

Index

- abduction process, 94
 acculturation, 195
 Acolman, 107
 actor-network theory, 3 ajaracas, 75
 Alvarado, Alonso de Ávila, 110 Amerindian diet, 78–79
 archaeological culture, 20 archaeological data, 7
 circularity in interpretation, 187–188 compared with probate inventories, 38–45
 buyers, 44
 dating, 40–41
 items mentioned, 41–42
 owner identification, 39–40
 prices, 44–45
 provenience, 43–44
 quality of objects, 42–43
 critical reading and interpretation of, 185–186
 criticism of, 131
 as evidence, 23–25
 use of, 186–187
 archaeological material, use of, 7 archaeology analogical reasoning in, 17–21 definition of, 4
 evidence in, 7–8
 history and, 9
 hypothesis testing in, 2 archival research, 103
 Argentina 15 (excavated house lot), 75
 archaeological patterns, 161
 Asian porcelain, 85–86, 160, 162
 Atotoz, María, 111
 Atzompan, 111
 auction records, 38. See also probate inventories
 Ávila, Alonso de, 98, 110
 Axayaca, Juan, 111
 Axayaca, María, 111
Ayuntamiento, 69, 70
 Aztec empire, 68
 Aztec Templo Mayor, 121
 Aztec Triple Alliance, 109
 Aztec women, 133
 Aztecs, 26
 beliefs and iconography, 166 colors for monumental sculpture, 172–173
 gold, 170–171
 symbolism of blue, 172 symbolism of green, 174–176 turquoise mosaics, 173
Aztecs under Spanish Rule, The (Gibson), 16
 baselines, 133
 Basin of Mexico, 5, 106, 112, 115, 137
 Black-on-Orange ceramics, 79 blue (color), 171–174 association with cosmos and temperature, 172–173

- blue (color) (cont.)
 shades of, 171–172
 symbolism among Aztecs, 172
 blue majolica, 168. See also majolica Blue-on-Cream majolica, 169
 Bronze Age, 137
 Brumfiel, Elizabeth (archaeologist), 105–106, 134–136
 buyers of items, 44
- cabeceras*, 28, 110
 Calle de los Donceles (street of the nobles), 71
 Capilco, spindle whorls from, 135
 Caribbean, 182
 Carlos V of Spain, 54–55
 Casa de Contratación, 36
 Casa de las Ajaracas, 75
castas, 48, 56, 70 Catálogo de Pasajeros a Indias (Catalog of Passengers to the Indies), 45 Catholicism, 33–34
 Central Mexican cuisine, 76–77
 Central Mexico
 archaeological contributions, 132 city-states, foundation of, 105 before formation of Aztec empire, 106 majolica in, 181
 population decline during the Aztec period, 112
 serving vessels in, 79
 after Spanish conquest, 26–29
 ceramics, 41, 79–86
 archaeological patterns, 87–92, 190–191
 Asian porcelain, 85–86, 160, 162
 Black-on-Orange ceramics, 79
 Chinese porcelain, 43, 85–86
 Ch'ing porcelain, 86
 indigenous, 51
 Japanese porcelain, 44
 lead-glazed earthenware, 126, 127
 majolica. See majolica Red Ware, 79, 87–92, 127, 166 symbols in, 166
 trade in, 125–128
 transition porcelain, 86
chalchihuitl (green stones), 174–176
 in costumes of Tlaloc, 176 in creation myths and indigenous histories, 175
 in daily life and household rituals, 176 life-giving properties of, 175–176
 prohibitions, 176
 in religious rituals, 176
chalchihuitl (grue), 171–172 Chan (Maya site), 174
chinampas, 116–118
 Chinese porcelain, 43, 85–86
 Ch'ing porcelain, 86
 chipped-stone tools, 137–144
 in pre-Hispanic occupation, 141–142
 production of, 197
 resumption of production in colonial period, 143–144
 access to stone and metal tools, 143–144
 knowledge of production and repair of metal tools, 144
 Cholula, 79
 Christianity, 171
cihuacoatl, 69
 clothing, 189–190
 ethnicity and, 56
 of indigenous women, 146 as part of people's lived experience, 56 in probate inventories, 48 quality of indigenous weavings, 54–55 status and, 56
 tribute cloth, 50–51
Coccidioides sp., 88
 Codex Mendoza, 134
Código de los Alfareros de Cuauhtitlan, 81, 88
 color
 blue, 171–174
 association with cosmos and
 temperature, 172–173
 shades of, 171–172
 symbolism among Aztecs, 172
 green, 174–179
 of majolica
 blue, 168
 Blue-on-Cream, 169 cross-cultural interpretation of, 164
 green, 167
 Green-on-Cream, 168
 meaning to indigenous people, 164 in postclassic and colonial Xaltocan, 166–170
 comales, 116

