

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More information

Index

- Abitur*, 93
 academies, 76
 Academies Act (2010), 76
 actor-centered institutionalism, 39 actors, 38–9
 Agrarian Party, 79, 80
 Anglo-Saxon countries, educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 184
 apprenticeship training, 62. See also vocational education and training (VET)
 Christian democratic government and, 169
 coalition government's policy on,
 76–7
 decline in 1970–85, 67–8
 economic coordination and, 169
 in Germany, 102, 105–6
 John Major government's policy on,
 74 partisan politics and, 169
 rightist government and, 169
 socioeconomic inequality and,
 197–9
 staged apprenticeship, 105
 in Sweden, 86–7
 Swedish Conservative party's support for, 87
 upper-secondary students in, 168–9
 Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act, 75
 Arbeitsausschuß für Berufsbildung, 94
 Arbeitsstelle für Betriebliche
 Berufsausbildung (ABB), 97
 Area Manpower Boards (AMBs), 72 asset theory of social policy
 preferences, 34
 Assisted Places Scheme, 73
 Atlee, Clement, 60–1 attitudes, 2
 education policy and, 17–18
 educational choices and, 221–2 educational institutions and, 22–4 feedback effects and, 216 impact of educational institutions
 on, 215–52
 institutional factors and, 218
 self-interest and, 218–19
Ausbildungsberufe, 98
 Australia, 33
 Gini index, 199
 skills formation in, 129
 vocational education and training in,
 128
 Austria, 33 balance of power
 cross-country differences in, 6–7
 long-term, 51–3
 partisan, 58–9
 partisan theory and, 51–3 battle of the sexes game, 12
 Beck–Katz standard, 156
 Belgium, 33
 educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 184 political/institutional determinants of educational institutions in,
 153
 skills formation in, 131–2
 Berufsbildungsförderungsgesetz
 (BerBiFG), 103
 Berufsbildungsgesetz (BBiG), 102, 120
 Berufsgrundbildungsjahr (Vocational Foundation Year), 104
Berufsprinzip, 73
Bildungsgesamtplan, 101
 Bildungsrat, 101, 102
 bivariate analyses, 136–55

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More informationIndex

299

- Black Papers, 65, 85
- Blair, Tony, 177, 259
- Bologna Process, 108
- Boyle, Edward, 65
- British Employers' Confederation, 62
- Bundesausbildungsförderungsgesetz (BAFöG), 100
- Bundesinstitut für Berufsbildung (BIBB), 103
- Bundesrat*, 91
- Bundestag*, 98
- Bundesverband der Deutschen Industrie (BDI), 97
- Bund-Länder Kommission (BLK), 100–1
- Butler Education Act (1944), 60
- cabinet share, public spending and, 141–3
- Callaghan, James, 65
- Canada, 33
 - Gini index, 199
 - VET and inequality in, 192
- capitalism, varieties of, 38
- Carr Committee, 63
- centralized wage bargaining, 209–11
- child-centered social investment, 259–60
- China, 257
- Christlich Demokratische Union Deutschlands (CDU), 91
 - corporatist policy approach of, 116
 - education policy, 96
 - employers' associations and, 98
 - as formateur of cross-class coalition, 120
- Christian democrats, 10
 - apprenticeship training and, 169
 - versus conservatives, 54–5
 - cooperation between unions and employers, 46–7
 - cross-class compromise and, 54–5
 - as Germany's dominant political force in 1949–69, 14–15
 - ideology, 46
 - influence of business interests, 46
 - politics of mediation, 46, 116–17
 - private spending and, 137–8
 - spending on VET, 143, 150–1
 - subsidiarity, 46
 - tertiary enrollment and, 165
 - upper-secondary students in VET and, 151–2
 - welfare state and, 45–7
- cluster analysis, 132–3
- coalition government
 - apprenticeship training and, 76–7
 - education policy, 113–14
- coalition of actors, 38–9
- coalitional approach, 40, 41
- collective skill-formation regime, 14
 - descriptive statistics, 130–1
 - promotion of education in, 134–5
 - socioeconomic inequality in, 189
- collective wage bargaining, vocational education and training and, 168
- commodification
 - in higher education, 32
 - of labor, 29–33
 - in VET, 32
- Comparative Political Data Set, 201
- comparative public policy analysis, 17
- Confederation of British Industry (CBI), 67
- conservatives
 - apprenticeship training and, 116
 - versus Christian democratic ideology, 54–5
 - cross-class consensus, 117
 - decentralized education system and, 60–1
 - higher education and, 69–70
 - political process preferences, 47
 - private education spending and, 159
 - vocation education and, 70
- continental Europe
 - collective skill systems in, 134–5
 - educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 184
 - social spending in, 136
 - statist skill-formation regime in, 33
- coordinated market economies (CMEs)
 - cross-class coalitions in, 54–5, 118, 119
 - partisan politics in, 54–5
- Crosland, Anthony, 64
- cross-class coalitions
 - Christian democrats and, 54–5
 - in coordinated market economies, 54–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More information

