Index

2-cliques. See Cliques: 2-cliques
Alliance building. See Cooperation
Arab Spring. See Middle East and North Africa
Argentina, 208
Authoritarian regimes
and modes of coordination, 209
Average path length, 142
Bennett, Lance, 212
Betweenness, 155, 155n.6
Birmingham, 169, 180
Blocks, 76
differences across cities, 110–114
and group representation, 99–101
and identities, 97
incumbents’ involvement in public events, 107–110
incumbents’ properties, 104–106
issue priorities, 101–103
relational properties of, 78
repertoires of action, 106–107
and roles, 187–189
Boundaries
definition, 15, 20, 22
multiple levels of, 21
and multiple memberships, 83
relational measurement of, 81 and solidarity feelings, 88
Bourdieu, Pierre, 52
Breiger, Ronald, 118
Broker, 154

Castells, Manuel, 212
Catnet, 79
Centrality in civic networks
explanations of, 160–164
Centralization, 71n.3, 142, 144, 152
Civic events. See Public events
Civic organizations. See Organizations
Civil renewal agenda, 28, 196
Civil servants
and civic organizations, 167
Civil society
aggregative approaches, 190
concept of, 12
as organizational field, 12, 187
Class politics, 32, 194–197
Red Clyde tradition, 97
Cliques
2-cliques, 80, 80n.13, 88
Clua Losada, Monica, 196
Clustering coefficient, 71n.3, 142
CND-Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament, 56, 61, 73, 74n.7, 83, 90, 91, 165
Coalitions, 22
between moderate and radical actors, 27
definitions of, 119–120
and movements, 119–120
and public events, 120
Cohesion, 80
Community, 24
festivals, 32
in social movements, 24
use of the idea in political debates, 174 Comparative analysis
most similar vs. most dissimilar design, 47
paired comparison, 46

Competition
between voluntary organizations, 17

Computer mediated communication. See Information technology

Connectedness, 142

Consensus movements, 93
Contentious politics and relational approaches, 4

Cooperation between civic organizations and local institutions, predictors of, 171 facilitators, 56–59
facilitators and obstacles, 64–68 obstacles, 55–56, 59–61
and organizational environment, 51
between organizations, 19 value of, 50

Council departments. See Government, Local Cultural innovation in Bristol, 34

Data collection, 37–38
on public events, 124

Deindustrialization, 30

Democracy
quality of local, 174–181
Density, 71, 79
across blocks, 79–80

Duality of persons and groups. See Social circles: intersection of

Earl, Jennifer, 192n.2

Eggert, Nina, 91

Egypt, 209

Elites
and modes of coordination, 210

Environmental justice
and public events, 124

Ethnic minorities
in Bristol and Glasgow, 30
inter-group conflicts, 28
and protest, 101
and public events, 124
Events. See Public events

Farro, Antimo, 200

Fields
approaches to, 13n.4

concept of, 12
as networks, 13
political culture and structure of, 194–197 Framing, 21
and relation building, 194–197

Gerlach, Luther, 18n.8

Glasgow Council for the Voluntary Sector, 31, 159–160

Global justice campaigns, 28
Governance, 14, 14n.6, 17, 29, 151, 159, 166, 206

Government, Local
civic organizations, 167–174
comacts, 28
council departments and civic organizations, 170
Local Strategic Partnerships, 29
Scottish Executive, 29

Gromis, Ashley, 192n.2

Hezbollah, 211

Homophily, 63

Identity, 20, 21, 51
adversarial, 93
and cooperation, 58
individual activists, 21
relational view of, 83
Identity building, 16
In-degree, 154, 155, 155n.6, 163

