

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07784-3 - Biometric State: The Global Politics of Identification and Surveillance in South Africa, 1850 to the Present

Keith Breckenridge

Index

More information

Index

- Aadhaar project, 18
- Andersson, Charles
ethnography, 40
- anthropometry, 13
- Apartheid
and decolonisation, 159 no precedent for territorial separation, 158 turn to the Bantustans as an alternative to the Bewsbyuro, 160
- Argentina
general register of fingerprint identification, 211 as laboratory of biometric registration, 210
- Asiatic Law Amendment Act (No 2 of 1907), 102
- Bertillon, Alphonse 13
- Bewsbyuro, 138
archival effects, 148
centrality to Verwoerd's state, 152 chaotic state by December 1955, 155 as conscious break with documentary government, 141 as cost-saving, 140
fingerprint experts scarcity, 151 manpower requirements of fingerprinting, 147 permanent backlog of unclassified fingerprints, 152 pictured in Ernest Cole's House of Bondage, 161 as police surveillance instrument, 144 registering rural population, 149 reliance on coercion, 156 universal registration, 139
- biometric meanings of the word, 11
- biometric registration easily defeated by resistance, 216 Gandhi on cooperation, 113
- open technical standards, 197
- opposition of engineers, 204
- privatised systems, 181
- rapid DNA analysis, 201
- as remedy for state weakness, 6
- as remedy for weak colonial administration, 164
- retreating in US, Europe, Australia, 203
- universal, 24
- US projects in the twentieth century, 202
- of whites in 1981, 175
- biometric state, 1, 2
as break with history of documentary government, 11 global convergence around the South African model, 193 global geography, 16 Indian UID as a test case, 18 paradoxical political nature, 167 reliance on centralised population register, 168 South Africa as a model for new welfare state, 166
- biometrics
as automated identification, 12 extraction of minutiae, 14 as mathematical entities, 14 opposition to documentary government, 15 relationship with eugenics, 12 statistical government, 31 tension between probability and certainty, 14
- Black Sash
use of the courts, 183
- Bolsa Familia*
importance of municipalities, 194
- Book of Life
centralisation, 173
delays, 173
- British liberalism attitude to empire, 37

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07784-3 - Biometric State: The Global Politics of Identification and Surveillance in South Africa, 1850 to the Present

Keith Breckenridge

Index

More information

250 Index

- Buthlezi, Mangosutho, 182 interest in pensions, 184
- Carlyle, Thomas
defence of slavery, 21
on flogging, 49
- Cash Paymaster Services banking services, 187 fosters private biometric infrastructure, 190 off-the-shelf technologies, 186
- Chamberlain, Joseph, 67
- Chamney, Montford
motivation for fingerprinting Indians, 86
- Child Support Grant, 188 compared to other national systems, 188 recipients overwhelmingly female, 189 R10 billion tender, 192
- Chinese labour
fingerprinting, 80
- Chinese recruitment, 79
- civil registration absence of political constituency, 136 advocates of restoration, 129 African opposition, 123 after union, 123
formal opposition of Department of Interior, 130 Geddes Axe Committee recommends abandonment, 128 rural doctors' advocacy, 132
- Clarke, William James as Commissioner of Natal Police, 78 opposition to African civil registrars, 127
- correlation, 31
- counter-insurgent state, 176
- Curtis, Lionel, 61, 199 advocate of fingerprint registration, 61
- cybernetic state, 16
- Darwin, Charles, 28
as abolitionist, 38
adoption of Galton's arguments, 55 publication of Origin of Species, 52
- Datakor, 185
- digital network, 10
- Dompas, 138
abandonment of laminated identity card, 154 abolition of contract, 146 effects on workers, 146
forgery, 153
as global icon of white supremacy, 139 as instrument of Bantustan independence, 157 lamination, 142 mobile registration teams, 143 protests at Sharpeville, 159 raising additional tax, 145
- eugenics, 33
exemption from customary law, 118
- Fancher, Raymond, 35
- fingerprinting
adopted as a sacrifice for common citizenship, 178 associated with Witwatersrand coercion, 74 invented in India, 63
mimesis, 198
and progressivism, 206
spread from Witwatersrand to other African colonies, 88
- Galton, Francis, 13, 27
biography, 32
Cape as source of evidence, 45 in European history, 35
on flogging, 47
Hereditary Genius and the normal distribution, 50 on Herero ethnography, 43 on Herero pastoralists, 43 idea of correlation, 13 on imperial masculinity, 48 opposition to polygenic racism, 58 on oxen, 45, 53
permanence of fingerprints, 64 physical deterioration, 32 proposal for biometric passports, 165 recommending fingerprinting in South Africa, 67 rejection of abolitionism, 46
Royal Geographical Society, 49
South African experience, 21
South African journey, 39 using fingerprinting against illiterate, 63
- Gandhi, Mahatma
as administrator, 91
adoption of satyagraha, 23 advocate of fingerprinting, 23 anti-modernism, 90, 92 appeal to Colonial Secretary, 101 arrival in Natal, 93 collapse of resistance after 1908, 108 global dishonour of compliance in the Transvaal, 103 hostility to the state, 111 protest against fingerprinting, 19

