

Index

- aftercare 98–101
 AIG (American International Group) 235
 Alchemy Partners 133, 164–166
 Antonov, Vladimir 196–198
 applications engineering 86
 Ashby's Law 104–105
 assimilation of practices 71–72
 Audi
     brand strategy 176–177
     mergers 64–69
     platform sharing/common components 32, 64–69
 auto industry
     best practice models 116–117
     crises see crises evolution 8–50
         (pre-1950) 11–12
         (1950s–1960s) 13–14
         (1970s–1980s) 15–21
         (1990s) 21–30
         (2000–2010) 30–41
         (2010 onwards) 42–49
     early design 12
     overview 4–7
 auto markets see markets average firm profitability 108 aviation envelope 119

 Bacchus, John 143–145, 150
 BAe (British Aerospace), and Rover see Rover
 BAIC (Beijing Automotive Industry Holdings) 188
 bankruptcies 253–258, see also Chrysler; GM; Nissan; Rover; Saab Barber, John 142–143 batch and queue 58
 Beer, Stafford 102, 104
 Beijing Jeep 229
 Benn, Tony 137–138
 Bergman, Mattias 69, 204
 Bergqvist, Hans 204
 best practice models 116–117

 BEVs (batteries as power source vehicles) 45–49
 BL see Rover, historical overview
 BLMC (British Leyland Motor Corporation) see Rover, historical overview
 BMC see Rover, historical overview
 BMH (British Motor Holdings) see Rover, historical overview

 BMW
     financial crises 254–258
     mergers 25–26
     platform sharing/common components 65–66
     resilience index 279–282
     and Rover see Rover
 Borg, Anders 196–197
 brand advantages 111
 Brazil
     global sales 42–44
     as NIC (newly industrialized country) 28
     production growth 37–39
     see also BRIC countries
 BRIC countries 37
     global sales 42–44
 Brightwell Holdings 203
 British Leyland (BL) see Rover, historical overview

 Britten, Leon 156
 Buick, early history (pre-1950) 11–12
 built-in obsolescence 55–57
 Bush, George W. 237–238, 241–242

 Calvet, Jacques 17–18
 Canada, global sales 42–44 capital markets 6 car ownership (1960s) 14
 car sales, and economic cycles 10
 Carlsson, Eric 174
 Carver, Mike 124
 Cerberus 26–27, 233–235
 Chevrolet, early history (pre-1950) 11–12

320 INDEX

- China
 Automotive Industry Policy 34 as developing market 20–21 domestic auto companies 34–38
 as emerging market 34–38
 Geely Group 25–26
 global sales 42–44
 joint ventures/mergers 25–26, 34–38, 107, 113
 motorization period 112–113
 trade liberalization 20
see also BRIC countries
- China Brilliance 134, 167
- Chrysler
 accounts of crisis 222
 acquisitions 229
 acquisitions divestment 229–230 and AMC 229, 241
 bankruptcy 8, 39–41, 74–75, 254–258
 and Cerberus 233–235
 in China 34–38, 241
 and Daimler 231–233, 239, 267–269
 early history (pre-1950) 11–12, 223–226
 in Europe 225–226
 and Fiat 229, 238–240, 269–270, 279–281, 284 financial data 295
 and global financial crisis (2008) 235–240
 and GM 234–235
 government bailouts 4, 115–116, 226–227, 235–240, 264–265, 271, 277
 hero-CEOs 222–223
 internal reform 224–226
 internationalization 224–226, 240–241
 management systems 222–223
 market reach 240–241, 261–262
 market share 241
 mergers 24–27
 and Mitsubishi 226, 228–229, 241
 multi-brand products 224–226
 in 1980s 228–229
 in 1990s 229–231
 and oil crisis 226, 228
 operational data 295
 operations 222–223
 and Renault-Nissan 234–235 and Rootes Group 225–226 sales bank 225–226
 sales growth 230–231
 and Simca 225–226
 stakeholder support 241–243, 257, 271, 277
 and TARP (Troubled Asset Relief Program) 39–41, 236–237, 271
 and US market 220–222, 224–226,
 230–231, 241
 US sales by year 221
see also Fiat-Chrysler
- Chrysler Financial Corporation 225
- Chrysler Loan Hearing 226–227
- Church, R. 123
- Citroën see PSA
- Clark, K. 88–90
- closely-held shares, and resilience index 277–278
- CMF (Common Module family) 250
- common components see platform sharing/common components
- complex technology 10
- component supply/sources 96–98
- Conservative government, and Rover
 128, 129, 153, 156, 160
- context, auto firms in 73, 105–113
- continuous improvement processes 94
- contracting out 90
- convergence of practices 71–72
- coordination, in production 103–104
- corporate failure 1
- corporate symbolic value, of auto firms 10
- credit ratings, and resilience index 277–278, 280–281
- crises 253–258
 definition 264
 forecasts 271–274
 future changes 285–289 future implications 274–285 reasons for 259–264
 signs of approaching 271–274 survival from 264–271
see also Chrysler; GM; Nissan; PSA; Rover; Saab
- customer credit 57–58
- customers, as stakeholders 79
- customization–standardization trade-off 70, 89
- cyclical markets 1–2
- cyclicality of demand 106
- Daewoo
 and East Asian financial crisis 28–30

