

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-09091-0 - The Admirable Adventures and Strange Fortunes of Master

Anthony Knivet: An English Pirate in Sixteenth-Century Brazil

Edited by Vivien Kogut Lessa De Sá

Index

More information

Index

- Abausanga (Tamoio chief), 21–22
- “The Admirable Adventures and Strange Fortunes of Master Anthony Knivet”
- anecdotal inconsistencies in, 180–82
  - cannibalism in, 198–200
  - credibility of, 190–91
  - critical analysis of, 174–78
  - early references to, 172
  - ethnographic information in, 180
  - geographic description in, 173–74
  - limits of Knivet’s writing abilities and, 182–83
  - mythical creatures in, 179–80
  - myth of inland wealth described in, 25–28, 186–88
  - narrative irregularities in, 183–84
  - possible date for recording of, 172
  - printing problems in, 184–85
  - publication of, 1–2
  - success of, 172–73
  - textual analysis of, 172–207
  - translations of, 174–78
  - as travel narrative, 178–79
- Adorno, José, 29–31
- Aimoré people, 22–25
- aldeias* system, 19–20
- Anchieta, José de, 20–21, 204–5
- Angola, Knivet’s escape to, 2–6
- “Antarctic France” colony, 6–7, 9–11, 13–16
- Arens, W., 174–78
- Barrawell, Henry, 195–97
- Boxer, Charles, 174–78
- Branco, Barão do Rio Branco, 11–13
- Brazil
- Cavendish expedition to, 32–38
  - colonial society in, 1–2
  - early narratives of, 2–6
  - English privateering in, 28–38
  - English-Spanish war and, 29–31
  - sixteenth century life and culture in, 2–28
- Cabral, Pedro Álvares, 6–7
- Caeté people, 13–16
- cannibalism
- by indigenous peoples, 20–21, 22–25
  - Knivet and Staden descriptions of, 198–200
- caraíba*, in indigenous culture, 204–5
- Carder, Peter, 172–73, 185–86, 201–2
- Cardim, Fernão, 3–5, 11–13, 19–20, 22–25, 172–73, 180
- Castro, Viveiros de, 22–25
- Catholic missionaries, chronicles of Brazil by, 3–5
- Cavendish expedition, 32–38, 185–86
- Cavendish, Thomas, 1–2, 31, 37–38
- Centenera, Martin del Barco, 36
- Chaves, Francisco, 25–28
- Clastres, Hélène, 204–5
- Coelho, Duarte, 7–9
- Correia de Sá, Salvador, 2–6, 25–28, 191–93
- Davis, John, 32–38
- de Sá, Estácio, 9–11
- de Sá, Gonçalo, 2–6, 13–16, 21–22, 28

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-09091-0 - The Admirable Adventures and Strange Fortunes of Master

Anthony Knivet: An English Pirate in Sixteenth-Century Brazil

Edited by Vivien Kogut Lessa De Sá

Index

More information

228

Index

de Sá, Martim, 2–6, 13–16, 28, 191–95
 de Sá, Mem, 9–11
 de Sousa, D. Francisco, 2–6
descimentos, in Portuguese colonies, 11–13 donatory system, establishment of, 7–9
 Drake, Francis, 29–31, 185–86

Edwards, Philip, 174–78
engenhos (sugar mills), Knivet's account of, 1–2
 English privateering in Brazil, 28–38
 English-Spanish war, 29–31
 ethnographic studies of Brazil early sources of, 3–5
   Knivet's "Admirable Adventures" as, 180 European narratives of Brazil, sixteenth-century publications, 5–6 executions in indigenous cultures, colonial chroniclers' descriptions of, 22–25

feitorias, colonial construction of, 6–7 Felipe III (King of Spain), 29–31
 Fenton, Edward, 31
 France
   commercial ties to Indians of, 13–16
   English interests in Brazil and, 29–31 illegal commerce in Brazil and, 6–7, 9–11
 Franco, F. A. Carvalho, 174–78
 French narratives of Brazil, 5–6

Gândavo, Pero Magalhães, 3–5, 20–21
 Garcia, Aleixo, 25–28
 gold prospecting, Knivet's experiences in, 2–6 Governor General of Brazil, establishment of, 7–9
 Greenblatt, Stephen, 178–79
 Griggs, Thomas, 29–31
 Guaianá or Goianá people, Knivet's description of, 13–16
 Guaraciaba (Indian fugitive), Knivet's memories of, 13–16
 Guarani people, culture of, 18, 22–25

Hacket, Thomas, 5–6
 Hakluyt, Richard, 3–6, 19–21, 28, 172–74, 180–82
Hakluytus Posthumus or Purchas his Pilgrimes, 3–5, 173–74
 Hawkins, William, 28
 Hemming, John, 174–78
 hereditary captaincies
   establishment of, 7–9
   Knivet's experience of, 11–13
   legends of inland wealth and, 25–28
História da Provincia de Sancta Cruz, 3–5
História do Brasil (Vicente do Salvador), 3–5 historiography on Brazil, early sources, 2–6

ibirapema (ritual club), 22–25 indigenous people of Brazil Carder's description of, 201–2
   Christianized Indians, 11–13 in colonial chronicles, 19–20, 22–25 impact of colonization of, 16–25
   as slaves, 2–6, 13–16

Jane, John, 37–38
 Jesuit missionaries
   Cavendish expedition and, 32–38
   Christianization of Indians by, 11–13 chronicles of Brazil by, 3–5, 11–13 colonization of Brazil and, 7–9
   indigenous people described by, 20–21
 Jê (Tapuia) tribes, 22–25
 João III, 6–9

