

INDEX

- absolute monarchy, history in Thailand of, 407–8
- “abstract review”: in Japan, 105–9; in Taiwanese constitutional courts, 147–51, 169–72
- Academia Sinica, 177–9
- accessibility of justice: in Bangladesh, 468–9; comparative analysis of Asian court systems and, 39–42, 569; in Hong Kong, 203–7; in India, 281–3, 294–8; in Indonesia, 321–2, 334–8; litigation costs and, 40–1; in Malaysia, 391–5; in Mongolia, 350–1; in People’s Republic of China, 504–7; in Singapore, 242–6; in special courts and tribunals, 66–7; in Taiwan, 40–1, 159–63; in Thailand, 428–32; in Vietnam, 550–3
- Act Concerning Saiban-in (Lay Judge) Participation in Criminal Justice, 97–9
- Act No. 136 (Philippines), 370
- Act on Basic Provisions of Judicial Power (Indonesia), 303–7
- Act on Citizen Participation in Criminal Trials (South Korea), 116–18
- actio popularis*, Indonesian access to justice and, 321–2
- adaptation in Asian legal institutions, modernization and nationalism in, 52–3
- adat* law (Indonesia), 45–7, 316–17
- “additional” judges, comparative analysis of, 32–5
- adjudication: in Bangladesh civil courts, 452–3; comparative analysis in Asia of, 5–6; in constitutional courts, comparative analysis of, 27–8, 32; in Hong Kong, 183–6, 195–8; in India, 286–94; in Mongolian courts, 341–3; in South Korea, 116–18; in special courts and tribunals, comparative analysis of, 28–9; in supreme court jurisdictions, 30–1; in Taiwan, 59, 151–2, 172–4. See also norms of adjudication
- administrative courts: in Bangladesh, 459; in India, 271–5; Indonesian Administrative Tribunals, 303–7; in Mongolia, 341, 343–8; in Thailand, 410–11, 424–5
- Administrative Justice Act (Japan), 78–81
- administrative law: in India, 286–8; Indian personal law and, 290–4; in Japanese courts, 78–81, 83–9, 88n.78, 89n.80; in Taiwanese courts, 147–53, 160n.51, 160–1, 174–6; in Thailand, 428–9, 432–3
- Administrative Litigation Law (Taiwan), 147–51, 160–1
- Admiralty Court (Singapore), 240
- ADR. See alternative dispute resolution
- adversarialism, in court systems, 4–6
- Ahmad, Tariq, 286–8
- aimag courts, in Mongolia, 341–3
- Alam, M. Shah, 474
- alternative dispute resolution (ADR): in Bangladesh, 67–8, 472–7, 473n.76; competition for Asian courts

- from, 67–8, 574, 579–80;
 globalization and, 67–8, 574; in Hong Kong, 216–19; Indonesian courts and, 326–34, 335n.95;
 Malaysian courts and, 395–400; in Mongolia, 352–4; in People's Republic of China, 67–8, 510–15;
 in Singapore, 259–62; in Taiwan, 166–8; in Thailand, 67–8, 434–7;
 in Vietnam, 67–8, 557–62
- Amarsanaa, Batbold, 41–2, 340–55
- Ambedkar, B. R., 294
- amparo* writs (Philippines), 363–4
- Anti-Graft and Corrupt Practices Act (Philippines), 359–60
- appeals courts and procedures: in Bangladesh, 449–50, 453–5;
 colonization and transplantation
 in Asian courts and, 49–51; Hong Kong court structure and organization, 188–95; in Indian courts, 283–6; Indonesian court structure and, 303–7; in Japanese courts, 81–9; in Malaysian courts, 377–82; in Mongolian courts, 341, 345–8; in Philippines courts, 358; in Singapore, 248–50;
 in special courts and tribunals, comparisons of, 20–1; in Thailand,
 410; in Vietnam, 541
- The Applicable Law in Singapore and Malaysia* (Rutter), 384–5
- Application of English Law Act, 247–8
- appointment of judges: in Bangladesh, 23–6, 30–1, 462–3; comparison in Asian court systems, 29–32; in constitutional courts, comparative analysis, 32; in Hong Kong, 22–31, 193n.47, 198–201; in India, 271–5,
 280–1; in Indonesia, 318–19; in Japan, 95n.91, 99–105; lower court systems, comparative analysis, 29–30; in Malaysia, 386–9; in Mongolia, 347–8; in People's Republic of China, 23–6, 30–1,
 495–7; in Philippines, 22–31,
 360–5; power-sharing agreements concerning, 30–1; representation
- model of, 32; in Singapore, 30–1,
 233–4; in South Korea, 115–36n.59, 129–30, 130n.45; in supreme courts, 26–7, 30–1; in Taiwan, 27–8, 32, 155–6; in Thailand, 27–8, 32, 420–5; in Vietnam, 531–4, 542–5
- Aquino, Benigno III (Philippine president), 365–8
- arbitration: in Bangladesh, 473–6;
 globalization and emergence of,
 67–8; in Hong Kong, 218n.142, 218–19, 219n.143; in Indonesian courts, 329–34; in Malaysia, 395–8; in Mongolia, 352–4; in People's Republic of China courts, 497n.49, 512–15; in Singapore, 240; in Taiwan, 167; in Thailand, 435–7; in Vietnam, 557–62. See also alternative dispute resolution; dispute resolution; foreign arbitral awards; mediation
- Arbitration Act 2005 (Malaysia), 395–8, 396n.65
- Arbitration Law (People's Republic of China), 510–15
- Ariff, Mohamad, 397–8
- Arifin Zakaria (Malaysian Chief Justice), 404
- Asia: constitutional democracy in, 1–4; financial crisis of 1997 in, 10–11;
 postwar transformation of, 1–4
- Asian court systems: accessibility of justice in, 39–42, 569; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 574, 579–80; appointment of judiciary, comparative analysis of, 29–32;
 changing functions in transition of, 47–69, 572–3; citizens and, 37–47; colonization's influence in, 48–56, 570–2; in comparative profile, 12–47; constitutional courts in, 14–15, 567; contextual dimensions of research on, 6–11;
 corruption in, 63–4, 576–7;
 democratic transformation of,
 1–4, 572–3; economic challenges

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06608-3 - Asian Courts in Context

Edited by Jiunn-rong Yeh and Wen-chen Chang

Index

More information

- in, responses to, 17–18, 572–3, 575–6; foreign law references in, 47; future challenges for, 566–80; globalization and competition effects on, 10–11, 64–8, 574; institutional research methodology concerning, 4–6; judicial independence, comparative analysis of, 63–4, 566–70; legal education requirements, 35–7, 568; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6; modernization, nationalism and legal adaptation in, 52–3, 570–2; numerical comparisons of lawyers in, 39–40; qualifications requirements for judiciary, comparative analysis of, 22–9, 568; religion and indigenous cultures and tradition in, 53–6, 567; single and multiple Supreme Courts, 15–16; special courts and tribunals, 16–21, 567; structural comparisons of, 12–21; styles of judicial decisions, comparison of, 44–7, 569–70; terms and tenure of judges, comparative analysis of, 32–5; tradition and transplantation in, 7–8, 47–69, 570–2; transition and construction in, 8–10. See also specific countries
- “Asian values” discourse, Asian courts in context of, 6–11
- Association of Mongolian Advocates, 349–50, 350–1
- Australia: Indonesian judicial system and influence of, 313–14; Vietnamese legal system influenced by, 560–2
- Austronesian aboriginals, Taiwanese court structure and, 147–51; authoritarian regimes: bureaucratization and politicization of Asian courts and, 577–9; court systems and, 11–12; Philippine judicial reforms after, 356–7; in South Korea, judicial independence and, 127–9; South Korean court system and impact of, 112–41; Taiwanese constitutional court and, 169–72
- Ayutthaya Kingdom (Thailand), legal system of, 52–3
- Badan Arbitrase Muamalat Indonesia (BAMUI) (Indonesian Muamalah Board of Arbitration), 333–4
- Badan Arbitrase Nasional Indonesia (BANI) (Indonesian National Board of Arbitration), 333n.88, 333
- Badan Arbitrase Pasar Modal Indonesia (BAPMI) (Indonesian Capital Market Arbitration Center), 334
- Badariah Sahamid (Dr.), 388–9
- Bali Nine case (Indonesia), 324–5
- BAMUI (Badan Arbitrase Muamalat Indonesia) (Indonesian Muamalah Board of Arbitration), 333–4
- Bangladesh: accessibility of justice in, 468–9; administrative tribunal in, 459; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 472–7, 473n.76; Appellate Division (AD) of, 449–50; appointment of judiciary in, 23–6, 30–1, 462–3; arbitration in, 473–6; children’s courts in, 456; civil dispute adjudication in, 452–3; colonization and courts of, 49–51; compliance with judicial decisions in, 479; constitutional courts in, 14–15; Court of the Special Judge anti-corruption court, 457–8; court system in, 3, 447–84; criminal justice system and courts in, 453–60; democratic transition in, 11–12; economic challenges in courts of, 17–18, 56–9; Environment Courts in, 458; family courts in, 19–20, 458–9; foreign and comparative law influence in, 47; function of courts in, 59–63, 477–9; future challenges for courts in, 483–4; High Court Division (HCD) in, 450–1, 470–1; indigenous cultures and courts of,

- 19–20, 53–6; interpretive methods of judiciary in, 45–7, 471–2; judicial review in, 14–15, 450–1; judicial independence in, 464–6, 466n.55; jury system abolished in, 38–9; labor courts in, 460; Law and Order Disruptive Crimes (Speedy Trial) Tribunal, 457; lawmaking by judiciary in, 470–1; legal aid systems in, 468–9; legal education system in, 35–7, 467–8; lower court system in, 23–6; money loan courts in, 459; Muslim law in, 45–7; Nari O Shishu Nirjatan Daman tribunal in, 456–7; number of judges in, 21–2, 479n.87, 479–81; performance evaluation of courts in, 43, 479, 483; political transitions and judicial reforms in, 56–9; public interest litigation in, 41–2, 468–9; qualifications requirements for judiciary in, 23–6, 30–1; religion in courts of, 53–6; semi-formal rural/municipal justice system, 476–7; size of courts in, 21–2, 479–82; sources of law in, 470–1; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 456–60; Speedy Trial Tribunal, 457; structure of court systems in, 13, 448–62; style of judicial decisions in, 44–5, 165–6; Suppression of Acid Crimes Tribunal (Bangladesh), 456–7; Supreme Court in, 26–7, 30–1, 60–1, 449–51; tradition in courts of, 53–6; training requirements for judiciary in, 35–7, 467–8
- BANI (Badan Arbitrase Nasional Indonesia) (Indonesian National Board of Arbitration), 333n.88, 333
- Bankruptcy Act (Indonesia), 308
- Bankruptcy Act (Japan), 83–6
- BAPMI (Badan Arbitrase Pasar Modal Indonesia) (Indonesian Capital Market Arbitration Center), 334
- Bar Council of India, 283–6
- Barisan Revolusi Nasional Melayu Pattani (BRN) (Thailand), 437–8
- Basic Law of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region: appointment and qualifications of judges and, 198–201; Hong Kong judicial independence and, 186–7; interpretive methods of judiciary and, 212–16; judicial independence provisions in, 201–3; limits to accessibility of justice and, 203–7; sources of law in Article 18 of, 207–9
- Basic Law on Indigenous Peoples (Taiwan), 53–6
- Baxi, Upendra, 297
- Bengal regulation of 1772 (India), 290–4
- Bhagwati, P. N., 296
- Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) (India), 290–4
- Biro Bantuan Guaman* (Legal Aid Bureau) (Malaysia), 391–5
- BJP (Bharatiya Janata Party) (India), 290–4
- Boonsin Tulagan (Thai Justice), 434–5
- Britain. See Great Britain, law and judicial structure in
- BRN (Barisan Revolusi Nasional Melayu Pattani) (Thailand), 437–8
- Buddhist law, Bangladesh court system and influence of, 447–8
- bureaucratization: in India, 286–8; politicization of Asian courts and, 577–9; in South Korean court system, 112–41
- business groups, judicial independence in PRC and, 497–502
- Calderon, Felipe, 368–9
- Cambodia: constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; democratic reforms in, 1–4; judicial qualifications for constitutional courts in, 27–8; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5
- Canadian International Development Agency, 560–2