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07601-3 - Crisis, Resilience and Survival: Lessons From the Global Auto Industry

Matthias Holweg and Nick Oliver

Index

More information

- mergers 28–30
- vehicle production 20–21
- Daimler
  - and Chrysler see Chrysler
  - Mercedes sales 63–64
  - mergers 25–27
  - resilience index 279–282
- Day, Graham 128, 157
- demand, and model life-cycle 108–109
- demanding environments, for car use 10
- design 101–102, 109
- design regulation 109
- developing countries, vehicle production
  - 20–21
- developing markets 20–21
- Diamond-Star Motors 24–25, 228–229
- distribution 98–102
- Dodge, early history (pre-1950) 11–12
- Drucker, Peter 1–2, 53
- Durant, William 54–55

- Eaton, Bob 232
- economic cycles, and auto industry sales 10,
  - 105, 108, 260–261
- economies of scale 6
- Edwardes, Michael 127–128, 148–149,
  - 153–154, 171
- Egan, Sir John 140
- electric vehicles 45–49, 80–81, 204–207, 218,
  - 272, 285–289
- Electrospace Systems 229
- embeddedness
  - disadvantages of 81
  - of firms in economy 81
  - of firms in environment 79–82
  - obligated 113
  - and resilience 81–82
- emerging markets 1–2, 34–41
- emissions 45–49, 109
- employment 10
- engines see powertrains
- environmental impact 109
- Europe
  - global sales 42–44
  - 1950s production 13–14
- execution, and management 103–104
- external stakeholders 6

- Fannie Mae 235
- Farjoun, M. 120

- FCA see Chrysler; Fiat
- Fiat
  - and Chrysler 229, 238–240, 269–270,
    - 279–281, 284
  - crisis resolution 266
  - financial crises 254–258
  - world car 16–17
  - see also* Chrysler
- Fiat-Chrysler, resilience index 279–281,
  - 284
- financial institutions, state aid to 74–75
- financial recovery 257–258
- First Auto Works 188
- first-tier suppliers 30, 84
- flexible mass production 58, 62–63
- Ford
  - crisis resolution 264–265
  - customer credit 57–58
  - early history (pre-1950) 11–12
  - economies of scale 111
  - market constraints 51–54
  - mass production 12, 51–54, 69–71, 92–93,
    - 111
  - mergers 24–26
  - Model T production/sales 51–55
  - operations consolidation 17
  - PAG (Premier Auto Group) 25–26,
    - 265
  - parts interchangeability 52–53
  - resilience index 279–282
  - sales 55
  - and TARP (Troubled Asset Relief
    - Program) 39–41, 236–237
  - UCC (Universal Credit Corporation)
    - 57–58
  - world car 16–17
- Ford, Henry 12, 51–54, 92–93
- Ford, Henry II 15
- Ford, William Clay Jr 265
- Ford Motor Credit 57–58
- Fordism 92–93
- four modular architectures 66–68
- France, global sales 42–44
- Freddie Mac 235
- Freeman, R. E. 3–4
- fuel cell technology 86
- fuel efficiency 45–49
- Fujimoto, T. 88–90
- full-service suppliers 30
- fundamental R&D 85–87, 101–102

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07601-3 - Crisis, Resilience and Survival: Lessons From the Global Auto Industry

