

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

- Aarhus Convention
 - information gathering and stakeholder engagement and, 54–55
 - membership universalization in, 77–78
 - mission statement in, 60–62
 - multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration and, 69–74
 - strategic documents of, 37–38
- adaptability, strategic treaty management and, 298–305
- Ad Hoc Technical Expert Group (AHTEG), 208–215
- Aichi Biodiversity Targets, 59–60, 75–77
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - performance evaluation of, 256–257, 263–268
 - scientific research and data cultivation and application, 208–215
 - synergies with biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- aid effectiveness agenda, 291–294
 - international development law and, 87–89
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - treaty implementation and, 85–87
- Al-Hussein, Mirad, 251–253
- alignment
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - in performance evaluation of treaties, 263–268
 - treaty financing and, 150–153
- Alvarez, José, 22
- Andrew, Kenneth, 32–33
- Annan, Kofi (Secretary-General), 164–166
- Ansoff, Igor, 32–33
- Antarctic Treaty Consultative Mechanism, 203–205
 - Multi-year Strategic Work Plan, 40–41
- Anti-personnel Mine (APM) Convention. See also Cartagena Action Plan (APM); Maputo Action Plan (AMP); Nairobi Action Plan (AMP)
 - action plan formulations, 48–49
 - aid effectiveness agenda in, 87–89
 - capabilities perspective in, 274–277
 - Cartagena Action Plan, 41–42
 - data collection and analysis under, 215–221
 - development assistance framework and, 113–120
 - financial aspects of, 66–69
 - information gathering and stakeholder engagement and, 54–55
 - ISU performance evaluation, 246–248
 - membership universalization and, 77–78
 - multiple strategy developments in, 78–84
 - Nairobi Action Plan, 41–42
 - national treaty implementation strategy and, 63–66, 103–109, 113–120
 - organizational networks and, 270–273
 - performance assessment, 49–53, 251–253
 - reporting obligations in, 75–77
 - synergies among land mine and cluster munitions treaties and, 181–183

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

330

INDEX

- Anti-personnel Mine (cont.)
 - vision statement in, 59–60
- applicability of standards criteria, international development law and, 87–89
- assessed state contributions, treaty financing and models of, 121–128
- assessments
 - CITES internal controls assessment, 244–246
 - performance management of treaties and, 237–238
- audits
 - of chemical treaties synergies, 259–263
 - CITES internal controls assessment, 244–246
 - operational and financial audits and reviews, 242
 - performance management of treaties and, 237–238
 - strategic treaty management and use of, 263–268
 - UNCCD Global Mechanism assessment, 248–250
 - World Heritage Convention audit, 242–244, 253–256
- Australia, Medium-Term Expenditure Framework in, 150–153
- Basel Convention, 134–137
 - monitoring technologies in, 203–205
 - performance evaluation and, 259–263
 - research and data collection on chemicals and, 223–225
 - synergies process in, 162–164, 170–175
 - trust fund of, 132
- bias, data collection and analysis and, 206–208
- big data, strategic treaty management and, 203–205, 227–233
- Biodiversity Indicators Partnership (BIP), 263–268
- Biodiversity Liaison Group (BLG), 162–164
- biodiversity-related conventions
 - CBD implementation strategies and coordination with, 99–103
 - disparities in funding opportunities in, 147–150
 - fragmentation of, 157–164
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - multiple strategy developments and, 78–84
 - scientifically-based targets and strategies in, 208–215, 227–233
 - strategic treaty management and, 270–273
 - synergies and collaboration in, 69–74, 175–181
- “blindingness,” strategic treaty management and, 26–27
- Bloomberg Philanthropies, 121–128
- Booher, David, 285–291
- Borgen, Christopher, 157–164
- bottom-up model
 - data collection in land mine treaties and, 215–221
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
- Bowman, Michael, 7–13, 22
- Brownlie, Ian, 157–164
- Brunnee, Jutta, 7–13, 15–16, 291–294
- Bryson, John, 13–16, 30–32, 34–37, 283–285
- budgeting
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 134–137
 - Medium-Term Expenditure Framework and, 150–153
 - treaty financing and, 121–128, 150–153
 - World Heritage Centre audit and, 242–244
- business organizations
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
 - treaty financing and expansion of donor pool from, 121–128
 - treaty synergies and collaboration with, 69–74

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

331

- capabilities perspective
 - data collection and analysis and, 206–208, 227–233
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 263–268
 - strategic treaty management and, 25–26, 274–277
 - synergies with strategic treaty management and, 194–198
- capacity building in treaties
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - compliance and, 75–77
 - Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities and, 188–194
 - developing countries and, 85–87
 - ILO OSH Action Plan and, 95–99
 - synergies with FCTC and, 184–188
- capacity to pay formula, assessment of state contributions to treaty financing and, 121–128
- Cartagena Action Plan (APM), 41–42
 - assessment of, 49–53
 - data collection and analysis in, 74–75, 215–221
 - financing strategies, 66–69
 - national treaty implementation strategy for, 63–66, 103–109
 - performance assessment of, 251–253
 - recognition of authority in, 78–84
 - reporting obligations in, 75–77
 - synergies with land mine and cluster munitions and, 181–183
 - vision statement in, 59–60
- Cartagena Outcome Document, 103–109, 215–221
- CBD Strategy II, 47–48, 59–60
 - data collection and science in, 74–75
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–150
 - implementation and compliance in, 63–66, 75–77
 - national implementation strategies and, 99–103, 113–120
 - performance evaluation of, 256–257
 - scientific research and data cultivation and application, 208–215
 - synergies with biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- CCM Treaty. See also Vientiane Action Plan
 - aid effectiveness agenda in, 87–89
 - data collection and science in, 74–75
 - membership universalization and, 77–78
 - national implementation strategy, 63–66
 - synergy in land mine and cluster munitions treaties and, 181–183
- CCW Treaty, 181–183
- Chairs of Scientific Advisory Bodies of Biodiversity-Related Conventions, 175–181, 214–215
- Chandler, Alfred, 32
- change processes
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and role of, 99–103
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - strategic planning and analysis of, 34–37
 - strategic treaty management and, 81–82
 - synergies in chemical treaties and, 259–263
- Chayes, Abram, 7–13, 19 n. 76, 22, 202–203, 234–237, 269–270
- Chayes, Antonia Handler, 7–13, 19 n. 76, 22, 202–203, 234–237, 269–270
- chemical and waste management treaties
 - FCTC synergies with, 184–188
 - financing strategies integration in, 132–137
 - performance evaluation of, 259–263
 - scientific research and data collection and, 223–225
 - synergies among, 162–164, 170–175, 259–263
- Chemical Review Committee, 170–175
- Churchill, Robin R., 7–13, 244–246, 283–285
- CITES. See Convention On International Trade in Endangered

- Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES)
- civil society
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy, 128–131
 - treaties' synergies and collaboration with, 69–74
- climate change
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - treaties' synergies and collaboration concerning, 69–74
- CLRTAP. See Convention on Long-range Transboundary Air Pollution (CLRTBAP)
- cluster munitions treaties, synergies with, 181–183
- CMS. See Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals
- co-financing, development assistance framework and, 140–147
- coherence in international policy
 - biological diversity conventions and, 99–103
 - development assistance frameworks and, 89–94
 - disparities in treaty funding and, 147–150
 - financing strategies for treaties and, 121–128
 - fragmentation in international law and, 157–164
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control and, 110–113
 - global-level synergies, 167–168
 - Maritime Labour Convention synergies, 169–170
 - national-level synergies and, 168–169
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - OECD and UN promotion of, 164–166
 - strategic treaty management and, 42–48, 78–84, 270–273
 - synergies and collaboration in treaties and, 69–74, 194–198
 - UN “Delivering as One” agenda and, 167
- Colander, David, 30–32
- collaboration in treaties
 - in biodiversity treaties, 69–74, 175–181
 - complexity-based strategic management and, 285–291
- Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113, 184–188
- Multidonor Trust Fund expenditure strategies and, 138–140
- Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy, 128–131
- strategic treaty management and, 20, 69–74, 283–285
- synergies in biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- synergies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 170–175
- Commission on Phytosanitary Measures (CPM), strategic framework, 46–47
- Committee of State Parties (COS), Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities and, 188–194
- Committees of Parties (COP)
 - capabilities perspective on, 25–26
 - CBD implementation and, 99–103
 - CBD Subsidiary Body on Science and Technology, 208–215
 - CMS and CITES funding disparities and, 147–150
 - complexity-based strategic management and, 285–291
 - cultivation of scientific research and data by, 201–202
 - development and adoption of treaty documents and, 56–57
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 134–137
 - international organization governing bodies and, 42–48
 - multilateral environmental agreements and, 7–13

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

333

- national treaty implementation
 - strategies and, 94–95, 113–120
- performance evaluation of treaties
 - and, 237–241
- strategic treaty management practices
 - and, 15–16, 24–25
- synergies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 170–175
- treaty financing strategies and, 66–69, 121–128
- competition, strategic treaty management and, 298
- complex adaptive systems, strategic treaty management and, 26–27, 277–282
- complexity-based strategic management, 285–291
- compliance in international treaties
 - IMO strategic plan documents, 43–45
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - interactionist perspective on, 157–164
 - managerialist approach to, 7–13
 - performance management and, 234–237
 - skepticism concerning, 1–4
 - social media and crowdsourcing for monitoring of, 203–205
 - strategic treaty management and, 28–29, 75–77
- conditionality, strategic treaty management and, 291–294
- Conference of Contracting Parties, Ramsar Treaty financing and, 66–69
- Conference of Parties (COPs), 49–53
 - strategic planning and, 78–84
- constitutionalization of international law, synergies and collaboration in treaties and, 157–164
- constitutive development process, development assistance framework and, 89–94
- Convention for the Safety of Life At Sea, 169–170
- Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD)
 - capabilities perspective in, 274–277
 - CMS and CITES funding disparities and, 147–150
 - data collection and science in, 74–75
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - information management in, 53–56, 199
 - international development law and, 87–89
 - mid-term evaluation of, 256–257
 - multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration and, 69–74
 - multiple strategy developments in, 78–84
 - national treaty implementation and, 63–66, 99–103, 113–120, 208–215
 - network effects in, 270–273
 - performance assessment by, 49–53, 75–77, 235 n. 2
 - science-based targets and, 208–215
 - scientific research and data cultivation and application, 208
 - stakeholder engagement in, 53–56
- Convention On International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES)
 - CBD implementation strategies and coordination with, 99–103
 - compliance and implementation in, 75–77
 - data collection and science in, 74–75
 - development and adoption of treaty documents, 56–57
 - disparities in funding opportunities and, 147–150
 - financing strategies in, 66–69
 - internal controls assessment, 244–246
 - multiple strategy developments in, 78–84
 - Strategy II, 49–53, 66–69, 74–75
 - Strategy III, 66–69
 - synergies between biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
 - trust fund for, 121–128
 - vision statement in, 59–60

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

334

INDEX

- Convention on Long-range Transboundary Air Pollution (CLRTAP)
 - international development law and, 87–89
 - length of document, 58
 - strategic documents of, 37–38, 56–57
 - synergies and collaboration strategies and, 69–74
 - treaty strategy formulation and, 48–49
- Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD)
 - data collection in land mine treaties and, 215–221
 - disabilities research and, 221–223
 - Multidonor Trust Fund of, 121–128, 138–140
 - synergies between land mine and cluster munitions and, 181–183
 - synergies within, 188–194
- Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals (CMS)
 - CBD implementation strategies and coordination with, 99–103
 - CMS Strategies I and II, 47–48
 - development and adoption of treaty documents, 56–57
 - disparities in funding opportunities and, 147–150
 - mission statement in, 60–62
 - multiple strategy developments in, 78–84
 - objectives of, 39
 - synergies and collaborative strategies in, 69–74
 - synergies in biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- Corporate Strategy* (Ansoff), 32–33
- cost recovery and savings procedures
 - data collection on land mines and, 220–221
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
- cross-sectoral policies
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and, 99–103
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - synergy in biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- crowdsourcing, data collection and treaty monitoring with, 203–205
- CRPD. See Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- Dann, Phillipp, 90, 291–294
- data collection and analysis
 - under APM Convention, 215–221
 - chemical and waste management treaties and, 223–225
 - cultivation and application of, 208
 - disabilities research and CRPD implementation and, 221–223
- Framework Convention on Tobacco Control cultivation of, 225–227
- performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241
- strategic treaty management and, 20–21, 53–56, 74–75, 199–208, 227–233
- technological advances in, 203–205
- Decent Work Agenda (DWA) (ILO), 43–45
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 95–99
- Decent Working Country Programs (DWCP, ILO), 43–45, 95–99
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
- decision-making process
 - managerialist approach to treaties and, 7–13
 - science and data and, 202
 - strategic planning approach to, 13–16
- “Delivering as One” (DaO), UN agenda for, 167
- Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), mine action program in, 103–109
- dependency theory, treaty implementation and, 87–89
- developing countries
 - international development law and, 87–89

