

Index

- ACCION, 120
 accountability, 159
 Acemoglu, Daron, 98–99
 actors, non-state, 24 administrative costs, 130
 Africa, 86–87
 microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
 agents of justice, 80–81 of microfinance, 79 positive actions of, 21
 AIMS methodology, 121
 Alston, Philip, 22, 26
 Andhra Pradesh, India
 coercive collection practices in, 118
 MFI scandals in, 129, 139
 Spandata study, 122–124
 annual percentage rate, 113
 Aristotle, 177
 Arunachalam, Ramesh, 118
 Ashford, Elizabeth, 31
 Asia, 86–87
 autonomy, 110–111
- Bangladesh
 coercive collection practices in, 118–119
 commercial rates in, 38–39
 debt crisis in, 17
 Grameen model in, 6 interest rates in, 7, 38–39
 loans, 57
 long-term clients of microfinance, 37
 microfinance in, 37, 124–125
 women's empowerment in, 126–127
 Bangladeshi model, 124
 bank account, 56
 Bank of America, 126
 Barclays, 41
 Barry, Christian, 70
 basic education. See education
- beggars, 39
 begging, 35
 Beitz, Charles, 67, 68
 Berlin, Isaiah, 163
 Bernoulli, Daniel, 166 bilateral investment treaties (BITs), 45 birth certificate, 25–26
 Bolivia
 debt crisis in, 17
 emergency social fund in, 100
 microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114 borrowers, 2 autonomy of, 110–111
 debt crises, 17
 degradation of, 109 financial inclusion model and, 124 group liability on, 117–118 indicators of no longer being poor, 35–36 loss of dignity, 175 moral obligations of, 82–83 obligation to repay debt, 93 psychological costs, 6
 repayments, 133–135
 solidarity group, 38
 Bosnia-Herzegovina, 17, 18, 19 bottom-of-the-pyramid model, 2, 169
 BRAC, 39–40
 women's empowerment programs, 127
 Brady, Ian, 30
 Bronte, Emily, 109
 Butt, Daniel, 93
- Cambodia, microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
 Canada, 86–87
 Caney, Simon, 68
 capital, circulation of, 176–177
 Casal, Paula, 94
 centralization, 98

- Certified Government Auditing
 - Professional (CGAP), Principle 8 of, 64
- charities, 88
- Chittagong University, 86
- Choudhury, M.A., 136
- civil rights, 22–23, 25, 51
- close relatives, 149–150
- Cohen, G.A., 79, 163
- Coleman, Jules, 82
- collateral, 87
- collection practices, 118–119
- collective benefits, 157
- collective sanctions, 156–157
- colonialism, 99
- commercial rates, 114. See also interest rates
 - in Bangladesh, 38–39
 - vs. microloan rates, 129
- communication systems, 158–160
- Compartamos, 7, 39, 41, 103, 129, 133, 137
- competition, 161
- compulsory savings, 113
- confiscation of assets, 155
- conflict management, 153, 159
- consolidation period, in group-based microfinance, 146
- Consultative Group to Assist the Poor (CGAP), 133, 134, 137, 138, 142
- Convention against Torture, 30
- cooperatives, 132
- corporate social responsibility (CSR), 45
- cosmopolitan liberalism, 67–69
- credit, 14–26
 - access to, 20–21, 179
 - empirical claims, 16–20
 - freedom and, 163–179
 - human rights and, 7–8
 - interest rates. See interest rates
 - money and, 165
 - poor's access to, 165
 - right to, 14–15, 20–23
 - rights revolution and, 21
- crimes, 97
- critical period, in group-based microfinance, 146
- Cusco, Peru, 147
- customer service, 175
- cut-off point, 79
- De Shalit, Avner, 93, 94, 174
- debt crises, 17
- debtors. See borrowers
- decision-making, 159
- declining basis, 113
- default, reducing risks of, 161
- default risks, 148
- degradation, 109–110
- democracy, and institutions, 98–99
- development, institutions and, 98–99
- devolution, 98
- Difference Principle, 65, 72
- dignity, loss of, 175
- diminishing marginal utility, law of, 166, 171–172
- direct cash transfers, 176
- disempowerment, 95
 - of beneficiaries, 96
 - of societies, 97–99
- distributive duties, unfulfilled, 77–78
- distributive justice, 72
 - global, 65–66
 - microfinance and, 92–95
 - moral failure and, 88–89
 - plausible theory of, 140
 - political justice and, 99
- donors, 91, 96
- duty-bearers, 41, 61–62
- East End (London), 41
- economic, social, and cultural (ESC) rights, 22, 25
- economic growth, 169–170
- Ecuador, microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- education
 - dissimilarities with financial inclusion, 57–62
 - and exercise of civil/political rights, 51
 - financial inclusion and, 53–57
 - importance to present and future life, 51
 - intrinsic value vs. instrumental value, 59–60
 - as protection from cruel or degrading treatment, 51
 - right to, 49–53
- egalitarian cosmopolitanism, 69
- egalitarianism, 89, 94
- eligibility criteria, 159
- emergency social funds, 100
- empowerment, 55–57
 - Bangladeshi model and, 124–125
 - evidence of, 124–127
 - extra income and, 125
 - financial inclusion and, 124
 - rights, 48, 56
 - of women, 120

