

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Index

More information

Index

- Abbas, oath taking on tomb of, 236–237 above-the-state law, 5, 8–10, 44–45. See also specific types of above-the-state law
- Abu Muhammad tribe (Muhammadawis), 253–257
- accidents, and tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 245–246
- accommodationism, 267, 269–270, 271–273, 294
- Accountability, 155–156
- accountability challenge, global administrative law, 159–165
- Actors, Norms, and Processes (ANP) approach to law and globalization, 109–110
- adjudication, rules of, 318
- Adler, Emanuel, 184, 185
- administrative law accountability challenge, 159–165
 democratic challenge, 165–171
 general discussion, 171
 ideological undercurrents of global, 156–159 influence of international norms on national, 138–156 legitimacy challenges, 138, 156–171
 overview, 8–9
 substitution of local administrative discretion, 139–142
 transference of enforcement responsibilities, 153–156 universal standards of administrative process, 137, 142–153
- adultery, in Iraqi law, 252
- Advisory Board, SAI, 169
- advocacy, precedent's role as, 181
- affordable housing issues, and foundation of Kiryas Joel, 277–278
- Agreement on Technical Barriers of Trade (TBT), WTO, 142, 146–147, 151, 153–154
- Agreement on the Application of Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS), WTO, 142, 146–147, 151–152, 153–154
- Agreement on Trade Facilitation, WTO, 144
- Al-'Araiby, Shaykh Mazen Falih Muhammad, 215
- al-Dahhan, Aqeel, 10
- Alexy, Robert, 50
- Ali Enterprises textile factory accident, 168–170
- al-Sharaa, Wasfi H., 10
- Alston, Philip, 114
- American Convention on Human Rights, 125–126
- American law, role in Kiryas Joel. See also United States (U.S.) enforcement role, 298–300 facilitative role of, 283, 297–300
 general discussion, 281–286
 litigation, 286–297
 overview, 265–266
 reasons for legal plurality, 266–268, 300–305
- Amish, 274
- amnesty laws, Argentina, 21–23
- Anabaptists, 274
- ancestral land, in Inter-American human rights system, 125–126
- An-Na'im, Abdullahi Ahmed, 198
- ANP (Actors, Norms, and Processes) approach to law and globalization, 109–110
- anthropology of law, 51–53
- Anti-Discrimination Female Indigenous Residents Committee, Hong Kong, 24

- Anti-Dumping Agreement, WTO, 143–144
- anti-foreign law bills, 3–4, 209, 307
- anti-Sharia laws, 3–4, 201–205, 208–209, 307
- Appellate Body, WTO, 144–145, 148–150, 157, 189
- arbitration
- of family law disputes, religious, 205–207, 212–213
  - New York Diamond Dealers Club, 222–223
  - in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 236–237
- arbitrator (faridha), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 236
- Argentina, outside influence on amnesty laws in, 21–23
- argumentation, legal, role of precedent in, 174–175, 188–191
- Aronis, political conflict involving in Kiryas Joel, 291–292
- atwa* (respite), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 237–238, 254–255
- audiences, in communities of practice
- account of precedent, 187–188, 191
- Austin, John, 308, 313–316, 317
- authority, in communities of practice account of precedent, 188, 190–191
- automobile accidents, and tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 245–246
- autonomy, in relative concept of law, 56
- bakht* (honor), and oath taking during arbitration in Iraq, 237
- Bälz, Kilian, 220
- Bangladeshi garment factory disaster, 168
- Bani Uqba tribe (Uqbis), 253–257
- Banner of Abbas, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 238–239
- Barak-Erez, Daphne, 8–9
- Basic Law, Hong Kong, 74–75
- beef hormones dispute, WTO, 151–152
- below-the-state law, 5–6, 10–11, 44, 45. See also specific types of below-the-state law
- Ben Nefissa, Sarah, 217, 251
- Berman, Paul Schiff, 5, 6–7, 61, 68–69
- Berne Union (International Union of Credit and Investment Insurers), 60
- Bernstein, Lisa, 222–223, 225–227
- beside-the-state law, 45–46
- binary code legal/illegal, discourse-oriented approach to law, 53–54
- black crimes (sauda), Iraqi tribal resolution of, 239
- Board of Education of Kiryas Joel Village School District v. Grumet* (Grumet case), 284–285, 287, 293
- Bob Jones University v. United States*, 31–33
- Botiveau, Bernard, 218
- bottom-up international lawmaking
- overview, 59–60
  - sociological approach to international law, 63–64
- Boyd, Marion, 205–206, 207
- Breivik, Andres, 203
- bureaucratic power, and administrative law, 134–135
- business law. See lex mercatoria
- Cain, Herman, 202–203
- California, private ordering in, 223–225, 235–236
- Canada
- Islamic family law issues in, 205–207
  - notwithstanding clause of Constitution, 30
- capitalist vision, global general administrative law, 156–159
- car accidents, and tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 245–246
- CASCO Committee (Committee on Conformity Assessment), 154, 155
- Catholic Church, 201
- Cavallo, Ricardo Miguel, 21, 22
- centralism, legal, 220–221, 308–309
- certification (sanad), expulsion by Iraqi tribes through, 241–242
- change, rule of, 318
- Chayes, Abram, 64
- Chayes, Antonia, 64
- The Cheyenne Way*, 219–220
- Childress, Donald, 4
- Chile, outside influence on law in, 20–21
- China, agreement with U.S. to solve accountability gap, 164
- choice-of-law jurisprudence
- and global legal pluralism approach, 68–69
  - marriage law, 211
  - in pluralist approach, 31–39
  - and relative concept of law, 55–56
- Christian family law, 199–201. See also non-state law; religious law
- Christian political theology, 270, 271–272, 274
- church–state separation, disputes over in Kiryas Joel, 284–285, 287, 293–295