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. Mcinerney

Index

More information

INDEX

335

- medium-term expenditure framework and, 150–153
- national treaty implementation strategies in, 20
- scientific research capacity in, 225–227
- statistics on, 85–87
- terminology and definitions of, 85
- development agencies, ILO OSH Action Plan and role of, 95–99
- Development Assistance Committee (DAC, OECD), 85–87
- development assistance framework and, 89–94
- national treaty implementation strategies, 113–120
- OSH Action Plan (ILO) evaluation and, 257–259
- performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241, 263–268
- development assistance framework ILO OSH Action Plan implementation and, 95–99
- national treaty implementation strategies, 89–94, 113–120
- promotion of coherence and, 164–166
- development-oriented de-mining, APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
- DFID metaevaluation, APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
- direct budgetary support development assistance and, 89–94
- national treaty implementation strategies, 113–120
- documents in treaties action plans, 41–42
- action plans and, 40–41
- classification of, 37–38
- development and adoption of, 56–57
- financing strategies in, 66–69
- form and content analysis, 57
- future issues concerning, 78–84
- managerialist perspective on, 7–13
- mission statements, 60–62
- page length parameters, 58
- principal categories of, 38
- strategic planning and, 39
- strategic treaty management components in, 62–63
- terminology in, 81
- treaty formulation and content, 48–49
- vision statements, 59–60
- donor organizations future treaty financing issues and, 153–156
- GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- medium-term expenditure framework and, 150–153
- Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness and, 150–153
- Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
- strategic treaty management and, 291–294, 298–305
- treaty financing and expansion of, 121–128
- World Heritage Centre audit and, 242–244
- downstream financing strategies, treaty financing and, 121–128
- “droit de finality” concept, 87–89
- “droit orient” concept, 87–89
- Drucker, Peter, 32
- Dunoff, Jeffrey, 157–164
- duration of treaty plans, 57–58
- earmarks Multidonor Trust Fund avoidance of, 138–140
- treaty financing and problem of, 121–128
- economic conditions FCTC synergies concerning, 184–188
- national development strategies and, 113–120
- policy coherence for development concerning, 164–166
- ECOSOC, Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113, 184–188

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

336

INDEX

- ecosystem degradation, GEF
 - biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- electronic technology, scientific research and data reporting and, 202–203
- employment priorities, ILO OSH Action Plan and, 95–99
- environmental impact assessments, development assistance and, 89–94
- Epstein, Charlotte, 227–233
- ERWs. See explosive remnants of war
- European Space Agency, data collection by, 208–215
- evaluation, performance management of treaties and, 237–238
- expectations, strategic treaty management and, 270–273
- expenditures, strategy treaty
 - management concerning, 137–153
 - funding disparities and, 147–150
 - future issues in, 153–156
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - medium-term expenditure frameworks and, 150–153
 - Multidonor Trust Fund of CRPD and, 138–140
- Expert Group on Biodiversity for Poverty Eradication and Development, 99–103
- explosive remnants of war (ERWs)
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - global-level synergies concerning, 167–168
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
- explosive remnants of war (ERW) victims
 - data collection and analysis concerning, 215–221
 - synergies in land mine and cluster munitions and, 181–183
- external environment
 - analysis of, 34–37
 - underlying conditions and treaty performance, 49–53
- external financing, integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
- external perspective, strategic treaty management and, 26–27
- external shock to treaty practices, Paris Declaration and, 113–120
- Faulkner, David, 285–291
- FCTC. See Framework Convention on Tobacco Control
- feedback loops
 - complexity of treaties and, 277–282
 - strategic treaty management and, 270–273
- financing strategies for treaties
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - APM ISU performance evaluation and, 246–248
- Chemicals and Wastes Management Conference integrated approach to, 132–137
- CITES internal controls assessment of, 244–246
- disparities in funding opportunities and, 147–150
- expenditures, strategic approaches to, 137–153
- future issues in, 153–156
- GEF biodiversity funding, 140–147
- Medium-Term Expenditure Frameworks and, 121–128, 150–153
- Multidonor Trust Fund strategies and, 138–140
- multilateral treaties, 121–156
- operational and financial audits and reviews, 242
- performance management and, 234–237
- Ramsar Convention partnership strategy, 128–131
- resource mobilization strategies, 128–137
- strategic treaty management and, 20, 66–69, 121–128
- synergies between biodiversity conventions concerning, 180–181
- World Heritage Centre audit and, 242–244

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

337

- World Heritage Convention audit of, 242–244
- flag state systems, ILO collaboration with, 69–74
- flexibility, strategic treaty management and, 298–305
- focal areas approach, GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) (UN)
 - IPPC strategic framework and, 46–47
 - performance evaluation and, 259–263
 - research and data collection on chemicals and, 223–225
 - synergies between chemical and waste management treaties and, 170–175
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
 - treaty synergies and collaboration with, 78–84
- fragmentation of international law
 - multilateral treaties and, 1–4
 - synergistic practices in strategic treaty management and, 157–164
- Framework Convention on Tobacco Control (FCTC)
 - financing for, 121–128
 - national implementation strategies, 110–120,
 - research and data collection activities in, 225–227
 - synergies in, 184–188
- Freedman, Lawrence, 32–33
- funding mechanisms
 - expenditure strategies in treaties and, 137–153
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - Medium-Term Expenditure Framework and, 150–153
 - Multidonor Trust Fund strategies and, 138–140
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- fundraising strategies
 - chemical and waste management treaties integrated strategy for, 134–137
 - development of, 121–128
 - disparities in funding opportunities and, 147–150
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy, 128–131
- Geneva Progress Reports, data collection on land mines and, 220–221
- geographic information systems (GIS), 203–205
- land mine data collection and analysis and, 215–221
- GICHD
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109, 215–221
 - APM ISU evaluation by, 246–248
 - development assistance framework and, 113–120
- GICHD Mine Action Information Management Qualification standard, 220–221
- Giddens, Anthony, 24–25, 270–273
- Global Assessment of the State-of-the-Science of Endocrine Disruptors, 184–188
- Global Biodiversity Informatics Outlook (GBIO) Report, 199, 208–215
- Global Biodiversity Information Facility (GBIF), 208–215, 227–233
- Global Biodiversity Outlook (GBO-3), 49–53, 227–233
 - scientifically-based targets and strategies in, 208–215
- Global Biodiversity Outlook-4 (GBO-4), 256–257
- global constitutionalism, synergies and collaboration between treaties and, 157–164
- Global Environmental Facility (GEF), 66–69
 - biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - disparities in funding opportunities for MEAs and, 147–150
 - expenditure strategies and, 137–138
 - future treaty financing issues and, 153–156
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