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11097-7 - Microfinance, Rights and Global Justice

Edited by Tom Sorell and Luis Cabrera

Index

More information

194 Index

- enrichment
 - evidence of, 122–124
 - studies, 120–121
- ethics
 - exploitation and, 74
 - of lending money, 75
 - in microfinance, 74–75, 78–83
- Ethiopia, 18
 - impact of microcredit in, 19
 - microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- exorbitant interest rates, 129. See also interest rates
 - administrative costs and, 130
 - comparison with money lenders and, 130
 - complaints, 143
 - improper motivation in, 131–133
 - inequitable redistribution, 136–138
 - poor clients, 142–143
 - undue procedure, 133–136
 - unjust outcomes of, 136–141
- exploitation, 105–128
 - autonomy and, 110–111
 - benefits from, 106
 - definition of, 76, 105, 106
 - degradation and, 109–110
 - ethical questions in, 74, 75, 116–117
 - group liability and, 117–118
 - by high interest rates, 112–116
 - interpersonal, 75
 - loan collection practices and, 118–119
 - in microcredit, 112–120
 - morally neutral, 105–107
 - permissible, 120–122
 - by profit-making microfinance, 80
 - unfair usage vs. vulnerability, 107–112
 - wrongful, 105–107, 120–122
- extractive institutions, 99
- extreme poverty, 27–28
 - freedom from, 28–34
 - as human rights violation, 31
 - microfinance/microcredit as means of avoiding, 34–40
 - right to be spared from, 41
 - threshold requirements, 35–36
- extremely poor. See ultra poor
- Fair Finance, 41
- Feinberg, Joel, 106
- financial deprivation, right against, 53
- financial exclusion, 1
 - human cost of, 175
 - involuntary, 178
 - in Limehouse, London (1917), 174–175
 - living within the law and, 174
 - right against, 53
 - unusual life choices and, 177–178
 - voluntary, 177–178
- financial inclusion, 124
 - arguments for, 53–54
 - basic education and, 53–57
 - of cash rich person, 54
 - dissimilarities with education, 57–62
 - empowerment of people in, 55–57
 - intrinsic value vs. instrumental value, 59–60
 - microfinance institutions and, 12
 - right to, 47–48, 53
 - unreasonable lending/borrowing terms and, 54–55
- financial services
 - integration with social services, 87
 - standardization of products, 178
- FINCA, 120
- flat rate, 112
- Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), 32
- formation period, in group-based microfinance, 146
- for-profit institutions, 76
- freedom, 163–179
 - access to credit and, 179
 - money and, 165–168, 178
 - of speech, 23–24
- functional illiteracy, 56
- Geneva Conventions, 32
- Ghana, 17, 115
 - microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- ghar bhanga* (house-breaking), 118
- Gini coefficient, 94–95
- girls, financial inclusion of, 57
- global disempowerment, poverty and, 85
- global political injustice, 95
- Goodin, Robert, 65–66, 70, 75, 76, 80, 107, 108–109
- Grameen Bank, 3–5
 - client group, 37
 - credit, 37–38
 - establishment of, 86
 - group lending, 3–5, 119
 - interest rates, 39
 - lending policy to women, 134
 - loan size, 3
 - loans, 57
 - Nobel Peace Prize, 86
 - poverty threshold indicators, 35–36