- circumcision, clash between state law and non-state law regarding, 41–44
- cities, spatial legal pluralism in, 75–76
- citing precedent. See precedent in international law
- citizenships, multiple, 198–199
- Civil Code, Iraqi, 220–221
- civil law. See family law; state law
- Clove Cigarettes* case, WTO, 145, 150
- Cohen, Harlan, 9
- colonialism
- and conflict paradigm in pluralism research, 220–221
  - in global legal pluralism approach, 67–68
  - and legal pluralism, 51–52
- commands, laws as subsets of, 313–314
- Committee on Conformity Assessment (CASCO Committee), 154, 155
- Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women, 127–129, 130
- communities, in normative pluralist framework, 26–31
- communities of expertise, in sociolegal approach to international law, 62
- communities of practice, and international precedent
- general discussion, 183–186
  - lawyers, 188–193
  - overview, 174–176
  - precedent as practice, 187–188
- community affiliation, in choice-of-law analysis, 32–33, 34–36
- compensation, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 238, 239–240, 249, 256–257
- competition paradigm, in legal pluralist literature, 216, 217–228
- complementarity principle, 246–248
- compliance
- accounts of precedent focused on, 183
  - in transnational legal process approach, 64–66
- The Concept of Law*
- compared to other positivist accounts, 315–317
  - conflicts between law and legal system, 329–330
  - continuity of legal systems, 317–319
  - distinction between law and legal system, 321–326
  - external point of view, 321–322
  - general discussion, 330–332
  - internal point of view, 319–326
  - legal subjects and legal pluralism, 326–330
  - overview, 309–310
  - secondary rules, 317–321
  - severing link between sovereignty and law, 315–326
- conditional expulsion, by Iraqi tribes, 241
- conflict
- within communities, and choice-of-law question, 34, 35–36
  - between law and legal system, 329–330
  - in legal pluralist literature, 216, 217–228
  - between state and tribal law in Iraq, 249–253
- conflict management, in normative pluralist framework, 27–28
- conflict-of-laws jurisprudence
- and global legal pluralism approach, 68–69
  - marriage law, 211
  - in pluralist approach, 31–39
  - and relative concept of law, 55–56
- conformity assessment
- accountability challenge related to, 160–164
  - overview, 154
  - and transference of enforcement responsibilities, 153–154
- confrontation (guama), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 234
- consciousness, legal, transnational legal process approach, 65–66
- conservative Christian family law, 199–201
- constitutionalism, global, 166
- constitutionality, disputes over in Kiryas Joel, 284–285, 287, 293–295
- constitutions
- and law below-the-state, 45
  - notwithstanding clause in Canada, 30
  - U.S., First Amendment of, 210
  - U.S., Supremacy Clause of, 205
- consumer groups, influence of on state law, 25
- context, in analysis of transnational law, 98–100
- continuity of legal systems, in Hart's legal theory, 317–319
- contractual governance, 97–98
- control mechanisms, administrative law, 135, 156
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women, UN, 113–114, 126–131

- COOL (Country of Origin Labeling)
Requirements case, WTO, 145 cooperative legal pluralism versus conflict paradigm, 217–228 cooperative paradigm, 242–249
   dispute resolution under tribal law, 228–242 lessons learned from, 257–260
   misapprehensions of law by tribes, 243
   overview, 10, 215–217
   principle of complementarity, 246–248
   private ordering research, 222–228
   remaining areas of conflict, 249–253 repeat arsonist case, 253–257
   tribal avoidance of objectionable practices, 248–249 tribal preference regarding state law, 244–246 corporate social responsibility (CSR), 155, 167 corporate unit, tribe as, 232–233 corruption, in disputes of public interest in Iraq, 250–252 cosmopolitan democratization, 166
 Cotterrell, Roger, 62
Country of Origin Labeling (COOL)
Requirements case, WTO, 145 courts, hybrid, 29. See also precedent in international law; specific courts covenant marriage statutes, 211–212 Cover, Robert, 27, 31–32, 35, 183 creative administrative law, 165–171 custody disputes, in Kiryas Joel, 289–290 customary law. See also above-the-state law; cooperative legal pluralism; non-state law in Austin's account of law, 314 defining non-state law, 114–116
   international human rights law and, 111–114, 131–133
   as law above-the-state, 45 and laws on discrimination against women, 126–131 and laws on rights of indigenous peoples, 122–126
   as non-state law, 46–47
   state as mediating international law and, 116–122 danger-listing, by World Heritage Committee, 25 Darusman, Marzuki, 23
de facto operation of non-state law, 118–119 de-centering of state-originating law, 98–99 Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, UN, 122–126
degga (striking), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 235, 254–255 democratic challenge, global administrative law, 165–171 descriptive project, global legal pluralism as, 17, 18–26, 39 design feature, precedent as, 179–180, 183 Dezalay, Y., 62, 73 diamond industry, private ordering in, 222–223, 225–227 discipline, intra-tribal, 240–242. See also dispute resolution, under tribal law in Iraq discourse-oriented approach to law, 53–54
 discretion
   local administrative, substitution by international norms, 139–142 regulatory, of WTO, 146–152 discrimination defining, in international human rights law, 120–121 against women, human rights law regarding, 126–131, 132–133 dispute resolution under Jewish law, 223, 226–227
   New York Diamond Dealers Club, 222–223 dispute resolution, under tribal law in Iraq
   arbitration, 236–237
   compensation, 238, 239–240, 249, 256–257 confrontation, 234
   exile, 239, 241, 248–249, 256
   fasl, 238–240, 255–257
   honor crimes, 240
   intra-tribal discipline, 240–242
   kidnapping, 235–236 mechanisms deployed, 233–242 methodology used in research on, 230–232
   notification, 233–234
   principle of complementarity, 246–248
   repeat arsonist case, 253–257
   respite, 237–238, 254–255
   role of tribe in Iraqi society, 228–230 settlement of disputes of public interest, 250–252 striking, 235, 254–255
   tribal killings, 248–249, 250
   tribe as corporate unit, 232–233 dissidents in Kiryas Joel, use of American law by, 290–295, 301

- divorce. See family law
- doctrinal relevance of precedent, 173
- Dolphin Protection Consumer Information Act (DPCIA), U.S., 148–150
- domestic accountability regimes, 159–165
- domestic administrative law
- accountability challenge, 159–165
  - democratic challenge, 165–171
  - general discussion, 134–137
  - overview, 138, 139
  - substitution of local administrative discretion, 139–142
  - transference of enforcement responsibilities, 153–156
  - universal standards of administrative process, 142–153
- due process rules
- as perfecting rules, 143
  - universal, 143–146
- Dupret, Baudouin, 219, 220
- Dworkin, Ronald, 189
- East Timor, impact of international pressure on reform, 23–24
- economic law. See lex mercatoria
- economic sanctions, as normative process, 66
- economic values, political pressure on, 69–70
- Ehrlich, Eugen, 50
- Ellickson, Robert, 223–224, 225, 227, 235–236
- Employment Division, Department of Human Resources of Oregon v. Smith*, 33
- enforcement responsibilities, global
- administrative law, 153–156
- enforcement role of state law, in Kiryas Joel, 298–300
- epiphenomenal accounts of precedent, 180
- epistemological authority, global
- administrative law, 142
- Equal Protection Clause, 38
- European Court of Human Rights (ECHR)
- effectiveness of judicial decision making by, 191
  - “margin of appreciation” doctrine, 29
- European Court of Justice, 26
- European shtetl, 280
- exceptionalism, sovereign, 165–166
- exclusionary zoning, and foundation of Kiryas Joel, 276–278
- exile, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 239, 241, 248–249, 256
- expertise, communities of, in sociolegal approach to international law, 62
- explicit delegation accounts of precedent, 179–180
- expropriation, regulatory, 152–153
- expulsion, by Iraqi tribes, 241–242
- external point of view, in Hart’s legal theory, 321–322
- facilitative role of American law in Kiryas Joel, 283, 297–300
- fairness model of compliance with international law, 64–65
- fairness procedures, versus perfecting procedures, 143
- Family, Faith, and Freedom Protection Act, North Carolina, 203–204
- family law
- American, in Kiryas Joel, 289–290, 297–298
  - anti-Sharia laws, 201–205
  - comparative examples involving Islamic law, 205–207
  - overview, 10, 197–199
  - possible paths ahead, 210–214
  - Protestant dilemmas, 199–201
  - shared jurisdiction in, 207–210
- Family Smoking Prevention and Control Act (Tobacco Control Act), 150
- faridha* (arbitrator), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 236
- farmers, private ordering by, 223–225, 235–236
- fasl* dispute resolution mechanism, in Iraq, 238–240, 255–257
- FDA Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA), 163
- Feldman, Eric, 221, 227
- female genital cutting, 25
- Fiji, political and economic pressure after coup, 66
- First Amendment, U.S. Constitution, 210
- folk laws. See customary law
- Food and Drug Admin. v. Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp.*, 150
- foreign actors, result of fragmentation of accountability regimes for, 159–160
- foreign law, rejection of by U.S. states, 3–4, 209, 307. See also international law; non-state law
- foreign orders, under Shelley, 38
- formal expulsion, by Iraqi tribes, 241–242

