

Index

- Adams, John, 74
 Adams, Samuel, 74
 Aelius Aristides, 65–66
 Aeneas, Roman foundation myth of, 70, 142, 144, 160
 Agamemnon, 101
 agonistic nature of Roman political culture, 24, 28 Agricola and Tacitus' Agricola
 civic virtue and, 82–84
 composition of text, 128
 on imperialism, 174–76
 liberty under empire and, 59 agriculture versus commerce in Roman republican ideology, 74–75
 Agrippa I (king of Judea), 149
 Alcibiades, 107
 Alexander the Great, 31, 33, 175, 188 ambition (philotimia), 106, 107
ambitus laws, 91
 Ambrose of Milan
 Augustine compared, 182, 183, 184
 De officiis, on just war, 181–82
 American civil religion, argument for existence of, 164–65
 American Founders
 Cincinnatus as hero of, 74
 Declaration of Independence, 37, 44
 Federalist Papers, 36, 131, 171
 large republics, Madison's argument for, 171 liberty and faction, Madison on, 131 Polybius, framers of American constitution influenced by, 36 religious freedom, Jefferson on, 155–58
 American presidential elections (2016), 198 anakuklōsis (cyclical political change), Polybius' theory of, 22–24
 Ando, Clifford, 42
 Antipater of Tarsus, 108
 Antonine Constitution (extension of citizenship to all free persons in Roman world), 65–67, 69, 166
 Antoninus Pius (Roman emperor), 65
 Apollo and Vesta cults moved to home of Augustus Caesar, 59, 142 appellatio (right to ask tribunes for help or auxilium), as citizens' right, 47
 Appius Claudius, 47, 48
 Arena, Valentina, 54
 Arendt, Hannah, 38
 aristocracy (rule by the few), Polybius on, 15
 aristocrats (optimates), 4, 36, 48, 93, 117 Aristotle
 on belief engendered by emotion, 119
 chance, political change dependent on, 22
 on character (êthos), 119, 122
 on citizenship and civic virtue, 65, 73, 85
 compared to Roman political thought, 7
 on equality, 51
 harmony as goal of politics for, 24
 ideal, rational rule, interest in, 22, 26
 on individual rights, 27
 on liberty, 38
 “mixed constitution,” model of, 23, 28
 philosophical method of being able to argue both sides of question, 124 Politics, 73, 99
 on study of politeia, 6 assemblies, Roman, see also Centuriate Assembly; contio; senate, Roman augurs' powers over, 20, 141
 civil religion and, 139
 Curiate Assembly, 16
 plebeian assemblies, 17
 Polybius on, 15–18, 19–22
 Tribal Assembly, 16

- Athenian democracy and Roman republicanism citizenship, 70 constitutional differences, 20–22
 deliberative oratory, 117
 equality and liberty in, 49–50 hasty decisions, dangers of, 141
 on individual rights, 49
 on liberty, 39, 60
 relationship between, 6–8
 religious tolerance, 146
auctoritas (authority), 27, 140
 augurs and auspices, 20, 139, 140–41
 Augustine of Hippo (St. Augustine)
 Ambrose compared, 182, 183, 184
 biographical information, 85
 Cicero and, 35, 87, 88
 on citizenship and civic virtue, 84–90
City of God, 35, 85–88
Confessions, 85
Contra Faustus, 183
 on honor code, 87–88
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
 on just war, 177, 182–84
Letters, 88–89
 on political legitimacy, 35
 political writings of, 6
 on religious tolerance, 159
 Sallust influenced, 87, 88
 Augustus Caesar (Gaius Octavius)
 on civic virtue, 79
 civil religion under, 59, 141–42
contio abolished by, 124
 liberty and rule of, 58–59 Res Gestae, 29, 30, 79
 rhetoric under, 124, 131
 Roman constitution under, 29–30
 Vesta and Apollo cults moved to home of, 59, 142
auxilium (right of tribune to grant help to citizens in response to their appeal), 47
 Bacchanalia, senate regulation of, 145–46
 Bacon, Francis, 197
 balance of powers, see separation and balance of powers
 Balbus, 70
 Balot, Ryan, 168, 169
 Barton, C., 55
 Bartsch, S., 129
 Beard, M., 139
 Beiner, Ronald, 123
 Bellah, Robert, 164–65
 Berlin, Isaiah, “Two Concepts of Liberty” (1969), 38, 39, 45, 50
 Berry, Wendell, 75
 Bodin, Jean, 19
 Brexit, 63
 Britain, Agricola in, see Agricola and Tacitus’ Agricola
 Brutus (abolisher of Tarquinian monarchy), 13
 Brutus (assassin of Julius Caesar), 33
 Calgacus (British commander), 175
 Camillus, 144
 Cammack, Daniela, 117
 Cannae, battle of (216 BCE), 14
 Canuleius (tribune), 48, 51, 52
 Caracalla (Roman emperor), 66 cardinal virtues, as civic virtues, 76–78, 80, 83, 89
 Carneades, 172
 Carter, Steven L., 196
 Carthage
 health of Roman state and survival/defeat of, 170, 171
 Polybius on mixed constitution of, 169
 Punic War, second, 171, 174
 Cartledge, P., 7
 Cassius Dio (Dio Cassius)
 on auctoritas, 28
 on Augustus Caesar, 29
politeia, use of Greek concept of, 3
 Catiline, 24, 56, 93, 126, 132
 Cato the Elder
 on citizenship and civic virtue, 72, 73, 74
 imperialism and, 170
 on liberty, 50, 55
 rhetoric and, 112, 125
 Cato the Younger, 87, 93, 129, 132
 Ceasar, J., 109
 Centuriate Assembly
 Cicero on, 20, 28
 Polybius on, 16
 senate ratification required for votes of, 20
 character (ethos) and rhetoric, 119, 122 Christianity
 citizenship and civic virtue transformed by, 84–90
 civil religion, Rousseau on Christianity
 as, 136
 constitution and, 35
 importance of, 5
 Judaism and, 150
 on just war theory, 181–84
 on pacifism, 181
 persecution of, 143, 150–52, 158
 Roman understanding of Judaism versus, 149
 on tolerance, 153–60

