

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

Index

- abjection, 7, 20, 209
 absentee landownership, 76
 accommodation, 169, 171, 172, 179;
 adaptation of, 14, 116, 119–20, 124, 160; farmer, 55; decoration
 of, 125; minimum standards of,
 176; of seasonal workers, 116
 Adult Literacy Centre, 145, 173
 affirmative parochialism, 53
 African National Congress (ANC), 21
 African Renaissance (South Africa),
 22
 African Women's Prayer Union, 142
 Afrikaans, language, 164
 Afrikaanse Protestantse Kerk
 (Afrikaans Protestant Church), 52, 57
 Afrikaners, 30, 46, 54, 72, 174;
 mythology of, 40–1
 AIDS, 149
 Alex, a picker, 151–2
 Aliens Control Act (South Africa), 100
 amnesty for migrants (1988), 13
 André, a white farm manager, 60, 164, 165, 166, 175
 apartheid, 12, 99, 189; end of, 16;
 labour migration central to, 7;
 post-apartheid disillusionment, 22;
 transition from, 22
 aspirations, 31, 142; middle-class, 29, 35–6, 141, 143, 152, 158, 178, 179
 autochthony, 21

 baboons, guarding crops against, 28, 193

bakkies, 1, 164, 165, 166, 169, 174, 178, 186, 193, 195, 200
 bandits see labour bandits bankruptcy, 56, 59
 Basotho people, 43
 'becoming a man', 65
 beer: buying of, 199; confiscation of, 190; drinking of, 154, 155; selling of, 162, 171, 186, 192, 193 (illegal, 118) see also drinking groups
 Beitbridge border post, 154, 167,
 168, 186
 Benjamin, a storeman, 30, 33, 143–4, 145, 157, 167, 178
 BI-17 permits, 100
 Black Economic Empowerment, 172–3
 black foremen see foremen black frontmen, promotion of, 49
 black managers, 36, 177; of packsheds, 112
 black reserves, creation of, 76
 black workers, 5, 9–10, 41, 78, 86–7, 99, 110, 161–5, 174, 176, 183;
 rivalry between, 161
 black workforce, employment and
 domesticity in, 105–36
 Boers, 53, 75–6
 border economy, of farming, 182–206
 border farmers: aggression as driving force of, 53; as counter-insurgents, 14; stories of, 41; role of, in controlling security of territory, 102 border farms and farming, 15, 20, 21, 25, 47; as buffer zones, 71–4, 76,
 99; in international economy, 23;
 rise of, 4; viewed as serious

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

236 Index

- border farms and farming (cont.)
 business, 52–4; wider contexts of, 33 see also failure, in border farming and success, in border farming
- border wars, 14, 69, 72
- borders: as place of crisis, 5; cultures of, 67; economies of, 70; governance of, 88, 98; labour economy of, 75–9; policing of, 68–9; porosity of, 107; shaping of, 36; ‘special employment’ in, 99–103 see also policing, of borders
- boreholes, 61
- bossboy see foreman
- braai* (barbecue), 57, 60, 177, 192
- bridewealth, 144
- British military operations, 77
- buffer zones, 70 see also border farms
 and farming, as buffer zones
- Calvinist theology, 52
- camaraderie among male pickers, 151
- capital flight, 64
- casualisation of farming, 6, 107–8
- Central Methodist Church (Johannesburg), 141; as place of refuge, 6, 33
- chain of command see hierarchies
- Chewa people, 109
- chieftaincy, resurgence of, 21
- child labour, 75–6
- childcare, 153; during harvest time, 131; women engaged in, 28
- children, born to migrant women, 29
- China, exports to, 23
- Chipo, a picker and businessman, 154, 156, 191, 201–2
- ChiShona, language, 30, 32–3, 109, 122, 125, 130, 136, 147, 154
- Christianity, 142, 149, 155
- Churches in the labour compound, 142, 149, 155; apostolic bishop, 107, 149; Armed for Harvest services, 155; methodology of studying, 31
- church services (farmers’), 57
- churches, Afrikaans Protestant 52, 57; apostolic, 31; Dutch Reform, 52, 57
- cigarettes: selling of, 154, 191; smuggling of, 184, 190
- citizenship, Zimbabwean, redefinition of, 18
- citrus fruit: production of, 24, 47–8, 60, 62, 90, 145–51; exports of, 22–3; packing of, 112
- civilisation, bringing of, 47
- class: among migrant workers, 140–5; among pickers, 151–8; class-based status, 12, 138, 142, 143, 145, 163, 178–9; divisions of, 163, 179; models of, in Zimbabwe, 141; reimagined and contested, 36 see also middle class
- class consciousness in conditions of displacement, 138, 145
- coal prospecting on farms, 4, 36, 64, 65, 207–11
- commando groups, 72, 73
- compound shop, 185, 197
- compounds, 9, 27–8, 35; as zone of autonomy, 190; cleaning of, 133; gendered nature of, 128; living in, 30; models of hierarchy in, 168–74; in mining industry, 115–16, 120, 124, 189; residence in, 32; rules of, 29; seasonal arrangements of, 116–22; selfbuilding of, 169; social life of, 31; transience and rootedness in, 115–27
- Congo, Democratic Republic of, 6, 183
- copper mining, 75, 79–89, 162 see also Messina Copper Mine
- ‘core’ (hub, hinterland), in Limpopo Valley, 67–71
- Cornelius, a driver, 194–6, 197
- Corporate Social Responsibility, 6
- corporatisation of farms, 49, 160–1, 163, 180
- cotton: exports of, 22–3; production of, 38, 45, 47, 60, 62 see also ginning of cotton