- conquistadors
 conquest of Mexico-Tenochtitlan, 67–68
 food, 76
 consumption
 as function of economic status, 157–158 gender factor in, 158 patterns of, value of majolica and, 160 sexuality factor in, 158 contemporary analogs, 131 Correo Mayor 11 (excavated house lot), 75
 archaeological patterns, 161
 corroborating evidence, 102
 Cortés, Hernán, 26, 54–55, 81, 109
 Cortés, Martín, 81
 cotton thread and cloth, 116, 118–119
 Coyoacán, 138
 Coyotepec, 110
 creolization, 195
criollos, 193
 Cuauhtémoc, 68
 Cuauhtitlan, 81, 107, 110
 Cuenca, Ecuador, 193
 Cuexcomate, spindle whorls from, 135 cuílatexotli (stained blue), 171–172 Culhuacan, 106, 107
- daily life, indigenous, 6–7, 176 dating of documents biography of owner and, 41 precision of dates, 40–41 probate inventories, 40–41
 de la tierra, 49
 decapitation, 138
 decedents, 45–48. See also probate inventories sex of, 48
 description of probate inventory items, 52–54 diet. See food and diet diorite, 175
 direct historical approach, 20 disciplinary ideologies, 13
 DNA study, 108–109
 Doña Luisa, 193
 Donceles 97 (excavated house lot), 72–74
 archaeological patterns, 91, 161
 ceramic evidence, 93
- earthenware. See also ceramics lead-glazed, 126, 127
 tin-enameled. See majolica
- “Eating Like an Indian” (article), 63–65 elites, indigenous adoption of Spanish clothes and weaponry, 198–199
 conflicts between, 29
 marriage with Spanish colonizers, 96
 swords and daggers, 146–147
 Xaltocan, 110–111, 120
 Empire of the Triple Alliance, 68 encomenderos, 97–98, 110 encomiendas, 71
Ethnic Identity in Nahua Mesoamerica (Berdan et al.), 7–8 ethnogenesis, 195
 European goods
 description of, 55 indigenous interpretations of, 199–200
 in probate inventories, 52
 sold in public auctions, 55–56 European immigrants, 45 European majolica, 161–162
 evidence
 in archaeology, 7–8
 ceramic, 79–86
 corroborating, 102
 multiple and diverse types, 102–103
- faunal remains, 115, 190
 Felder, Kathrin, 20
 first-level analogies in archaeology, 18 flakes, 139–141
 Florentine Codex, 177
 food and diet
 Amerindian, 78–79
 Central Mexican, 76–77
 food remains, 76–77
 Iberian, 78–79
 of indigenous people, 76–77
 Spanish colonizers, 95–96
 Spanish conquistadors, 76
 food remains, 76–79
 formation theory, 23
 Formative period (2000 BCE–200 CE), 174
 Fotiadis, Michael, 13
- Gage, Thomas, 26
 Galloway, Patricia, 3
 García, Martín, 54, 189
 García Bravo, Alonso, 69

