

Index

- abandonment, 29–30
 structured, 30–31, 35
- Abydos, Egypt
 cemeteries at, 375–76
 re-orientation of collective experiences of time and space at, 376–79
- actor-network theory, 407
- Africa. See sub-Saharan Africa
- Algar de Bonsanto cave site, 31
- Altamura Neanderthal, 31–32, 41
- amber, as object for remembrance, 7
- ancestors. See also sub-Saharan Africa after-death concepts in sub-Saharan Africa and, 153 concepts of, in sub-Saharan Africa, 153–54 constructing, 6–7, 157–58 ‘good’ death and, 155–56
 the living and, 163–65
 Mycenaean burial practices and, 212 optimising presences of, 182–83
- Andean death practices, 168–71
- Andean expired beings, 168
- Andean peoples. See also Inkas core social unit of (ayllu), 405 notions about space-time of, 405 order and, 407
 time and, 405–07
 views about death and, 404–05
- Angkor, kingdom of, 8–9, 295–97
- animals, responses of, to dead companions, 15–17
- anthropologists, vs. archaeologists, 425–26
- anthropology
 contemporary, 425, 427
 social, 427
- ants, responses to death by, 17–18
- aphids, responses to death by, 18
- archaeologists, vs. anthropologists, 425–26
- archaeology. See also cognitive archaeology Mesopotamian, 223–24
 muse of, 436–38
 of taboo, 407
- Asia. See Mainland Southeast Asia
- Atkinson, Richard, 139
- ‘bad’ deaths, 155–56
- barrows, in early Neolithic Britain, 139–40
- Bell, Catherine, 352–53
- Binford, Lewis, 138
- biological immortality, 372
- Brahmanical mortuary practices, 387–89, 390–91
- Britain, early Neolithic cairns and barrows in, 139–40 chronology of, 138
 founding the house in, 145–48 from halls and houses to house societies in, 142–45 megalithic tombs as cemeteries, 138–39 megalithic tombs in, 138 ‘short chronology’ of funerary activity at Hazleton North in, 139–42
- Buddha. See Siddhartha, Gautam (Buddha)
- Buddhism. See also stūpas
 death and, 382–83
 history and archeology of, 383–85
 Sanchi Survey Project, case study, 392–93
- Buddhist mortuary ritual, 2
- burial jars, 265–66
- burials. See also funerary practices; mortuary practices; Mycenaean burial practices; Upper Paleolithic (UP) primary burials
 early Egyptian, 373
 emergence of formal, 41–42 formal, 29–30, 41–42, 49–57 foundation, 95
 future research proposals for study of, 433–34 Gravettian, 49–48
 jade, 315
 Kurgan, in Eurasian steps of southern Russia, 328–32 midden, 106–07
 military equipment and, 7 of Neanderthals, 27–29
 primary, 95, 104–05
 secondary, 101–04
 in sub-Saharan Africa, 158–59
- cairn coverings, 30
- cairns, in Neolithic Britain, 139–42
- cemeteries, 29–30, 187. See also Royal Cemetery at Ur at Abydos, Egypt, 375–76 Ban Non Wat, 282, 286–88, 290–94, 298–99
 early Egyptian, 372–73, 375–76
 flat, 187
 megalithic tombs as, in early Neolithic Britain, 138–39
 Mycenaean, 208–10