Matthias Holweg and Nick Oliver

Index

More information

322 INDEX

- Geely Group 25–26
 resilience index 280–281, 283–284
- General Dynamics 228
- general management perspective 2–3
- General Motors see GM
- geographic regions, and markets 112–113
- Germany, global sales 42–44
- Ghosn, Carlos 246–248, 251–252, 267, 272
- global auto suppliers 98
- global car production 41
- global car sales 39
- global expansion 12–13
- global financial crisis (2008) 39–41, 184–188, 235–240
- global integration 16–17
- global production 8
 overcapacity 6, 10
- global sales 42–44
- GM
 bankruptcy 8, 39–41, 74–75, 186–187, 254–258
 in China 34–38
 and Chrysler 234–235
 customer credit 57–58
 early history (pre-1950) 11–12
 and Fiat 267–268
 flexible mass production 58, 62–63
 global expansion 12–13
 and global financial crisis (2008) 184–188
 government bailouts 4, 115–116, 186–187, 264–265, 277
 hybrid vehicles 45–49
 market segmentation 109–113
 mass production 12
 mergers 24–26, 28–30
 multi-brand products 54–59, 69, 184–185
 operations consolidation 17
 resilience index 279–282
 and Saab 92, 174, 180–184, 203, 213–214, 217, 269
 sales 55
 stakeholder support 257, 271, 277
 and TARP (Troubled Asset Relief Program) 39–41, 236–237, 271
 vehicle production 8
 world car 16–17
- GMAC (General Motors Acceptance Corporation) 57–58
- governments, as stakeholders 79
- greenhouse gases 45–49
- Gulfstream Aerospace 229
- Gustavsson, Henrik 174–175
- Hahn, Carl 23, 65
- Halberstam, D. 225
- Hasselkus, Walter 132–133, 161–163
- Hawtai 197–199
- Herfindahl–Hirschman index 276
- Heseltine, Michael 156, 160
- HEVs (hybrid electric vehicles) 45–49
- hollowing out, of capabilities 90–92
- Holmqvist, Lars 196–197, 205–206
- Honda
 in China 34–38
 resilience index 279–282
 and Rover see Rover
- Horrocks, Ray 156
- human resources policies, high commitment 94
- hybrid vehicles 45–49
- Hyundai
 in China 34–38
 and East Asian financial crisis 28–30
 profitability 68–69
 resilience index 279–281
 survival envelope 121
 vehicle production 20–21
- IAC (International Automotive Components) 195
- Iacocca, Lee 222, 226–230
- identity items, cars as 11
- import tariffs 14, 137, 169, 260
- IMVP (International Motor Vehicle Programme) 21–23, 93–97
- IMVP research criticisms 95
- India
 global sales 42–44
 production growth 37–39
see also BRIC countries
- information-processing view 104
- integrated conceptual model, in auto industry 113–119
- Investor AB 178–179, 216
- Issigonis, Alec 143–145
- J-curves 273–274
- Jaguar, mergers 25–26
- Japan
 component supply/sources 97–98

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07601-3 - Crisis, Resilience and Survival: Lessons From the Global Auto Industry

Matthias Holweg and Nick Oliver

Index

More information

- economic stagnation 24, 28–30
- European/US plants 18
- global market share 18–19
- global sales 42–44
- industrial production model 19
- keiretsu relationships 62, 97–98
- lean production 21–23
- motorization period 112–113
- product reliability 28–29
- production (1950s) 13–14
- production (1970s–1980s) 15–16
- US market share 15, 18–19
- VERs (voluntary export restraints) 17–19
- JD Powers quality survey 275, 280–281
- Jeep, in China 34–38
- JIT (just-in-time) production 60, 94
- Jones, D.T. 22, 82–83
- Jonsson, Jan-Åke 185–186, 191, 195, 211, 217

- Kai Johan Jiang 205
- kaizen processes 94
- kanban supermarket 61
- kanban systems 62
- keiretsu relationships 62, 97–98
- Kia
  - and East Asian financial crisis 28–30
  - financial crises 254–258
- King, Spen 143–145
- Koenigsegg 188
- Konrad, Rachel 248
- Korea see South Korea
- Krebs, Michelle 189