- gender, 193–194
 consumption and, 158 material culture and, 193–194 general comparative analogy, 19 Gibson, Charles
Aztecs under Spanish Rule, The, 16 gifts, 96
 gold, 170–171
 González de Ávila, Gil, 110
 González de Benavides, Gil, 110 González Obregón 25 (excavated house lot), 75
 archaeological patterns, 161
 governors, 27
 Graham, Elizabeth, 20
 green (color), 174–179
 green majolica, 167
 green stones, 174–176
 in costumes of Tlaloc, 176
 in creation myths and indigenous histories, 175
 in daily life and household rituals, 176
 life-giving properties of, 175–176
 prohibitions, 176
 in religious rituals, 176
 Green-on-Cream majolica, 168
 green-on-cream majolica, 178–179 “green-stone gourds”, 178
 grinding stones, 147–151
 archaeological and historical studies, 149–150 continued use of, 148–149 cost of milling, 149 decline in maize grinding in end of 20th century, 150–151 lack of infrastructure and supporting technologies, 149 maize grinding, use in, 147–148 Guatemala 38 (excavated house lot), 66
 archaeological patterns, 161
 ceramic evidence, 90
 Gutiérrez de Monteleagre, Gerónimo, 72
 Hacienda of Santa Lucia, 120
 Hawkes, Christopher, 154–155, 156–157
 Henle, Paul, 25
 Hidalgo, 142
 hispanidad (“Spanishness”), 34, 192 historical data, 23–25
 use of, 186–187
 historical documents, 131 critical reading of, 187 as only source of information, 60 replication of, 59
 specific standards, 60 standard minimum of, 60–61 historical narratives, 11 history
 analogical reasoning in, 185
 archaeology and, 9
 synecdoche in, 14–17
 Huehuetoc, 110
 Huemac (Toltec leader), 177 Huexotla, 135
 hypothesis testing, 2, 58–59
 Iberian diet, 78–79
Indian Conquistadors, 68 indigenous elites
 adoption of Spanish clothes and weaponry, 198–199
 conflicts between, 29
 marriage with Spanish colonizers, 96
 swords and daggers, 146–147
 Xaltocan, 110–111, 120
 indigenous goods
 adoption by Spanish colonizers, 34, 191–192 admiration for craftsmanship in, 191
 hospitality and political negotiation in, 192 relations of production in, 192 positive evaluation of, 54
 in probate inventories, 50–51
 Spanish colonizers’ views of, 57–58 indigenous households, 15–16 indigenous people
 adoption of Spanish material culture, 196 attempts to overthrow colonizers, 70 diet of, 76–77
 effects of Spanish conquest on, 197 production of European-style goods by, 50–51 indigenous women
 clothing, 146
 production of tribute cloth, 50–51 Infante, Perdo (Spanish priest), 119 interethnic feasts, 63–100
 ceramic evidence, 79–86
 “eating Like an Indian” model, 95–96, 97–99
 food remains, 67–71
 Orozco y Berra narrative, 97–99

