

INDEX

- 1975 crisis, see constitutional crisis of 1975
- Aboriginal native title case, 183
 Aboriginals Ordinance case, 179
 Ackerman, Bruce, 161
 American constitution,
 Australian constitution and, see
 constitution
 'codified', 17
 constitutional argument, modalities of, 133
 dualism, 31
 federalism, 31, 33
 individual rights, 156
 judicial appointments, 120
 judicial review, 119
 monism, 30
 popular sovereignty, 138
 separation of powers, 31
 stealth appointments to judiciary, 125 appropriation Bills, see financial supply
 Australia Acts 1986, 149
 Australian constitution and, see
 constitution
- bank nationalization, 163
 Bobbitt, Philip, 139
 Brennan Court, see Brennan, Sir Gerard
 Brennan, Sir Gerard
 Chief Justice, 176
 High Court leadership, 176
 judicial philosophy, 176
 British constitution
 Australian colonial governments, 199
- Australian constitution and, see
 constitution
 'constitutional' status of laws, 24
 electors' rights, 29
 individual rights, 156
 judicial appointments, 119, 120
 judicial review, 119, 189
 monism, 27, 84
 parliamentary sovereignty, 136
 popular sovereignty, 138
 republicanism and, 3, 196
 responsible government, 33
 'uncodified', 17
 Bryce, Quentin, 59
- case law
 parliamentary sovereignty, 177
 popular sovereignty, 139
 changes to constitution, see informal constitutional change
 Chifley government
 bank nationalization, 163 expansion of Commonwealth power, 65
 federalism, 70
 Whitlam's continuity with, 67, 103
 Citizens for Democracy, 208 clear statement principle, see interpretation
 'codified' constitution, see federalism
 colonial governments, 199
 common law rights, protection of, 160, 190
 Commonwealth legislative power expansion, 64
 external affairs, 64 legacy of 1975 crisis, 236

- communist influence in Labor Party, 105
- 'community' popular sovereignty and, 172
- constitution
 - absence of revolutionary tradition, 199
 - Australia Acts 1986, 149
 - authority, 138, 140
 - beginning of, 199
 - British roots, 38, 150
 - change, see informal constitutional change
 - 'codified', 19
 - Commonwealth legislative power, expansion, 64
 - competing theories, 83
 - constitutional role of 'the people', 85
 - continuity, 5
 - conventions, 21
 - designing of, 38
 - dual British/American heritage, 2, 11, 12, 32, 38, 85, 156, 238
 - dualism, see dualism
 - federalism, see federalism
 - higher lawmaking, see higher lawmaking
 - incremental change by judicial review, 111
 - incremental change by republic, 214
 - individual rights, 148, 155
 - interpretation, 19, 178
 - lack of debate on, 34
 - lawmaking, see higher lawmaking
 - legal equality, doctrine of, 157
 - making of constitutional law, 32
 - monism, see monism
 - orthodox view, 136
 - popular sovereignty, see popular sovereignty
 - pre-constitution colonial governments, 199
 - representation-based theory, 186
 - representative government, principle of, 154
 - sources, 19
 - theory, see constitutional theory
 - 'uncodified', 19
- Constitutional Commission (1985–1988), 212
- Constitutional Convention (1998), 220, 226, 227
- constitutional crisis of 1975
 - aberrational politics as cause, 37, 44, 54, 57, 58, 62
 - about, 1, 36
 - author's analytical approach, 11, 37
 - clash of monist and dualist theories, 83
 - conclusions as to, 90, 232
 - constitutional design as cause, 37, 54
 - constitutional legacy, 236
 - content of current study, 10
 - counterfactual resolutions, 85
 - as debate on constitution, 34
 - election of 1975, 54, 86, 87
 - High Court's role, 59
 - legal practice, 58
 - Loans Affair, 49
 - Murphy Affair and, see Murphy, Lionel
 - ordinariness of 1975 election, 87
 - popular sovereignty, see popular sovereignty
 - post-crisis continuity of issues, 3, 12, 85, 89
 - questions of, 2, 4
 - republicanism, see referendum on republic; republicanism
 - scholarly analyses, 54
 - Senate vacancy, 48
 - significance, 8
 - standard narratives, 4, 37, 54, 62
 - Whitlam government dismissal, 1, 36, 53, 58, 86, 208
- constitutional design as cause, 54
- constitutional disagreements
 - modalities of, 133, 139
 - value of, 62
- constitutional law, see constitution; constitutional theory
- constitutional theory
 - aims, 4
 - American constitution, see American constitution
 - British constitution, see British constitution