INDEX

- cemeteries (cont.)
 Prehistoric Cemetery at Mycenae, 205 Puruchuco, 417
 at Sintashta, 337
 Cemetery U, Egypt, 9
 Central Andes. See also under Andean; Inkas burial sites in the north, 120–24
 Chinchorro burial areas, 116–20
 ‘domestic bodies’ on Peruvian Central Coast, 113–16 initial colonization of, 111–13 synthesis and, 124–27
 chain of signifiers, 259 chamber tombs, Mycenaean, 191–93, 202, 204–05 Chapman, Robert, 138–39
 Chenla period, of Cambodia and Mun Valley, 295 Cherry, John, 200–01
 chimpanzees, responses to death by, 17, 20–21
 China. See also jade; Mainland Southeast Asia
 Chinchorro burial areas, 116–20
 chullpas, 171, 173, 175
 Classic Maya
 afterlife and, 237–39
 concepts of immortality in, 250–53 Janaab Pakal (ruler of Palenque) example, 8, 237 mortuary practices, 237–38 village of Cuello, Belize, 243–50 cognitive archaeology, 1–2, 326, 426. See also archaeology challenges facing, 2 community, death and, 5–6 comparison, 427, 429 concept formation, 9
 Cotswold-Severn group, cairns of, 140–42 creative immortality, 372 cremation, 195, 295, 390
 cremation, African funerary practices and, 155 Cronos compulsions, 29–30 Cuello, Belize, village of, 243–50 curation, 29–30, 162–63
 Cuzco, Peru, 415–16
- dead, the, individuality of, 256 death, 426. See also mortality adaptive denial of, 23
 animal responses and, 15–17
 Buddhism and, 382–83
 community and, 5–6
 dead vs., 21–22
 human body and, 3 influence of, on social life, 431–33 influence of, on territory and community, 5 innate mechanisms and responses to, 17–18 knowledge of, 22–23
 mal-adaptive investigation and, 22 material evidence on encountering, 3 memory and, 7
 mothers’ responses to infant, 19–20 as paradox, 255–56
 primate responses to, 17 relationship quality and variation in responses to, 18–21 responses to, 15
 role of physical environments and responses to, 21 role of religion and study of, 2 social order and, 8
- deathways, 351–52. See also Ontario Iroquoian societies functions of, 354
 ordering of society and, 354 as ritualized practice, 353 seventeenth-century Wendat, 355–56 deconception, practice of, 6, 133 deities, 256
 d’Errico, Francesco, 434 descent-scapes, 169–70
 desiccation, in sub-Saharan Africa, 159 divine, death and, 9–10, 215, 255, 299 dolphins, responses to death by, 18 Durkheim, Emile, 427–28, 429
- Egypt
 emergence of immortality, 9 emergence of state society in, 9
 Egyptian burials, early, 373 Egyptian cemeteries, early introduction to, 371–72 patterns of, 375–76
 symbolic immortality and, 372–73 elephants, responses to death by, 20 Engel, Frédéric, 113 environments, physical, role of, and responses to death, 21 Epicurus, 9
 Eurasian steppes of central Russia bronze age mortuary evidence in, 328–29 connecting practices in life and death, 344–45 deposition of metal objects in Sintashta cemeteries, 335–37 funerary practices at Soltse II, 343–44 interpretations of Sintashta culture, 333–34 Kurgan burials in, 328–32
 middle bronze age Sintashta culture, 332–33
 recent research at Stepnoye settlement and cemetery complex, 337–39
 Sintashta metal production, 334–35 experiential immortality, 9, 372 exposure, of corpses, 159
- farming, 5
 sedentary, 82
 Fission-fusion social systems, 22 flat cemeteries, 187 food production, 5
 formal burials, 29–30 emergence of, 41–42
 social inequality and, 49–57 foundation burials, 95
 framings, 427
 funerary caching, 30
 funerary landscapes, development of, 208–10 funerary practices. See also mortuary practices African, and cremation, 155 at Sointse II, 343–44
 at Soltse II, central Russia, 343–44 at Stepnoye settlement and cemetery complex, 339–43 in Surma, Ethiopia, 159
- globular jars, as burial jars, 257–59
 Göbekli Tepe, Turkey, 4–5
 about, 65–66
 cult, gathering, and feasting places of, 69–72