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Index

More information

338

Index

- formalization ceremony, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 238–239
- fornication, tribal responses to in Iraq, 240, 252–253
- forum non conveniens cases, 4
- fragmentation of accountability regimes, and administrative law, 159–165 of international law, 69–70
- Franck, Tom, 189
- Frug, Gerald, 134
- FSMA (FDA Food Safety Modernization Act), 163
- Fuller, Lon, 189
- functional approach to normative legal orders, 115–116
- functionalist approaches to law, 91–96, 100–101
- Fundamentalist Mormons, 201
- Galán, Alexis, 16–17, 36
- Galanter, Marc, 215
- gaps in state law, and spatial legal pluralism, 73
- Gardner, John, 51, 53, 309
- Garth, B., 62, 73
- Garzón, Baltasar, 20–21, 23
- gas flaring, Nigerian law regarding, 24–25
- Gbemre v. Shell Petroleum Dev. Co. Nig.*, 25
- gender equality laws, impact on non-state law, 126–131, 132–133
- gender-role differentiation, in Kiryas Joel, 281
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 143
- Germany
example of clash between state law and non-state law in, 41–44
Remedia affair, 161–163
types of law in, 44–49
- get* statutes, 212
- global administrative law accountability challenge, 159–165
defined, 136
democratic challenge, 165–171
general discussion, 171
ideological undercurrents, 156–159 international norms and national administrative law, 138–156 legitimacy challenges, 138, 156–171
overview, 8–9
substitution of local administrative discretion, 139–142
transference of enforcement responsibilities, 153–156
universal standards of administrative process, 137, 142–153
- global constitutionalism, 166
- Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI), 141–142
- global general administrative law. See global administrative law; universal standards of administrative process
- global governance, 85–91, 100. See also transnational private regulatory governance
- global legal pluralism descriptive project, 17, 18–26
general discussion, 39–40 normative project, 17, 26–39
overview, 6–7, 15–18
sociolegal approach to international law, 66–70 versus spatial legal pluralism, 61
- Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 140, 155, 158
- Global South perspective, global governance, 86–88
- global standard setting bodies, 152
- globalization
functionalist and normative approaches to law, 91–96
global governance condition, 85–91 legitimacy of transnational private regulatory governance, 106–110 non-state laws of, 47 political critique, 104–106
private law's role, 96–101
relationship between law and society, 101–103
- government institutions, in Kiryas Joel, 279–280, 293–295, 298
- governmental authority, non-state law involving exercise of, 117–118
- Graumann, Dieter, 43, 57
- Griffiths, John, 52, 53, 57, 217
- Grumet* case (Board of Education of Kiryas Joel Village School District v. Grumet), 284–285, 287, 293
- guama* (confrontation), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 234
- Habermas, Jurgen, 166
- halakha*. See Jewish law; non-state law; religious law
- Hamoudi, Haider Ala, 10

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Index

More information

Index

339

- Hampshire, Stuart, 28 hard law, 59, 64
 Hart, H.L.A.
   compared to other positivists, 315–317
   conflicts between law and legal system, 329–330
   continuity of legal systems, 317–319
   distinction between law and legal system, 321–326
   external point of view, 321–322
   general discussion, 330–332
   internal point of view, 319–326
   legal subjects and legal pluralism, 326–330
   overview, 11
   relationship between state and non-state law, 309–310 response to earlier positivists, 311 rule of recognition, 50–51, 318–319, 324
   secondary rules, 317–321
   severing link between sovereignty and law, 315–326
 Hasidism, 268–269, 273–275, 304–305. See also Jewish law (halakha); Kiryas Joel, non-state law in Heise, Michael, 203
 Helfand, Michael, 11
 Helfer, Larry, 191
 Henry, Stuart, 217–218
 Hobbes, Thomas, 308, 311–313, 315–316
 Hoebel, E. Adamson, 68, 219–220 holes in state law, and spatial legal pluralism, 73 Hong Kong
   as example of spatial legal pluralism, 74–75 inheritance rules for women in, 24, 75 honor (bakht), and oath taking during arbitration in Iraq, 237 honor crimes, in Iraq as area of conflict, 252–253 inter-tribal, treatment of, 240 housing issues, and foundation of Kiryas Joel, 277–278 Human Rights Committee, 74–75 human rights, political pressure on, 69–70.
   See also international human rights law hybrid arrangements, in normative pluralist framework, 26–31 hybrid courts, 29
 hybrid regulatory-scientific bodies, 140
 ICC (International Criminal Court), 246
 ICCPR (International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights), 74–75
 ICJ (International Court of Justice), 173
 ICNIRP (International Commission on Non-Ionizing Radiation Protection), 140
 ICTY (International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia), 178–179 ideological origins of Kiryas Joel, 264–265, 268–276 ideological undercurrents of global general administrative law, 156–159 Ideology of Bureaucracy in American Law, 134
 ILO (International Labour Organisation), 124–125 Imam Hussein, 236 imperial law, 35
 implicit delegation accounts of precedent, 179–180 importers, responsibility to inspect foreign producers, 163
 India, Narmada dam dispute in, 67
 Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention No. 169 of 1989, ILO, 124–125 indigenous law, 10–11. See also cooperative legal pluralism; customary law indigenous peoples, international human rights law regarding, 122–126, 132 individual consciousness, in transnational legal process approach, 65–66 Indonesia, international pressure on reform in, 23–24 informal dispute resolution. See dispute resolution, under tribal law in Iraq inheritance rules for women, Hong Kong, 24, 75 input-legitimacy, 87. See also legitimacy deficit of transnational private regulatory governance institutional arrangements under normative pluralist framework, 28–31 institutional integrity, standards of, 142–143.
   See also universal standards of administrative process institution-building, in Kiryas Joel, 278–281 interactions, social in global legal pluralism approach, 70
   in sociolegal approach to international law, 61
   in spatial legal pluralism, 72–73
   in transnational legal process approach, 64–65

