

Index

- accommodation of rising states
 - adjusted power approach, 132–139, 222
 - adjusted power factors, 7–8, 26–27, 132
 - declining states cost shifting, 140–141
 - declining states' tendency, 133–139
 - definition, 222
 - G20 as delegatory, 196
 - G20 informality, 203–206
 - G20 not limited accommodation, 194–196, 243–244
 - IMF reform, 128–133
 - institutional funding, 29–30, 36–37
 - institutional legitimacy, 45–46, 131–132
 - institutional purpose, 7, 33–36, 44, 133–139, 191, 238, 243–244, 246
 - institutional rules, 30–31, 37–40
 - limited accommodation tendency, 31–33, 42–43, 160–161, 166–167, 222, See also limited accommodation
 - non-leading state intentions, 44
 - position enhancement and, 116, 186–189
 - strategy behind, 29–31
 - unevenness of, 222
- accountability
 - G20 as delegatory, 215–216
 - IMF autonomy and, 155–156, 244
 - IMF funding and, 137
 - IMF reforms and, 133–137, 244
- Acheson, Dean, 56–57, 58, 59
- adjusted power approach
 - abstract, 7, 26, 189
 - accommodation of rising states, 132–139, 222
 - assumptions, 28–29
 - formal political power, 219–220
 - IMF cost shifting, 140–141
 - institution new vs. mature, 27, 40
 - institutionalist versus, 47
 - institutions filtering power, 49–50
 - ITO equal voting, 87–88
 - key factors of, 7–8, 26–27, 132, 217
 - power-based versus, 47, 49–50
 - rules and IMF reform, 132–133
 - World Bank and IMF differences, 56
 - World Bank IBRD, 174–178
 - World Bank limited accommodation, 174–183
 - World Bank reforms, 160–161, 189–190
- advanced economies
 - as category of state, 117
 - emerging economies tensions, 243–247
 - G20 economic development, 201–203
 - G20 working groups, 199
 - IBRD and rising states, 174–178
 - IBRD financing IDA, 178–181
 - IBRD loan price increase, 169–170
 - IDA funding and decision-making, 170–171
 - IMF foreign exchange reserves, 131–132
 - IMF GDP PPP, 129, 130
 - IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 - IMF reform and poorest countries, 145–146
 - IMF rising state scrutiny, 155–156
 - IMF vote reform, 126–127
 - voting power: GDP ratios, 153–154
 - World Bank and poorest countries, 188
 - World Bank borrower representation, 169
 - World Bank limited accommodation, 160–162, 166–167
 - World Bank share formula, 171
 - World Bank vote realignment, 164–166, 170, 188
 - World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172
- African states
 - G20 attendance, 205
 - World Bank Executive Board, 159, 183, 189, 235
- American Enterprise Institute, 177
- Argentina
 - GDP growth figures, 115
 - GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 - IMF basic votes by ED, 146

272 Index

- Argentina (cont.)
 IMF forum shopping, 135–136
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 IMF within-group divisions, 157
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank vote realignment, 170
 Asia Infrastructure Investment Bank, 136
 Asian financial crisis
 G20 formation, 193
 IMF loan conditions, 122–123
 Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), 136 assumptions of book analysis, 28–29
 Australia
 G20 economic development, 201
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 Austria IMF basic votes by ED, 146 autonomy
 IMF formal position and, 155–156 of institutions, 46–47 rising vs. declining states, 244 of staff, 162

 balance of payments (BOP), 104–106, 110, 236
 Bank. See World Bank
 Basel Committee on Banking Supervision, 207, 215
 Basel II recommendations, 215
 basic votes
 IMF, 61–62, 99, 118–119, 121, 145–151, 188
 IMF by Executive Director, 146
 World Bank, 61–62, 99, 159, 161, 162–163, 182–183, 188
 Belgium
 ITO equal voting, 94–95
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 Benelux countries. See Belgium; Luxembourg; Netherlands biofuel subsidies, 211–212
 Birsall, Nancy, 51–52 book analysis, 13–16, 28–29 Brazil capital controls, 156
 exports vs. US, 113
 foreign exchange reserves, 122–123
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129–130, 166–167
 Great Recession and, 115

 IBRD financing IDA, 179, 187
 IBRD share formula, 171
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128
 IMF forum shopping, 136
 IMF New Arrangements to Borrow, 78
 IMF quota re-adjustment, 156
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 ITO funding and voting, 103
 poverty, 118
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank borrower representation, 169
 World Bank client shares, 168–169
 World Bank vote realignment, 170
 Bretton Woods Formula, 64–66
 Bretton Woods system. See International Monetary Fund; International Trade Organization; World Bank
 BRICs. See Brazil; China; India; Russia
 Britain. See United Kingdom
 Brown, Gordon, 194–195
 Burundi foreign aid, 243
 Bush, George W., 195, 204

 Canada
 G20 economic development, 203
 G20 formation, 193, 204
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 IMF reforms and accountability, 134
 capital controls, 156, 230–231
 Chiang Mai Initiative, 136
 China
 adjusted power approach, 219–220
 Asia Infrastructure Investment Bank, 136
 capital controls, 156
 Chiang Mai Initiative, 136
 as EU investor, 114
 exports vs. US, 113
 formal political power, 10, 218–219
 G20 domination, 199–200
 G20 economic development, 201, 202
 G20 imbalances, 200
 G20 institution, 194
 G20 membership, 204
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129, 166–167
 Great Recession and, 115
 IBRD loan price increase, 169
 IBRD products, 176