- capital city courts, in Mongolia, 341–3 career judicial system: in Indonesia, 318–19; in Japan, 91–7, 103–4; in Philippines, 368–70; in South Korea, 130–4; in Thailand, 420–1 Caron, David, 5–6
 case management systems: in Hong Kong, 216–18; in Indonesia, 319–20; in Malaysia, 398–9, 401–4; in People's Republic of China, 491–4; in Thailand, 415, 428–9, 441–2; in Vietnam, 534–65
 CCA (Civil Courts Act of 1887) (Bangladesh), 448–9, 452–3, 470–1
 CCP. See Chinese Communist Party
 CDR (Court Dispute Resolution) scheme (Singapore), 260–2 Central Jakarta District Court, Indonesian arbitration proceedings and, 329–34 centralized judicial review, prevalence in Asian courts of, 13
 Chan, Johannes, 204n.84, 222
Chan Po Fun decision (Hong Kong), 204n.84
 Chan Sek Keong, 256–7
 Chang, Wen-Chen, 1–69, 143–80, 566–80
Cheah Yoke Thong v. Public Prosecutor (Malaysia), 386–7 Chen Shui-Bian, investigation of, 8–10
 Chief Justices: in Hong Kong, 193–5, 198–201; in Japanese court system, 91–7, 94n.89; in South Korea, 129–30, 138–41
 children's courts: in Bangladesh, 456; in Indonesia, 310–11; in Malaysia, 383–4. See also family courts; juvenile courts and tribunals
 China. See Imperial China, People's Republic of China (PRC)
 Chinese Communist Party (CCP): judicial independence in PRC and, 497–502; PRC judicial system and, 488–95
 Ch'ing Dynasty, Taiwanese court system and, 143–5
 Chittagong Hill Tracts (CHT): family courts in, 458–9; local justice administration in, 460–1
 Choong, Yeow Choy, 19–20, 41–2, 52–3, 63–4, 375–405
 Chosun Dynasty (South Korea), 121–2
 CHT. See Chittagong Hill Tracts citizen participation: in Asian court systems, 37–47, 569; comparative analysis of accessibility, 39–42; Japanese judicial power and role of, 78–81, 97–9; litigation costs and legal aid access for, 40–1; participation in trials by, 38–9; satisfaction with judiciary, comparative analysis of, 43; in Singapore court system, 242; South Korean courts, participation in, 116–18; Taiwanese administrative litigation reforms and, 174–6. See also lay judges Civil Code of the Philippines, 370
 Civil Courts Act of 1887 (CCA) (Bangladesh), 448–9, 452–3, 470–1
 Civil Execution Act (Japan), 83–6 Civil Law Act of 1956 (Malaysia), 375–7 civil law systems: in Bangladesh, 452–3, 458–62, 473–6; citizen participation in, 38–9; economic and political transitions and judicial reforms and, 56–9; functional dynamics within, 48; Hong Kong judiciary and court system and, 188n.24, 188–93, 210–12; in India, 271–5; Indonesian judicial system and influence of, 313–16, 323; in Japan, 52–3, 89n.80; Japanese court system and, 52–3, 83–9, 88n.78, 89n.78, 91–7; judicial precedent and interpretive methods in, 45–7; judicial training and legal education requirements, 35–7; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6; Malaysian jurisdiction and procedures and, 381–2; Malaysian Syari'ah courts and, 382–3; in Mongolia, 341–8; in

- South Korea, 118–21, 124–6, 134–6; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21; style of judicial decisions and, 44–5; supreme court structure and, 15–16, 26–7; in Taiwan, 59, 143–5, 163–5, 164n.63, 167–8; in Thailand, 407–8, 428–9; in Vietnam, 534–9
- Civil Rehabilitation Act (Japan), 83–6
- Civil Service Commission (Philippines), 360
- Claridge, John Thomas (Sir), 230–1
- CLAS (Criminal Legal Aid Scheme) (Singapore), 246
- class action laws: Indonesian access to justice and, 321–2; in Malaysia, 393–5
- class structure, Indonesian court performance linked to, 334–8
- Clayton Antitrust Act, 313–14
- COA (Commission on Audit), 360
- Code of Civil Procedure (Bangladesh), 452–3
- Code of Civil Procedure (Taiwan), 151–2
- Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) (Bangladesh), 448–9, 453–5
- Cohen, Jerome A., 518–19
- Collegium process (India), appointment of judges and, 280–1
- colonialism and colonization: of Hong Kong, 183–6; in India, 271–5; Indonesian court structure and, 303–7, 304n.2, 314–16; Japanese influence in South Korea from, 121–4; judicial review models and influence of, 14–15; jury systems in Asia and influence of, 38–9; legal education and influence of, 35–7; Malaysian judicial system and, 375–7, 385–6; Mongolian judicial system and, 351–2; nationalism as response to, 52–3; Philippines judiciary transition from, 370; in Singapore, 228–31, 252–4; Taiwanese court and judicial system and, 143–5; tradition in Asian courts and influence of, 48–56, 570–2; training of judiciary and influence of, 35–7; transplantation of courts and legal institutions and, 48–56, 570–2; Vietnamese legal system and, 529–31
- COMELEC (Commission on Elections), 360
- commercial law and court systems: emergence in Asia of, 567; Indian personal law and, 290–4; in Indonesia, 308, 313–14, 317–18, 334; in Malaysia, 383–4; in People's Republic of China, 519–21; in Philippines, 360, 365–8; in Singapore, 240; in Thailand, 432–3; in Vietnam, 558–60
- Commission for the Supervision of Business Competition (KPPU) (Indonesia), 317–18, 326
- Commission on Audit (COA), 360
- Commission on Elections (COMELEC), 360
- Commission on the Disciplinary Sanction of Public Functionaries, 147–51
- common law jurisdictions: absence of jury system in, 38–9; in Bangladesh, 447–8; changing functions of courts in, 62–3; functional dynamics within, 48; global norms and convergence of laws in, 65–6; in Hong Kong, 183–225; Indian court structure and, 271–5, 286–94; Indonesian judicial system and influence of, 313–14; judicial precedent and interpretive methods in, 45–7; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6; Malaysian legal system and, 375–7; in Singapore, 228–30, 247–8; style of judicial decisions and, 44–5; in Thailand, 407–8; training and legal education requirements for, 35–7

- Communist Party of Vietnam (CPV):
 interpretive methods of judiciary influenced by, 557; judicial independence and, 545–7; sources of law and influence of, 553–6; Vietnamese court systems and role of, 529–34
- Company Act (Japan), 83–6
- compensatory justice: in Bangladesh, 477–9; in Singapore, 259; in Thailand, 439–40
- competition: Asian court systems and impact of, 10–11, 64–8, 574; in Indonesian court system, 10–11,
 65–6; in Singapore court system, 231–2; Thailand judicial system
 and, 419
- Competition Act (Indonesia), 313–14
- Competition Tribunal (Hong Kong), 188–93
- compliance with judicial decisions: in Bangladesh, 479; in Indonesia, 334–8; in Taiwan, 176–7; in Thailand, 440–1; in Vietnam, 541–2
- conciliation: in Bangladesh arbitration courts, 473–7; in Indonesian courts, 327–8
- Concurrent List (India), 286–8
- Confucianism: mediation in PRC courts and, 511–12; South Korean judicial system and, 121–2
- Constitution of 1987 (Philippines), 356–7, 360–3
- Constitution of India (1950), sources of law and adjudication and,
 286–94
- Constitution of Japan: judicial power in, 78–81; judicial recruitment and appointment and, 91–7
- Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand B. E. 2550 (2007), 408–11
- Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, 447–8
- “constitutional commissions,” in Philippines, 360
- Constitutional Council of France,
 research concerning, 5–6
- Constitutional Court of South Africa:
 Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 214–15; research on, 5–6
- constitutional courts: comparisons of, in Asian court systems, 14–15, 567; democratic transition in Asia and establishment of, 8–10; economic and political transitions and, 56–9; in Indonesia, 303–7, 311–12; judicial appointments in, comparative analysis, 32; judicial qualifications for, comparative analysis of, 27–8; in Mongolia, 341, 343–5; political transitions and functions of, 61–2; in South Korea, 116–18, 124–6; in Taiwan, 143–5, 147–51, 169–72; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5; in Thailand, 409–10, 424–5
- Constitutional Interpretation
 Procedural Act (1993), 147–51
- constitutional litigation: economic and political transitions and, 56–9; Hong Kong judicial interpretive methods and, 212–16; Indian Supreme Court interpretive authority and, 288–90; Japanese Supreme Court and, 86–9, 105–9,
 107–8n.162; in Taiwan, 147–51,
 164n.62, 169–72; Taiwanese courts and judicial reform and, 143–80; Taiwanese criminal justice reforms and, 172–4; in Thailand, 409–10,
 428–9, 432–3; in Vietnam, 553–6
- Constitutional Tribunal (Singapore), 14–15
- Constitutional Tsets (Mongolia), establishment of, 343–5
- construction, in Asian court systems, 8–10
- consumer protection: comparative analysis of Asian courts concerning, 16–21, 61; in India, 271–5; in Indonesia, 321–2, 325–6;
 in Malaysia, 383–4; in Singapore,
 259–62; in Thailand, 414, 439–40
- contract judges, comparative analysis
 of, 32–5

- Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, 329–34
- convergence of laws, globalization and, 65–6
- cooperation model, constitutional court judicial appointments, 32
- Corona, Renato (Philippine Chief Justice), 365–8
- Coroner's Court (Hong Kong), 188–93
- corruption: in Asian judicial systems, 63–4, 576–7; Bangladesh Court of the Special Judge anti-corruption court, 457–8; in Bangladesh judiciary, 483n.93, 483; Hong Kong's absence of, 219–25; in Indonesian judiciary, 63–4, 319–20, 322; Malaysian judiciary and, 390–1; Philippines anti-corruption courts, 359–63
- Council of Grand Justices (Taiwan), 143n.2; qualifications and appointment of, 155–6; relocation from mainland of, 143–5; structure of, 147–51
- Court Act (Japan), 83–7, 91–7
- court-annexed mediation (susongnei tiaojie) (People's Republic of China), 510–15
- Court Composition Act of 1895 (South Korea), 121–2, 122n.30
- Court Dispute Resolution (CDR) scheme (Singapore), 260–2
- Court of Cassation (France), 15–16
- Court of Final Appeal (Hong Kong), 195–8; appointment and qualifications of judges for, 193n.47, 198–201; future issues in Hong Kong legal system and, 223–5; Hong Kong judicial independence and, 186–7; interpretive methods in, 212–16; judicial independence of, 201–3; judicial recruitment and, 22–9; law and policy making and, 192n.44, 210–12
- Court of First Instance (Thailand), 410
- Court of First Instance of the High Court (Hong Kong), 188–93, 195–8; appointment and qualifications of judges for, 188n.25, 198–201; mediation proceedings and, 216–18
- Court of Judicial Magistrates, 453–5
- Court of Tax Appeals, 359–60
- Court of the Special Judge anti-corruption court (Bangladesh), 457–8
- Court Organization Act (South Korea), 113–14, 129–30, 138–41
- Courts of Justice (Thailand), 410
- Courts of Sessions (Bangladesh), 453–5
- CPV. See Communist Party of Vietnam
- CrCP (Code of Criminal Procedure) (Bangladesh), 448–9, 453–5
- criminal law: in Bangladesh, 453–62; economic and political transitions and, 59–63; Hong Kong courts structure and organization, 188n.24, 188–93, 194n.48; in India, 271–5, 286–94; Japanese judiciary and, 87, 89n.80, 97–9; in Malaysia, 382; in Mongolia, 341–8; South Korean judicial independence and, 134–6; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21; supreme court structure and, 15–16; in Taiwan, 151–2, 160–5, 164n.64, 172–4; in Thailand, 428–33; in Vietnam, 534–9
- Criminal Legal Aid Scheme (CLAS) (Singapore), 246
- Criminal Procedure Code (Philippines), 382
- Criminal Procedure Law (People's Republic of China), 508–10
- customary law: in India, 286–8; Malaysian sources of law including, 384–5; in Singapore judicial system, 250–1; as South Korean source of law, 124–6
- Daendels Governorship, Indonesian legal system and, 314–16
- Danish International Development Agency (DANIDA), 560–2

- Dato'* justice system, 422–3
 Davide, Hilario Jr. (Philippine judge), 365–8
 “delay lawyering” practices in India, 283–6
 Democratic Progressive Party (DPP) (Taiwan), 143–5, 159–63, 169–72 Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRVN), legal system of, 529–31. See also Vietnam democratization: bureaucratization and politicization of Asian courts and, 1–4, 8–10, 48, 577–9; in India, 269–71; in Indonesia, 1–4, 8–12, 316; Japanese judicial review process and, 105–9; judicial reforms and transition to, 56–9; in Malaysia, 11–12, 17–18, 56–9, 375–7; in Mongolia, 340; Philippine judicial reforms and, 356–7; South Korean court system and impact of, 112–41; Taiwanese court system and transition to, 143–5, 160–1, 169–72; Thailand judicial system and, 416–18
 Deng Xiaoping, 183–6 developing countries, economic and political transitions and judicial reforms in, 56–9 Diamond, Larry, 1–4 disciplinary courts, in Taiwan, 147–51 dismissal of judges: comparative analysis of, 32–5; in Japan, 91–7, 99–105; in Malaysia, 388–9; in Mongolia, 347–8; in Taiwan, 155–6; in Thailand, 424–5; in Vietnam, 531–4. See also impeachment of judges; tenure of judges dispute resolution: Asian court systems and tradition of, 7–8, 10–11, 67–8; in Bangladesh, 67–8, 472–7; in Hong Kong, 166–8, 216n.133, 216–19; in India, 294–8; in Indonesia, 327–9; in Malaysia, 395–400; in Mongolia, 352–4; in People’s Republic of China, 67–8, 510–15; religion and indigenous cultures and tradition in, 53–6; in Singapore, 259–62; in Taiwan, 166–8; in Thailand, 67–8, 434–7. See also alternative dispute resolution; arbitration laws district courts: in Bangladesh, 452–3; in Hong Kong, 188n.26, 188–93, 195–8; in India, 271–9; in Indonesia, 303–7; in Japan, t83–6, 91; in Mongolia, 341–3; in People’s Republic of China, 489–91, 493–5; in South Korea, 113–14; in Taiwan, 147–51; in Vietnam, 534–9
 DPP (Democratic Progressive Party) (Taiwan), 143–5, 159–63, 169–72
Dr Mohuddin Farooqu v. Bangladesh (Bangladesh), 468–9 Draft Law on Alternative Dispute Resolution (Indonesia), 327–8
 DRVN (Democratic Republic of Vietnam), legal system of, 529–31. See also Vietnam due process, Taiwanese criminal justice reforms and, 172–4 Dung, Nguyen Dang, 553–6
 Dutch law: colonization and influence in Asia of, 49–53, 314–16; colonization of Malaysia and, 385–6; Indonesian court structure and, 303–7, 304n.2, 313–14, 320–1
 Duty Lawyer Service (Hong Kong), 205–7
 e-filing systems, in Malaysia, 403–4 economic transitions: changing functions of court systems and, 59–63, 572–3; Hong Kong dispute resolution and, 219; in India, 286–8; Indonesian court system and, 317–18, 326; Japanese court system and, 109–10; judicial independence in context of, 63–4; judicial reforms and, 56–64, 572–3; People’s Republic of China