- profits, 3
- rate of loan repayment, 3
- repayment rate, 3, 38
- revenues, 3
- Sixteen Promises, 4
- solidarity group, 38
- women's empowerment programs, 127
- Grameen Foundation, 120
- Grameen model
 - coercive aspects of, 6
 - demandingness of, 5–6
 - group lending in, 3–5
- Griffin, James, 21
- group lending, 3–5
 - Bangladeshi model, 124
 - coercive aspects of, 6, 119
 - drawbacks of, 5–7
 - exploitation and, 9–12
 - interest rates and, 9–12
 - non-Grameen model, 5
 - Peruvian model, 5
- group liability, 117–118, 126
- group microfinance, 145–162
 - conceptual framework, 146–147
 - consolidation period, 146
 - critical period, 146
 - formation period, 146
 - learning period, 146
 - failures of, 154–157
 - collective sanctions and, 156–157
 - incentives and, 157
 - joint-liability system, 155
 - negative impact, 155
 - premature exit of poorest/most vulnerable people, 154–155
 - overview, 145–146
 - peer monitoring in, 150–154
 - protection of group savings in, 161
 - recommendations for, 158–161
 - incentives, 160–161
 - information and communication systems, 158–160
 - re-balancing institutional objects, 158–161
- groups
 - close relatives in, 149–150
 - democratic systems in, 160
 - formation of, 147–150
 - changes in local market, 149
 - institutional deficiencies, 148–149
 - screening process, 149–150
 - household management, 148
 - information/communication flows
 - among members, 159–160
 - initial information level, 148
 - members' lives in, 148
 - needs-based, 150
 - patron-client relationships in, 150
 - restructuring, 151
 - screening process, 149–150
 - subgroups, 148
 - weakly-associated, 150
- health care, right to, 23–24, 56
- Hindley, Myra, 30
- host government agreements, 45
- house-breaking, 118
- household, internalising lending costs
 - within, 125
- housing loans, 57
- Hudon, Marek, 142
- human rights
 - concept of, 29, 30–31
 - credit and, 7–8
 - freedom from extreme poverty, 28–34
 - institutions and, 29
 - in legal sense, 29
 - microfinance and, 27–46
 - moral obligations, 29–30
 - in moral sense, 29
 - negative rights, 23
 - overview, 7–8
 - states and, 29
 - treaties, 31–33
 - violations of, 30, 31
- humanity
 - duties of, 91
 - microfinance and, 91–92
 - moral failure and, 88
 - vs. supererogatory generosity, 91–92
- Hume, David, 168–173
- Hyderabad, India, 122–124
- illiteracy, functional, 56
- incentives, 157, 160–161
- inclusive institutions, 99
- India, 18
 - loan collection practices in, 118
 - microcredit program in, 18–19, 114
 - microfinance in, 36–37
 - use of microloans in, 16
- Indonesia, 16
- inequalities, measurement of, 94–95
- inequitable redistribution, 136–138
- information and communication systems, 158–160
 - among group members, 159–160
 - MFI-officers, 158
 - officers-clients, 159

196 Index

- injustice, 33–34
 - ending, 95–96
 - global, 95
 - of international resource holdings, 67–72
 - political, 95–96
 - victims of, 81–82
- institutions, 98–99
 - deficiencies, 148–149
 - extractive, 99
 - inclusive, 99
 - re-balancing objectives of, 158
- instrumental value, 59–60
- insurance, 97–98
- interest rates
 - in Bangladesh, 7, 38–39
 - commercial vs. MFIs, 129
 - declining basis, 113
 - exorbitant. See exorbitant interest rates
 - exploitation and, 112–116
 - flat rate, 112
 - green zone, 139
 - Islamic view on, 136
 - legitimate claims to lower, 138–141
 - mandatory ceilings, 129
 - Microfinance Information Exchange database, 113–115
 - microfinance institutions and, 10
 - red zone, 139
- international borrowing privilege, 90
- International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), 32
- International Covenant on Economic, Cultural and Social Rights (ICESCR)
 - Article 11, 31–33, 34, 36
 - Article 2, 43–44
 - Article 9, 32–33, 34, 40
 - parties to, 33
- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 14
- International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), Article 13, 49–50
- international justice, agents of, 67
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 90
- international resource privilege, 90
- involuntary exclusion, 178
- Jackelen, H.R., 134
- Johnson, Susan, 63
- judgments, 80
 - on victims of injustice, 81–82
- justice
 - distributive, 65–66, 72, 88–89, 92–95, 99, 140
 - overview, 9
 - political, 89–90, 95–99
 - social, 139
- Kabeer, Naila, 125
- Kamataka, India, 118
- Karelis, Charles, 171–172, 175–176
- Karim, Lamia, 118–119
- Kenya, microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- La Chanchita*, 147
- labour, 90
- Larron, Le*, 173–174
- Latin America, 86–87
- learning period, in group-based microfinance, 146
- legitimacy, 82
- Lewis, J.C., 132
- Limehouse, London, 174–175
- loan officers
 - coercive collection practices, 118–119
 - interaction with clients, 159
 - interaction with microfinance institutions, 158
- loan sharks, 130
- loans
 - collection practices, 113, 118–119
 - default, 161
 - ethics of, 75
 - group. See group lending
 - microloans
 - crimes and, 97
 - interest rates, 129
 - repayment rates, 133–135
 - progressive, 151
 - valid usage, 159
 - without collateral, 87
- lucrepathic motivation, 131
- Lynch, T., 135
- MacIntosh, A., 136
- maintenance rights, 48
- Malawi, 115
 - microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- Malik, U.A., 136
- management information system (MIS), 159
- Marr, David, 5
- Mayoux, Linda, 126
- Mexico, 18, 19