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07784-3 - Biometric State: The Global Politics of Identification and Surveillance in South Africa, 1850 to the Present

Keith Breckenridge

Index

More information

Index

251

- protests registration of women and children, 99 rejection of segregation, 111 on the scientific merits of ten-print registration, 107 suggests the adoption of thumb-prints on legal documents, 95
- Henry, Edward
 as architect of South African Police, 69 and associates solve fingerprint classification problems, 66 detachable names, 75 influence of his book, 78
 Pass Law, 72
Police Regulations, 75 publication of Classification and Uses of Fingerprints, 67 in the Transvaal, 22
- Higgs, Edward
 on literacy and respectability, 205
- Hind Swaraj*
 redirecting anti-modernism as anti-colonial struggle, 93
- identity book
 forgery, 180
- Jonker Afrikaner, 42
- Knox, Robert
 South African experience, 57
- Latour, Bruno, 21
 literate bureaucracy absence in precolonial Africa, 116
- Lugg, Harry, 129
 as Chief Native Commissioner, Natal, 131
- Machiavelli, Niccolò, 2
- Mining Industry Commission, 1897, 68
- Natal
 Native Affairs Commission, 1907, 122
 Official Witnesses, 121
 Public Health Act of 1901, 120
- National Institute of Standards and Technology, 197
- Nilekani, Nandan, 18
 normal distribution, 28
- Park Ross, George, 129
- Pass Law
 week-long imprisonment, 77
- Pearson, Karl, 29
- pensions
 access as a source of bitter discontent, 183 Black Sash activism, 181
 Natrass Commission, 184 pensions, for black people introduction in 1944, 115 population register Book of Life project, 172 combined registration during the 1980s, 180 racial descent derived from records, 170 population registration ad-hoc racial classification, 168 in the Bantustans, 174
- Porter, Theodore, 29
- Powers, Richard
 on progressivism in the US federal government, 209
- probabilities, 27
- progressivism competing forms, 117
 as founding moment of the modern state, 207 and segregation, 208
- regression, 31
- Shepstone, Theophilus, 118 system of native agency, 119
- Smuts, Jan
 doubts about fingerprinting, 105
- Social Darwinism, 28
- South Africa
 centralised civil registration, 19 frontier violence, 40 global stage for biometric government, 1 as laboratory of biometric government, 21 as laboratory of empire, 20
- South African Police
 centralisation, 70
- Spencer, Herbert, 28
 significance in late nineteenth century, 60
- state, 2
 as autonomous moral agent, 3 bureaucracy as material object, 7 documentary order, 8
 as gatekeeper, 5
 and information technology corporations, 11 monopoly of identification, 8 monopoly of violence, 3

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07784-3 - Biometric State: The Global Politics of Identification and Surveillance in South Africa, 1850 to the Present

Keith Breckenridge

Index

More information

252 Index

state (cont.)

as paper-processing machine, 7

as product of culture, 4 sovereignty derived from well-being of population, 5

surveillance, 10

statistics

ascendancy, 29

computer networks, 30

tractability, 30

Stepan, Nancy, 34

Stocking, George, 34

technological momentum, 193

Transvaal

immigration of settlers from India, 85

legal foundations, 70

UID, see Aadhaar

Unisys, 185

US Department of Homeland Security alliance with Britain, 199

as global champion of biometric registration, 196

US National Research Council

biometrics report, 37

Vucetich, Juan, 210