- Cicero (Marcus Tullius Cicero)
 on auctoritas, 27
 on augur's powers over popular assemblies, 20, 141 Augustine and, 35, 87, 88
 biographical information, 1
 on Centuriate Assembly, 20, 28 on chance in political evolution, 26
 on citizens' rights, 46, 47–49, 52–54
 on citizenship, 65, 67, 70–71, 72
 on civic virtue, 73, 76–78, 81, 83
 on civil religion, 137–38, 144, 145, 161–64
 on class dynamics, 28
 on constitution, 11, 13, 24–28
 consulship, campaign for, 1–2, 24
 on contio, 17
 cooperative enterprise, on society as, 198 on corruption, 91–92
 death of, 29
 decline narratives of rhetoric and, 124 Dialogue on Political Science citing, 36
 Dio Chrysostom compared, 34
 on Epicureanism, 97
 on equality, 51–54
 exile of, 44
 on gratitude, 103
 on honor and order, 191
 on human nature, 25
 ideal, rational rule, interest in, 26
 on imperialism, 167, 172–74
 on individual rights, 45
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
 on just war, 177–78
 justification of literary efforts by, 56
 on liberty, 5, 40, 43, 55, 57–58, 61
 on natural law, 13, 41, 156, 161–64, 179
politeia, use of Greek concept of, 3
 on political conflict, 28
 Polybius compared, 25–28, 173, 174
 on popular sovereignty, 7, 26–27 on property rights, 43–44 Quintilian and, 125–27
 realism and, 191
 on rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment, 112, 116, 118–24
 Sallust compared, 173
 Seneca the Younger compared, 31–32
 on separation/balance of powers, 27
 significance of political writings of, 5 Tacitus and, 129, 131–32, 133, 176
 on tolerance, 153
 transformation of Rome from republic to form of monarchy (Empire) and, 8 Cicero (Marcus Tullius Cicero), works, see also De officiis; De republica
Ad Quintum fratrum, 55
Brutus, 118, 124, 132, 133
De divinatione, 137
De domo sua, 44
De inventione, 113, 118, 121, 124
De lege agraria, 45
De legibus, 13, 41, 92, 93, 118, 137, 140, 161–64, 177, 179
De natura deorum, 137
De oratore, 118, 119, 120, 121, 124, 125, 129
Epistulae ad familiares, 56
Orator, 118, 120
Paradoxa Stoicorum, 153
Philippics, 5
Pro Balbo, 70–71
Pro Flacco, 17
Pro Marcello, 31
Pro Plancio, 103
 Cincinnatus (Lucius Quinctius Cincinnatus), 74–75
 Cineas (Thessalian orator), 107 citizenship, 63–90, see also civic virtue Christian transformation of, 84–90
civitas sine suffragio (citizenship without the vote), 71 colonies and, 71
 dual citizenship, 70
 extension of citizenship by Republic, 69–73 extension of citizenship to all free persons in Roman world (Antonine Constitution), 65–67, 69, 166 identity and sense of status deriving from, 68 liberal versus republican approaches to, 64–65, 67–68 military service and, 68
 modern concepts of citizenship, 63–65 political participation and Roman citizenship, 68 private individuals in res publica, imperial citizens as, 59–60 rights of citizens, 46–49, 68, (see also appellatio; auxilium; conubium; provocatio; suffragium)
 Roman foundation myths and extension of citizenship, 70
 Roman Republic, citizenship under, 67–73 taxation and Roman citizenship, 66, 68
 civic virtue, see also specific virtues
 agriculture versus commerce in Roman republican ideology, 74–75
 cardinal virtues, 76–78, 80, 83, 89
 Christian transformation of, 84–90
 of elites under imperial rule, 81–84 of emperor, 79–80
 honor code and, 73, 76, 81–84

- under Principate, 79–84
 - regime determining, 73
 - in Roman Republic, 73–79
- civil law (ius civile), 41
- civil religion in Rome, 136–65, see also
 - Christianity; Jews and Judaism; pietas;
 - tolerance, religious
- augurs and auspices, 20, 139, 140–41
- Bellah's American civil religion and, 164–65
- Cicero on, 137–38, 144, 145, 161–64
- concept of, Rousseau versus Cicero on, 136–38, 145
- constitution, relationship to, 138, 139–41, 163–64
- decentralized nature before Decius, 143
- Decius' edict centralizing and enforcing practices, 143
- imperial cult, 142–43
- imperialistic exportation of, 160–64
- just war theory and, 179
- magistrates and, 139
- modern liberal democracy and, 137, 164–65, 195
- mystery religions, 145
- Polybius on, 21, 100
- pontifex maximus*, emperor as, 142
- priests and priesthoods, 139–40, 142
- under Principate, 141–44
- reverence, corruption, and the passions, 101–2, 109
- Rousseau on, 136–38, 145, 160, 162, 163, 164
- universal principles and particular practices, tension between, 138, 143, 160, 161–62, 163, 164–65
- Vesta and Apollo cults moved to home of Augustus Caesar, 59, 142
- civil wars in Rome, 24, 29, 118, 128
- class and status, see also honor code
 - aristocracy (rule by the few), Polybius on, 15
 - citizenship, identity and sense of status deriving from, 68
 - civic virtues of elites, under imperial rule, 81–84
 - civil religion and, 139–40
 - conflict of the orders, 17
 - constitution and class dynamics, 28
 - corruption of elites and, 91–96
 - desire for security/fear of death at root of, 100
 - dignitas*, importance of, 55–56
 - populares* (men of the people) versus optimates (aristocrats), 4, 36, 48, 93, 117
 - Roman concern with, 4
 - struggle for status ameliorated by honor, 191
- Claudius (Roman emperor), 149
- Cleopatra, 29
- Clodius, 44
- coins, civic virtues personified on, 79
- colonies and citizenship, 71
- Columella, 148
- commerce versus agriculture in Roman republican ideology, 74–75
- commercium* (right to conduct business), 71
- competitive nature of Roman political culture, 24, 28
- conflict of the orders, 17
- Connolly, Joy, 28, 57, 93, 127
- consilium* (judgment)
 - civil religion and, 140
 - rhetoric and (see rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment)
- Constant, Benjamin, “The Liberty of the Ancients Compared with that of the Moderns” (1819), 8, 37–38, 39, 49, 60, 197
- Constantine I the Great (Roman emperor), 34, 35, 85, 149, 152, 181
- constitution, Roman, 11–36, see also mixed constitutions
 - Christianity and, 35
 - Cicero on late Republican, 11, 13, 24–28
 - civil religion, relationship to, 138, 139–41, 163–64
 - concept of, 11–13
 - customary rights and institutions, force of, 12–13
 - Dio Chrysostom on, 33–34
 - imperial transformation of Rome and, 29–34
 - interaction between different institutions of, 18
 - Latin terms for, 11
 - natural law and, 13
 - Pliny the Younger on, 33
 - political legitimacy and, 16, 20, 27, 34–36
 - Polybius on Republican, 13–24, 36
 - Seneca the Younger on princeps, 31–33
 - Spartan and Carthaginian constitutions compared, 168–70
 - written constitution, lack of, 11
- consulship
 - Augustus Caesar's hold on, 29
 - Cicero's campaign for consulship against Catiline, 1–2, 24
 - Polybius on, 14
- contio*
 - abolished by Augustus, 124
 - Polybius on, 17
 - rhetoric in, 114, 115–17, 119, 122, 127
- control/ownership and liberty, 40, 43, 45, 47, 58, 61