- judicial reforms and, 515–19;
 quality and capacity of Asian judiciary to respond to, 575–6; in Singapore, 233, 258–9; in South Korea, 123–4; special courts and tribunals in Asia as response to, 567; Taiwanese constitutional courts and, 169–72; Thailand judiciary system and, 419
- elections violations: changing functions of court systems concerning, 59–63; Japanese courts and, 83–6;
 judicial independence and, 63–4;
 in Philippines, 360
- employment legislation, Hong Kong court system and, 188–93
- enforcement of arbitration awards: in Indonesia, 329–34; in Malaysia, 396–8
- environmental law: in Bangladesh, 458; Indonesian interpretive methods and, 324–5; in Mongolia, in People's Republic of China,
 489–91; in Philippines, 363–4; Taiwanese standing to sue and public interest litigation and,
 160–1; in Thailand, 438–9
- Estrada, Joseph (Philippine Vice-President), 360–3
- European constitutional adjudication:
 Japanese court system and, 78–81;
 research concerning, 5–6
- European Convention on Human Rights, Hong Kong interpretive methods and influence of, 214–15
- European Court of Human Rights,
 Hong Kong interpretive methods
 and, 214–15
- European Union, special courts and tribunals related to, 66–7
- evidence, rules of: Indian Evidence Act,
 286–8; in Philippines, 363–4
- exam-based judicial qualifications:
 bureaucratization and politicization of Asian courts and, 577–9; lower court systems,
 comparative analysis of, 23–6, 25n.115; quality comparisons of Asian judges and, 568; in South Korea, 117n.17; in Taiwan, 155n.38, 155–6, 162–3; in Thailand, 420–1; traditional culture in Asia and, 570–2
- Examination Yuan (Taiwan), judicial training and legal education and, 157–9
- executive powers, Singapore limits on access to justice and, 242–4
- Executive Yuan (Taiwan), 156–7
- expatriates, Indonesian court performance and, 334–8
- Fair and Speedy Trial Act (Taiwan), 143–5, 151–2
- Fairuz, Ahmad (Chief Justice), 388–9
- Family Cases Procedure Act (Japan), 81–3
- family courts: in Bangladesh, 458–9;
 emergence in Asia of, 19–20, 567;
 in Hong Kong, 188n.26; in Indonesia, 303–7, 310–11;
 Japanese system of, 81–3, 89n.79;
 in Philippines, 359–60; in Singapore, 241–2, 260–2;
 Taiwanese civil litigation reform and, 59; in Thailand, 421–2; in Vietnam, 539–40
- Federal Constitution of Malaysia, 375–7, 387–9
- federal courts, in Malaysia, 383–4, 384n.27, 386–8
- Federation of Malaya (Federated Malay States), 230–2, 385–6
- Ferejohn, John, 5–6
- File Tracking System (FTS) for Malaysian courts, 402–3
- Finance Dispute Resolution Centre
 (Hong Kong), 219
- financial reforms: Asian court systems and impact of, 10–11; Taiwanese constitutional courts and, 169–72
- Financial Restructuring Fund (Taiwan), 169–72
- Five-Year Reform Plans, People's Republic of China judicial reforms
 and, 515–19, 522–4

- Five-Year Reform Plan of the People's Court (1999–2003) (PRC), 522–4
- foreign arbitral awards: Indonesian laws concerning, 329–34, 337n.98; in Malaysia, 397–8; in Mongolia, 352–4; in People's Republic of China, 489–91, 491n.23, 512–15, 513n.148, 513–14n.149; in Vietnam, 557–62
- foreign investment and trade: Indonesian legal system and, 317–18, 334–8, 338n.99; judicial reforms and expansion of, 56–9; Mongolian arbitration and, 352–4; Singapore judicial system and, 233; in South Korea, 123–4; special courts and tribunals related to, 66–7; Thailand judicial system and, 419, 421–2
- foreign law: Asian courts systems' reference to, 47, 569–70; global norms and convergence of laws and, 65–6; Indonesian interpretive methods and, 324–5, 337n.98; Malaysian judicial system and influence of, 384–5; Taiwanese judicial decisions and interpretive methods and, 165–6; Vietnamese judicial system and influence of, 560–2
- France: colonization and transplantation of legal institutions from, 49–51; Constitutional Council of, 4–6; Court of Cassation in, 15–16; Vietnamese legal system influenced by, 529–31, 560–2
- Free Legal Advice Scheme (Hong Kong), 205–7
- free trade agreements. See foreign investment and trade
- freedom of expression: absence in Japanese judicial review of, 105–9; Taiwanese criminal justice reforms and, 172–4
- FTS (File Tracking System) for Malaysian courts, 402–3
- Fundamental Rights in Indian constitution, 288–90
- Gandhi, Indira, 288–90
- Garcia v. Board of Investments* (Philippines), 365–8
- gender issues, Taiwanese civil litigation reform and, 59
- General Tribunals (Indonesia), 303–7
- German legal system: federal judicial system in, 13–16; Hong Kong interpretive methods and influence of, 214–15; Japanese judicial system, influence on, 7–8, 52–3; Mongolian courts and influence of, 343
- Ginsburg, Tom, 5–6, 11–12, 59–60, 169–72
- globalization: alternative dispute resolution systems and, 67–8; Asian court systems and impact of, 10–11, 47–69, 574; convergence of laws and, 65–6; Indonesian legal system and, 317–18; judicial power in politics and, 5–6; Singapore judicial system and, 233; South Korean democratization and, 123–4; special courts and tribunals as result of, 66–7; Thailand judiciary system and, 419
- Golaknath v. Punjab* (India), 288–90
- Gopal Sri Ram (Chief Justice), 393–5
- Government of Malaysia v. Lim Kit Stang* (Singapore), 242–4
- grand bench (Japanese Supreme Court), 86–9
- “grave abuse” standard, Philippine judicial power and, 356–7
- Great Britain, law and judicial structure in: Asian court systems compared with, 4–6; Bangladesh court system and influence of, 447–8; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions from, 49–51, 228–30; Hong Kong judiciary influenced by, 183n.2, 183–6, 195–8, 196n.54, 199n.61, 214–15;

- human rights laws and, 214n.120;
 Indian court structure and, 269–75; Indian personal law and,
 290–4; Indonesian judicial system and influence of, 313–14; judicial review models based on, 14–15;
 Malayan Union and, 232–3;
 Malaysian court system and, 375–7, 385–6; Mongolian judicial system and influence of, 351–2; Singapore legal system influenced by, 247–8, 250–4; Thailand judicial system influenced by, 52–3, 407–8; training and legal education requirements for judiciary based on, 35–7.
See also Privy Council (Great Britain)
- Gu, Weixia, 28–9, 38–9, 41–2, 53–9, 61, 63–4, 66–7, 487–524
- habeas data* writs, in Philippines, 363–4
- Hartmann, Michael, 205–7
- Helmke, Gretchen, 5–6
- high court systems: in Bangladesh, 450–1, 470–1, 477–9; in Hong Kong, 188–93; in India, 271–9; in Indonesia, 303–7; in Japan, 83–6, 90; in Malaysia, 383–4, 384n.27,
 396–8; in People's Republic of China, 489–91, 493–5; in Singapore, 236–42, 248–50; in South Korea, 113–14; in Taiwan, 147–51
- Hindu law: Bangladesh court system and influence of, 447–8; dispute resolution and, 53–6; Indian personal law and, 290–4
- HKSAR. See Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR)
- Ho Chi Minh, 529–31
- Ho Chi Minh Bar Association, 553–6
- Hong Kong Bar Association, 198–201, 199n.61
- Hong Kong Bill of Rights, 219–25
- Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR): access to justice in, 203–7; alternative dispute resolution in, 216n.133, 216–19; appointment of judges in, 22–31, 193n.47, 198–201; arbitration in courts of, 218n.142, 218–19, 219n.143; changing functions of courts in, 62–3; citizen's satisfaction with judiciary in, 43;
 colonization and transplantation
 of legal institutions in, 49–51;
 common law jurisdictions in, 183–225; constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15;
 democratic transition in, 11–12;
 dispute resolution in, 67–8;
 economic growth in, 1–4, 56–9;
 establishment of, 183–6, 185n.7;
 foreign and comparative law in,
 47; future legal and judicial issues for, 219–25; global norms and convergence of laws in, 65–6;
 interpretive method in judiciary of, 45–7, 212–16; judicial independence and power in, 186–7, 201–3; judicial law and policy-making in, 210–12; judicial review in, 203–7, 205n.88, 206n.90, 223; judicial system overview of, 186–8; jury system in, 38–9, 48; languages used in judicial system of, 191n.40, 209–10; legal aid systems in, 205n.87, 205–7;
 litigation costs and legal aid access in, 40–1, 205–7; lower court system in, 23–6, 29–30; mediation in courts of, 216n.131, 216–17n.134, 216–18; number of judges in, 21–2; performance of courts in, 193–5, 219–25, 220–1n.151, 221nn.152–153;
 permanent resident status issues in,
 221n.154, 223n.160, 224n.162,
 223–5; public interest litigation in,
 41–2, 203–7; qualification requirements for judiciary in, 22–31, 198–201; size of courts in, 193–5; sources of law in, 207–9; special courts and tribunals in, 17–18;

- Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR): access to justice in (cont.)
 structure of court systems in, 13; style of judicial decisions in, 44–5, 209–10; supreme court structure in, 30–1; training and legal education requirements for judges
 in, 35–7
- Hoque, Ridwanul, 17–18, 45–7, 53–6, 59–61, 447–84
- Hu Jintao, 489n.9, 518
- human rights laws and rulings: in Bangladesh, 453–5, 468–9;
 changing functions of courts concerning, 59–63; global norms and convergence of laws concerning, 65–6; Hong Kong legal system and, 207–9, 214n.119, 214n.118, 214–15, 215n.125,
 219–25; Indonesian courts, 324–5; Malaysian individual litigants
 access to justice and, 391–5;
 Philippine judicial independence concerning, 363–4; Taiwanese courts and, 160–1, 172–4;
 in Thailand, 428–9
- ICC (International Chamber of Commerce), 435–7
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund
- impeachment of judges: comparative analysis of, 32–5; in Japan,
 99–105; in Philippines, 365–8; in Taiwan, 155–6; in Thailand, 424–5
- Imperial China: Asian court systems compared with, 4–6; dispute resolution and, 7–8; Hong Kong history and, 183–225; influence on Taiwanese judicial system of, 7–8, 143–5
- independence, in court systems, 4–6
- India: accessibility of judicial and legal services in, 281–3, 294–8; appointments to judiciary in,
 280–1; changing functions of
 courts in, 61; citizen's dissatisfaction with judiciary in, 43, 283–6; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions in, 49–51;
 constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; democratic transition in, 11–12, 269–71;
 economic transition in, 1–4, 17–18, 56–9; interpretive methods in judicial systems of, 45–7, 288–90; judicial independence in,
 280–1; judicial system in, 13–14, 30–1, 269–301; jury system abolished in, 38–9; legal education and training in, 35–7, 281–3;
 litigation costs and legal aid access
 in, 40–1; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6;
 modernization and nationalism in,
 52–3; Muslim law in, 45–7;
 number of judges in, 21–2, 275–9;
 number of lawyers in, 39–40, 283–6; performance evaluation of courts in, 275–9; personal law in, 290–4, 291n.50; political transition in, 1–4, 17–18, 56–9; proposed reduction of courts in, 299–301;
 public interest litigation in, 41–2;
 religion and indigenous cultures and tradition in legal system of, 53–6; shortage of judges in, 275–9;
 size of courts in, 275–9; sources of law in, 286–94; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21; structure of judiciary in, 271–5; Supreme Court in, 30–1, 269–71, 288–90;
 terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5
- Indian Code of Criminal Procedure, 286–8
- Indian Evidence Act, 286–8
- Indian Penal Code (IPC), 286–8
- indigenous cultures: in Chittagong Hill Tracts, justice administration and, 460–1; comparative analysis of court structures for, 19–20, 570–2;
 Indian judicial system and, 294–8;
 Indonesian legal system and,
 314–17, 323–4; interpretive

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06608-3 - Asian Courts in Context