300

Index

- cross-class coalitions (cont.)
 - in design of vocational education and training, 54–5
 - social democrats and, 55
- Crowther Report, 61
- de-commodification, 29–33, 262–3
 - educational stratification and, 31–2
 - social investment and, 262–3
 - welfare state and, 263
- deindustrialization, 164–5
- Denmark
 - apprenticeships in, 77
 - Gini index, 199
 - political/institutional determinants of educational institutions in, 152–3
 - skills formation in, 131
 - vocational education and training in, 128, 131
- Deutsche Bildungsrat (German Education Council), 100
- Deutscher Ausschluß für Technisches Schulwesen (DATSCH), 94, 100
- Deutscher Gewerkschaftsbund, 98
- devolution, 59
- economic coordination
 - apprenticeship training and, 169
 - private education spending and, 159
 - vocational education and training and, 168
- education
 - difference from other social policies, 253
 - in social investment state, 259–64
 - Education Act (1988), 113
 - Education Act (2011), 77
 - education and training reforms, 58–122
 - case studies, 58–122
 - Germany, 90–109
 - consolidation and incremental adaption of education system after 1982, 104–9
 - expansion and reform in 1965–82, 99–104
 - reconstruction and restoration in 1945–65, 92–9
 - partisan politics and, 114–20
 - postwar development of upper/post-secondary education, 109–14
 - Sweden, 78–90
 - comprehensive education system (1945–75), 79–84
 - consolidation and conflict (1975–90), 84–7
 - United Kingdom, 58–78
 - consolidation of liberal skill regime (after 1997), 74–8
 - neoliberal transformation of education and training policy (1979–97), 68–74
 - partisan conflict and crisis in 1964–79, 64–8
 - postwar consensus/institutional consolidation in 1945–64, 60–4
 - education policy
 - application of partisan theory in, 40–1
 - attitudes and, 17–18
 - de-commodification in, 158
 - institutions and, 231–48
 - in OECD countries, 220–3
 - versus other social policies, 224–31, 253
 - preferences for different kinds of education, 222–3
 - voters' preference and, 40–1
 - Education Reform Act (1988), 68–9
 - education systems, 3–5
 - de-commodification in, 29–33
 - in Germany, 3
 - partisan politics and, 6–7, 41
 - stratification in, 29–33
 - in Sweden, 4
 - in United Kingdom, 3
 - educational background
 - educational stratification and, 233
 - public support for educational spending and, 228
 - recommendation for education and, 242–5
 - support for private education spending and, 241
 - support for public education spending and, 228