338

INDEX

- Global Environmental Facility (cont.)
 - national treaty implementation strategy and, 113–120
 - private sector support for, 121–128
 - strategic treaty management and, 270–273
 - synergies between biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
 - trust fund, 121–128
- global governance
 - current trends in, 4–7
 - financing disparities for treaties and, 121–128
 - fragmentation of institutions for, 157–164
 - limits of multilateral treaties and, 1–4
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 63–66
 - promotion of coherence and, 164–166
 - strategic treaty management and, 270–273
 - synergies in, 167–168
- Global Ministerial Environmental Forum, 134–137, 170–175
- Global Strategy for a Representative, Balanced and Credible World Heritage List, 253–256
- Governance Conventions (ILO), 40–41
- governance models, national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120
- Group on Earth Observations
 - Biodiversity Observation Network (GEO BON) partnership, 208–215, 227–233
- Guzman, Andrew, 1–4
- Haas, Peter, 194–198, 201–202, 274–277
- Habermas, Jürgen, 199–200
- habitat loss, GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- Hale, Thomas, 1–4
- harmonization of donor aid practices
 - development assistance framework and, 89–94
 - fragmentation of international organizations and, 157–164
- Hayek, Friedrich, 30–32
- Hofer, Charles, 34–37
- human rights treaties
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 144–145
 - synergies between Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities and, 188–194
- IMAS 05.10 standard, 220–221
- implementation. See also national treaty implementation strategy (NTIS)
 - of ILO OSH Action Plan, 95–99
 - strategic treaty management and issues of, 75–77, 78–84
- Implementation Support Unit (ISU, APM)
 - performance evaluation of, 246–248
 - Voluntary Trust Fund and, 66–69
- improvisation, strategic treaty management and, 298–305
- IMSMA software system, 215–221
- in-country demand policy, Multidonor Trust Fund expenditure strategies and, 138–140
- indicators model of performance evaluation, 237–241, 263–268
- indirect assessment models, treaty financing and, 121–128
- information gathering. See data collection and analysis
- Information Management Programme (GICHHD), 215–221
- Information Systems for Tobacco Control (FCTC), 184–188
- Innes, Judith, 285–291
- input/output-based indicators,
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241, 263–268
- institutionalization, strategic treaty management and, 270–273
- instrumental linkages, global-level synergies and, 167–168
- integration
 - APM Convention and national development strategies, 103–109

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

339

- Convention on Biological Diversity
 - implementation and, 99–103
 - of data sources, 206
 - of financing for treaties, 121–128
 - in financing of Chemicals and Wastes Management Conference, 132–137
- Framework Convention on Tobacco Control
 - implementation in national development and, 110–113
 - future treaty financing issues and, 153–156
 - horizontal relationships between treaties and, 113–120
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 94–95
 - strategic treaty management and, 295–297
 - synergies between chemical and waste management treaties and, 170–175
- interactionist perspective on
 - multilateral treaties, 7–13
 - fragmentation in international law and, 157–164
 - strategic treaty management and, 26–27
- Inter-Agency Coordination Group on Mine Action (IACG-MA)
 - APM Convention integration with, 103–109
 - synergies between land mine and cluster munitions treaties and, 181–183
- Inter-Agency Task Force on Tobacco Control (IATF-TC), 110–113, 184–188
- intergovernmental organizations (IGOs)
 - national-level synergies and, 168–169
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 263–268
 - synergy in strategic treaty management and, 194–198
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, data collection and analysis and, 206–208
- internal assessments
 - CITES internal controls assessment, 244–246
 - underlying conditions and treaty performance, 49–53
- International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), treaty financing and, 121–128
- International Civil Aviation Organization, 184–188
- International Coalition to Ban Landmines (ICBL), information gathering and stakeholder engagement and, 54–55
- International Conference on Chemicals and Wastes Management, integrated financing model of, 132–137
- International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships, 70, 169–170
- International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea, 70
- International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification, and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 70, 169–170
- international financial assistance
 - development assistance framework and, 89–94
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - promotion of coherence and, 164–166
 - Ramsar Treaty financing and, 66–69
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) (UN), 248–250
- International Labour Organization (ILO)
 - action plans of, 40–41, 43–45, 46–47
 - developing countries and, 87
 - Maritime Labour Convention merger of instruments in, 169–170
 - MLC Action Plan, 63–66, 69–74
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 95–99
 - OSH Action plan assessment, 49–53
 - Outcome 6 and OSH objectives of, 43–45

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

340

INDEX

- International Labour (cont.)
 - Outcome 18 and, 43–45
 - strategic action plans, 40–41
 - synergies and collaborative strategies and, 78–84
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- international law
 - aid effectiveness and, 87–89
 - development assistance framework and, 89–94
 - disparities in biodiversity treaty funding and, 147–150
 - financing of treaties and, 121–128
 - fragmentation in, 157–164
 - governance arrangements in treaties and, 7–13
 - multilateral treaties and, 1–4
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - policy coherence for development and, 164–166
 - role of science in, 199–200
 - strategic treaty management and, 283–285, 298–305
- International Law Commission
 - fragmentation in treaties and, 157–164
 - report on multilateral treaties by, 1–4
- International Maritime Organization (IMO)
 - assessed contributions model of, 121–128
 - ILO synergies and collaboration with, 69–74
 - Maritime Labour Convention merger of instruments in, 169–170
 - strategic plan documents, 45–46
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - Medium-Term Expenditure Framework and, 150–153
- international organizations
 - competing interests of, 4–7
 - fragmentation in, 157–164
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - global-level synergies and, 167–168
 - multilateral treaties and, 1–4
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241
 - strategic treaty management and, 277–282, 298–305
 - synergies and collaboration between treaties and, 20, 69–74, 78–84, 194–198
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
 - treaty strategies and strategies of, 42–48
- International Plant Protection Convention (IPPC)
 - development and adoption of treaty documents, 56–57
 - length of document, 58
 - mission statement in, 60–62
 - multiple strategy developments in, 78–84
 - national implementation strategies, 63–66
 - strategic framework for, 46–47
 - Strategy II objectives, 39
 - Strategy I objectives, 39
 - synergies and collaboration with international organizations and, 78–84
- International Whaling Commission, 227–233
- interpretation
 - fragmentation of international law and, 157–164
 - strategic treaty management and, 82–83
- invasive alien species, GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- IPBES, 175–181
 - CBD data analysis and, 214–215
 - Multidisciplinary Expert panel, 206–208
 - scientific research and data cultivation and application, 208
- ITPGRA, 175–181
- IUCN
 - environmental law, 69–74
 - Red List of, 203–205
- Jarzabkowski, Paula, 24–25, 270–273
- jus cogens*, synergies and collaboration between treaties and, 157–164