Edited by Jiunn-rong Yeh and Wen-chen Chang

Index

More information

INDEX

595

- methods and judicial precedent based on law of, 45–7; Malaysian judicial system and, 384–5; Singapore judiciary and role of, 228–30, 232–3; as sources of law, 45–7; special courts and tribunals in Asia for, 567; in Taiwan, court systems for, 147–51; in Thailand, 418–19; tradition in legal institutions and role of, 53–6, 570–2
- Indonesia: accessibility of justice in, 321–2; administrative supervision of judiciary in, 320; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 326–34; appointment of judges in, 318–19; arbitration proceedings in, 329–34; changing functions of courts in, 59–63; Children's Court in, 310–11; citizen's dissatisfaction with judiciary in, 43; colonialism and legal system of, 303–7, 304n.2, 314–16; Commercial Courts in, 308; constitutional courts in, 14–15, 32, 311–12; democratic transition in, 1–4, 8–12, 316; Dutch colonial influence in, 52–3; economic and political transitions and judicial reforms in, 1–4, 56–9; foreign trade influences in, 317–18; function of courts in, 325–6; globalization and competition in, 10–11, 65–6, 317–18; Human Rights Court in, 311; indigenous demands in, 316–17; indigenous legal sources in, 45–7; interpretive methods and judicial precedent in, 45–7, 324–5; judicial budget in, 319–20; judicial corruption in, 63–4, 319–20; judicial independence in, 319–20; judicial precedent in, 323; judicial review in, 311–12; labor court in, 309–10; law-making by judiciary in, 324; legal aid programs in, 321–2; legal education in, 35–7, 320–1; litigation costs in, 322; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6; mediation in courts of, 327–9, 329n.50; modernization pressures in, 313–14; norms and convergence of laws in, 65–6; number of judges in, 21–2, 313; number of lawyers in, 39–40, 313; overview of courts and judicial system in, 303–38; performance evaluation of courts in, 313, 334–8; public interest litigation in, 41–2; qualification requirements for judges in, 318–19; religious courts in, 19–20, 53–6; religious law in, 316–17; size of courts in, 313; social control through court system in, 325–6; social movements in, 316; sources of law and influences on judicial system in, 313–18, 323; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 307–11; structure of court systems in, 13, 303–7, 313; style of judicial decisions in, 44–5, 323–4; supreme court structure in, 15–16; Syari'ah Tribunals in, 307; Tax Review Tribunal in, 308–9; tenure of judges in, 32–5, 319; tradition in legal system of, 316–17; training for judiciary in, 35–7, 320–1; village dispute resolution in, 335n.95; Western influences on judicial system in, 313–14
- Infineon Technologies (M) Sdn Bhd v. Orisoft Technology Sdn Bhd*, 397–8
- institutional capacity: of Bangladesh courts, 479–81; future quality and capacity of Asian judiciary and, 575–6; of Thailand courts, 441–2
- institutional research methodology, comparative study of court systems and, 4–6, 566
- instrumental judicial administration, in South Korea, 138–41
- insurance theory, research on Asian court systems and, 5–6
- Intellectual Property Case Adjudication Act (Taiwan), 147–51

- Intellectual Property Court (Taiwan), 155–6
- intellectual property law: globalization and creation of, 66–7; judicial qualifications for, 28–9, 29n.134; in People's Republic of China, 489–91; in Singapore, 240; in Taiwan, 147–51, 155–6; in Thailand, 419, 421–2
- inter-soum courts, in Mongolia, 341–3
- interagency actions, Japanese judicial power and role of, 78–81
- internal independence, in Japanese judicial system, 99–105
- International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), 435–7
- international courts and tribunals: competition for Asian courts from, 579–80; institutional research on, 5–6; Mongolian arbitration and, 352–4
- International Criminal Court, 324–5
- international law: Asian courts systems' reference to, 569–70; global norms and convergence of laws and, 65–6; Indonesian judiciary and, 324–5; Taiwanese judicial decisions and interpretive methods and, 165–6; Vietnamese judicial system and influence of, 560–2
- International Monetary Fund (IMF): Indonesian commercial law and, 313–14, 317–18; special courts and tribunals related to, 66–7
- interpretive methods in judicial systems: in Bangladesh, 471–2; comparative analysis in Asia of, 45–7, 569–70; in Hong Kong, 45–7, 212–16; Indian Supreme Court authority concerning, 288–90; in Indonesia, 324–5; in Mongolia, 351–2; in People's Republic of China, 507–8, 508n.113; in Singapore, 45–7, 256; in South Korea, 127; in Taiwan, 165–6; in Vietnam, 553–7
- IPC (Indian Penal Code), 286–8
- Islamic law. See Muslim law; Syari'ah legal systems
- Iyer, Krishna (Justice), 294–8
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 153* (Taiwan), 163–5
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 156* (Taiwan), 174–6
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 166* (Taiwan), 172–4
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 175* (Taiwan), 156–7
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 185* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 204* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 218* (Taiwan), 176–7
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 242* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 251* (Taiwan), 172–4
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 261* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 365* (Taiwan), 59
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 371* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 392* (Taiwan), 172–4
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 396* (Taiwan), 147–51
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 423* (Taiwan), 174–6
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 436* (Taiwan), 147–51
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 459* (Taiwan), 174–6
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 469* (Taiwan), 174–6
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 499* (Taiwan), 169–72, 176–7
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 520* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 530* (Taiwan), 145–53, 156–7, 169–72

- J. Y. Interpretation No. 539* (Taiwan), 156–7
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 553* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 582* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 585* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 601* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 665* (Taiwan), 156–7
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 675* (Taiwan), 169–72
- J. Y. Interpretation No. 704* (Taiwan), 147–51
- Japan: career judges in, categories of, 91–7; changing functions of courts in, 61–2; citizen juries and judges in, 38–9; colonization in China, influence on legal systems from, 49–51, 143–5; colonization of South Korea by, 122–3; constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; courts and judicial power in, 77–110; democratic transition in, 1–4, 7–8, 11–12, 77–8; district and high courts in, 83–6, 91; economic and political transitions and judicial reforms in, 56–9; evaluation of court system in, 109–10; foreign and comparative law in, 47; global norms and convergence of laws in, 65–6; invasion of Singapore by, 228–30, 252–4; judicial independence in, 63–4, 99–105; judicial power in, 78–81; judicial review in, 105–9; judicial system in, 7–8, 26–7, 30–1, 77–110; jury system in, 48; lay judges selection in, 97–9; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6; modernization, nationalism and legal adaptation in, 52–3; Mongolian judicial system and influence of, 351–2; performance evaluation of judiciary in, 43, 89–90; Philippines occupation by, 372; postwar economic and political transition in, 1–4, 77–8; religion and indigenous cultures and tradition in legal system of, 53–6; South Korean judicial system, colonial influence on, 121–2; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21; structure of court systems in, 13, 81–90; summary and family courts in, 81–3, 89n.79; Supreme Court in, 15–16, 30–1, 86–90; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5; training and legal education of judges in, 35–7, 104–5; Vietnamese judicial system and influence of, 560–2
- Japan-Korea Treaty of 1876, 121–2, 122n.30
- Japanese Federation of Bar Associations, 104–5
- Japanese International Cooperation Agency (JICA), 560–2
- JBC (Judicial and Bar Council) (Philippines), 364–5
- JEB (Judicial Education Board) (Singapore), 235–6
- “Jeon-gwan-ye-u” syndrome, early retirement of South Korean judges and, 132–3
- job satisfaction in judiciary, problems in India with, 275–9
- Jones Law of 1916, 370
- JORC (Judicial Officers Recommendation Commission) (Hong Kong), 198–201
- Judge Act of 2011 (Taiwan), 29–30, 155–6
- Judges’ Law (PRC) (1995), 495–7, 502–4
- Judges Status Act (Japan), 103
- Judicial Academy (Vietnam), 549–50
- judicial administration: by Japanese Supreme Court, 99–105; in Mongolia, 348–9; in People’s Republic of China, 497–502; in Philippines, 360–3, 365;

- judicial administration: by Japanese Supreme Court (cont.)
  - in South Korea, 137n.40, 138–41;
  - in Thailand, 426–7; in Vietnam, 548–9
- Judicial Administration Training Institute (Bangladesh), 467–8
- Judicial and Bar Council (JBC) (Philippines), 364–5
- Judicial and Legal Service (Malaysia), 386–7
- Judicial Appointments Commission (Malaysia), 387–91, 404–5
- judicial budget: in Hong Kong, 201–3; in Indonesia, 319–20; in Mongolia, 348–9; in Philippines, 360–3, 365; in South Korea, 136–7; in Thailand, 426–7; in Vietnam, 531–4, 548–9
- Judicial Commissioners (Malaysia), 388–9
- Judicial Education Board (JEB) (Singapore), 235–6
- judicial federalism: comparative analysis of Asian courts and, 13–14; in India, differences in, 271–5; nationalism as alternative to, 52–3; scarcity in Asia of, 13
- judicial independence: in Bangladesh, 464–6, 466n.55; future challenges in Asia to, 576–7; in Hong Kong, 186–7, 201–3; in India, 269–71, 280–1; in Indonesia, 303–7, 319–20; in Japan, 63–4, 99–105; in Malaysia, 63–4, 390–1; in People's Republic of China, 497–502; in Philippines, 363–8; political and economic transition and, 63–4, 576–7; in Singapore, 234–5; in South Korea, 127–41; in Taiwan, 156–7, 169–72; in Thailand, 63–4, 423–7; in Vietnam, 63–4, 545–7
- Judicial Officers (Tenure of Office) Ordinance, 201–3
- Judicial Officers Recommendation Commission (JORC) (Hong Kong), 198–201
- Judicial Policy Advisory Committee (South Korea), 116–18
- judicial power: in Hong Kong, 186–7, 215–16; in Indian court system, 299–301; Indonesian court structure and, 303–7; in Japan, 78–81; in Philippines, 356–7; in South Korea, 133–4, 140–1; in Vietnamese court system, 528–9
- judicial precedent: comparative analysis in Asia of, 45–7; in Indonesia, 323–4; in Singapore, 248–50; in Vietnam, 553–6
- judicial reform: economic and political transitions and, 56–64; globalization and market competition and, 10–11; in Malaysia, 400–4; in People's Republic of China, 515–19; in Taiwan, 143–80; in Vietnam, 560–2
- Judicial Reform Committee (Taiwan), 143–5
- Judicial Reform Foundation (Taiwan), 177–9
- Judicial Research and Training Institute (South Korea), 126, 130n.45, 130–1n.47, 130–2, 131n.30
- judicial review: in Bangladesh, 450–1; comparative Asian models of, 14–15; economic and political transitions and reform of, 56–9; in Hong Kong, limits on, 203–7, 205n.88, 206n.90, 223; Indian Supreme Court interpretive authority and, 288–90; in Indonesia, 311–12; in Japan, 105–9; in Thailand, 409–10
- Judicial Training Institute (Taiwan), 155–6, 158
- Judicial Training Institute (Thailand), 420–1
- Judicial Training School (Vietnam), 549–50
- Judicial Yuan (Taiwan): judicial independence of, 156–7; judicial training and legal education and, 157–9; performance evaluation of judges by, 177–9; qualifications

- and appointment requirements, 155–6; relocation to Taiwan of, 143–5; restructuring of, 169–72; structure of, 145–53; trial procedures and, 151–2
- judiciary: appointments, comparative analysis of, 29–32; citizens and, 37–47; colonization and transplantation of structures in, 49–51; competitive examinations for entry-level judges, 48; in constitutional courts, comparative analysis, 27–8, 32; corruption of, 63–4; enhanced political role of, 5–6; foreign law references and influence on, 47; globalization and competition as influences on, 10–11; in India, structure of, 271–5, 294–8; in Indonesia, 303–38; interpretive methods and judicial precedent, comparisons of, 45–7; lawmaking in South Korea by, 126–7; legal education and training for, 35–7; in lower courts, comparative analysis, 23–6, 29–30; in Malaysia, 378–81; performance evaluations, comparative analysis of, 21–37; political and economic transitions and reform of, 56–64; qualifications, comparative analysis of, 22–9; religion and indigenous cultures and tradition in, 53–6; research on court systems and role of, 4–6; in special courts and tribunals, qualifications requirements, 28–9; structure of court systems and, 13; styles and interpretive approaches to decisions by, 44–7; supreme court judicial qualifications and appointments, 26–7, 30–1; terms and tenure of judges, comparative analysis of, 32–5. See also appointment of judges; dismissal of judges; impeachment of judges; misconduct of judges; qualification requirements for judges; recruitment of judges; retirement of judges; tenure of judges; training for judiciary, specific types of judges, e.g. lay judges
- Judiciary Law of 1901 (Philippines), 370
- Judiciary Reorganization Act of 1980 (Philippines), 358
- jury systems in Asia: colonization's influence on, 49–51; comparative analysis of, 38–9, 48, 569; economic and political transitions and implementation of, 56–9; in Hong Kong, 188–93, 191n.38; in South Korea, 116–18
- Justice Appointment Consultation Commission (Japan), 91–7
- Justice System Reform council (Japan), 77–8
- Juvenile Act (Japan), 81–3
- juvenile courts and tribunals: in Bangladesh, 456; Indonesian children's court, 310–11; in Taiwan, 147–51; in Thailand, 421–2. See also children's courts; family courts
- Juvenile Offenders Ordinance (Hong Kong), 191n.35
- Juwana, Hikmahanto, 49–51, 60–1, 303–38
- kalikasan* writ (Philippines), 363–4
- Kang Ki Gap (Korean Representative), 134–6
- Karaha Bodas Co. LLC v. Pertamina Energy Trading Ltd.* (Singapore), 242–4
- Kawagishi, Norikazu, 26–7, 63–4, 77–110
- Kesavananda Harrati v. Kerala* (India), 288–90
- Ketua Pengarah Jabatan Alam Sekitar & Anor v. Kajing Tubek & Ors and Other Appeals* (Bakun Dam case) (Malaysia), 393–5
- Kim Dae Jung, 123–4
- Kim, Jongcheol, 29–30, 32–6, 66–7, 112–41