- IBRD share formula, 171
- IDA funding, 187
- IMF autonomy, 155–156
- IMF basic votes by ED, 146
- IMF Executive Board, 127
- IMF New Arrangements to Borrow, 78
- IMF quota, 119
- IMF quota ad hoc increase, 70, 125
- IMF quota formula, 60–61
- IMF quota re-adjustment, 156
- IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
- IMF reforms and accountability, 134–135, 244
- IMF vote reform, 126–127
- ITO equal voting, 95
- literature on rise of states, 9
- poverty, 118
- Special Drawing Rights, 231–232
- voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
- World Bank borrowing, 177
- World Bank client shares, 168–169
- World Bank voices, 186
- World Bank vote realignment, 164–166, 170
- World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 25, 172
- Clayton, William
 - ITO Charter signatory, 90
 - ITO economic development, 104
 - ITO equal voting, 106–107
 - ITO funding and voting, 102–103
 - US economic importance, 93
- Cold War and ITO voting, 89, 98–99
- Colombia
 - IMF credit line, 229
 - World Bank leadership, 191–192, 233–234
- consensus in formal political power, 11
- Cooper, Richard, 124
- credibility. See institutional legitimacy
- currencies and Special Drawing Rights, 231–232
- dataset for quantitative analysis, 68–69
- declining states. See also advanced economies
 - accommodation of rising states, 29–31, 133, 222, See also accommodation of rising states
 - accommodation tendency, 133–139
 - declining importance of, 29, 115–116
 - distributional conflicts, 42–44
 - domestic politics and rising states, 225–226
 - G20 emerging vs. G7, 112–113
 - Great Recession and, 115
 - IBRD financing IDA, 178–181
 - IMF burden sharing, 137–141
 - IMF forum shopping, 135–137
 - IMF reform, 118–121, 154–155
 - limited accommodation by, 31–33, 133
 - literature on, 9
 - rising state tensions, 243–247
 - World Bank and rising states, 186–189, 191
 - World Bank limited accommodation, 160–162, 166–167
 - World Bank share formula, 171
 - World Bank vote realignment, 188
 - World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172
- democracy level of IMF member, 79
- Democratic Republic of the Congo IMF
 - basic votes, 146
- developing countries
 - as category of state, 117–118
 - IMF Executive Board, 119, 127–128, 140
 - IMF GDP PPP, 130
 - institutional rise of, 243
 - Voice Secondment Program, 183
 - World Bank voice, 186–187
- Development Assistance Committee (OECD), 79
- distributional conflicts, 42–44
- domestic politics
 - equal voting of ITO, 106–109, 225
 - international relations and, 225–226
 - limited accommodations, 10–11, 32–33, 225–226
 - two-level analysis, 109, 225
- economic power
 - advanced economies. See advanced economies
 - asymmetries, 3–4, 21–24
 - emerging economies. See emerging economies
 - institutionalist analyses, 47
 - lag in reforms, 3–4, 6, 8, 24–25, 49
 - poorest countries. See poorest countries
 - power-based analyses, 47–49
- Egypt IMF basic votes by ED, 146
- emerging economies
 - advanced economies tensions, 243–247
 - as category of state, 117–118
 - Chiang Mai Initiative, 136
 - definition, 1, 112
 - EM7 vs. G7, 113
 - Flexible Credit Line, 237
 - foreign exchange reserves, 114, 122–123

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-12094-5 - Power and Global Economic Institutions

Ayse Kaya

Index

More information274 Index

- emerging economies (cont.)
 - G20 economic development, 201–203, 238–239
 - G20 foreign aid, 242–243
 - G20 vs. G7, 112–113
 - G20 working groups, 199
 - GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129, 166
 - Great Recession and, 115, 117
 - IBRD and advanced economies, 174–178
 - IBRD financing IDA, 178–181, 246
 - IBRD loan price increase, 169–170
 - IDA funding and decision-making, 170–171
 - IMF and Asian financial crisis, 122–123
 - IMF autonomy, 155–156, 244
 - IMF Executive Board seats, 140
 - IMF loan reduction, 122
 - IMF quota, 119
 - IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 - IMF reform and poorest countries, 145–146
 - IMF reforms, 118–121, 151–156
 - IMF vote reform, 126–127
 - poorest states and, 243
 - poverty, 118, 247
 - Seoul Consensus on Development, 199, 201
 - Special Drawing Rights, 231–232
 - voting power: GDP ratios, 153–154
 - World Bank client shares, 168–169
 - World Bank default on loans, 174
 - World Bank focus, 177–178
 - World Bank limited accommodation, 160–162, 166–167
 - World Bank reforms, 165
 - World Bank share formula, 171
 - World Bank voices, 186–187
 - World Bank vote realignment, 188, 235–236
 - World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172
 - World Bank vs. private capital, 177
- equal voting of ITO
 - abstract, 86–87
 - adjusted power approach, 87–88
 - debate at creation, 90–92, 94–95, 106–109
 - escape clause, 96–98
 - funding and, 88
 - inequality of, 92–93
 - institutionalist analyses, 88, 110–111
 - inter-state negotiations, 90–92
 - ITO as formalized institution, 212
 - ITO creation intentions, 87–88
 - power-based analyses, 89, 98–99, 111
 - RDT micro- and macro-purpose, 88, 110
 - RDT voting power distribution, 88, 93–96
 - special majority, 98, 108
 - UK weighted voting, 91, 94, 95, 99, 106
 - US design intentions, 100–103
 - US domestic factors, 106–109, 225
 - US informal political power, 89, 92–93
 - US weighted voting, 91–92, 98, 104–109
 - weighted vs. equal voting, 2
- European Union (EU)
 - China as investor, 114
 - G20 bankers' remuneration, 200
 - G20 economic development, 203
 - G20 membership, 205
 - GDP growth figures, 115
 - IMF Executive Board seats, 119, 140
 - IMF GDP PPP, 130
 - IMF leadership, 233
 - IMF reforms and funding, 137
 - IMF special majorities, 140–141
 - IMF vote reform, 126–127
 - voting power: GDP ratios, 153–154
 - World Bank Executive Board, 189, 191
 - World Bank reforms and voting power, 164–166
 - World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172
- Financial Accounting Standards Board, 208
- Financial Stability Board (FSB)
 - G20 delegation, 207, 211
 - G20 ex-officio membership, 205
 - G20 expansion, 194
 - member power shift, 15
- Flaherty, James, 134
- Food Agricultural Organization, 206, 211–212
- food security, 206, 211–212
- foreign exchange reserves
 - emerging markets, 114, 122–123
 - IMF forum shopping, 136
 - IMF quota formula, 130–132
 - IMF staff influence, 144
- formal political power
 - accommodation, 30–31, 222, See also accommodation of rising states
 - accommodation and position enhancement, 116
 - adjusted power approach, 219–220
 - advanced economies vs. developing countries, 117
 - asymmetries, 3–4, 21–24, 47–49
 - consensus reality, 11
 - definition, 9–10