INDEX

- emergence of cultic community, 72–73 enclosures of, 66–69
 iconography of, 75–79
 monumentality of T-shaped pillars, 73–75 gold, as object for remembrance, 7 ‘good’ deaths, 155–56
 grave goods, 108–02
 Gravettian burials, grave goods associated with, 49–48
 Greece. See Mycenae group-oriented societies, 6
- halls, early Neolithic British, 143 Hazleton North cairn, 139–42. See also Britain, early Neolithic heirlooms, 7
 Hirst, Damien, 1
 Hodder, Ian, 139–40
Homo sapiens, mortality before, 3–5 honeybees, responses to death by, 18 house societies, 143–45 houses, early Neolithic British, 143 founding of, 145–48
huancas (stone upprights), 180–81 hunting party death trap hypothesis, 36, 41
- icons, 306–07
 immortality, 8–10, 134, 153, 155–59, 214–15, 297, 351, 426, 431–33, 436
 biological, 372
 concepts of, in Classic Maya, 250–53 emergence of, in Egypt, 9 experiential, 9, 372
 natural, 372
 symbolic, 372–73
 theological, 372
 infants, mothers’ responses to death of, 19–20 Inkas. See also Andean peoples; Central Andes; mummies, Inka architecture of, 416 capital city of Cuzco and, 415–16 core principle of appropriate action and, 408–09 core principles of world vision of, 408 creation stories of, 409 death of kings and, 411–13 epic histories of, 417 images of royalty and, 416–17 intangible element and, 407–08 interaction of living and dead philosophy of, 409–13 knot-records (kipu) of, 416, 417–18 material domain and, 407 modification of landscape by, 416 moments of radical transformation (pachakuti), 409 notion of vitality and, 409–10 ordering of knowledge and expression by, 407, 417 performative element and, 408 questions about Inka thought and, 408 social landscape of, 413–15
 Iroquois. See Ontario Iroquoian societies
 Ives, Charles, 1
- jade
 burials, 315
 in Chinese burial mounds and tombs, 317–26 Chinese regard for, 315 earliest Chinese artefacts of, 315–17
- as object for remembrance, 7 observations of burial use of, 326
- Japan
 burial jars of northern Kyushu, 265–66 burial process in Kofun, 8 depiction of human figures, 263–64 development of burial jars, 259–60 emergence of burial compounds, 266–71 emergence of keyhole tumulus, 271–74 factors influencing emergence of keyhole tumulus, 274–77 globular jars as burial jars in, 257–59 Mikumo-Minamishoji burial site, 263–65 rice paddy-field agriculture in, 257–59
 Yayoi burial sites, 260–63
 Jasaw Chan K’awiil, 241
 Jordan. See WF16, Wadi, Faynan, southern Jordan
- kipu* (knot-records), 416, 417–18
 Kofun Japan, burial processes in, 8. See also Japan Krapina, Croatia, 34
 Kurgan burials, 328–32
 kylix, Mycenaean, 310
- Lamalunga Cave, 31
 Lefkandi, Euboea, burials at, 195 Lohmann, Hans, 189
 longhouse villages, 354
- Mainland Southeast Asia
 about, 280–81
 Angkor, kingdom of, 295–97
 bronze age, 288f17.7–90 Chenla period, 295
 hunter-gatherers, 280–86
 iron age, 290–94
 Maritime Silk Road, 290, 295
 Neolithic settlements, 286–87
- Malta, prehistoric death rituals of, 132–34 geographic background, 130 levels of participation in mortuary rituals, 134–35 life rituals of, 132 memory generation of, 132 memory monuments of, 132 ritual monuments of, 130 temples of, 132
- Maritime Silk Road, 290, 295
 material culture, roles of, in funerary contexts, 210–11 material expression, 407 materiality, memory and, 7 matter, 303–04
 Maya. See Classic Maya megaliths, 5, 72, 138
 memory, 303–04
 death and, 7
 materiality and, 7
 Mesopotamia. See also Royal Cemetery at Ur Early Dynastic period of, 224 mortuary practices of, 224 time periods of, 224
 Uruk period of, 224
 Mesopotamian archaeology, 223–24
 metaphors, 353

