

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of Contributors	page ix
Introduction	1
Michael A. Helfand
Part I. Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Legal Pluralist Project
1. Non-State Lawmaking through the Lens of Global Legal Pluralism	15
Paul Schiff Berman
2. What Is Non-State Law? A Primer	41
Ralf Michaels
3. International Law and Sociolegal Scholarship: Toward a Spatial Global Legal Pluralism	59
Sally Engle Merry
Part II. Negotiating State Law and International/Transnational Law
4. The Constitutional Itch: Transnational Private Regulatory Governance and the Woes of Legitimacy	83
Peer Zumbansen
5. International Human Rights Law as a Catalyst for the Recognition and Evolution of Non-State Law	111
Helen Quane

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08376-9 - Negotiating State and Non-State Law: The Challenge of Global and Local Legal Pluralism

Edited by Michael A. Helfand

Table of Contents

More information

viii

Contents

6. The Administrative State Goes Global 134
Daphne Barak-Erez and Oren Perez

7. International Precedent and the Practice of International Law 172
Harlan Grant Cohen

Part III. Negotiating State Law and Religious/Indigenous Law

8. Religion, Family Law, and Competing Norms 197
Joel A. Nichols

9. The Resolution of Disputes in State and Tribal Law in the South of Iraq: Toward a Cooperative Model of Pluralism 215
Haider Ala Hamoudi, Wasfi H. Al-Sharaa, and Aqeel Al-Dahhan

10. Is There Such a Thing as Non-State Law? Lessons from Kiryas Joel 261
Nomi Maya Stolzenberg

11. The Persistence of Sovereignty and the Rise of the Legal Subject 307
Michael A. Helfand

Index 333