- Labour government, and Rover 137–138
- labour unions, as stakeholders 79
- Land Rover, mergers 25–26
- lean production 21–23, 59–64, 69, 71–72, 93–96, 116
  - core characteristics 94
- Lehman Brothers 235
- Lexus, sales 63–64
- long-term overcapacity 117–118
- Lutz, Bob 188
- Lyons, William 143–144

- M&A (mergers and acquisitions) 24–30, 179–180, 264, 266–270
  - see also* individual companies
- The Machine That Changed the World* 21–23, 30–31, 62–63, 71–72, 82–83, 96

- Mahindra & Mahindra 173, 203–204, 207–208
- management complexity 84–85
- management systems 96–101
  - capacity 104–105
  - Chrysler 222–223
  - effectiveness 116, 120–122, 275
  - functions 103–104
  - Rover 139–141, 170–172
  - Saab 214–215
- manufacturing 90, 101–102
- manufacturing orchestration 102
- Marchionne, Sergio 272
- market discipline 78
- market position 6
- market reach 109–113, 117–118, 120–122, 168–169, 208–211, 261–263, 289–290
  - Chrysler 240–241, 261–262
  - Nissan 245–246
  - in resilience index 276
  - Rover 168–169, 262–263
  - Saab 208–211, 262–263
- market segmentation 55–57, 109–113, 117–118
  - sales volumes 111
- market share 100
- markets
  - and geographic regions 112–113
  - nature of 109–113
  - rise of 34–41
- mass production 12, 51–54, 69–71, 92–93
  - flexible 58, 62–63
- Mayhew-Sanders, Sir John 154–155, 157–158
- Mazda, mergers 24
- mega-suppliers 30, 84
- Mercedes-Benz see Daimler
- Mexico, as NIC (newly industrialized country) 28
- MG Rover see Rover
- Mitsubishi, mergers 24–25
- model development 84
- model facelifts 108–109
- model life cycle, and demand 108–109
- model ranges 84–85
- model year concept 55–57
- modular architectures 66–68
- modular construction 30–31, 66–68
- motorization period 112–113
- Moulton, Jon 164–165

324 INDEX

- Mulally, Alan 265
- Muller, Victor 188, 190, 192–202, 218
- multiple vehicle segments 6
- Nanjing Automotive 134–135
- Nardelli, Robert 234, 239–240
- national symbolic value, of auto firms 10
- Neill, John 272
- NEVS (National Electric Vehicle Sweden AB) 173, 203–208, 218
- NICs (newly industrializing countries) 28
- Nissan
  - in China 34–38
  - cost-cutting 246
  - economies of scale 245–246, 252–253
  - electric vehicles 272
  - financial crisis 243–245, 251–252
  - financial data 295–297
  - hybrid vehicles 45–49
  - and keiretsu system 245–246
  - market reach 245–246
  - operational data 295–297
  - parts supply/costs 115–116, 246–248, 251–252
  - platform sharing/common components 248–251, 253
  - purchasing strategy 250–252
  - reductions 244–245
  - and Renault 25, 27, 244–253
  - resilience index 280–283
  - RNA (Renault-Nissan Alliance) 246–248, 267–268
  - RNA production sites 249–250
  - stakeholder settlements 251–252
  - see also* Renault
- NRP (Nissan Revival Plan) 244–246
- Obama, Barack 238–240, 242–243
- obligated embeddedness 113
- Ohno, Taiichi 60–64
- oil crises (1970s) 15–16, 62–63
- operational capability, in resilience index 275
- operational effectiveness 83–105, 113, 116, 120–122
  - component supply 96–98
  - core activities 85–105
  - fundamental R&D 85–87
  - management system 96–101
  - manufacturing 90
  - product development 87–90
  - retail and distribution 98–101
- operations
  - consolidation 17
  - perspective 73–74, 83–105, 117
  - Rover 170–172
  - Saab 214–215
- organizational envelope/limits 120
- organizational strategy 103–104
- overcapacity 6, 10, 16, 117–118, 167, 259–263
- PAG (Premier Auto Group) 25–26
- Pang Da Automobile Trade Company 188–202
- parts interchangeability 52–53
- parts standardization 52–53
- PCI importer 194
- performance frontier 70–71
- Peters, T.J. 2
- Peugeot see PSA
- PHEVs (plug-in hybrid electric vehicles) see hybrid vehicles
- Phoenix, and Rover see Rover
- Phoenix Four 4–5
- Piëch, Ferdinand 65–66
- Pilkington, A. 123
- Pischetsrieder, Bernd 131, 161–164
- platform sharing/common components 6, 30–34, 64–69, 71–72, 89–90, 176, 215, 248–251, 253
- Plymouth, early history (pre-1950) 11–12
- policymaking 103–104
- political-economy perspective 2–3
- Porsche
  - brand advantages 111
  - profit margins 118
- powertrains 44–49, 174–175, 212, 285–289
- pre-tax profit margins 108
- premium brand acquisition 179–180
- product design 101–102, 109
- product development 87–90, 101–102
  - costs 33–34
  - hollowing out 90–92
- product life cycles 33–34
- product platforms see platform sharing/common components
- product quality 101–102
  - performance convergence 6, 71–72
  - Rover 5–6
- product reliability 10, 28–29, 63–64