- conubium* (right to marry), as citizens' right, 47, 48, 68, 71
- Corpus Iuris Civilis*, 35
- corruption and the passions, 91–111
- Cicero on, 91–96
- finitude (death), fear of/acceptance of, 100–1, 102, 103, 198
- gratitude, importance of, 102–6, 108, 109–11, 198–99
- honor code and, 92, 94
- hope, 108–9, 110
- Lucretius and Epicureanism on, 95, 96–102
- modern concepts of, 91, 95, 109–11, 198–99
- philotimia* (ambition or love of honor), 106, 107
- Plutarch on, 95, 106–9
- reverence and pietas, 101–2, 109
- Roman Republic's concept of, 91–96
- Sallust on, 92–95, 102
- Seneca the Younger on, 95, 103–6
- cosmopolitanism, 84, 167, 184–89
- courage, as civic virtue, 76, 77, 83
- Crassus (Lucius Crassus), 1
- Crassus (Marcus Licinius Crassus), 25, 55, 70
- Curiate Assembly, 16
- Curtius Rufus, 148
- Cynicism, as philosophical school, 185
- Cyprian of Carthage, De bono patientiae, on religious tolerance, 153–54, 197
- Dante Alighieri, On Monarchy, 188
- De officiis* (Cicero)
- Ambrose of Milan, on just war, compared, 181–82
- on citizenship and civic virtue, 76–78, 81
- on cosmopolitanism, 186–88
- on honor code, 191
- imperialism in, 173–74
- just war theory in, 177, 179
- on liberty, 44, 48, 58
- Obergefell vs. Hodges* (U.S. Supreme Court, 2015) citing, 192–93
- on rhetoric, 118, 120
- De republica* (Cicero)
- as Platonic-style dialogue, 118
- on civil religion, 140
- on imperialism, 172–73
- on importance of Roman political culture, 4
- on just war, 177
- on liberty, 46, 52, 53, 54, 57
- on Roman constitution, 11, 20, 25, 26, 27, 28, 36
- Scipio Africanus in, 25, 26, 28, 52, 54
- Tacitus and, 129, 133
- death (finitude), fear of/acceptance of, 100–1, 102, 103, 198
- Decius (Trajan Decius; Roman emperor), 143, 152
- Declaration of Independence, 37, 44
- decline narratives, Roman attraction to, 124
- deliberation (generally), see rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment
- deliberative democracy, 113, 120
- deliberative rhetoric, 114, 115–18, 126
- democracy, see also Athenian democracy and Roman republicanism; modern liberal democracy and Roman republicanism
- hasty decisions in, 141
- in Polybius' account of Roman constitution, 19–22
- Democritus, 98
- Descartes, René, 197
- Dialogue on Political Science*, 35
- Digest*, 35, 41
- dignitas* and liberty, 55–56, 58
- Dio Cassius, see Cassius Dio
- Dio Chrysostom
- on civic virtue, 79–80
- on constitution and monarchy, 33–34
- Orationes*, 79, 80
- "Roman" nature of political writings of, 5
- Seneca compared, 33
- Diocletian (Roman emperor), 34, 124, 152, 188
- Diodorus Siculus, 170
- Diodotus, 109
- Diogenes the Cynic, 185
- Dionysius of Halicarnassus, 3, 55
- Dominate, 34
- Domitian (Roman emperor), 59, 82, 84, 125, 128, 175
- Donatists, 159
- dual citizenship, 70
- duoviri*, 139
- Earl, Donald, 82
- Edge, Matt, 50
- elites, Roman, see class and status; honor code; senate, Roman
- emotion
- corruption and (see corruption and the passions)
- rhetoric and, 119–21, 126
- emperor see also specific emperors
- as paterfamilias, 30, 59
- as pontifex maximus, 142
- civic virtue of, 79–80
- Empire, see specific entries at imperial
- Ennius, 56
- environment and nature, human relationship to, 197–98
- Epictetus, 148, 153, 197
- Discourses*, 59–60