- 'codified' constitutions, 17
- conceptualisations, 15
- dualism, see dualism
- Howard's theory, see Howard, John
- Mason's theory, see Mason, Sir Anthony
- monism, see monism
- Murphy's theory, see Murphy, Lionel
- secondary rules, 132
- sources, 15
- 'uncodified' constitutions, 17
- Whitlam's theory, see Whitlam, Gough
- construction, see interpretation
- counter-majoritarian institutions
 - dualism, 79, 84
 - Governor-General as, 76
 - higher lawmaking role, see higher lawmaking
 - monism, 27
 - popular opposition to, 89
 - Senate as, 76, 84
- criminal sentencing parity, 157
- Crommelin, Michael, 57
- Curtin government
 - expansion of Commonwealth power, 65
 - federalism, 70
 - Whitlam's continuity with, 67, 103
- Deane, Sir William, 222
- delegated legislation, 142
- Dicey, A.V., 27, 30, 99, 140
- diplomatic relations, see external affairs
- Dixon, Sir Owen
 - Commonwealth external affairs powers, 69
 - High Court leadership, 131
 - judicial lawmaking, 163
 - parliamentary sovereignty theory, 136
 - ultimate authority of law, 137
- double dissolution
 - conditions for, 43
 - election of 1974, 1, 47, 75, 87
 - supply deadlocks, 43, 77
- dualism
 - clash with monism, 83
 - continuous authority of the people, 83
 - counter-majoritarian institutions, see counter-majoritarian institutions
 - 'Direct Election Model' of Presidential election, 223
 - dualist democracy, 30
 - federalism, see federalism
 - 'fundamental common law liberties', protection of, 161
 - 'Hayden Model' of direct election of President, 223
 - High Court, 131
 - internal viewpoint of law, 140
 - models of Presidential election, 221
 - Murphy Affair, 124, 129, 192
 - 'New Federalism' policy, 81
 - popular sovereignty, 130, 140
 - referendum on republic, 228
 - Senate's dualist theory of legitimacy, 79
 - 1972, 44
 - 1974, see double dissolution
 - 1975, 54, 86, 87
 - 2010, 59
 - electors' rights, 29
 - mandate for higher lawmaking, see higher lawmaking
 - popular sovereignty, see popular sovereignty
 - representation reinforcement, 185
 - state electoral distribution case, 177
- Ely, John Hart, 185
- equality
 - Aboriginals Ordinance case, 179
 - legal equality, doctrine of, 157
- external affairs Commonwealth power, 64
- external viewpoint of law, 132, 135, 136, 140, 173
- federalism
 - Chifley government, 70, 103
 - 'codified' constitution, see federalism
 - Curtin government, 70
 - fiscal federalism, 74
 - higher lawmaking, 31
 - judicial appointments, 118