- Kay, John, 285–291
- knowledge-based organizational theory
 - capabilities perspective in STM and, 274–277
 - strategic treaty management and, 25–26, 199–208
- Koskenniemi, Maarti, 28–29
- Kupers, Roland, 30–32
- Kyoto Protocol, 87–89
- land degradation, GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- land mine treaties. See also specific treaties, e.g. APM treaty
 - data collection and analysis and, 215–221
 - network effects in, 270–273
 - synergies between, 181–183
- legal framework for national treaty implementation, 113–120
 - fragmentation in international law and, 157–164
- Liaison Group of Biodiversity-related Conventions, 214–215
- linear strategy model
 - complexity-based strategic management and, 285–291
 - strategic treaty management and, 282–283
- line ministries, medium-term expenditure framework and, 150–153
- Lloyds Register, IM assessed contributions model and ships registered with, 121–128
- mainstreaming
 - Convention on Biological Diversity integration and, 99–103
 - Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities synergies and, 188–194
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 94–95
- management audits
 - treaty performance and, 237–241
- UNCCD Global Mechanism
 - assessment, 248–250
 - World Heritage Convention, 242–244
- management systems approach, in ILO OSH Action Plan, 95–99
- management theory, strategic planning in context of, 32–37
- managerialism
 - operational understanding of treaties and, 7–13
 - strategic treaty management and, 19 n. 76
- Maputo Action Plan (APM)
 - data collection and analysis in, 215–221
 - national implementation strategies, 63–66, 103–109
 - reporting obligations in, 75–77
 - synergy in land mine and cluster munitions and, 181–183
- Maputo Review Conference (2014), 49–53
- Maritime Labour Convention (MLC)
 - Action plan of, 43–45, 69–74, 169–170
 - membership universalization in, 77–78
 - national implementation strategies for, 63–66
 - performance management in, 75–77
 - strategic action plan for, 40–41
 - synergies in development of, 169–170
- Mazower, Mark, 1–4
- McInerney-Lankford, Siobhan, 94–95
- McKiernan, P., 285–291
- MDGs, Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
- MEAs. See multilateral environmental agreements
- medium-term budgetary frameworks (MTBF), 150–153
- Medium-Term Expenditure Frameworks (MTEFs)
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - expenditure strategies and, 137–138
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120

- Medium-Term Expenditure (cont.)
 - treaty financing and, 121–128, 150–153
- medium-term performance framework (MTPF), 150–153
- Meeting of Parties (MOP)
 - APM Convention performance assessment, 49–53
 - multilateral environmental agreements and, 7–13
- membership universalization, strategic treaty management and, 77–78
- Member State ships, IM assessed contributions model and, 121–128
- memoranda of understanding (MOU), in multilateral environmental agreements, 157–164
- metric-based performance evaluation, 237–238
- Migratory Wildlife Network, 69–74
- Millennium Development Goals, 263–268
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
- Minimata Mercury Convention, 134–137, 140–147, 174–175
- mission statement
 - development of, 34–37
 - strategic treaty management and, 60–62
- monitoring of treaty compliance
 - information technology and, 203–205
 - performance management and, 234–237
 - in strategic treaty management, 16–18
 - technologies for, 201–202
 - World Heritage Committee performance evaluation and, 253–256
- Montreal Protocol to the Vienna Convention on Ozone Depleting Substances, 87–89
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - scientific principles in, 200–201
- Montreal Protocol Trust Fund, 121–128
- MSPs (APM Convention)
 - financing strategies and, 66–69
 - national implementation strategies and, 103–109
- Multidonor Trust Fund (MDTF) (CRPD)
 - expenditure strategies and, 138–140
 - synergies and, 188–194
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- multilateral environmental agreements (MEAs)
 - disparities in funding opportunities and, 147–150
 - fragmentation in, 157–164
 - managerialist approach to, 7–13
 - promotion of coherence in, 164–166
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
 - scientific research and data collection in, 214–215, 232–233
 - synergies between biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- Multilateral Environmental Agreements Information and Knowledge Management Initiative (InforMEA), 175–181
- multilateral institutions, limitations of, 1–4
- multilateral treaties
 - complexity of, 277–282
 - compliance issues in, 75–77
 - financing of, 121–156
 - formal document strategies in, 78–84
 - global-level synergy and, 167–168
 - managerialist approach to, 7–13
 - national implementation strategies in, 63–66, 94–95
 - performance indicators for, 237–241, 263–268
 - proliferation of, 1–4
 - research methodology concerning, 18–19
 - strategic management practices and, 13–16, 283–285
 - strategic treaty management and, 294–295
 - synergies and collaboration with, 69–74, 157–164, 194–198

- multi-stakeholder approaches
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - promotion of coherence and, 164–166
 - treaties' synergies and collaboration and, 69–74
- mutual accountability, development assistance and, 89–94
- Nagoya Conference of Parties (2010), Convention on Biological Diversity and, 53–56
- Nairobi Action Plan (APM), 41–42
 - data collection and analysis in, 215–221
 - multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration and, 69–74
 - vision statement in, 59–60
- National Action Plans (NAPs), UNCCD Global Mechanism assessment for, 248–250
- National Biodiversity Strategies and Action Plans (NBSAPs)
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and, 99–103, 113–120
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - network effects in, 270–273
 - synergies in biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- national capacity
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - chemical and waste management treaty financing and, 134–137
 - compliance and, 75–77
 - Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities and, 188–194
 - data and information management and, 215–221, 227–233
 - developing countries and, 85–87
 - for Framework Convention on Tobacco Control research, 225–227
 - ILO OSH Action Plan and, 95–99
 - national treaty implementation and, 85–87
 - state contributions to treaty financing and, 121–128
 - synergies between FCTC and, 184–188
- national development strategies (NDS)
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - Convention on Biological Diversity integration of, 99–103
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
 - medium-term expenditure framework and, 150–153
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120
 - treaty implementation and, 94–95
- national financial resources, treaty financing and, 121–128
- National Mine Action Authorities, APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
- National Mine Action Centres, APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
- national ownership concept
 - APM implementation and, 103–109
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - strategic treaty management and, 298–305
 - treaty financing and, 150–153
- national plant production organizations (NPPOs), IPPC strategies concerning, 63–66
- National Portfolio Formulation Exercise (NPFE)
 - expenditure strategies and, 137–138
 - funding disparities in treaty financing and, 147–150
 - future treaty financing issues and, 153–156

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

344

INDEX

- National Portfolio Formulation (cont.)
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 145–147
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120
- national treaty implementation strategies (NTISs)
 - Anti-Personnel Mines Convention, 103–109
 - comparison of approaches, 94–95
 - compliance and, 75–77
 - Convention on Biological Diversity, 99–103
 - development assistance framework, 89–94
 - examples of, 63–66
 - financing integration into, 121–128
 - fragmentation of international organizations and, 157–164
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control and, 110–113
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 145–147
 - historical background, 87–89
 - ILO OSH Action Plan, 95–99
 - legal bases for, 113–120
 - medium-term expenditure framework and, 150–153
 - overview of, 20, 85–120
 - performance management and, 234–237
 - synergies in, 168–169
- NCD Action Plan, 184–188
- Nelson, Richard, 25–26
- network effects, strategic treaty management and, 270–273
- non-binding instruments, multilateral treaties vs., 1–4
- non-communicable diseases (NCDs)
 - agenda, Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
- Noncommunicable Diseases and Mental Health Cluster (WHO), 184–188
- nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and, 99–103
 - scientific research by, 203–205
 - strategic treaty management and, 298–305
 - treaties' synergies and collaboration strategies with, 69–74
- non-profit organizations
 - duration of plans in, 57–58
 - strategic planning in, 34–37
- non-state actors
 - complexity of treaties and, 277–282
 - ILO OSH Action Plan and role of, 95–99
 - scientific research and data collection for, 202–203
 - synergies, and collaboration between treaties and, 69–74
- normative principles
 - AMP convention and, 103–109
 - biodiversity conventions and, 99–103
 - financial and partnership strategies and, 128–131
 - global governance and, 4–7
 - multilateral treaties and, 1–4, 18–19, 21–29
 - national treaty implementation and, 94–95
 - strategic treaty management and, 113–120
 - synergies and collaboration between treaties and, 69–74, 157–164
 - treaty financing and, 150–153
- NORMES Department (ILO), OSH Action Plan assessment and, 46–47, 49–53, 56–57, 169–170
- Oberthur, Sebastian, 157–164
- Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS)
 - CITES internal controls assessment, 244–246
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241
- OHCHR
 - synergistic strategies and, 188–194
 - voluntary contributions to, 121–128