- Epicureanism
 compared to Roman political thought, 7
 Epicurus and founding principles of, 96–97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103
 gratitude in, 103, 105, 110
 Lucretius on corruption, 95, 96–102
- epideictic rhetoric, 114, 123
- Eprius Marcellus, 131, 133
- equality
 equal rights, 53
isonomia (political equality), 50, 53
 before the law, 48, 51, 52, 53 of political participation, 49–54
- Erotianus, 148
- èthos* and rhetoric, 119, 122
- evocatio*, 144
- extortion (repetundae), 91
- faithfulness or trustworthiness (fides), as civic virtue, 77
- Fannius (C. Fannius), 72
- fathers, see paterfamilias
- fear
 Cicero on imperialism and, 173
 of death (finitude), 100–1, 102, 103, 198
 of external enemy, 170–72, 175 Federalist Papers, 36, 131, 171
fetiales, 139
 few, rule by (aristocracy), Polybius on, 15
fides (faithfulness or trustworthiness), as civic virtue, 77
- finitude (death), fear of/acceptance of, 100–1, 102, 103, 198
- Flaccus (Lucius Valerius Flaccus), 148
- Forst, Rainer, 145, 147
- foundation myths, Roman, 70, 142, 160
- freedom, see liberty
- Gaius (Roman emperor), 149
- Gaius Gracchus, 71
- Gaius Memmius, 57
- Gaius Octavius, see Augustus Caesar
- Gallio (proconsul of Achaëa), 150
- Gallus (Trebonianus Gallus; Roman emperor), 152
- Garnsey, Peter, 45, 144
- gender, see women
- Geneva Conventions, 180
- Gibbon, Edward, 59
- gift economy, Roman, 104
- “good life,” Roman concept of, 75, 78, 84, 90, 123
- gratitude, corruption, and the passions, 102–6, 108, 109–11, 198–99
- greatness of spirit (magnitudo animi), as civic virtue, 77
- Grotius, Hugo, 182, 184
- Habermas, Jürgen, 63, 117, 119
- Hammer, D., 7
- Hannibal of Carthage, 14, 174
- happiness and gratitude, 199
- heads of household, see paterfamilias
- Helvidius Priscus, 83, 129
- Henry, Patrick, 74
- Hermarchus, 99
- Herodotus, 14, 22
- Hierocles, 186
- Hobbes, Thomas, 19, 38, 113, 118, 124, 132, 197
- honor code
 Augustine on, 87–88
 Cicero on imperialism and, 173–74
 civic virtue and, 73, 76, 81–84
 corruption and, 92, 94
 “good life” promoted by, 75, 78, 84, 90, 123 importance in Roman political culture, 9
 just war theory and, 179–80
 liberty and, 55, 57
 modern sense of, 191
 order, generation of, 190 political participation and, 40, 54–57 struggle for status ameliorated by, 191
- Honoré, Tony, 41
- hope, corruption, and the passions, 108–9, 110
- Horace, 82, 148
- horizontal and vertical toleration, 149, 152
- human nature
 Cicero on, 25
 Polybius on, 22–23
- human or natural rights, Roman lack of concept
 of, 43, 45
- Hume, David, The Natural History of Religion (1757), 145
- immigration, modern concerns about, 63–65
- imperial cult, 142–43
- imperial transformation of Rome, see also Principate
 citizenship extended to all free persons in Roman world (Antonine Constitution), 65–67, 69, 166
 civic virtue, 79–84
 civil religion and, 141–44
 constitution and, 29–34
 Dominate, 34
 liberty under, 57–60, 130 political legitimacy and residual republicanism, 34–36 private individuals in res publica, imperial citizens as, 59–60
 from republic to form of monarchy, 7–8 rhetoric, Quintilian and decline narratives
 of, 124–28
 tetrarchy, 34

- imperialism, 168–76
 Cicero on, 172–74
 as concept, 166–67
 defined, 167
 justice and, 172–74
 Polybius on, 168–70
 Sallust on productive nature of fear of external enemy, 170–72
 Tacitus' Agricola on, 174–76
 imperialistic exportation of religion, 160–64
 Inazu, John, Confident Pluralism (2016), 196 individual rights Aristotle and Plato on, 27
 in Athens versus Rome, 49 citizens' rights and liberties, 46–49
 liberty and, 44–46
 ownership and control demarcated by, 45 interdependence and gratitude, 105 international relations, 166–91, see also imperialism; just war theory
 cosmopolitanism, 84, 167, 184–89
ius gentium (law of nations), 41
 modern concepts of, 166, 195
 realism, 189–91
 Iphigenia, sacrifice of, 101
isonomia (political equality), 50, 53
ius ad bellum (justice of going to war), 176–78
ius civile (civil law), 41
ius gentium (law of nations), 41
ius in bello (justice of waging war), 176–78
ius naturale, see natural law
- Jefferson, Thomas, Notes on the State of Virginia
 (1785), on religious freedom, 155–58
- Jews and Judaism
 Christianity and, 150
 Jewish rebellions of 66–70, 115–117, and 132– 135, 148, 149
 Roman tolerance of, 147–50, 152
- Johnston, D., 31
- Josephus
politeia, use of Greek concept of, 3
 on Roman tolerance of Judaism, 149
- judgment (consilium)
 civil religion and, 140
 rhetoric and (see rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment)
- judicial rhetoric, 114–15
- Julius Caesar
 Cato the Younger and, 129
 citizenship and, 70, 78
 constitution and, 25, 31
 corruption and, 93, 97, 107
 divinization of, 142
 as Epicurean, 97
- liberty, Roman ideas about, 55, 58
 Marius as model for, 107
 realism and, 190
 just war theory, 176–84
 Ambrose of Milan on, 181–82
 of Augustine of Hippo, 177, 182–84 in Christian thought, 181–84
 Cicero on, 177–78
 defined, 167
 of Grotius, 182, 184
 honor code and, 179–80
ius ad bellum (justice of going to war), 176–78
ius in bello (justice of waging war), 176–78
 modern expressions of, 176–77, 178, 180, 184
 religion and, 179
 Roman republican origins of, 177–80
- justice
 as civic virtue, 77, 83, 88
 imperialism and, 172–74
 social economy and, 198
- Justinian I (Roman emperor), 35
- Juvenal, 148
- Kass, A. A., 164
 Kass, Leon R., 101, 164
 Kaster, R., 78
 Kennedy, G., 127
 Kenney, E. J., 100
 King, Martin Luther, Jr., 164
 kingship, see monarchy
- Lactantius, The Divine Institutes
 on pacifism, 181
 on religious tolerance, 158–60
- Latin versus Roman colonies, 71
- Lebow, Richard Ned, 191
- legitimacy, political constitution and, 16, 20, 27, 34–36
 deliberative democrats on, 113, 117, 119 religious toleration and, 155–58
- London, Ted, 190
- Lex Aquilia*, 43
Lex Hortensia, 17
Lex Iulia maiestatis, 130
lex maiestatis, 130
Lex Ogulnia, 140
Lex Oppia, 50
- liberty, 37–62, see also equality ancient versus modern concepts of, 37–40, 42, 60–62, 197–98
 Athenian versus Roman, 39, 60 citizens' rights and, 46–49 (see also appellatio; auxilium; conubium;
provocatio; suffragium)
dignitas, importance of, 55–56, 58