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More informationIndex

301

- educational choices, 242
- educational inequality
 - in Anglo-Saxon countries, 184
 - in Belgium, 184
 - in continental Europe, 184
 - in France, 183–4
 - in Netherlands, 183–4
 - in OECD countries, 181–3
 - in Scandinavian countries, 183–4
 - skills and, 185–90
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 181–5
 - in southern European countries, 184–5
 - vocational education and training and, 195–7
- educational institutions
 - attitudes and, 22–4
 - education policy preferences and, 231–48
 - impact on attitudes and preferences, 22–4, 215–52
 - impact on popular attitudes and preferences, 215–52
 - investing in human capital and, 177
 - political and institutional
 - determinants of, 136–55
 - cabinet share of party families, 137
 - educational stratification, 143–5
 - enrollment patterns, 145–6
 - labor-market institutions, 154–5
 - partisan legacies, 137–8
 - private versus public share of education financing, 137
 - social spending, 138–41
 - socioeconomic institutions, 152
 - redistributive preferences and, 248–51
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 20–2, 177–214
- educational investments. See educational spending
- educational spending, 138–41
 - age of population and, 164–5
 - cabinet share and, 141–3
 - conservatives and, 159
 - de-commodification in education policy and, 158
 - division of labor between private sources and, 186
 - division of labor between public and private sources of, 30–1
 - division of labor between public sources and, 186
 - economic coordination and, 159
 - educational background and, 241
 - enrollment patterns and, 157, 207
 - GDP and, 164–5
 - individual income and, 241
 - individual-level support for, 224–5
 - public spending on education, 221
 - public support for, 229–31
 - age and, 228
 - educational background and, 228
 - gender and, 228
 - increased spending, 231
 - labor market and, 228
 - partisanship and, 228
 - public as thermostat model, 239
 - recommendation for academic education and, 245
 - redistributive implications of, 224, 231–2
 - redistributive preferences and, 250
 - right-wing parties and, 150
 - social democrats and, 159
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 177–8, 199
 - supply of high-skilled workers and, 256–7
 - support for increased public spending and, 233, 241
 - VET enrollment and, 207–9
- educational stratification
 - employer involvement and, 188
 - enrollment patterns and, 143–5
 - individual income/educational background and, 233
 - redistributive preferences and, 251
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 187
 - support for educational spending and, 232, 239–41
 - welfare state and, 31
- employers
 - educational stratification and, 50
 - involvement of, 187–8
 - VET design and, 50

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More information

302

Index

- Employment and Training Act (1973), 67
- enrollment patterns
- cross-country differences in, 145–6
 - partisan legacies and, 146–50
 - private education spending and, 207
 - spending and, 157
 - vocational education and training, 203–4
- Entschließungsantrag*, 98
- EPL index, 211
- Erhard, Ludwig, 99
- Eurobarometer, 222, 242
- European Union, education policy, 263
- Expert School of Committee, 80
- Fachhochschulen*, 100
- Federal Constitutional Court (Germany), 103
- federalist countries, 134–5
- feedback effects, 18–19
- attitudes and, 216
 - weakness of, 217–18
- Finland, public spending on education, 221
- Foundation Apprenticeships, 75
- foundation schools, 76
- Framework for the Reform and Unification of the General School System, 97
- France, 33
- educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 183–4
 - skills formation in, 131–2
- free schools, 89
- Further and Higher Education Act, 69
- future research, 264–5
- Gemeinschaftsaufgaben, 99
- gender, public education spending and, 228
- General National Vocational Qualifications (GNVQs), 73
- German Association of the Industry and Commerce Chambers, 98
- German Committee for the Education System, 97
- Germany, 33, 90–109
- apprenticeship training in, 77, 102, 105–6
 - Christian democrats, 14–15
 - collective skill-formation regime in, 14
 - consolidation and incremental adaption of education system after 1982, 104–9
 - critical juncture in, 112
 - cross-class consensus in, 117–18, 120
 - education policy preferences in, 223
 - education system in, 3, 4
 - education system in postwar period, 94–5
 - educational system in the 19th and early 20th centuries, 93
 - expansion and reform in 1965–82, 99–104
 - Gini index, 199
 - PISA debate, 107
 - postwar development of upper/post-secondary education, 112
 - reconstruction and restoration in 1945–65, 92–9
 - trade unions, 98
 - unions and apprenticeship training in, 216
 - vocational education and training in, 97–9, 101–3, 104–5, 108–9, 112, 114
 - Weimar period, 93–4
- Gini index, 199, 201
- globalization, 257–8, 259
- Gove, Michael, 77
- Greece, 33
- Green Paper, 67
- green party, 91
- gross domestic product (GDP), 135
- education spending and, 199
 - educational spending and, 164–5, 205
 - public education spending and, 164–5
- grundskola*, 81
- Gymnasien*, 93, 94, 106, 108
- Gymnasieskola*, 81
- Gymnasium*, 81, 94, 101

