Contents

List of Tables and Figures vii
Preface xiii
Acknowledgements xviii

Part 1: Growth, Employment and Inclusion

Chapter 1: Capability-centred Approach to Inclusive Growth 3
Theoretical Framework and Empirical Reality

Chapter 2: Sustaining Economic Growth 48

Chapter 3: Ensuring Higher Agricultural Growth and 92
the Revival of Rural India

Chapter 4: Addressing the Employment-related Paradoxes 122 of Economic Growth

Chapter 5: Public Finance 147
Increasing Fiscal Capacity

Chapter 6: Skill Development 179
Finding New Financing Mechanisms to Take Vocational Education and Training to Scale

Chapter 7: A Common Platform for Skill Development 207
Implementing the National Skills Qualification Framework

Part 2: Human Capital Formation

Chapter 8: Addressing Capability Deprivation of Women 231
for Inclusive Growth

Chapter 9: From the Right to Education to the Right to Learning 263

Chapter 10: Food Security, Nutrition and Health 283
Policy Dilemmas and Interlinked Challenges
Contents

Chapter 11: Redesigning Sanitation Programmes to Make India Free from Open Defaecation

Part 3: Building a System of Social Protection

Chapter 12: Minimising Leakages in Welfare Programmes
How to Identify the Poor Correctly?

Chapter 13: Needed a Social Insurance System for Unorganised Workers below the Poverty Line

Chapter 14: Introducing Cash Transfers
A Proposal for a Minimum Income Guarantee and Some CCTs

Part 4: Governance

Chapter 15: Two Pre-requisites for Optimum Governance
Deep Fiscal Decentralisation and the Bureaucracy's Ability to Learn

Chapter 16: Addressing Left-wing Extremism
Encourage Peace to Secure Development – or the Way Round?

Index