- Kim Young Sam, 123–4
 Kingdom of Ayutthya, 407–8, 414–16
 Kingdom of Rattanakosin, 407–8
 Kingdom of Sukhothai, 407–8, 414–16
 KMT. See Kuomintang
 Korea, Republic of. See South Korea
 Korean International Aid Agency, legal training facilities in Vietnam and, 549–50
 Kowloon, colonization of, 183–6
 Krishnan, Jayanth K., 40–1, 52–3, 61, 269–301
 Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration, 395–8 Kuomintang (KMT) (Nationalist Party) (Taiwan), 159–63; judicial structure under, 145–53; Taiwan court system and, 143–5, 169–72 labor courts: in Bangladesh, 460; in Hong Kong, 188–93, 195–8; in Indonesia, 309–10; in Thailand, 421–2 Labour Tribunal (Hong Kong), 188–93, 195–8 laches principle, Singapore limits on access to justice and, 242–4 landowners' rights: Indian court system and, 271–5; in Indonesia, 316–17 Lands Tribunal (Hong Kong), 188–93 language issues: in Hong Kong judicial system, 191n.40, 209–10; in Indonesian judicial system, 323–4 Latin America, research on court systems in, 5–6 Law and Order Disruptive Crimes (Speedy Trial) Tribunal (Bangladesh), 457 law-making: by Bangladesh judiciary, 470–1; by Hong Kong judiciary, 210–12; by Indonesian judiciary, 324; by Singapore judiciary, 252–5
 Law on Establishment of Administrative Courts (Mongolia), 343
 Law on Juvenile Criminal Matters (Taiwan), 147–51
 Law on Procedure for Administrative Courts (Mongolia), 343
 Law Society of Hong Kong, 198–201, 199n.61
 Lawyers Council of Thailand, 430–2
 Lawyers' Law (People's Republic of China), 504–5 lay judges: comparative analysis of Asian court systems using, 569; in Japanese courts, 83–6, 97–9; in People's Republic of China, 495n.40, 495–7; in Thailand, 421–2. See also citizen participation Le Cong Dinh, 553–6
 Le Kim Oue, 529–31
 Lee Myong Bak (South Korean leader), 127–9, 128n.40, 134–6
 Lee Teng-Hui (Taiwanese president), 143–5
 Legal Aid Act (Taiwan), 159–63
 Legal Aid Act 1971 (Malaysia), 391–5
 Legal Aid Act 2000 (Bangladesh), 468–9
 Legal Aid Bureau (Singapore), 246
 Legal Aid Foundation (Taiwan), 159–63
 Legal Aid Office of the Thai Bar, 430–2 legal aid systems: in Bangladesh, 468–9; comparative analysis in Asia of, 40–1; in Hong Kong, 205n.87, 205–7; in India, 275, 294–8; Indonesian access to justice and, 321–2; in Malaysia, 391–5; in People's Republic of China, 504–5; in Singapore, 246; in Taiwan, 161–2; in Thailand, 430–2; in Vietnam, 550–3 legal education requirements: in Bangladesh, 467–8; competitive examinations for entry-level judges, 48, 53–6; for Hong Kong judiciary, 35–7, 183n.2, 198–201, 199nn.61–62; in India, 275–9, 281–3; in Indonesia, 35–7, 320–1; for Japanese judges, 91–7; lower court judicial qualifications and,

- 23–6; in Mongolia, 349–50; in People's Republic of China, 35–7, 495–7, 502–4, 515–19, 516n.163; in Philippines, 368–70; quality comparisons of Asian judges and, 568; in Singapore, 230–1, 235–6; South Korean judges qualifications and training requirements, 117n.17, 130nn.45–47, 130–2; Taiwanese judicial training and legal education programs, 155–9, 165–6n.68; in Thailand, 35–7, 420–1, 427–8; training programs and, 35–7; in Vietnam, 531–4, 549–50
- legal interpreters, in Taiwan, 162
- Legal Training and Research Institute (Japan), 91–7
- legal workers, People's Republic of China, 504–5
- legislation, in Singapore, 252–4
- Legislation Law (People's Republic of China), 507–8
- Legislative Council (Singapore), 252–4
- “legislative intent,” Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 212–16
- legislative prohibition principle, Singapore limits on access to justice and, 242–4
- “letters and visits” system (Xingfang) (PRC), 41–2, 505–7
- Leung Chun-ying, 223–5
- Leung, Elsie, 224n.162
- Levin, Mark, 138–41
- Li, Andrew (Chief Justice), 222–3
- “license raj” in India, 286–8
- life tenure for judges: comparative analysis of, 32–5; quality comparisons of Asian judges and, 568; in Taiwan, 155–6.
See also tenure of judges
- Literary University of the Philippines, 368–9
- litigation costs: comparative analysis of, 40–1; in Hong Kong, 205–7; in India, 283–6; in Indonesia, 322; in Malaysia, 391–5; in Mongolia, in Singapore, 244–6; in Taiwan, 161; in Thailand, 429–30; in Vietnam, 550–3
- Lo, Pui Yin, 44–5, 62–3, 183–6
- local justice: in Bangladesh, 476–7; in Chittagong Hill Tracts, 460–1; in People's Republic of China, 497–502, 504–5. See also village courts
- locus standi* doctrine: in Malaysian public interest litigation, 393–5; in Malaysian Special Court, 383–4; public interest litigation and, 41–2; Singapore and limits of, 242–4
- Lok Adalats* (Indian people's courts), 19–20, 271–5, 297–8
- lower court systems: Indonesian court structure and, 303–7; Japanese judges in, 91–7, 99–105; judicial appointments in, comparative analysis of, 29–30; judicial qualifications in, comparative analysis of, 23–6; terms and tenure of judges, comparative analysis of, 32–5
- Lower Courts Judges Designation Consultation Commission (Japan), 102–3
- Luu Tien Dzong, 553–6
- Ma, Geoffrey (Chief Justice), 210–12, 222–3
- magistrates: in Bangladesh, 453–5; in Hong Kong, 193–5, 194n.49; in Malaysia, 381–2, 386–7
- Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura (MUIS) (Islamic Council of Singapore), 240–1
- Malacca Sultanate, 375–7
- Malanjam, Richard (Malaysian Chief Judge), 402–3
- Malaysia: access to justice in, 391–5; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 395–400; appointment of judges in, 386–9; arbitration and courts in, 395–8; case management system in, 401–2; civil and Syariah dichotomy in courts of, 382–3;

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06608-3 - Asian Courts in Context

Edited by Jiunn-rong Yeh and Wen-chen Chang

Index

More information

602

INDEX

- Malaysia: access to justice in (cont.)
 class action litigation in, 393–5;
 colonization and transplantation
 of legal institutions in, 49–51;
 constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; constitutional monarchy in, 375–7; convergence of laws resisted by, 65–6;
 democratic transition in, 11–12, 17–18, 56–9, 375–7; economic transitions in, 17–18, 56–9; foreign arbitral awards in, 397–8; future of judicial reform in, 404–5; indigenous cultures and legal system of, 45–7, 53–6; intellectual property courts in, 66–7; interpretive methods in judicial systems of, 45–7; judicial reforms in, 56–9, 375–405; judicial corruption in, 63–4; judicial independence in, 63–4, 390–1;
 judicial system in, 13–14, 22–30, 375–405; jurisdiction and procedures of courts in, 381–2;
 jury system abolished in, 38–9;
 legal education system in, 35–7;
 mediation in courts of, 398–9;
 nationalism and legal system in,
 52–3; number of judges in, 21–2, 379–81; organization of courts and judicial posts in, 379–81; performance and efficiency of courts in, 400–4; public interest litigation in, 41–2, 393–5; qualifications requirements for judiciary in, 22–9; religious courts in, 19–20, 53–6; resistance to foreign and comparative law in,
 47; sources of law in, 384–5;
 special courts and tribunals in,
 16–21; supreme court judicial qualifications requirements in, 26–7; training of judiciary in, 35–7
- Malaysia: Court Backlog and Delay Reduction Program* (World Bank), 387–9, 403–4
- Malaysian Bar Council, 388–95
- Malkin, Benjamin Heath (Sir), 230–1, 247–8
- Manila Law College, 368–9
- Marbury v. Madison*, 105
- maritime courts, structural design of, 20–1
- market forces: changing functions of courts in response to, 59–63; Hong Kong legal and judicial issues and, 219–25; Indonesian court system
 and, 326; in People's Republic of China, 488–95; People's Republic of China courts and, 519–21;
 Singapore courts and, 258–9; Taiwanese constitutional courts
 and, 169–72
- Marshall, John (Chief Justice), 105
- martial court (South Korea), 116–18
- Mason, Anthony (Sir), 210–12, 214
- Maxwell, Peter Benson (Sir), 247–8
- mediation: in Hong Kong courts, 216n.131, 216–17n.134, 216–18; in
 Indonesian court system, 327–9,
 329n.50; in Malaysian courts,
 398–9; in Mongolian courts,
 352–4; in People's Republic of China courts, 489n.11, 504–5,
 511–12; in Singapore courts,
 260–2; in Taiwanese courts, 167–8; in Thailand courts, 434–5;
 in Vietnamese courts, 558.
See also alternative dispute resolution; arbitration
- Mediation Act 2012 (Malaysia), 398–9
- mental incompetence, of Japanese judges, dismissal based on, 99–105
- Menton, Sundaresh (Singapore Chief Justice), 244–6
- Meschievitz, Catherine, 295–6
- Metramac Corporation Sdn Bhd v.
 Fawziah Holding Sdn Bhd*
 (Malaysia), 390–1
- Mibuchi Tadahiko (Japanese Chief Justice), 109–10
- Military Judiciary Examination (South Korea), 130–1n.47
- military courts: Indonesian Military Tribunals, 303–7; structural design

- of, 20–1; in Taiwan, 147–51; in Thailand, 15–16, 411
- Military Trial Act (Taiwan), 147–51
- MINAC (Mongolian International and National Arbitration Center), 352–4
- misconduct of judges: Japanese dismissal procedures for, 103; in Thailand, 424–5
- Miyamoto Yasuaki, 102–3
- modernization: Indonesian judicial system and pressure of, 313–14; Japanese court system and, 109–10; Mongolian judicial system and, 351–2; nationalism and legal adaptation and, 52–3; South Korean judicial system and, 121–2; of Thai judicial system, 414–16; tradition and transplantation in Asian courts and, 48–56, 570–2
- money loan courts, in Bangladesh, 459, 473–6
- Mongolia: accessibility of justice in, 350–1; adjudication tiers in, 341–3; alternative dispute resolution in, 352–4; appointment of judges in, 347–8; arbitration in, 352–4; changing functions of courts in, 62–3; citizen's satisfaction with judiciary in, 43; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions in, 49–51, 51n.277; constitutional courts in, 14–15, 32; convergence of laws resisted by, 65–6; democratic transition in, 1–4, 8–12; evolution of court system in, 340–55; judicial decision length and style in, 44–5; judicial qualifications requirements in, 22–9, 23n.93; judicial training and legal education in, 35–7; legal education requirements in, 349–50; litigation costs and legal aid access in, 40–1; lower court systems, judicial qualifications in, 23–6; mediation in, 352–4; number of courts and caseload volume in, 345–8; number of judges in, 21–2, 345–8; number of lawyers in, 39–40; performance evaluation of courts in, 347, 354n.45, 354–5; public interest litigation in, 41–2; qualification requirements for judges in, 347–8; resistance to foreign and comparative law in, 47; sources of law and judicial influences in, 351–2; special courts and tribunals in, 341–3; structure of court systems in, 13; supreme court structure in, 15–16; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5; trial procedures in, 341–3
- Mongolian International and National Arbitration Center (MINAC), 352–4
- Moustafa, T., 11–12, 59–60, 169–72
- MUIS (Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura) (Islamic Council of Singapore), 240–1
- Muslim law: Asian court systems and, 4–6; Bangladesh court system and influence of, 447–8; Bangladesh semi-formal rural/municipal justice system and, 476–7; dispute resolution and, 53–6; Indian personal law and, 290–4; in Indonesia, 303–7, 316–17, 320–1, 333–4; interpretive methods and judicial precedent based on, 45–7; in Malaysia, 375–7, 382–5; in Philippine court system, 359–60; Shari'a courts in Philippines, 359–60; Singapore judicial system and, 232–3, 240–1; Thai qadi or Dato' justice system and, 422–3; in Thailand, 418–19. See also Syari'ah legal systems
- musyawarah mufakat* (dialogue to reach consensus), Indonesian dispute resolution and, 327–8
- Myanmar: constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; democratic reforms in, 1–4; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5