- domestic importance of, 225–226
- funding of institutions, 10–11, 36
- G20 as delegatory, 196, 210–212
- G20 as noncontentious, 194–195
- Great Recession, 223
- IMF formula reform, 123–125
- IMF G20 voting power, 141
- IMF quotas as, 62
- IMF reforms, 118–121, 123–127, 245
- informal versus, 224–225, See also
 - informal political power
- institution new vs. mature, 41
- lag in reforms, 3–4, 6, 8, 24–25, 49
- normative institutional legitimacy, 46
- poorest countries in IMF reform, 121, 237
- staff roles, 162
- US voting power losses, 248–249
- voting rights as, 9, 10, 61
- World Bank reforms, 159, 163
- France
 - G20 reform, 193
 - G20 Secretariat, 197
 - G20 vs. G7, 195
 - IMF Executive Board, 127–128
 - IMF quota formula, 60
 - IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 - World Bank Executive Board, 189
- funding of institutions. See institutional funding
- future research
 - declining and rising state tensions, 225–227
 - domestic politics and international relations, 225–226
 - formal vs. informal power, 224–225
 - International Monetary Fund, 156–157
 - quantitative analysis, 80–82
 - security institutions, 227
- G20
 - accomplishments, 194
 - accountability of, 215–216
 - bankers' remuneration, 200
 - Basel II recommendations, 215
 - as delegatory, 196, 206–212, 234
 - economic development, 201–203, 238–243
 - as egalitarian, 195–196, 197–203, 212, 244
 - ex-officio* members, 205
 - formed and reformed, 193, 214, 223
 - G7 as model, 201
 - G7 output versus, 112–113
 - G7 supplanted by, 193, 194
 - Great Recession and, 193, 234
 - IMF and World Bank versus, 195–196
 - IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 - IMF vote reform, 126–127, 141
 - informality of, 203–206
 - institutionalist analyses, 213–214
 - as irrelevant, 213
 - member power shift, 12, 15–16
 - membership selection, 204–205, 215–216, 238
 - “middle powers” and, 199
 - mutual assessment process, 234
 - poorest members, 238–243
 - power-based analyses, 213
 - “premier forum”, 193–196, 213
 - progress reports, 215
 - purpose of, 204, 243–244
 - reforms, 193, 214, 223
 - reforms continuing, 234
 - rising vs. declining states, 243–244
 - Secretariat, 197
 - Seoul Development Consensus, 199, 201, 239
 - sherpas, 197
 - surplus vs. deficit countries, 200
 - voting as egalitarian, 195–196, 212
 - voting power: GDP ratios, 153–154
 - working groups, 197, 199
 - World Bank client shares, 168–169
 - World Bank share formula, 171
 - World Bank voting realignment, 164–166, 188
 - World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172
- G24 on World Bank leadership, 234
- G7
 - G20 emerging versus, 112–113
 - G20 similarities, 201
 - G20 supplanting, 193, 194–195
 - IMF and Asian financial crisis, 123
 - IMF GDP PPP, 129
- GATT. See General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade
- GDP (gross domestic product)
 - analysis of. See quantitative analysis of quota shifts
 - G20 emerging vs. G7, 112
 - G20 foreign aid and, 243
 - G20 membership, 204–205
 - Great Recession resilience, 115
 - growth figures, 115
 - IMF ad hoc quota increase, 127
 - IMF GDP blend, 181–182, 230
 - IMF quota formula reform, 124–125, 126, 129–132

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-12094-5 - Power and Global Economic Institutions

Ayse Kaya

Index

More information276 Index

- GDP (gross domestic product) (cont.)
 IMF Quota Formula Review Group, 124
 IMF staff and GDP PPP, 143–144
 market exchange vs. PPP, 124–125, 129, 166–167
 voting power:GDP ratios, 153–154
 World Bank at PPP, 166–167
- Geithner, Timothy
 G20 imbalances, 200
 IMF reforms, 134–135, 137
 World Bank focus, 177
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT; 1947)
 escape clause, 96, 97
 history of, 86, 90
- Germany
 G20 imbalances, 200
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 World Bank Executive Board, 189
- Gilpin, Robert, 3, 21, 24 global economic governance, 227–228 global financial crisis. See Asian financial crisis; Great Recession
- Great Britain. See United Kingdom
- Great Recession
 China as EU investor, 114 developing countries as category, 117–118 emerging vs. poorest economies, 117 financial crisis prevention, 114
 formal political power, 223
 G20 quick action, 234
 G20 reforms, 193
 G20 vs. G7, 194–195
 IMF reforms, 121, 141–142
 institution survival, 227–228 institutional change and, 223 resilience of economies, 115
 US origins, 2
 World Bank capital increase, 232
 World Bank lending during, 184, 237
 World Bank staff, 185
- Greece IMF quota formula, 61
 gross domestic product. See GDP
- Hawkes, Albert, 107
- Hu Jintao, 194, 202
- IBRD. See International Bank for Reconstruction and Development
- ICC (International Chamber of Commerce), 108
- IDA. See International Development Association
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund
- India
 exports vs. US, 113
 G20 economic development, 201
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129, 130, 166–167
 Great Recession and, 115
 IBRD financing IDA, 178–179
 IBRD products, 176
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128
 IMF New Arrangements to Borrow, 78
 IMF quota formula, 61
 IMF quota re-adjustment, 156
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 poverty, 118, 182
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank leadership, 234
- Indonesia
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 IMF and Asian financial crisis, 122
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
- informal political power
 abstract, 31
 accommodation of rising states, 31 formal versus, 224–225, See also formal political power structural power and, 224–225
 US in ITO design, 89, 92–93
 US increase in, 247
 World Trade Organization, 92
- institutional funding
 accommodation of rising states, 29–30, 36–37
 “bang for the buck”, 247–248 economic power distribution, 7–8
 formal political power, 10–11, 36
 IDA funding, 170, 178–181
 IMF funding, 137–138, See also quotas in IMF
 IMF reforms, 120, 137–139
 International Trade Organization, 102
 ITO vs. IMF and World Bank, 88 purposes and, 37
 US congressional funding, 10–11, 32–33, 225–226 voting rights and, 36