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

345

- Omnibus Decision of 2013
 - performance evaluation of, 259–263
 - synergies between chemical and waste management treaties and, 170–175
- operational aspects of treaties
 - APM ISU performance evaluation and, 246–248
 - CBD scientifically-based targets and strategies and, 208–215
 - CITES internal controls assessment of, 244–246
 - managerialist approach to, 7–13
 - operational and financial audits and reviews, 242
 - performance management and, 234–237
 - strategic treaty management and, 25–26
 - World Heritage Convention audit of, 242–244
- organizational structure
 - determination of mandate, 34–37
 - strategic treaty management and, 13–16, 24–25, 270–273
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). See also Development Assistance Committee (DAC, OECD)
 - coherence in international policy promoted by, 164–166
 - Framework for Regulatory Policy Evaluation, 263–268
- OSH Action Plan (ILO), 40–41, 43–45
 - assessment of, 49–53
 - membership universalization in, 77–78
 - national treaty implementation strategy and, 95–99, 113–120
 - performance evaluation of, 75–77, 237–241, 257–259
 - synergies and collaborative strategies and, 78–84
- outcome-impact models, synergies in chemical treaties and, 259–263
- outstanding universal value (OUV), World Heritage Committee, 253–256
- overexploitation, GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- overseas development assistance, aid effectiveness criteria and, 89–94
- parallel implementation structures, development assistance and, 89–94
- Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness, 85–87, 291–294
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - development assistance framework and, 89–94
 - external shock to treaty practices and, 113–120
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120
 - treaty financing strategies and, 150–153
- Partnership for Conservation Initiative (PACT, WHC), 242–244, 253–256
- partnerships in strategic treaty management
 - Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities and, 188–194
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
 - ILO OSH Action Plan and role of, 95–99
 - principles of, 20, 69–74, 157–164
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy, 128–131
- Patrick, Stuart, 1–4
- Peel, Jacqueline, 199–200
- Pellissier, Rene, 282–283
- performance evaluation of treaties
 - APM ISU evaluation, 246–248
 - CBD mid-term evaluation, 256–257
 - CITES internal controls assessment and, 244–246
 - complexity-based strategic management and, 285–291
 - data collection and science and, 74–75, 227–233
 - future issues for, 263–268
 - methods for, 237–241

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

346

INDEX

- performance evaluation (cont.)
 - operational and financial audits and reviews, 242
 - OSH Action Plan (ILO) evaluation, 237–241, 257–259
 - overview of, 234–237
 - reporting models for, 251
 - strategic treaty management and, 16–18, 21, 75–77, 263–268
 - UNCCD Global Mechanism assessment, 248–250
 - underlying conditions and treaty performance, 49–53
 - World Heritage Centre audit and, 242–244, 253–256
- Persistent Organic Pollutants Review Committee (Stockholm Convention), 170–175, 223–225
- PEST analysis
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - strategic planning and, 34–37
- “PF Strategy.” See Ramsar Strategy III, financial and partnership strategy
- philanthropic organizations, treaty financing and expansion of donor pool from, 121–128
- Piciotto, Robert, 164–166
- Plan of Action (2010–2016) (ILO), 40–41
- policy coherence for development (PCD), promotion of, 164–166
- political conditions
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and role of, 99–103
 - multilateral treaties and limits of, 1–4
 - research and data collection and analysis and, 227–233
- port state controls (PSCs), IMO MOU for, 43–45, 169–170
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs)
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - development assistance and, 89–94
- Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
- Ramsar Strategy III and, 63–66
- predictability issues, treaty financing and, 121–128
- principal-agent solutions
 - multilateral organizations and, 4–7
 - strategic treaty management and, 298–305
- prioritization of choices
 - in APM ISU performance evaluation, 246–248
- CITES internal controls assessment and, 244–246
- integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
- strategic treaty management and, 82–83, 297–298
- treaty financing and, 121–128
- private sector
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
- Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
- treaties’ synergies and collaborative strategies and, 74
- treaty financing and expansion of donor pool from, 121–128
- process optimization, integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
- program-based funding, development assistance and, 89–94
- programs of work, treaty financing strategies and, 121–128
- project implementation units (PIUs), development assistance and, 89–94
- public financial management (PFM) systems
 - development assistance and, 89–94
- Medium-Term Expenditure Frameworks and, 150–153
- treaty financing integration in, 121–128

- public sector organizations
 - duration of plans in, 57–58
 - performance indicators for, 237–241
 - promotion of coherence and, 164–166
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
 - strategic planning in, 34–37
- Punta del Este Declaration, 110–113
- quality management (QM) objectives
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - data collection and analysis, 206
- Ramsar Advisory Missions, 128–131
- Ramsar Convention of Wetlands (1971), 7–13
 - development and adoption of treaty documents, 56–57
 - membership universalization and, 77–78
 - multiple strategy developments in, 78–84
 - national treaty implementation strategies in, 63–66
 - Strategies, 48–49, 77–78
 - synergies among biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
 - synergies and collaborative strategies in, 69–74
- Ramsar Small Grants Fund, 128–131
- Ramsar Strategy III, 48–49, 63–66
 - compliance and implementation strategies in, 75–77
 - data collection and science in, 74–75
 - financial and partnership strategies in, 66–69, 128–131
 - synergies and collaborative strategies in, 69–74
- ratification of treaties, strategic treaty management and issues of, 78–84
- recognition of authority
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - national treaty implementation and, 78–84
- regional organizations and financial institutions
 - APM implementation and, 103–109
 - membership universalization in treaties and, 77–78
 - multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration between, 69–74
- regulatory policies
 - fragmentation of, 157–164
 - multilateral treaties and, 1–4
 - treaty synergies and, 69–74
- remote sensing
 - CBD monitoring activities using, 208–215
 - data collection and, 203–205
- reporting in strategic treaty management
 - APM Convention performance report, 251–253
 - performance evaluations and, 251
 - scientific research and data reporting, 202–203
- research methodology, on multilateral treaties, 18–19
- resource allocation and mobilization
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109
 - expenditure strategies in treaties and, 137–153
 - future issues in, 153–156
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - Medium-Term Expenditure Frameworks and, 150–153
 - Ramsar Convention partnership strategy for, 128–131
 - strategic approaches to, 128–137
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
 - treaty funding strategies and, 66–69
- results-based management (RBM)
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