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

Index

237

- cows, investment in, 203 credit, a risky practice, 196 see also traders, sell on credit
 credit groups, 199
 currency blackmarket, 204
- dams, building of, 42, 48, 64, 65
 dancing, 155
 Dangarembga, Tsitsi, Nervous Conditions, 142
 Daniel, a tractor driver, 192
 De Beers diamond mine, 104 debt, 7, 20
 deportation of Zimbabweans from South Africa, 5, 34, 94, 103, 105, 122, 134, 167
 deportation raids, 3, 28, 68, 69, 101, 106, 121
 differences among migrants, 12
 Dirk, a former farmer, 59–60 disembeddedness, 213–14; of economic relations, 212–13; of land, 216
 dismissal of farm workers, 105
 displacement of peoples, 5, 7, 140–5;
 as paradigm, 8; characteristics of,
 20–1; in Zimbabwe, 18
 diversification of farmers' activities, 63–4
 Doctors Without Borders, 5 domestic work see also women, as domestic workers
 domesticity, 142–3, 156; in compounds, 127–33
 drinking groups, 28
 drivers, 167
 drunkenness, 118
 Dutch Reformed Church see
 Nederduits Gereformeerde Kerk
- education, 30, 141, 142, 143, 144,
 151, 153, 154, 156, 172, 173, 178, 179; in farm context, 129 see also university education
 electrical goods, use of, 124
 electricity, provision of, 51
 elephants, hunting of, 43, 75
- elites, study of, 143
 embedding, of workplace
 arrangements, 214–15
 employment: as incorporation, 26–9;
 categories of, differences of, 136
 English, language, 33, 175
 Epstein, A. L. 162–3
 Esther, a woman shopkeeper, 185
 ethical produce, 160
 ethnicity, 152, 153; among pickers,
 151–8; as category of difference,
 12, 139
 EUREPGAP agency, 49
 Europeans, seen as different from Africans, 46
 Ezekiel, a supervisor, 148, 149
- failure in border farming, 34, 38–66
 passim
 Fanakalo, language, 165, 175
 Farm Labour Scheme, 90, 91, 92,
 99
 Farm Watch, 52, 53
 farm work: demonisation of, 177;
 perceived as low status, 137, 178
 farm workers, differentiation of, 180
 farmers: as jacks-of-all-trades, 50;
 dress of, 159; identity of, 174
 farming equipment, exported from Zimbabwe, 38–9
 farming, ideals of, 9
 farms: as social centres, 67; as totalitarian institutions, 41;
 residence on, regulation of, 196
 fast track resettlement, in Zimbabwe, 17
 favours, dispensing of, 170, 171, 180
 fencing see security fencing
 Flexibility, in white farming, 5, 6, 14,
 22–5, 29, 34, 62–5, 114, 136, 166–7, 210, 213, 214, 215, 216; in strategies of workers and compound residents, 143, 186, 197, 198, 199, 200, 205
 football, 31, 149, 177, 179;
 organisation of farm teams, 170–1;
 team fielded by soldiers, 107