- World Bank, 57–58
- World Bank borrower representation, 169
- World Bank burden sharing, 160–161
- World Bank vs. IMF, 57–58
- institutional legitimacy
 - accommodation of rising states, 45–46
 - IMF crisis of, 45, 122–123
 - input vs. output, 45
 - normative quality of, 45–46
 - poorest states served, 238
 - US influence, 247, 248–249
 - World Bank, 158, 190–192
- institutional rules
 - accommodation of rising states, 30–31, 37–40
 - IMF “formal governance”, 53, 63, 68
 - IMF reforms, 53, 120, 123–128, 132–133
 - inertia against change, 222
 - path dependency of change, 27, 39–40
 - power and, 8, 22–23
 - quotas in IMF, 53, 123–128
 - rational design theory, 22–23
 - World Bank reforms, 161, 181–183, 185–186, 190
 - World Bank staff, 185–186
- institutional structure
 - funding. See institutional funding
 - G20 as delegatory, 196, 206–212
 - G20 as egalitarian, 195–196, 197–203
 - G20 informality, 203–206
 - literature on, 8–9, 196–197
 - voting. See voting power
- institutionalist analyses
 - adjusted power approach vs., 47, 49–50
 - China formal political power, 218–219
 - G20 accommodation, 213–214
 - indeterminacy of, 220
 - ITO voting equality, 88
 - power asymmetries, 22–23, 24–25, 47, 218
 - RDT. See rational design theory
- institutions
 - accommodation. See accommodation of rising states
 - autonomy of, 46–47, 244
 - cooperation over power, 5, 24
 - funding of. See institutional funding
 - Great Recession and, 223
 - key features of, 22–23
 - lag in reforms, 3–4, 6, 8, 24–25, 49
 - legitimacy of, 45–46. See also institutional legitimacy
 - literature on rise of states, 9
 - non-leading state intentions, 44
 - political power. See formal political power; informal political power
 - power stabilized by, 5, 6–7, 38
 - purposes and power, 7, 33–36
 - reforms continuing, 228–235
 - representation. See representation in institutions
 - “restraint” by dominant states, 4, 5, 6, 24–25, 32, 88, 94
 - rising states and, 222–224
 - rules and power, 8, 21–24. See also institutional rules
 - security institutions, 227
 - state categorization, 117–118
 - structure of. See institutional structure
 - tensions within, 235–249
 - two-level analysis, 109, 225
 - US influence in future, 247–249
 - voting rights. See voting power
 - weak states’ larger share, 4
- International Accounting Standards Board, 208
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD)
 - country systems, 176–177
 - formula for shareholding, 171
 - funding burden sharing, 179–181
 - funding of, 7–8, 36–37, 57
 - IDA financing, 178–181, 187
 - as knowledge base, 175, 176, 246
 - loan prices, 169–170, 176, 177–178, 187, 191
 - middle-income country products, 176–177
 - poorest vs. rising states, 160–161
 - public funds versus, 175–176
 - rising and declining state tensions, 245
 - rising states and IDA, 187, 245–246
 - survival of, 174–175
 - World Bank borrower representation, 169
 - World Bank client shares, 168–169
 - World Bank limited accommodation, 174–178
 - World Bank rising states, 187
- International Development Association (IDA)
 - advanced economies funding of, 170, 190, 191
 - emerging economies funding of, 187
 - funding and decision making, 161, 170–171, 190, 191
 - governance of, 180
 - IBRD financing of, 178–181, 187
 - lending during Great Recession, 237–238

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-12094-5 - Power and Global Economic Institutions