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More informationIndex

303

- Habilitation*, 108
- Handwerkerschutzgesetz, 93
- Handwerksordnung (Crafts Ordinance), 97
- Hauptschule*, 106, 107
- higher education
 - commodification in, 32
 - Conservative government's policy on, 69–70
 - enrollment patterns, 145–6
 - Labour government's policy on, 76
 - political parties and, 44
 - right-wing parties and, 150
 - social investment state and, 261
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 193–5
 - state involvement in, 188
- Higher Education Act (1993), 90
- high-skilled workers
 - private education spending and, 256–7
 - supply and demand for, 255
- historical institutionalism
 - criticism of, 37–8
 - inconsistencies in, 38
 - path dependency and, 37
- Hochschulrahmengesetz, 100
- Högskola*, 84
- human capital
 - investing in, 177
 - redistributive preferences and, 250
 - social investment state and, 259–60
- human capital theory, 30
- income
 - educational stratification and, 233
 - support for private education spending and, 241
- India, 257
- Individual Learning Accounts (ILAs), 74
- Industrial Training Act (1964), 64
 - Conservative government and, 113
 - Industrial Training Boards, 13, 63
 - Labour government and, 67
- Industrial Training Boards (ITBs), 13, 63–4
- industrial training organizations (ITOs), 72
- inequality, 177–214
 - apprenticeship training and, 197–9
 - in collective skill-formation regimes, 189
 - cross-section time-series analyses, 199–213
 - cross-sectional evidence for, 190–9
 - degree of state involvement and, 187
 - education spending and, 205
 - educational inequality and, 181–5
 - educational institutions and, 20–2, 177–214
 - educational investment and, 177–8
 - educational stratification and, 187
 - higher education and, 193–5
 - in liberal skill-formation regimes, 189–90
 - limiting of, with VET investments, 178–9
 - partisan politics and, 18
 - political economies and, 179–80
 - private education spending and, 199
 - public education spending and, 199
 - redistributive preferences and, 249
 - skills and, 185–90, 255–6, 258
 - social transfer spending and, 205–7
 - support for redistribution and, 249–50
 - VET enrollment and, 203–4
 - vocational education and training's role in, 179, 190–3
- institutional context, 48–50
- institutional gardeners, 54
- institutionalism, actor-centered, 39
- Ireland, 33
 - skills formation in, 129
 - VET and inequality in, 192
- ISSP Role of Government IV survey, 248
- Italy, political/institutional determinants of educational institutions in, 153–4
- Iversen, Torben, 34
- Japan, 33
 - public spending on education, 221
 - skills formation in, 129–30
- Keynesianism, 259, 263
- Kohl, Helmut, 104