- Inter-American human rights system, 125–126
- inter-firm contractual monitoring, 164–165
- internal disputes in Kiryas Joel, lawsuits concerning, 288–297, 301
- internal expulsion, by Iraqi tribes, 241
- internal point of view, in Hart's legal theory, 319–330
- Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 31–33
- internalization of norms, transnational legal process approach, 64–65
- internalized rule of law norms, 189–190
- international actors, result of fragmentation of accountability regimes for, 159–160
- International Commission on Non-Ionizing Radiation Protection (ICNIRP), 140
- international commissions of inquiry, as altering state law, 23–24
- International Court of Justice (ICJ), 173
- international courts. See precedent in international law, specific courts
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 74–75
- International Criminal Court (ICC), 246
- International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY), 178–179
- international economic law. See lex mercatoria
- international human rights law
- defining non-state law, 114–116
  - on discrimination against women, 126–131, 132–133
  - relationship between non-state law and, 111–114, 131–133
  - rights of indigenous peoples under, 122–126, 132
  - state as mediating non-state law and, 116–122
- international institutions, as altering state law, 23–24
- international investment law, 152–153
- International Labour Organisation (ILO), 124–125
- international law. See also global administrative law; global legal pluralism; non-state law; precedent in international law; sociolegal approach to international law
- above-the-state law, 5, 8–10, 44–45
  - in Austin's account of law, 314–315
  - choice-of-law analysis, 37–39
  - defined, 262
  - fragmentation of, 69–70
  - in Hart's legal theory, 324–326
  - impact on non-state law, 9, 111–114
  - private, 55–56
- International Organization for Standardization (ISO), 140, 154, 155
- International Union of Credit and Investment Insurers (Berne Union), 60
- inter-tribal disputes. See also dispute resolution under tribal law in Iraq
- intra-tribal discipline, in Iraq, 240–242
- investment law, and scope of regulatory discretion, 152–153
- Iraq, cooperative legal pluralism in versus conflict paradigm, 217–228
- cooperative paradigm, 242–249
  - dispute resolution under tribal law, 228–242
  - lessons learned from, 257–260
  - misapprehensions of law by tribes, 243
  - overview, 10, 215–217
  - principle of complementarity, 246–248
  - private ordering research, 222–228
  - remaining areas of conflict, 249–253
  - repeat arsonist case, 253–257
  - tribal avoidance of objectionable practices, 248–249
  - tribal preference regarding state law, 244–246
- Iraqi Civil Code, 220–221
- IRS (Internal Revenue Service), 31–33
- ISEAL Alliance, 141, 155
- Isin, E. F., 72–73
- Islamic law (Sharia). See also non-state law; religious law
- anti-Sharia laws, 3–4, 201–205, 208–209, 307
  - and discourse-oriented approach to law, 54
  - and family law in Canada and United Kingdom, 205–207
  - and family law in U.S., 201–205
  - reservations to gender equality laws based on, 127
  - tribal dispute resolution in Iraq and, 237–238
- ISO (International Organization for Standardization), 140, 154, 155
- ISO 26000 – social responsibility, 158
- Israel, Remedia affair in, 161–163
- ius cogens, 45
- Jewish law (halakha). See also non-state law; religious law
- accommodationism, 267, 269–270, 271–273, 294

- clash between state law and, in Germany, 41–44, 57
- dispute resolution under, 223, 226–227
- family law, 201
- Kiryas Joel, ideological origins of, 264–265, 268–276
- in Kiryas Joel, presence and force of, 280–282
- in Kiryas Joel, relation to American law, 281–300
- political quietism, 267, 271–274, 294–295, 303, 304–305
- theocratic approach, 269, 270, 271–273
- joint governance, in family law, 214
- judicial decisions. See precedent in international law
- judicial review of administrative action, 135
- judicial tribunals. See specific tribunals; tribunals
- jurisdictional contest over family law, 207–210. See also family law
- jurisdictional redundancy, 27
- jurisgenerative process, 183–184
- jurispathy, 183–184, 193
- Kelly, Tobias, 72
- kidnapping, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 235–236
- killing
- as form of self-help by Iraqi tribes, 248–249, 250
  - in response to honor crimes in Iraq, 252–253
- Kirchner, Néstor, 21–22
- Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- American law and, 265–266, 281–300
  - enforcement role of state law, 298–300
  - facilitative role of state law, 283, 297–300
  - formation of village, 275–278
  - ideological origins, 264–265, 268–276
  - institution-building, 278–281
  - internal disputes, 288–297
  - litigation, 286–297
  - overview, 261–268
  - reasons for legal plurality, 266–268, 300–305
- Koh, Harold Hongju, 64–65
- Koskenniemi, Martti, 69–70
- law. See also sovereignty and law, specific kinds of law
- above-the-state, 5, 8–10, 44–45
  - Austin's account of, 313–316
  - below-the-state, 5–6, 10–11, 44, 45
  - beside-the-state, 45–46
  - conflicts between legal system and, 329–330
  - continuity of, 317–319
  - debate over definition of, 49–54, 68, 219
  - functionalist and normative approaches to, 91–96
  - hard, 59, 64
  - Hart's concept of, 321–332
  - Hobbes's concept of, 311–313
  - legal pluralist project, 6–7
  - versus legal system, 11, 321–326
  - overview, 1–6, 11
  - philosophy of, 49–51, 266–268
  - relationship between society and, 101–103
  - relative concept of, 55–58
  - secondary rules in, 317–321
  - sociology and anthropology of, 51–53
  - soft, 59, 64, 181
  - systems theory, 53–54
  - types of, 44–49
- law-state nexus, 98–99
- lawsuits, and American law in Kiryas Joel, 286–297
- lawyers
- and precedent in international law, 188–193
  - transnational, 94–95, 108
- least trade restrictive (proportionality) principle, in WTO cases, 147–151
- legal anthropology, 51–53
- legal argumentation, role of precedent in, 174–175, 188–191
- legal centralism, 220–221, 308–309
- legal consciousness, transnational legal process approach, 65–66
- legal fields, in global legal pluralism approach, 68
- legal institutions, in sociolegal approach to international law, 63
- legal liberalism
- and descriptive project of pluralism, 17, 18–26
  - general discussion, 39–40
  - and normative pluralist framework, 17, 26–39
  - overview, 6–7, 15–18
- legal nature of non-state law, 48–49
- legal nature of transnational private regulatory governance. See transnational private regulatory governance
- legal norms, defining, 115–116
- legal obligations, in Hart's legal theory, 321–324, 326–330