- MFTransparency, 113
- microcredit
- access to, 20–21
 - empowerment, evidence of, 124–127
 - enrichment, evidence of, 122–124
 - global growth of, 16–20
 - interest rates vs. commercial prime rates, 114
 - poverty reduction and, 120
- microfinance, 86
- borrowers. See borrowers
 - context of, 2–3
 - criticisms of, 5–7
 - definition of, 1, 34
 - distributive justice and, 92–95
 - ethical questions in, 74–75, 78–83
 - exploitation in, 74
 - financial services, 84
 - financial vs. nonfinancial benefits of, 35
 - group-based. See group microfinance
 - human right to, 27–46
 - humanity and, 91–92
 - information and communication systems, 158–160
 - as instrument of financial and social inclusion, 12
 - interest rates, 38–39, 129
 - loans to extremely poor vs. above level of extremely poor, 35
 - non-governmental actors, 64–65
 - non-ideal theory and, 72–78
 - vs. non-repayable financial transfers, 34–35
 - political justice and, 95–99
 - as poverty-alleviating mechanism, 34–40
 - practical effects of, 64, 73–74
 - public policy and, 78–83
 - scepticism, 63–67
 - success of, 179
- Microfinance Information Exchange (MIX), 113–115, 133, 138, 140, 142
- microfinance institutions (MFIs)
- beneficiaries' short-term disempowerment and, 96
 - continuity of, 97
 - costs and profits of, 140–141
 - customer base, 16, 164
 - customer service, 175
 - dark side of, 84
 - donors, 91, 96
 - economic sustainability of, 42
 - exploitation by, 112–120
 - global emergence of, 86–87
 - group perceptions and, 11
 - human rights obligations of, 43–45
 - ICESCR Article 11 obligations, 42
 - ICESCR Article 2 obligations, 43–44
 - ICESCR Article 9 obligations, 42
 - ideal structure for, 96–97
 - indicators of client's poverty, 35–36
 - insolvency of, 42
 - integrated financial and social services, 87
 - interest rates, 10, 112–116
 - lending without collateral, 87
 - vs. moneylenders, 130
 - non-profit, 116, 132–133
 - objections to, 99–104
 - effectiveness, 101–102
 - lack of self-sustainability, 102
 - perverse incentives, 100–101
 - officers, 158
 - overview, 2–3
 - portfolio yield, 113
 - reduction of long-term disempowerment of societies, 97–99
 - regulation of, 42–43
 - repayment rates, 133–135
 - Ruggie framework and, 44–45
 - sensitivity to local obstacles, 97
 - subsidies, 87, 91
 - success of, 179
 - types of, 41
 - upscaling by, 137
 - vs. welfare-state redistribution, 176
- microinsurance, 97–98
- microloans
- crimes and, 97
 - interest rates, 129
 - repayment rates, 133–135
- microsavings, 97–98
- middle class, 98, 101–102
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), 44, 72
- modernization theory, 98–99
- Moellendorf, Darrel, 68
- money
- access to, 178
 - achievement of well-being and, 166
 - convenience/quality of service and, 167
 - credit and, 165
 - freedom and, 165–168, 178
 - lack of access to, 175
 - as social power, 165
 - transaction and, 166–167
- moneylenders, 130
- Mongolia, 16, 18, 19
- Montaigne, Michel de, 173–174
- Moors murderers, 30

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11097-7 - Microfinance, Rights and Global Justice