- environment and nature, human relationship to, 197–98
 under imperial transformation of Rome, 57–60, 130
 individual rights and, 44–46
 license versus, 132
 magistrates, restraints on, 54–55, 58 negative and positive, 38, 39, 50, 197 neo-republican analysis of, 38–39, 42, 61 ownership/control central to ideas of, 40, 43, 45, 47, 58, 61
paterfamilias, power of, 42
 political participation central to ideas of, 40, 49–50, 54–57, 58–59, 60, 61
 private individuals in res publica, imperial
 citizens as, 59–60
 property and, 43–44, 45
 public versus private, 42, 54–55, 58, 60
 religion, Jefferson and Tertullian on freedom of, 154–58 (see also tolerance, religious)
 rhetoric and, 130–32
 slavery and Roman law of persons, 40–43
 women, restrictions on, 42 license versus liberty, 132
 Licinius (Roman emperor), 152
 Lincoln, Abraham, 164
 “The Perpetuation of our Political Institutions” (1838), 109
 Livy
Ab urbe condita, 13, 46
 on Cincinnatus, 74–75
 on citizens’ rights, 46–48
 on civil religion, 139, 145
 on consulship, 29
 on equality, 50–51, 52
 on honor and order, 191
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
 on liberty, 40, 43, 57
 political writings of, 2, 6
 realism and, 190
 on republicanism, 2
 Locke, John, 27, 38, 43, 155
A Letter Concerning Toleration (1689), 160
 Lombardini, John, 153
 Longinus, 124
 Lucan, 148
 Lucretia, rape of, 13, 29, 47
 Lucretius
 biographical information, 96
 on corruption and the passions, 95, 96–102
De rerum natura, 96, 97, 98, 103
 finitude (death), fear of/acceptance of, 100–1, 102, 103, 198
 on gratitude, 103, 198
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
 political writings of, 6
 on reverence and pietas, 101–2
 Sallust compared, 97, 98
 Luke (evangelist), 150, 151
 Lycurgus, 23, 168
 Macedonius, Letter of Augustine to, 89
 Macer (C. Licinius Macer), 46, 57
 Machiavelli, Niccolò, 160
Discourses on the First Decade of Livy (1531), 46
The Prince (1532), 32, 36
 MacIntyre, Alasdair, 45
 Madison, James, 131, 171
 magistrates
 civil religion and, 139
 liberty and powers of, 54–55, 58 magnitudo animi (greatness of spirit), as civic virtue, 77
 Manent, Pierre, 167
 many, rule by, see popular sovereignty
 Marcellinus, Letter of Augustine to, 88
 Marcus Aurelius (Roman emperor), 153, 166, 184–85, 186, 188, 197
Meditations, 184
 Marcus Lepidus, 29
 Marcus Regulus, 87
 Marcus Terentius, 84
 Marius, in Plutarch’s Lives, 106–8
 Marius Priscus, 128
 Mark Antony, 29
 Markus, R. A., 86
 Masinissa (Numidian king), 171
 May, Larry, 184
 Melians, 108
 Memmius (dedicatee of Lucretius’ De rerum natura), 97, 98
 memory and gratitude, 105, 110 men of the people (populares), 48, 93, 117 mercy and related civic virtues, 78 Metellus (Quintus Metellus), funeral eulogy for Lucius Metellus, 76, 77
 Milan, Edict of (313), 35, 85
 military service and Roman citizenship, 68
 Millar, Fergus, 19
 Miller, Fred, Jr., 27
 mixed constitutions of Carthage, 169
 Ciceronian versus Polybian models of, 25–28
 civil religion and, 139–41, 163
 Greek models of, 23
 of Sparta, 168–69
 Rome’s compared to Sparta and Carthage, 168–70
 Moatti, Claudia, 67
 moderation, see temperance

234 modern liberal democracy and Roman republicanism, 8–10, 192–99 American civil religion, argument for existence of, 164–65

 caution in comparing, 166 citizenship, modern concepts of, 63–65
 constitution and, 11, 36
 corruption and the passions, 91, 95, 109–11, 198–99
 cosmopolitanism, 188
 gift economy of Rome compared to capitalist meritocracies, 104 gratitude and, 198–99
 honor code, modern sense of, 191 international relations and, 166, 195
 just war theory, 176–77, 178, 180, 184
 liberty, ancient versus modern concepts of, 37–40, 42, 60–62, 197–98 methods for approaching, 193–95
 realism, 189–91
 relationship between, 8–10
 religion and, 137, 164–65, 195
 rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment, 112, 113, 134–35
Rockefeller vs. Hodges (U.S. Supreme Court, 2015), 192–93 tolerance, religious, and, 196–97 monarchy
 Dio Chrysostom on, 33–34
 imperial transformation of Rome from republic to form of, see imperial transformation of Rome Polybius on consular rule and, 14
 Seneca the Younger on princeps, 31–33
 Tarquinian rulers, move of Rome to republic from, 13, 47
 Montesquieu, 36
 Morgenthau, Hans, 189, 190
 Morstein-Marx, Robert, 116, 117, 122
 mystery religions, 145
 Mytilenaeon debate, 109 natural law (ius naturale)
 Cicero on, 13, 41, 156, 161–64, 179
 defined, 41
 Polybius on, 22–23
 Roman constitution and, 13
 in Stoicism, 162
 Tertullian on, 156
 natural or human rights, Roman lack of concept of, 43, 45 nature and environment, human relationship to, 197–98 negative liberty, 38, 39, 50, 197
 neo-realism, 190
 neo-republican analysis of liberty, 38–39, 42, 61