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Index

More information

342

Index

- legal pluralism. See also cooperative legal pluralism; global legal pluralism; spatial legal pluralism conflict paradigm, 216, 217–228
 conflicts between law and legal system, 329–330
 and context, 98–99
 defined, 51–52
 example of clashes caused by, 41–44
 in family law, 209–214
 fundamental questions regarding, 6–7 in Hart's account of law, 309–310, 319–326
 in Kiryas Joel, overview, 261–268
 in Kiryas Joel, reasons for, 300–305
 law above-the-state, 8–10
 law below-the-state, 10–11
 and natural law, 303–305
 overview, 1–6, 11
 in sociological approach to international law, 61–62 in sociology and anthropology of law, 51–53 strong, 52, 217
 weak, 52, 217
- legal positivism accounts of international precedent, 174, 179–182
 severing link between sovereignty and law, 315–326
 sovereignty and law in, 311–315
 tension between state and non-state law in, 308–310
- legal separatists. See Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- legal subject, in Hart's legal theory
 conflicts between law and legal system, 329–330
 internal point of view, 319–326
 and legal pluralism, 326–330
 overview, 310
- legal systems conflicts between law and, 329–330
 continuity of, 317–319 versus law, 11, 321–326
 secondary rules in, 317–321
- legal/illegal binary code, discourse-oriented approach to law, 53–54
- legitimacy challenges, global administrative law accountability challenge, 159–165
 democratic challenge, 165–171
 ideological undercurrents, 156–159
 overview, 138, 156
 legitimacy deficit of transnational private regulatory governance functionalist and normative approaches to law, 91–96
 general discussion, 106–110
 global governance condition, 85–91
 overview, 83–85
 political critique, 104–106
 relationship between law and society, 101–103 role of private law in transnational space, 96–101
- Leviathan*, 311–313
- Levit, Janet Koven, 59–60
- lex mercatoria*
 discourse-oriented approach to law, 54
 as non-state law, 47, 50
 political critique, 105–106
 rule of recognition, 51 transnational contractual governance, 97–98
- liberalism
 and descriptive project of pluralism, 17, 18–26
 general discussion, 39–40
 and normative pluralist framework, 17, 26–39
 overview, 6–7, 15–18
- litigation, and American law in Kiryas Joel, 286–297, 301–303
- Llewellyn, Karl N., 219–220
- local government, in Kiryas Joel, 279–280, 293–295, 298
- Luhmann, Niklas, 53
- MacFarquhar, Neil, 229
- Malinowski, B., 68
- managerial model of compliance with international law, 64–65
- manipulation, in disputes of public interest in Iraq, 250–252
- “margin of appreciation” doctrine, ECHR, 29
- Marr, Phebe, 228
- marriage law
 anti-Sharia laws, 201–205
 comparative examples involving Islamic law, 205–207
 overview, 10, 197–199
 possible paths ahead, 210–214
 Protestant dilemmas, 199–201
 shared jurisdiction in, 207–210

- Maryland Court of Appeals, 37–38
- McMillan, John, 227, 237, 244–245
- meaning making in global legal pluralism approach, 70
 in sociolegal approach to international law, 61
 in spatial legal pluralism, 71, 72
 in transnational legal process approach, 65–66
- Menski, Werner, 213
- merchant communities, private ordering in, 244–245
- merchant law, transnational. See lex mercatoria
- Merry, Sally Engle, 7, 24, 218–219
- meta-regulatory processes and accountability challenge, 164
 global administrative law, 141–142
 transference of enforcement responsibilities, 155–156
- methodological transnationalism, 110
- Mexico, Tuna-Labeling case involving, 148–150
- Michaels, Ralf, 2–3, 7
- modesty rules, in Kiryas Joel, 281
- Monroe, New York, Satmar Jewish community in, 276–278. See also Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- Moore, Sally Falk, 67–68, 222, 223
- Mormons, Fundamentalist, 201
- Mouffe, Chantal, 27–28
- Muhammadawis (Abu Muhammad tribe), 253–257
- murder cases, and cooperative legal pluralism in Iraq, 248
- Muslims. See Islamic law (Sharia)
- Myers, David, 268
- Narmada dam dispute in India, 67
- national administrative law accountability challenge, 159–165
 democratic challenge, 165–171
 general discussion, 134–137
 overview, 138, 139
 substitution of local administrative discretion, 139–142
 transference of enforcement responsibilities, 153–156
 universal standards of administrative process, 142–153
- National Insurance Company, Iraq, 245–246
- nation-state. See state; state law
- natural law, 49–50, 266–268, 303–305
- negligence, accountability challenge related to, 159–164
- negotiation, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 238
- neo-liberal vision, global general administrative law, 156–159
- New York Diamond Dealers Club, 222–223, 225–227
- New York, get statutes in, 212. See also Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- Nichols, Joel, 10
- Nigeria, influence of international norms on state law in, 24–25
- Nomos and Narrative*, 31–32
- nondelegation doctrine, 135
- nondiscrimination principle, in WTO cases, 147–152
- non-state law. See also cooperative legal pluralism; global legal pluralism; Kiryas Joel, non-state law in; sovereignty and law; specific forms of non-state law
 in Austin's account of law, 313–316 characteristics of, 48 conflicts rules under, 56 debate over definition of, 49–54 defining, 7, 114–116, 261–263 example of clash between state law and, 41–44 existence of, questioning, 261–268 Hobbes's rejection of, 312–313 impact of international law on, 9, 111–114 and internal point of view in Hart's theory, 319–326
 international human rights law and, 111–114, 131–133
 law above-the-state, 5, 8–10, 44–45
 law below-the-state, 5–6, 10–11, 44, 45
 law beside-the-state, 45–46
 laws on discrimination against women and, 126–131, 132–133
 legal centralism, 308–309
 legal nature of, 48–49
 legal pluralist project, 6–7
 legal subjects and legal pluralism, 326–330
 overview, 1–6, 11
 philosophy of law, 49–51 recognition of, based on human rights law, 122–126, 132

- non-state law (cont.)
 reform of, based on human rights law, 130–131, 132–133 relationship between state law and, 330–332 relative concept of, 55–58 rights of indigenous peoples and, 122–126, 132
 rule of recognition, 50–51
 skepticism of in U.S., 3–4 social efficacy, 50
 sociology and anthropology of law, 51–53
 state as mediating international law and, 116–122
 systems theory, 53–54
 types of, 46–47
 norm centralism, 221 normative approaches to law, 91–96 normative authority, global administrative law, 142 normative change, in transnational legal process approach, 64–66 normative explanations for use of precedence by lawyers, 188–190 normative pluralist framework communities, role in, 26–31 conflict management in, 27–28 conflict-of-laws jurisprudence, 31–39
   general discussion, 39
   hybrid arrangements in, 26–31 institutional arrangements under, 28–31
   overview, 17, 26–28
 norms, qualifying as laws, 50, 115–116
 North Carolina, anti-Sharia law in, 203–204 notification (tanbih), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 233–234 notwithstanding clause, Canadian Constitution, 30 oath taking, in arbitration by tribes in Iraq, 236–237
 obligations, legal, in Hart's legal theory, 321–324, 326–330
 official recognition of non-state law, 117–118
 Oklahoma, anti-Sharia law in, 203, 307
 “Open Government Directive” (“OG Directive”), 167
 Open Government Global Partnership, 167–168
 ordering, social, in global legal pluralism approach, 68
 O'Reilly, Bill, 202 Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 139–140 Pakistan, Ali Enterprises textile factory accident in, 168–170
 Palma, José Gabriel, 156–157 passive personality principle of jurisdiction, 20–21
 Patterson, Dennis, 16–17, 36
 Perez, Oren, 8–9
 perfecting rules versus fairness procedures, 143
   universal, 143, 146–153
 Permanent Court of International Justice, 173 persistence of law, 317–319 philosophy of law, 49–51, 266–268. See also sovereignty and law
 physical sanctions, in Hart's legal theory, 322–324
 PIGOs (private international governance organizations), 140–142 Pinochet, Augusto, 20–21 pluralism, legal. See also cooperative legal pluralism; global legal pluralism; spatial legal pluralism conflict paradigm, 216, 217–228
   conflicts between law and legal system, 329–330
   and context, 98–99
   defined, 51–52
   example of clashes caused by, 41–44
   in family law, 209–214
   fundamental questions regarding, 6–7
   in Hart's account of law, 309–310, 319–326
   in Kiryas Joel, overview, 261–268
   in Kiryas Joel, reasons for, 300–305
   law above-the-state, 8–10
   law below-the-state, 10–11
   and natural law, 303–305
   overview, 1–6, 11
   in sociolegal approach to international law, 61–62
   in sociology and anthropology of law, 51–53
   strong, 52
   weak, 52
   pockets of legal regimes, and spatial legal pluralism, 76 political conflicts causing litigation, in Kiryas Joel, 291–295 political critique, transnational private regulatory governance, 104–106