Knivet, Anthony adventures of, 2–6
   biographical details on, 161–72 cannibalistic rituals described by, 22–25 captives and executions discussed by, 197–98
   Cavendish expedition and, 32–38 communication and language skills of, 191–93, 205–7 experiences in Rio de Janeiro of, 11–13

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-09091-0 - The Admirable Adventures and Strange Fortunes of Master

Anthony Knivet: An English Pirate in Sixteenth-Century Brazil

Edited by Vivien Kogut Lessa De Sá

Index

More information

Index

229

- indigenous people described by, 18–19, 21–22, 195–97, 202–4
- limited writing abilities of, 182–83
- myth of inland wealth described by, 25–28, 186–88
- publication of chronicle written by, 1–2
- relations with mamelucos, 2–6, 13–16
- resourcefulness of, 193–95
- roleplaying by, 195–97
- socioeconomic status of, 185–86
- Staden's account compared with, 200–1
- Knyvett family, 161–72, 182–83
- Lancaster, James, 31
- land distribution in colonial Brazil, donatory system for, 7–9
- Léry, Jean de, 5–6, 19–21, 173–74, 180
- Lister, Christopher, 31
- Magalhães, Basilio de, 174–78
- mamelucos* (mixed-race descendants) in colonial Brazil, 11–13, 204–5
Knivet's contact with, 13–16
- mercenary soldiers, in Brazilian colonies, 11–13
- military expeditions, Knivet's participation in, 2–6
- mineral wealth, colonial myths concerning, 25–28
- mining in Brazil
English interest in, 29–31
myths of inland wealth and, 25–28
- morubichaba* (tribal leader), 19–20
- native tribes, Knivet's encounters with, 2–6
- Nóbrega, Manuel da, 11–16, 20–21, 202–4
- non-Portuguese narratives of Brazil, 5–6
- Padre Visitador (Jesuit envoy to Brazil), 3–5
- Pennington, I. E., 174–78
- Peru, pre-colonial kingdoms in, 25–28
- Phillip III (King of Spain), 29–31
- Portuguese chroniclers, colonial narratives of, 2–6
- Portuguese colonization in Brazil degeneration of tribal culture and, 13–16 English accounts of, 28–29 geographical boundaries and, 25–28 history of, 6–16 indigenous peoples and, 16–25
Knivet's experiences in, 2–6
Rio de Janeiro captaincy in, 9–11
- Potiguar people, military expedition against, 2–6
- Principal Navigations* (Hakluyt), 172–73 translation of Cardim by, 202–4
- Purchas his Pilgrimage*, 172, 188–89
- Purchas his Pilgrimes*. See Hakluytus Posthumus or Purchas his Pilgrimes
- Purchas, Samuel, 3–5, 25–28, 173–74, 179–82, 185–86, 188–89
- Puri culture, Knivet's description of, 22–25
- Ravenstein, E. G., 174–78
- “rescue” device, for Indian enslavement, 13–16
- Rio de Janeiro, colonial settlement in, 9–11
- sacrificial rituals, Knivet and Staden descriptions of, 198–200
- Salvador, Vicente do, 3–5, 25–28
- Sampaio, Teodoro, 174–78
- Sebastião (Portuguese King), 29–31
- shamanic discourse, missionaries' incorporation of, 204–5
- Sidney, Sir Henry, 5–6
- slavery
donatory system, 7–9
Knivet's involvement in trading expeditions, 2–6, 13–16
mamelucos (mixed-race descendants) and, 11–13 in Rio de Janeiro, 3–5, 11–13
- slaves, Indians as, 2–6, 13–16
- Solis, Juan Dias de, 25–28
- Sousa, Francisco de, 2–6, 25–28

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-09091-0 - The Admirable Adventures and Strange Fortunes of Master

Anthony Knivet: An English Pirate in Sixteenth-Century Brazil

Edited by Vivien Kogut Lessa De Sá

Index

More information

230

Index

- Sousa, Gabriel Soares de, 3–5, 13–16 colonial myths concerning mineral wealth and, 25–28 indigenous peoples described by, 18, 22–25
- Sousa, Martim Afonso de, 6–7, 25–28
- South America, division of Portuguese and Spanish possessions in, 25–28
- Souza, Tomé de, 7–9
- Spain, English war with, 29–31
- Staden, Hans, 5–6, 11–13, 173–78, 180 cannibalism described by, 198–200 indigenous cultures described by, 22–25
 Knivet's account compared with, 200–1
- Staper, Richard, 29–31
- Tamoio people
 French colonization in Brazil and, 9–11
 Knivet's description of, 13–16, 21–22
- Knivet's life with, 2–6, 202–4, 205–7
- Thevet, André, 5–6, 173–74
- Tratados da Terra e Gente do Brasil* (Treatises of the Land and People of Brazil), 3–5
- Treaty of Tordesillas, 7–9, 25–28
- tribal identity, colonization and erasure of, 13–16
- Tupinambá Indians, 5–6
- Tupi peoples colonization and, 16–25 culture of, 19–20, 22–25, 204–5
- Turner, Thomas, 22–25
- Valdez, Diego Flores de, 25–28, 31
- Varnhagen, F. A., 3–5
- Villegaignon, Nicholas de, 5–7, 9–11, 13–16
- Warhaftige Historia* (Staden), 180, 198–200
- Whithall, John, 29–31
- Withrington, Robert, 31