Ayse Kaya

Index

More information278 Index

- IDA (cont.)
 rising and declining state tensions, 245–246
 World Bank borrower representation, 169
 World Bank rising states, 187
 International Monetary and Financial Committee (IMFC), 205 International Monetary Fund (IMF).
See also quotas in IMF balance of payment, 105–106
 basic votes, 61–62, 99, 118–119, 121, 145–151, 188 basic votes by Executive Director, 146 capital controls, 156, 230–231
 centrality in economy, 51
 consensus reality, 11
 creation intentions, 54–55, 58–59 developing countries' voices, 51–52, 123
 distributional conflicts, 42
 escape clause, 97–98
 exchange rate restrictions, 104
 Executive Board, 118, 119, 127–128, 138, 140, 149, 221, 233 financial crisis insurance, 135
 financial crisis prevention, 114, 122
 Financial Sector Assessment, 206, 211
 Flexible Credit Line, 228–229, 237 formal governance, 53
 formal political power, 10
 formula for voting, 61–62
 formulae for quotas, 60–61, 63–66, 74 formulae for quotas reformed, 118, 123–125, 127, 129–132, 151–152, 230 forum shopping, 135–137 funding and reforms, 120, 137–139 funding methods, 8, 137–138
 G20 delegation, 206, 208, 211–212, 234
 G20 ex-officio membership, 205
 G20 versus, 195–196
 General Arrangements to Borrow (GAB), 78
 high access precautionary arrangements, 228
 IMF's quota, 53, 64, 119, 120, 127
 informal governance, 53
 ITO-IMF linkage, 104, 105–106
 leadership post-reform, 233–234 legitimacy crisis, 45, 122–123, 238 lending programs, 236–237 loan conditions, 122–123, 236
 Mutual Assessment Process (MAP), 206, 211
 New Arrangements to Borrow (NAB), 78
 poorest members, 235–237
 Poverty Reduction and Growth Facility, 236
 Poverty Reduction and Growth Trust, 236
 Precautionary Credit Line, 228–229
 purpose of, 238
 quota adjustment, 11, 16, See also quotas in IMF quota shift quantitative analysis, 68–70
 Rapid Credit Facility (RCF), 236–237
 reforms, 2–3, 5–6, 12, 118–121, 125–127 reforms and accountability, 133–137, 244 reforms and formal political power, 118–121, 123–127, 245 reforms and funding, 120 reforms and G20, 199
 reforms and Great Recession, 121, 141–142, 223 reforms and IMF purpose, 133–139 reforms and poorest countries, 145–146 reforms and rules, 120 reforms continuing, 228–232 reforms discontent, 151–155 reforms vs. World Bank, 172 rising and declining state tensions, 244–245
 risk of commitment, 59–60
 Special Drawing Rights, 231–232 special majorities, 140–141
 staff as autonomous, 220–222 staff diversity, 156–157
 staff roles, 66, 67, 81
 staff roles in reform, 121, 142–145, 221
 Stand-By Agreements, 228
 Standby Credit Facility (SCF), 236–237 stigma of borrowing, 229
 US control, 1–2
 US dollars only, 93
 voting power:GDP ratios, 153–154
 Washington Consensus, 51
 weighted voting, 2, 56, 58, 59–60
 within-group divisions, 157
 World Bank differences, 56–60
 World Bank linkage, 181–183
 World Bank membership, 59
 World Bank share basis, 161, 163–164, 166
 International Organization of Securities Commission, 207 international political economy, 12–13 international relations domestic politics interaction, 225–226 economic vs. political power, 3–4 institutions and rising states, 222–224 power and institutional design, 218
 two-level analysis, 109, 225

- International Trade Organization (ITO).
See also equal voting of ITO balance of payments, 104–106, 110 bureaucracy limited, 102 Charter ratification, 86, 90, 108 creation intentions, 87–88, 90, 100
 economic development, 104 equal voting abstract, 86–89, See also equal voting of ITO equal voting of ITO
 escape clause, 96–98
 Executive Board, 91, 92
 full employment, 104 funding and equal voting, 88
 funding of, 102
 GATT origins, 90
 history of, 86, 104–109
 ITO-IMF linkage, 104, 105–106
 most-favored-nation rule, 101 quantitative restrictions on trade, 104
 special majority, 98, 108
 US design intentions, 100–103 voting equal, 2, See also equal voting of ITO
- Iran
 G20 membership, 204–205
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF quota formula, 61
 IMF staff influence, 144
- Italy
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF GDP PPP, 130
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 IMF reforms and accountability, 134
- ITO. See International Trade Organization
- Japan
 Chiang Mai Initiative, 136
 GDP growth figures, 115
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 IMF staff influence, 145
 IMF vote reform, 126–127
 World Bank reforms, 164–166
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172
- Joint Statement (UK–US), 55
- Keynes, John M., 110
- Kim, Jim Yong, 191–192, 233, 234
- Kirshner, J., 21–22, 24
- Korea constituency
 G20 Secretariat, 197
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
- Lagarde, Christine
 IBRD loan price increase, 169
 IDA burden sharing, 180
 IMF leadership, 233
 World Bank representation, 186–187
- Lamy, Pascal, 242
- Le Fort, Guillermo, 129
- least developed countries (LDCs)
 IMF vote reform, 126–127
 World Bank reforms and voting power, 164–166, 188
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172–173
- Lee Myung-bak, 242
- legitimacy. See institutional legitimacy
- Lim, Wonhyuk, 202–203, 242
- limited accommodation declining state tendency, 31–33, 42–43, 224
 definition, 222
 distributional conflicts, 42–44
 domestic pressure for, 10–11, 32–33, 225–226
 G20 as not limited, 194–195
 “restraint” by dominant states, 4, 5, 6, 24–25, 32
 World Bank and adjusted power approach, 174–183, 189
 World Bank IBRD, 174–178
 World Bank reforms, 160–161, 166–172, 190
 World Bank reforms and poorest countries, 187–189
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172, 189
- low-income countries
 as category of state, 117–118
 G20 foreign aid, 242–243
 G20 membership, 238–239
 G20 trade finance, 239–242
 Great Recession recovery, 117
 IDA lending to, 237–238
 IMF lending to, 236–237
 IMF quota adjustments, 149–150
 IMF reforms, 121, 123, 145–146, 235, 237
 IMF vote reform, 126–127, 150, 165–166
 institutional legitimacy, 238
 poverty, 117–118
 private capital access, 117
 World Bank and IMF members, 235–238
 World Bank basic votes, 162–163
 World Bank default on loans, 174, 246