- political pressures, in global legal pluralism approach, 69–70
- political quietism, 267, 271–274, 294–295, 303, 304–305
- political sanctions, as normative process, 66
- political science discourses on global governance, 85–91
- positive state law, 49–50. See also state law
- positivism
- accounts of international precedent, 174, 179–182
  - severing link between sovereignty and law, 315–326
  - sovereignty and law in, 311–315
  - tension between state and non-state law in, 308–310
- post-national scenario, global governance condition in, 85–91
- power
- in global legal pluralism approach, 70
  - in sociolegal approach to international law, 61
  - in spatial legal pluralism, 71
  - in transnational legal process approach, 66
- practice, international precedent as, 176, 186–188
- precautionary principle (PP), 158
- precedent in international law
- communities of practice, 174–176, 183–186
  - existing accounts of, 174–175, 177–182
  - general discussion, 193–194
  - lawyers and, 177, 188–193
  - overview, 9, 172–177
  - as practice, 176, 186–188
  - state role in, 174–175
- primary rules, in Hart's legal theory, 317, 322–323
- principle of complementarity, 246–248
- private agreements, under Shelley, 38
- private due process rules, 145–146
- private institutions, in Kiryas Joel, 278–279, 281–300
- private international governance organizations (PICOs), 140–142
- private international law. See also conflict-of-laws jurisprudence
- Germany, 45–46
  - and relative concept of law, 55–56
- private law
- functionalist and normative approaches to law, 91–96
  - global governance condition, 85–91
  - in Kiryas Joel, 281–300
  - legitimacy of, 106–110
  - overview, 8, 83–85
  - political critique, 104–106
  - relationship between society and, 101–103
  - role in transnational space, 96–101
- private norms, deference to in choice-of-law jurisprudence, 34–35
- private ordering. See also cooperative legal pluralism
- general discussion, 222–228
  - by Iraqi tribes, 232–233
  - when legal system is dysfunctional, 227, 244–245
- private regulatory governance. See transnational private regulatory governance
- procedural integrity, standards of, 142–143. See also universal standards of administrative process
- procedural pluralist approach, 26–39
- proportionality (least trade restrictive) principle, in WTO cases, 147–151
- prosecutions, transnational, effect on state law, 20–23
- Protestant family law, 199–201
- public institutions, in Kiryas Joel, 279–280, 281–295, 298, 300
- public interest, settlement of disputes of in Iraq, 250–252
- public international law, 44–45. See also above-the-state law
- public law
- global governance condition, 85–91
  - in Kiryas Joel, 281–300
- public policy exception, in choice-of-law analysis, 33, 34–35
- public school district, in Kiryas Joel, 279, 284–285
- punishment, and cooperative legal pluralism in Iraq, 248
- Putzke, Holm, 43, 57
- Quane, Helen, 9
- quietist theology, 267, 271–274, 294–295, 303, 304–305
- rabbinic courts, in Kiryas Joel, 286–287, 289
- rabbinic Judaism, theological opposition between Hasidism and, 268–273

- Rajagopal, B., 62, 67
- ranchers, private ordering by, 223–225, 235–236
- rationalist accounts of international precedent, 174, 179–182
- Reb Aron, political conflict involving in Kiryas Joel, 291–292
- Reb Yoilish (Joel Teitelbaum), 275–276, 278
- Reb Zalman, political conflict involving in Kiryas Joel, 291–292
- Rebbes, in Hasidism, 268, 280
- recognition, rule of, 50–51, 318–319
- recognition of non-state law, based on human rights law, 122–126, 132
- redundancy, jurisdictional, 27
- Refah Partisi (The Welfare Party) v. Turkey* (2003), 120
- reform of non-state law, based on human rights law, 130–131, 132–133
- regime complexes, 140
- regional regimes of international governance, 74
- regulatory discretion, WTO, 146–152
- regulatory expropriation, 152–153
- regulatory governance. See global administrative law; transnational private regulatory governance
- relative concept of law, 55–58
- religious law. See also cooperative legal pluralism; Kiryas Joel, non-state law in; non-state law; specific religious law
- accommodationism, 267, 269–270, 271–273, 294
- defining non-state law, 114–116, 262
- example of clash between state law and, 41–44
- international human rights law and, 111–114, 131–133
- laws on discrimination against women and, 126–131
- laws on rights of indigenous peoples and, 122–126
- political quietism, 267, 271–274, 294–295, 303, 304–305
- and relative concept of law, 57–58
- rule of recognition, 51
- solutions to problem of reconciling state law and, 269–274
- state as mediating international law and, 116–122
- and state law, general discussion, 10–11
- theocratic approach, 269, 270, 271–273
- as type of non-state law, 46
- religious law, in family law context
- anti-Sharia laws, 201–205
- comparative examples involving Islamic law, 205–207
- overview, 10, 197–199
- possible paths ahead, 210–214
- Protestant dilemmas, 199–201
- shared jurisdiction involving, 207–210
- religious separatist movements, 274. See also Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- religious state law, 262
- Remedia* affair, 161–163
- repeat arsonist case, Iraq, 216–217, 253–257
- repeat interaction, and private ordering, 233
- reputational sanctions used by Iraqi tribes, 233–236, 241
- reservations to human rights treaties
- as limiting state responsibility, 119
- regarding gender equality, 126–128
- Resnik, Judith, 34, 64
- resolution phase, tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 238–240, 255–257
- respite (atwa), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 237–238, 254–255
- restrictions on human rights, state responsibility regarding, 120–121
- Richman, Barak D., 233
- RINA certification body, 168
- Rio+20 Conference, 159
- risk assessment, under SPS agreement, 151–152
- risk-based inspection system, 163–164
- Roberts, Simon, 320
- Rodriguez-Garavito, C. A., 62–63
- Roitman, Janet, 73
- Rome Statute, 140, 177, 246
- Rosen, Larry, 218
- rule of change, 318
- rule of recognition, 50–51, 318–319, 324
- rule-of-law principles, 188–190
- rules of adjudication, 318
- SA8000 (Social Accountability 8000) certification, 140–141, 155, 168–170
- SAAS (Social Accountability Accreditation Services), 155, 156, 168
- SAI (Social Accountability International), 168–170
- San Francisco, spatial legal pluralism in, 75–76