- production
  - (1950s) 13–14
  - global 8
  - regional 39
- production coordination/coherence 103–104
- production costs 33–34, 260–261
- production overcapacity 6, 10, 16, 117–118, 167, 259–263
- production standardization 52–53, 66
- profit margins 100, 108
- propulsion technology 80–81
- PSA (Peugeot-Citroën)
  - in China 34–38
  - Citroën history (pre-1950) 11–12
  - financial crises 254–258
  - Peugeot history (pre-1950) 11–12
  - resilience index 279–281, 284
  - stakeholders 257
  - state aid to 74–75
  - survival envelope 121
- Qingdao Investment Company 207
- R&D 84–87, 101–102, 111
  - collaboration 86
  - hollowing out 90–92
  - and product development 87
  - Rover 133–134
- range anxiety 80–81
- Rathore, Dipesh 204
- regional car production 39, 41
- regional car sales 39
- regionalization process 39
- regulators, as stakeholders 79
- Renault
  - hybrid vehicles 45–49
  - mergers 25, 27, 244–252
  - and Nissan see Nissan
  - operations consolidation 17
  - platform sharing/common components 248–251
  - purchasing strategy 250–252
  - resilience index 279–283
  - RNA (Renault-Nissan Alliance) 246–248, 267–268
  - see also* Nissan
  - RNA production sites 249–250
- Renault-Nissan BV 246–248
- resilience index, by company 274–285, 289–290
- resource constraints 111–112
- resource flows 75–76
- retail 98–102
- Rietzler, Wolfgang 131–133, 164
- RNA (Renault-Nissan Alliance) see Nissan; Renault
- RNIS (Renault-Nissan Information Services) 246–248
- RNPO (Renault-Nissan Purchasing Organization) 246–248, 250–252
- Robinson, Geoffrey 141
- Roewe brand name 135
- Rolls Royce, mergers 26
- Roos, D. 22, 82–83
- Rootes Group 225–226
- Rover
  - Alchemy Partners 133, 164–166
  - and BAe (British Aerospace) 129–130, 157–161, 165, 271
  - BLMC formation 126–127
  - and BMW (1994–2000) 91–92, 130–133, 159–166, 171–172, 265–266, 268–269
  - brand name 135
  - brands portfolio 139–141
  - and China Brilliance 134, 167
  - company structure 141–142
  - concept engineering 143–144
  - and Conservative government 128–129, 153, 156, 160
  - divestment (after 1975) 128, 156–157, 265–266
  - early years (1968–1975) 136–147
  - employees 123
  - engineering competence 144–145, 170
  - external competition 145
  - failure of 4–6, 81–82
  - financial data 293
  - Ford interest in buying 156
  - Ford personnel 142–143
  - GM interest in buying 156
  - government interference 154–155
  - historical overview 25–26, 123–136
  - hollowing out, of capabilities 90–92
  - and Honda 6, 91–92, 127–128, 130–132, 150–153, 159–162, 164, 170–172
  - industrial relations 146–149, 165–166
  - insular thinking 145
  - internal politics issues 146
  - and Labour government 137–138
  - management systems 139–141, 170–172