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

238 Index

- Fordism, 23; racial, 22
 foreigners, attacks on, 6
 foremen, 36, 60, 181; role of, 100, 161–2, 165
 formal economic activity, definition of, 185–91 fragmentation, 207–17 passim; and capitalist production, 211–13; of families, 11; of Grootplaas population, 108; of labour, 1–37, 160, 182 furniture: of compound residents, 124, 171; of farmers' homes, 55, 58
- Gate 17, 101
 gatekeepers, key workers as, 160, 172
 gendered nature of compounds, 126–33
 George, a picker, 152–3, 209
 ginning of cotton, 62
 glasses, wearing of, 156
 gold mining, 10, 11, 26, 79, 88, 95; remittances of workers in, 203
 Granny, a female informant, 32
 grapefruit, 112, 140, 145
 Green Bombers, 19
 Gregory, a pump worker, 128, 191
 Grenfell, John Pascoe, 79–80
 Grootplaas farm, 2, 21, 160; as lifelong place of employment, 122; as permanent residence, 129; becoming a resident of, 29–34; citrus production of, 23, 47–8; compound shop see compound shop; diversity of population of, 109; domestic arrangements in, 106; employment structures of, 140; future prospects for, 207–17; gendered nature of compound, 128; integration of labour into, 27; masculinity in, 139; mix of formal and informal livelihoods in, 183; organisation of work in, 213–14; personal interactions in, 180–1; residential arrangements in, 169; seen as place of failure, 141; trader activities in, 189, 191–8 guerrilla movements, 13
 Guidance, brother of Josiah, 193
 guns, 73, 75; 43, 159
- Hardship, keeper of employment register, 2–3, 148, 170–1
 Hart, Keith, 187
 harvest time, 29, 134, 137, 140, 146, 165, 167–8, 169, 186; entertainments during, 107; life in compounds during, 118–19; recruitment for, 2–3
 healers, 169 see also Sangoma
 Henderson Consolidated Corporation, 84
 Hendrik, a farmer, 73
 hierarchies, 29, 65; models of, in compound, 168–74; nodal points of, 49; of labour, 4, 8, 25, 27, 35, 114–15, 116, 159–81, 175, 214: (gendered, 28); of packshed workers, 113; of traders, 26
 hiring and firing, 168
 history: genre of, 40; of Afrikaners, 40–1; of settlers, preservation of, 44
 HIV/AIDS peer educators, 30, 31–2, 177
 Holly, partner of Michael, 128, 129
 home-based enterprises, 189–90
 homosexual, church ministers, 57
 white claims to local history: hospital registers, removal of, 44
 Hostel building (Grootplaas), 116–18
 Houmoed, name of farm, 39, 43
 Housing Committee (Grootplaas), 116 housing, 140; adaptation of see accommodation, adaptation of; of farm owners, 55; of compound, 115; illegal, demolished in Zimbabwe, 18 see also accommodation hunting, 43, 177; of elephants, 43; for ivory trade, 75 see also poaching of game