Index

Nero (Roman emperor), 31, 32, 59, 80, 125, 128, 150
 Nerva (Roman emperor), 82, 128, 174
 Nicias, 108
 Nietzsche, Friedrich, 101
 9/11, 103
 Nixon, Richard M., 91
 Noreña, Carlos, 79
 North, John, 139, 145
Obergefell vs. Hodges (U.S. Supreme Court, 2015), 192–93 obsequium (compliance), as imperial civic virtue, 83, 84
 one, rule by, see monarchy optimates (aristocrats), 4, 36, 48, 93, 117 oratory, see rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment Origen, on pacifism, 181
 Ovid
Fasti, 142
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
Tristia, 30
 ownership/control and liberty, 40, 43, 45, 47, 58, 61 pacifism, Christian arguments for, 181 Panaetius, 186
paradiastolè (rhetorical redescription), 126, 127
 the passions
 corruption and (see corruption and the passions)
 rhetoric and, 119–21, 126
paterfamilias citizenship of adult children and, 68 emperor as, 30, 59
 liberty of adult children restricted by, 42
 patriotism, as civic virtue, 78, 110–11, 164–65
 Paul of Tarsus (St. Paul), 67, 84, 86, 150, 153, 183
 Peloponnesian War, 102, 126
 Penn, William, 155
 Persius, 148
 Petronius, 124, 148
 Philo of Alexandria, 149
 Philo of Larissa, 1
philotimia (ambition or love of honor), 106, 107
pietas
 Augustus known for, 141
 as civic virtue, 78, 80, 88
 Epicurus on, 102
 Lucretius on, 101–2
 Tertullian on, 154
 Thucydides on, 102
 Piso (consul and proconsul), 96
 plague of Athens, 102

- Plato and Platonism
Alcibiades, 107
 chance, political change dependent on, 22
 Cicero's Platonic-style dialogues, 118
 compared to Roman political thought, 7
Gorgias, 112, 119, 129
 harmony as goal of politics for, 24
 ideal, rational rule, interest in, 22, 26
 on individual rights, 27
Laws, 137, 163
Menexenus, 112
 "mixed constitution," model of, 23
Phaedrus, 119
 philosophical method of being able to argue both sides of question, 124
 Plutarch as Platonist, 95
 Plutarch on death of, 108 Republic, 4, 26, 132
 on rhetoric, 112, 117, 119, 123
 Tacitus and, 129
 plebeian assemblies, 17
 Pliny the Elder, 128, 148
 Pliny the Younger
 on Christianity, 150–51
 on civic virtue, 79–80, 81–82, 84
 on constitution, 33
 Letters, 81–82
 Panegyricus, 33, 79–80
 Plutarch
 biographical information, 106
 on corruption and the passions, 95, 106–9, 110, 198
 on hope, 108–9, 110
 Parallel Lives, 96, 106–8, 188
 on philotimia (ambition or love of honor), 106, 107
 political writings of, 6
 "Roman" nature of political writings of, 5
 Pocock, J. G. A., 69 political corruption, see corruption and the passions political culture of Rome agonistic nature of, 24, 28
 civic virtue and, 78
 importance of, 4–5, 9
 public speaking, importance of capacity for, 112 Roman constitution regulated by, 12 political legitimacy, see legitimacy, political political participation civic virtue in Roman Republic related
 to, 73
 liberty and, 40, 49–50, 54–57, 58–59, 60, 61
 Roman citizenship and, 68 political rhetoric, see rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment
 political thought, Roman, see Roman political thought Polybius, Histories
 anakuklōsis (cyclical political change), theory
 of, 22–24
 on aristocracy and the senate, 15
 biographical information, 13
 Cicero compared, 25–28, 173, 174
 on civil religion in Rome, 21, 100
 on constitution, 13–24, 36
 Dio Chrysostom compared, 33
 framers of American constitution influenced by, 36
 on honor and order, 190
 on imperialism, 168–70
 on monarchy and consular rule, 14
 on natural law, 22–23
 politeia, use of Greek concept of, 3, 14
 political writings of, 2, 6
 on popular sovereignty, democracy, and assemblies, 15–18, 19–22 pragmatic approach of, 26 on productive nature of fear and conflict, 23–24, 171
 realism and, 190, 191
 "Roman" nature of political writings of, 5
 Sallust compared, 171
 on separation/balance of powers, 23
 Tacitus compared, 176
 Pompey the Great, 25, 55, 70
pontifex maximus, emperor as, 142
pontifices, 139
 popular assemblies, see assemblies, Roman popular sovereignty
 Cicero on, 7, 26–27
 imperial transformation of Rome and, 30
 importance to res publica, 7 Polybius on Roman assemblies and democracy, 15–18, 19–22
populares (men of the people), 48, 93, 117 positive liberty, 38, 197 power, love of (philarchia), 106, 107 powers, separation and balance of, see separation and balance of powers presidential elections (2016), 198
 Price, S., 139
 priests and priesthoods, 139–40, 142
 Principate
 civic virtue under, 79–84
 civil religion under, 141–44
 constitution under, 30–34
 defined, 30
 rhetoric, Quintilian and decline narratives
 of, 124–28
 rhetoric under, Tacitus on, 128–33
 privacy, Roman lack of right of, 55