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Index

More information

Index

347

- sanad* (certification), expulsion by Iraqi tribes through, 241–242
- sanctions
in Hart's legal theory, 322–324
as normative process, 66 reputational, used by Iraqi tribes, 233–236, 241 social, 237
- Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS) agreement, WTO, 142, 146–147, 151–152, 153–154
- Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez*, 35
- Santos, B. de S., 62–63
- Satmar community of Kiryas Joel. See Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- sauda* (black crimes), Iraqi tribal resolution of, 239
- Savage, Michael, 202
- “Save Our State” Amendment, Oklahoma Constitution, 203
- sayyid*
overview, 233–234
role in fasl, 238–239
- schools, in Kiryas Joel, 279, 284–285
- scientific justification, in WTO cases, 151–152
- secondary rules, in Hart's legal theory, 317–321, 322–323
- self-determination, in relative concept of law, 56
- self-help remedies in private ordering, 224–225 used by Iraqi tribes, 233–242, 247–249, 250
- semi-autonomous social fields. See also cooperative legal pluralism defined, 222
overview, 67–68
private ordering in, 222–228
- separatist movements, 274. See also Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- sex-role differentiation, in Kiryas Joel, 281
- sexual activity, illicit, tribal responses to in Iraq, 240, 252–253
- shaming, as normative process, 66
- Sharia. See Islamic law; non-state law; religious law
- Shariah Law and American State Courts: An Assessment of State Appellate Court Cases* (SLASC), 204–205
- Shasta County, California, private ordering in, 223–225, 235–236
- Shelley v. Kraemer*, 38
- Shi'i tribes. See tribal law, in Iraq
- Shrimps* case, WTO, 144
- shtetl, European, 280
- Sisk, Greg, 203
- Slaughter, Anne-Marie, 65, 191
- Smith, Steven, 208
- Social Accountability 8000 (SA8000) certification, 140–141, 155, 168–170
- Social Accountability Accreditation Services (SAAS), 155, 156, 168
- Social Accountability International (SAI), 168–170
- social efficacy, 50
- social interactions in global legal pluralism approach, 70
in sociolegal approach to international law, 61
in spatial legal pluralism, 72–73
in transnational legal process approach, 64–65
- social movements international norms influencing state law, 24–25
in sociolegal approach to international law, 62–63
- social ordering, in global legal pluralism approach, 68
- social phenomenon, spatial dimensions of, 71
- social responsibility, ISO standards for, 158
- social sanctions, 237. See also reputational sanctions used by Iraqi tribes
- society, relationship between law and, 101–103
- sociolegal approach to international law bottom-up lawmaking, 63–64 focus on people in, 62–63
general discussion, 76–77
global legal pluralism, 66–70
legal institutions in, 63
overview, 59–63
spatial legal pluralism, 70–76
transnational legal processes, 64–66
- sociology behind use of precedence by lawyers, 190 of law, 51–53 of specific groups of lawyers, 192
- soft constitutional developments, family law, 208
- soft law, 59, 64, 181
- sovereign exceptionalism, 165–166

- sovereignty and law
 Austin's theory of, 313–316
 conflicts between law and legal system, 329–330
 continuity of legal systems, 317–319
 distinction between law and legal system, 321–326
 general discussion, 330–332
 Hart's theory severing link between, 315–326
 Hobbes's work on, 311–313
 internal point of view, 319–326
 legal subjects and legal pluralism, 326–330
 overview, 11
 secondary rules, 317–321
- Spain, transnational prosecutions by, 20–21, 23
- spatial legal pluralism bottom-up lawmaking, 63–64
 general discussion, 70–77
 global legal pluralism, 66–70
 overview, 7, 59–63
 transnational legal processes, 64–66
- Spiro, Peter J., 25
- SPS (Agreement on the Application of Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures), WTO, 142, 146–147, 151–152, 153–154
- staff of Abbas, in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 238–239
- standard setting bodies, global, 152
- standards, accountability challenge related to, 160–164
- standards of procedural and institutional integrity, 142–143. See also universal standards of administrative process
- Standard-Setting Code, ISEAL Alliance, 141
- standard-setting processes, regulation of, 141–142
- Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of China, 74–75
- state and international gender equality laws, 129–131 as mediating international and non-state law, 111–112, 116–122 role in international precedent accounts, 174–175, 179–182, 193–194 state actors, importance of precedent to, 190 state law. See also cooperative legal pluralism; family law; global legal pluralism; national administrative law; sovereignty and law
 accommodationism, 267, 269–270, 271–273, 294
 Austin's account of, 313–316
 decentering of, 98–99 example of clash between non-state law and, 41–44
 Hobbes's concept of, 311–313
 holes in, and spatial legal pluralism, 73
 and internal point of view in Hart's theory, 319–326 in Kiryas Joel, general discussion, 281–300
 in Kiryas Joel, overview, 265–266
 in Kiryas Joel, reasons for turning to, 266–268, 300–305
 law above-the-state, 5, 8–10, 44–45
 law below-the-state, 5–6, 10–11, 44, 45
 law beside-the-state, 45–46
 legal centralism, 308–309
 legal pluralist project, 6–7
 legal subjects and legal pluralism, 326–330
 and natural law, 303–305
 overview, 1–6, 11
 in pluralist versus liberal frameworks, 18–26 political quietism, 267, 271–274, 294–295, 303, 304–305 positive, 49–50 private international law, 55–56 and private ordering, 222–228 relationship between non-state law and, 330–332
 relative concept of law, 55–58 and religious/indigenous law, 10–11
 rule of recognition, 50–51
 severing link between sovereignty and law, 315–326
 social efficacy, 50
 sociology and anthropology of law, 51–53 solutions to problem of reconciling religious law and, 269–274 theocratic approach, 269, 270, 271–273
 types of, 44–49
 state law pluralism, 217 states, U.S., anti-foreign law bills by, 3–4, 203–205, 209, 307 Stern, Rachel E., 24 strategic use of precedent, 181 striking (degga), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 235, 254–255 strong legal pluralism, 52, 217 structural feedback loops, 29–31