- federalism (cont.)
 judicial review and, 99
 'New Federalism' policy, 75, 81
 written constitution, 19 financial loans scandal, see Loans Affair
 financial supply and double dissolution procedure, 43, 77
 monism, 78
 supply deadlocks, resolving of, 43 withholding of, 1, 37, 46, 47, 80
 fiscal federalism, 74
 foreign relations, see external affairs Fraser, Malcolm
 caretaker government, 54
 dualism, 84
 election victory 1975, 54, 86, 87
 'New Federalism' policy, 75, 81
 withholding of supply, 48, 53, 80 free speech, see political communication, implied freedom of fundamental rights, see individual rights
- Gageler, Stephen, 101, 122
 Galligan, Brian, 2
 Gallop, Geoff, 224
 Goods and Services Tax, 181
 government
 Commonwealth legislative power,
 expansion, 64
 financial supply, see financial supply
 Governor-General, see also Bryce, Quentin; Kerr, Sir John conflict of interest, 59
 as counter-majoritarian institution, 76
 double dissolution election, 43
 legal practice, 58
 powers, 39
 republicanism and, 209, 210, 217
- Hart, H.L.A., 132
 Hasluck, Sir Paul, 60
 Hawke government, see Hawke, Bob Hawke, Bob
- constitutional theory and practice, 167
 distance from Whitlam, 167
 Mason appointment, 167
 republicanism, 211
 Hayden, Bill
 'Hayden Model' of direct election of President, 221, 223
 popular sovereignty, 223
 head of state, see Governor-General;
 President
 High Court
 1975 crisis, 59 appointments, see judicial appointments break with British constitution, 204
 Brennan Court, see Brennan,
 Sir Gerard
 case law, see case law
 Commonwealth legislative power,
 expansion, 65
 constitutional interpretation, 19, 178
 Dixon Court, 131 see Dixon, Owen
 dual British/American heritage, 12
 Howard's approach, 183
 judicial lawmaking, 163
 judicial review, expansion of, 3
 Mason Court, see Mason, Sir Anthony monism/dualism controversy, 131
 Murphy affair, see Murphy, Lionel Murphy's posthumous influence, 130
 parliamentary sovereignty, 131
 popular sovereignty, 130, 234
 public opinion and, 171
 ruling on Joint Sitting, 47
 higher lawmaking
 Australian system, 32
 competing theories, 63
 counter-majoritarian institutions,
 role of, 11
 dualism, 30
 electoral mandate for, 10, 11, 12, 72, 87
 federalism, 31
 informal constitutional change, see informal constitutional change ordinary law as 'higher law', 63
 Whitlam's agenda, 11, 34, 63, 115, 129

- Whitlam's monist theory of
 - legitimacy, 72
- Horne, Donald, 206, 209
- House of Representatives
 - British constitutional form, 2
 - conflict with Senate, 41
 - constitution and, 40
 - constitutional interpretation, 19
 - electoral mandate for higher
 - lawmaking, see higher lawmaking
 - primacy claim, 13, 84
- Howard, John
 - constitutional theory and practice, 3, 13, 182
 - federalism, 181
 - and High Court, 183
 - monarchism, 219
 - monism, 130, 181, 182, 220
 - Murphy Affair, 127
 - referendum on republic, see referendum on republic
 - republicanism, 219
 - Whitlam's constitutional successor, 13, 130, 181
- human rights, see individual rights
- individual rights
 - American constitution, 156
 - British constitution, 156
 - clear statement principle, 187
 - 'fundamental common law liberties', protection of, 160
 - guarantee of equality, 157
 - monism, 187
 - natural law, 160
 - popular sovereignty, 148, 155
 - 'rights-foundationalism', 161
- informal constitutional change
 - author's analytical approach, 10, 14
 - competing theories, 2, 10
 - definition, 14
 - higher lawmaking, see higher lawmaking
 - identification, 15, 22
 - legitimacy, 1, 2, 9, 10, 26
 - by ordinary law, 22
 - popular sovereignty and, see popular sovereignty
 - possibility, 15, 22
 - questions of constitutional change, 2
 - reception process, 24
 - standard narratives, 2
- internal viewpoint of law, 136, 137, 140, 144, 173
- interpretation
 - clear statement principle, 187, 189
 - informal constitutional change, 19
 - traditional principles, 178
- Joint Sitting
 - circumstances for, 43
 - High Court ruling, 47
- judicial appointments
 - American constitution, 120
 - British constitution, 119, 120
 - federalism/responsible government debate and, 118
 - independent body, 122
 - judicial review and, 124
 - 'Murphy Affair', see Murphy, Lionel
 - politicisation, 126
 - stealth appointments, 125
 - transformative appointment, purpose of, 113
 - Whitlam's approach to, 102, 103
- judicial lawmaking, 163
- judicial review
 - American constitution, 119
 - British constitution, 119, 189
 - expansion by High Court, 3
 - federalism and, 99
 - incremental constitutional change by, 111
 - judicial appointments and, 124
 - judicial lawmaking, 163
 - legality, principle of, 189
 - monism, 29
 - non-legal influences, 163
 - parliamentary override, 189
 - Whitlam's opposition to, 74, 99
- juristic facts as ultimate authority of law, 137
- Keating, Paul
 - Prime Minister, 214
 - Republic Advisory Committee, 214