- private individuals in res publica, imperial citizens as, 59–60 private versus public, see public versus private property and property rights citizens' rights and, 49
 liberty and, 43–44, 45, 49
provocatio (right of appeal), as citizens' right, 49, 54, 57, 67, 68, 71 public gratitude, 110, 111 public speaking see rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment
 public versus private liberty, 42, 54–55, 58, 60
 religion and, 158
 Punic War, second, 171, 174
 Purdy, Jedidiah, 198
 Pyrrhus (king of Epirus)
 Cicero on, 174, 180
 in Plutarch's Lives, 106–8
- Quintilian
 Cicero and, 125–27
 Institutio oratoria, 125
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
 political writings of, 6
 on rhetoric, 124–28, 134
 Quintus (brother of Cicero)
 Cicero, Ad Quintum fratrum, 55
 Commentariolum petitionis, 1–2
- Rawls, John, 86
 realism, 189–91
 Red Cross, 180
 Reidl, Matthias, 146 religion, see Christianity; civil religion in Rome; Jews and Judaism; pietas religious tolerance, see tolerance, religious Remer, Gary, 117
repetundae (extortion), 91
 republicanism, Roman, see Roman political thought restraint, see temperance reverence, corruption, and the passions, 101–2, 109, see also civil religion in Rome; pietas
 rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment, 112–35
 in Athens, 117
 character (êthos), role of, 119, 122
 Cicero on, 112, 116, 118–24
 in contiones, 114, 115–17, 119, 122, 127 critical approaches to, 112–13, 118, 119 definition of rhetoric, 112, 125
 deliberative oratory, 114, 115–18, 126
 epideictic oratory, 114, 123 judicial oratory, 114–15
 lex maiestatis, effects of, 130
 liberty and, 130–32
 modern approaches to, 112, 113, 134–35
 paradiastolê (rhetorical redescription), 126, 127 passions, significance of, 119–21, 126
 philosophical method of being able to argue both sides of question, 124
 Quintilian and decline narrative of rhetoric under Principate, 124–28, 134 in Roman forum, 117–18
 in Roman Republic, 113–18
 in senate, 114, 115
 Tacitus on rhetoric under the Principate, 128–33, 134
Rhetorica ad Herennium, 114, 121, 126 rights, see also individual rights; property and property rights of citizens, 46–49, 68 (see also appellatio; auxilium; conubium; provocatio; suffragium)
 customary rights and institutions, force of, 12–13
 equal rights, 53
 natural or human rights, Roman lack of concept of, 43, 44–45
 privacy, Roman lack of right of, 55
 Roman assemblies, see assemblies, Roman Roman colonies versus Latin colonies, 71
 Roman constitution, see constitution, Roman Roman emperor, see emperor; specific emperors
 Roman Empire, see specific entries at imperial Roman forum, oratory in, 117–18
 Roman foundation myths, 70, 142, 160
 Roman political thought, 1–10
 Athenian democracy compared, 6–8 (see also Athenian democracy and Roman republicanism)
 Christianity and, 5 (see also Christianity)
 Cicero's consulship campaign and Quintus's Commentariolum petitionis, 1–2 citizenship, 63–90 (see also citizenship) civic virtue, 73–90 (see also civic virtue) civil religion, 136–65 (see also civil religion in Rome) constitution, 11–36 (see also constitution, Roman) on corruption and the passions, 91–111 (see also corruption and the passions) imperial transformation of Rome from republic to form of monarchy, 7–8 on international relations, 166–91 (see also international relations) liberty, 37–62 (see also liberty) methodology and approach, 5–6

- modern liberal democracy and, 8–10, 192–99
 (see also modern liberal democracy and Roman republicanism)
- political culture as well as formal institutions, importance of, 4–5, 9 (see also political culture of Rome)
- “political,” defined, 3–5
- republicanism, concept of, 2–3
- rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment, 112–35 (see also rhetoric, deliberation, and judgment)
- “Roman,” defined, 5
- “thought,” defined, 3
- timeline, xii, 5
- Roman senate, see senate, Roman
- Rome, sack of (410), 35, 86
- Romulus Augustus (Roman emperor), 34
- Romulus, Roman foundation myth of, 70, 142
- Roskam, Geert, 97
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques
 on civil religion, 136–38, 145, 160, 162, 163, 164
On the Social Contract (1762), 136–38
Second Discourse on the Origins of Inequality (1755), 99
- sack of Rome (410), 35, 86
- Sailor, Dylan, 175
- Sallust
 Augustine influenced by, 87, 88
 biographical information, 92
Catiline’s Conspiracy, 56, 76–78, 92, 93, 126, 171
 Cicero compared, 173
 on citizens’ rights, 46
 on civic virtue, 73, 76–78, 83
 on corruption and the passions, 92–95, 102
 on fear of external enemy, 170–72, 175 Histories, 171
 on honor and order, 190
 on imperialism, 170–72
 on individual rights, 46
The Jugurthine War, 57, 92, 171
 justification of literary efforts by, 56
 on liberty, 40, 43, 57
 Lucretius compared, 97, 98
 on political participation, 56–57
 political writings of, 2, 6
 Polybius compared, 171
 realism and, 190
 on rhetoric, 126, 127
 Tacitus compared, 176
- Scapula (African proconsul), 154, 157
- Schaub, D., 164
- Scheidel, Walter, 40
- Scipio Africanus
 in Cicero’s De republica, 25, 26, 28, 52, 54 on dignitas and liberty, 56
- Scipio Nasica, 25, 170
- Scruton, Roger, 109
- Second Sophistic, 66
- senate, Roman
 Augustus Caesar and, 30
 Bacchanalia, regulation of, 145–46
 Centuriate Assembly votes requiring ratification by, 20
 civil religion and, 139
 Polybius on, 15
 rhetoric in, 114, 115
- Seneca the Younger Cicero compared, 31–32
 on civic virtue, 79–80, 81
 on constitution, 31–33
 on corruption and the passions, 95, 103–6
 on cosmopolitanism, 188
De beneficiis, 33, 81, 104–6
De clementia, 31–33, 79, De otio, 186
 on decline of rhetoric, 124
 Dio Chrysostom compared, 33
 on gratitude, 103–6, 110, 198
 on Jews and Judaism, 148
 Stoicism of, 31, 32, 95, 104, 186
 on tolerance, 153
- separation and balance of powers
 Cicero on, 27
 Montesquieu’s development of idea of, 36
 Polybius on, 23
- September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, 103
- Sextus Tarquinis, 13
- Sibylline Books, 139, 142
- Sisyphus, 97
- Skinner, Quentin, 38, 50
- slavery
 liberty versus, 40–43 property rights and, 43
- Smith, Adam, 187
- social contract theory, 99–100
- Social War, 72, 118
- Socrates, 107, 112, 129, 132, 146
- Sparta, Polybius on mixed constitution of, 168–69
- status, see class and status
- Stockdale, James Bond, 60
- Stoicism
 compared to Roman political thought, 7
 cosmopolitanism, 84, 167, 184–89
 Dio Chrysostom and, 33
 Epictetus, Discourses, 59–60
 gratitude in, 104, 105
 natural law in, 162
 Seneca the Younger and, 31, 32, 95, 104, 186 tolerance as virtue for, 153, 154
- Straumann, Benjamin, 12