- Nakornin, N., 23–6, 28–9, 52–3, 60–1, 63–4, 407–43
- Nanggroe Aceh Darussalam Act, 307
- Nari O Shishu Nirjatan Daman tribunal (Bangladesh), 456–7
- National Court Administration (NCA) (South Korea), 138–41
- National Judges' College, 502–4
- National Law Schools (NLS), 281–3
- National Legal Aid Foundation (NLAF) (Malaysia), 391–5
- National People's Congress (NPC) (People's Republic of China), 507–8
- National People's Congress (NPCSC) (Hong Kong): Hong Kong judicial independence and, 186–7, 195–8; Hong Kong sources of law and, 207–9
- National Police Reserve (Japan), judicial review of, 105–9
- National Teachers' Union (NTU) (South Korea), 128n.39
- National University of Kaohsiung, 158
- National University of Mongolia School of Law, 349–50
- National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law at, 230–1
- nationalism: in Indonesia, 317–18; modernization and legal adaptation and, 52–3; Mongolian judicial system and, 351–2; in Singapore, 231–2; Thailand judicial system and, 414–16
- Native Courts, in Malaysia, 377–81
- NCA (National Court Administration) (South Korea), 138–41
- negotiation, in Indonesian courts, 327–8
- Nehru, Jawaharlal, 271–5
- New Territories: British influence on judiciary of, 195–8; colonization of, 183–6
- Ng Ka Ling case (Hong Kong), 221n.154
- Nicholson, Pip, 40–1, 528–63
- NLAF (National Legal Aid Foundation) (Malaysia), 391–5
- NLS (National Law Schools), 281–3
- non-governmental organizations: in India, 271–5; Vietnamese legal aid programs and, 550–3
- non-legal village forums, in India, 275
- “non-progressive” approach, Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 212–16
- norms of adjudication: arbitration law convergence and, 67–8; in Bangladesh, 60; custom in Singapore and, 250–1; global convergence of laws and, 65–6; in Hong Kong, 183–6; in India, 269–71, 275–9, 286–94; “protective norms,” 174–6; in Taiwan, 163–5, 174–6; in Vietnam, 553–6
- NPC (National People's Congress) (People's Republic of China), 507–8
- NPCSC. See National People's Congress
- NTU (National Teachers' Union) (South Korea), 128n.39
- nulla poena* principle, in Thai criminal law, 432–3
- nullen crimen* principle, in Thai criminal law, 432–3
- nyaya panchayats* (India), 294–8
- Obscene Articles Tribunal (Hong Kong), 188–93, 190n.34, 195–8
- “One Country, Two Systems” model: China's governance of Hong Kong and, 62–3; future issues concerning, 221n.154, 223–5; Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and, 183–6
- “one roof system” in Indonesian judiciary, 319–20
- Ong Teng Cheong, 14–15
- Ooi Ah Phua v. Officer-In-Charge Criminal Investigation, Kedah/Perlis* (Malaysia), 391–5
- Oposa v. Factoran* (Philippines), 356–7, 365–8

- Organic Act of the Judicial Yuan, 155–6
 Organic Act on Courts (Taiwan), 162
 Organic Act on Juvenile and Family Court (Taiwan), 147–51 Organic Law of the People's Courts (PRC), 491–3, 497–502 outside influences, Japanese judicial independence from, 99–105 overlapping jurisdictions: in Indian court system, 275–9, 299–301; in Indonesian court system, 325–6; Philippine judicial independence and, 363–4
- Packer, Herbert, 256–7
Pan-li interpretive system (Taiwan), 45–7; Taiwanese constitutional courts and, 169–72; Taiwanese sources of law and, 163–5
panchayats (Indian dispute resolution mechanism), 53–6, 294–8, 295n.55 Pangalangam, Raul C., 35–7, 49–51, 356–73
 Pasquino, Pasquale, 5–6 patent courts, in South Korea, 113–14
 Pattanasak, Rapee (Prince), 52–3
 “PD’s Notebook” case (South Korea), 134–6
Pengadilan (Indonesian lower courts), 303–7
Pengarah Tanah dan Galian, WP v. Sri Lempah Enterprise (Malaysia), 375–7 people’s assessors (people’s courts): in India, 271–5; in People’s Republic of China, 493–5, 497–502, 512–15, 513–14n.149, 515n.156; in Vietnamese legal system, 38–9, 48, 529–34, 542–5
 People’s Republic of China (PRC): accessibility of justice in, 504–7; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 510–15; appointment of judiciary in, 23–6, 30–1, 495–7; arbitration in courts of, 497n.49, 512–15; case management systems in, 491–4; constitutional courts in, 56–9; democratic reforms in, 1–4, 11–12; economic transition in, 1–4, 56–9, 487–524; globalization and competition in, 10–11; Hong Kong courts and judiciary and, 183–7, 187n.21, 195–8, 197–8n.56, 207–9, 219–25; indigenous cultures and courts of, 53–6; intellectual property courts in, 66–7; interpretive methods in courts of, 45–7; judicial independence in, 63–4, 497–502; judicial precedent in, 45–7; judicial reforms in, 515–19; legal aid system in, 504–5; legal education in, 35–7, 502–4, 515–19, 516n.163; letters and visits system in, 505–7; lower court systems in, 23–6; market economy forces in, 8–10; mediation in, 489n.11, 504–5, 511–12; number of judges in, 21–2, 493–5; number of lawyers in, 39–40, 504–5; overview of judicial system in, 488–95; people’s assessors in, 38–9; performance evaluation of judiciary in, 43, 493–5, 521–2; political transitions in, 56–9; public interest litigation in, 41–2; qualification requirements for judiciary in, 23–6, 30–1, 515–19; religion and courts of, 53–6; size of courts in, 493–5; social function of courts in, 1–4, 56–9, 487–524, 488n.4; socialist ideology in judgments of, 45–7; sources of law in, 507–8; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 28–9, 489–91; structure of court systems in, 13, 489–91; style of judicial decision making in, 44–5, 508n.115, 508–10; supreme court structure in, 15–16, 30–1; tenure of judges, lack of, 495–7; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5; training requirements for judiciary in, 35–7, 502–4; transitional justice in, 522–4; trial procedures in, 14, 491–3

- People's Solidarity for Participatory Democracy (PSPD) (South Korea), 116–18
- People's Uprising of 1987 (South Korea), 123–4
- PERADI (Indonesian advocates' association), 322
- performance evaluation: of Bangladesh courts, 43, 479, 483; of Hong Kong courts, 193–5, 219–25, 220–1n.151, 221nn.152–153; of Indian courts, 275–9; of Indonesian courts, 313, 334–8; of Japanese courts and judiciary, 89–90, 96n.94, 103–4; of Malaysian courts, 400–4; of Mongolian courts, 347, 354n.45, 354–5; of People's Republic of China courts, 493–5, 521–2; of Philippine courts, 360–3; quality and capacity of Asian judiciary and, 568, 575–6; of Singapore courts, 236–8; of South Korean courts, 118–21; of Taiwanese courts and judges, 152–4, 177–9; of Thai courts, 414, 442–3; of Vietnamese courts, 539–40, 555n.147
- personal law in India, 290–4, 291n.50
- Personal Status Litigation Act (Japan), 81–3
- petty bench (Japanese Supreme Court), 86–9
- Philippine Judicial Academy, 368–9
- Philippine Organic Act of 1902, 370
- Philippines: appointment of judges in, 22–31, 360–5; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions in, 49–51; constitutional courts in, 14–15; democracy in, 1–4, 11–12; foreign influences on judicial system in, 370–2; future issues for, 372–3; indigenous cultures and tradition in legal system of, 53–6; Japanese occupation of, 372; judicial administration in, 360–3, 365; judicial budget in, 360–3, 365; judicial independence in, 363–8; judicial review in, 14–15; jury system in, 38–9; legal education requirements in, 35–7, 368–70; lower court system in, 23–6, 29–30; number of courts in, 359–74; number of judges in, 21–2; overview of judiciary in, 356–73; public interest litigation in, 41–2; qualification requirements in, 22–31; quasi-judicial agencies in, 360; regular courts in, 358; religious courts in, 19–20, 53–6; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 359–60; structure of court system in, 358–74; supreme court structure in, 30–1, 358, 363–8, 370; training of judiciary in, 368–70; transition during commonwealth period in, 371–2
- physical incapacity, of Japanese judges, dismissal based on, 99–105
- Pibulsonggram, Plaek (Thai Prime Minister), 416–18
- Plaza Singapura (Pte) Ltd v. Cosdel (S) Pte Ltd.*, 250–1
- police powers, Taiwanese criminal justice reforms and, 172–4
- policy-making: courts systems' role in, 4–6; by Hong Kong judiciary, 210–12; Malaysian arbitration awards and, 397–8; Singapore courts and legitimization of, 257–8; Thailand court system legitimization of, 438–9
- political question doctrine, Singapore limits on access to justice and, 242–4
- politics: bureaucratization of Asian courts and role of, 577–9; changing functions of court systems and, 59–63; Hong Kong legal system and, 223–5; Hong Kong litigation costs and legal aid accessibility and, 205–7; Indian access to justice and, 294–8; Indian court system and, 269–71, 280–1; Indian personal law and,

- 290–4; Japanese judiciary and, 91–7, 95n.91, 99–105; judicial independence in context of, 63–4; People's Republic of China court system and, 519–21; Philippine court system and, 360–3, 365–8; quality and capacity of Asian judiciary to respond to, 575–6; research on court systems and role of, 4–6, 572–3; Singapore judicial system and, 247–54, 257–8; South Korean judges' personal independence and, 134–6; Taiwan court system and, 143–5, 159–63, 169–72; terms and tenure of judges and, 32–5; Thailand court system and, 437–8; transitions in Asian courts and role of, 56–64, 572–3; Vietnamese court systems and role of, 529–31, 542–5
- popular review: dismissal of judges and, 99–105; Japanese judicial recruitment and appointment and, 91–7
- Portugal, colonization of Malaysia by, 385–6
- “potential arguability” threshold, Hong Kong judicial review and, 203–7
- power-sharing agreements: supreme court judicial appointments and, 30–1; in Vietnamese court system, 531–4
- Practice Direction (Malaysian mediation policy), 398–9
- Pramoj, Mom Rajawongse Seni (Thailand Ambassador), 416–18
- PRC. See People's Republic of China
- Pre-Judicature Program (Philippines), 35–7
- “precautionary principle,” Indonesian interpretive methods and, 324–5
- principal-agent theory, research on court systems and, 4–6
- private legal counsel: Malaysian right to, 391–5; in Singapore, accessibility of, 244–6; in Taiwan, accessibility of, 162n.56, 162–3
- Privy Council (Great Britain): British colonial legal systems and, 49–51; Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 214–15n.122, 214–15; Malaysian court system and, 377–81; Singapore judicial precedent and, 248–50; Singapore judicial system and, 228–31
- professionalization of legal system, Japanese judicial system and, 104–5
- provincial courts, in Vietnam, 534–9
- PSPD (People's Solidarity for Participatory Democracy) (South Korea), 116–18
- public interest litigation: in Bangladesh, 41–2, 450–1, 468–9, 477–9; comparative analysis of Asian courts and, 41–2; in Hong Kong, 203–7; in India, 298; in Indonesia, 303–7, 327–8; in Malaysia, 41–2, 393–5; in Mongolia, 350–1; in People's Republic of China, 519–21; in Taiwan, 160–1
- public law schools (India), 281–3
- Public Offices Election Act (Japan), 83–6
- Public Trial Observation System (Taiwan), 151–2
- purposive judicial interpretation: comparative analysis in Asia of, 45–7; in Hong Kong courts, 212–16
- qadi* judges (Thailand), 422–3
- Qi Yuling* case (PRC), 56–9
- Qing Imperial Dynasty, 183–6, 195–8
- Qing Li code, 183–6
- Qing Lü code, 183–6
- QSR Brands Bhd v. Suruhanjaya Sekuriti & Anor (Malaysia), 393–5
- qualification requirements for judges: in Asian court systems, comparative analysis, 22–9; in Bangladesh, 23–6, 30–1, 462–3; in Cambodia, 27–8; in constitutional courts, comparative analysis, 27–8; exam-based qualifications, 23–6, 25n.115, 117n.17; in Hong Kong, 198–201, 199nn.61–62; in Indonesia, 318–19; in intellectual property courts, 28–9, 29n.134;

- legal education requirements and, 117n.17, 130nn.45–47, 130–2;
 in lower court systems,
 comparative analysis, 23–6; in Malaysia, 22–9, 387–9; in Mongolia, 22–9, 23n.93, 347–8; in People's Republic of China, 495–7, 515–19; in Philippines, 22–31; in PRC, 23–6, 30–1; quality comparisons of Asian judges and,
 568; in Singapore, 30–1, 233–4; in South Korea, 130–2; in special courts and tribunals, comparative analysis of, 28–9; supreme court systems, comparative analysis of,
 26–7, 30–1; in Taiwan, 27–8, 32,
 155–6; in Thailand, 27–8, 32,
 420–3; in Vietnam, 531–4, 542–5,
 552n.133
- quasi-judicial courts and tribunals: in India, 271–5; in Philippines, 360; structural design model of, 20–1
- Raffles, Stamford (Sir), 228–30
- Rama V (King Chulalongkorn)
 (Thailand), 407–8, 414–16
- Rapee Pattanasak (Prince), 407–8
- Rattanakosin Kingdom (Thailand), legal system of, 52–3
- Re Matthews, ex parte Powell*, 250–1
- “reasonable arguability” threshold,
 Hong Kong judicial review and, 203–7
- Recorder of the Court of Judicature
 (Singapore), 230–1
- recruitment of judges: bureaucratization and politicization of Asian courts and, 577–9; in Japan, 91–7; in People's Republic of China, 495–7,
 497n.50; in Taiwan, 155–6
- referral system (qingshi), in People's Republic of China court system, 508–10
- Regina v. Williams* (Singapore), 247–8
- Regulation of Judicial Service Act
 B.E. 2543 (2000) (Thailand), 419–28
- religious law and judiciary: Buddhist law, Bangladesh court system and influence of, 447–8; comparative analysis of, 19–20; emergence in Asia of, 567; Indian personal law and, 290–4; indigenous cultures and role of, 53–6, 570–2; in Indonesia, 303–7, 316–17, 333–4;
 in Singapore, 232–3; structural design of, 20–1; in Thailand, 418–19; tradition in legal institutions and role of, 53–6, 570–2. See also Confucianism;
 Hindu law; Muslim law
- “remedial interpretation,” by Hong Kong judiciary, 215–16
- Ren Jianxin, 488n.4
- reparatory justice: in Bangladesh,
 477–9; in Singapore, 259; in Thailand, 439–40
- representation model, constitutional court judicial appointments, 32
- Republic of Korea. See South Korea
- res judicata* principle, Singapore limits on access to justice and, 242–4
- retirement of judges: comparative analysis of, 26–7, 32–5; in India, 271–5; in Japanese judicial system, 91–7; in South Korean judicial system, 132–3, 133n.57
- Rios-Figueroa, Julio, 5–6
- ROC Constitution (Taiwan), 143–5;
 criminal justice reforms and, 172–4; judicial system structure and, 145–53; Judicial Yuan restructuring and, 169–72
- Roh Moo Hyun, 123–4; impeachment
 of, 8–10
- Rome Statute, 324–5
- Roux, Theunis, 5–6
- rule of law: in Malaysia, 375–7; in People's Republic of China, transition to, 522–4; Taiwanese courts and judicial reform and, 143–80
- rulemaking powers: in court systems, comparisons of, 4–6; Japanese judicial independence and, 99–105;
 in People's Republic of China,
 507–8; in Philippines, 363–8