326 INDEX

- Rover (cont.)
- management weaknesses 104
  - market reach 168–169, 262–263
  - mergers and acquisitions 25–26, 123, 127–128, 130–131, 136–147, 166, 267
  - MG Rover 4–5
  - model range weaknesses 127, 131–132, 146, 149, 170, 265–266
  - and Nanjing Automotive 134–135
  - operational data 293
  - operations 170–172
  - overcapacity 167
  - and Phoenix (2000–2005) 4–5, 62–63, 131–133, 165–168
  - Phoenix Four 4–5
  - privatization (1987–1994) 157–161
  - product quality 5–6, 127, 146–147, 150–153, 170
  - production 123
  - R&D 133–134
  - recovery forecasts 272–273
  - Roewe brand name 135
  - Roverization period 157
  - Ryder Report 147
  - and SAIC (Shanghai Automotive Industrial Corporation) 134–135, 167
  - scale 168–169
  - stakeholders 172, 257, 271
  - state aid to 74–75, 127, 147
  - state ownership (1975–1987) 147–157
  - and Tata 134
  - as zombie company 91
- Russia
- global sales 42–44
  - production growth 37–39
- Ryder Report 147
- Saab
- advertising 177–178
  - aircraft production 174, 177–178
  - bankruptcy 198–199, 202, 254–258
  - brand identity/distinctiveness 68, 174–175, 177, 182–183, 208, 213–215
  - brand name/logo rights 206
  - brand strategy 176
  - business plan (2010) 191–193
  - car production (1970s and 1980s) 176–180
  - car production (early) 173–176
  - and electric vehicles 204–207, 218
  - engines 174–175, 212
  - failure of 4
  - financial data 295
  - and global financial crisis (2008) 184–188
  - and GM 92, 174, 180–184, 203, 213–214, 217, 269
  - and Hawtai 197–199
  - hollowing out, of capabilities 90–92
  - and IAC (International Automotive Components) 195
  - and Investor AB 178–179, 216
  - main divisions 175–176
  - management system 214–215
  - market reach 208–211, 262–263
  - market segmentation 210–211
  - mergers/acquisitions 25–26, 175–176, 178–179, 188–202, 267
  - mismangement of 189
  - model development/replacement 178, 180–184, 189–190, 192–194, 210–211
  - and NEVS (National Electric Vehicle Sweden AB) 173, 203–208, 218
  - operational data 295
  - operations 214–215
  - and Pang Da Automobile Trade Company 188–202
  - platform sharing 32, 176, 215
  - post bankruptcy 203–208
  - premium brand rivals 183–184
  - production 178
  - resilience 216
  - and SAIC (Shanghai Automotive Industrial Corporation) 134–135, 167, 201–202
  - sales by year 209, 212
  - scale 175–176, 211–214
  - and Scania-Vabis 175–176
  - and Spyker 182, 188–202, 218
  - stakeholders 216–218
  - supplier problems 195–196
  - survival envelope 215
  - turbo-charging 176
  - and unions 199
  - and Valmet 174
  - and Zhejiang Youngman Lotus Automobile 188–202, 204–206
  - as zombie company 91
  - safety regulation 109

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07601-3 - Crisis, Resilience and Survival: Lessons From the Global Auto Industry