Edited by Tom Sorell and Luis Cabrera

Index

More information

198 Index

- moral failure, 87–90
 - distributive justice and, 88–89
 - humanity and, 88
 - political justice and, 89–90
- Morduch, Jonathan, 63
- Morocco, 17, 18, 19
- motivation
 - in exorbitant rates, 131–133
 - lucrepathic, 131
- Mozambique, microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- Nagel, Thomas, 69
- needs-based groupings, 150
- negative rights, 23
- Nepal, 121
- Nicaragua, 17
- Nickel, James, 50
- Nobel Peace Prize, 86
- non-discrimination, right to, 25–26
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 41, 88, 102, 132, 138
- non-ideal theory, 72–78
- non-poor borrowers
 - in India, 36–37
 - indicators of, 35–36
- non-profit organizations, 2, 132–133
- non-state actors, 24
- not-for-profit microfinance, 80–81, 116
 - exploitation in, 117
- nouveau riches*, 167
- Nozick, Robert, 72
- Nussbaum, Martha, 174
- “Of Money” (Hume), 168–173
- O’Neill, Onora, 24, 68
- Opportunity International, 120
- Orissa, India, 118
- ownership, promotion of, 159
- Oxfam, 88
- Pakistan, 17
 - microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- patron-client relationships, 150
- peer monitoring, 150–154
 - ambivalence in defining valid loan usage, 153
 - consequences of poor communication channels, 154
 - distorted/hidden/not volunteered information and, 151–152
 - group restructuring for, 151
 - inability to coping with conflict and, 153
- ineffective communication structures and, 153
- prior social relations and, 152
- progressive lending and, 151
- systematic monitoring groups, 160
- transactions costs and, 151
- performance indicators, 160–161
- performance management systems, 160
- Peru
 - emergency social fund in, 100
 - microfinance in, 10, 37, 147, 149
- perverse incentives, 100–101
- Philippines, microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- Pogge, Thomas, 68, 69, 90
- political injustice
 - ending, 95–96
 - global, 95
- political justice
 - beneficiaries’ short-term disempowerment and, 96
 - microfinance and, 95–99
 - moral failure and, 89–90
- political rights, 22–23, 25, 51
- poor
 - access to money, 165
 - culture of dependency, 176–177
 - exorbitant high rates and, 142–143
 - threshold indicators, 35–36
 - unfulfilled distributive duties to, 77–78
- poorest members. See ultra poor
- portfolio yield, 113
- positive rights, 48
- poverty, 101
 - extreme, 27–28
 - freedom from, 28–34
 - as human rights violation, 31
 - microfinance/microcredit as means of avoiding, 34–40
 - right to be spared from, 41
 - threshold requirements, 35–36
 - global disempowerment and, 85
 - reduction of, 93, 120
 - threshold requirements, 35–36
- poverty rates, 19
- power structures, 89
 - deep-seated, 151–152
- price, 167
- primary duty-bearers, 61–62
- prime rates, commercial, 114
- private schools, 76
- progressive lending, 151
- progressive realization, 22–23
- project finance, 45
- public banks, 132

- public policy, microfinance and, 78–83
- public services, 176
- purdah*, 125
- Rahman, Aminur, 119
- randomised control trials (RCTs), 122
- Rawls, John, 67, 68, 163
 - on cut-off point, 79
 - Difference Principle, 65, 72
 - Law of Peoples, The*, 68–69
- recipients, urgency of needs, 91
- red zone, 139
- redistribution
 - inequitable, 136–138
 - welfare-state, 176
- relievers, 171, 175–176
- repayments
 - collective sanctions and, 157
 - forms of, 155
 - in Grameen-type schemes, 6, 38
 - incentives and, 157
 - as method of saving, 170
 - rate of, 133–135
- Rhyne, E., 134
- right to basic education, 49–53
 - arguments for, 51–52
 - burdensomeness and unfeasibility in, 52–53
 - concerns in, 53
 - conditionality, 57–59
 - duty to exercise, 60–61
 - empowerment of recipients and, 52
 - international consensus on, 50
 - International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights* Article 13, 49–50
 - intrinsic value vs. instrumental value, 59–60
 - philosophically credible conception of, 50–51
 - primary duty-bearers, 61–62
 - Universal Declaration of Human Rights*, Article 26, 49
- right to credit, 20–23, 40–41
 - arguments for, 27
 - demeaning rights and, 21–22
 - duty-bearers, 41
 - fulfillment of, 21
 - government responsibility, 23–24
 - less poor and, 40
 - microfinance institutions and, 43–45
 - non-discrimination and, 25–26
 - obligations, 23–25
 - progressive realization of, 22–23
 - promotion of, 21
- right to be spared from poverty and, 41
- rights revolution and, 21
 - trade-offs, 22–23
- universal access and, 20–21
- right to financial inclusion
 - of cash rich person, 54
 - conditionality, 57–59
 - duty to exercise, 60–61
 - empowerment of people and, 55–57
 - intrinsic value vs. instrumental value, 59–60
 - overview, 47–48
 - primary duty-bearers, 61–62
 - unreasonable lending/borrowing terms and, 54–55
- right to life, 52
- right to marry, 51
- rights revolution, 15–16, 21
- Robin Hood, 73
- Robinson, Jim, 98–99
- Rogaly, Ben, 63
- rotating saving and credit associations, 152
- Roy, Ananya, 124, 126
- Ruggie, John, 44
- Ruggie Framework, 44–45
- Rwanda, microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
- Sample, Ruth, 75
- sanctions
 - collective, 156–157
 - group microfinance and, 154–157
 - incentives and, 157
- savings
 - compulsory, 113
 - microsavings, 97–98
 - safeguards for protection of, 161
- screening process, 149–150
- self-sustainability, lack of, 103–104
- Sen, Amartya, 21, 99, 174
- separateness of persons, 63
- SEWA bank, 41
- Shylendra, H.S., 134, 139
- Singer, Peter, 88
- Sixteen Promises (Grameen Bank), 4
- Smart Campaign, 17
- Smith, Adam, 170, 173–174
- social businesses, 35, 41
- social collateral, 155
- social exclusion, 177–178
- social inclusion, microfinance institutions and, 12
- social liberalism, 67, 69
- solidarity group, 38
- Soviet Union, 21