INDEX

- metaphysics, object-oriented, 407 midden burials, 106–07
 middens, 157f10.1
 Middle Palaeolithic. See Neanderthals Mikumo-Minamishoji burial site (Japan), 263–65 military equipment, burials and, 7 military valour, funerary practices and, 7 monkeys, wild gelada, responses of females to their infant dead by, 20 morbidity, 29–30
 Morris, Ian, 195, 198
 mortality. See also death before Homo sapiens, 3–5 sedentism and, 5
 mortuary practices. See also funerary practices
 Classic Maya, 237–38
 of Mesopotamia, 224
 Pre-Pottery Neolithic A (PPNA), 82–86
 Pre-Pottery Neolithic B (PPNB), 82–86 variation in, 15
 at WF16, Wadi, Faynan, southern Jordan, 93–97 mortuary rituals, elements of, 354 mothers, responses of, to infant deaths, 19–20 multiple tombs, Mycenaean, 194–95, 205–08 mummies, Inka, 417. See also Inkas incineration of royal, by Spaniards, 404 Spaniard views of, 404
 summary of, 418–20
 Mycenae, 6–7, 190–91, 193, 201, 204–05, 209–10, 213–15, 303–12
 Mycenaean burial practices, 191–92, 200–01 ancestors and, 212
 death as two stage process, 212 development of, 201–05 development of funerary landscapes, 208–10 development of secondary treatments of funerary contexts, 207–08 elite status and, 212–14 funerary architecture, 202–05 importance of association and, 206–07, 212 importance of procession and, 210 kinds of dead and, 212 leadership status and, 212–14 roles of material culture, 210–11 society and, 215–16
 the divine and, 214–15
 Mycenaean funerary disposition and display, 305–06
 Mycenaean multiple tombs, 194–95, 205–08
 Mycenaean social memory, 303–04, 311–12

 natural immortality, 372 Neanderthals. See also Peștera cu Oase (Romania); Sima de los Huesos (SH) burial practices of, 27–29 types of mortuary activity, 29–30 necro-socio-sexuality, 18
 Neolithic Britain. See Britain, early Neolithic Neolithic settlements, in Mainland Southeast Asia, 286–87 Nias, Indonesia, megalithic graves on, 72 object-oriented metaphysics, 407 Ontario Iroquoian societies. See also deathways community biography and, 364–65 cultural biography and relationship to body, 356–59 long-term perspective of deathways, 364–67 rites of passage and, 359–64 world renewal and, 364–65 oral formula, 306

 Oval Tablet, 241

 Pakal, Janaab (ruler of Palenque), 7, 237, 240–41 subpyramid burial vault of, 239f15.2–40
 Peștera cu Oase (Romania), 36–40. See also Neanderthals Pettitt, Paul, 28–29, 34 physical environments, role of, and responses to death, 21 poesis, 9, 373
 Pontnewydd Cave (Wales), 41 practices. See Andean death practices; funerary practices; mortuary practices Pre-Pottery Neolithic A (PPNA), 82–86. See also WF16, Wadi, Faynan, southern Jordan; mortuary practices
 Pre-Pottery Neolithic B (PPNB), 82
 mortuary practices, 82–86
 primary burials, 95, 104–05 primates, responses to death by, 17 processions, 210, 214–15

 rats, responses to death by, 18 Recuay culture, 171
 memetic effigies of, 176–82 optimising ancestral presences in, 182–83 traditions of, 170–71 types of burial spaces in, 171–76 redemptive hegemony, 353, 354 relationship quality, and responses to death, 18–21 relics, 30
 religion defined, 2
 role of, study of early responses to death, 2 Renfrew, Colin, 200
 rice paddy-field agriculture, 257–59 rituals, 352–53
 Robb, John, 356
 Royal Cemetery at Ur, 8, 223. See also cemeteries; Mesopotamia
 death and, 226–27
 evidence from other regional sites and, 233–34
 literary sources, 224–26
 reanalysis of Woolley's notes for, 228–32
 summary of Woolley's findings for, 232–33
 Woolley's excavation notes for, 227–28
 Russia. See Eurasian steppes of central Russia Ruz Lhuillier, Alberto, 239–40

