Contents

List of illustrations \(\quad\text{page x}\)

Acknowledgments \(\quad\text{xi}\)

Periodical abbreviations \(\quad\text{xvii}\)

1. “We are kings and queens”: Introduction \(\quad\text{1}\)
2. “She does not go into utter slavery”: Toward equality and co-sovereignty \(\quad\text{21}\)
3. “Equal rights with man in every respect”: Practicing mixed-sex democracy \(\quad\text{56}\)
4. “A compound creature of the statute”: Jury duty and social disintegration \(\quad\text{99}\)
5. “A double head in nature is a monstrosity”: Internecine warfare \(\quad\text{145}\)
6. “Fraternalism permeates the atmosphere”: Remaking gender and public power \(\quad\text{199}\)
7. “We contemplate no sweeping reforms”: Constitutionalizing the home vote \(\quad\text{254}\)
8. “Every woman is a law unto herself”: Rights, obligations, and legitimacy \(\quad\text{288}\)

Afterword: A bibliographic commentary \(\quad\text{309}\)

Index \(\quad\text{327}\)