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More information

304

Index

- Kultusministerkonferenz (KMK), 96, 104
- labor, commodification of, 29–33
- labor market
 - economic globalization and, 257–8
 - public education spending and, 228
 - VET and, 49, 154–5
- labor unions
 - apprenticeship training and, 62
 - employer cooperation in VET design, 48–50
- Labour government
 - cross-class consensus, 117
 - general schooling policies, 75–6
 - higher education and, 76
 - industrial training boards and, 67
 - vocational education at tertiary level, 66
- Labour Party
 - access to grammar school in 1950s and, 61
 - education policy in 1974–79, 65–6
 - skill regime and, 74–5
- Länder*, 91–2, 95, 99–101, 106–7
- Landsorganisationen, 79, 90
- Learning and Skills Council (LSC), 75
- left-wing parties, 40
 - educational expansion and, 43–4
 - political process preferences, 47–8
 - public education spending and, 157
 - tertiary enrollment and, 165–6
- liberal market economies (LMEs), 34, 118–19
 - interest mediation in, 117
 - partisan politics in, 53–4
- liberal skill-formation regime, 12–13, 33, 129
 - consolidation after 1997, 74–8
 - promotion of education in, 134
 - socioeconomic inequality in, 189–90
 - in United Kingdom, 12–13
- Local Education Authorities, 64–5, 68–9, 76
- Local Enterprise Councils, 72
- Local Learning and Skills Councils (LLSCs), 75
- macro-corporatism, 55
- Major, John, 73
- Manpower Services Commission (MSC), 13, 67, 70–1
- Marshall, T.H., 30
- Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, 106
- Mittelstandspolitik*, 98
- Modern Apprenticeships, 74
- modernization theory, 36
- multivariate regression analyses, 155–69
- National Council for Vocational Qualifications (NCVQ), 73
- national curriculum (Sweden), 89
- National Health Service, 60
- National Joint Apprenticeship Councils, 62
- National School Board, 84
- National Vocational Qualifications (NVQs), 72–3, 78–90, 192
- neoinstitutionalism. See historical institutionalism
- Netherlands, 33
 - educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 183–4
 - political/institutional determinants of educational institutions in, 153
 - skills formation in, 131
 - VET in, 131
- New Deal for Young People program, 75
- New Labour government, 74, 113–14
- New Training Initiative (NTI), 70
- new vocationalism, 73, 90
- New Zealand, 33
- Nordic model of education, 79, 112
- Nordic welfare state, 79
- OECD countries
 - cross-country differences in financing/provision in, 264
 - education policy, 263
 - educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 181–3
 - educational stratification in, 143–5
 - public/private division of labor in education financing, 156
 - skills formation in, 123–8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More information

Index

305

- variation of education policy
 - preferences in, 220–3
- vocational education and training in, 124–8
- OECD Education Statistics Database, 124, 190
- outcomes, 2
- outsourcing, 257
- Palme, Olof, 84
- partisan actors, 39–40, 189
- partisan politics, 8–17, 29–57
 - analysis of, 157–8
 - apprenticeship training and, 169
 - balance of power and, 11
 - blind spot of, 9–10
 - in coordinated market economies, 54–5
 - education and, 6–7
 - education systems and, 41
 - educational reforms and, 114–20
 - enrollment patterns and, 146–50
 - inequality and, 18
 - in LMEs, 53–4
 - public education spending and, 157, 228
 - public spending and, 138–41
 - social spending and, 138–41
 - socioeconomic institutional context, 10–11
 - standard model of, 9
 - theoretical framework, 41–55
- partisan theory, 40–1, 42
 - education policy and, 40–1
 - institutional context and, 48–50
 - long-term balance of power and, 51–3
 - modifications to, 42–3
 - political process preferences and, 45–8
 - standard model of, 43–5, 116–17
- path consolidation, 51–2, 113
- path dependency, 36
 - historical institutionalism and, 37
 - periods of stasis versus period of institutional breakdown, 38
 - public opinion and, 38
- path formation, 51–2, 111
- path initialization, 110–11
- pensions, 228–9
- petite bourgeoisie*, 93
- PISA debate, 107
- policies
 - popular attitudes and, 18–19
 - self-interest and, 18–19
- policy analysis, 17
- policy-making, 17–18
- political economies
 - institutional spheres of, 34
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 179–80
- political parties, 40–1
 - cabinet share of, 137
 - educational expansion and, 43–4
 - preferences regarding political process, 45–8
- political process, 45–8
- Political School Commission, 80
- political science, 17
- politics, 2
- politics of mediation, 10, 46, 54
- polytechnische Oberschule (POS), 106
- Portugal, public spending on
 - education, 221
- positive feedback, 215, 245–8
- post-secondary education, 143–5
 - future research, 264–5
 - partisan legacies and, 146–50
 - postwar development of, 109
 - public/private division of labor in
 - financing, 265
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 186
- power resources, 38, 42
- preferences, 2
 - educational investments and, 221–2
 - education/welfare institutions and, 231–48
 - feedback effects, 216
 - impact of educational institutions
 - on, 22–4, 215–52
 - material self-interests and, 218–19
 - political process, 45–8
 - redistributive, 248–51
- private education spending. See also private education spending conservatives and, 159
 - de-commodification in education
 - policy and, 158
 - division of labor between public sources and, 186