- republicanism, 214, 216
 - Whitlam government dismissal, 218
- Kerr, Sir John
 - consultation with Mason, 170
 - Hasluck's critique, 60
 - Whitlam government dismissal, 1, 36, 53, 76, 86, 170
 - withholding of supply, 53
- Labor Party
 - Chifley government, see Chifley government
 - communist influence, 105
 - constitutional impediments to policy, 67
 - Curtin government, see Curtin government
 - division after 1945, 105
 - Hawke government, see Hawke, Bob
 - Keating government, see Keating, Paul
 - Whitlam government, see Whitlam, Gough
- law
 - constitutional law, see constitution; constitutional theory
 - external viewpoint, 132, 135, 136, 140, 173
 - internal viewpoint, 132, 136, 137, 140, 144, 173
 - juristic facts as ultimate authority, 137
 - ordinary law, see ordinary law
 - practical viewpoint, 132, 136
 - rule of recognition, 133
 - secondary rules, 132
 - statements 'about' the law, 133, 135, 136, 138, 140
 - statements 'of' the law, 133, 136, 138, 140
 - theoretical viewpoint, 132
- lawmaking, constitutional, see higher lawmaking
- legal equality, see equality
- legality, principle of, 189
- Lindell, Geoffrey, 57, 126, 149, 173
- Lionel Murphy Memorial Lecture, 213
- Loans Affair
 - about, 49
 - Murphy Affair and, 107
- Lucy, Richard, 33
- 'Madisonian' republicanism, 197, 202, 206
- making of constitutional law, see higher lawmaking
- Mason, Sir Anthony
 - author's analytical approach, 12
 - Chief Justice, 167
 - common law rights, protection of, 190
 - courts and public opinion, 171
 - earlier career, 165
 - High Court leadership, 3, 164
 - individual rights, 152, 169
 - orthodoxy, 165
 - parliamentary supremacy, 169
 - popular sovereignty theory, 13, 130, 155, 156
 - responsible government and representative government, 155
 - retirement, 176
 - transformative approach, 168
 - Whitlam government dismissal, 170
 - withholding of supply, 53
- McGinty, Jim, 177
- McKenna, Mark, 208
- modalities of, 139
- monarchism, 205
- monism
 - clash with dualism, 83
 - clear statement principle, 189
 - external viewpoint of law, 140
 - High Court, 131
 - Howard's theory and practice, 130, 181, 182
 - implied freedom of political communication, 153
 - individual rights, 187
 - models of Presidential appointment, 225
 - monist democracy, 27
 - periodic authority of the people, 75
 - popular sovereignty, 130, 140
 - referendum on republic, 230