280 Index

- low-income countries (cont.)
 World Bank focus, 177–178, 182–183, 191, 233
 World Bank lending to, 175
 World Bank reforms, 160, 162, 165, 187–189, 235–236
 World Bank voting realignment, 165–166, 188, 235
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172–173
- Luxembourg
 ITO equal voting, 94–95
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
- Mantega, Guido
 IBRD financing IDA, 179
 IBRD share formula, 171
 IMF forum shopping, 136
- Medvedev, Dmitry, 193–194 methodology of book analysis, 13–16
- Mexico
 G20 economic development, 201, 202
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 IMF credit line, 229
 IMF quota ad hoc increase, 70, 125
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank client shares, 168–169
- Miceli, Felisa, 135–136
- Mikesell, Raymond, 60
- Millikin, Eugene, 106–107
- Mirakhor, Abbas, 144
- Montenegro IMF credit line, 229
- most-favored-nation (MFN) rule, 101
- multilateral institutions. See G20; institutions; International Monetary Fund; International Trade Organization; World Bank
- negotiation
 IMF quotas, 11, 66, 67, 72, 120
 IMF's quota, 53, 64
 ITO as platform for, 87–88, 100
 ITO history, 86, 104–109
 ITO inter-state, 87, 90–92
 two-level analysis, 109, 225
- Netherlands
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 ITO equal voting, 94–95
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
- New Zealand IMF quota, 61
- NFTC (National Foreign Trade Council), 108
- Nigeria World Bank leadership, 191–192, 233–234
- normative concerns
 IMF reforms, 119–120, 145–146
 ITO equal voting, 99–100
 legitimacy of institution, 45–46
 US in institution creation, 80
- Obama, Barack, 193, 234
- Ocampo, José Antonio, 191–192, 233–234
- OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development), 79
- Okonjo-Iweala, Ngozi, 191–192, 233–234
- Padoan, Pier Carlo, 130
- Pado-Schioppa, Tommaso, 134
- path dependency of change, 27, 39–40
- Polak, Jacques, 64
- Poland IMF credit line, 229
- political power. See formal political power;
 informal political power
- poorest countries
 as category of state, 117–118
 G20 foreign aid, 242–243
 G20 membership, 238–239
 G20 trade finance, 239–242
 Great Recession, 117
 IDA lending to, 237–238
 IMF lending to, 236–237
 IMF quota adjustments, 149–150
 IMF reforms, 121, 123, 145–146, 235–236, 237
 IMF vote reform, 127, 150, 165–166
 institutional legitimacy, 238
 poverty, 117–118
 private capital access, 117
 World Bank and IMF members, 235–238
 World Bank basic votes, 162–163
 World Bank default on loans, 174, 246
 World Bank focus, 177–178, 182–183, 191, 233
 World Bank lending to, 175
 World Bank reforms, 160, 162, 165, 187–189, 235
 World Bank voting realignment, 165–166, 188, 235
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172–173
- poverty, 117–118, 247
- power adjusted power definition, 7, See also
 adjusted power approach cooperation dominates, 5, 24 economic power. See economic power economic vs. political, 3–4 institutional purposes and, 7, 33–36

- institutional rules and, 8, 22–23
- institutions stabilizing, 5, 6–7, 38
- multiple equilibria of, 34
- political. See formal political power; informal political power
- structural and informal political power, 224–225
- US dominance, 1–2, 4–5, 158, 199–200, 204–205
- US perpetuation, 9, 10–11, 32–33
- weighted vs. equal voting, 2
- power-based analyses
 - adjusted power approach vs., 47, 49–50
 - China formal political power, 218
 - G20 accommodation, 213
 - indeterminacy of, 220
 - ITO voting equality, 89, 98–99
 - power asymmetries, 21–22, 24, 47–49, 218
- Purchasing Power Parity (PPP)
 - accommodation of rising states, 129
 - IMF ad hoc quota increase, 127
 - IMF GDP blend, 181–182, 230
 - IMF quota formula reform, 124–125, 126, 129–132
 - IMF staff and GDP PPP, 143–144
 - market exchange rates versus, 124–125, 129, 166–167
 - poverty, 117–118
 - World Bank GDP at PPP, 166–167
- quantitative analysis of quota shifts
 - club of lenders, 76, 78
 - credit lines, 76
 - dataset, 68–69
 - democracy level of member, 79
 - “developing countries”, 73
 - estimation model, 71
 - future research, 80–82
 - General Arrangements to Borrow (GAB), 76, 78
 - New Arrangements to Borrow (NAB), 76–78
 - quota formulae, 70
 - results, 71–73
 - robustness of, 73–76
 - UN General Assembly voting, 78
 - UN Security Council membership, 78
 - US aid, 71
 - US proximity, 69–70, 73
 - US trade, 71, 72, 76, 78
 - variable descriptions, 70
- quotas in IMF
 - abstract, 52
 - ad hoc increases, 70, 71, 125, 127
 - adjustment determinants, 63–66
 - adjustment for developing countries, 63
 - adjustment overview, 11, 16
 - adjustment politics, 54, 66, 162
 - analysis of. See quantitative analysis of quota shifts
 - asymmetry of and weighted voting, 55–56, 61–62
 - Bretton Woods Formula, 64–66
 - creation disputes, 60–61
 - “formal governance” of IMF, 53, 63, 68
 - as formal political power, 62
 - formula for voting, 61–62
 - formulae for quotas, 60–61, 63–66, 74, 118
 - formulae for quotas reformed, 118, 123–126, 127, 129–132, 151–152
 - General Arrangements to Borrow (GAB), 78
 - IMF funding methods, 137–138
 - IMF reforms and poorest countries, 149–150
 - IMF reforms in quota distribution, 125–127
 - IMF reforms per rules, 53, 120, 123–128, 132–133
 - IMF’s quota, 53, 64, 119, 120, 125, 127
 - lending and, 78
 - New Arrangements to Borrow (NAB), 78
 - population of member state, 72, 74, 75
 - Quota Formula Review Group, 124
 - review summary, 63
 - scrutiny and debate, 53–54, 67, 120
 - selective increases, 66–67, 127
 - short-term loan basis, 56, 74
 - special increases, 66–67
 - US influence implications, 53, 67–68
 - US influence unexplored, 52–53, 81
 - US veto power, 53–54, 68
 - World Bank adjustment equivalent, 80
 - World Bank share basis, 161
- rational design theory (RDT)
 - adjusted power approach vs., 33–36
 - China formal political power, 219
 - “importance” and control, 23–24
 - ITO micro- and macro-purpose, 88, 110
 - ITO voting power distribution, 88, 93–96
 - key features of institutions, 22–23
 - reforms and institutional change, 25
 - voting rules, 14–15
- representation in institutions
 - asymmetry of dominant states, 2