238

Strauss, Leo, 45
 Suetonius, 141
suffragium (right to vote), as citizens' right, 47, 48, 50, 54, 68, 69
 Sulla, 24, 108, 115, 118
 sumptuary laws for women, 50–51
superstitio, belief systems classified as, 147, 150, 151
 supremacy clause, 71
 Tacitus, see also Agricola Annals, 30, 83, 84, 128
 biographical information, 128
 on Christianity, 150
 Cicero and, 129, 131–32, 133
 on civic virtue, 82–84
Dialogus de oratoribus, 128–29, 131
 on funeral of Augustus Caesar, 30
Germania, 128
Historiae, 128, 131
 on honor and order, 191
 on Jews and Judaism, 148, 150
 on liberty, 43, 59, 130
 political writings of, 2, 6
 Polybius compared, 176
 on republicanism, 2
 on rhetoric under the Principate, 128–33, 134
 Sallust compared, 176
 Tarquinian monarchy, 13, 47
 taxation and Roman citizenship, 66, 68
 temperance, as civic virtue, 77, 83
 Terence, The Self-Tormentor, 187
 Tertullian
Ad Scapulam, 154–55, 156, 157
Apologeticum, 154
De anima, 156
 on natural law, 156
 on pacifism, 181
 political writings of, 6
 on toleration, 154–59
 tetarchy, 34
 Theodosius I (Roman emperor), 34, 35
 Thomas Aquinas, 41
 Thræsea Paetus, 83
 Thucydides, History
 compared to Roman political thought, 7
 on hasty decisions by democratic bodies, 141
 on hope, 108, 110
 “mixed constitution,” model of, 23
 on plague of Athens and lack of reverence, 102
 realism and, 190
 on rhetoric, 126
 Tiberius (Roman emperor), 84, 124, 130, 149
 Tiberius Gracchus, 25

Index

Tibullus, 148
 Tocqueville, Alexis de, 199
 tolerance, religious, 144–60
 Bacchanalia, senate regulation of, 145–46
 centralization of Roman civil religion by Decius' edict, effects of, 143, 152 Christianity, arguments for tolerance in, 153–60
 Christianity, Roman treatment of, 143, 150–52, 158
 civic/political order and, 146–47, 151–52 defining, 144
 horizontal and vertical toleration, 149, 152
 Jefferson, Thomas, Notes on the State of Virginia (1785), 155–58
 Jews and Judaism, treatment of, 147–50, 152 limits of, 146
 Locke on, 160
 modern liberal democracy and, 196–97
 openness of Rome to foreign religions and, 144
 political legitimacy and, 155–58
 polytheism and, 145
 public versus private aspects of religion and, 158
 Roman arguments in favor of, 152–60
 Rousseau's efforts to promote, 138
 Socrates, execution of, 146
superstitio, belief systems classified as, 147, 150, 151
 Torquatus, 96
 Trajan (Roman emperor), 33, 80, 128, 150–51
 Tribal Assembly, 16
 tribunate, 17
 Trump, Donald, 63
 trustworthiness or faithfulness (fides), as civic virtue, 77
 Twelve Tables, 40, 43, 48, 121
 Ulpian, 12, 41, 66
Regulae, 12
 United States, see specific entries at American Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 37, 44 universal principles and particular religious practices, tension between, 138, 143, 160, 161–62, 163, 164–65
 Urso (Spanish colony), 161
 Valerian (Roman emperor), 152, 154
 Varro (Marcus Terentius Varro), 12, 136, 141, 148, 161
 Vasaly, Ann, 51
 Vergil, 82, 148
Aeneid, 160
 vertical and horizontal toleration, 149, 152
 Vespasian (Roman emperor), 83, 149

Index

239

- Vesta (goddess)
 Aeneas, Roman foundation myth of, 142, 144
 Augustus Caesar, Vesta and Apollo cults moved to home of, 59, 142
 Vibius Crispus, 131, 133
 Vietnam War, 60, 176
 Villey, Michel, 45 virtue, civic, see civic virtue Visigoths, sack of Rome (410) by, 35, 86
- Walz, Kenneth, 189, 190, 191
 Walzer, Michael, 69
 Just and Unjust Wars (1977), 178
 On Toleration (1997), 147, 152
- Washington, George, 74
 Watergate, 91
 West, Cornel, 110
 Wiedemann, Thomas, 171
 Wilken, Robert Louis, 155 wisdom, as civic virtue, 76, 77, 83 women
 citizenship and, 68
 liberty, restrictions on, 42
 sumptuary laws for, 50–51
 Woodruff, Paul, 102, 109
- Zeno of Citium, Republic, 185, 186