- Rules of Court 2012 (Malaysia), 381–2
 Russia. See Soviet Union
 Rutter, Michael F., 384–5
- Saiban-in* (lay judges), Japanese system of, 97n.105, 97–9
- Sandiganbayan (Philippines anti-corruption court), 359–60
- “Sanlu tainted milk” case, 61, 519–21
- Satayanurug, Pawat, 23–6, 28–9, 52–3, 60–1, 63–4, 407–43
- Second Charter of Justice, in Singapore, 228–30
- Secretary, Ministry of Finance v. Md. Masdar Hossain* (Bangladesh), 464–6
- semi-formal justice system, Bangladesh rural/municipal areas, 476–7
- senior judges, appointment in Thailand of, 421
- Seo Ki Ho, 134–6
- separation of powers: in Hong Kong, 212–16, 223–5; in India, 288–90; in Mongolia, 340, 351–2; in Philippines, 356–7, 371–2; in South Korea, 136–41
- Sessions Courts (Malaysia), 381–2, 386–7
- sexual discrimination, Taiwanese civil litigation reform and, 59
- Shapiro, Martin, 4–6, 59
- Shari’a courts in Philippines, 359–60.
See also Syari’ah legal systems
- Sherman Antitrust Act, 313–14
- Shin Young Chul, 127–9, 139–40
- Short Messaging System (SMS) for Malaysian courts, 402–3
- Shum Kwok Sher v. HKSAR* case, 212–16
- SIAC (Singapore International Arbitration Centre), 259–62
- sine lege* principle, in Thai criminal law, 432–3
- Singapore: accessibility of justice in, 242–6; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 259–62; appointment of judges in, 30–1, 233–4; changing functions of courts in, 59–63; citizen participation in trials in, 242; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions in, 49–51; common law in, 228–30, 247–8; compensatory/reparatory justice in, 259; constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; convergence of laws resisted by, 65–6; custom in judicial system of, 250–1; democratic transition in, 11–12; economic growth impact on courts of, 1–4, 17–18, 56–9; family courts in, 241–2; function of courts in, 256–9; future issues for courts in, 262; global economic competition and foreign trade in, 233; indigenous cultures and tradition in legal system of, 45–7, 53–6, 233; intellectual property courts in, 66–7; interpretive methods of judiciary in, 45–7, 256; judicial independence in, 234–5; judicial precedent in, 248–50; judicial system overview, 228–62; jury system abolished in, 38–9; law-making by judiciary in, 255; legal aid access in, 40–1, 246; legislation in, 252–4; legitimization of government policies in courts of, 257–8; litigation costs, 40–1, 244–6; locus standi doctrine limits in, 242–4; market forces and economics and courts of, 258–9; mediation in courts of, 260–2; nationalism and court system in, 231–2; number of judges in, 21–2; performance evaluation of courts and judiciary in, 43, 236–8; qualification requirements for judges in, 30–1, 233–4; religious courts in, 19–20, 53–6; resistance to foreign and comparative law in, 47; size of courts in, 236–8; social control through courts in, 256–7; sources of law in, 230–3, 247–54; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 238–42; structure of courts in, 14, 236–42;

- Singapore: (cont.)
   style of judicial decision making in, 44–5, 254–5; supreme court system in, 26–7, 30–1, 238–9; Syariah Court in, 240–1; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5, 234–5; training and legal education of judges in, 35–7, 235–6; trial procedures in, 14,
   236–42
- Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), 259–62
- Singapore Mediation Centre (SMC), 259–62
- Sino-British Joint Declaration of 1984, 183–6
- size of courts: in Bangladesh, 21–2, 479–82; comparative analysis in Asia of, 21–2, 39–40; in Hong Kong, 21–2, 193–5; in India,
 21–2, 39–40, 275–9, 283–6; in
 Indonesia, 21–2, 313; in Malaysia,
 21–2, 379–81; in Mongolia, 21–2, 39–40, 345–8; in People's Republic of China (PRC), 21–2, 39–40,
 493–5; in Philippines, 21–2,
 359–74; in Singapore, 21–2,
 236–8; in South Korea, 21–2,
 39–40, 118–21; in Taiwan, 21–2,
 39–40, 152–4; in Thailand, 21–2,
 411–14, 441–2; in Vietnam, 21–2, 39–40
- Small Claims Tribunal (Hong Kong), 188–93, 195–8
- SMC (Singapore Mediation Centre), 259–62
- SMS (Short Messaging System) for Malaysian courts, 402–3
- social context: of Hong Kong legal system, 223–5; for Japanese court system, 109–10; of mediation in PRC courts, 511–12; research on court systems and role of, 4–6; for Taiwanese civil litigation reform,
 59
- social control: by Bangladesh courts, 477–9; Indonesian courts as tool for, 325–6; People's Republic of China courts and, 488n.4, 519–21;
 Singapore courts as tool for,
 256–7; Thailand court system role
 in, 437–8
- social movements: Hong Kong accessibility to justice and, 205–7;
 Indonesian legal system and, 316;
 South Korean democratization and, 123–4; Thailand judicial system and, 416–18
- socialist governments: functional dynamics of courts in, 48; Indian court system and, 271–5; judicial independence and, 45–7, 576–7; in Mongolia, 340, 351–2; people's assessors in, 38–9, 48; People's Republic of China judicial system and, 488–95; structure of court systems and, 13, 15–21; transition to market economy and, 8–10;
 Vietnamese legal system and,
 529–31, 542–5
- Socialist Republic of Vietnam, 529–31.
See also Vietnam
- SOEs. See state-owned enterprises
- Solicitor (24/07) v. Law Society of Hong Kong*, 207–9
- Soochow University College of Law, 158
- soum courts, in Mongolia, 341–3
- sources of law: in Bangladesh, 470–1; in Hong Kong, 195–8, 207–9; in India, 286–94; in indigenous cultures, 45–7; in Indonesia, 313–18, 323; in Malaysian judicial system, 384–5; in Mongolia, 351–2; in People's Republic of China, 507–8; in Singapore, 247–54; in South Korea, 124–6; in Taiwan, 163–5; in Thailand,
 414–19, 432–3; in Vietnam, 553–6
- South Africa, court system in, 5–6
- South Korea: appointment of judges in, 129–30; changing functions of courts in, 61–2; citizen juries and judges in, 38–9; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions in, 49–51;

- constitutional courts in, 14–15, 32;
 court hierarchy in, 113–14, 133–4;
 democratic transition in, 1–4, 8–12, 123–4; early retirement of judges in, 132–3; economic growth in, 1–4; foreign and comparative law in, 47; functional independence of judiciary in, 127–9; globalization and competition in, 10–11;
 institutional independence in, 136–41; instrumental judicial administration in, 138–41; interpretive methods and judicial precedent in, 45–7, 127; Japanese colonialization of, 122–3; judicial administration in, 137n.60, 138–41; judicial budget in, 136–7;
 judicial independence in, 127–41;
 judicial system overview for, 113–21; jury system in, 48, 56–9;
 lawmaking by judges in, 126–7;
 legal education in, 35–7; lower court system in, 23–6, 29–30;
 Mongolian judicial system and influence of, 351–2; norms and convergence of laws in, 65–6;
 number of judges in, 21–2;
 number of lawyers in, 39–40;
 overview of court system in,
 112–41; performance evaluation of
 court system in, 43, 118–21;
 qualifications and training of judges in, 130–2; social movements in, 123–4; sources of law in, 121–6; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 66–7, 116–18;
 style of judicial decision in, 44–5, 126; supreme court structure in,
 15–16; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5; training requirements in, 35–7
- Soviet Union: colonization and transplantation of legal institutions from, 49–51;
 Mongolian judicial system and influence of, 351–2; People's Republic of China court system and, 508–10; Vietnamese judicial system and influence of, 529–31, 560–2
- Spain: colonization and influence of legal systems from, 49–51; Philippines judiciary under colonization by, 370
- Spanish-American War, 370
- Spanish Penal Code, 370
- Special Court (Malaysia), 383–4
- special courts and tribunals: in Bangladesh civil jurisdiction, 458–62; in Bangladesh criminal jurisdiction, 456–62; comparative analysis in Asia of, 16–21, 567; economic challenges in, responses to, 17–18; globalization and creation of new institutions, 66–7, 574; in Hong Kong, 188–93, 195–8; in India, 271–5, 299–301;
 in Indonesia, 307–11, 334; in Malaysia, 383–4; in Mongolia,
 341–3; in People's Republic of China, 16–21, 489–91; in Philippines, 359–60; qualifications for, comparative analysis, 28–9; in Singapore, 238–42; in South Korea, 116–18; structural design of, 20–1; in Taiwan, 147–51; in Thailand, 410, 413–14, 421–2;
 traditional culture and role of,
 570–2; in Vietnam, 534–9
- Speedy Trial Tribunal (Bangladesh), 457
- stamp fees, for Mongolian litigation, 350
- Standard Chartered Bank Malaysia
 Bhd v. City Properties Sdn Bhd*, 396–8
- standing to sue doctrine: public interest litigation and, 41–2; Taiwanese access to justice and, 160nn.49–50, 160–1
- stare decisis* principle: in Asian civil law systems, 45–7; Indian court structure and, 271–5, 286–94;
 Malaysian sources of law and,
 384–5; Taiwanese sources of law
 and, 163–5

- state-owned enterprises (SOEs): judicial independence in PRC and, 497–502; in People's Republic of China, 497–502, 499n.63
- Stone, Alec, 5–6
- Straits Settlements: Malaysian judicial system and influence of, 385–6; Singapore legislation and, 252–4
- structural analysis of court systems: appointment of judges, comparative analysis of, 29–32; in Bangladesh, 448–62; changing structures, current and future challenges, 12–21, 567; constitutional courts and judicial review in, 14–15; economic challenges, responses to, 17–18, 572–3; Hong Kong courts structure and organization, 188–93; Indian court system, 271–5; Indonesian court system, 303–7, 313; Japanese court organization, 81–90; judicial federalism and, 13–14; in Malaysia, 377–81; Mongolian judicial system, 341; Philippines court system, 358–74; political transitions and, 572–3; in PRC, 489–91; religious courts, 19–20; Singapore court structure, 228–30, 236–42; single and multiple Supreme Courts, 15–16; South Korean court hierarchy and, 113–14, 133–4; special courts and tribunals, 16–21; style of judicial decisions and, 44–5; Taiwanese court system, 147–51; in Thailand, 408–11; tiers of courts and trial instances, 14; transition in, 56–64; in Vietnam, 13, 534–9
- style of judicial decisions: in Bangladesh, 44–5, 165–6; comparative analysis of Asian courts and, 44–7, 569–70; in Hong Kong, 44–5, 209–10; in Indonesia, 44–5, 323–4; in Mongolia, 44–5; in People's Republic of China, 44–5, 508n.115, 508–10; in Singapore, 254–5; in South Korea, 44–5, 126; in Taiwan, 44–5, 165–6; in Thailand, 44–5, 433–4; in Vietnam, 44–5, 540–1, 556
- sub-district courts, in India, 271–5
- Subordinate Courts (Malaysia), 380–2, 386–7
- summary courts: Japanese system of, 81–3, 91–7; Taiwanese mediation procedures and, 167–8
- superior court systems: in Malaysia, 377–81, 387–9; in Singapore, 242–4
- super numerary judges, comparative analysis of, 32–5
- Suppression of Acid Crimes Tribunal (Bangladesh), 456–7
- Supreme Court of Canada, Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 214–15
- Supreme Court of Indonesia (Mahkamah Agung), 303–7
- supreme courts: appointment of judges to, 26–7, 30–1; in Bangladesh, 449–51; in Hong Kong, 195–8; in India, 269–75, 288–90; in Indonesia, 303–7; in Japan, 77–81, 86–97, 99–109; in Malaysia, 377–81; in Mongolia, 341; in Philippines, 358, 363–8, 370; qualifications of judiciary for, 26–7, 30–1; in Singapore, 238–9; single and multiple structures for, 15–16; in South Korea, 113–14, 129–30; of Straits Settlements, 385–6; in Taiwan, 143–5, 147–53, 156–7; terms and tenure of judges, comparative analysis of, 32–5; in Thailand, 410; in Vietnam, 534–9
- Supreme People's Court (People's Republic of China): arbitration in, 512–15; judicial independence and, 497–502; judicial reforms in, 515–19; mediation in, 511–12; number of judges in, 21–2; overview of, 488–95; sources of law and, 507–8; style of judicial