- separatism between Spaniards and indigenous people, 92–94 Spanish households in Mexico City, 67–71 trials of Spaniards eating like Indians, 66–67 Zoyatzingo title and, 97
Introduction to the Study of History (Langlois and Seignobos), 9
 Iron Age, 137
 irony, 13
itzli, 139
ixki (blue), 172
 Ixtlilxochitl, Fernando, 69
- jade, 174
 jadeite, 175
 Japanese porcelain, 44
 Johnson, Mark, 12
 Justo Sierra 33 (excavated house lot), 71–72, 90–91
 archaeological patterns, 161 botanical remains in, 78
 ceramic evidence, 93
 faunal remains in, 77–78
- k'angi* (green), 172
 Kepecs, Susan, 24–25
- la traza*, 69–70, 95
 Lake Xaltocan, 104
 draining of, 151
 Lakoff, George, 12
 Langlois, Charles-Victor, 9
 Late Postclassic metalworkers, 170
 lead-glazed earthenware, 126, 127
 “Letters and People to Spain”, 194 Licenciado Verdad 8 (excavated house lot), 74–75
 archaeological patterns, 161
 ceramic evidence, 89, 90
 lithic cutting tools, 137
 lithics, 41
 Lockhart, James, 15–16
 long-term studies, 133
 Lucas, Gavin, 22
 Luján López, Leonardo, 158
- macahuitl*, 138
macanas, 138
 McCormack, Sabine, 23
 maize, 116, 147–148, 150–151 majolica, 81–85, 154–183. See also ceramics archaeological patterns, 87–92
 common-grade, 84
 consumption patterns and, 160 contexts of use, 179–180 critiques and possibilities, 156–159 completeness of concept, 156 conceptual definition, 156 economic and technological explanations, 156–157 elite’s use of, 198–199 European, 161–162
 fine-grade, 84
 fragments collected in Xaltocan, 160–161 indigenous people’s use of, 180–183, 198–199 key characteristics of, 159–160
 color, 164–166
 price, 163–164
 provenance, 161–162
 quality, 163–164
 shine, 170–171
 patterns of exchange, 200
 place of manufacture, 82–83
 quality of, 83–85
 symbolism, 162
 uses of, 84, 85
 in Xaltocan, 127–128, 159–161
mano, 147
 Márquez, Salvador, 38
masa (ground maize dough), 147 material culture, 4, 6, 27 materiality in Spanish colonies, 184–201 interpretive strategies, 184–188 analogical reasoning in history, 185 circularity in analogical reasoning, 187–188 critical reading and interpretation of documents, 185–186 evidence, 185
 proof, 187
 synecdoche in archeology, 185 use of data, 186–187 material culture in indigenous towns, 195–201 adoption of metals, 198
 adoption of Spanish material culture, 196 chipped-stone tool production, 197

- materiality in Spanish colonies (cont.)
 continuity in settlement patterns, 196–197
 indigenous interpretations of imported material goods, 199–200 majolica, 198–199
 obsidian procurement, 197–198
 patterns of exchange, 200 power struggle, 199 material worlds of colonizers, 189–195 adoption of indigenous culture, 191–192
 ceramic evidence, 190–191
 clothing, 189–190
 consumption patterns, 192–193
 probate inventories, 189, 190 matlalli (dark blue), 171–172 matlaltic (dark green), 171–172
Matrícula de Huejotzincó, 28–29
Matrícula de Tributos, 109
 Méndez, Padre Luis, 75
 Mesoamerica, 174
mestizos, 48
Metahistory (White), 12–13
 metal tools and ornaments, 145–147, 198 metaphors, 12
 archaeologists' use of, 13–14 historians' use of, 13–14 metate, 147
 metonymy, 13
 Metropolitan Cathedral, 69, 71, 75
 Mexico, 104, 174
 Mexico City, 4, 26
 decedents, 45
 rebuilding, 68
 Spanish households in, 67–71
 Mexico-Tenochtitlan, 26 conquest of (1521), 4, 67–68 Ming Dynasty, 85
 mixing epistemologies, 3
 Mixtec pottery, 167
 Mixteca, 28–29
 Mixteca Alta, 146
 Moctezuma, 54
 Moctezuma, Eduardo Matos, 158
 mulattoes, 48
 Nahuas, 70, 95, 165, 170, 171, 195
 Nahuatl, 6, 171–172
 narratives, 1
 forms, 10–11
 historical, 11
 plots, 11
 Nazareo, Pablo, 120
 Neolithic Age, 132
 New Spain, 68
 casta system in, 56
 poverty and need in, 27 territories in, 26
ñ'ixki (blue), 172
nixtamal, 147
 nixtamalization, 147
nk'angi (blue), 171–172
nk'angi (green), 172
nk'anti (green), 172
nochtli (medium green), 171–172
 Núñez, Hernán, 37
 Oaxaca, 45
 obsidian, 123–125
 market exchange, 123–125 political system and control of, 125, 197–198
 sharpness, 137
 sources of, 123, 125, 142
 obsidian blades, 141
 Orinoco, 182
 Orinoco region, 18
 Ortiz, Antonio, 66
 Otomis, 106, 165
 Otumba
 glazed pottery, 127
 obsidian from, 142, 143–144
 spindle whorls from, 135
 Oyameles-Zaragoza, 143–144
 Ozumbilla, 120
 Pachuca, 142, 143–144
Palacio Real, 70
 Paleolithic Age, 137
 Pérez de la Serna, Archbishop Juan, 74 Pérez de Zamora, Nicolás, 110 petates, 120
pinolli, 116, 118–119
plombajina, 88
 plots, 11
 Postclassic Mesoamerican ceramics, 166–167
 pottery, 42, 79–81
 pre-Columbian technologies, 132 price of majolica, 163–164 prices of items, 44–45