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

Index

239

- hyperinflation in Zimbabwe, 5, 16, 18, 19, 20, 27, 198, 199, 203, 204; responses to, 205
- identity documents, 28, 68, 69, 120, 135, 167, 191; produced by farms, 103, 121 see also BI-17 permits
- 'illegals', 2, 3, 68, 69, 103, 118
- immigration, clandestine, control of, 89–99
- Immigration Act (South Africa), 93
- Incorporation of migrants into farm workforces, 4, 5, 12, 14, 21, 26–9, 214
- induna*, use of term, 174
- informal economy, 6, 23, 205–6; definition of, 182, 185–91
- informal livelihood strategies, 182–5
- informal trade see trade
- informalisation, 9, 20–1, 187
- informality: concept of, 189; negotiation of, 197; rejection of, 187; usefulness of concept of, 188
- inheritance tax, avoidance of, 62
- insecurity of labour, 5–9
- intercalary figures, 162–3
- interviews with informants, 31; organisation of, 33–4
- irrigation, 60, 61, 65, 72, 91, 108, 114 see also dams
- ivory: poaching of, 79; trade in, 75
- Jacques, son of Willem, 57–9, 63, 177
- Jameson, a picker, 154–8
- Jan, a farmer, 38, 46, 53, 56, 74, 100, 102
- Jenny, wife of Jameson, 154–6
- Jim, a farmer, 51–3, 54
- Johannesburg, 6, 8, 33, 78, 123; seen as place of opportunity, 140–1
- John, a farmer, 46
- Josiah, a shebeen owner, 193
- Joyce, a permanent worker, 129–30, 132
- justice: on border farms, 35; justice, systems of, 183; permanent workers' versions of, 135
- Karanga people, 109
- KhaDeki farm, 45, 59
- KhaGideon farm, 45
- KhaKobus farm, 45
- KhaRudi farm, 45, 123
- khoro* community/compound court, 149, 169–70
- kinship networks, 100, 106, 212
- Klein Thinus, 57
- Kleinplaas estate, 63, 123
- Koos founder of Grootplaas, 2, 38, 39, 43, 45–7, 54, 56, 174–7, 181; biography, 43–5
- kraals*, 115
- kukiya-kiya* (making do), 7
- labour: control of, 71, 85–9, 89–99, 105; economy of, 75–9; free/unfree dichotomy, 79; shortages of, 87, 90, 94; state policy for, 94–9
- labour agents, control of, 96–7
- labour bandits, 77–9, 88, 97
- labour depots of government, 89–94, 96–8; a failure, 93, 98
- labour reserves see reserves of labour
- land claims, 61–5, 210
- Land Claims Court, 61
- land redistribution, in Zimbabwe, 17
- land reform: in South Africa, 24, 61; in Zimbabwe, 19, 42
- landmine attacks, 73
- landscape: as canvas for development, 61; conceptions of, 47
- languages: Afrikaans, 164; ChiShona, 30, 32–3, 109, 122, 125, 130, 136, 147, 154; English, 33, 175; Fanakalo, 165, 175; linguistic complexity of fieldwork, 32–3; multilingual nature of border farms, 110; SeSotho, 33, 177; SiNdebele, 33; soldiers' lack of, 134; TshiVenda, 15, 32–3, 60, 109, 110, 125, 130, 147, 165, 179; XiShangani, 33
- latrines in compounds, 116; in mining industry, 87–8
- Lemba people, 80
- liberalisation of market, 4, 16, 61–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

240 Index

- lice, 120
- Limpopo River, 67; crossing of, 1, 76: (risks of, 3); labour context of, 1–37
- Limpopo Valley: as buffer zone, 70; as labour recruitment area, 86, 99; as place in own right, 103; characteristics of, 69–70; framing of, 92; rise of agriculture in, 89–94
- Lindiwe, a woman shopkeeper, 185
- Lindsey, daughter of Michael and Purity, 128
- literacy, 167; adult, 173 see also Adult Literacy Centre
- living from one day to the next, 27
- Louis Trichardt depot, 92, 95, 96, 98
- Lovely, niece of Michael, 129
- ma-cutters, 140
- machismo, 148
- magumaguma* gangs, 3, 137, 184
- MaiJimmy, 192–3, 196, 197, 208
- maize, production of, 94
- maize meal, 125; distribution of, 186
- making do, 40
- making ends meet, 36
- Makoni, Simba, 207
- makwinya* (dough balls), 193
- malaria, 81, 82–3
- Malawi, migrants from, 11, 19
- management, in relation to paternalism, 159–81
- managerialism: farmers' perspectives on, 174–7; registers of status in, 177–80
- managers, white, 55
- Manika people, 43
- ma-nose* brigades, 143
- mapermanent*, 8, 28, 34, 107, 136, 149, 182, 193, 196, 207, 209, 214; adaptation and rootedness among, 122–7; as aristocracy of labour, 135; investment in compound, 210–11; permits of, 135; remittances of, 198; working context of, 108–15
- mapoto*, informal relationships, 130, 132
- Mapungubwe settlement, 75
- Margaret ('Granny'), 130–1; as a Grootplaas resident, 144–5
- Marie, wife of Willem, 32, 49, 167
- marijuana, 148, 192
- marketing boards, 23
- marriage, 58–9, 142, 143, 156; farm marriages, 28, 127, 129; ratification of, 129; white weddings, 141
- Marula, a black foreman, 2, 27, 109, 122–3, 131, 149, 161–81, 210; activities of, 164–74
- Marxism, 11, 12
- masalads*, 143
- masculinities: differences among, 157–8; performed, 148
- masculinity: in picking process, 145–58; models of, 139; scholarship on, 139
- mashonya* (mopane worms), 200
- Matabeleland, 15, 33
- mbanje*, 192 see also marijuana
- mealies, 210 see also maize
- mediated paternalism, 213–24
- Memorandum of Understanding (2004), 102
- men, reimagining of, 137–58
- Messina see Musina town
- Messina Copper Mine, 34, 44, 70, 72, 78, 90, 91, 95, 103; accident books of, 95; labour issues at, 79–89: (recruitment difficulties, 87)
- Messina Company, Health Committee of, 82–3, 85, 88
- Messina (Transvaal) Development Company, 83, 85
- Michael, a personnel manager, 30–1, 32, 33, 125, 128–9, 156, 161–81, 216–17
- middle class, 141, 157, 158; as farm workers, 137–58
- middle-class aspirations see aspirations, middle-class
- migrants: categories of, 21; deaths of, 1 see also undocumented migrants