282 Index

- representation in institutions (cont.)
 developing countries on boards, 51–52, 119, 140, 159, 183, 189, 235
 as formal political power, 9
 G20 lack, 204–205, 215–216, 238
 IMF and developing countries, 51–52,
 123
 IMF Executive Board, 119, 127–128, 140
 IMF legitimacy crisis, 122
 IMF reforms, 63, 118–121, 123
 ITO creation debate, 90–92
 poorest members, 235, 238
 World Bank borrowers, 169
 World Bank voices, 186–187
 World Bank weighted voting, 55
 “restraint” by dominant states
 accommodation of rising states, 32
 IMF quota reforms, 126
 ITO equal voting, 88, 94
 multilateral institutions, 4, 5, 6, 24–25 rising states. See also emerging economies accommodation of, 29–31, See also accommodation of rising states
 capital controls, 156 declining state tensions, 225–226, 243–247
 distributional gains, 43, 44
 G20 as egalitarian, 195–196
 G20 emerging vs. G7, 112–113
 Great Recession and, 115
 IBRD financing IDA, 178–181, 187,
 191, 226–227
 IBRD loan price increase, 169–170
 IMF autonomy, 155–156, 244
 IMF financial burden sharing, 137–139
 IMF forum shopping, 135–137
 IMF reform quota discrepancies, 154–155
 IMF reforms, 118–121, 151–156 institutions and, 9, 222–224 literature on, 9
 poorest states and, 243
 rising importance of, 115–116
 World Bank borrower representation,
 169
 World Bank client shares, 168–169
 World Bank default on loans, 174
 World Bank limited accommodation,
 160–162, 166–167
 World Bank position enhancement,
 186–189
 World Bank share formula, 171
 World Bank voting realignment, 188,
 235–236
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172, 189,
 229–230
- rules of institutions. See institutional rules
- Russia
 exports vs. US, 113
 foreign exchange reserves, 122–123
 G20 institution, 193–194
 G20 membership, 204
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129,
 166–167
 IBRD loan price, 169–170
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128
 IMF New Arrangements to Borrow, 78
 IMF quota re-adjustment, 156
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank leadership, 234
- Rwanda foreign aid, 243
- Sarkozy, Nicholas, 195
- Saudi Arabia
 G20 membership, 204
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 IBRD share formula, 171
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 lending and IMF quota, 78
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank vote realignment, 170
- security institutions, 227
- sources for book analysis, 16
- South Africa
 G20 economic development, 201
 G20 membership, 205
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
- South Korea
 Chiang Mai Initiative, 136
 G20 foreign aid, 242
 G20 Seoul Development Consensus,
 199, 201, 239
 G20 vs. G7, 195
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 IMF and Asian financial crisis, 122
 IMF quota ad hoc increase, 70, 125
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
- Soviet Union
 Cold War and ITO equal voting, 89,
 98–99
 IMF quota formula, 60

- Spain
 G20 membership, 204, 205
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 Special Drawing Rights, 231–232
 Strauss-Kahn, Dominique, 233 structural and informal political powers, 224–225 structure of institutions. See institutional structure
 Sub-Saharan Africa
 IMF vote reform, 126–127
 World Bank Executive Board, 159, 183, 189, 235
 World Bank focus, 233
 World Bank reforms, 164–166, 188, 235–236
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172–173
 Sweden IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 Switzerland
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 Turkey
 G20 economic development, 201–202
 as G20 “middle power”, 199
 GDP growth figures, 115
 GDP PPP vs. market exchange, 129
 IMF quota ad hoc increase, 70, 125
 IMF reform quota discrepancies, 154
 voting power:GDP ratio, 153–154
 World Bank client shares, 168–169
 two-level analysis, 109, 225
 United Kingdom (UK)
 G20 bankers’ remuneration, 200
 G20 reforms, 193, 194–195
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128, 140
 IMF quota formula, 60
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 IMF voting formula, 61–62
 ITO weighted voting, 91, 94, 95, 99, 106
 Joint Statement, 55
 World Bank Executive Board, 189
 United Nations (UN)
 G20 ex-officio membership, 205
 Monterrey Conference, 158
 UN General Assembly
 US normative concerns, 99–100 voting similarity with US, 78
 UN Security Council, 78
 United States (US)
 Congress. See US Congress congressional funding, 10–11, 32–33 exports and institution creation, 55
 Financial Sector Assessment, 211
 G20 bankers’ remuneration, 200
 G20 domination, 199–200, 204–205
 G20 economic development, 203
 G20 imbalances, 200
 G20 institution, 193
 G20 reforms, 193, 195
 GDP growth figures, 115
 Great Recession, 2
 hegemony end, 1
 IBRD financing IDA, 178
 IMF and World Bank favoritism, 41–42, 81
 IMF basic votes by ED, 146
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128, 140
 IMF foreign exchange reserves, 131
 IMF funding, 138–139
 IMF GDP PPP, 130
 IMF quota adjustments, 52–53, 67–68
 IMF quota formula, 60
 IMF quota influence analysis, 68–70
 IMF quota reforms, 126
 IMF quotas and proximity to, 69–70, 73
 IMF quotas calculated vs. actual, 154–155
 IMF reforms and accountability, 134–135, 244
 IMF reforms and funding, 137
 IMF veto power, 53–54, 68, 140
 IMF vote reform, 126–127
 IMF voting formula, 61–62
 influence in future, 247–249
 ITO and domestic policy, 225
 ITO Charter ratification, 86, 90, 108
 ITO creation intentions, 90, 100–103
 ITO equal voting, 86–89, 91, 92, 98
 ITO escape clause, 96–97
 ITO weighted voting, 91–92, 98, 104–109
 Joint Statement, 55
 normative concerns, 80, 99–100 power distribution needed, 4–5 power perpetuation, 9, 10–11, 32–33
 as problem not solution, 249 “restrictive business practices,” 102 veto power, 53–54, 68, 140, 172, 248–249 voting power losses, 248–249
 Washington Consensus, 51
 World Bank control, 1–2, 158, 191–192, 233
 World Bank Executive Board, 191
 World Bank focus, 177–178
 World Bank reforms and voting power, 164–166
 World Bank veto power, 172, 248
 World Bank vs. IMF reforms, 172