Indignados, 208, 213

Individual membership in groups and associations, 82
in multiple groups, 83

Influence, 155
and network centrality, 153, 155

Information technology, 54
and modes of coordination, 212–215

Interactions and relations, 52–53

Interest groups
vs. social movement organizations, 115–117

Isolated network nodes, 78

Issue agendas, 35, 40, 101–103
changes over time, 128–140

Issue ownership, 36

Kriesi, Hanspeter, 206

Latin America, 209
Index

Leadership
  in civic organizational fields, 153–160
  and network centrality, 158
  distributed forms of, 158 Local government. See Government, Local Local politicians
  and civic organizations, 167
McCarthy, John, 192n.2
Mechanisms, 17–18
Melucci, Alberto, 4, 202
Meyer, David, 192
Middle East & North Africa
  modes of coordination in the, 212–215
Minkoff, Debra, 93n.3
Mische, Ann, 205
Mode of coordination, concept of, 13 Mode of coordination, definition of coalitional, 21–23, 119–120
  organizational, 17–18
  social movement, 18–21
  subcultural/communitarian, 23–25 Modes of coordination, 201
  and the contentious politics approach, 198–201 and differences across cities, 110–114
  and group representation, 99–101
  and incumbents’ properties, 189
  and incumbents’ structural properties, 104–106 and information technology, 212–215
  and involvement in public events, 107–110
  and issue priorities, 101–103
  and local institutions, 167–174
  and opinions about government policies, 174–181 and relations to local government and public agencies, 167–174
  and repertoires of action, 106–107
  and roles, 187–189
Movement emergence and modes of coordination, 206
Movement families, 198–201
Movement identity, 95–97
  as environmental, 95
  as global justice, 95
  as poor people’s advocates, 95
Movement industries, 198–201
Movement membership individuals, 20
  organizations, 20
Movement society, 2
aggregative approaches, 192–194
  and modes of coordination, 192–194
  types of, 192–194
Movement transformation and modes of
  coordination, 206–208
Movements and coalitions, 119–120
Multiculturalism, 34
Multiplexity, 97, 146, 149, 201
Network analysis and organizational fields, 13
Networked social movement, 212
Networks
  as alternative to hierarchies, 152 emergence of, 14–15
  graphic representation of, 71
  of organizations over time, 141–148 as preconditions and consequences of collective action, 198
  of public events over time, 128–140
New Deal for Communities, 174
New social movements
  in Bristol, 33
  and public events, 124
Nigeria, 209
Occupy, 213
Opponents
  public and private, 95
Organizations
  differences across cities, 44, 110–114
  incumbents’ involvement in public events, 107–110
  issue priorities, 101–103
  as links between events, 128
  repertoires of action, 106–107
  structural properties, 38–40, 104–106 and their constituencies, 99–101
  the unit of analysis, 36–37
Out-degree, 79
Palestine, 211
Participation in associations. See Individual membership Party politics
  in Bristol and Glasgow, 31
  and protest politics outside the West, 208 Political change
  aggregative approaches, 2–3
Political culture
  in Bristol, 32
  and network structure, 194–197
Political opportunity structure, 194
Political participation in Britain since the 1970s, 27
Positions. See Blocks
Preferential attachment, 66
Protest
antitaxroad, 27 in Britain, 27–28 against global capitalism, 28 at the local level, 27
Protest events. See Public events
Public events, 107–110 in Bristol and Glasgow, 121–127 civic vs. protest, 121 and movements, 20, 120 as links between organizations, 141–148 networks of, 128–140 as part of broader agendas, 127
Public interest groups. See Interest groups
QAP regression, 144, 147
Rafail, Patrick, 192n.2
Relational embeddedness, 63
Relations
identification of, 54 and interactions, 52–53, 198 properties of, 53, 54 strength of, 145 within and between blocks, 76–77
Repertoires of collective action in Bristol, 32 in Bristol and Glasgow, 40–44, 106–107 market-oriented, 32
Representation within civic fields, 154 Resource allocation, 15, 18, 79 Rioting, 33, 61 Robinson, Glenn, 211
Schuster, Federico, 208
Scottish Civic Forum, 29
Scottish Executive. See Government, Local: Scottish Executive
Scottish Socialist Party, 32
Sectarian groups, 18
Segerberg, Alexandra, 212 Simmel, Georg, 82, 118 SMO. See Social movement organizations Social bonds