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

Index

241

- migration: dependence on, 90; forced, 7; motives for, 17; of labour, 7, 10: (as paradigm, 8; bilateral treaties, 100; scholarship regarding, 12, 26); oscillating, 26; policing of, 74; state policies for, 78, 88–9; viewed in regional context, 77–8 see also undocumented migrants migration routes, 68
 militarisation of border areas, 68, 74
 military service, of farm workers, 178
 military see soldiers mining industry: masculinity in, 139, 150; poor infrastructure provision of, 87; sexual activities in, 148 see also copper mining and gold mining misogyny, 147–8
 mobile phones, 167, 186
 mobility: cross-border, production of, 15–16; differing forms of, 182; in border areas, 99, 109; meaning of, 5–9; of labour, 110, 114; of migrants, restriction of, 133; of status, downward, 137; of white farmers, 40; of women, 128 models of racial difference, ice man / tropical man dichotomy, 46
 monogamy, Christian, 142
 moonlighting, 190–1
mopaneveld, 1, 48, 77
 Movement for Democratic Change (MDC) (Zimbabwe), marginalisation of activists, 17, 19, 152, 157, 207–9; citizenship disqualification of activists, 18
 Mozambique, 46; leasing of land in, 63; migrants from, 11, 19; option of relocating farms to, 215; purchase of land in, 4, 64
 Mphephu, Chief, 76, 77
 Mpho, son of Marula, 123
 Mugabe, Robert, 9, 16, 20, 34, 107, 208
murivo / muroho plant, 125
musanda (headman), 149
musha (rural home), 122, 136, 203
 music, anthropological studies in the region, 148, 151; live music gigs on the farms, 107; music on speakers at shebeens, 118, 193; playing of, 171
 Musina town, 63, 75, 123, 186; shopping in, 201; wholesale buying in, 197
 Mutambara, Arthur, 157
 National Constitutional Assembly (Zimbabwe), 17, 154, 157
 National Defence Force (South Africa), 68
 Ndebele people, 109, 110, 139, 153, 179
 Nederduits Gereformeerde Kerk (Dutch Reformed Church), 52, 57 neo-liberalism, 9, 108, 159, 187; in South Africa, 21–6 networks, development of, 15
 New Houses (Grootplaas), 116–18, 151, 152, 155
 Ngoni state, 26
 Njelele River, 89, 90; agriculture in region of, 91, 95
 non-contractual relationships, 214, 215
 Norman, a senior driver, 129–30
 Northern Sotho people, 109
 occult economies, 9
 Occupatie Wet, 76
 Oceana Consolidated Company, 83
 Oom see Koos
 Operation Murambatsvina (Zimbabwe), 18, 152, 157
 oranges, 112, 122, 140, 157
 ownership (of farm), viewed as handicap, 64 packsheds, 63, 115, 122, 155, 192; backlogs in, 147; expenses of, 24; women working in, 110; work in, 111–13
 passage, in Limpopo Valley, 67–71