- prismatic blades, 137–138
 probate inventories, 36–38, 189 auction records, 38 compared with archaeological data, 38–45, 190
 buyers, 44
 dating, 40–41
 items mentioned, 41–42
 owner identification, 39–40
 prices, 44–45
 provenience, 43–44
 quality of objects, 42–43
 content of, 48–49
 decedents, 45–48
 European goods in, 52
 indigenous items in, 50–51 place of manufacture of items, 49–52 quality of items in, 52–57 stock lists, 37–38
 wills, 37
 Programa de Arqueología Urbana (PAU), 70–71 Puebla, 45
pueblo de indios, 104
pulque, 77

 quetzal feathers, 176–177 quilpalli (intense green), 171–172 quiltic (light green), 171–172

 Red Ware ceramics, 79
 archaeological patterns, 87–92
 production of, 127
 sacrifice imagery in, lack of, 166 religious items, in probate inventories, 48 Ribera, Luis de, 74
 Robin, Cynthia, 21
 Rodríguez, Cristóbal, 37
 Rodríguez, Melchor, 66
 Rome, 23

 sacredness and shine, 171
 Sagrario, 71, 75
 Sagrario Metropolitano, 175 sampling theory, 23
 San Antonio Zoyatzingo, 97
 Santa María, Antonio de, 111–112
 Santa Teresa la Antigua convent, 74 scrapers, 139
 second-level analogies in archaeology, 18 Seignobos, Charles, 9

 serpentine, 175
 shine, 170–171
 slave-owners, 49
 slaves, in probate inventories, 49 social classes, 28
 social history, 3–4
 social status, 28
 socio-economic status of colonizers, 34–35
 Soria, Diego de, 71
 Spanish colonizers
 adoption of indigenous goods by, 34, 191–192
 admiration for craftsmanship in, 191
 hospitality and political negotiation in, 192
 relations of production in, 192 belongings left by, 33–62 content of inventories, 48–49
 decedents, 45–48
 inventories of, 36–38
 place of manufacture, 49–52
 quality of, 52–57
 feasts, 95–96
 hospitality by offering indigenous foods, 95–96 Iberian diet, 78–79
 indigenous food and, 77 marriage with indigenous elites, 96 material lives of, 26 socio-economic status of, 34–35 views on indigenous items, 57–58
 Spanish conquistadors
 conquest of Mexico-Tenochtitlan, 67–68
 food, 76
 Spanish households, 67–71
 Donceles 97 (excavated house), 72–74
 Guatemala 38 (excavated house), 66
 Justo Sierra 33 (excavated house), 71–72
 Licenciado Verdad 8 (excavated house), 74–75 Mexican plant remains in, 77 spindle whorls, 134–136 stock lists, 37–38. See also probate inventories Stone Age, 132, 137
 structural corroboration, 102 symbols in ceramics, 166 syncretism, 195
 synecdoche, 13, 21–22
 in archaeology, 185
 in history, 14–17