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More information

306

Index

- private education spending (cont.)
 - economic coordination and, 159
 - educational background and, 241
 - enrollment patterns and, 207
 - individual income and, 241
 - recommendation for academic education and, 245
 - redistributive preferences and, 250
 - social democrats and, 159
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 199
 - supply of high-skilled workers and, 256–7
 - support for increased public spending and, 233, 241
 - VET enrollment and, 207–9
- private schools, subsidies to, 88
- Prussia, 93
- public as thermostat model, 217, 239
- public education spending, 138–41.
 - See also* private education spending
 - age of population and, 164–5
 - cabinet share and, 141–3
 - division of labor between private sources and, 186
 - enrollment patterns and, 157
 - individual-level support for, 224–5
 - public spending on education, 221
 - public support for, 229–31, 239
 - age and, 228
 - educational background and, 228
 - gender and, 228
 - increased spending, 231
 - labor market and, 228
 - partisanship and, 228
 - redistributive implications of, 224
 - right-wing parties and, 150
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 199
- public opinion
 - path dependency and, 38
 - welfare state and, 217
- public policy analysis, 17
- Qualifications and Curriculum Authority (QCA), 73
- Realschule*, 93, 94, 106, 107
- redistributive preferences
 - educational stratification and, 251
 - human capital and, 250
 - private education spending and, 250
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 249
- Reichsgrundschulgesetz, 93
- Richard Review of Apprenticeships, 77
- rightist parties, 40
- right-wing parties
 - apprenticeship training and, 169
 - educational expansion and, 43–4
 - public spending on higher education and, 150
 - tertiary enrollment and, 165
- Saltsjöbaden Agreement of 1938, 11, 79, 119
- Scandinavian countries, 33
 - education spending in, 136
 - education systems in, 134
 - educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 183–4
 - support for increased public spending in, 239
 - welfare state benefits, 263–4
- scatterplots, 136–55, 190
- Schröder, Gerhard, 259
- segmentalist skill regime, 129–30
- self-interest, 218–19, 250
- service economy, 257
- skill formation, 123–74
 - bivariate analyses, 136–55
 - cluster analysis, 132–3
 - collective skill regime, 14, 130–1, 134–5, 189
 - cross-national quantitative analysis, 123–74
 - liberal regime, 11–13, 33, 74–8, 129, 130, 134, 189–90
 - multivariate regression analyses, 155–69
- in OECD countries, 123–8
- political and institutional determinants of educational institutions and, 136–55
- scatterplots, 136–55
- segmentalist skill regime, 129–30
- statist skill regime, 11–12, 130
- unimodal distribution of, 185–6
- vocational education/training and, 257
- skills
 - educational inequality and, 185–90