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

242 Index

- paternalism, 9, 32, 49–50, 136, 159–81, 173, 212; definition of, 159–60; farmers' perspectives on, 174–7; mediated, 213–14; racialised, 41–2; registers of status in, 177–80; reinvention of, 161
- patriarchy, 179
- Paul, son of Koos, 52, 55, 64
- payday market in compound, 200–1
- periphery, in Limpopo Valley, 67–71
- permanence: production of, 105–36; provisional, 35
- permanent workers see mapermanent
- permits, corporate, issuing of, 102 see also identity documents and work permits
- personnel managers, 30, 36, 112–13, 125, 128, 144, 161–2, 175
- Pfumbi people, 109
- pickers, 166, 192; male seasonal, 35–6, 138–9; work of, 111 see also seasonal workers
- picking process, 139, 145–51, 165
- picking work, food breaks in, 147
- pioneer stories, 39–45, 59, 62, 65, 159, 181
- pioneer texts, 42–5
- pioneering projects, 47–52
- pioneers, 81
- 'pirates' see labour bandits
- place making, 127
- plantation economies, 100
- poaching of game, 174, 190
- Polanyi, Karl, The Great Transformation, 211–13
- police, 191; black, 103; interventions at farms, 176
- policing of borders, 35, 74, 82, 88, 103, 167
- polocrosse, 56–7, 60
- precarity, 29; among workers and their dependents, 4, 9, 25, 26, 29, 37, 66, 124, 126, 131, 132, 196, 197, 216–17; of farmers, 61, 210
- precious stones, smuggling of, 190
- pregnancy, danger of, 132
- prison system, as source of labour, 93, 94, 99
- privacy, among farm personnel, 171–2
- privatisation, 22
- proletarianisation, 12; delayed, 212
- promiscuity, 150
- prospecting for coal see coal
prospecting on farms
- prostitution, 132, 153
- Protestant ethic, 52
- Pula, sister of Michael, 129
- Purity, partner of Michael, 128
- racial division, 165, 176; in workplaces, 32
- racism, 42, 177
- radio, jamming of stations, 106
- railways, building of, 81, 85
- rape, 137, 148
- recruitment, of labour, 86, 88, 97–8, 100–2, 106, 168; of South African labour, 102; prohibited areas of, 88, 95, 96; state policy for, 98; recruitment on border farms, 100–2, 106
- refrigerators in compound houses, 124
- regional perspective on crisis and employment, 9–14
- relationships, rooting of, 127–35
- remittances, 7, 17, 27, 185, 186, 191, 198; as business, 198–205; as goods for resale, 185; non-perishable goods as, 199
- repatriation, 93, 96; 'at one's own expense', 94
- researchers, farmers suspicious of, 30
- reserves of labour, 10, 11, 26, 141, 193, 209, 211, 213, 216
- respectability, 156; in Grootplaas context, 143; Zimbabwean ideal of, 139
- Restitution Commission (South Africa), 61
- retailers in Zimbabwe, stop stocking controlled goods, 19
- Rhodesia, migration from, 11, 13, 86, 89, 96
- right to reside, 210–11
- right-wing politics, 54

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

Index

243

- rinderpest outbreak, 76
 risk, avoidance of, 62, 63, 65
 rivalries between kinds of work authority, 29
 roads, 1; building of, 81;
 improvement of, 51, 71
 robbery of migrants, 3
 roll-call of migrant workers, 2–3 Rudi, son of Koos, 45, 55
 rural backgrounds of seasonal workers, 118
 rural governance, outsourcing of,
 22 Russian Jewish farmers, 95
 Rutherford, Blair, 39, 40, 44, 47, 108, 160
- Sam, son of Norman and Sarah, 129
 Samkange, Grace, 141–2
 Samkange, Thomas, 141–2
sangoma (healer), 43
 Sarah, wife of Norman, 129, 132
 Saul, Michael's brother, a tour guide, 178
 savings of workers, 140
 screening of rooms, 125
 seasonal labour, description of, 111–13
 seasonal workers, age range of, 110;
 differences among, 139–40;
 remittances of, 198, 199; working context of, 108–15 see also pickers second economy, concept of, 183
 security fencing, 1, 69, 73, 74, 137, 208; cutting of, 134; permeability
 of, 107 see also border
 self-defence camps of farmers, 52
 self-sufficiency, 65; burdens of,
 54–61; in border farming, 38–66
passim
 sending contexts, complexity of, 33
 SeSotho, language, 33, 177
 Settlement on the border: of workers and dependents, 4, 8, 20, 34, 110, 116, 126, 130, 133, 134, 149, 183,
 189, 210, 217; of farmers, 38, 63,
 71–2, 74; Messina Mine, 80–1;
 control of patterns of residence around, 83, 85; precolonial and early colonial, 61, 75, 77
 sex talk among pickers, 147–50
 sexuality and sexual relations, 132, 133, 140, 150, 158; construction of stereotype of insatiability, 148;
 promiscuity, 147–8; taboo on discussion of, 150
 Shaka, king, 46
 Shangaan people, 109
 shebeens, 30, 31, 118, 134, 190, 192, 193, 208
 Sheffield, steel workers in, 215
 Shona people, 33, 109, 110, 139,
 152, 153–4, 179
 Simon, a picker, 151–2
 SiNdebele, language, 33
 Siyanda, wife of Chipso, 154, 156
 smallpox, 83
 Smith, Ian, 38
 smuggling, 174, 183, 187, 188
 social authority, non-formal, 183
 socialising, time available for, 56–7
 sociality of black workers ('socialism'), 46
 soldiers in border areas, 1–3, 24, 68, 101, 105, 107, 120, 122, 137, 191;
 accept sexual favours, 184; as managers of disputes, 135;
 collusion with, 133–5; in bars, 192;
 sympathy with, 134; trained in bush
 tracking, 184
 solitude of farmers, 57–8
 sons, sent away from farm, 55
 Sotho people, 109, 110
 South Africa, 4, 143; agriculture in, 24–5; drawing power of towns, 140;
 government policy in, 6; historical characteristics of, 9–10; northern border area of, 34–5;
 unemployment in, 23; xenophobia
 in, 5 see also neo-liberalism, in
 South Africa
 Soutspanberg region, 75, 77, 78, 89, 90, 98, 105
 sovereignty, of farmers, 102, 105
 Soweto, 124

