Contents

List of Figures viii
Preface xi

Introduction 1
1 Foundation and Making of the National Hospital 6
2 Queen Square, the Salmon Pink and Other Hospital Buildings 51
3 Queen Square and Neurology 1860–1902 98
4 National Hospital Quadrumvirate 130
5 Roller-coaster Ride and the National Hospital Rubs Along 1902–1945 169
6 Five Dominant Physicians 216
7 The NHS Arrives and the Hospital Celebrates its Centenary 1946–1962 256
8 Beyond the Walls: British Neurology Outside Queen Square 287
9 Neurosurgery and War Neurology at Queen Square 308
10 Other Clinical Specialties at Queen Square 340
11 The Investigatory Specialties at Queen Square 381
12 The Medical School and the Institute of Neurology 418
14 Never, Never, Ever – Change and Integration 1962–1997 477

Appendix 1 Medical and Surgical Appointees to the National Hospitals and/or Institute of Neurology 1859–1997 522
Appendix 2 Dates of Appointment of Senior Administrative Positions at the National Hospital/Institute of Neurology 1859–1997 530
Appendix 3 Physicians – National Hospital 1860–1997 532
Index 536