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More informationIndex

307

- inequality and, 185–90, 255–6
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 185–90, 258
 - specificity, 248–9
 - technological changes and, 255–8
 - welfare state and, 34–5
- Social Democratic Party (SDP), 91, 100
 - comprehensive school model, 96–7
 - cross-class coalitions and, 120
- social democrats
 - cross-class alliances, 55
 - cross-class consensus, 117
 - lower level of private spending and, 137–8
 - political process preferences, 47–8
 - private education spending and, 159
 - public spending and, 141–3
 - statist skill-formation regime, 11–12
- social investment state
 - child-centered social investment, 260
 - de-commodification and, 262–3
 - education in, 259–64
 - human capital investments in, 259–60
 - policy paradigm, 262
 - political driving force in, 260
- social policies
 - education policy, 224–31
 - asset theory of social policy preferences, 34
 - support for, 228–9
- social rights, 30
- social spending, 138–41
- social transfer spending, 205–7
- socioeconomic inequality, 177–214
 - in Anglo-Saxon countries, 184
 - apprenticeship training and, 197–9
 - in Belgium, 184
 - in collective skill-formation regime, 189
 - in continental Europe, 184
 - cross-section time-series analyses, 199–213
 - cross-sectional evidence for, 190–9
 - degree of state involvement and, 187
 - education spending and, 205
 - educational inequality and, 181–5
 - educational institutions and, 20–2, 177–214
 - educational investment and, 177–8
 - educational stratification and, 187
 - in France, 183–4
 - higher education and, 193–5
 - in liberal skill-formation regimes, 189–90
 - limiting of, with VET investments, 178–9
 - in the Netherlands, 183–4
 - in OECD countries, 181–3
 - political economies and, 179–80
 - private education spending and, 199
 - public education spending and, 199
 - redistributive preferences and, 249
 - in Scandinavian countries, 183–4
 - skills and, 185–90, 255–6, 258
 - social-transfer spending and, 205–7
 - in southern European countries, 184–5
 - support for redistribution and, 249–50
 - VET enrollment and, 203–4
 - VET's role in, 179, 190–3
- socioeconomic institutions, 118, 152
- Soskice, David, 34
- southern European countries
 - Arendt, Hannah, 132
 - educational and socioeconomic inequality in, 184–5
 - statist skill-formation regimes in, 33
- Spain, public spending on education, 221
- staged apprenticeship, 105
- state actors, 39–40
- statist skill-formation regimes, 11–12
 - decommodification and stratification in, 33
 - descriptive statistics, 130
 - promotion of education in, 134
 - in Sweden, 11–12
- stratification, 29–33
 - de-commodification and, 31–2
 - employer involvement and, 188
 - enrollment patterns and, 143–5
 - individual income/educational background and, 233
 - redistributive preferences and, 251

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Bussemeyer

Index

More information

308

Index

- stratification (cont.)
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 187
 - support for educational spending and, 232, 239–41
 - welfare state and, 31
- Studentexamen*, 79–84
- subsidiarity, 46
- Svenska Arbetsgivareföreningen (SAF), 79, 90, 119–20
- Sweden, 78–90
 - apprenticeship training in, 86–7
 - comprehensive education system (1945–1975), 79–84
 - consolidation and conflict (1975–1990), 84–7
 - critical juncture in, 112
 - cross-class consensus in, 117–18, 119–20
 - decentralization and reform after 1991, 87–90
 - decentralized education system in, 85–6
 - education policy preferences in, 223
 - education system in, 4
 - free schools, 89
 - general schooling policies, 85–6
 - postwar development of
 - upper/post-secondary education, 112, 114
 - statist skill-formation regime in, 11–12
 - subsidies to private schools in, 88
 - VET in, 82–3, 86–7, 89–90
 - welfare state in, 5, 78, 216, 263
- Swedish Social Democrats (SAP), 79, 80, 84, 87
- Switzerland, 33
 - apprenticeships in, 77
 - education policy preferences in, 222
- Technical and Vocational Education Initiative (TVEI), 73
- technological changes, skill-biased, 255–8
- tertiary enrollment
 - analysis of, 159–64
 - Christian democrats and, 165
 - left-wing parties and, 165–6
 - nonstationarity and, 164
 - right-wing parties and, 165
 - VET enrollment and, 145–6
- Thatcher, Margaret, 58–9, 65
- Thelen, Kathleen, 38–9
- time and timing, 51, 52
- trade unions, 98
- Training and Enterprise Councils (TECs), 72
- trajectories of liberalization, 258
- transition system, 109
- unemployment, 197, 211–13
- United Kingdom, 33
 - consolidation of liberal skill regime (after 1997), 74–8
 - critical juncture in, 108
 - devolution in, 59
 - education and training reforms in, 58–78
 - education system in, 3, 4
 - LME in, 118–19
 - liberal skill-formation regime in, 12–13
 - neoliberal economic policies in, 59
 - neoliberal transformation of
 - education and training policy (1979–97), 68–74
 - partisan balance of power in, 58–9
 - partisan conflict and crisis in
 - 1964–79, 64–8
 - comprehensive schools, 65
 - decline of apprenticeship training, 67–8
 - local education authorities, 64–5
 - postwar consensus/institutional
 - consolidation in 1945–64, 60–4
 - apprenticeship training, 62
 - expansion of secondary and higher education in, 61
 - industrial training boards, 63–4
 - VET, 61
 - skills formation in, 129
 - VET and inequality in, 192
 - welfare state in, 4
- United States, 33
 - collective skill-formation regime in, 64
 - post-secondary education in, 56
 - VET and inequality in, 192