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

244 Index

- Space, organisation of, on border farms, 8, 21, 27, 115–16, 122, 124, 128, 133, 148, 156, 172, 185–91, 197
- spanking as gesture of MDC support, 207–8
- spaza* shops, 190, 192–3
- 'special employment', in border zones, 99–103, 105
- squatters, black, control of, 83
- stereotypes of Africans, 174
- stoeps* (verandas), building of, 28, 125
- stoves, electric, in compound houses, 124
- structural adjustment programmes, 6, 203; in Zimbabwe, 15–16, 17
- subsistence agriculture, 210
- success in border farming, 38–66
passim; burdens of, 54–61; ideals of, modified, 61
- sugar cane, production of, 63
- 'Superman', a picker, 148
- supermarkets, 176, 178; as customers, 47, 49; corporate social responsibility agendas of, 180; development projects of, 160, 172–3, 176, 177; pressures to change deriving from, 161
- supervisors, developing relations with, 149
- Takalani, daughter of Marula, 123
- Tatelapa pidgin, 165
- taxi drivers, 197
- taxi services, 193–6, 200
- televisions, ownership of, 124
- temperance, 144
- Temporalities and rhythms, 3, 8, 20, 36, 64, 108, 114, 126, 132, 147, 185, 186, 197, 209, 216, 217
- Tendai, a picker, 151
- tenure: rights of, 14; security of, 17
- Thinus, a farmer, 38–9, 45, 50–1, 54, 56, 73
- trade: combined with migration, 182; cross-border, 198
- trade: informal, 28 (mapping of, 188); of body cream, 204; of cooking oil, 204; of green soap, 202, 204; of washing powder, 200, 204
- traders, 36, 185, 197, 204, 206; cross-border, 107; dependent on taxi drivers, 197; hierarchies of, 26; in border areas, 8; sell on credit, 196
- transience, 3–4, 7, 31; in compounds, 115–27
- Transvaal Agricultural Union, 102
- Transvaal Consolidated Land and Exploration Company, 83
- travelling home, 199
- trekboers*, 40
- Tribal Trust Lands, 99
- tribalism, 153
- Trichardt, Louis, 89, 90
- tropical man see models of racial difference, ice man / tropical man dichotomy
- Tshigidi, a picker, 149
- Tshipise region, 105
- TshiVenda, language, 15, 32–3, 60, 109, 110, 125, 130, 147, 165, 179
- Tsvangirai, Morgan, 19–20, 157, 208
- turnover of labour, 31, 115, 196
- umbrella companies, use of, 62
- Umkhonto we Sizwe*, 71, 73, 74
- undocumented seasonal workers, 1–2, 3, 69, 101, 105, 120, 121, 197–8; arrests of, 134; special scheme for, 93
- unemployment, 27
- United African Apostolic Church, 107, 149
- United States of America (USA), settler narratives from, 47
- university education of farmers, 58, 59
- urban backgrounds of seasonal workers, 118
- Van Wyk, Gert (former border farmer), 123