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06608-3 - Asian Courts in Context

Edited by Jiunn-rong Yeh and Wen-chen Chang

Index

More information

INDEX

613

- decisions in, 508–10; training and legal education programs of, 502–4; trial procedures in, 491–3
- Supreme People's Court (Vietnam), 531–4; sources of law for, 553–6; structure of, 534–9
- Syari'ah legal systems: comparative analysis of, 19–20; in Indonesia, 307; in Malaysia, 375–7; Malaysian civil dichotomy with, 382–3; Philippines, Shari'a courts in, 359–60; in Singapore, 240–1. See also Shari'a courts
- TAI (Thai Arbitration Institute), 435–7
- Taiwan: administrative litigation in, 147–53, 160n.51, 160–1, 174–6; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 166–8; appointment of judges in, 27–8, 32, 155–6; arbitration in, 167; Basic Law on Indigenous Peoples in, 53–6; changing functions of courts in, 61–2; citizens' involvement in judiciary in, 43, 151–2; civil litigation reform in, 59, 143–5, 167–8, 174; colonization and transplantation of legal institutions in, 49–51; compliance with judicial decisions in, 176–7; constitutional courts in, 14–15, 32, 164n.62, 169–72; corruption in courts of, 63–4; criminal justice system in, 151–2, 160–5, 164n.64, 172–4; democratic transition in, 1–4, 8–12; economic growth in, 1–4; foreign and comparative law in, 47; future research issues on courts in, 179–80; global norms and convergence of laws in, 65–6; incremental reforms of courts in, 169–72; indigenous people's courts in, 19–20; intellectual property courts in, 66–7; interpretive methods for judicial decisions in, 45–7, 165–6; judicial independence in, 156–7; judicial precedent in decisions in, 45–7; judicial training and legal education in, 35–7, 157–9; jury system in, 38–9, 48, 56–9; legal aid access in, 40–1, 161–2; legal interpreters in, 162; litigation costs in, 40–1, 161; lower court system in, 23–6, 29–30; mediation procedures in, 167–8; number of judges in, 21–2, 152–4; number of lawyers in, 39–40; overview of courts and judicial reform in, 143–80; performance evaluation of judges in, 152–4, 177–9; private legal counsel availability in, 162n.56, 162–3; public interest litigation in, 41–2; qualification and appointment of judges in, 27–8, 32, 155–6; religion and indigenous cultures and tradition in legal system of, 53–6; size and performance of courts in, 152–3; sources of law in, 163–5; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 28–9, 29n.134; standing to sue and public interest litigation in, 160nn.49–50, 160–1; structure of court systems in, 13, 147–51; style and length of judicial decisions in, 44–5, 165–6; supreme court structure in, 15–16; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5; transplantation of legal and judicial systems in, 7–8; trial instances in, 151–2
- Tan Eng Hong v. Attorney-General* (Singapore), 242–4
- Tan, Kevin Y. L., 26–7, 32–5, 38–9, 41–3, 49–51, 59–60, 228–62
- Tan Siong Thye, 244–6
- Tan Sri Haji Othman Saat v. Mohamed bin Ismail* (Malaysia), 393–5
- Tanta Mukta Gaon Mohim* (dispute free village programs), in India, 275
- Tate, Neal, 5–6
- tax courts: in Indonesia, 308–9; Indonesian dispute resolution and, 327–9; in Philippines, 359–60

- technology: in Malaysian court system, 398–9, 401–4; in Vietnamese court system, 531–4
- “telephone justice,” Mongolian judicial system and, 340
- tenure of judges: in Indonesia, 32–5, 319; in People’s Republic of China, 495–7; in Philippines, 364–5; in Singapore, 32–5, 234–5; in Taiwan, 155–6; in Thailand, 425–6; in Vietnam, 547–8.
See also life tenure for judges
- territorial law, in India, 290–4
- terrorism, in Thailand, 437–8
- text-based judicial interpretations, comparative analysis in Asia of, 45–7
- Thai Arbitration Institute (TAI), 435–7
- Thailand: accessibility of justice in, 428–32; administrative courts in, 410–11; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 434–7; appointment of judiciary in, 27–8, 32, 420–5; arbitration in, 435–7; associated judges in, 421–2; case management in, 415, 428–9, 441–2; changing functions of courts in, 59–63; compensatory and reparatory justice facilitation in, 439–40; compliance with judicial decisions in, 440–1; constitutional courts in, 14–15, 27–8, 32, 56–9, 409–10; courts of justice in, 410; democratic transition in, 1–4, 8–12; economic growth in, 1–4; functions of courts in, 437–40; future challenges for courts in, 440–3; globalization and competition in, 10–11; government policy legitimation through courts in, 438–9; history of court system in, 407–8; indigenous cultures and courts of, 53–6; institutional capacity of courts in, 441–2; intellectual property courts in, 66–7, 419; judicial administration in, 426–7; judicial corruption in, 63–4; judicial independence in, 63–4, 423–7; legal aid system in, 430–2; legal education in, 35–7, 420–1, 427–8; litigation costs in, 429–30; lower court systems in, 23–6, 25n.115; mediation in, 434–5; military courts in, 15–16, 411; modernization, nationalism and legal adaptation in, 52–3; Muslim qadi or Dato’ justice system and, 422–3; number of judges in, 21–2, 411–14; overview of courts in, 408–11; performance evaluation of courts in, 414, 442–3; promotion and discipline of judges in, 424–5; qualification requirements of judiciary in, 27–8, 32, 420–3; religious courts in, 53–6; senior judge appointments in, 421; size of courts in, 414; social control and courts of, 437–8; sources of law in, 414–19, 432–3; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21, 28–9, 413–14; structure of courts in, 408–11; style of judicial decisions in, 44–5, 433–4; supreme court structure in, 15–16, 416–18; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5, 425–6; training for judiciary in, 420–1, 427–8; trial procedures in, 411–13
- Thatcher, Margaret, 183–6
- Thean, L. P., 250–1
- third party arbitration, Indonesian dispute resolution and, 327–8
- “Three Supremes” theory, People’s Republic of China court system and, 489n.9, 489–91, 515–19
- trade agreements, special courts and tribunals related to, 66–7
- Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property (TRIPS) (Thailand), 419
- tradition in legal institutions: Asian court systems and role of, 7–8, 47–69, 570–2; in Indonesia, 316–17; religion and indigenous cultures and, 53–6; Singapore judiciary and, 232–3; in Thailand, 418–19; transplantation and, 48–56, 570–2

- training for judiciary: in Bangladesh, 35–7, 467–8; in India, 275–9; in Indonesia, 320–1; in People's Republic of China, 502–4, 515–19; in Philippines, 368–70; quality comparisons of Asian judges and, 568; in Singapore, 230–1, 235–6; in Thailand, 420–1, 427–8; in Vietnam, 531–4, 549n.107, 549–50 See also legal education requirements
- transition: in Asian court systems, 8–10, 47–69; changing functions of courts and, 59–63; economic and political transitions and judicial reforms, 56–9; judicial independence in context of, 63–4; in People's Republic of China court system, 522–4; structure of legal systems and, 56–64. See also colonialism and colonization; democratization
- transparency: Japanese judicial independence and, 102–3; Japanese judicial recruitment and appointment and, 91–7
- transplantation of legal institutions: in Asian court systems, 7–8, 570–2; colonization and, 49–51; tradition in Asian courts and, 48–56, 570–2
- treaty law: in India, 286–8; in Mongolia, 351–2
- trial procedures: in Bangladesh, 457; citizen participation in, 38–9; in Hong Kong, 188–93; Japanese lay judges in, 97–9; in Malaysia, 401–2; in Mongolian courts, 341–3; in People's Republic of China, 14, 491–3; in Singapore, 236–42; in South Korea, 113–14, 116–18; structural comparisons of Asian courts and, 14; in Taiwan, 143–5, 151–2; in Thailand, 411–13
- TRIPS (Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property) (Thailand), 419
- Tsinghua-Temple International Business Law LLM program, 515–19
- UBY (Uri-Bub-Yeonguhoe) (South Korea), 134–5n.58, 134–6
- UEM case (United Engineers (M) Bhd v. Lim Kit Siang) (Malaysia), 393–5
- UNCITRAL (United Nations Commission on International Trade Law), 67–8, 352–4, 396n.65, 435–7, 557–62
- uniform civil code, Indian debate concerning, 290–4
- Union List (India), 286–8
- Union Parishads* (Bangladesh), 476–7
- United Engineers (M) Bhd v. Lim Kit Siang* (UEM case) (Malaysia), 393–5
- United Kingdom. See Great Britain, law and judicial structure in
- United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), 67–8, 352–4, 396n.65, 435–7, 557–62
- United Nations Human Rights Committee, Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 214–15
- United States legal system: colonization and transplantation of legal institutions from, 49–51; federal judicial system in, 13–14; Hong Kong interpretive methods and, 214–15; Indian court structure influenced by, 271–5; Indonesian judicial system and influence of, 313–14; Japanese civil law and influence of, 52–3; judicial training and legal education influenced by, 35–7; Philippines judiciary influenced by, 368–70, 370–2; special courts and tribunals related to, 66–7; Taiwanese legal education program influenced by, 158; Vietnamese legal system influenced by, 529–31, 560–2
- United States Supreme Court, Philippines judicial system and, 370
- University of Malaya Law Department, 230–1
- University of Santo Tomas (Philippines), 368–9

- Uri-Bub-Yeonguhoe* (UBY) (South Korea), 134–5n.58, 134–6
 USAID STAR Project in Vietnam, 560–2
- Vallinder, Torbjörn, 5–6
Vellama d/o Marie Muthu v. Attorney-General (Singapore), 242–4 VIAC (Vietnam International Arbitration Centre), 559–60
Victoria Jayaseele Martin v. Majlis Agama Islam Wilayah Persekutuan & Anor (Malaysia), 391–5
 Vietnam: accessibility of justice in, 550–3; alternative dispute resolution in, 67–8, 557–62; appeal or revision of judicial decisions in, 541; appointment of judges in, 531–4, 542–5; case management in, 534–65; colonization's influence on courts of, 33–51n.273, 49–51; compliance with judicial decisions in, 541–2; court reform in, 531–4; democratic transition in, 1–4, 11–12, 56–9; economic transition in, 8–10, 56–9; future challenges to court system of, 562–3; indigenous cultures and tradition in legal system of, 53–6; interpretive methods of judiciary in, 553–7; judicial budget in, 531–4, 548–9; judicial independence in, 63–4, 545–7; legal aid systems in, 550–3; legal education in, 35–7, 531–4, 549–50; mediation in courts of, 558; number of courts in, 534–9; number of judges in, 21–2, 534–9; number of lawyers in, 39–40; overview of court system in, 528–63; people's assessors in, 38–9; performance evaluation of courts in, 43, 539–40, 555n.147; qualification requirements for judges in, 531–4, 542–5, 552n.133; religion and courts of, 53–6; socialist ideology and court system of, 45–7; sources of law in, 553–6; special courts and tribunals in, 16–21; structure of court systems in, 13, 534–9; style of judicial decisions in, 44–5, 540–1, 556; supreme court structure in, 15–16; terms and tenure of judges in, 32–5, 547–8, 548n.98; training requirements for judiciary in, 549n.107, 549–50
 Vietnam Fatherland Front, 531–4
 Vietnam International Arbitration Centre (VIAC), 559–60 village courts: in Bangladesh, 476–7; in India, 271–5; nyaya panchayats (India), 294–8; in People's Republic of China, 497–502, 504–5 See also local justice
- Wallace, John Clifford (Justice), 434–5
 Wang Chenguang, 499–500
 Wang Chung-hui, 183n.2
 Wang Shengjun, 488–95, 515–21
 War Criminal Act B.E. 2488 (1945) (Thailand), 416–18
 Western European courts: Asian court systems compared with, 4–6; Indonesian judicial system and influence of, 303, 313–14; Thailand judicial system influenced by, 414–16; Vietnamese judicial system and influence of, 560–2 winner-take-all results: in court systems, 4–6; in Taiwan dispute resolution, 166–8 Women's Charter (Singapore), 250–1 women's protection homes, in India, 271–5 women's rights: Hong Kong permanent resident status issue and, 221n.154, 223n.160, 224n.162, 223–5; Taiwanese civil litigation reform and, 59
 Woon, W., 248–50
 World Bank: Indonesian commercial law and, 313–14, 317–18; Malaysian court reforms report from, 387–9, 403–4; Mongolian courts and influence of, 343; special courts and tribunals related to, 66–7

- World Trade Organization (WTO):
  judicial reforms and, 10–11;
  People’s Republic of China and, 489–91, 502; special courts and tribunals and accession to, 66–7; Thailand judicial system and, 419 written judgments: comparative analysis of, 44–5; in South Korea, 126; South Korean judicial independence and, 134–6
WTO. See World Trade Organization
Wu Min Aun, 378
Wu Ting-fong, 183n.2
Xiao Yang, 41–2; 488–95, 515–21
Yang di-Pertuan Agong (Malaysian constitutional monarchy), 375–7, 383–4, 387–9
Yao Man Fai George v. Director of Social Welfare (Hong Kong),
  205n.88
Yeh, Jiunn-rong, 1–69,
  566–80
Yong Pung How (Singapore Chief Justice), 236–8
*Young v. Bristol Aeroplane Company
  Ltd.* (Malaysia), 384–5
Zaki Azmi (Malaysian Chief Justice), 400–4