284 Index

- US. See United States
- US Congress
 funding and voting shares, 10–11, 32–33, 225–226
 IMF appropriations bill, 138
 IMF escape clause, 97–98
 ITO Charter ratification, 86
 ITO equal voting, 106–107
 ITO escape clause, 96–97
 US formal political power, 225–226, 248–249
- variable descriptions for quantitative analysis, 70
- Voice Secondment Program, 183
- voting power accommodation and, 116 basic votes of IMF and Bank, 61–62, 99, 118–119, 121, 145–151, 159, 161, 162–163, 182–183, 188
 distributional conflicts, 42 financial contributions and, 36
 as formal political power, 9, 10, 61
 funding and voting design, 103
 G20 as egalitarian, 195–196
 IMF and Asian financial crisis, 123
 IMF Executive Board, 127–128, 140
 IMF quotas, 52, 60–62
 IMF reforms, 118–121, 125–127
 IMF reforms and G20, 141
 IMF reforms discontent, 152–154
 IMF weighted voting. See weighted voting
 ITO equal voting. See equal voting of ITO ITO special majority, 98 parity and disparity, 170 poorest countries and reforms, 121, 235–236
 power perpetuation, 32–33
 rational design theory, 35
 US losses in, 248–249
 voting power: GDP ratios, 153–154
 weighted vs. equal voting, 2, See also equal voting of ITO; weighted voting World Bank realignment, 159–160, 164–166, 170, 188
 World Bank vs. IMF shifts, 172
 World Bank weighted voting. See weighted voting
- War and Change* (Gilpin), 3
- weighted voting
 asymmetric quotas, 55–56
 basic votes, 61–62, 99, 118–119, 121, 145–151, 159, 161, 162–163, 182–183, 188
 creation disputes, 52, 55–56, 60 different entities, same voting, 58, 59–60 origins of, 54–60, 61–62
- White, Harry Dexter
 IMF and World Bank intentions, 54–55, 59–60
 IMF quota formula, 60
 quotas and weighted voting, 55
- Wilcox, Clair
 ITO Charter signatory, 90
 ITO voting bloc fluidity, 101
 ITO weighted voting, 107
 ITO-IMF linkage, 104, 105–106
- World Bank
 basic votes, 61–62, 99, 159, 161, 162–163, 182–183, 188 capital increases, 163, 179, 183–184, 232 centrality in economy, 51 client shares, 167–169
 consensus reality, 11
 Country Policy and Institutional Assessments, 237 creation intentions, 54–55, 58–59
 default on loans, 174 development contributions, 167
 distributional conflicts, 42
 Executive Board, 159, 189, 191, 221, 233
 Financial Sector Assessment, 206, 211
 formal political power, 10 formula for shares, 163–166, 167–169, 171, 181–182 funding and representation, 169
 funding burden sharing, 160–161, 179–181 funding IDA via IBRD, 178–181
 funding of, 36–37
 G20 delegation, 206, 209, 211–212
 G20 ex-officio membership, 205
 G20 versus, 195–196
 general capital increases (GCI), 163, 179, 183–184
 Great Recession and, 232
 High Level Commission report, 158–159
 IBRD. See International Bank for Reconstruction and Development
 IDA. See International Development Association
 IMF differences, 56–60, 190
 IMF linkage, 181–183
 IMF member quotas, 52

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-12094-5 - Power and Global Economic Institutions

Ayse Kaya

Index

More informationIndex

285

- IMF members only, 59
- IMF quota formula for shares, 161, 163–164, 166
- as knowledge base, 175, 176, 246
- legitimacy crisis, 45, 158, 238
- lending during Great Recession, 184
- lending to less poor, 174
- lending to poorest, 174, 237–238, 246
- loan guarantee intentions, 56–57
- parallel share adjustments, 80
- poorest countries per, 126
- poorest members, 237–238
- population and loans, 174
- President change, 191–192, 233–234
- purpose of, 33, 191, 232–233, 238, 246
- reforms abstract, 158–162
- reforms and Great Recession, 183–185, 223
- reforms and poorest countries, 162, 165, 187–189
- reforms continuing, 232–233
- reforms' limited accommodation, 160–161, 166–167
- reforms overview, 2–3, 5–6, 12, 162–166
- reforms via rules, 181–183, 185–186, 190
- reforms vs. IMF, 172
- representation of borrowers, 169
- rising and declining state tensions, 245–247
- rising states and IDA, 187, 245–246
- risk of commitment, 59–60
- selective capital increases (SCI), 163, 179, 183–184
- staff as autonomous, 220–222
- staff roles in reform, 162, 185–186, 221
- survival of, 174–175
- triple-A rating, 179, 246
- US control, 1–2, 158
- US funding vs. IMF, 138–139
- US veto power, 172, 248
- Voice Secondment Program, 183
- voting realignment, 159–160, 170
- Washington Consensus, 51
- weighted voting, 2, 56, 58, 59–60
- World Trade Organization
 - Doha Development Agenda, 239
 - escape clause, 96
 - G20 ex-officio membership, 205
 - history of, 86
 - informal political power, 92
- Zedillo, Ernesto, 158–159
- Zoellick, Robert
 - as career civil servant, 234
 - departure of, 191–192, 233
 - World Bank capital increase, 185
 - World Bank legitimacy, 158