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

Index

245

- vegetable patches in compounds, 125 vehicles of farmers, 55, 58 see also
bakkies
- Venda people, 67, 76, 77, 80, 110, 139, 151, 180; as market traders,
 186; cast as inferior, 152;
 stereotypes of, 153
- vigilantism, 52
- violence, 5, 20, 49, 153; against farm
 personnel, 168; against workers, 123; among pickers, 151; attacks
 on white farmers, 52; in elections, 207; sexual, 131
- visas, acquisition of, 106
- 'visionary' self-understanding of farmers, 46, 50
- voortrekkers*, 55; history of, 40
- vulgar speech, 156–7
- vulnerability: of seasonal workers, 106, 120, 121, 208; of women
 workers, 135
- Vusa, a picker, 151–2
- wage labour, 70, 191–2, 205, 213; in spaces of crisis, 5
- wages, 78, 168; low, 91; minimum, 24, 150, 176, 198; of black workers, 10
- 'waiters', 146–7, 152
- war veterans, 17, 20
- water, access to, 50, 51, 64, 118
- white farmers, 2, 9, 11, 23, 34, 48, 101, 165, 175; becoming of, 65;
 fear of police reprisals, 103; interest
 in mobility, 14; interface with black managers, 36; leave Zimbabwe, 4, 38; perceived as bringers of civilisation, 47; post-apartheid hostility to, 61; self-view of exceptionalism of, 52; social life of,
 55, 56; wives of, 32
- white farms and farming, 8, 17, 115, 162, 206; narratives of, 39;
 scholarship regarding, 42
- wife of Koos, 43
- wife of Paul son of Koos, 185
- Willem, (also known as Mpothe), a farmer, son-in-law of Koos, 2, 30, 48–9, 57–9, 65, 72, 73, 123, 165,
 167, 168, 175–7, 180, 215, 216
- Witwatersrand, 10, 11
- Witwatersrand Native Labour
 Association, 95
- wives: job dependence on, 196; of farmers, 32; of permanent workers, 130; seen as lacking ambition, 58;
 use of rifles by, 73
- women: as domestic workers, 109, 129, 132–3; as home makers, 145;
 as pickers, 131; as reserves of labour, 193; as seasonal workers, 118; as semi-permanent employees, 28–9; as tractor drivers, 51; as traders, 186, 192–3, 200; building domesticity with, 35; in compounds, establishing research relations with, 31–2, 139; in domestic work, 114; in packshed work, 110, 111–12, 132, 140, 150;
 lack of secure incomes of, 132;
 livelihood strategies of, 189;
 maintenance of domestic ideal,
 142; relationships of, 107, 118, 127–33, 134, 150; unattached, in compound, 150; vulnerability of,
 135, 196
- Wonder, an acquaintance of Michael, 128
- work: farmers' view of, 54; in picking process, 145–51
- work permits, 193
- work rhythm, generation of, 147
- World Bank, 46
- xenophobia, in South Africa, 5–6
- XiShangani, language, 33
- young people (in white farming families), difficulties of farming life
 for, 57–8
- Zimbabwe: crisis in, 5, 6–7, 8, 9, 14–21, 110, 137–58, 198, 203, 210
 (causes of, 16; post-2000, 16–21); elections in, 33, 207–11; historical characteristics of 9–10; migration

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-11122-6 - Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms:

The Roots of Impermanence

Maxim Bolt

Index

More information

246 Index

Zimbabwe (cont.)

from, 4, 15, 16, 17, 33, 53, 54, 163, 177, 204, 212–13; Human Development Index, 20; multiple currency system in, 209; political issues of, 157

Zimbabwean African National Union (Patriotic Front) (ZANU (PF)), 16–17, 18, 38, 208–9; opposition to, 19–20

Zimbabwean migrants, 9, 13, 20, 110, 121, 128, 137, 154, 179, 185; deported from South Africa, 5; disqualified from citizenship, 18

Zimbabwean People's Revolutionary Army (ZIPRA), 13

zones of exception, 71

Zoutspanberg, 75, 83, 88, 94 see also Soutspanberg