- Tacuba, 109, 119
 Tapia, Andrés de, 66
 Tecalco, 111
 technologies, 131–153
 chipped-stone tools, 137–144
 grinding stones, 147–151
 introduction of, 29
 lithic cutting tools, 136–137
 metal tools and ornaments, 145–147
 pre-Columbian, 132
 Templo Mayor, 68, 75, 162, 172–173, 174, 175, 189
 Tenanitlan, 111
 Tenayuca, 106
 Tenochtitlan, 96, 107, 109, 165, 166–170, 173–174
 Teoloyucan, 110
Tepictoton, 177–178
tequisquitl, 115, 120
 terra sigillata pottery, 93 Texcoco, 109, 119
texotli (sky blue), 171–172
 Tezozomoc, 175
 Thompson, R., 19
 Tipu (Belize), colonial burials in, 20 título primordial (primordial title), 97–99 Tlacopan, 109
 Tlacotzin, 69
tlaliac (turquoise blue), 171–172
 Tlaloc, 176, 177
 Tlatelolco, 15–16, 111, 141, 165
tlatoani, 116
 Tlaxcala, 66, 109
tochpalatl (aqua blue), 171–172 tonalli, 170
 Tonanitla, 111
 Tonatiuh, 171
 tools
 chipped-stone tools, 137–144
 lithic cutting tools, 136–137
 metal tools and ornaments, 145–147
 obsidian. See obsidian
 in probate inventories, 48
 weavers, 55
topos, 193
 Toribio de Motolinía, 49
 Torquemada, 138
 “traídos”, 52, 55
 transculturation, 195
 transition porcelain, 86
 trash pits, 71
 tribute cloth, 50–51
 Tulancingo, 45, 142
 Tultepec, 110
tzilacaiutli, 178
tzilacayotli, 178–179
tzoalli, 177
 Ucareo, 142, 143–144
 Viceregal Palace, 70
 viceroys, 27
 Villa-Señor y Sánchez, Jose Antonio de, 114
 weavers, 50–51
 tools, 55
 White, Hayden, 12–13
 wills, 37
 Worm, Ole, 8
 written records, 6
 Xaltocan, 4, 6, 101–130
 abandonment and repopulation of, 107–108 agriculture, 116
 archaeology and history in, 103–106
 Aztec conquest of, 142–143
 Brumfiel’s research on, 105–106
 ceramic evidence, 120–122
 colonial economy, 120–122 colonial period, 119 commoners in, 111–112
 congregación of, 109–110 cycle of property and poverty in, 120–122 decline in living standards after Aztec conquest, 116–118 demography, 112–114
 DNA study of individuals buried in, 108–109 economic situation by end of 16th century, 120 elites, 110–111, 120
 as an encomienda of Alonso de Ávila, 110 impoverishment at the beginning of 16th century, 119–120 location of, 104
 majolica in, 127–128, 159–161
 occupation of, 105 political history of, 106–112

Index

241

- population decline under Aztec rule, 114
- population growth and decline, 113
- pre-Hispanic archaeological
 - assemblages, 105–106
- production in, 114–122
- self-sufficiency in 10th century CE,
 - 115
- Spanish conquest of, 109
- spindle whorls from, 135
- trade in, 123–128
 - ceramics, 125–128
 - obsidian, 123–125
 - tribute obligations, 109
 - war with Cuauhtitlan, 107, 142–143
- Xiuhtecuhtli (Aztec god of fire), 172
- xiuhitic* (turquoise), 171–172
- xiuhuitl* (blue), 171–172
- Xoloc, 111
- xoloitzcuintles*, 76–77
- Zacuaitipan, 143–144
- Zapotec religion, 21
- Zoyatzingo title, 97–99
- Zumpango, 110, 119