 Sanchi Survey Project, case study, 392–93
 Saxe, Arthur, 138
 secondary burials, 46, 101–04, 120–21, 124, 126–27, 136, 157, 160–62, 207–08 sedentary farming, 82
 sedentism, mortality and, 5
 Shaft Graves, Mycenaean, 201, 211, 213, 305, 307–10 Siddhartha, Gautam (Buddha), 383–85 death of, 385–86
 relic cult and presence of, 390–92 signifiers, chain of, 259
Sika deer, 257, 260f16.2
 Sima de los Huesos (SH), 31–36, 41. See also Neanderthals
 Sintashta Collaborative Archaeology Research Project (SCARP), 337

INDEX

- skulls, treatments of, 160–61 social forms, spectrum of, 428 social inequalities, formal burials and, 49–57 social order, death and, 8 social structures, burial practices and, 215–16 Southeast Asia. See Mainland Southeast Asia stelae, mnemonic significance of, 307–10 Stepnoye settlement and cemetery complex funerary practices at, 339–43 recent research and, 337–39 steppes, of central Russia
 bronze age mortuary evidence in, 328–29 connecting practices in life and death of, 344–45
 deposition of metal objects in Sintashta cemeteries, 335–37 funeral practices at Sointse II, 343–44
 Kurgan burials in, 328–32
 middle bronze age Sintashta culture, 332–33
 Sintashta metal production, 334–35 structured abandonment, 30–31, 35 stūpas, 385. See also Buddhism Buddhist geographies and, 400 fortified hilltops and, 399–400 hilltops and, 393–99
 proto-historical burial sites and, 389–90 relic worship and, 391–92 textual sources, 386–87
 typologies, 392–93
sub-Saharan Africa. See also ancestors ancestor concepts in, 153–54 ancestors and understanding after-death concepts in, 153 burials in, 158–59
 curation theme in, 162–63
 desiccation in, 159
 exposure of corpses in, 159 ‘good’ and ‘bad’ death in, 155–56 secondary treatment of ancestors in, 160–62 transformation practices in, 159 Surma (Ethiopia) funerary practices, 159 symbol construction, 9 symbolic immortality
 early Egyptian cemeteries and, 372–73 fear of death and, 372 modes of, 372
taboo, archaeology of, 407
Tainter, Joseph, 138
Tall Ahmad al Hattu burial site, 234
Tell Banat burial site, 233 Tell Brak, 233–34
theological immortality, 372 thing theory, 407
tholos tomb form, 202, 203–04, 204f13.3, 205 Tikal, northern Guatemala, 241–42 Titriş Höyük, Turkey, cemeteries at, 233 transformative states, 159–60 tumuli, 192, 202
Uduk house, 158
Upper Paleolithic (UP) primary burials, 45. See also burials chronology results for study of, 48 discussion and conclusions of study results of, 57–59 reasons for challenging traditional notions about, 45–48 Ur, Royal Cemetery at, 8, 223. See also cemeteries; Mesopotamia death and, 226–27
 evidence from other regional sites and, 233–34
 literary sources, 224–26
 summary of Woolley’s findings for, 232–33
 Woolley’s excavation notes for, 227–28
Urfa man, 74
Uruk period, of Mesopotamia, 224
Vanhaeren, Marian, 434
variables, 429
Vedic archaeology, 2
visual formula, 306
weight, emergence of concept of, 9
Wendat, seventeenth-century deathways of, 355–56
WF16, Wadi, Faynan, southern Jordan
 about, 86–93
 ‘decoration’ of skulls and other bones at, 107–01 display and relationships of skulls and structures at, 105–99 grave goods at, 108–02
 midden burials at, 106–07 mortuary practices at, 93–97 primary and foundation burials at, 95 removal of body parts from primary burials at, 104–98 secondary burials at, 101–97
Wilson, E. O., 430
Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 1, 9
Woolley, Leonard, 223 excavation notes of, for Royal Cemetery at Ur, 227–28 reanalysis of notes of, for Royal Cemetery at Ur, 228–32 summary of findings of, for Royal Cemetery at Ur, 232–33
Yax K’uk Mo’, 242
Yayoi period, 2, 8, 257, 259, 260, 262, 265, 265f16.6, 266. See also Japan