- structural interactions, in normative pluralist framework, 28–31
- subaltern cosmopolitan legality, 62–63
- subsidiarity doctrines, 30–31
- substantive justification of regulatory measures, in WTO cases, 147–152
- suburbanization, 276–277
- superiors, Austin's account of, 313–314
- supranational natural law, 49–50. See also above-the-state law
- Supremacy Clause, U.S. Constitution, 205
- Supreme Court, U.S.
Bob Jones University v. United States, 31–33
Employment Division, Department of Human Resources of Oregon v. Smith, 33
Grumet v. Kiryas Joel, 284–285, 287, 293
Shelley v. Kraemer, 38
- Sustainability Reporting Guidelines G3.1, GRI, 155
- sustainability-based alliances, 158–159
- systems theory, 53–54
- Tadic* case, ICTY, 178–179
- Tamanaha, Brian conflict related to pluralism, 218 cooperative pluralism, 218 definition of law by, 53, 68, 219 legal pluralism as fact, 4–5, 210
- tanbih* (notification), in tribal dispute resolution in Iraq, 233–234
- Tarrow, Sidney, 63
- Technical Barriers of Trade (TBT) agreement, WTO, 142, 146–147, 151, 153–154
- technical regulations, WTO Appellate Body's definition of, 148
- Teitelbaum, Joel (Reb Yoilish), 275–276, 278
- Tchnikoff v. Matusevitch*, 37–38
- testing, accountability challenge related to, 160–164
- Teubner, Gunther, 54
- theft, tribal resolution of in Iraq, 247–248
- theocratic approach to law, 269, 270, 271–273
- theological positions on law accommodationism, 267, 269–270, 271–273, 294
 behind formation of Kiryas Joel village, 268–276 and natural law, 303–305
 overview, 266–268
- political quietism, 267, 271–274, 294–295, 303, 304–305
- theocratic approach, 269, 270, 271–273
- Tobacco Control Act (Family Smoking Prevention and Control Act), 150
- tomb of Abbas, oath taking on in Iraq, 236–237
- Trade Facilitation Agreement, WTO, 144
- transactional law, in Kiryas Joel, 297
- translation devices, transnational private regulatory governance, 109–110
- transnational administrative law. See global administrative law
- transnational advocacy networks, 65–66
- transnational corporations, 25–26
- transnational forum non conveniens cases, 4
- transnational law. See also global administrative law; global legal pluralism; international law
 choice-of-law analysis, 37–39
 as law above-the-state, 8–10
- transnational lawyers, 94–95, 108, 177, 188–193
- transnational legal processes, sociolegal approach to international law, 64–66
- transnational merchant law. See lex mercatoria
- transnational private regulatory governance functionalist and normative approaches to law, 91–96
- global governance condition, 85–91
- legitimacy of, 106–110
- overview, 8, 83–85
- political critique, 104–106
- relationship between law and society, 101–103
- role of private law in transnational space, 96–101
- transnational prosecutions, effect on state law, 20–23
- transnational regulatory processes. See global administrative law
- transnationalism, methodological, 110
- transparency rules, WTO, 143–144
- treaties, as influencing domestic administrative law, 139–140
- treaty law, 45. See also above-the-state law
- tribal law, in Iraq
 arbitration, 236–237
 avoidance of practices objected to by state, 248–249 compensation, 238, 239–240, 249, 256–257
 confrontation, 234
 cooperative paradigm, 242–249

- tribal law, in Iraq (cont.)
- dispute resolution mechanisms, 233–242
  - exile, 239, 241, 248–249, 256
  - fasl*, 238–240, 255–257
  - honor crimes, 240, 252–253
  - intra-tribal discipline, 240–242
  - kidnapping, 235–236
  - lessons learned from, 257–260
  - methodology used in research on, 230–232
  - misapprehensions of law by tribes, 243
  - notification, 233–234
  - overview, 10, 215–217
  - principle of complementarity, 246–248
  - remaining areas of conflict with state law, 249–253
  - repeat arsonist case, 253–257
  - resilience of practices unacceptable to state, 250
  - respite, 237–238, 254–255
  - role of tribe in Iraqi society, 228–230
  - settlement of disputes of public interest, 250–252
  - striking, 235, 254–255
  - tribal killings, 248–249, 250
  - tribal preference regarding state law, 244–246
  - tribe as corporate unit, 232–233
- tribunals. See also precedent in international law
- as influencing domestic administrative law, 140
  - proliferation of, and global legal pluralism approach, 69–70
  - WTO, and intervention in domestic regulatory discretion, 147–152
  - WTO, influence on due process rules, 144–145
- trouble case, cooperative legal pluralism, 216–217, 253–257
- Tuna Labeling* case, WTO, 148–150, 157
- Type I errors, 158
- Type II errors, 158
- UN Charter-based system, 113–114, 126–131
- UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, 113–114, 126–131
- UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, 122–126
- UN Human Rights Treaty Body System, 113–114, 126–131
- UNESCO World Heritage Committee, 25
- Uniform Premarital and Marital Agreements Act, 213
- United Kingdom, Islamic family law issues in, 205–207
- United Nations Environment Programme Finance Initiative (UNEP FI), 158
- United States – Certain Country of Origin Labelling (COOL) Requirements* case, WTO, 145
- United States – Clove Cigarettes Measures Affecting the Production and Sale of Clove Cigarettes* case, WTO, 145, 150
- United States – Measures Concerning the Importation, Marketing and Sale of Tuna and Tuna Products* case, WTO, 148–150, 157
- United States (U.S.). See also family law; Kiryas Joel, non-state law in; Supreme Court, U.S.
- agreement with China to solve accountability gap, 164
  - conflict-of-laws jurisprudence in, 31–33
  - rejection of foreign law by, 3–4, 209, 307
  - spatial legal pluralism in, 75–76
  - Supremacy Clause of Constitution, 205
  - WTO, influence of on due process rules, 144–145
  - WTO, intervention by in domestic regulation, 147–151
- universal administrative law. See global administrative law
- universal jurisdiction principle, 20–21
- universal rationality for administrative law, 156–159
- universal standards of administrative process
- due process rules, 143–146
  - ideological undercurrents, 156–159
  - overview, 137, 142–143
  - perfecting rules, 146–153
- universality of concept of law, 55, 57
- Uqbis (Bani Uqba tribe), 253–257
- The Uses of Jurisdictional Redundancy: Interest, Ideology, and Innovation*, 27
- vernacularization, 76
- Village of Kiryas Joel. See Kiryas Joel, non-state law in
- Voeten, Erik, 191
- voluntary incorporation, global administrative law, 141

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Index

More informationIndex

351

- voting, in Kiryas Joel, 298
- waivers to exercise of human rights, 120
- Walmart, inter-firm contractual monitoring, 164–165
- weak legal pluralism, 52, 217
- weight, in communities of practice account of precedent, 188, 190–191
- Western account of global governance condition, 85–91
- white flight, 276–277
- Williams, Rowan, 206
- Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 27
- women
  - as compensation for injury under Iraqi tribal law, 240, 249
  - gender equality laws, impact on non-state law, 126–131, 132–133
  - inheritance rules for women in Hong Kong, 24, 75
  - sex-role differentiation in Kiryas Joel, 281
- Woodruff, Christopher, 227, 237, 244–245
- World Heritage Committee, UNESCO, 25
- World Trade Organization (WTO)
  - conformity assessment agreements, 153–154
  - due process rules, 143–145
  - force of precedent within, 189
  - neoliberal, capitalist vision behind, 157
  - normative authority, 142
  - perfecting rules, 146–152
  - rulings by, binding nature of, 144
  - universal standards of administrative process, 143
- WTO Agreement, 139
- Zalis, political conflict involving in Kiryas Joel, 291–292
- Zionism, attitude of Hasidic Jews toward, 274
- zoning issues, and foundation of Kiryas Joel, 276–278
- Zumbansen, Peer, 8