonine to Severan	30
3. Cassius Dio: the last annalist	90
4. Philostratus' Apollonius : Hellenic perfection on an imperial stage	150
5. Philostratus' Sophists : Hellas' Antonine Golden Age	196
6. Herodian: a dysfunctional Rome	227
7. Conclusion: from "Severan" to "third-century"	273
 Appendix
1. The date of composition of Dio's history	282
2. The dates and addressees of Philostratus' Apollonius and Sophists	294
3. The date, scope and author of Herodian's history	298
Bibliography	309
Index	335