- responsible government, see
 responsible government
- Whitlam's constitutional theory, 35, 72, 83, 142, 210
- withholding of supply, 78
- Murphy, Lionel, 115
 - Attorney-General, 106
 - author's analytical approach, 12
 - constitutional significance of appointment, 109, 118
 - constitutionality rulings, 144
 - continuities with 1975 crisis, 124, 127
 - death, 12, 126
 - delegated legislation, 142
 - dismissal attempts ('Murphy Affair'), 12, 91, 93, 124, 234
 - dualism, 124, 129, 192
 - earlier career, 105
 - High Court appointment, 3, 12, 103
 - individual rights in Constitution, 148
 - John Howard and, 127
 - judicial lawmaking, 117, 166
 - judicial performance, 115
 - Loans Affair, 107
 - Mason Court, 130
 - Memorial Lecture, 213
 - opposition to appointment, 107
 - popular sovereignty theory, 12, 117, 130, 141, 142, 172, 174, 192
 - Senate Committee system, 142
 - Senate powers, 143
 - Senator, 142
 - and standard narrative of constitutional crisis, 97
 - as transformative appointment, 103, 105
 - Whitlam's approach to
 appointment, 99
 - Whitlam's constitutional theory in relation, 129, 142
 - and Whitlam's higher lawmaking agenda, 111, 115
- native title case, 183
- natural law individual rights and, 160
- 'New Federalism' policy, 75, 81
- non-discrimination, see legal equality, doctrine of
- ordinary law
 - constitution distinguished, 14, 15
 - 'constitutional' status, 23
 - dualism, 30
 - as 'higher law', 63
 - informal constitutional change, see
 informal constitutional change
 - ordinariness of 1975 election, 87
 - as proposed constitutional law, 25
 - as source of constitutional law, 19
- Parliament
 - House of Representatives, see House of Representatives
 - Senate, see Senate
- parliamentary sovereignty
 - British constitution, 136
 - clear statement principle, 187, 189
 - legal context for resurgence, 176
 - legal sovereignty, 29
 - monism, 27
 - orthodox view, 136
 - political constraints, 29
 - political context for resurgence, 181
- parliamentary supremacy Mason's view, 169
- political communication, implied
 freedom of, 151, 178, 179
- popular sovereignty
 - ability to distinguish constitutional and ordinary politics, 87
 - apogee, 151
 - Australia Acts 1986, 149
 - author's analytical approach, 131
 - case law, 139
 - claims 'about', 140
 - claims 'of', 140
 - 'community' and, 172
 - competing theories, 10, 34
 - concept, 28
 - conclusions as to, 192
 - constitution in relation, 135, 138
 - and constitutional legitimacy, 26
 - as constitutional principle, 130

- popular sovereignty, see popular sovereignty (cont.)
 constitutional role of 'the people', 85
 constitution-making, 32
 continuities with 1975 crisis, 175
 continuous authority of the people, 83
 definition, 26
 delegated legislation, 143
 dualism, 30, 130, 140
 elections, see elections
 free speech, 151
 High Court, see High Court
 judicial lawmaking, 163
 legal equality, doctrine of, 157
 legal form, 28
 as legal principle, 130, 132, 144, 173
 legal sovereignty, 31
 Mason's theory, see Mason, Sir Anthony
 monism, 27, 33, 75, 130, 140
 Murphy's theory, see Murphy, Lionel
 'New Federalism' and, 83 as open question, 131
 opposition to counter-majoritarian institutions, 89 parliamentary sovereignty and, 28
 periodic authority of the people, 75 political form, 28
 public opinion and, 172
 representative government, principle of, 154 practical viewpoint of law, 132
 President
 'Bi-partisan Appointment Model', 221, 226 choice of selection model, 226
 'Direct Election Model', 221, 223 direct election, support for, 227, 230 dualist models of election, 221
 'Hayden Model' of direct election, 221, 223
 'McGarvie Model' of appointment, 221
 monist models of appointment, 225 Prime Ministers' portraits, 4 public opinion, High Court and, 171 Pugh, Clifton, 5
 referendum on republic
 author's analytical approach, 13, 195
 Constitutional Convention (1998), 220, 226, 227
 continuities with 1975 crisis, 13, 195, 230, 235
 dualist concerns, 228
 dualist model of republic, 221
 Howard's monist approach, 227
 monism's defeat, 230
 'No' case, 228
 President, selection of, see President reasons for rejection, 195 rejection of republic, 3, 13, 195, 227, 230 republican nationalism, failure of, 229
 'Yes' case, 229
 representation, see elections representative government, principle, 154
 Republic Advisory Committee, 214
 republican nationalism, 197
 republicanism
 absence of revolutionary tradition, 199
 break with British constitution, 202
 British roots, 200
 'Britishness' of Australia questioned, 206
 Citizens for Democracy, 208
 Constitutional Commission (1985–1988), 212
 continuities with 1975 crisis, 235
 developments after 1975, 211
 government forms, 199
 Hawke government, 211
 Keating government, 214
 'Madisonian' republicanism, 196, 197, 202, 206 national identity, 202, 213, 216, 219 popular support, 211
 pre-constitution colonial governments, 199
 referendum, see referendum on republic Republic Advisory Committee, 214 republic as incremental constitutional change, 214