Matthias Holweg and Nick Oliver

Index

More information

- SAIC (Shanghai Automotive Industrial Corporation) 134–135, 167, 201–202
- sales margins 100
- sales sourcing, Europe 100
- Samsung Motors, vehicle production 20–21
- scale 111–113, 118, 120–122, 168–169, 175–176, 211–214, 263, 289–290
in resilience index 276
- Scania-Vabis, and Saab 175–176
- Schrempp, Jürgen 26–27, 231
- Schweitzer, Louis 25
- Seale, Nick 143–144, 272
- Seat
mergers 26, 64–69
platform sharing/common components 32, 64–69
- segment coverage 277
- serendipity, and market reach 112
- service networks 101–102
- settlements 6, 76–78
and Big Three US auto firms 76–77 and stakeholders 6, 65, 82–83, 115
- Simpson, George 139, 152, 158–161, 171
- Skoda
mergers 26, 64–69
platform sharing/common components 32, 64–69
- Sloan, Alfred 54–55
- small-lot production 60
- Smith, Roland 157
- South Korea
industry expansion 28–30
as NIC (newly industrialized country) 28
vehicle production 20–21
- Sperlich, Hal 16
- Spyker, and Saab see Saab
- stakeholder constraint 115
- stakeholder definition 76
- stakeholder map, auto firm 78–79
- stakeholder perspective 76, 117
three key points 79–83
- stakeholder relations 75–83, 94, 114–116
- stakeholder settlement 6, 76–78, 82–83, 115
- stakeholder support 74–75, 113, 115–116, 120–122, 270–271
in resilience index 277–278
- stakeholder theory 3–4, 6, 73
- stakeholders, see also individual firms
- standardization–customization trade-off 70, 89
- Starbuck, W. H. 120
- Stevens, Merieke 247–248
- Stokes, Donald (Lord Stokes) 137–143
- strategic choices 103–104
- Subaru, mergers 24
- subsystems management 102
- success manuals 2–3
- suppliers 30, 84, 101–102
- survival envelope 113, 119–122, 215, 289–290
- Suzuki, in China 34–38
- ‘Swiss cheese’ failure model 3–4, 168
- systems viability 102
- Taiwan, as NIC (newly industrialized country) 28
- tariffs 14, 137, 169, 260
- TARP (Troubled Asset Relief Program), 39–41, 236–237
- Tata 134
mergers 25–26
resilience index 280–281, 283
- technological complexity 10
- Thatcher, Margaret 128, 157, 271
- too big to fail 81
- Towers, John 132–133, 165–167
- Townsend, Lynn 224–226
- Toyoda, Akio 219–220
- Toyoda, Kiichiro 219–220
- Toyoda family 59–60
- Toyota
financial crises 219–220, 254–258
financial loss 4
hybrid vehicles 45–49
JIT (just-in-time) approach 60
kanban systems 61–62
keiretsu relationships 62
lean production 21–23, 59–64, 69, 93–96
core characteristics 94
Lexus sales 63–64
product quality 6
product recall 4
product reliability 63–64
profitability 68–69
resilience index 279–282
vehicle production 8
- TPS (Toyota Production System) 60–64, 93–96
- trade friction 17–19, 22
- trade liberalization, China 20
- Trogen, Karl-Erling 205

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07601-3 - Crisis, Resilience and Survival: Lessons From the Global Auto Industry

Matthias Holweg and Nick Oliver

Index

More information

328 INDEX

- UAW (United Automobile Workers) 76–77, 233
- UCC (Universal Credit Corporation) 57–58
- UK
  - global sales 42–44
  - import tariffs 14
  - production levels 42
- Urquhart, Tim 189
- US
  - global sales 42–44
  - Japanese car imports (1970s) 15–16, 18–19
  - market segments 109–113
  - new vehicle registrations 221
  - oil crises (1970s) 15–16
  - production (1950s) 13–14
  - production levels 42
  - sales levels 56
  - TARP (Troubled Asset Relief Program) 39–41
- US vehicle market 228
- vehicle assembly 90
- vehicle cost structure 90
- vehicle inventories 101
- vehicle platforms see platform sharing/common components
- VERs (voluntary export restraints) 17–19
- viable scale 111–112
- Volkswagen
  - in China 34–38
  - developing markets 20–21
  - financial crises 254–258
  - four modular architectures 66–68
  - KVP continuous improvement process 23
  - mergers 26, 64–69, 269
  - module strategy 66–68
  - multi-branding 68
  - net income 21
  - operations consolidation 17
  - platform sharing/common components 32, 64–69, 71–72
  - production standardization 66
  - profitability 68–69
  - resilience index 280–282
  - in US market 70
  - vehicle production 8, 21
  - see also* Audi; Seat; Skoda
- Volvo
  - mergers 25–26
  - and Saab 175–176
  - see also* Geely Group
- Wallenberg, Marcus 178–179, 216–217
- Walters, Alan 153–154
- Waterman, R. H. 2
- Which?* reliability tables 28–29
- Williams, K. 83, 123
- Wilson, Charles 81
- Winterkorn, Martin 69
- Womack, J. P. 22, 82–83
- Woodley, Tony 165
- world car 16–17
- Youngman see Zhejiang Youngman Lotus Automobile
- Zetsche, Dieter 232
- Zhejiang Geely Holding Group, resilience index 280–281, 283–284
- Zhejiang Youngman Lotus Automobile 188–202, 188–202, 204–206