348

INDEX

- results-based management (cont.)
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 234–241, 263–268
 - strategic treaty management and creation of, 21, 28–29
 - World Heritage Centre audit and, 242–244
- review
 - performance management of treaties and, 237–238
 - in strategic treaty management, 16–18
- Rio Conventions, 180
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
- Rotterdam Convention, 132
 - Chemical Review Committee, 223–225
 - financing strategies in, 134–137
 - performance evaluation and, 259–263
 - scientific research and data collection in, 227–233
 - synergistic strategies in, 162–164, 170–175
 - trust fund for, 121–128
- SALW, 220–221
- satellite monitoring, CBD monitoring activities using, 208–215
- Schendel, Dan, 34–37
- scientific committees, performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241
- scientific management theory, strategic planning and, 32
- scientific research
 - in APM Convention, 215–221
 - CBD targets and strategy based on, 208–215
 - chemical and waste management treaties and, 223–225
 - cultivation and application of, 208
 - disabilities research and CRPD implementation, 221–223
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control cultivation of, 225–227
 - politics and, 227–233
 - strategic treaty management and, 74–75, 199–208, 227–233
 - Scott, Karen, 157–164
 - sectoral strategies
 - APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 145–147
 - medium-term expenditure framework and, 150–153
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - self-organization, complexity of treaties and, 277–282
 - self-reporting, strategic treaty management and issues with, 227–233
 - Simmons, Beth, 113–120
 - social conditions
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and role of, 99–103
 - national development strategies and, 113–120
 - social media, data collection and treaty monitoring with, 203–205
 - Sohn, Louis, 22
 - Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, and Time-bound (SMART) objectives, APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
 - stakeholder engagement. See multi-stakeholder approaches
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and role of, 99–103
 - information management in land mine treaties and, 215–221
 - national-level synergies and, 168–169
 - national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
 - strategic treaty management and, 53–56, 274–277, 298–305
 - STAR program, GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - state entities
 - APM convention implementation and, 103–109

- Convention on Biological Diversity
 - implementation and, 99–103
- data collection and analysis and, 206–208
- development assistance framework and strategies of, 89–94
- Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
- institutional interconnections with, 157–164
- multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration with, 69–74
- national-level synergies and, 168–169
- national treaty implementation
 - strategies and, 63–66, 113–120
- performance evaluation of treaties and, 263–268
- scientific research and data reporting by, 202–203
- strategic treaty management and, 277–282
- treaty financing and, 121–128
- state reporting, treaty compliance and implementation and, 75–77
- Stockholm Convention
 - CLRTAP and, 69–74
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137
 - monitoring technologies in, 203–205
 - performance evaluation and, 259–263
 - Persistent Organic Pollutants Review Committee, 170–175, 223–225
 - scientific research and data collection in, 227–233
 - synergies process in, 162–164, 170–175
 - trust fund of, 132
- Stockholm Declaration, 87–89
- science and technology and, 199–200
- Strategic Approach to International Chemicals Management (SAICM), 174–175
- integrated financing strategies in, 132–137
- Strategic Management: A New View of Business Policy and Planning* (Schendel and Hofer), 34–37
- strategic management practices
 - defined, 13 n. 60
 - historical evolution of, 34–37
 - to multilateral treaties, 13–16
 - scientific research and data cultivation and application and, 208
 - strategic treaty management and, 283–285, 291–294
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- Strategic Plan for Biodiversity 2011–2020, 208–215
- strategic planning
 - defined, 30–32
 - documents in, 39
 - historical context for, 32–37
 - performance management and, 234–237
 - scientific research and data collection for, 202
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- “Strategic Policy Framework 2010–2015: Making decent work happen” (ILO), 43–45
- strategic treaty management (STM)
 - appraisal and future prospects, 269–305
 - basic principles of, 16–18
 - capabilities perspective and, 25–26, 274–277
 - coherence in international policy and, 42–48, 78–84, 164–166
 - competition and, 298
 - complexity-based strategic management and, 277–282, 285–291
 - components of, 62–63
 - expenditure strategies and, 137–153
 - financing strategies, 20, 66–69, 121–128, 153–156
 - future challenges for, 21–29, 298–305
 - global-level synergies and, 167–168
 - integration and, 295–297
 - international organization strategies and, 42–48

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

350

INDEX

- strategic treaty management (cont.)
 - linear strategy model and, 282–283
 - membership universalization and, 77–78
 - mission statements and, 60–62
 - multilateral treaties and, 294–295
 - national capacity and, 85–87
 - national implementation strategies, 20, 63–66
 - operational and financial audits and reviews, 242
 - performance management and, 21, 75–77, 237–241, 263–268
 - prioritization and, 82–83, 297–298
 - ranking of choices in, 82–83
 - research methodology concerning, 18–19
 - resource mobilization strategies and, 128–137
 - science, technology and data management in, 53–56, 74–75, 199–208, 227–233
 - stakeholder engagement and, 53–56
 - strategic management theory and, 283–285
 - strategic planning component of, 30–32
 - strategic practices in, 291–294
 - structural aspects of, 270–273
 - synergies, partnerships and collaboration in, 20, 69–74, 157–164, 194–198
 - table of strategies, 306
 - technical and scientific approaches in, 20–21
 - treaty practices development and, 21
 - treaty strategy formulation and content, 19–20, 48–49
 - underlying conditions and treaty performance, 49–53
 - vision statements and, 59–60
- Strategy and Structure* (Chandler), 32
- strategy as practice perspective, national treaty implementation strategies and, 113–120
- strategy execution, development of, 16–18, 23
- strength, weakness, opportunity, threat (SWOT) analytical framework, 32–33, 34–37
- APM Convention implementation and, 103–109
- Convention on Biological Diversity use of, 53–56
- structuration theory, strategic treaty management and, 270–273
- sufficiency issues, treaty financing and, 121–128
- support levels for treaties, assessment of, 121–128
- synergies in strategic treaty management, 20, 69–74
 - in biodiversity treaties, 69–74, 175–181
 - CBD instruments for, 164–166
 - in chemical and waste management treaties and, 132–137, 162–164, 170–175, 259–263
 - in Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities, 188–194
 - data collection on land mines and, 220–221
 - FCTC and WHO synergies, 184–188
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
 - future issues in, 194–198
 - global-level synergies, 167–168
 - integrated treaty financing and, 132–137
 - land mine and cluster munitions treaties, 181–183
 - Maritime Labour Convention example, 169–170
 - national-level synergies, 168–169
 - performance management and, 234–237, 259–263
 - principles of, 20, 69–74, 157–164
 - research and data collection in chemicals treaties and, 223–225
 - treaty financing issues and, 153–156
 - “systems of value” concept, international development law and, 87–89