- republican nationalism, 196, 197
- Turnbull's Lionel Murphy Memorial Lecture, 213
- Whitlam government, 204
- Whitlam government dismissal, 208
- responsible government
 - concept, 39
 - federalism and, 33, 38, 65, 101
 - fiscal imbalance, 75
 - judicial appointments, 118, 120
 - representative government and, 155
 - republicanism and, 201
 - Whitlam's use of, 103
- rights, see individual rights
- rule of recognition, 133
- secondary rules, 132
- Senate
 - American constitutional form, 2
 - casual vacancies, filling of, 48
 - Committee system, 142
 - conflict with House of Representatives, 41
 - constitution, 40
 - constitutional interpretation, 19
 - constitutional preservation, 2
 - constitutional theory and practice, 11, 35
 - dualism, 35
 - dualist theory of legitimacy, 79
 - elective character, 76
 - opposition to Whitlam government, 1, 11, 36, 45
 - popular opposition to counter-majoritarian power, 89
 - power of, 41
 - tax bills, 143
 - withholding of supply, see financial supply
- Senate as, 84
- Senate opposition to, 11, 35, 36, 45
- separation of powers, federalism and Shapiro, Scott, 132
- sovereignty, see parliamentary sovereignty; popular sovereignty
- standard narratives narratives of 1975 crisis, 37, 54, 62
- state electoral distribution case, 177
- statutory construction, see interpretation
- stealth appointments to judiciary, 125
- supply, see financial supply
- taxation
 - fiscal federalism, 74
 - Goods and Services Tax, 181
 - tax bills, 143
- theoretical viewpoint of law, 132
- Toohey, John
 - dualism, 161
 - 'fundamental common law liberties' protection of, 161
 - popular sovereignty theory, 159
- treaty-making, see external affairs
- Turnbull, Malcolm, 213
- United Kingdom, see British constitution
- United States, see American constitution
- voting, see elections
- Whitlam, Gough
 - advocates constitutional change, 68
 - break with British constitution, 204
 - Chifley government, 67, 103
 - on constitutional impediments to Labor policy, 67
 - constitutional innovation, 2, 71, 204, 233
 - constitutional theory and practice, 1, 11, 34, 100, 142
 - Curtin government, 67, 103
 - dismissal, see constitutional crisis of 1975
 - dualism, 84
 - election defeat 1975, 54, 86, 87
 - election victory 1972, 44
 - fiscal federalism, 74
 - formal constitutional amendment attempts, 68
 - Hawke government and, 167
 - higher lawmaking agenda, 11, 34, 63, 111, 115, 129

- Whitlam, Gough (cont.)
 Howard as constitutional successor, 13, 130, 181
 judicial appointments, approach to, 102, 103
 judicial review, opposition to, 99
 monarchism, 194, 205
 monism, 35, 72, 83, 142, 210
 Murphy Affair, see Murphy, Lionel popular sovereignty theory, 142
 portrait, 5
 reform programme, 44, 63, 72
 republicanism, 194, 204, 210
 responsible government, 75, 103
 Senate opposition to, 1, 11, 35, 36, 45
 withholding of supply, 52, 78
Winterton, George, 54, 123, 160, 162, 173, 225
withholding of supply, see financial supply