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06293-1 - Skills and Inequality: Partisan Politics and the Political Economy of Education Reforms in Western Welfare States

Marius R. Busemeyer

Index

More informationIndex

309

- upper education
 - educational stratification and, 143–5
 - postwar development of, 109–14
 - path consolidation, 113
 - path formation, 111
 - path initialization, 110–11
- upper-secondary education
 - apprenticeship training and, 168–9
 - Christian democratic approach to, 151–2
 - partisan legacies and, 146–50
- varieties of capitalism (VoC), 8–9, 34–6
- venture capital, 31–2
- vocational education and training (VET). See also apprenticeship training
 - Christian democratic approach to, 143, 150–2
 - collective skill-formation regimes and, 131
 - collective wage bargaining and, 168
 - commodification in, 32
 - Conservative government's policy on, 70
 - conservative versus Christian democrats in, 54–5
 - cross-class compromise in, 54–5
 - economic coordination and, 168
 - educational inequality and, 195–7
 - employer involvement in, 187–8
 - employer-designed, 50
 - enrollment patterns, 145–6, 166–8
 - enrollment versus socioeconomic inequality, 203–4
 - in Germany, 97–9, 101–3, 104–5, 108–9, 112, 114
 - labor market and, 154–5
 - labor union–employer cooperation in design of, 48–50
 - Labour government and, 66
 - left-right difference in spending for, 143
 - in OECD countries, 124–8
 - partisan politics and, 6–7, 54
 - positive feedback effects, 245–8
 - private education spending and, 207–9
 - right-wing parties and, 44
 - role in social inequality, 179
 - skill formation and, 257
 - skills demand on labor market and, 49
 - social investment state and, 261
 - socioeconomic inequality and, 178–9, 190–3
 - state involvement in, 187, 188
 - statist skill-formation regime and, 12, 130
 - support for educational spending and, 240
 - survival of, 7, 253–4
 - in Sweden, 82–3, 86–7, 89–90
 - youth unemployment and, 197, 211
- Volksschule*, 93, 94
- wage bargaining, 209–11
- Weimar period, 93–4
- welfare capitalism, 33, 129, 216–17
- welfare state, 18–19, 33
 - attitudes and, 216–17
 - Christian democrats and, 45–7
 - de-commodification and, 263
 - education and, 4–5
 - feedback effects, 215–16
 - public opinion and, 217
 - skills and, 34–5
 - social investment paradigm and, 262–3
 - social investment pillar, 261–2
 - social protection pillar, 261–2
 - southern European countries, 132
 - stratification and, 31
- Wilensky, Harold, 1
- Wilms, Dorothee, 104–5
- Winter of Discontent (1978–79), 118
- Workers' Educational Association (ABF), 81
- Youth Opportunities Programme (YOP), 68, 70
- Youth Training (YT), 73
- Youth Training Scheme (YTS), 70–2
- youth unemployment, 197, 211–13