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

INDEX

351

- Taylor, Frederic, 32
- technical assistance in treaties,
 - compliance and, 75–77
- technology
 - in APM Convention, 215–221
 - data collection and analysis and
 - advancements in, 203–205
 - global governance and, 4–7
 - strategic treaty management and use
 - of, 20–21, 199–208, 227–233, 298–305
- Teece, David, 274–277
- terminology consistency, documents in
 - treaties and, 81
- Terms of Reference (TORS)
 - in chemical and waste management
 - treaties, 134–137
 - treaty financing strategies and, 66–69
- third party performance evaluations,
 - strategic treaty management and
 - creation of, 16–18, 21
- Tobacco Control Economics, 184–188
- Tobacco Free Initiative, 184–188
- TOBAC program, 225–227
- Toope, Stephen J., 291–294
- top-down leadership models
 - complexity-based strategic
 - management and, 285–291
 - Medium-Term Expenditure
 - Framework and, 150–153
 - national treaty implementation
 - strategies and, 113–120
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and
 - partnership strategy and, 128–131
- Trachtman, Joel, 157–164
- treaty congestion, fragmentation of
 - international law and, 157–164
- treaty mergers, global-level synergy and, 167–168
- treaty practices
 - development of, 21, 22–23
 - multilateral treaty synergy and
 - collaboration and, 69–74
- treaty strategies
 - documents (See documents in
 - treaties)
 - formulation of, 19–20, 48–49
- trust fund management
 - assessed state contributions and,
 - 121–128
 - treaty financing strategies and, 121–128
- Tuul Anderson, Torban, 34–37
- Ulfstein, Geir, 7–13, 202–203, 244–246, 283–285
- UN Board of Auditors, 237–241
- UN Convention to Combat
 - Desertification (UNCCD)
 - assessment of, 49–53
 - data collection and science in, 74–75
 - GEF biodiversity funding and,
 - 140–147
 - Global Mechanism evaluation,
 - 238 n. 7–239 n. 8, 248–250
 - monitoring technologies in, 203–205
 - national treaty implementation
 - strategies and, 63–66
 - performance assessment strategies in,
 - 75–77
- UN Country Teams (UNCTs), 89–94, 138–140
 - Convention on Rights of Persons with
 - Disabilities synergies and, 188–194
 - disabilities research and CRPD
 - implementation and, 221–223
- UN Department of Economic and Social
 - Affairs, 188–194
- UN Development Assistance
 - Framework (UNDAF), 89–94
 - Convention on Rights of Persons with
 - Disabilities synergies and, 188–194
- Framework Convention on Tobacco
 - Control and, 110–113, 184–188
- ILO OSH Action Plan
 - implementation and, 95–99
- national treaty implementation and, 113–120
- UN Development Programme (UNDP)
 - CRPD synergies with, 188–194
- Framework Convention on Tobacco
 - Control and, 110–113
- UNDG programming principles,
 - Framework Convention on
 - Tobacco Control implementation
 - and, 110–113

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-08972-3 - Strategic Treaty Management: Practice and Implications

Thomas F. McInerney

Index

More information

352

INDEX

- UN Environmental Management Group, 175–181
- UN Environment Programme (UNEP)
 - CITES internal controls assessment and, 244–246
 - integrated financing model of, 132–137
 - performance evaluation and, 259–263
 - research and data collection on chemicals and, 223–225
 - synergies and collaboration in, 69–74, 170–175
 - voluntary contributions to, 121–128
- UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), 69–74
 - GEF biodiversity funding and, 140–147
 - monitoring technologies in, 203–205
- United Nations
 - assessment of state contributions by, 121–128
 - Convention on Biological Diversity implementation and role of, 99–103
 - “Delivering as One” (DaO) agenda of, 167
 - multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration with, 69–74
 - organizational system of, 4–7
 - synergies among biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)
 - assessed contributions to, 121–128
 - national scientific organizations and, 199–200
 - World Heritage Centre Audit and, 242–244, 253–256
- United Nations Environmental Assembly, 134–137
- Universalisation Contact Group, 251–253
- universalization, performance
 - assessment of treaties and principle of, 251–253
- UN Joint Inspection Unit
 - performance evaluation of treaties and, 237–241
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- UN Mine Action Strategy, 41–42, 181–183
 - APM Convention integration with, 103–109
 - data collection and analysis and, 215–221
 - national treaty implementation and, 113–120
 - performance management and, 234–237
 - recognition of authority in, 78–84
- UNODC, voluntary contributions to, 121–128
- UN Partnership to Promote the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNPRPD), 138–140
 - disabilities research and, 221–223
 - synergies between Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities and, 188–194
- UN World Summit Outcome Document, 90
- upstream financing strategies, treaty financing and, 121–128
- US Department of Interior, data collection by, 208–215
- US National Institute of Health, 225–227
- victim assistance, data collection and analysis and, 215–221
- Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer, 87–89, 200–201
- Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, fragmentation of international law and, 157–164
- Vientiane Action Plan (CCM), 41–42
 - compliance and implementation and state reporting in, 75–77
 - national implementation strategy, 63–66
 - recognition of authority in, 78–84
 - synergies in land mine and cluster munitions and, 181–183
- vision statements, in multilateral treaties, 59–60

- voluntary contributions
 - Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
 - treaty financing and, 121–128
- “Wetlands for Life” fundraising
 - campaign, Ramsar Strategy III financial and partnership strategy and, 128–131
- whole of government approach, promotion of coherence and, 164–166
- Wieresma, Annecoos, 7–13, 291–294
- Winter, Sidney, 25–26
- Working Group on Review of Implementation of the Convention (CBD), 99–103
- World Bank
 - development assistance and, 89–94
 - Medium-Term Expenditure Framework and, 150–153
 - multilateral treaty synergies and collaboration with, 69–74
- World Disability Report, 188–194
- World Health Assembly (WHA), 184–188
- World Health Organization (WHO)
 - Framework Convention on Tobacco Control implementation and, 110–113
 - Global Disability Action Plan, 192–194
 - Medium Term Strategic Plan, 184–188
 - MPOWER initiative, 121–128, 184–188
 - synergies in FCTC and, 184–188
- World Heritage Convention (WHC)
 - information gathering and stakeholder engagement and, 54–55
 - operational and financial audits and reviews, 242–244
 - performance evaluation of, 253–256
- Strategic Action Plan, 40–41
- synergies between biodiversity treaties and, 175–181
- trust fund, 121–128
- World Report on Disability (World Bank and WHO), 221–223, 227–233
- World Summit on Sustainable Development, 170–175
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 199–200
- World Wildlife Fund (WWF), Tiger conservation campaign, 131
- Young, Oran, 157–164
- zero nominal growth budgets, integrated financing strategies in chemical and waste management treaties and, 134–137