200 Index

- Spandata study, 122–124
 Sri Lanka, 17 states, 29
 as agents of justice, 80–81 structural adjustment programmes, 100 sub-Saharan Africa, 1
 subsidies, 87, 91
 sufficiency threshold, 172–173
 sufficientarianism, 89, 94 supererogatory generosity, 91–92 sustainability factors in, 151
 financial vs. organisational, 145–162 group formation and, 146 group-based microfinance's framework and, 146–147
 improving group microfinance for,
 158–161
 institutional, 148–149
 peer monitoring and, 150–154
 protecting group savings for, 161 sanctions and, 154–157
 sweatshops, 110, 111
 Tamil Nadu, India, 118
 Tanzania, 115
 microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
 taxes, 90, 176
 Thales, 177–178
 threshold of sufficiency, 172–173 torture, 30
 trade offs, 22–23
 transaction costs, 151
 transparency, 159
 truthful information, exchange of, 160
 Uganda, microcredit interest rates vs.
 commercial rates, 114
 ultra poor, 40–41
 empowerment of, 160
 loans for, 35
 welfare-state redistribution for, 176
 UNESCO, 28
 unfairness, in exploitation, 75
 United Kingdom, 76
 Unitus, 120
Universal Declaration of Human Rights
 (UDHR), 60
 Article 25(1), 14
 Article 26, 49
 upscaling, 137
 USAID, 121, 126
 usury, 131, 135, 136, 170
 Islamic view on, 136
 victims of injustice, 81–82
 Visser, W.A.M., 136
 voluntary exclusion, 177–178 vulnerability
 autonomy and, 110–111
 exploitation and, 107
 vs. unfair usage, 107–112
 Walmart, 2
 Walsh, A., 135 wealth, 166
 welfare state, 176, 179
 Wertheimer, Alan, 107–108
 West Bengal, India, 118
 Western Europe, 42
 Whitehead, Christine, 100
 Wolff, Jonathan, 93, 94, 108, 174 women borrowers/debtors, 17 coercive collection practices and, 119
 empowerment of, 120, 124–127
 financial inclusion of, 57
 Grameen Bank's lending policy to, 134
 loans, 57
 Women's World Banking, 120
 Wood, Allen, 106, 107, 109–110
 Woods, Ngaire, 90
 World Bank, 90, 133
 World Health Organization (WHO), 32
 World Trade Organization, 90
 Ypi, Lea, 70
 Yunus, Muhammad, 3, 14–15
 on acceptable interest rates, 139–140 on credit, 24
 dismissal as head of Grameen Bank, 129 establishment of Grameen Bank, 86 on exorbitant interest rates, 132 on goal of authentic microfinance, 132 on human right to credit, 47 influence on modern microfinance movement, 164
 on microcredit, 16
 Nobel Peace Prize, 86
 Nobel Peace Prize lecture, 35, 57
 Zambia, 115
 microcredit interest rates vs. commercial rates, 114
 microfinance in, 37